UNITED STATES STANDARDS[1] FOR GRADES OF FROZEN BROCCOLI

On April 20, 1950, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 2219) regarding a proposed revision of the United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Broccoli. After consideration of all relevant matters including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following revised United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Broccoli are hereby promulgated under the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1950 (Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong., approved June 29, 1949):

§ 52.194 Frozen broccoli. "Frozen broccoli" is prepared from the fresh, headed stalks or shoots of the broccoli plant (Brassica oleracea botrytis) by trimming, washing, and blanching and is frozen and stored at temperatures necessary for preservation of the product.

(a) Styles of frozen broccoli. (1) "Stalks" is the style that consists of the head and adjoining portions of the stem and attached leaves. Stalks that are cut longitudinally (including, but not limited to, quarters or halves) are considered as this style.

(2) "Cuts" or "Cut Broccoli" is the style that consists of portions cut from stalks with not less than 35 percent by weight of the broccoli that is head material.[2] "Head material" consists of buds or bud clusters whether or not attached to stalks or portions of stalks and includes such stalks or portions thereof. Units that possess practically no buds are not considered as head material.

(3) "Pieces" is the style that consists of any cut portions of stalks and that does not meet the foregoing definition for "Cuts" or "Cut Broccoli".

(b) Grades of frozen broccoli. (1) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of frozen broccoli that possesses similar varietal characteristics; that possesses a good color; that is practically free from defects; that possesses good character; that possesses a good flavor and odor; and is of such quality with respect to uniformity of size as to score not less than 85 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(2) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Extra Standard" is the quality of frozen broccoli that possesses similar varietal characteristics; that possesses a reasonably good color; that is reasonably free from defects; that possesses a reasonably good character; that possesses a fairly good flavor and odor; and is of such quality with respect to uniformity of size as to score not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(3) "U. S. Grade D" or "Substandard" is the quality of frozen broccoli that fails to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard.

(c) Ascertaining the grade. (1) The grade of frozen broccoli may be ascertained by considering, in conjunction with the requirements of the respective grade, the respective ratings for the factors of color, uniformity of size, absence of defects, and character. The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given for such factors are:

Factors:	Points
(i) Color	20
(ii) Uniformity of size	20
(iii) Absence of defects	20
(iv) Character	40
Total score	100

(2) The scores for the factors of color, uniformity of size, absence of defects, and character with respect to development are determined immediately after thawing to the extent that the product is substantially free from ice crystals and can be handled as individual units. The degree of tenderness and freedom from fiber and flavor and odor are determined after the product is cooked.

(3) "Good flavor and odor" means that the product after cooking has a good, characteristic, normal flavor and odor and is free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

(4) "Fairly good flavor and odor" means that the product after cooking may be lacking in good flavor and odor but is free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

(d) Ascertaining the rating for the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for such factors and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "17 to 20 points" means 17, 18, 19, or 20 points).

(1) Color. (i) Frozen broccoli that possesses a good color may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Good color" means that the frozen broccoli possesses a characteristic green color which may include lighter colored areas typical of young and tender broccoli that do not materially affect the appearance of the product.

(ii) If the frozen broccoli possesses a reasonably good color, a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. Frozen broccoli that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good color" means that the frozen broccoli possesses a characteristic green color which may be variable but is not off color.

(iii) Frozen broccoli that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(2) Uniformity of size. (i) "Diameter" of a stalk, whether or not cut longitudinally, means the greatest cross-wise dimension measured 1 inch above the lowest portion of the main stem of the stalk at approximate right angles to the length.

(ii) Frozen broccoli that is practically uniform in size may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Practically uniform in size" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles:

Stalks. The longest stalk does not exceed the shortest stalk by more than 2 inches and in the 90 percent, by count, of stalks which have the most uniform lengths, the length of the longest stalk does not exceed the length of the shortest stalk by moré than 1 inch; and the diameter of the stalk with the greatest diameter does not exceed the diameter of the stalk with the shortest diameter by more than 1 inch and in the 90 percent, by count, of stalks which have the most uniform diameters, the diameter of the stalk with the greatest diameter does not exceed the diamcter of the stalk with the shortest diameter by more than ¾ inch.

Cuts; pieces. Not more than 5 percent, by weight, of the units may be longer than 2 inches.

(iii) If the frozen broccoli is reasonably uniform in size, a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. "Reasonably uniform in size" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles:

Stalks. In the 90 percent, by count, of stalks which have the most uniform lengths, the length of the longest stalk does not exceed the length of the shortest stalk by more than 2 inches; and in the 90 percent, by count, of stalks which have the most uniform diameters, the diameter of the stalk with the greatest diameter does not exceed the diameter of the stalk with the shortest diameter by more than ¾ inch.

Cuts; pieces. Not more than 10 percent, by weight, of the units may be longer than 2½ inches.

(iv) Frozen broccoli that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(3) Absence of defects. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from grit, harmless extraneous materials, detached fragments, loose leaves, loose pieces of leaves, and poorly trimmed stalks; and from units that are damaged or seriously damaged.

(i) "Grit" means sand or other rough, hard particles of earthy sediment.

(ii) "Harmless extraneous material" means vegetable substances other than broccoli, such as weeds and grass and any portions thereof, that are harmless.

(iii) "Loose leaves and loose pieces of leaves" means leaves or pieces of leaves not attached to a unit.

[2] The amount of head material is determined by averaging the weight of the head material from all containers comprising the sample, provided no single container contains less than 25 percent by weight of head material.

(iv) "Detached fragments" means any detached portions of stalks including bud clusters, shattered materials, portions of stems without bud clusters regardless of size or length, and portions of stems with bud clusters, which portions are 2 inches or less in the greatest straight dimension.

(v) "Poorly trimmed" means that the appearance of the stalk is seriously affected by attached leaves and by ragged or partial trimming of the leaves, by ragged or partial removal of leaves, and poor cutting of the stem of the stalk.

(vi) "Damaged" means discoloration, mechanical injury, pathological injury, insect injury, hollow stems, pithy stems, or other injuries which, singly or in combination, on a unit or in a unit materially affect the appearance or eating quality of the unit.

(vii) "Seriously damaged" means damaged to such an extent that the appearance or eating quality of the unit is seriously affected.

(viii) Frozen broccoli that is practically free from defects may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Practically free from defects" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles:

Stalks. No grit that affects the appearance or eating quality may be present; not more than one piece of harmless extraneous material may be present for each 20 ounces of net weight; detached fragments, loose leaves, and loose pieces of leaves that do not materially affect the appearance may be present; and stalks that are poorly trimmed, damaged, or seriously damaged do not exceed 10 percent, by count, of all the stalks, but of such 10 percent, not more than one-half thereof, or not more than 5 percent by count of all the stalks, may be seriously damaged. One stalk in a single container is permitted to be poorly trimmed, damaged, or seriously damaged if such stalk exceeds the respective allowances of 10 percent or 5 percent, provided that in all containers comprising the sample such poorly trimmed, damaged, or seriously damaged stalks do not exceed an average of 10 percent, by count, but of such 10 percent average, not more than one-half thereof, or not more than an average of 5 percent, may be seriously damaged.

Cuts; pieces. No grit that affects the appearance or eating quality may be present; not more than one piece of harmless extraneous material may be present for each 20 ounces of net weight; loose leaves and loose pieces of leaves that do not materially affect the appearance may be present; and units that are damaged or seriously damaged do not exceed 8 percent, by weight, but of such 8 percent not more than one-half thereof, or not more than 4 percent, by weight, of all the units, may be seriously damaged.

(ix) If the frozen broccoli is reasonably free from defects, a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. Frozen broccoli that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles:

Stalks. No grit that affects the appearance or eating quality may be present; not more than two pieces of harmless extraneous material may be present for each 20 ounces of net weight; detached fragments, loose leaves, and loose pieces of leaves that do not materially affect the appearance may be present; and stalks that are poorly trimmed, damaged, or seriously damaged do not exceed 20 percent, by count, of all the stalks, but of such 20 percent, not more than one-half thereof, or not more than 10 percent, by count, of all the stalks, may be seriously damaged.

Cuts; pieces. No grit that affects the appearance or eating quality may be present; not more than two pieces of harmless extraneous material may be present for each 20 ounces of net weight, loose leaves and loose pieces of leaves that do not materially affect the appearance may be present; and units that are damaged or seriously damaged do not exceed 16 percent, by weight, but of such 16 percent, not more than one-half thereof, or not more than 8 percent, by weight, of all the units, may be seriously damaged.

(x) Frozen broccoli that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ix) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(4) Character. The factor of character refers to the degree of development and tenderness and to the degree of freedom from stringy, fibrous development.

(i) "Well developed" means that the branching bud clusters of the unit form a practically compact head, that the individual buds in the bud clusters are all practically closed, and that the immediate stems supporting the individual buds in the bud clusters show no more than slight elongation.

(ii) "Reasonably well developed" means that the branching bud clusters of the unit may be spread or spreading; that the individual buds in the bud clusters may have reached a moderate stage of enlargement but practically none of the buds are in the flowered or open stage; and that the immediate stems supporting the individual buds in the bud clusters may be moderately elongated.

(iii) After the broccoli has been tested for development, the broccoli is cooked before making the determination for the degree of tenderness and the degree of freedom from fibrous development.

(iv) Frozen broccoli that possesses a good character may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Good character" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles:

Stalks. Not less than 80 percent, by count, of the stalks are well developed and the remainder are reasonably well developed; and all of the stalks are tender.

Cuts; pieces. The units are at least reasonably well developed; and the broccoli is tender.

(v) If the frozen broccoli possesses a reasonably good character, 28 to 33 points may be given. Frozen broccoli that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good character" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles:

Stalks. Not less than 90 percent, by count, of the stalks are at least reasonably well developed; the stalks are reasonably tender and practically free from stringy, fibrous development.

Cuts; pieces. Not less than 95 percent, by weight, of the bud clusters of the units are at least reasonably well developed; the broccoli is reasonably tender and practically free from stringy, fibrous development.

(vi) Frozen broccoli that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (v) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(e) Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (1) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of frozen broccoli, the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of such containers fails to meet all the requirements of the grade indicated by the average of such total scores, and, with respect to such containers which fail to meet the requirements of the indicated grade by reason of a limiting rule, the average score of all containers in the sample for the factor, subject to such limiting rule, is within the range for the grade indicated;

(ii) None of the containers comprising the sample falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores; and

(iii) All containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Lemon Reg. 336, Amdt. 1]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR, Part 953; 14 F. R. 3612), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice and engage in public rule-making procedure (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, is insufficient; and this amendment relieves restrictions on the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona.

Order, as amended. The provisions in paragraph (b) (1) (ii) of § 953.443 (Lemon Regulation 336, 15 F. R. 4078) are hereby amended to read as follows:

(ii) District 2: 675 carloads.

[Lemon Reg. 337]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 953.444 Lemon Regulation 337—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR, Part 953; 14 F. R. 3612), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on June 28, 1950, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 2, 1950, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 9, 1950, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 700 carloads;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2," and "District 3," shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

PART 957—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN IDAHO AND IN MALHEUR COUNTY, OREGON

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 957.306 Regulation No. 6—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 98 and Order No. 57, as amended (15 F. R. 311), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in certain designated counties in Idaho and in Malheur County, Oregon, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Idaho-Eastern Oregon Potato Committee established under said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of such potatoes, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impractical and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) shipments of potatoes grown in the production area will increase in volume on the effective date of this order; (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date hereinafter set forth; (iii) no special preparation will be required of handlers to comply with such regulation because such handlers are currently complying with a grade and size regulation (15 F. R. 1101, 3477) that is identical with the minimum grade and size permitted to be handled hereunder; and (iv) the time intervening between the date information necessary for the issuance of this section became available and the time such regulation must become effective to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., July 1, 1950, and ending 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., June 1, 1951, no handler shall ship potatoes of any variety unless (i) such potatoes are generally fairly clean (which means that 90 percent or more of the potatoes in any lot must be fairly clean), (ii) such potatoes of the Russett Burbank and Long White varieties meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 2 or better grade, and are at least 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight, and (iii) such potatoes of the red skin varieties meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 2 or better grade and are at least 1½ inches minimum diameter, as such terms, grades, and sizes are defined in the U. S. Standards for Potatoes (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), including the tolerances set forth therein.

(2) During the period beginning 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., July 1, 1950, and ending 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., November 1, 1950, no handler shall ship potatoes which do not comply with the aforesaid grade and size requirements and which are more than "moderately skinned," as such term is defined in the United States Standards for Potatoes (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), which means that not more than 10 percent of the potatoes in any lot have more than one-half of the skin missing or feathered: Provided, That one lot of not to exceed 200 hundredweight of potatoes of each producer may be handled without regard to the aforesaid skinning requirement if the handler thereof reports, prior to such handling, the name and address of the producer of such lot, and such lot is handled as an identifiable entity.

(3) The limitations set forth in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph shall not be applicable to shipments of potatoes for the following purposes: (i) Seed, (ii) export, (iii) sale to the Federal government under programs authorized by the Secretary of Agriculture, (iv) canning, dehydration, or manufacture or conversion into starch, flour, meal, and alcohol, and (v) livestock feed; Provided, That each handler, prior to making special purpose shipments pursuant hereto, shall file an application with the committee to do so, shall have each of such shipments (except shipments of seed potatoes) inspected, and shall pay assessments in connection therewith, and for each such shipment made pursuant to subdivisions (ii), (iv), and (v) of this subparagraph, shall furnish a copy of the bill of lading applicable thereto to the committee: Provided further, That each handler making shipments of potatoes pursuant to subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph shall include in his application applicable thereto, the export certificate number and shall enter such number on the Federal-State inspection certificate and bill of lading applicable to such shipment, and that each application to ship potatoes pursuant to subdivisions (iv) and (v) of this subparagraph shall be accompanied by the applicant handler's certification and the buyer's certification that the potatoes to be shipped are to be used for the purposes stated in the application.

(3) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Order No. 57 (7 CFR 957.1 et seq.).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c)

PART 961—MILK IN THE PHILADELPHIA, PA., MARKETING AREA

ORDER AMENDING ORDER, AS AMENDED, REGULATING HANDLING

§ 961.0 Findings and determinations. The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and each of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on April 19, 20, 21, 1950, and reopened at Philadelphia on May 10, 11, 12, 1950, upon a proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and all of the terms and conditions of said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply of and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest; and

(3) The said order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary to make the present amendment to said order, as amended, effective July 1, 1950, to reflect current marketing conditions. Any further delay in the effective date of this order, amending the said order, as amended, will seriously disrupt the orderly marketing of milk for the Philadalphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area. The changes effected by this order, amending the order, as amended, do not require of persons affected substantial or extensive preparation prior to the effective date. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found that good cause exists for making this order effective July 1, 1950 (see sec. 4 (c), Administrative Procedure Act 5 U. S. C. 1003 (c)).

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that handlers (excluding cooperative associations of producers who are not engaged in processing, distributing or shipping milk covered by this order, amending the order, as amended, which is marketed within the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area) of more than 50 percent of the milk which is marketed within the said marketing area, refused or failed to sign the proposed marketing agreement regulating the handling of milk in the said marketing area, and it is hereby further determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of such handlers to sign said proposed marketing agreement tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the act;

(2) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is the only practical means, pursuant to the declared policy of the act, of advancing the interests of producers of milk which is produced for sale in the said marketing area; and

(3) The issuance of this order amending the order, as amended, is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who participated in a referendum on the question of approval of this order amending the order, as amended, and who during the determined representative period (April 1950) were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the said marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area, shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as amended, and as hereby further amended, and the aforesaid order, as amended, is hereby further amended as follows:

1. In § 961.3 (b) (2) redesignate subdivision (ii) as (iii) and insert after subdivision (i) the following:

(ii) Milk dumped or disposed of for animal feed.

2. In § 961.4 (a) (1) delete the proviso "And provided further, That the price shall be at least $5.02 per hundredweight for each of the months of April, May, and June 1950," and substitute "And provided further, That the price shall be at least $5.24 per hundredweight for each of the months of July, August, and September 1950."

3. In § 961.4 delete (b) and substitute:

(b) Butterfat differential. (1) The Class I price shall be subject to a butterfat differential of 5 cents for each one-tenth of 1 percent variation above or below 4.0 percent.

(2) The Class II price shall be subject to a butterfat differential for each one-tenth of 1 percent variation above or below 4.0 percent, calculated as follows: Divide the average of the cream quotations used in calculating the Class II price by 334.8 and subtract 0.67 cents; or in the case of butterfat in Class II to which the "butter-value" is applicable, divide the butter value by 40.

4. Delete § 961.8 (e) and substitute:

(e) Additional deductions. In the case of milk received from producers at plants more than 11 miles from City Hall in Philadelphia, the handler may deduct from the payments otherwise specified in this section to be paid, 7 cents per hundredweight at plants 11 to 16 miles from the City Hall in Philadelphia, and an additional 2 cents per hundredweight for plants within each additional 5 miles in excess of 16 miles but less than 31 miles.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c)

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 27th day of June 1950, to be effective on and after the first day of July 1950.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

[Orange Reg. 334]

PART 966—ORANGES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 966.480 Orange Regulation 334—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of Order No. 66, as amended, (7 CFR Part 966; 14 F. R. 3614), regulating the handling of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such oranges which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Orange Administrative Committee on June 29, 1950, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State or Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 2, 1950, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 9, 1950, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate District No. 1: Unlimited movement;

(b) Prorate District No. 2: 1,400 carloads;

(c) Prorate District No. 3: Unlimited movement.

(ii) Oranges other than Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate District No. 1: No movement;

(b) Prorate District No. 2: Unlimited movement;

(c) Prorate District No. 3: No movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "varieties," "carloads," and "porate base" shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended order; and the terms "Porate District No. 1," "Prorate District No. 2," and "Prorate District No. 3" shall have the same meaning as given to the respective term in § 966.107 of the current rules and regulations (14 F. R. 6588) contained in this part.

Orange Regulation 332 (7 CFR 966.478 15 F. R. 3863) fixes the sizes of designated oranges which may be handled during the aforesaid period.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1950.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

Suchapter B—Economic Regulations

[Reg., Serial No. ER-157]

PART 234—TRANSPORTATION OF MAIL; PETITIONS FOR DETERMINATION OF RATES

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board, at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of June 1950.

Part 234 of the Economic Regulations provides that if the Board shall request the petitioner to supply it with additional information regarding a petition for the determination of rates of compensation for the transportation of mail, such information, except that furnished in formal proceedings, shall be furnished in the form of an amendment to the original petition. This requirement was adopted October 4, 1938, at a time when the Board itself was sitting en banc to hear mail rate cases. Recently, the Board established an informal mail rate conference procedure (Amendment No. 4 to Part 302 of the Procedural Regulations, § 302.19, Serial Number PR-5, adopted and effective December 20, 1949) whereby it is provided that additional information required by the Board's staff for processing mail rate cases under such procedure may be requested by and furnished to the staff, rather than the Board itself. A question has arisen as to the applicability of the first sentence of § 234.3 of the Economic Regulations to the furnishing of certified information by the carrier to the Board's staff, under the informal rate conference procedure. Such procedure was not in existence or contemplated when Part 234 of the Economic Regulations was adopted. The informal conferences do not supplant the established prehearing conference procedure which is part of the formal proceedings and are not to be considered as proceedings. Furthermore, the type and form of data supplied by the carrier under the informal rate conference procedure is of a different nature than that which would be submitted in a formal document such as an amendment to a petition. Consequently, the Board believes that it never was intended that Part 234 would apply to information furnished under the informal conference procedure. However, because some doubt has arisen, and in order to clarify Part 234, the present action amending § 234.3 thereof is taken.

Inasmuch as this amendment is only for the purposes of clarification of present procedures and does not impose any significant additional burden upon the persons affected thereby, and inasmuch as there are several cases pending or imminent under the informal rate conference procedures requiring a minimum of delay in adopting the amendment, notice and public procedure hereon are impractical and unnecessary, and the Board finds that good cause exists for making this amendment effective on less than 30 days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Board hereby amends Part 234, § 234.3 of the Economic Regulations (14 CFR 234.3) effective June 26, 1950, as follows:

1. By deleting the first sentence which reads: "If, after receipt of any petition, the Board shall request the petitioner to supply it with additional information, such information, except that furnished in formal proceedings, shall be furnished in the form of an amendment to the original petition."

2. By deleting, in the second sentence, the words "Each amendment" and substituting therefor, the words "Any amendment to a petition."

The amended § 234.3 shall then read:

§ 234.3 Amendments. Any amendment to a petition (including those made on the petitioner's own initiative) should be consecutively numbered, and shall comply with the requirements of this regulation as to form, number of copies, manner of execution, verification, and all other essential respects. In the event that any petition shall be amended, the amendment shall contain a statement that a copy thereof has been served on the Postmaster General by sending the same to him by registered mail, postpaid, prior to the filing with the Board of such amendment.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Secretary.

PART 203—TITLE I MORTGAGE INSURANCE; ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Part 203 is hereby amended by adding the following new section:

§ 203.5a Certificate of builder regarding charges and fees. Any application filed on or after July 17, 1950, with respect to proposed construction must be accompanied by a certificate, in form satisfactory to the Commissioner, executed by the builder certifying that he has not paid or obligated himself to pay and will not pay or obligate himself to pay any charges, interest or fees in connection with the financing of the construction or sale of the property described in the application other than (a) customary cost of title search, recording fees, and the application fee, mortgage insurance premiums, and other fees and charges which the mortgagee is required to pay to the Commissioner under this part; (b) interest on the principal amount of any construction loan at a rate not in excess of five percentum per annum; (c) fees and commissions in connection with any construction loan aggregating not in excess of two and one-half percentum of the original principal amount of such loan; (d) fees and commissions in connection with a loan made after completion of construction aggregating not in excess of one percentum of the original principal amount of such loan; and (e) charges paid or to be paid in connection with a mortgage, if any, filed of record prior to July 17, 1950.

2. Part 203 is hereby further amended by changing §§ 203.16 and 203.17 to read as follows:

§ 203.16 Maximum charges and fees to be collected by mortgagee—(a) Existing construction. The mortgagee may, in connection with a mortgage executed pursuant to an application for insurance covering existing construction, charge the mortgagor only the amount of the cost of title search and recording fees as are approved by the Commissioner, and the application fee, mortgage insurance premiums and other fees and charges which the mortgagee is required to pay to the Commissioner under this part and an initial service charge to reimburse itself for the cost of closing the transaction. Such service charge shall not exceed one percentum of the original principal amount of the mortgage.

(b Proposed construction. No mortgage for the insurance of which an application is filed on or after July 17, 1950, covering proposed construction, shall be insured unless the mortgagee, prior to insurance, shall have delivered to the Commissioner a certificate, in form satisfactory to the Commissioner, certifying that it has not imposed upon or collected from the mortgagor or the builder any charges, interest or fees in connection with the financing of the construction or sale of the property described in the application other than (1) customary cost of title search and recording fees as are approved by the Commissioner, and the application fee, mortgage insurance premiums, and other fees and charges which the mortgagee is required to pay to the Commissioner under this part; (2) interest on the principal amount of any construction loan at a rate not in excess of five percentum per annum; (3) fees and commissions aggregating not in excess of two and one-half percentum of the original principal amount of such loan if a construction loan was made by it, or if no construction loan was made by it, not in excess of one percentum of the original principal amount of such loan; and (4) charges paid or to be paid in connection with a mortgage, if any, filed of record prior to July 17, 1950.

§ 203.17 Charges by brokers. Nothing in § 203.16 shall be construed as prohibiting the mortgagor from dealing through a broker, who does not represent the mortgagee, if he prefers to do so, and paying the broker such compensation as is satisfactory to the mortgagor.

Subchapter C—Mutual Mortgage Insurance

PART 221—MUTUAL MORTGAGE INSURANCE; ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS OF MORTGAGE COVERING ONE- TO FOUR-FAMILY DWELLINGS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Part 221 is hereby amended by adding the following new section:

§ 221.13a Certificate of builder regarding charges and fees. Any application filed on or after July 17, 1950, with respect to proposed construction must be accompanied by a certificate, in form satisfactory to the Commissioner, executed by the builder certifying that he has not paid or obligated himself to pay and will not pay or obligate himself to pay any charges, interest or fees in connection with the financing of the construction or sale of the property described in the application other than (a) customary cost of title search, recording fees, and the application fee, mortgage insurance premiums, and other fees and charges which the mortgagee is required to pay to the Commissioner under this part; (b) interest on the principal amount of any construction loan at a rate not in excess of five percentum per annum; (c) fees and commissions in connection with any construction loan aggregating not in excess of two and one-half percentum of the original principal amount of such loan; (d) fees and commissions in connection with a loan made after completion of construction aggregating not in excess of one percentum of the original principal amount of such loan; and (e) charges paid or to be paid in connection with a mortgage, if any, filed of record prior to July 17, 1950.

2. Part 221 is hereby further amended by changing §§ 221.24 and 221.25 to read as follows:

§ 221.24 Maximum charges and fees to be collected by mortgagee—(a) Existing construction. The mortgagee may, in connection with a mortgage executed pursuant to an application for insurance covering existing construction, charge the mortgagor only the amount of the cost of title search and recording fees as are approved by the Commissioner, and the application fee, mortgage insurance premiums and other fees and charges which the mortgagee is required to pay to the Commissioner under this part and an initial service charge to reimburse itself for the cost of closing the transaction. Such service charge shall not exceed one percentum of the original principal amount of the mortgage.

(b) Proposed construction. No mortgage for the insurance of which an application is filed on or after July 17, 1950, covering proposed construction, shall be insured unless the mortgagee, prior to insurance, shall have delivered to the Commissioner a certificate, in form satisfactory to the Commissioner, certifying that it has not imposed upon or collected from the mortgagor or the builder any charges, interest or fees in connection with the financing of the construction or sale of the property described in the application other than (1) customary cost of title search and recording fees as are approved by the Commissioner, and the application fee, mortgage insurance premiums, and other fees and charges which the mortgagee is required to pay to the Commissioner under this part; (2) interest on the principal amount of any construction loan at a rate not in excess of five percentum per annum; (3) fees and commissions aggregating not in excess of two and one-half percentum of the original principal amount of such loan if a construction loan was made by it, or if no construction loan was made by it, not in excess of one percentum of the original principal amount of such loan; and (4) charges paid or to be paid in connection with a mortgage, if any, filed of record prior to July 17, 1950.

§ 221.25 Charges by brokers. Nothing in § 221.24 shall be construed as prohibiting the mortgagor from dealing through a broker, who does not represent the mortgagee, if he prefers to do so, and paying the broker such compensation as is satisfactory to the mortgagor.

TITLE 39—POSTAL SERVICE

Chapter I—Post Office Department

PART 35—PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO THE SEVERAL CLASSES OF MAIL MATTER

IMPROPER USE OF NOTATION "DO NOT FOLD OR BEND"

In Part 35 (39 CFR, Part 35; 15 F. R. 1304, 2180) make the following changes:

Insert a new section in the text between §§ 35.11a and 35.12 to read as follows:

§ 35.11b Improper use of notation "Do not fold or bend". Any matter which would be damaged by folding or bending should be protected by adequate stiffening material. If the matter is not considered of sufficient value by the mailer to use stiffening material, it should not bear the notation "Please Do Not Fold or Bend". The amount and type of stiffening material required depends on the size and nature of the matter mailed. Possibly a sheet of paperboard would suffice for small, somewhat flexible matter, while other matter which would crack if folded should be protected by a pad or pads of strong corrugated fiberboard.

PART 64—DOMESTIC INSURANCE AND COLLECT-ON-DELIVERY SERVICES: INDEMNITY

DEMURRAGE CHARGE

In § 64.36 Demurrage charge (39 CFR 64.36) make the following changes:

1. Amend paragraph (a) to read as follows:

(a) Authority for. (1) Under such regulations as the Postmaster General may prescribe, any collect-on-delivery parcel which the addressee fails to remove from the post office within fifteen days from the first attempt to deliver or the first notice of arrival at the office of address may be returned to the sender charged with the return postage, whether or not such parcel bears any specified time limit for delivery; and a demurrage charge of not exceeding 5 cents per day may be collected when delivery has not been made to either the addressee or the sender until after the expiration of the prescribed period. No demurrage shall be charged on collect-on-delivery parcels exchanged between post offices in the continental United States and post offices in the Territories and island possessions of the United States.

(2) The Postmaster General may direct the imediate return to the sender, charged with return postage, of any collect-on-delivery parcel which is found to be undeliverable.

2. Amend paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) Amount of charge. A demurrage charge of 5 cents per day shall be collected on each domestic c. o. d. article (registered or unregistered) which the addressee fails to remove from the post office within 15 days after the first attempt to deliver or the first notice of arrival at the office of address, exclusive of the day delivery is first attempted or the first notice of arrival is issued at the office of address, the actual day of delivery, Sundays, and holidays. No demurrage shall be charged on c. o. d. articles exchanged between the United States proper and Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands of the United States, Guam, and Tutuila, Samoa.

NOTE: The foregoing amendment to paragraph (b) shall become effective August 1, 1950.

PART 127—INTERNATIONAL POSTAL SERVICE: POSTAGE RATES, SERVICE AVAILABLE, AND INSTRUCTIONS FOR MAILING

U. S. A. GIFT PARCELS

a. In § 127.55 General information (39 CFR 127.55; 14 F. R. 6950) amend paragraph (j) to read as follows:

(j) U. S. A. gift parcels—(1) Countries eligible. Relief parcels are acceptable for surface transmission at reduced rates of postage to Austria, China, Greece, Italy, Japan, Korea, Ryukyu Islands, and the zones of Trieste under occupation by the United States, Great Britain, or France. See caption "U. S. A. Gift Parcels" under the relative country items for postage rates and information as to permissible contents.

The interpretations in subparagraphs (2) (3) (4) and (5) of this paragraph with respect to permissible contents shown in the country items are to be followed.

(2) Nonperishable food. This includes canned, dried, or packaged foods of all kinds, as well as fruitcake, candy, or chewing gum properly packaged as nonperishable.

(3) Household supplies and utensils. This includes dishes, pans, light bulbs, electrical or other household appliances, wallpaper, paint in mailable quantities, as well as other items of general household use, but not for business or professional use. Paints as well as other liquids must be packed in two receptacles, with the space between the inner and outer receptacles to be filled with sawdust, bran, or other absorbent material in sufficient quantity to absorb all the liquid content in case of breakage. Friction top containers must be soldered in four different places around the lid.

(4) The following articles are not permitted in "U. S. A. Gift Parcels":

(i) Cigarettes and other forms of tobacco.

(ii) School and office supplies.

(iii) Bismuth nitrate, oxide, and subnitrate in bulk. Quinidine alkaloid and quinidine salts and compounds. Radon. Radium salts and compounds. Chemicals containing artificial radioactive isotopes. Radium ore concentrates.

(5) "U. S. A. Gift Parcels" may not contain any articles prohibited in parcels generally to the country of destination concerned.

b. Amend § 127.233 Corsica (39 CFR 127.233; 15 F. R. 643, 1104) by deleting paragraph (c) U. S. A. gift parcels.

f. Amend § 127.309 Netherlands (39 CFR 127.309; 14 F. R. 578, 1441, 7130) by deleting paragraph (c) U. S. A. gift parcels.

51.9 Required expenditure of State and local funds; funds of cooperating agencies.
51.10 Expenditure of Federal funds.
51.11 Use of Federal funds for training.
51.12 Personnel administration on a merit basis.
51.13 Fiscal accounting and control.
51.14 Reports; State health authority; cooperating agencies.
51.15 Audit.

AUTHORITY: §§ 51.1 to 51.15 issued under sec. 215, 58 Stat. 690; 42 U. S. C. 216. Interpret or apply sec. 314, 58 Stat. 693, as amended; 42 U. S. C. 246.

§ 51.1 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) "Act" means the Public Health Service Act approved July 1, 1944, 58 Stat. 682, as amended.

(b) "Cooperating agency", which term is used only in relation to the heart disease control program, means a county, health district, other political subdivision of the State or other public or nonprofit agency, institution, or other organization in the State, to which payments for a heart disease control program are recommended by the State health authority.

(c) "Exception" means the amount of Federal funds expended contrary to this part of the plan.

(d) "Federal funds" means funds appropriated by Congress for carrying out the purposes of section 314 of the act.

(e) "Financial need" as applied to any State means the relative per capita income as shown by data supplied by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce for the most recent five-year-period, available on January 1, preceding the fiscal year for which Federal funds are appropriated.

(f) "General health purposes" means the establishment and maintenance of public health services, other than community mental health services, within the meaning of subsection (c) of section 314 of the act.

(g) "Official forms" means forms and instructions supplied by the Public Health Service to the State health authority and to a cooperating agency for use in the submittal of plans or information required with respect to the operation of such plans.

(h) "Political subdivision" includes counties, health districts, municipalities, and other subdivisions of the State established for governmental purposes.

(i) "Population" as applied to any State or political subdivision, means the most recent official estimates of the Bureau of the Census available on January 1, preceding the fiscal year for which Federal funds are appropriated.

(j) "Public Health Service" means the Public Health Service in the Federal Security Agency.

(k) "State" includes any State, the District of Columbia, Hawaii, Alaska, Puerto Rico, or the Virgin Islands.

(l) "Plan" refers to the information and proposals submitted by the State health authority pursuant to the regulations in this part for activities of the State and political subdivisions thereof for (1) the prevention, treatment and control of venereal disease, (2) the prevention, treatment and control of tuberculosis, (3) establishing and maintaining public health services, (4) the prevention, treatment and control of mental illness, including emotional, psychiatric and neurological disorders, or (5) establishing and maintaining organized community programs of heart disease control.

(m) "Plan" refers also to the information and proposals for establishing and maintaining organized community programs for heart disease control submitted in lieu of a State plan by a cooperating agency pursuant to these regulations.

(n) Insofar as the regulations in this part relate to the State mental health program, "State health authority" means, in the case of any State in which there is a single State agency other than the State health authority charged with responsibility for administering such program, the State mental health authority.

§ 51.2 Allotments; extent of health problems. For the purpose of making allotments to the several States:

(a) Venereal disease. The extent of the venereal disease problem shall be determined by the Surgeon General taking into consideration such factors as:

(1) The varying composite and racial prevalence rates for syphilis;

(2) The extent to which treatment facilities have been provided as evidenced by the population under treatment for syphilis;

(3) The total number of syphilis patients brought to treatment in the primary or secondary stages during the previous year;

(4) The varying costs of providing equal services as determined by the inverse function of the syphilitic density, and the direct function of the size of the population of each State;

(5) The need for trainng centers and demonstrations in selected areas;

(6) The need for facilities for the prevention and control of venereal diseases in localities where there is an unusual concentration of population.

(b) Tuberculosis. The extent of the tuberculosis problem shall be determined by the Surgeon General taking into consideration such factors as:

(1) The morbidity of the disease;

(2) The mortality attributed to the disease;

(3) The relative need among the States of facilities for diagnosis and treatment of tuberculous persons.

(c) Special health problems. The extent of special health problems shall be the relative population density of the several States, in inverse order.

(d) Mental health. The extent of the mental health problem shall be determined by the Surgeon General, taking into consideration such factors as:

(1) The prevalence of emotional and psychiatric disorders affecting mental health;

(2) Special conditions which create unequal burdens in the administration of mental health services among the States as indicated by the relative population of large urban and dispersed-population areas.

§ 51.3 Basis of allotments. Of the total sum determined to be available for each fiscal year for allotment to the several States for the purposes of subsections (a), (b), (c), and (e) of section 314 of the act, allotments to the several States shall be made as follows:

(a) Venereal disease. Of the amount available for allotment for venereal disease control programs:

From 20 percent to 40 percent, on the basis of population, weighted by financial need.

From 60 percent to 80 percent, on the basis of the extent of the venereal disease problem.

(b) Tuberculosis. Of the amount available for allotment for tuberculosis control programs:

From 20 percent to 40 percent, on the basis of population, weighted by financial need.

From 60 percent to 80 percent, on the basis of the extent of the tuberculosis problem.

(c) General health purposes. Of the amount available for allotment for general health purposes other than for mental health:

From 90 percent to 95 percent, on the basis of population, weighted by financial need.

From 5 per cent to 10 percent, on the basis of the extent of special health problems.

(d) Mental health. Of the amount available for allotment for mental health programs:

From 20 percent to 40 percent, on the basis of population weighted by financial need.

From 60 percent to 80 percent, on the basis of the extent of the mental health problem.

(e) Heart disease. Of the amount available for allotment for heart disease control programs:

(1) A portion on the basis of a uniform per capita allotment not to exceed 10 cents per capita for the first 100,000 population or part thereof of each State;

(2) The remaining amount on the basis of the remaining population of each State weighted by financial need.

§ 51.4 Allotments; estimates; time of making; duration. (a) For each fiscal year, the Surgeon General shall, with the approval of the Administrator, determine the amount of the appropriation for each program which shall be available for allotment among the several States.

(b) Prior to the beginning of each fiscal year the Surgeon General shall prepare and make available to the States an estimated schedule of the amounts which it is expected will be allotted to each State during the fiscal year from estimated appropriations.

(c) Allotments for each program for the first six months shall be made prior to the beginning of the fiscal year or as soon thereafter as practicable, and shall equal not less than 60 percent nor more than 70 percent of the total sum determined to be available for allotment during that fiscal year. At the end of the second quarter, the amounts of allotments for the first six-month period which have not been certified for payment to the respective States pursuant to § 51.8 shall become available for allotment among the States in the same manner as moneys which had not previously been allotted.

(d) Allotments for each program for the remaining six months shall be made prior to the beginning of the third quarter or as soon thereafter as practicable, and shall equal the total sum remaining unpaid and unallotted from the amount available for allotment during the fiscal year.

(e) The Secretary of the Treasury and the respective State health authorities shall be notified of the amounts of allotments and of the period for which they are made.

§ 51.5 Plans; mode of submittal. (a) Each State making application for grants under section 314 of the act shall submit plans through its State health authority for each fiscal year for carrying out the purposes of such section. A State making application for Federal funds for more than one of the purposes authorized by section 314 of the act may consolidate its plan: Provided, That the information specifically required for a State plan is distinguished with respect to each purpose.

(b) Plans of cooperating agencies for heart disease control programs, in lieu of State plans, shall be submitted through the State health authority.

(c) Plans shall be prepared in accordance with official forms supplied by the Public Health Service and may be amended with the approval of the Surgeon General or his designee.

§ 51.6 Plans; contents. A plan with respect to any program shall include:

(a) A description of the current organization for and health services included in the program and the proposals for extending, improving, and otherwise modifying such organization and services;

(b) Provision for health services in substantial accordance with nationally accepted standards;

(c) A budget by project totals for carrying out the services described under paragraph (a) of this section;

(d) A statement that the plan if approved will be carried out as described and in accordance with the regulations prescribed under section 314 of the act.

§ 51.7 Plans; time of submittal and approval. (a) For a continuing program an annual plan shall be submitted at least 45 days prior to the beginning of the Federal fiscal year to which the plan relates.

(b) A plan or amendment thereto shall not be approved for any period antedating receipt of such plan by the Public Health Service: Provided, That exceptions to this rule may be made by the Surgeon General when necessary to meet emergencies.

(c) The budget for health services shall not be approved unless each item thereof relates to activities described in the plan.

(d) A plan for a heart disease control program submitted by a cooperating agency as provided in § 51.5 shall not be approved unless recommended by the State health authority.

§ 51.8 Payments to States; to cooperating agencies. (a) Payments from allotments to a State shall be certified to the Secretary of the Treasury only after a plan has been approved. Payments from allotments to a State shall not exceed the allotment to such State or the total estimated expenditure necessary for carrying out the plan whichever is less.

(b) Payments from a State allotment for venereal disease control shall be reduced by the amount such State requests the Public Health Service to utilize in furnishing equipment, services, and supplies for special venereal disease activities.

(c) All payments shall be made to the State, except, with respect to the heart disease control program, amounts from the State's allotment may be certified for payment to a cooperating agency upon recommendation by the State health authority when. (1) the State health authority has not prior to August 1 of the fiscal year for which allotment is made, presented and had approved a plan, or (2) the State is not authorized by law to make payments to a cooperating agency. Funds for heart disease control paid to a cooperating agency and remaining unobligated at the termination of the plan for any fiscal year shall be returned to the Treasury of the United States, unless plans for continued cooperation with such agency are submitted and approved for the succeeding fiscal year.

(d) Subject to the foregoing limitations, payments shall be made as follows:

(1) Payment for the first quarter shall be based upon an application for funds showing the estimated requirement for such quarter.

(2) Except for payment to a cooperating agency, payment for the second quarter shall be the amount of the difference between the unpaid balance of the allotment of the respective State for the first six months and the unencumbered cash balance of the respective fund in the State treasury at the beginning of the first quarter, adjusted for exceptions. With respect to payment to a cooperating agency from the State's allotment, payment in the second quarter shall be based on the requirements for such quarter adjusted for exceptions and for the estimated unobligated balances at the beginning of the quarter as shown in an application for funds.

(3) Payment for subsequent quarters from the allotments for the final six-month period shall be made once in each quarter and shall be based upon an application for funds showing the estimated requirement for such quarter and the estimated unencumbered balance of the respective fund in the State treasury (or with respect to the heart disease control program, in the treasury of the cooperating agency) at the beginning of the quarter for which payment is to be made. All such payments shall be in the amount of the difference between the estimated requirement and the estimated unencumbered cash balance adjusted for exceptions.

(4) Payments from allotments shall not be certified unless an application for payment and all reports and documents prescribed by the regulations in this part to be due have been received.

(5) Supplemental payment in any quarter may be certified upon submission of application accompanied by satisfactory justification.

§ 51.9 Required expenditure of State and local funds; funds of cooperating agencies. (a) Moneys paid to any State or to a cooperating agency pursuant to section 314 of the act shall be paid upon the condition that there be expended in the State during the fiscal year for which payment is made and for purposes specified in the plan with respect to which payment is made, public funds of the State and its political subdivision (or, in the case of payments to a cooperating agency having an approved heart disease control plan, funds of the cooperating agency) in amounts which shall be exclusive of any funds derived from loan or grant from the United States and which shall be determined as follows:

(1) With respect to payments for a venereal disease control program, an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount of Federal funds to be expended pursuant to the State plan.

(2) With respect to payments for a tuberculosis control program, an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount of Federal funds to be expended pursuant to the State plan.

(3) With respect to payments for a general health program other than the mental health program, an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount of Federal funds to be expended pursuant to the State plan.

(4) With respect to payments for a mental health program, an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount of Federal funds to be expended pursuant to the State plan.

(5) With respect to payments for a heart disease program, an amount equal to 50 percent of the amount of Federal funds to be expended pursuant to the State plan or, in the absence of a State plan, to the plan of the cooperating agency or agencies.

(b) The expenditures required for any one of the above programs shall be additional to the expenditures required for other programs.

(c) Federal funds paid to a State or cooperating agency shall not be used to conserve State and local funds or the funds of a cooperative agency.

§ 51.10 Expenditure of Federal funds. (a) Federal funds paid to a State or to a cooperating agency shall be expended solely for the purposes specified in plans approved by the Surgeon General or his designee, and in accordance with the regulations in this part.

(b) Except as otherwise authorized by the Surgeon General, the provisions of State or local law which are applicable to the expenditure of moneys appropriated by the State or local subdivision shall apply respectively to Federal moneys paid to the State or to a political subdivision of the State as a cooperating agency.

(c) All encumbrances of Federal funds shall be liquidated within two years after the end of the fiscal year in which the encumbrance was incurred unless otherwise authorized by the Surgeon General. The amount of encumbrances not so liquidated, adjusted by such amounts as otherwise authorized, will be treated for the purpose of determining payments under the regulations in this part as constituting a part of the unencumbered cash balance at the end of the second succeeding fiscal year.

§ 51.11 Use of Federal funds for training. Use of Federal funds for training personnel for State and local health work shall be authorized by the State health authority or by a cooperating agency in accordance with "Minimum Standards for Sponsored Training of the Public Health Service." Records of authorized training shall be maintained by the State health authority or cooperating agency and shall be audited for compliance with these standards.

§ 51.12 Personnel administration on a merit basis. A system of personnel administration on a merit basis shall be established and maintained for personnel employed in programs, the budgets of which provide for the expenditure of Federal funds or of State or local funds for matching purposes included in the plan of the State health authority. Standards for evaluating compliance with this requirement shall be contained in merit-system standards of the Public Health Service in effect at the time of the expenditure.

§ 51.13 Fiscal accounting and control. (a) The principal State Accounting Officer shall maintain either (1) a separate and distinct fund account for each Public Health Service grant, or (2) a separate and distinct fund account for each State agency in which all Public Health Service grants may be commingled with other Federal grants (but no other funds) available to such agency.

(b) The State and local public health agencies and cooperating agencies receiving Federal funds under the regulations in this part shall establish and maintain efficient methods for conducting fiscal affairs (including financial and property controls). Each State agency and cooperating agency shall maintain a separate and distinct fund account for each Public Health Service grant.

§ 51.14 Reports; State health authority; cooperating agencies. The Surgeon General may require the submission of information pertinent to the operation of the plans and to the purpose of the grants, including the following:

(a) A certification from the State health authority on an official form as to the amount of State and local funds available for carrying out the State plan shall be due in duplicate within 90 days after the beginning of the fiscal year.

(b) A statement in duplicate shall be due on May 15 of each year from the State health authority showing on an official form the estimates of need by fund and functional activity for the year beginning the second succeeding July 1.

(c) Quarterly reports on official forms showing (1) total receipts, expenditures, unliquidated encumbrances, and balances of Federal funds, and (2) for the first three quarters, total quarterly expenditures from Federal grants and other sources for each activity shown in the budget for health services (§ 51.6 (c)) shall be due in duplicate 45 days after the close of the quarter from each State health authority and each cooperating agency having an approved plan.

(d) An annual report on an official form showing total expenditures for the fiscal year from Federal grants and other sources for each activitiy shown in the budget for health services shall be due in duplicate within 90 days after the close of the fiscal year from each State health authority and each cooperating agency having an approved plan.

(e) A report on an official form showing presonnel, facilities and services for each local health organization included in the current State plan shall be due in duplicate on February 15 of each year.

(f) The following reports on official forms shall be submitted by the State health authority with respect to venereal disease activities within 45 days after the close of the period to which they pertain:

(1) A quarterly report on laboratory activities, drug distribution and fees to private physicians.

(2) A quarterly activity report for each cooperative health unit or a summary of such activities by the State health authority.

(3) A quarterly morbidity report with separate report by each city of 200,000 population or over.

(g) The following reports on official forms shall be submitted by the State health authority with respect to tuberculosis control activities within 45 days after the close of the period to which they pertain:

(1) A semiannual report on mass chest surveys, and tuberculosis morbidity, and mortality, with separate report for cities of 500,000 population or over.

(2) An annual report on clinic and nursing services.

§ 51.15 Audit. Audit of the activities and programs described in the plan may be made after prior consultation with the State health authority or the cooperating agency. Records, documents, and information available to the State health authority or cooperating agency pertinent to the audit shall be accessible for purposes of audit.

Effective date; prior regulations superseded. The regulations in this part, which shall become effective upon the date of their publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, shall apply for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1950, and thereafter, and with respect to the fiscal year 1951 and thereafter, shall supersede the regulations heretofore contained in this part.

Dated: June 29, 1950.

PART 71—FOREIGN QUARANTINE

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

Notice of proposed rule making and public rule making proceedings have been omitted in the issuance of the following amendments of this part. Notice and rule making proceedings have been found to be unnecessary because the sole purpose of the amendments is to eliminate restrictions and requirements now in effect.

1. Section 71.46 is amended to read as follows:

§ 71.46 General provision. (a) A vessel or aircraft arriving at a port under the control of the United States shall undergo quarantine inspection prior to entry unless:

(1) In the current voyage the vessel or aircraft has not touched at any port other than ports under the control of the United States or ports in Canada, the Islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon, Iceland, Greenland, the West Coast of Lower California, Cuba, the Bahama Islands, the Canal Zone, or the Bermuda Islands; or

(2) In the current voyage the vessel or aircraft has received pratique at a port under the control of the United States, and since receiving such pratique has not touched at a port other than those listed in the preceding subparagraph; or

(3) The vessel or aircraft possesses a duplicate of a pratique issued at a port in Canada or the Canal Zone, provided that since receiving such pratique the vessel or aircraft has not touched at ports other than those listed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(b) A vessel or aircraft otherwise exempt from inspection under the provisions of paragraphs (a) (1) to (3) of this section shall undergo quarantine inspection prior to entering a port under the control of the United States if the vessel or aircraft:

(1) Has aboard a person infected or suspected of being infected with anthrax, chickenpox, cholera, dengue, diphtheria, infectious encephalitis, measles, meningococcus meningitis, plague, poliomyelitis, psittacosis, scarlet fever, smallpox, streptococcic sore throat, typhoid fever, typhus, or yellow fever, or

(2) Arrives directly from a port where at the time of departure there was present or suspected of being present cholera, plague, or yellow fever, or where there was significant increase in prevalence of smallpox or typhus at the time the vessel or aircraft touched there.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) (2) and (3) of this section a vessel or aircraft having received pratique at a port under the control of the United States, or possessing a duplicate pratique from Canada or the Canal Zone, shall comply with any conditions and carry out any additional measures specified in the pratique.

2. The footnotes to §§ 71.46 (a) (3) and 71.122 are deleted.

3. Section 71.62 is amended to read as follows:

§ 71.62 General provision; vessels only. The vessel shall fly a yellow flag. It shall anchor in the quarantine anchorage and await inspection; but, if the medical officer in charge is of the opinion that proceeding to a designated point in the port would not be likely to cause the introduction of communicable disease, he may direct the vessel to proceed to such a point to await inspection.

(Sec. 215, 58 Stat. 690; 42 U. S. C. 216. Interpret or apply secs. 361-369, 58 Stat. 703-706; 42 U. S. C. 264-272)

Effective date. The foregoing amendments shall become effective July 1, 1950.

Dated: June 23, 1950.

ALASKA

PARTIALLY REVOKING PUBLIC LAND ORDER NO. 487 OF JUNE 16, 1948

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1910, c. 421, 36 Stat. 847 (43 U. S. C. sec. 141), and pursuant to Executive Order No. 9337 of April 24, 1943, it is ordered as follows:

Public Land Order No. 487 of June 16, 1948, temporarily withdrawing certain public lands in Alaska for classification and examination, and in aid of proposed legislation, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described lands:

DUNBAR AREA

FAIRBANKS MERIDIAN

T. 1 S., R. 5 W.,
Sec. 31.
T. 2 S., R. 5 W., unsurveyed.
Secs. 6 and 7.
T. 2 S., R. 6 W.,
Secs. 1 to 4, inclusive;
Secs. 5, 6, and 7, unsurveyed.
Secs. 8 to 18, inclusive;
Secs. 19 to 24, inclusive, unsurveyed;
Secs. 30 and 31, unsurveyed.
T. 2 S., R. 7 W.,
Secs. 12, 13, 24, 25, 26, and 34, unsurveyed;
Secs. 35 and 36.
T. 3 S., R. 7 W.,
Secs. 1, 2, and 3;
Secs. 4 and 8, unsurveyed;
Secs. 9 to 12, inclusive;
Secs. 16 and 17;
Sec. 18, unsurveyed;
Secs. 19 and 20.

The areas described aggregate 32,437 acres of public land.

Economic studies of farming in Alaska indicate that the Dunbar area is not suited for group agricultural settlement.

At ten a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order the unappropriated, unreserved, unsurveyed public lands affected by this order shall be opened to settlement under the homestead laws only, and to that form of appropriation only by qualified veterans of World War II for whose service recognition is granted by the act of September 27, 1944, 58 Stat. 747 (43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended, and by other qualified persons entitled to credit for service under the said act. Commencing at ten a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, any of such lands not settled upon by veterans or other persons entitled to credit for service shall become subject to settlement and other forms of appropriation by the public generally in accordance with the appropriate laws and regulations.

At ten a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order the surveyed public lands affected by this order shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location and selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 91 days, commencing at the hour and on the day specified above, such lands shall be subject to (1) application under the homestead laws or the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, 52 Stat. 609 (43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, or application under the homesite or headquarter site act of May 26, 1934, 48 Stat. 809 (48 U. S. C. 461), by qualified veterans of World War II and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944, 58 Stat. 747 (43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended, subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications under subdivision (1) of this paragraph shall be subject to applications and claims of the classes described in subdivision (2) of this paragraph. All applications filed under this paragraph either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at that time. All applications filed under this paragraph after 10:00 a. m. on the said 35th day shall be considered in the order of filing.

(b) Date for non-preference-right filings. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, selection, or other appropriation by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws. All such applications filed either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at the hour specified on such 126th day. All applications filed thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Fairbanks, Alaska, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homesite or homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 64 and 65 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and applications under the said Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Part 257 of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Fairbanks, Alaska.

OSCAR L. CHAPMAN,
Secretary of the Interior.

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

PART 10—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR STEAM ROADS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, division 1, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of June A. D. 1950.

The "Uniform System of Accounts for Steam Railroads, Issue of 1943," being under consideration pursuant to section 20 of the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, and the modifications which are attached hereto and made a part hereof being deemed necessary for proper administration of the provisions of Part I of the act (24 Stat. 386, 54 Stat. 917, 49 U. S. C. 20 (3)); It is ordered, That

(1) Any interested party may on or before August 1, 1950, file with the Commission a written statement of reasons why the said modifications should not become effective as hereinafter ordered and may request oral argument if desired.

(2) Unless otherwise ordered after consideration of objections, the said modifications shall become effective January 1, 1951.

(3) A copy of this order including the attached modifications shall be served upon every steam railroad subject to the act and upon every trustee, receiver, executor, administrator, or assignee of any such steam railroad, and notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy thereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register.

(Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 12. Interpret or apply sec. 20, 24 Stat. 386, as amended; 49 U. S. C. 20)

By the Commission, Division 1.

[SEAL] W. P. BARTEL,
Secretary.

MODIFICATIONS OF THE UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS FOR STEAM RAILROADS ISSUE OF 1943

NOTE: Changes hereinafter in the title or number of an account shall be understood to require corresponding changes elsewhere in this part where present reference appears to the old number or title.

ROAD AND EQUIPMENT ACCOUNTS

1. In § 10.26 Telegraph and telephone lines, cancel the title and text and substitute the following for them:

§ 10.26 Communication systems. This account shall include the cost of telegraph, telephone, radio, radar, inductive train communication, and other communication systems, including terminal equipment.

Details of telegraph and telephone terminal equipment (see general instructions, sec. 13):

Batteries.
Cables and fires, interior.
Carrier terminating equipment.
Conduits, interior.
Connecting wires.
Current - controlling instruments.
Electric generators and motors.
Electric motors.
Engines, stationary.
Fuses and mechanical protectors.
Rectifiers.
Rheostats.
Sending and receiving instruments.
Switchboards.
Telegraph repeaters.
Telephone repeaters.
Teletypewriters.
Testing outfits.
Transformers.

Details of telegraph and telephone outside plant (see general instructions, sec. 13):

Aerial attachments.
Braces.
Brackets.
Cable boxes and appurtenances.
Cables and wires, aerial.
Conduits and appurtenances.
Cross arms.
Gas and associated facilities for cables.
Guy stubs.
Guy wires.
Insulators.
Load coils.
Poles.
Submarine cables and connections.
Telephone pole boxes.
Towers.
Underground cables and connections.

Details of radio, radar, and inductive train communication equipment (see general instructions, sec. 13):

Aerials or antenna, and attachments.
Buildings or towers used exclusively for wireless.
Control units.
Power generating, converting, or supply equipment.
Radar console and associated equipment.
Roadwide or office equipment for all wireless systems operated on special channels between train and train, train and tower or office, or between ship and shore.
Specialized testing and repair equipment.
Transmitters and receivers, including mobile units.

NOTE A: Radio, radar or trainphone equipment (except portable apparatus) which is permanently attached to locomotives, cars, work equipment, or other rolling stock or floating equipment shall be included in the same accounts as the equipment on which installed. Wireless sets for instruction, advertising, or entertainment shall be included in the same accounts as the building in which located.

NOTE B: Communication systems of limited extent, not connected with other systems, used for special purposes and usually installed within a single building, group of buildings, or within the limits of a station or shop layout or yard, shall be included in the same account as the building in which located or in the account appropriate for the service with which associated.

ITEMS

Buzzers, bells, dictaphones or other interoffice communication systems in an office or group of buildings.
Loud speakers, bells, or whistles in shop and other yards.
Loud speakers, public address devices, press button control lights, telautograph or other systems in stations or on platforms.
Whistles, klaxons, or horns operated from signal towers.

NOTE C: Test sets shall be classified as tools and included in the account appropriate for their use.

OPERATING EXPENSE ACCOUNTS

2. In § 10.247 Telegraph and telephone lines, cancel the title, text, and notes and substitute the following for them:

§ 10.247 Communication systems. This account shall include the cost of repairing telegraph, telephone, radio, radar, inductive train communication, and other communication systems, including terminal equipment. (Note carefully special instructions, sections 2 and 3.)

Details of telegraph and telephone terminal equipment (see special instructions, sec. 22):

Batteries.
Cables and wires, interior.
Carrier terminating equipment.
Conduits, interior.
Connecting wires.
Current-controlling instruments.
Electric generators and motors.
Electric meters.
Engines, stationary.
Fuses and mechanical protectors.
Rectifiers.
Rheostats.
Sending and receiving instruments.
Switchboards.
Telegraph repeaters.
Telephone repeaters.
Teletypewriters.
Testing outfits.
Transformers.

Details of telegraph and telephone outside plant (see special instructions, sec. 22):

Aerial attachments.
Braces.
Brackets.
Cable boxes and appurtenances.
Cables and wires, aerial.
Conduits and appurtenances.
Cross arms.
Gas and associated facilities for cables.
Guy stubs.
Guy wires.
Insulators.
Load coils.
Poles.
Submarine cables and connections.
Telephone pole boxes.
Towers.
Underground cables and connections.

Details of radio, radar, and inductive train communication equipment (see special instructions, sec. 22):

Aerials or antenna, and attachments.
Buildings or towers used exclusively for wireless.
Control units.
Power generating, converting, or supply equipment.
Radar console and associated equipment.
Roadside or office equipment for all wireless systems operated on special channels between train and train, train and tower or office, or between ship and shore.
Specialized testing and repair equipment.
Transmitters and receivers, including mobile units.

NOTE A: Repairs of radio, radar, or trainphone equipment (except portable apparatus) which is permanently attached to locomotives, cars, work equipment, or other rolling stock or floating equipment shall be included in the same account as repairs of the equipment on which installed. Repairs of wireless sets for instructions, advertising, or entertainment shall be included in the same account as repairs of the building in which located.

NOTE B: Repairs of communications systems of limited extent, not connected with other systems, used for special purposes and usually installed within a single building, group of buildings, or within the limits of a station or shop layout or yard, shall be included in the same account as repairs of the building in which located or in the account appropriate for the service with which associated.

NOTE C: The pay, rent, other office expenses, and traveling expenses of officers, their clerks and attendants, who supervise, or are engaged both in maintenance and operation, shall be apportioned equally between this account and account 407, "Communication system operation."

ITEMS

Buzzers, bells, dictaphones, or other interoffice communication systems in an office or group of buildings.
Loud speakers, bells, or whistles in shop and other yards.
Loud speakers, public address devices, press button control lights, telautograph, or other systems in stations or on platforms.
Whistles, klaxons, or horns operated from signal towers.

3. In § 10.407 Telegraph and telephone operation, cancel the title, text, and notes, and substitute the following for them:

§ 10.407 Communication system operation. This account shall include the cost of operating communication systems not provided for elsewhere.

TELEGRAPH

Superintendence. The pay of superintendents, censors, their clerks, and attendants.

Operators and messengers. The pay of operators, block inspectors, and messengers in telegraph and relay offices other than those employed in dispatching trains and those located in general offices or at stations.

Other expenses. Office, traveling, and incidental expenses, including office rent, of employees whose pay is chargeable to this account; rent of telegraph conduits, lines, and poles; cost of battery renewals and supplies, bicycles for messengers, and electric current for telegraph purposes; also excess payments to telegraph companies when in connection with telegraph service and not provided for elsewhere.

NOTE A: The pay, rent, other office expenses, and traveling expenses of officers, their clerks and attendants, who supervise or are engaged both in maintenance and operation, shall be apportioned equally between this account and account 247, "Communication systems."

TELEPHONE

Superintendence. The pay of superintendents, their clerks, and attendants.

Operators and messengers. The pay of operators and messengers in telephone offices other than those employed in dispatching trains and those located in general offices or at stations.

Other expenses. Office, traveling, and incidental expenses, including office rent, of employees whose pay is chargeable to this account; rent of telephone conduits, lines, and poles; cost of battery renewals and supplies, bicycles for messengers, and electric current for telephone purposes; also excess payments to telephone companies when in connection with telephone service and not provided for elsewhere.

NOTE B: The pay, rent, other office expenses, and traveling expenses of officers, their clerks and attendants, who supervise or are engaged both in maintenance and operation, shall be apportioned equally between this account and account 247, "Communication systems."

RADIO, RADAR, AND INDUCTIVE TRAIN COMMUNICATION

Superintendence. The pay of superintendents or others who supervise operation, and their clerks or attendants.

Operators. The pay of operators other than those employed in dispatching trains and those located in general offices or at stations.

Other expenses. Office, traveling, and incidental expenses, including office rent, of employees whose pay is chargeable to this account; rent of space or facilities occupied by radio, radar, or inductive train equipment; cost of battery and tube renewals; cost of electric current purchased and all other costs incurred for operation and not provided for elsewhere.

NOTE C: The pay, rent, other office expenses, and traveling expenses of officers, their clerks and attendants, who supervise, or are engaged both in maintenance and operation shall be apportioned equally between this account and account 247, "Communication systems."

INCOME ACCOUNTS

4. In § 10.514 Income from funded securities, and § 10.515 Income from unfunded securities and accounts, cancel the numbers, titles, texts, and notes and insert the following account:

§ 10.514 Interest income. This account shall include the interest on securities and debenture stock of other companies, the income from which is the property of the accounting company, whether such securities are owned by the accounting company and held in its treasury or deposited in trust, or are controlled through lease or otherwise. It shall include also, interest on notes and other evidences of indebtedness and interest on bank balances, open accounts, and other analogous items, including discount on short-term notes. Interest accrued shall not be credited prior to actual collection unless its payment is reasonably assured by past experience, guaranty, anticipated provision, or otherwise. (See Note C to account 717, "Interest and dividends receivable.")

At the option of the accounting company there may be included each year in this account the portion, applicable to the fiscal period, of the amount requisite to extinguish, during the interval between the date of acquisition and the date of maturity, the discount or premium on securities of other companies owned (other than short-term notes). Amounts thus credited or charged shall be concurrently charged or credited to the account in which the cost of the securities is carried. The discount on short-term notes shall be distributed through equal monthly credits, over the terms of the notes.

NOTE A: This account shall not include interest on securities issued or assumed by the accounting company and owned by it, whether pledged as collateral or held in its treasury, in special deposits, or in sinking or other reserve funds.

NOTE B: Interest on securities, other than those of the accounting company, and on other assets held in sinking or other reserve funds shall be included in account 516, "Income from sinking and other reserve funds."

NOTE C: Discount on bills for material purchased shall be credited to the accounts to which is charged the cost of the material with respect to which the discount is allowed.

5. In § 10.547 Interest on unfunded debt, eliminate the words "interest on overcharge claims" and insert "interest on deferred payments for public improvements" so that the text of the account will read as follows:

§ 10.547 Interest on unfunded debt. This account shall include interest accrued on unfunded debt, such as short-term notes payable on demand or having dates of maturity one year or less from dates of issue, and open accounts including discount and expense on demand and short-term loans, interest on receipts outstanding for installments paid on capital stock, interest on deferred payments for public improvements, and other analogous items. The discount on short-term notes, if of a considerable amount, shall be distributed through equal monthly charges, over the term of the notes.

6. In § 10.551 Miscellaneous income charges, cancel the text of the account and substitute the following for it:

§ 10.551 Miscellaneous income charges. This account shall include interest charges not provided for elsewhere, such as interest on tax deficiencies, overcharge claims, and court awards; also income tax upon the interest on the accounting company's funded debt when assumed by it; and other income deductions not provided for elsewhere.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 52]

FROZEN CONCENTRATED GRAPEFRUIT JUICE

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR GRADES [1] [2]

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance, as herein proposed, of United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Concentrated Grapefruit Juice, pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1950 (Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong., approved June 29, 1949). These standards, if made effective, will be the first issue by the Department of grade standards for this product.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same, in duplicate, with the Chief, Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Division, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than June 1, 1951.

The proposed standards are as follows:

§ 52.368 Frozen concentrated grapefruit juice. Frozen concentrated grapefruit juice is the frozen product of concentrated, unfermented juice obtained from sound, mature grapefruit (Citrus paradisi). The fruit is prepared by sorting and washing prior to extraction of the juice to assure a clean product. Upon extraction of such juice, it is concentrated; and single-strength grapefruit juice is admixed to the concentrate. The concentrated grapefruit juice is packed in accordance with good commercial practice and is frozen and stored at temperatures necessary for the peservation of the product. It is recommended that frozen concentrated grapefruit juice during storage and in transit be maintained at temperatures of 0° Fahrenheit or less.

(a) Styles of frozen concentrated grapefruit juice—(1) Style I, without sweetening ingredient added. The Brix value of the finished concentrate shall be not less than 38 degrees nor more than 42 degrees.

(2) Style II, with sweetening ingredient added. The finished concentrate, exclusive of added sweetening ingredient, has a Brix value of not less than 36 degrees; and the finished concentrate, including added sweetening ingredient, shall have a Brix value of not less than 38 degrees but not more than 48 degrees.

[1] The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

[2] The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with applicable State laws and regulations.

(b) Grades of frozen concentrated grapefruit juice. (1) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of frozen concentrated grapefruit juice which reconstitutes properly and of which the reconstituted juice possesses the appearance of fresh grapefruit juice; possesses a very good color; is practically free from defects; possesses a very good flavor; and scores not less than 85 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(2) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Choice" is the quality of frozen concentrated grapefruit juice which reconstitutes properly and of which the reconstituted juice possesses a good color; is reasonably free from defects; possesses a good flavor; and scores not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(3) "U. S. Grade D" or "Substandard" is the quality of frozen concentrated grapefruit juice that fails to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice.

(c) Recommended fill of container. The recommended fill of container is not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since fill of container, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purpose of these grades. It is recommended that the container be filled with frozen concentrated grapefruit juice as full as practicable without impairment of quality.

(d) Ascertaining the grade. The grade of frozen concentrated grapefruit juice is ascertained by considering in conjunction with the requirements of the respective grade, the respective ratings for the factors of color, absence of defects, and flavor. The relative importance of each factor is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given each factor is:

(1) Color	20
(2) Absence of defects	40
(3) Flavor	40

(e) Ascertaining the rating for each factor. The essential variations within each factor are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor is inclusive (for example, "17 to 20 points" means 17, 18, 19, or 20 points).

(1) Color. (i) Frozen concentrated grapefruit juice of which the reconstituted juice possesses a very good color may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Very good color" means that the color is bright and typical of freshly extracted grapefruit juice and is free from any trace of browning.

(ii) If the reconstituted juice possesses a "good color," a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. Frozen concentrated grapefruit juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Good color" means that the color is typical of freshly extracted grapefruit juice which may be slightly dull or show traces of browning but is not off color for any reason.

(iii) If the reconstituted juice fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, a score of 0 to 13 points may be given. Frozen concentrated grapefruit juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(2) Absence of defects. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from seeds and portions thereof, from excessive juice cells, from free and suspended pulp, from recoverable oil, and from other defects.

(i) "Free and suspended pulp" means particles of membrane, core, skin, and other similar extraneous materials in the reconstituted grapefruit juice.

(ii) Frozen concentrated grapefruit juice of which the reconstituted juice is practically free from defects may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Practically free from defects" means that there may be present: (a) Small seeds or portions thereof that pass through a screen with perforations not exceeding ⅛ inch in diameter, provided such seeds or portions thereof do not materially affect the appearance or drinking quality of the juice; (b) juice cells that do not materially affect the appearance or drinking quality of the juice; (c) other defects that are not more than slightly objectionable; and (d) not more than 10 percent free and suspended pulp. To score in this classification the frozen concentrated grapefruit juice may contain not more than 0.040 milliliter of recoverable oil per 100 grams of the concentrated product.

(iii) If the reconstituted juice is reasonably free from defects, a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Frozen concentrated grapefruit juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" means that there may be present: (a) Small seeds or portions thereof that pass through a screen with perforations not exceeding ⅛ inch in diameter, provided such seeds or portions thereof do not seriously affect the appearance or drinking quality of the juice; (b) juice cells that do not seriously affect the appearance or drinking quality of the juice; (c) other defects that are not materially objectionable; and (d) not more than 15 percent free and suspended pulp. To score in this classification the frozen concentrated grapefruit juice may contain not more than 0.048 milliliter of recoverable oil per 100 grams of the concentrated product.

(iv) Frozen concentrated grapefruit juice that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(3) Flavor. (i) Frozen concentrated grapefruit juice of which the reconstituted juice possesses a very good flavor may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Very good flavor" means that the flavor is fine, distinct, and reasonably typical of freshly extracted grapefruit juice. To score not less than 34 points, frozen concentrated grapefruit juice shall meet the following requirements for the respective style:

Style I, without sweetening ingredient added. The ratio of Brix value to acid is not less than 8 to 1 nor more than 14 to 1 (see table I).

Style II, with sweetening ingredient added. The ratio of Brix value to acid is not less than 10 to 1 nor more than 13 to 1 (see table II).

(ii) If the reconstituted juice possesses a good flavor, a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Frozen concentrated grapefruit juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule), "Good flavor" means that the flavor is fairly typical of freshly extracted grapefruit juice and is free from abnormal flavors and off flavors of any kind. To score not less than 28 points frozen concentrated grapefruit juice shall meet the following requirements for the respective style:

Style I, without sweetening ingredient added. The ratio of Brix value to acid is not less than 7 to 1 nor more than 16 to 1 (see table I).

Style II, with sweetening ingredient added. The ratio of Brix value to acid is not less than 8 to 1 nor more than 13 to 1 (see table II).

(iii) If the frozen concentrated grapefruit juice fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, a score of 0 to 27 points may be given. Frozen concentrated grapefruit juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(f) Definitions of terms as used in these standards. (1) "Reconstituted juice" means the product obtained by mixing thoroughly 3 parts by volume of distilled water and 1 part by volume of frozen concentrated grapefruit juice.

(2) "Reconstitutes properly" means that the reconstituted juice shows no material separation of colloidal or suspended matter, leaving a zone of definitely clear liquid without any turbidity, after standing four (4) hours at a room temperature of not less than 68 degrees Fahrenheit in a clear glass tube or cylinder (such as a 50 ml. graduated cylinder).

(3) "Acid" means the percent by weight of acid (calculated as anhydrous citric acid) in frozen concentrated grapefruit juice.

(4) "Brix value" in frozen concentrated grapefruit juice is the refractometric sucrose value determined in accordance with the International Scale of Refractive Indices of Sucrose Solutions and to which the applicable correction for acid is added. (See Table III for corrections).

TABLE III [1]—CORRECTIONS FOR OBTAINING BRIX VALUE

(g) Explanation of analyses. (1) The measurement of Brix value is determined on the thawed concentrate in accordance with the refractometric method for sugars and sugar products, outlined in the Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists.

(2) "Acid," calculated as anhydrous citric acid, is determined by titration with standard sodium hydroxide solution, using phenolphthalein as indicator.

(3) "Recoverable oil" is determined by the following method:

(i) Equipment. Oil separatory trap similar to either of those illustrated in Figure 1 and Figure 2,[1] gas burner or hot plate, ringstand and clamps, rubber tubing, and 3-liter narrow-neck flask.

(ii) Procedure. Exactly 400 grams of the thawed concentrate mixed with water to approximately two liters are placed in a 3-liter flask. Close the stopcock, place distilled water in the graduated tube, run cold water through the condenser from the bottom to top, and bring the solution to a boil. Boiling is continued for one hour at the rate of approximately 50 drops per minute.

By means of the stopcock, lower the oil into the graduated portion of the separatory trap, remove the trap from the flask, allow it to cool, and record the amount of oil recovered.

The number of milliliters of oil recovered divided by 4 equals the volume of recoverable oil per 100 grams of concentrate.

(4) "Free and suspended pulp" is determined by the following method: Graduated centrifuge tubes with a capacity of 50 ml. are filled with the reconstituted grapefruit juice and placed in a suitable centrifuge. The speed is adjusted, according to diameter, as indicated in Table IV, and the juice is centrifuged for exactly 10 minutes. As used herein, "diameter" means the over-all distance between the bottoms of opposing centrifuge tubes in operating position. After centrifuging, the milliliter reading at the top of the layer of pulp in the tube is multiplied by 2 to give the percentage of pulp.

(h) Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (1) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of frozen concentrated grapefruit juice, the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of such containers fails to meet all the requirements of the grade indicated by the average of such total scores, and, with respect to such containers which fail to meet the requirements of the indicated grade by reason of a limiting rule, the average score of all containers in the sample for the factor, subject to such limiting rule, is within the range for the grade indicated;

(ii) None of the containers comprising the sample falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores; and

(iii) All containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification.

HANDLING OF IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN NASSAU AND SUFFOLK COUNTIES IN NEW YORK

FINDINGS AND DETERMINATIONS ON RESULTS OF REFERENDUM ON PROPOSED MARKETING ORDER

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933) as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Part 900), a public hearing was held at Riverhead, New York, on February 27–March 2, 1950, pursuant to notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 741), upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of potatoes grown in Nassau and Suffolk Counties in New York. The recommended decision (15 F. R. 2241) of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, and the decision (15 F. R. 3057) of the Acting Secretary of Agriculture, setting forth a proposed marketing agreement and order as the appropriate and detailed means for effectuating the declared policy of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 21 and May 19, 1950, respectively. The Acting Secretary also issued an order (15 F. R. 3062) directing that a referendum be conducted among producers of potatoes grown in Nassau and Suffolk Counties in New York to determine whether the requisite majority of such producers favor the issuance of the proposed marketing order.

It is hereby found and determined, on the basis of the results of the referendum conducted pursuant to the aforesaid referendum order, that the issuance of the proposed marketing order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in Nassau and Suffolk Counties in New York, is not approved or favored by the requisite percentage of producers or of the total volume of production voting in the aforesaid referendum.

It is hereby further determined that the proposed marketing order set forth in the Acting Secretary's decision of May 16, 1950 (15 F. R. 3057), cannot be made effective because of the failure of producers to approve or favor its issuance by the requisite percentage of producers or of the total volume of production voting in the referendum conducted among such producers.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of June 1950.

IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN COLORADO

NOTICE OF PROPOSED BUDGET AND RATE OF ASSESSMENT

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture is considering the approval of the budget of expenses and rate of assessment hereinafter set forth, which were recommended by the area committee for Area No. 3, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58 (7 CFR 958.1 et seq.) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Colorado, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq., 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051).

Consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are filed in triplicate with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 15 days following publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposals are as follows:

§ 958.204 Budget of expenses and rate of assessment, Area No. 3. The expenses necessary to be incurred by the area committee for Area No. 3, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58, to enable such committee to perform its functions, pursuant to provisions of the aforesaid marketing agreement and order and regulations duly issued thereunder, during the fiscal period ending May 31, 1951, will amount to $7,059.00.

The rate of assessment to be paid by each handler who first ships potatoes from Area No. 3 shall be one-half of one cent ($0.005) per hundredweight of potatoes shipped by him therefrom as the first shipper thereof during such fiscal period: Provided, That, no assessment shall be paid for a shipment or shipments of potatoes for consumption by a charitable institution or institutions or for distribution for relief purposes or for distribution by a relief agency or agencies.

Terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58.

IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN COLORADO

REGULATION OF SHIPMENTS OF COLORADO AREA 1 POTATOES DURING THE PERIOD JULY 17, 1950, THROUGH MAY 31, 1951

Consideration is being given to the following recommendation, submitted by the administrative committee of Area 1, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58 (7 CFR 958.1 et seq.) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Colorado, issued under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051).

(1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., July 17, 1950, and ending 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., June 1, 1951, no handler shall ship potatoes grown in Area No. 1, as such area is defined in Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58, which do not meet the requirements of Regulation No. 1 limiting shipments to U. S. No. 2 or better grade (General Cull Regulation—published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, July 16, 1949, 14 F. R. 3979) and which are of sizes smaller than 2 inches minimum diameter, as such sizes are defined in the United States Standards for Potatoes (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), including the tolerances provided therein: Provided, That the aforesaid limitations shall not be applicable to (i) potatoes shipped for seed purposes which have been officially certified as seed potatoes by the official Colorado seed certifying agency and which are in containers bearing official Colorado seed certification tag, and (ii) potatoes shipped for consumption by a charitable institution, for relief purposes, or for manufacturing purposes for conversion into by-products.

(2) The terms used herein shall have the same meaning as when used in Order No. 58 (7 CFR 958.1 et seq.).

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the aforesaid proposal may do so by submitting the same to the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the 7th day following publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

RANGE LIGHTS

Whereas, section 360, 33 U. S. C., provides that any requirement as to the number, position, range of visibility or arc of visibility of navigation lights, required to be displayed by naval vessels under acts of Congress, as enumerated in said section 360, 33 U. S. C., shall not apply to any vessel of the Navy where the Secretary of the Navy shall find or certify that, by reason of special construction, it is not possible with respect to such vessel or class of vessels to comply with statutory requirements as to the number, position, range of visibility or arc of visibility of navigation lights; and

Whereas, a study of the arrangement and position of the navigation lights of that type of naval vessels known as Ocean Tugs, Auxiliary, ATA–121 Class, has been made in the Navy Department and, as a result of such study, it has been determined that because of their special construction it is not possible for Ocean Tugs, Auxiliary, ATA–121 Class, to comply with the requirements of the statutes enumerated in said section 360, 33 U. S. C.;

Now, therefore, I Francis P. Matthews, Secretary of the Navy, as a result of the aforesaid study do hereby find and certify that the type of naval vessels known as Ocean Tugs, Auxiliary, ATA–121 Class, are naval vessels of special construction and that on such vessels, with respect to the position of the additional white light (commonly termed the range light), it is not possible to comply with the requirements of the statutes enumerated in section 360, 33 U. S. C. Further, I do find and certify that it is feasible to locate the said additional white light (commonly termed the range light), if such light is installed, forward of the masthead light in such position that the said additional white light and the masthead light shall be in line with the keel and the after light shall be at least fifteen feet higher than the forward light and the vertical distance between the two lights shall be less than the horizontal distance. I further direct that the aforesaid additional white light, if such light is installed, shall be located in the manner above described and I further certify that such location constitutes compliance as closely with the applicable statutes as I hereby find to be feasible.

Dated at Washington, D. C., this 26th day of June A. D. 1950.

FRANCIS P. MATTHEWS,
Secretary of the Navy.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 4435]

BRANIFF AIRWAYS, INC.; LOCAL EXCURSION FARES INVESTIGATION

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of the investigation to determine the lawfulness of the local excursion fares provided in the tariffs of Braniff Airways, Inc.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, particularly sections 205 (a), 404 and 1002 thereof, that hearing in the above-entitled proceeding is assigned to be held on July 27, 1950, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in Room E–214, Temporary Building No. 5, Sixteenth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., before Examiner Paul N. Pfeiffer.

Without limiting the scope of the issues presented by the order of investigation, particular attention will be directed to the following matters and questions:

1. Are the fares, rules, and regulations under consideration unjust or unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory or unduly preferential or prejudicial; and

2. If the fares, rules, and regulations under consideration in this proceeding are unjust or unreasonable or unjustly discriminatory or unduly preferential or prejudicial, what are the lawful fares which the Board should determine and prescribe?

For more detailed information with respect to the issues involved, attention is directed to the prehearing conference report issued in this proceeding on May 19, 1950.

Notice is also given that any person, other than parties of record as of June 27, 1950, desiring to be heard in this proceeding must file with the Board on or before July 27, 1950, a statement setting forth the issues of fact or law raised by this proceeding on which he desires to be heard.

For further details with respect to this investigation, interested parties are referred to the pertinent orders of the Civil Aeronautics Board on file in the docket.

Dated at Washington, D. C., June 27, 1950.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[Docket Nos. 8714, 8919]

RADIO STATION KRMD (KRMD) AND LAKEWOOD BROADCASTING CO.

ORDER SCHEDULING HEARING

In re applications of Radio Station KRMD (KRMD) Shreveport, Louisiana, Docket No. 8919, File No. BP–5983; Eldridge C. Harrell and Delbert Davison, d/b as Lakewood Broadcasting Company, Dallas, Texas, Docket No. 8714, File No. BP–6309; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of June 1950;

The Commission, having under consideration a petition filed December 1, 1949, by Eldridge C. Harrell and Delbert Davison, d/b as Lakewood Broadcasting Company requesting reconsideration and grant without hearing of its above-entitled application for construction permit for a new standard broadcast station at Dallas, Texas to operate on 1480 kc, with power of 1 kilowatt, unlimited time, employing a directional antenna both day and night;

It appearing, that, the above-entitled application was by order of August 11, 1949, designated for consolidated hearing with the conflicting applications of Evangeline Broadcasting Co., Inc. (KVOL), Lafayette, Louisiana and of Radio Station KRMD (KRMD), Shreveport, Louisiana to determine whether objectionable interference with the proposed operations of Stations KVOL and KRMD and with the existing operations of Station KPLT, Paris, Texas; and that North Texas Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station KPLT, was made a party to this proceeding; and

It further appearing, that on November 14, 1949 leave was granted to petitioner to amend its application to make certain changes in its directional antenna system; and that on December 6, 1949 the hearing scheduled herein was continued indefinitely; and

It further appearing, that upon reconsideration of the Lakewood Broadcasting Company application, as amended, and of the aforesaid petition, the proposed operation will involve objectionable interference with the existing operations of Station KPLT and with the proposed operation of Station KRMD; and that for this reason, among others, the Commission is unable to determine that a grant of the said application would serve public interest; and

It further appearing, that, petitioner has accordingly failed to make the necessary showing required by §§ 1.386 and 1.382 of the Commission's rules and regulations governing petitions for reconsideration and grants without hearing;

It is ordered, That, the aforesaid petition of the Lakewood Broadcasting Company for reconsideration and grant of its above-entitled application without hearing is denied; and

It is further ordered, That, the hearing in the above-entitled proceeding heretofore continued indefinitely be scheduled to commence at 10 a. m. on the 20th day of November 1950 at Washington, D. C.

TRI-BOROUGH BROADCASTING CO. (WAVL)

ORDER SCHEDULING HEARING

In re application of Cecil F. Clifton and Andrew J. West d/b as Tri-Borough Broadcasting Company (WAVL), Apollo, Pennsylvania, for construction permit; Docket No. 9545, File No. BP–7142.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of June 1950;

The Commission, having under consideration a petition acompanied by an engineering affidavit, filed January 25, 1950, and supplemented on February 3, 1950, by Cecil F. Clifton and Andrew J. West, d/b as Tri-Borough Broadcasting Company, requesting reconsideration and grant without hearing of the above-entitled application for construction permit to increase the hours of operation of Station WAVL, Apollo, Pennsylvania, from daytime only to unlimited time, using power of 100 watts at night and to make changes in the vertical antenna;

It appearing, that, by order of January 4, 1950, the above-entitled application was designated for hearing to determine, among other things, whether the installation and operation of Station WAVL as proposed would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations, with particular reference to the following matters: type of transmitter to be used, coverage of the city of Apollo, and assignment of a Class IV station to a regional channel; and

It further appearing, that, on March 10, 1950, the hearing on the above-entitled application was continued indefinitely pending consideration of the above-described petition; and

It further appearing, that, upon reconsideration of the above-described application, in the light of the information submitted with the aforesaid petition, the installation and operation of Station WAVL as proposed would not be in compliance with the Commission's rules and standards in that the type of transmitter to be used would be in violation of § 3.41 of the rules, coverage of the city of Apollo would not meet the requirements of the standards, and the proposed operation would not satisfy the conditions set forth in the standards for assignment of a Class IV station to a regional channel; and that for these reasons, among others, the Commission is unable to determine that a grant of said application would serve the public interest;

It is ordered, That, the aforesaid petition of Tri-Borough Broadcasting Company for reconsideration and grant without hearing of its above-entitled application is denied; and

It is further ordered, That, the hearing in the above-entitled proceeding, heretofore continued indefinitely pending action on the instant petition, be scheduled to commence at 10:00 a. m. on the 24th day of November 1950 at Washington, D. C.

RADIO STATION KWOC (KWOC) AND LEE BROADCASTING, INC. (WTAD)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of A. L. McCarthy and J. H. Wolpers, d/b as Radio Station KWOC (KWOC), Poplar Bluff, Missouri, Docket No. 9582, File No. BP–7342; Lee Broadcasting, Incorporated (WTAD), Quincy, Illinois, Docket No. 9708, File No. BP–7566; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application of Lee Broadcasting, Incorporated requesting a construction permit to increase the daytime power of Station WTAD, Quincy, Illinois from 1 kilowatt to 5 kilowatts and to install a new transmitter;

It appearing, that the Commission on February 8, 1950, designated for hearing the above-entitled application of A. L. McCarthy and J. H. Wolpers, d/b as Radio Station KWOC for a construction permit to change the facilities of Station KWOC, Poplar Bluff, Missouri from frequency 1340 kilocycles, 250 watts power, unlimited time to frequency 930 kilocycles, 1 kilowatt power, unlimited time and to install new transmitter; change transmitter location and to install directional antenna for night use only and named Lee Broadcasting, Incorporated, licensee of Station WTAD, Quincy, Illinois and WKY Radiophone Company, licensee of Station WKY, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, parties respondent to the proceeding which is presently scheduled to commence on September 6, 1950, at Washington, D. C.

It is ordered, That pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application of Lee Broadcasting, Incorporated is designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding with the application of A. L. McCarthy and J. H. Wolpers d/b as Radio Station KWOC at 10:00 a. m. on September 6, 1950, at Washington, D. C., upon the following issues:

1. To determine the technical, financial, and other qualifications of the applicant partnership and the partners and of the applicant corporation, its officers, directors, and stockholders to construct and operate Stations KWOC and WTAD as proposed.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Stations KWOC and WTAD as proposed and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the operation of Station KWOC as proposed would involve objectionable interference with Station WKY, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, the presently licensed operation of Station WTAD, Quincy, Illinois, or with any other existing broadcast stations with particular reference as to whether the protection angle of the proposed operation is sufficient to adequately protect the nighttime service areas of Stations WKY and WTAD and whether the operation of Station WTAD as proposed would involve objectionable interference with the presently licensed operation of Station KIOA, Des Moines, Iowa, or with any other existing broadcast stations and, if there is objectionable interference involved, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the operation of Stations KWOC and WTAD as proposed would involve objectionable interference each with the other or with the services proposed in the application of Independent Broadcasting Company (File Number BP–7005, Docket Number 9582) or in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the installation and operation of Stations KWOC and WTAD as proposed would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations with particular reference to whether the proposed operation of Station KWOC meets those provisions pertaining to the assignment of stations where objectionable interference would be received to a field intensity contour greater than that specified for a station of its class.

7. To determine the overlap, if any, that will exist between the service areas of Station KFAB, Omaha, Nebraska, and the proposed operation of Station WTAD, the nature and extent thereof, and whether such overlap, if any, is in contravention of § 3.35 of the Commission's rules.

8. To determine on a comparative basis which, if either, of the applications in this consolidated proceeding, should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the order of the Commission dated February 8, 1950, designating for hearing the above-entitled application of A. L. McCarthy and J. H. Wolpers d/b as Radio Station KWOC is amended to include the application of Lee Broadcasting, Incorporated, and to revise all issues therein to include and conform with all issues specified herein; and

It is further ordered, That Independent Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station KIOA, Des Moines, Iowa, is made a party to the proceeding with reference to the application of Lee Broadcasting, Incorporated, only and that WKY Radiophone Company, licensee of Station WKY, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, is a party to this proceeding with reference to the application of A. L. McCarthy and J. H. Wolpers d/b as Radio Station KWOC only.

ORDER DELETING ISSUE

In re application of Victor J. Tedesco, Albert S. Tedesco, Antonio S. Tedesco and Nicholas Tedesco d/b as South St. Paul Broadcasting Company, South St. Paul, Minnesota, for construction permit; Docket No. 9658, File No. BP–7576.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application for a permit to construct a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1590 kilocycles with 1 kilowatt power, daytime only, at South St. Paul, Minnesota;

It appearing, that the said application was designated for hearing May 12, 1950, to determine, among other things, whether any overlap in contravention of § 3.25 of the Commission's rules exists between the service areas of the proposed station and of Station WSHB, Stillwater, Minnesota, and the nature and extent thereof;

It further appearing, that all parties to the above-entitled application have relinquished their ownership interests in Station WSHB as the result of a voluntary assignment of license from the St. Croix Broadcasting Company to William F. Johns, Jr., and Penrose H. Johns, a partnership d/b as St. Croix Broadcasting Company, granted by Commission action on March 30, 1950;

It is ordered, That the Commission's order of May 12, 1950, designating the above-entitled application for hearing, is amended to delete Issue Number 1 therefrom.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Prairie Broadcasting Company, Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, for construction permit; Docket No. 9705, File No. BP-7554.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application for a permit to construct a new standard broadcast station to operate daytime only on frequency 740 kilocycles with 250 watts power at Beaver Dam, Wisconsin;

It appearing, that the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to operate the proposed station, but that the application may involve interference with one or more existing stations and otherwise not comply with the Standards of Good Engineering Practice;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application is designated for hearing commencing at 10:00 a. m. on November 14, 1950, at Washington, D. C., upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of the proposed station, and the character of other broadcast service available to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with Station WGN, Chicago, Illinois or with any other existing broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

4. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed station would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

In re applications of Cecil W. Roberts (KREI), Farmington, Missouri, Docket No. 9712, File No. BP-7572; Pyramid Radio Broadcasting and Television Company, Incorporated, West Frankfort, Illinois, Docket No. 9713, File No. BP-7610; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications of Cecil W. Roberts requesting a construction permit to change the frequency of Station KREI, Farmington, Missouri, from frequency 1350 kilocycles to 800 kilocycles and of Pyramid Radio Broadcasting and Television Company, Incorporated, requesting a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on frequency 800 kilocycles, with 1 kilowatt power, daytime only at West Frankfort, Illinois;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding at 10:00 a. m. o November 27, 1950, at Washington, D. C., upon the following issues:

1. To determine the technical, financial and other qualifications of the individual applicant and the legal, technical, financial and other qualifications of the applicant corporation, its officers, directors and stockholders to construct and operate Station KREI as proposed and the proposed station.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Station KREI as proposed and the proposed station and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served:

4. To determine whether the operation of Station KREI as proposed and the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with Station KXIC, Iowa City, Iowa, or with any other existing broadcast stations and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the operation of Station KREI as proposed and the proposed station would involve objectionable interference each with the other or with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the installation and operation of Station KREI as proposed and the proposed station would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine the overlap, if any, that will exist between the service areas of Station WKYB and the operation proposed in the above-entitled application of Pyramid Radio Broadcasting and Television Company, Incorporated, the nature and extent thereof, and whether such overlap, if any, is in contravention of § 3.35 of the Commission's rules.

8. To determine on a comparative basis which, if either, of the applications in this consolidated proceeding, should be granted.

It is further ordered, That Johnson County Broadcasting Corporation, licensee of Station KXIC, Iowa City, Iowa, is made a party to this proceeding.

FEDERAL MARITIME BOARD

AMERICAN PRESIDENT LINES, LTD., ET AL.

NOTICE OF AGREEMENTS FILED FOR APPROVAL

Notice is hereby given that the following described agreements have been filed with the Board for approval pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended:

Agreement No. 7767, between American President Lines, Ltd., and Railway Express Agency, Inc., is an arrangement whereby American President Lines, Ltd., agrees to transport the business of Railway Express Agency, Inc., in the trade between San Francisco or Los Angeles Harbor and Hawaiian Islands at specified rates. American President Lines, Ltd., is relieved from liability in the handling of money, currency, gold coin, valuables and merchandise on which Railway Express Agency, Inc., is to carry marine insurance. Agreement 7767 will supersede agreements 7649 and 7619.

Agreement No. 7766, between Matson Navigation Company and Railway Express Agency, Inc., is an arrangement whereby Matson Navigation Company agrees to transport the business of the Railway Express Agency, Inc., in the trade between San Francisco or Los Angeles Harbor and Hawaiian Islands at specified rates. Matson Navigation Company is relieved from liability in the handling of money, currency, gold coin, valuables and merchandise on which Railway Express Agency, Inc., is to carry marine insurance. Agreement 7766 will supersede agreements 7647 and 7571.

Agreement No. 7762, between Bull Insular Line, Inc. and the carriers comprising the Barber-Wilhelmsen Line, covers transportation of general cargo under through bills of lading from Japan and the Philippine Islands to Puerto Rico, with transshipment at New York, Baltimore or Philadelphia.

Agreement No. 5600-15 (Revised), between the member lines of the Associated Steamship Lines (Manila) Conference, modifies the basic agreement of said conference (No. 5600) to provide that member lines or their agents may handle or husband non-conference tonnage, provided such operation does not conflict or harm the interests of any of the member lines of the Conference, but under no circumstances are members or their agents permitted to act as cargo booking agents for any non-conference vessel regardless of whether conference rates are observed and irrespective of whether the member or his agent husbands the vessel or not. Agreement No. 5600 covers the trades from the Philippine Islands to or via ports in Ceylon, India, Pakistan, Malaya, East Indies, Indo-China, Burma, Siam, Hong Kong, China, Korea, Japan, Siberia, United States of America, Canada, Cuba, Mexico, Central America, Canal Zone, South America, Caribbean Sea Ports, the West Indies, Australia and New Zealand.

G. L. CARRICO

NOTICE OF APPLICATION FOR PRELIMINARY PERMIT

JUNE 26, 1950.

Public notice is hereby given that G. L. Carrico, of San Francisco, California, has filed application under the Federal Power Act (16 U. S. C. 791a–825r) for preliminary permit for proposed water-power Project No. 2049 to be located on Middle Fork of Eel River, Hulls Creek (tributary of North Fork of Eel River), and Short Creek (tributary of Middle Fork of Eel River) in Mendocino and Trinity Counties, California, and consisting of a dam (No. 1) on Middle Fork of Eel River, a tunnel about 4 miles long, a penstock, and a powerhouse (No. 1) on Hulls Creek; a main storage dam (No. 2) on Hulls Creek creating a reservoir with capacity of about 250,000 acre-feet and area of about 1,200 acres, from which water would be diverted into Short Creek through a penstock leading to a power-house (No. 2) which would be constructed on that stream; a dam (No. 3) on Short Creek, a penstock, and a power-house (No. 3); a dam (No. 4) on Short Creek below powerhouse No. 3, impounding approximately 10,000 acre-feet of water; and appurtenant facilities. Dam No. 4 would be constructed primarily to provide water for irrigation but would also serve as a reregulating dam. The combined proposed installed capacity of the three powerhouses is 27,500 kilowatts. The preliminary permit, if issued, shall be for the sole purpose of maintaining priority of application for a license under the terms of the Federal Power Act for the proposed project.

Any protest against the approval of this application or request for hearing thereon, with the reasons for such protest or request and the name and address of the party or parties so protesting or requesting, should be submitted before August 4, 1950, to the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C.

[SEAL] LEON M. FUQUAY,
Secretary.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10135

FURTHER EXTENSION OF EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 9898[1] OF OCTOBER 14, 1947, AS AMENDED, SUSPENDING THE EIGHT-HOUR LAW AS TO LABORERS AND MECHANICS EMPLOYED BY THE DEPARTMENTS OF THE ARMY AND THE AIR FORCE ON CERTAIN PUBLIC WORKS

WHEREAS Executive Order No. 9898 of October 14, 1947, as amended by Executive Order No. 9926[2] of January 17, 1948, and as extended by Executive Order No. 9974[3] of July 1, 1948, and Executive Order No. 10064[4] of June 30, 1949, suspends until July 1, 1950, the provisions of section 1 of the act of August 1, 1892, 27 Stat. 340, as amended by the act of March 3, 1913, 37 Stat. 726 (the eight-hour law) as to all work performed by laborers and mechanics employed by the Department of the Army or the Department of the Air Force with respect to which the Secretary of the Army or the Secretary of the Air Force, respectively, shall find suspension essential to (1) the supply and maintenance of the military or naval forces, (2) the completion of essential construction, or (3) the fulfillment of international commitments: Provided, that the wages of all laborers and mechanics so employed shall be computed on a basic day rate of eight hours of work with overtime to be paid at time and one-half for all hours of work in excess of eight hours in any one day; and

WHEREAS I find that the extraordinary emergency described in the said Executive Order No. 9898 and constituting the basis of the suspension effected thereby still exists:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 1 of the said act of August 1, 1892, as amended by the said act of March 3, 1913, and as President of the United States, I hereby further extend the provisions of the said Executive Order No. 9898 of October 14, 1947, as amended by Executive Order No. 9926 of January 17, 1948, to July 1, 1951.

AMENDING EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 10077[1] OF SEPTEMBER 7, 1949, ENTITLED "TRANSFER OF THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE ISLAND OF GUAM FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE NAVY TO THE SECRETARY OF THE INTERIOR"

By virtue of the authority vested in me as President of the United States, and finding such action to be in the public interest, Executive Order No. 10077 of September 7, 1949, which transfers the adminstration of the Island of Guam from the Secretary of the Navy to the Secretary of the Interior and revokes Executive Order No. 108–A of December 23, 1898, effective as of July 1, 1950, is hereby amended by changing the effective date of such transfer of administration and such revocation to August 1, 1950.

This order shall become effective on June 30, 1950.

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10138

CREATING AN EMERGENCY BOARD TO INVESTIGATE DISPUTE BETWEEN THE TOLEDO, LORAIN & FAIRPORT DOCK COMPANY AND CERTAIN OF ITS EMPLOYEES

WHEREAS a dispute exists between the Toledo, Lorain & Fairport Dock Company, a carrier, and certain of its employees represented by the International Longshoremen's Association, A. F. of L., a labor organization; and

WHEREAS this dispute has not heretofore been adjusted under the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, as amended; and

WHEREAS this dispute, in the judgment of the National Mediation Board, threatens substantially to interrupt interstate commerce to a degree such as to deprive a section of the country of essential transportation service:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 10 of the Railway Labor Act, as amended (45 U. S. C. 160), I hereby create a board of three members, to be appointed by me, to investigate the said dispute. No member of the said board shall be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any organization of railway employees or any carrier.

The board shall report its findings to the President with respect to the said dispute within thirty days from the date of this order.

As provided by section 10 of the Railway Labor Act, as amended, from this date and for thirty days after the board has made its report to the President, no change, except by agreement, shall be made by the Toledo, Lorain & Fairport Dock Company or its employees in the conditions out of which the said dispute arose.

TITLE 5—ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL

Chapter I—Civil Service Commission

PART 24—FORMAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS FOR APPOINTMENT, TO CERTAIN SCIENTIFIC, TECHNICAL, AND PROFESSIONAL POSITIONS

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

1. Paragraph (a) of § 24.108 is amended to read as follows:

§ 24.108 Social Worker—Public Welfare Adviser (Child Welfare) GS–102–9–13—(a) Educational requirement. Applicants must have completed 2 years (1 year for legislation specialists) of study in an accredited school of social work, including courses in case work, child welfare, and supervised field work in case work.

2. Paragraph (a) of § 24.109 is amended to read as follows:

§ 24.109 Social Worker — Public Welfare Advisor (Psychiatric and Medical), GS–185–12–13 and GS–102–11–13—(a) Educational requirement. Applicants must have completed 2 years of study in an accredited school of social work, including courses in case work, psychiatric information, medical information, and supervised field work in case work.

3. Section 24.110 is hereby added as follows:

§ 24.110 Social Worker, Public Welfare Adviser (Public Assistance), GS–102–9–13—(a) Educational requirement. Applicants must have completed 1 year of study in an accredited school of social work, including courses in case work and supervised field work in case work.

(b) Duties. Social workers, Public Welfare Advisers (Public Assistance), render advisory services for operating social welfare programs in the development and carrying out on a nation-wide basis of a broad public welfare program for financial assistance and case work services to the needy aged, needy blind, and dependent children. They exercise leadership in assisting State welfare departments to use effectively Federal and State resources and to develop programs not only to meet economic need but also to develop and strengthen case work services. They advise State welfare departments on legislation, organization, social policies, and methods of social investigations and social treatment that will facilitate efficient and equitable administration by the States and extend to individual recipients opportunity to utilize fully benefits and services. They report back to the Federal agency on the impact of the program in communities and in typical individual case situations for the purpose of guiding the development or modification of policy.

(c) Knowledge and training requisite for performance of duties. The duties require a knowledge of the field of social case work and public welfare administration. An understanding of the norms of individual behavior and family life, typical deviations from these norms, the effects of financial dependency upon the individual and society, economic risks against which safeguards should be provided, knowledge of the principles of the social investigation and social treatment are required. This knowledge can be acquired only through the completion of the training shown in paragraph (a) of this section in which there is competent instruction and integration of principles and techniques through carefully supervised practice in a controlled setting and the application of sound standards in evaluation of progress.

DESIGNATION OF BENEFICIARY

Section 29.9 is amended to read as follows:

§ 29.9 Designation of beneficiary. (a) The designation of beneficiary shall be in writing, signed and witnessed, and received in the Civil Service Commission prior to the death of the designator.

(b) No change or cancellation of beneficiary in a last will or testament, or in any other document not witnessed and filed as required by this section shall have any force or effect.

(c) A witness to a designation of beneficiary is ineligible to receive payment as a beneficiary.

(d) Any person, firm, corporation, or legal entity may be named as beneficiary.

(e) A change of beneficiary may be made at any time and without the knowledge or consent of the previous beneficiary, and this right cannot be waived or restricted.

(f) All designations received in the Civil Service Commission before September 1, 1950, shall be null and void, except where an application for benefits based on the designator's death is received in the Commission prior to January 1, 1951.

(g) This section shall apply to designations, changes or revocations of beneficiary by employees or former employees subject to the act of May 29, 1930, as amended.

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR GREEN CORN

On May 24, 1950, a notice of rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (F. R. Doc. 50-4389; 15 F. R. 3157) regarding the proposed revision of United States Standards for Green Corn currently in effect. After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, the revised United States Standards for Green Corn that are hereinafter set forth and which will supersede the United States Standards for Green Corn that have been in effect since March 12, 1945, are hereby promulgated under the authority contained in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1950 (Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong., approved June 29, 1949):

§ 51.202 Standards for green corn—(a) Grades—(1) U. S. No. 1. U. S. No. 1 shall consist of ears of green corn of similar varietal characteristics which are well trimmed, well formed, and free from smut, decay and from damage caused by other disease, insects, birds, mechanical or other means. Cobs shall be well filled, with plump and milky kernels and well covered with fresh, green husks.

(i) Each ear may be clipped but unless otherwise specified, the length of each cob, clipped or unclipped, shall be not less than 5 inches. Each clipped ear shall be properly clipped.

(ii) In order to allow for variations other than length of cob incident to proper grading and handling, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the ears of corn in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, including not more than 2 percent for ears affected by decay. In addition, not more than 5 percent, by count, of the ears in any lot may fail to meet the requirements as to length of cob.

(2) U. S. Fancy. U. S. Fancy shall consist of ears of green corn which meet the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade, except that the ears shall be free from worms and insect injury, and the length of the cob shall be not less than 6 inches and the ears shall not be clipped.

(i) In order to allow for variations, other than length of cob, incident to proper grading and handling, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the ears of corn in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, including not more than 2 percent for ears affected by decay. In addition, not more than 5 percent, by count, of the ears in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, including not more than 2 percent for ears affected by decay, and not more than 5 percent, by count, of the ears in any lot may fail to meet the requirements as to length of cob.

(b) Unclassified. Unclassified shall consist of corn which fails to meet the requirements of either of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards, but is provided as a designation to show that no definite grade has been applied to the lot.

(c) Count. The number of ears in the container may be specified by numerical count or in terms of dozens or half dozens. Variation from the number specified shall be as follows: Provided, That the lot averages not more than one ear less than the number specified:

60 ears or less, 3 ear variation.
More than 60 ears, 4 ear variation.

(d) Application of tolerances. (1) The contents of individual containers in the lot, based on sample inspection, are subject to the following limitations, provided the averages for the entire lot are within the tolerances specified:

(2) When a tolerance is 10 percent or more, individual containers in any lot shall have not more than one and one-half times the tolerance specified, except that at least one defective and one off-sized specimen may be permitted in any container.

(3) When a tolerance is less than 10 percent, individual containers in any lot shall have not more than double the tolerance specified, except that at least one defective and one off-sized specimen may be permitted in any container.

(e) Definitions. (1) "Similar varietal characteristics" means that the ears in any container are of similar color and character of growth. Ears of field and sweet corn or white and yellow corn shall not be mixed in the same container.

(2) "Well trimmed" means that the ears are practically free from loose husks and that the shank shall be not more than 6 inches in length and not extend more than 1 inch beyond the point of attachment of the outside husk.

(3) "Well formed" means that the ears are not stunted. Nubbins are not well formed ears.

(4) "Damage" means injury from any cause which materially affects the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the ear. Unclipped ears showing worm injury extending not more than one and one-half inches from the tip of the cob shall not be regarded as damaged, but worm injury affecting kernels on other parts of the cob shall be considered as damage. When ears are clipped, any worm injury remaining shall be regarded as damage.

(5) "Well filled" means that the rows of kernels show fairly uniform development, and that the appearance and quality of the edible portion of the ear are not materially affected by poorly developed rows. When the ear has not been clipped, not more than one-fourth of the length of the cob may have poorly developed or missing kernels at the tip. When the ear has been clipped it shall have practically no poorly developed kernels at the tip of the cob. Missing or poorly developed kernels on other parts of the ear shall not aggregate more than one square inch on a cob 6 inches in length, and a proportionally greater area shall be permitted on a longer cob and a proportionally lesser area on a shorter cob.

(6) "Plump and milky" means that the kernels are well developed but are not overmature or shriveled.

(7) "Fresh" means that the husks are not badly wilted, dried, or turning yellow or brown.

(8) "Properly clipped" means that either the end of the cob, or the end of the cob and husk have been neatly removed at approximately a right angle to the longitudinal axis.

(f) Effective time and supersedure. The revised United States Standards for Green Corn contained in this section shall become effective thirty (30) days after the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER and thereupon supersede the current United States Standards for Green Corn which have been in effect since March 12, 1945.

(Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of June 1950.

Chapter VIII—Production and Marketing Administration (Sugar Branch), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter H—Determination of Wage Rates

[Sugar Determination 863.3]

PART 863—SUGARCANE; FLORIDA

WAGE RATES DURING PERIOD JULY 1, 1950 THROUGH JUNE 30, 1951

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (c) (1) of the Sugar Act of 1948 (herein referred to as "act"), after investigation, and consideration of the evidence obtained at the public hearing held in Clewiston, Florida on May 6, 1950, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 863.3 Fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane in Florida during the period July 1, 1950 through June 30, 1951—(a) Wage requirements. The requirements of section 301 (c) (1) of the act shall be deemed to have been met with respect to the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane in Florida during the period from July 1, 1950 through June 30, 1951, if the producer complies with the following:

(1) Wage rates. All persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane shall have been paid in full for all such work and shall have been paid wages in cash therefor at rates as agreed upon between the producer and the laborer, but, after July 1, 1950, or the date of issuance of this determination, whichever is later, not less than the following:

(i) For work performed on a time basis:

	Cents per hour
(a) All work except as otherwise specified:
Adult males	45.0
Adult females	38.0
(b) Tractor drivers and operators of mechanical harvesting or loading equipment	55.0
(c) Workers between 14 and 16 years of age (maximum employment per day for such workers, without deduction from payments under the Act to the producer, is 8 hours)	38.0

(ii) For work performed on a piecework basis. The piecework rate for any operation shall be as agreed upon between the producer and the laborer: Provided, That the hourly rate of earnings of each laborer employed on piecework during each pay period (such pay period not to be in excess of two weeks) shall average for the time involved not less than the applicable hourly rate prescribed in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(b) Perquisites. In addition to the foregoing, the producer shall furnish to the laborers, without charge, the perquisites customarily furnished by him, such as a habitable house, garden plot, medical attention, and similar items.

(c) Subterfuge. The producer shall not reduce the wage rates to laborers below those determined in this section through any subterfuge or device whatsoever.

(d) Claim for unpaid wages. Any person who believes he has not been paid in accordance with this determination may file a wage claim with the local County Production and Marketing Administration Committee against the producer on whose farm the work was performed. Such claim must be filed within two years from the date the work with respect to which the claim is made was performed. Detailed instructions and wage claim forms are available at the office of the local County PMA Committee. Upon receipt of a wage claim the County PMA Committee shall thereupon notify the producer against whom the claim is made concerning the representation made by the laborer, and, after making such investigation as it deems necessary, notify the producer and laborer in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If either party is not satisfied with the recommended settlement, an appeal may be made to the State PMA Committee, Seagle Building, Gainesville, Florida, which shall likewise consider the facts and notify the producer and laborer in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If the recommendation of the State PMA Committee is not acceptable, either party may file an appeal with the Director of the Sugar Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All such appeals shall be filed within 15 days after receipt of the recommended settlement from the respective committee, otherwise such recommended settlements will be applied in making payments under the act. If a claim is appealed to the Director of the Sugar Branch, his decision shall be binding on all parties insofar as payments under the act are concerned.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

(a) General. The foregoing determination provides fair and reasonable wage rates which a producer must pay, as a minimum, for work performed by persons employed on the farm in the production, cultivation, or harvesting of sugarcane in Florida during the period from July 1, 1950, through June 30, 1951, as one of the conditions for payment under the act. In this statement, the foregoing determination, as well as determinations for prior years, will be referred to as "wage determination" identified by the period for which effective.

(b) Requirements of the act and standards employed. In determining fair and reasonable wage rates it is required under the act that a public hearing be held, that investigations be made, and that consideration be given to (1) the standards formerly established by the Secretary under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, and (2), the differences in conditions among various sugar producing areas.

A public hearing was held in Clewiston, Florida, on May 6, 1950, at which interested persons presented testimony with respect to fair and reasonable wage rates for sugarcane work during the period from July 1, 1950 through June 30, 1951. In addition, investigations have been made of conditions affecting such wage rates. In this determination consideration has been given to the testimony presented at the hearing and to information resulting from investigations. The primary factors which have been considered are (1) prices of sugar and by-products; (2) income from sugarcane; (3) costs of production; (4) cost of living; (5) relationship of labor cost to total cost. Other economic influences also have been considered.

(c) Background. Wage determinations for sugarcane work in Florida have been issued each year since 1937. The first covered work in the harvesting of the 1937 crop while subsequent determinations covered all work applicable to the production, cultivation, or harvesting. Until the 1945-46 crop harvesting wage determination, two wage determinations were issued each year, one covering production and cultivation for a calendar year, the other covering the harvesting of a crop. In the 1945-46 crop harvesting wage determination, production and cultivation wage rates also were included for the first six months of the calendar year 1946. Beginning July 1, 1946, a single determination has been issued each year for a 12-month period covering production, cultivation, and harvesting wages.

The early determinations specified time rates for adult male and female workers with alternative tonnage rates for harvesting. Subsequently, rate coverage was extended to include semi-skilled workers and workers between 14 and 16 years of age. Beginning with the 1946–47 wage determination the rate differential theretofore existing between harvest and nonharvest operations were eliminated. The time rates subsequently provided were applicable to all work on sugarcane. Also, the practice of establishing specific harvesting piecework rates was discontinued beginning with the 1946–47 wage determination. This latter change was made because the use of tonnage rates was discontinued by producers in favor of row rates since the latter were believed to provide greater incentive for increased output and earnings.

The many variable factors involved made it impracticable to establish per row rates in subsequent determinations. However, provision was made for piecework rates by specifying that such rates for all classes of work were to be as agreed upon between producers and workers but subject to a minimum hourly guarantee of the workers' earnings. In the 1946–47 and 1947–48 wage determinations there were minor variations with respect to the amount or applicability of the minimum hourly guarantee. However, since July 1, 1948, the hourly earnings guarantee provisions have applied to all workers employed on a piecework basis in either harvest or nonharvest work and have been at rates not less than the applicable basic hourly rate for the class of work stipulated in the determination.

Generally, the level of rates established in the early determinations reflected the wage-income relationship prior to 1938. In the wage determinations covering the 1944–45 crop, an adjustment was made in the wage-income relationship after reappraisal of the factors influencing wage rates. Wage rates have been adjusted periodically to recognize economic changes. As a result of changes in the economic factors affecting wage rates, together with the adjustment in the wage-income relationship, the weighted average basic time rates have been increased from 17.9 cents per hour in 1938 to 45.8 cents per hour in 1949–50, an increase of 155.9 percent.

(d) 1950–51 wage determination. The 1950–51 wage determination continues unchanged the basic wage rate structure of the 1949–50 wage determination. There is included for the first time a provision which sets forth the procedure which should be followed by a person who believes he has not been paid in accordance with this determination. Although wage claim procedure has been in effect in prior years, its inclusion in wage determinations will make such information generally available to all producers and laborers.

An examination of the economic factors generally considered in wage determinations indicates that there has been reasonable stability in such factors during the past year. While production costs averaged somewhat lower due to slight declines in prices paid for commodities and somewhat higher production yields, producer income was also lower. The reduction in producer income is attributable largely to declines in the price of molasses. Available data indicate that labor productivity has improved as compared with prior years. Despite these changes, the relationship of labor costs to total costs is practically unchanged. In addition, living costs to workers are not significantly different than a year ago.

In this area a considerable portion of cultivation and harvesting work is performed on a piecework basis and workers' earnings are considerably above the minimum rates established. During 1949–50 the earnings of workers employed on piecework in cultivation were reported to average about 60 cents per hour and between 73 and 98 cents per hour for cutting sugarcane during the harvest. In a number of instances the actual hourly rates paid to workers employed on a time basis also were significantly above the minimum rates provided. In addition to these wages, producers furnish workers, without charge, the customary perquisites such as housing, water, garden plot, and medical attention.

At the public hearing it was recommended that the minimum guarantee of earnings to workers employed on a piecework basis be eliminated from the determination. While consideration has been given to this recommendation, it is believed that the absence of a minimum guarantee of earnings in cases where minimum piecework rates are not specified would deny to the majority of workers the protection of the wage provisions of the Act. The continuation of the provisions of the 1949–50 wage determination will afford adequate protection to workers and permits desired flexibility in the wage scale for the Florida sugarcane producing area. After consideration of the economic factors affecting the production of sugarcane in Florida and testimony presented at the public hearing, it is deemed fair and reasonable to continue unchanged the basic rates specified in the 1949–50 wage determination.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing wage determination will effectuate the wage provisions of the Sugar Act.

PART 958—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN COLORADO

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS OF COLORADO AREA NO. 3 POTATOES DURING THE PERIOD JULY 10, 1950, THROUGH MAY 31, 1951

Notice of proposed rule making with respect to shipments of potatoes grown in Area 3, State of Colorado, to be made effective under Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58 (7 CFR, Part 958), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Colorado, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 3968). This regulatory program is effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051). After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposed rule set forth in the aforesaid notice, which proposed rule was recommended by the administrative committee for Area No. 3 (established pursuant to said marketing agreement and order), it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments hereinafter set forth, in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

§ 958.305 Limitation of shipments, Area No. 3—(a) Findings. It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to postpone the effective date of this action until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER in that (1) shipments of potatoes from the production area will have begun by July 10, 1950; (2) more orderly marketing in the public interest than would otherwise prevail will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes in the manner hereinafter set forth on and after the effective date of this section; (3) notice has been given of the proposed limitation of shipments by publication thereof, as required by law (15 F. R. 3968); and (4) the order should become effective on July 10, 1950, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., July 10, 1950, and ending 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., June 1, 1951, no handler shall ship potatoes grown in Area No. 3, as such area is defined in Marketing Agreement No. 97 and Order No. 58, which do not meet the requirements of Regulation No. 1 limiting shipments to U. S. No. 2 or better grade (General Cull Regulation, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, July 16, 1949, 14 F. R. 3979) and which are of sizes smaller than 2 inches minimum diameter, as such sizes are defined in the United States Standards for Potatoes (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), including the tolerances provided therein: Provided, That the aforesaid limitations shall not be applicable to (i) potatoes shipped for seed purposes which have been officially certified as seed potatoes by the official Colorado seed certifying agency and which are in containers bearing official Colorado seed certification tag, and (ii) potatoes shipped for consumption by a charitable institution, for relief purposes, or for manufacturing purposes for conversion into byproducts.

(2) The terms used herein shall have the same meaning as when used in Order No. 58 (7 CFR 958.1 et seq.).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 29th day of June 1950, to be effective on July 10, 1950.

PART 550—FEDERAL AID TO PUBLIC AGENCIES FOR DEVELOPMENT OF PUBLIC AIRPORTS

SEMI-FINAL GRANT PAYMENTS

Acting pursuant to the authority vested in me by the Federal Airport Act, I hereby amend Part 550 of the regulations of the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics as follows:

Section 550.9 (c) is amended to read:

§ 550.9 Grant payments. * * *

(c) Semifinal grant payments. Whenever the accomplishment of certain airport development on a project is delayed or suspended for an appreciable length of time for reasons beyond the sponsor's control and the allowability of the project costs of all airport development completed has been determined on the basis of an audit and review of all such costs, a semi-final grant payment may be made in an amount sufficient to bring the aggregate amount of all partial grant payments for the project to the United States' share of all allowable project costs incurred even though such amount may be in excess of the 90 percent limitations specified in paragraph (b) (2) of this section, but in no event to an amount in excess of the maximum obligation of the United States as stated in the Grant Agreement.

This amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In the Matter of Henry G. Pearl and Mildred Pearl, Individually and as Copartners Trading as Pearl Garment Co., Mode Craft Co., and Mode Craft

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the respondents' answer thereto, a stipulation of facts entered into by and between counsel for the respondents and counsel in support of the complaint, and the trial examiner's recommended decision (no briefs having been filed and oral argument not having been requested); and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondents have violated the provisions of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939 and the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That the respondents, Henry G. Pearl and Mildred Pearl, individually and as co-partners trading under the names Pearl Garment Co., Mode Craft Co., and Mode Craft, or trading under any other name, and their agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the manufacture for introduction, or introduction, into commerce, or the sale, transportation or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid acts, of women's coats, suits or other articles of wearing apparel, which contain, purport to contain, or in any way are represented as containing "wool", "reprocessed wool" or "reused wool", as those terms are defined in the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, do forthwith cease and desist from misbranding such products by failing to securely affix to or place on each of such products a stamp, tag, label, or other means of identification, or a substitute therefor, showing in a clear and conspicuous manner:

(A) The percentage of the total fiber weight of such wool product, exclusive of ornamentation not exceeding 5 per centum of said total fiber weight, of (1) wool; (2) reprocessed wool; (3) reused wool; (4) each fiber other than wool where said percentage by weight of such fiber is 5 per centum or more; and (5) the aggregate of all other fibers;

(B) The maximum percentage of the total weight of such wool product, of any nonfibrous loading, filling, or adulterating matter;

(C) In the case of a wool product containing a fiber other than wool, the percentages by weight, in words and figures plainly legible, of the wool contents thereof;

Provided, That the foregoing shall not be construed to prohibit acts permitted by paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 3 of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939: And provided, further, That nothing contained in this order shall be construed as limiting any applicable provision of said act or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with said order.

Issued: May 10, 1950.

In the Matter of Alexander Conn and Lionel Conn, Doing Business as Conn's Clothiers

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the substitute answer of the respondents, in which answer said respondents admitted all of the material allegations of fact set forth in said complaint and waived all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts, and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondents have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939:

It is ordered, That the respondents, Alexander Conn and Lionel Conn, individually and trading as Conn's Clothiers, or trading under any other name, jointly or severally, and their agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the introduction into commerce or the sale, transportation or distribution in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid acts, of men's wearing apparel or any other "wool products", as such products are defined in and subject to the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, which contain, purport to contain, or in any way are represented as containing "wool", "reprocessed wool", or "reused wool", as those terms are defined in said act, do forthwith cease and desist from misbranding such products by failing to affix securely to, or place on, such products a stamp, tag, label, or other means of identification, showing in a clear and conspicuous manner:

(a) The percentage of the total fiber weight of such wool products, exclusive of ornamentation not exceeding five per centum of said total fiber weight, of (1) wool; (2) reprocessed wool; (3) reused wool; (4) each fiber other than wool where said percentage by weight of such fiber is five per centum or more; and (5) the aggregate of all other fibers.

(b) The maximum percentage of the total weight of such wool products of any nonfibrous loading, filling or adulterating matter.

(c) The name or registered identification number of the manufacturer of such wool products or of one or more persons introducing such wool products into commerce, or engaged in the sale, transportation or distribution thereof in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act and the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939.

(d) In the case of a wool product containing a fiber other than wool, the percentages, by weight, in words and figures plainly legible, of the wool contents thereof.

Provided, That the foregoing provisions concerning misbranding shall not be construed to prohibit acts permitted by paragraphs (a) and (b) of section 3 of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939: And provided, further, That nothing contained in this order shall be construed as limiting any applicable provision of said act or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

It is further ordered, That said respondents and their agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the purchase, offering for sale, sale or distribution of men's wearing apparel or any other "wool products", as such products are defined in and subject to the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, do forthwith cease and desist from causing or participating in the mutilation of any stamp, tag, label, or other means of identification, affixed to any such "wool product" pursuant to the provisions of the Wool Products Labeling Act of 1939, with intent to violate the provisions of said act, and which stamp, tag, label, or other means of identification purports to contain all or any part of the information required by said act.

It is further ordered, That the respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

NOTICES

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

CALIFORNIA

CLASSIFICATION ORDER

JUNE 16, 1950.

1. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Director, Bureau of Land Management, by Order No. 319 dated July 19, 1948 (43 CFR 50.451 (b) (3), 13 F. R. 4278), I hereby classify under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609), as amended July 14, 1945 (59 Stat. 467, 43 U. S. C. section 682a), as hereinafter indicated, the following described land in the Los Angeles, California, land district, embracing approximately 130 acres,

CALIFORNIA SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION No. 226

For lease and sale for homesites only:

T. 9 N., R. 1 E., S. B. M.,
Sec. 6, N½SE¼NW¼, Lot 2 of NE¼, N½SW¼NE¼, W½SE¼SW¼NE¼, NW¼SE¼NE¼, N½SW¼SE¼NE¼, and Tracts numbered 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, and 11 (formerly parts of Lot 1 of NW¼ and Lot 2 of SW¼).

Leases for lands in Lot 2 of NE¼ will not be issued until a supplemental plat has been prepared assigning tract numbers to the parts of the subdivision to be leased.

The lands are situated about 5 miles east of the Town of Barstow, California, and are traversed by U. S. Highway 91. They are on the Mojave Desert and are favorably located from the standpoint of accessibility and topography. The Town of Barstow is a rapidly growing community and has all of the usual facilities for trade and schools, churches, theatres and hospitals.

The rainfall is light and temperatures vary greatly as in all desert areas. Domestic water can be obtained from wells at depths ranging from 50 to 125 feet.

2. As to applications regularly filed prior to 8:30 a. m., February 1, 1949, and are for the type of site for which the land is classified, this order shall become effective upon the date it is signed.

3. As to the land not covered by application referred to in paragraph 2, this order shall not become effective to permit leasing under the Small Tract Act until 10:00 a. m., August 18, 1950. At that time such land shall, subject to valid existing rights, become subject to application as follows:

(a) Ninety-day preference period for qualified veterans of World War II from 10:00 a. m., August 18, 1950, to close of business on November 16, 1950.

(b) Advance period for veterans' simultaneous filings from 8:30 a. m., February 1, 1949, to 10:00 a. m., August 18, 1950.

4. Any of the land remaining unappropriated shall become subject to application under the Small Tract Act by the public generally, commencing at 10:00 a. m., November 17, 1950.

(a) Advance period for simultaneous nonpreference filings from 8:30 a. m., February 1, 1949, to 10:00 a. m., November 17, 1950.

5. Applications filed within the periods mentioned in paragraphs 3 (b) and 4 (a) will be treated as simultaneously filed.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic or other copy (both sides) of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

6. All of the land will be leased in tracts of approximately 5 acres, each being approximately 330 by 660 feet, the longer dimension to extend north and south.

7. Preference right leases referred to in paragraph 2 will be issued for the land described in the application irrespective of the direction of the tract, provided the tract conforms to or is made to conform to the area and the dimension specified in paragraph 6.

8. Where only one 5-acre tract in a 10-acre subdivision is embraced in a preference right application, an application for the remaining 5-acre tract extending in the same direction will be accepted in order to fill out the subdivision notwithstanding the direction specified in paragraph 6.

9. Leases will be for a period of five years at an annual rental of $5.00 payable for the entire lease period in advance of the issuance of the lease. Leases will contain an option to purchase clause at the appraised value of $30.00 per acre, application for which may be filed at or after the expiration of one year from date the lease is issued.

10. Tracts will be subject to rights-of-way not exceeding 33 feet in width along or near the edges thereof for road purposes and public utilities. Such rights-of-way may be utilized by the Federal Government, or the state, county or municipality in which the tract is situated, or by any agency thereof. The rights-of-way may, in the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, be definitely located prior to the issuance of the patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued. Tracts will also be subject to all existing rights-of-way.

11. All inquiries relating to these lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Los Angeles, California.

L. T. HOFFMAN, Regional Administrator.

OREGON

NOTICE OF FILING OF PLAT OF SURVEY

JUNE 20, 1950.

Notice is given that the plat of survey of an island in the Deschutes River including the following described lands, accepted March 14, 1949, will be officially filed in the Land Office, Portland, Oregon, effective at 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this notice:

WILLAMETTE MERIDIAN

T. 9 S., R. 13 E.,
Sec. 14, lot 9.
Sec. 15, lot 9.

The area described aggregates 1.41 acres.

Available data indicates that the land is situated in a deep canyon and is nearly level.

No applications for these lands may be allowed under the homestead, small tract, desert land or any other nonmineral public land laws unless the land has already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application.

At the hour and date specified above the said lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location, or selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 91 days, commencing at the hour and on the day specified above, the public lands affected by this notice shall be subject only to (1) application under the homestead or the desert-land laws or the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, 52 Stat. 609 (43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944, 58 Stat. 747 (43 U. S. C. 279-284), as amended, subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications under subdivision (1) of this paragraph shall be subject to applications and claims of the classes described in subdivision (2) of this paragraph. All applications filed under this paragraph either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this notice shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at that time. All applications filed under this paragraph after 10:00 a. m. on the said 35th day shall be considered in the order of filing.

(b) Date for non-preference-right filings. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this notice, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, selection, or other appropriation by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws. All such applications filed either at or before 10:00 a. m., on the 126th day after the date of this notice, shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at the hour specified on such 126th day. All applications filed thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides) of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the Land Office, Portland, Oregon, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and Part 296 of that Title, to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 166 to 170, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and applications under the desert-land laws and the said Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 232 and 257, respectively, of that Title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Land Office, Portland, Oregon.

WILLIAM ZIMMERMAN, JR.,
Assistant Director.

ORDER SUSPENDING LICENSE PRIVILEGES

In the matter of: Leon N. Rodell, d/b/a Leon N. Rodell Company, 13 East 47th Street, New York, N. Y., Respondent.

This proceeding was begun on February 27, 1950, by the transmission of a charging letter to the above-named respondent, wherein respondent was charged, together with certain others, with having violated the Export Control Act of 1949 (63 Stat. 7), and the regulations promulgated thereunder, by making application, in June 1949, for an export license for shipment of 66,000 pounds of tetra-ethyl-thiuram-disulphide to Switzerland, which application contained certain false certifications to the effect that Switzerland was the country of ultimate destination, whereas respondents then knew and intended that such commodity would be transshipped from Switzerland to an unidentified destination in Eastern Europe.

It appears that the above-named respondent, after receiving the above-mentioned charging letter, submitted to the Enforcement Staff, with the advice of counsel and through such counsel, a statement to the effect that he admitted, for the purposes of this compliance proceeding only, the charges made in said charging letter of February 27, 1950, that he waived all right to a hearing on such charges, and that he consented to the entry of an order (1) revoking all outstanding export licenses issued to him, (2) denying to him, for a period of six months, the right to export to any destination, under either validated or general license, any commodity on the Positive List as such list may be constituted at the time of any proposed shipment and further denying to him, for a period of sixty days, the right to export any other commodity under general license, and (3) applying also to any other concerns associated with him.

It further appears that counsel for respondent and for the Enforcement Staff have personally appeared before the Compliance Commissioner; that the investigation report and other evidentiary material in the possession of the Enforcement Staff, together with the above-mentioned proposal for a consent order, have been submitted to and reviewed by the Compliance Commissioner; and that he has found that respondent, having in his possession letters from his customer in Switzerland stating that the above-described commodity would not be used in Switzerland but was being purchased for shipment to Eastern Europe, made application for an export license to ship such commodity to Switzerland and therein falsely represented that Switzerland was the country of ultimate destination, but that such license was not in fact issued or shipment made.

It further appears that the Compliance Commissioner has found that the charges as set forth in the charging letter are supported by the evidence and that the terms and conditions of the proposed order as consented to by respondent are fair and reasonable, and that he has accordingly recommended that such order be issued.

The findings and recommendations of the Compliance Commissioner have been carefully considered, together with the above-described evidentiary material, and it appears that such findings are in accordance with the evidence and that such recommendations are reasonable and should be adopted. Now, therefore, it is ordered as follows:

(1) All outstanding export licenses issued to respondent are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Office of Industry and Commerce for cancellation.

(2) Respondent is hereby denied the privilege of obtaining or using or participating directly or indirectly in the obtaining or using of export licenses, such denial of export license privileges to continue for six months from June 15, 1950, with respect to shipment to any destination, under either validated or general license, of any commodity included on the Positive List as such list may be constituted at the time of any proposed shipment and for sixty days from June 15, 1950, with respect to shipment of any other commodity under general license.

(3) Such suspension of export license privileges shall extend not only to respondent but also to any person, trade name, firm, corporation, or other business association with which he may be now or hereafter related by ownership or control or with which he may hold a position of responsibility involving the preparation, filing or use of any export control documents.

Issued this 29th day of June 1950.

Issuance Officer.
JOHN F. HAVENER,
Assistant Director.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Docket No. 4405]

SOUTHWEST-WEST COAST MERGER CASE

NOTICE OF HEARING

In the matter of the application of Southwest Airways Company and West Coast Airlines, Inc., under section 408 and such other sections of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, as may be applicable, for approval of the merger of West Coast Airlines, Inc., into Southwest Airways Company.

Notice is hereby given that pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, particularly sections 401 (i) and 408 thereof, the above-entitled proceeding is assigned for hearing on August 7, 1950, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in the South Lounge, Carlton Hotel, Sixteenth and K Streets NW., Washington, D. C., before Examiner James M. Verner.

Without limiting the scope of the issues presented by the pleadings in this proceeding, particular attention will be directed to whether the merger of West Coast Airlines, Inc., into Southwest Airways Company and the transfer of the certificate of public convenience and necessity now held by West Coast Airlines, Inc., are consistent with the public interest.

For further details of the issues involved in this proceeding the parties are referred to the various orders entered in this proceeding and the Examiner's prehearing conference report which are on file with the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Notice is further given that any person other than parties of record desiring to be heard in this proceeding shall file with the Board on or before August 7, 1950, a statement setting forth the issues of fact or law raised by this proceeding which he desires to controvert.

Dated at Washington, D. C., June 28, 1950.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[Docket No. 9704]

WILLIAM O. BOSWELL, JR., ET AL.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of William O. Boswell, Jr., and 19 other stockholders (transferors), Security Trust Company of Rochester (transferee), for transfer of control of Veterans Broadcasting Co., Inc., licensee of station WVET, Rochester, New York; File No. BTC-914, Docket No. 9704.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above entitled application for consent to the transfer of control of the Veterans Broadcasting Co., Inc., licensee of Station WVET, Rochester, New York, from William O. Boswell, Jr., and 19 other stockholders to the Security Trust Company of Rochester and not being satisfied that it is in full possession of information as is required by the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and more particularly section 310 (b) of that act;

It is ordered, That the above entitled application be designated for hearing at Rochester, New York, on August 14, 1950, on the following issues:

1. To obtain full information with respect to all contracts, agreements or understandings, past or present, relating to the ownership, control or operation of the Veterans Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station WVET; and, more particularly, with respect to the loan and stock hypothecation agreement executed by the licensee and the Security Trust Company of Rochester, dated November 1, 1949.

2. To obtain full information as to:

(a) Whether all contracts, agreements and understandings, relating to the ownership, operation and control of Station WVET have been properly and timely filed with the Commission, as is required by §§ 1.321, 1.341, 1.342, 1.343 and 1.344 of the Commission's rules and regulations.

(b) The effect of such contracts, agreements or understandings on the past and present ownership, operation and control of Station WVET, and, more particularly, whether the licensee has delegated rights and responsibilities to the Security Trust Company in contravention of sections 310 (b) and 301 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

3. To obtain full information with respect to the transfer applied for, especially with regard to the effect of the loan and hypothecation agreement of November 1, 1949, and more specifically to determine:

(a) The amount of signal and ownership overlap which will result relative to Station WVET and any other station in which the Security Trust Company and its officers, directors or stockholders have any interest in, if the transfer applied for is granted.

(b) Whether the transferor stockholders will retain reversionary rights in Station WVET or in the stock to be transferred in violation of § 3.109 of the Commission's rules and regulations.

4. To determine whether the Security Trust Company is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to control Station WVET.

5. To obtain full information as to the plans of the proposed transferee for staffing the station, its plans with respect to the station's programming, and all other plans and arrangements for the operation of the station.

6. To determine whether a grant of the proposed transfer would be in the public interest.

[Docket No. G-1387]

ARKANSAS LOUISIANA GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

On May 8, 1950, Arkansas Louisiana Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Shreveport, Louisiana, filed an application, with a supplement thereto filed June 8, 1950, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, to construct and operate certain facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as are fully described in such application and supplement on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant has requested that this application be heard under the shortened procedure provided for by § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure; no request to be heard or protest has been filed subsequent to giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 20, 1950 (15 F. R. 3115, 3116).

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on July 13, 1950, at 9:30 o'clock a. m., e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application, and supplement: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: June 28, 1950.

[Project Nos. 5, 637, 943, 1393]

MONTANA POWER CO. ET AL.

ORDER INSTITUTING AN INVESTIGATION

JUNE 27, 1950.

In the matters of the Montana Power Company, Project No. 5; the Washington Water Power Company, Project No. 637; Puget Sound Power & Light Company, Project No. 943; Pend Oreille Mines and Metals Company, Project No. 1393.

Puget Sound Power & Light Company's Project No. 943 (Rock Island) is located at mile 453 on the Columbia River. The Washington Water Power Company's Project No. 637 (Chelan) is located at mile 4 on the Chelan River, a tributary of the Columbia, entering that river at mile 503. The Grand Coulee dam constructed by the United States is located on the Columbia River at mile 600. Pend Oreille Mines & Metals Company's Project No. 1393 (Metalline Falls) is located at mile 28 on the Pend Oreille River, a tributary of the Columbia River entering that river at mile 748. The Montana Power Company's Project No. 5 (Flathead) is located on the Flathead River 318 miles above the mouth of Pend Oreille River, the Flathead River being a tributary of the Clark Fork River which becomes the Pend Oreille River at the outlet of Pend Oreille Lake.

Section 10 (f) of the Federal Power Act (16 U. S. C. 803-f) provides, in part:

That whenever any licensee hereunder is directly benefited by the construction work of another licensee, a permittee, or of the United States of a storage reservoir or other headwater improvement, the Commission shall require as a condition of the license that the licensee so benefited shall reimburse the owner of such reservoir or other improvements for such part of the annual charges for interest, maintenance, and depreciation thereon as the Commission may deem equitable. The proportion of such charges to be paid by any licensee shall be determined by the Commission. The licensees or permittees affected shall pay to the United States the cost of making such determination as fixed by the Commission.

The Commission staff has made a preliminary study which indicates that some of the above-designated licensees may be directly benefited by reason of the construction of storage reservoirs or other headwater improvements by other above-designated licensees and by the storage reservoir or other headwater improvement constructed by the United States as part of its Grand Coulee project which is under the supervision of the Secretary of the Interior. The staff reports that further study, investigation and report will be required before it can be determined whether any of the licensees is directly benefited by upstream storage reservoirs of other licensees or of the United States and, if so, the amounts to be paid for the benefits so provided.

The Commission finds: It is appropriate and in the public interest that an investigation be instituted by the Commission as hereinafter provided.

The Commission orders:

An investigation is hereby instituted pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Power Act, particularly section 10 (f) thereof, for the purpose of enabling the Commission to determine whether any of the above-designated licensees is directly benefited by the construction work of another licensee or of the United States of a storage reservoir or other headwater improvement and, if it so finds, to determine the equitable proportion of the annual charges to be paid by any licensee so benefited for interest, maintenance and depreciation on the storage reservoir or other headwater improvement constructed by another licensee or by the United States.

Date of issuance: June 28, 1950.

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 15 NUMBER 129

Washington, Thursday, July 6, 1950

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter III—Farmers Home Administration, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter B—Farm Ownership Loans

PART 321—SELECTION OF FARMS

SUBPART A—CRITERIA

REVISION OF CRITERIA FOR SELECTION OF FARMS

Subpart A of Part 321 in Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations (13 F. R. 9395), is revised to read as follows:

SUBPART A—CRITERIA

Sec.
321.1 General.
321.2 Standards for selection of efficient family-type farm-management units.
321.3 Standards for selection of farms which are less than efficient family-type farm-management units in cases of disabled veterans.
321.4 General criteria for selection of Farm Ownership farms.
321.5 Limitations in selection of Farm Ownership farms because of interest of sellers.
321.6 Preference to war veterans.

AUTHORITY: §§ 321.1 to 321.6 issued under sec. 41, 60 Stat. 1066; 7 U. S. C. 1015. Statutory provisions interpreted or applied are cited to text in parentheses.

DERIVATION: §§ 321.1 to 321.6 contained in FHA Instruction 421.1.

SUBPART A—CRITERIA

§ 321.1 General. (a) Farm selection is a fundamental step in making direct or insured Farm Ownership loans. It is essential that applicants, County Supervisors, and County Committeemen understand thoroughly the standards to be considered in farm selection. After applicants have been tentatively approved by the County Committee and have acquired a proper understanding regarding the basic objectives of the Farm Ownership program, they will be free to select, subject to subsequent approval by the Farmers Home Administration, farms they desire to purchase, enlarge, or improve.

(b) Under the Farm Ownership program, either efficient family-type farm-management units will be acquired (or acquired and improved) or undersized or underimproved farms will be enlarged or improved into efficient family-type farm-management units. The one exception to this requirement will be in the case of disabled veterans who, under certain conditions, may acquire, enlarge, or improve farms which are less than efficient family-type farm-management units.

(Sec. 1, 60 Stat. 1072; 7 U. S. C. 1001)

§ 321.2 Standards for selection of efficient family-type farm-management units. (a) An efficient family-type farm-management unit is a farm which furnishes maximum, productive employment for an average farm family assuming justifiable use of labor saving equipment on the farm and in the home and operation of the farm on a sustained or increasing yield basis. It is a farm which an average farm family can operate successfully without employing outside labor, except during seasonal peak-load periods. Such a farm must have the capacity to yield income on the basis of long-time prices which will maintain an average farm family according to acceptable living standards, pay annual operating expenses, pay for and maintain necessary livestock and farm and home equipment, and pay off the loan.

(b) As used in this chapter, the term "family-type farm" will mean an efficient family-type farm-management unit.

(Sec. 1, 60 Stat. 1073; 7 U. S. C. 1001)

§ 321.3 Standards for selection of farms which are less than efficient family-type farm-management units in cases of disabled veterans. (a) Farms that are less than efficient family-type farm-management units may be acquired, enlarged, or improved by eligible war veterans who are receiving disability pensions: Provided, that:

(1) The size and character of the farm are suitable to the particular needs and capabilities of the disabled veteran.

(2) The farm has the capacity to produce an annual income which, together with the veteran's disability pension, will enable him to meet his normal obligations. These obligations will include family living expenditures which will maintain acceptable standards of living for the veteran and his family, as well as operating expenses, and amounts due on his loan.

(3) The unit is larger than a mere garden plot or rural residence.

(4) A satisfactory farm plan can be carried out with the available family labor.

(5) The unit is of such character and productivity that it will not be necessary for the disabled veteran to use all or part of his pension to support unprofitable farming operations. In other words, the income from the operation of the unit as a farm, including the value of food produced for home use, should at least offset the actual operating expenses chargeable to farm operations such as seed, fertilizer, and repayment of that portion of the loan represented by the farming operations. Such expenses, however, need not include cash family-living costs or maintenance, taxes, insurance, and loan costs chargeable to the residence. In determining the loan and other costs chargeable to the residence, the valuation of the residence should be consistent with the depreciated value shown on Form FHA–43, "Appraisal of Buildings for Insurance."

(6) Farm income and disability compensation will constitute the major sources of income. Part-time farms, on which disabled veterans plan to live and devote most of their activity to nonfarm employment, should not be approved.

(Secs. 1, 44, 60 Stat. 1073, 1069; 7 U. S. C. 1001, 1018)

§ 321.4 General criteria for selection of Farm Ownership farms. (a) The making or insuring of a Farm Ownership loan depends upon a satisfactory title to the farm being vested in the borrower in order to secure a first mortgage on the farm.

(b) In selecting farms for Farm Ownership loans, consideration should be given to base acreage allotments and assigned yields or productivity indexes upon which soil conservation payments are made.

(c) If a Farm Ownership farm is to be formed by combining separate tracts of land, the tracts preferably should be contiguous. However, a farm may consist of noncontiguous tracts if they are so situated with respect to each other that the combined unit can be operated conveniently and efficiently as a family-type farm. This is especially important in making Farm Enlargement loans, since the question of operating noncontiguous tracts is more likely to arise in connection with this type of loan.

(d) Farms approved for Farm Enlargement or Farm Development loans, as defined in § 311.43 of this chapter, should be definitely undersized or underdeveloped and in their present state constitute definitely less than efficient family-type farm-management units. The same minimum standards for land development and the same minimum construction standards will apply to Farm Enlargement and Farm Development loans that apply to Tenant Purchase loans (see §§ 323.1–323.4 and §§ 324.1–324.3 of this chapter). Enlargement or development of farms should constitute the primary purpose of Farm Enlargement or Farm Development loans. Refinancing in connection with Farm Enlargement and Farm Development loans must not constitute the primary purpose of the loans. In connection with Farm Development loans, consideration should be given to all types of improvements that may be needed to make the farm an efficient family-type farm-management unit.

(e) Farms will not be approved in areas designated for retirement from agriculture by Federal, state, or county land use planning agencies, or areas so poor that they are likely to be so designated. Outside of such areas, it will be necessary, in order to assist persons in greatest need of Farm Ownership loans, to make such loans in areas where farms include poor as well as good land. When loans are made for the purchase of farms including poorer grades of land, unusual care must be exercised to see that it is purchased at a price in line with its normal earning capacity. Land that is worn out, eroded, foul, and weedy should not be purchased when it will not provide income sufficient to meet reasonable farm operating expenses, usual family living expenses, and the required payment on the loan. Care should be exercised in the selection of farms consisting almost wholly of undeveloped land for the same reason.

(f) In farm selection and approval, due consideration should be given to roads, schools, markets, and other community facilities. The tax rate on farms, the bonded indebtedness, and other costs incident to irrigation and drainage, or other types of improvements, also should be considered. In irrigation areas, careful consideration should be given to the adequacy of the water supply and water rights.

(g) When a farm is not on a public road, it is essential that there be a satisfactory legal right-of-way from the farm to a public road.

§ 321.5 Limitations in selection of Farm Ownership farms because of interest of sellers. (a) No Farm Ownership loan will be made or insured if any member of the County Committee participates in, or attempts to influence, in any manner, the selection, consideration, discussion, or certification with respect to a farm in which such member, or any person related to such member within the third degree of consanguinity or affinity, has any pecuniary interest, direct or indirect, or in which any of them had such interest within one year prior to the date of certification.

(b) Unless an exception is made as provided below, a Farm Ownership loan will not be made or insured for the purchase or improvement of land when a Farmers Home Administration employee has an interest, direct or indirect, or when a person related to that employee by blood or marriage has an interest, direct or indirect, in the land to be purchased or improved and when such an employee is officially, through his employment, connected with the processing, handling, or approval of such loan in a manner as to enable him directly or indirectly to influence decisions with respect to the processing, handling, or approval of the loan. The State Director may make the exception and give the reasons therefor in writing, unless he is the interested employee, in which case the Administrator will make and sign the exception.

(c) Farms will not be approved for Tenant Purchase or Farm Enlargement loans which involve the purchase of land owned by a parent or other near relative of an applicant, nor will a farm be approved for a Farm Enlargement or Farm Development loan on which a parent or near relative holds a mortgage, unless the State Director has determined in writing before approval of the loan:

(1) That the applicant is unlikely to receive an inheritance in a short time either of title to the property or of sufficient funds to make a Farm Ownership loan unnecessary, and

(2) That the seller's circumstances are such as to make it impracticable for him to sell the property to the applicant or to advance additional funds on terms that would make a Farm Ownership loan unnecessary.

(Secs. 2, 44, 60 Stat. 1074, 1069; 7 U. S. C. 1002, 1018)

§ 321.6 Preference to war veterans. When both a veteran and a nonveteran have been viewed with favor and are interested in the same farm at the same time, preference will be given to the veteran, provided the seller is willing to sell to either person.

(Sec. 1, 60 Stat. 1073; 7 U. S. C. 1001)

PART 51—FRESH FRUITS, VEGETABLES, AND OTHER PRODUCTS (INSPECTION, CERTIFICATION, AND STANDARDS)

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR BLUEBERRIES FOR PROCESSING

On May 25, 1950, a notice of rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (F. R. Doc. 50-4437; 15 F. R. 3190) regarding proposed United States Standards for Blueberries for Processing. After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following United States Standards for Blueberries for Processing are hereby promulgated under the authority contained in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1950 (Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong., approved June 29, 1949):

§ 51.449 Standards for blueberries for processing—(a) General. (1) These standards apply to species of the genus Vaccinium which contain numerous small seeds that are barely noticeable and not to the true huckleberries of the genus Gaylussacia which contain 10 large seeds with bony coverings.

(b) Grades—(1) U. S. No. 1. U. S. No. 1 shall consist of blueberries which internally are free from worms, and are free from other kinds of berries, clusters, large stems, leaves and other foreign material, distinctly immature berries, and free from damage caused by visible mold and decay, shriveling, dirt, overmaturity, or other means.

(i) In order to allow for variations incident to proper handling, the following tolerances shall be permitted for grade defects in a half-pint cup sample:

Not more than a total of 5 leaves and other foreign material, not more than a total of 20 distinctly immature berries, clusters and large stems, and not more than 3 berries other than blueberries. No tolerance shall be allowed for large pieces of foreign material.

(2) U. S. No. 2. U. S. No. 2 shall consist of blueberries which meet all the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade except that the blueberries shall be free from serious damage caused by shriveling, overmaturity, and except for the increased tolerances specified below.

(i) In order to allow for variations incident to proper handling, the following tolerances shall be permitted for grade defects in a half-pint cup sample:

Not more than a total of 15 leaves and other foreign material, not more than a total of 40 distinctly immature berries, clusters and large stems, and not more than 5 berries other than blueberries. No tolerance shall be allowed for large pieces of foreign material.

(3) U. S. No. 3. U. S. No. 3 shall consist of blueberries which meet all the requirements of U. S. No. 1 grade except that the blueberries shall be free from serious damage caused by overmaturity and from very serious damage caused by shriveling and except for the increased tolerances specified below.

(i) In order to allow for variations incident to proper handling, the following tolerances shall be permitted for grade defects in a half-pint cup sample:

Not more than a total of 20 leaves and other foreign material, not more than a total of 70 distinctly immature berries, clusters and large stems, and not more than 12 berries other than blueberries. No tolerance shall be allowed for large pieces of foreign material.

(c) Unclassified. Unclassified shall consist of blueberries which have not been classified in accordance with the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no definite grade has been applied to the lot.

(d) Definitions. (1) "Other kinds of berries" means bunchberries, cranberries, or any other berries not of the genus Vaccinium.

(2) "Clusters" means three or more cap-stems, with or without berries, attached to a main stem. Cap-stems are those small stems by means of which the individual berry is attached to the main stem.

(3) "Large stems" means stems other than cap-stems which are over ¼ inch in length.

(4) "Other foreign material" means sticks, stones, moss or other extraneous material except dirt and leaves.

(5) "Distinctly immature berries" means that the berries are green, or whitish due to immaturity.

(6) "Damage" means any injury or defect which materially affects the appearance, or the processing quality of the blueberries. The following shall be considered as damage:

(i) Shriveling, when more than one-fourth of the blueberries in any lot, by volume, are badly wilted, withered or shriveled.

(ii) Dirt, when it cannot be removed from the blueberries in the ordinary washing process.

(iii) Overmaturity, when the appearance and processing quality of the lot of blueberries is materially affected by berries which have a dull appearance and are sticky from leaking berries.

(7) "Serious damage" means any injury or defect which seriously affects the appearance, or the processing quality of the blueberries. The following shall be considered as serious damage:

(i) Shriveling, when more than one-third of the blueberries in any lot, by volume, are badly wilted, withered or shriveled.

(ii) Overmaturity, when the appearance and processing quality of the lot of blueberries is seriously affected by blueberries which have a dull appearance and are sticky from leaking berries.

(8) "Very serious damage caused by shriveling" means that more than one-half of the blueberries in any lot, by volume, are badly wilted, withered or shriveled.

(e) Effective time. The United States Standards for Blueberries for Processing contained in this section shall become effective thirty (30) days after the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong.)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1950.

[SEAL] JOHN I. THOMPSON,
Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration.

PART 52—PROCESSED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES, PROCESSED PRODUCTS THEREOF, AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCESSED FOOD PRODUCTS

UNITED STATES STANDARDS[1] FOR GRADES OF FROZEN CORN-ON-THE-COB

On May 18, 1950, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 3034) regarding proposed United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Corn-on-the-Cob. After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Corn-on-the-Cob are hereby promulgated under the authority of the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1950 (Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong., approved June 29, 1949):

§ 52.273 Frozen corn-on-the-cob. Frozen corn-on-the-cob is the product which is prepared from sound, properly matured, fresh sweet corn ears (Zea Mays L.) of either the white or golden (or yellow) varieties by removing husk and silk; by sorting, trimming, washing, and blanching; and which sweet corn ears are then frozen and stored at temperatures necessary for the preservation of the product.

(a) Colors of frozen corn-on-the-cob. (1) Golden (or yellow).

(2) White.

(b) Grades of frozen corn-on-the-cob. (1) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of frozen corn-on-the-cob that is well developed; that possesses similar varietal characteristics; that possesses a good flavor and odor; that is practically uniform in size; that possesses a good color; that is practically free from defects; that is tender; and that scores not less than 85 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(2) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Extra Standard" is the quality of frozen corn-on-the-cob that is reasonably well developed; that possesses similar varietal characteristics; that possesses a fairly good flavor and odor; that is reasonably uniform in size and symmetry; that possesses a reasonably good color; that is reasonably free from defects; that is reasonably tender; and that scores not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

[1] The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

(3) "U. S. Grade D" or "Substandard" is the quality of frozen corn-on-the-cob that fails to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard.

(c) Ascertaining the grade. (1) The grade of frozen corn-on-the-cob may be ascertained by considering, in conjunction with the requirements of the respective grade, the respective ratings for the factors of color, absence of defects, and tenderness and maturity.

(2) The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given such factors is:

Factors:	Points
(i) Color	20
(ii) Absence of defects	40
(iii) Tenderness and maturity	40
Total score	100

(3) The grade of frozen corn-on-the-cob is determined immediately after the product has been thawed sufficiently so that the product is practically free from ice crystals.

(4) The product is cooked to determine flavor and odor.

(5) "Good flavor and odor" means that tthe product, after cooking, has a good, characteristic normal flavor and odor and is free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

(6) "Fairly good flavor and odor" means that the product, after cooking, may be lacking in good flavor and odor but is free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

(7) "Practically uniform in size" means that the length of the longest ear in the sample does not exceed the length of the shortest ear by more than 1 inch and that the largest diameter of the largest ear in the sample does not exceed the largest diameter of the smallest ear by more than ½ inch.

(8) "Reasonably uniform in size" means that the length of the longest ear in the sample does not exceed the length of the shortest ear by more than 1 inch and that the largest diameter of the largest ear in the sample does not exceed the largest diameter of the smallest ear by more than ¾ inch.

(9) "Count of kernels per ear" means the approximate number of kernels on each ear in the sample.

(10) "Ear" means an individual ear of corn with husk and silk removed.

(11) "Well developed" means that the ear is well filled with kernels and that on ears of row varieties the appearance is not materially affected by irregular and curved rows of kernels.

(12) "Reasonably well developed" means that the ear is reasonably well filled with kernels and that on ears of row varieties the appearance is not seriously affected by irregular and curved rows of kernels.

(13) "Sample" means not less than two ears of frozen corn-on-the-cob drawn from a single shipping container or retail package.

(d) Ascertaining the rating of the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for such factors and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "17 to 20 points" means 17, 18, 19, or 20 points).

(1) Color. (i) Frozen corn-on-the-cob that possesses a good color may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Good color" means that the frozen corn-on-the-cob possesses a bright, practically uniform typical color of young and tender corn.

(ii) Frozen corn-on-the-cob that possesses a reasonably good color may be given a score of 14 to 16 points. Frozen corn-on-the cob that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good color" means that the frozen corn-on-the-cob possesses a reasonably bright, reasonably uniform typical color of reasonably young and reasonably tender corn.

(iii) Frozen corn-on-the-cob that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(2) Absence of defects. (i) The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from loose material, attached material, poorly trimmed ears, and from damaged kernels and seriously damaged kernels.

(a) "Loose material" means pieces of cob, kernels and portions of kernels, husk and portions of husk, and silk not attached to an ear.

(b) "Attached material" means silk and husk or portions of silk and husk attached to an ear.

(c) "Poorly trimmed ear" means that the end or ends of an ear are rough or ragged in appearance and that any attached stalk which may be present exceeds ¾ inch in length.

(d) "Damaged kernel" means any kernel damaged by mechanical injury and any kernel damaged by pathological injury, insect injury, discoloration, or damaged by other means to such an extent that the appearance or eating quality is materially affected. Mechanical injury means that the kernel is materially damaged by cutting or crushing. Kernels on the ends of the ear which are damaged by cutting shall not be considered as damaged by mechanical injury.

(e) "Seriously damaged kernel" means damaged to such an extent that the appearance or eating quality is seriously affected. Kernels damaged by mechanical injury shall not be considered seriously damaged.

(ii) Frozen corn-on-the-cob that is practically free from defects may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Practically free from defects" means that loose material, attached material, or poorly trimmed ears that do not affect the appearance or eating quality of the product may be present in the sample; that not more than 5 percent, by count, of kernels in the sample are damaged or seriously damaged, but not more than ½ of one percent, by count, of all the kernels are seriously damaged.

(iii) If the frozen corn-on-the-cob is reasonably free from defects a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Frozen corn-on-the-cob that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" means that loose material, attached material, or poorly trimmed ears that do not materially affect the appearance or eating quality of the product may be present in the sample; that not more than 10 percent, by count, of kernels in the sample are damaged or seriously damaged, but not more than 1 percent, by count, of all the kernels are seriously damaged.

(iv) Frozen corn-on-the-cob that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(3) Tenderness and maturity. (i) The tenderness and maturity of the kernels is referred to under this factor. The tenderness and maturity of the kernels is determined by examining at least 3 complete adjacent rows of kernels or an equivalent number if kernels are not in rows, after removal from each ear in the sample. The kernels are removed from the ear by cutting just above the tip cap.

(ii) Frozen corn-on-the-cob that is tender may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Tender" means that the kernels in the sample are in the milk or early cream stage of maturity and have a tender texture.

(iii) If the frozen corn-on-the-cob is reasonably tender a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Frozen corn-on-the-cob that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably tender" means that the kernels in the sample are in the cream stage of maturity and have a reasonably tender texture.

(iv) Frozen corn-on-the-cob the kernels of which are in the early dough or dough stage of maturity or that fails in any other respect to meet the requirements of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(e) Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (1) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of frozen corn-on-the-cob the grade of such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of all samples if:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of the samples drawn from the lot fail to meet all the requirements of the grade indicated by the average of such total scores, and with respect to such samples which fail to meet the requirements of the indicated grade by reason of a limiting rule, the average score of all samples for the factor, subject to such limiting rule, must be within the range for the grade indicated:

(ii) None of the samples drawn from the lot fall more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores;

(iii) In addition to the above tolerances not more than one-sixth of the samples fail to meet the requirements with respect to uniformity of size and symmetry for the respective grade; and

(iv) All samples drawn from the lot meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification.

PART 52—PROCESSED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES, PROCESSED PRODUCTS THEREOF, AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCESSED FOOD PRODUCTS

UNITED STATES STANDARDS [1] [2] FOR GRADES OF CANNED GRAPEFRUIT AND ORANGE FOR SALAD

On February 15, 1950, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 825) regarding the proposed issuance of United States Standards for Grades of Canned Grapefruit and Orange for Salad. After consideration of all relevant matters including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following United States Standards for Grades of Canned Grapefruit and Orange for Salad are hereby promulgated under the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1950 (Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong., approved June 20, 1949):

§ 52.372 Canned grapefruit and orange for salad. Canned grapefruit and orange for salad, commonly known as canned citrus salad, is prepared from sound, mature grapefruit (Citrus paradisi) and from sound, mature oranges of the orange group (Citrus sinensis) which have been properly washed; and the segments thereof have been separated and the major portions of membrane and core and the seeds removed. The product is packed with or without the addition of water, juice, or sweetening ingredients and is sufficiently processed by heat to assure preservation of the product in hermetically sealed containers. It is recommended that the number of orange units be not less than the number of grapefruit units.

(a) Grades of canned grapefruit and orange for salad. (1) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of canned grapefruit and orange for salad of which the average weight of the orange fruit is not less than 37½ percent nor more than 60 percent of the drained weight provided no single container consists of orange fruit that is less than 25 percent nor more than 75 percent of the drained fruit in such container; that possesses a drained weight or average drained weight, as the case may be, of not less than 60 percent of the capacity of the container; that consists of not less than 75 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit and not less than 75 percent by weight of the drained orange fruit which is in whole segments or almost whole segments; that possesses a good color; that is practically free from defects; that possesses a good character; that possesses a good flavor and odor; and that scores not less than 90 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(2) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Choice" is the quality of canned grapefruit and orange for salad of which the average weight of the orange fruit is not less than 32½ percent nor more than 60 percent of the drained weight provided no single container consists of orange fruit that is less than 25 percent nor more than 75 percent of the drained weight of the fruit in such container; that possesses a drained weight or average drained weight, as the case may be, of not less than 55 percent of the capacity of the container; that consists of not less than 50 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit and not less than 50 percent by weight of the drained orange fruit which is in whole segments or almost whole segments; that possesses a reasonably good color; that is reasonably free from defects; that possesses a reasonably good character; that possesses a fairly good flavor and odor; and that scores not less than 80 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(3) "U. S. Broken" is the quality of canned grapefruit and orange for salad of which the average weight of the orange fruit is not less than 32½ percent nor more than 60 percent of the drained weight provided no single container consists of orange fruit that is less than 25 percent nor more than 75 percent of the drained weight of the fruit in such container; that possesses a reasonably good character; that possesses a fairly good flavor and odor; and that scores not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(4) "U. S. Grade D" or "Substandard" is the quality of canned grapefruit and orange for salad that fails to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice and U. S. Broken.

(b) Recommended designations of liquid media and Brix measurements. "Cut-out" requirements for liquid media are not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since sirup or any other liquid medium, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purposes of these grades. It is recommended that canned grapefruit and orange for salad have the following indicated "cut-out" Brix measurement for the respective designation, which designations include, but are not limited to, the following:

Designation of liquid media:	Brix measurement
Heavy sirup	18° or more.
Light sirup	16° or more, but less than 18°.
Slightly sweet	12° or more, but less than 16°.

(c) Recommended fill of container. The recommended fill of container is not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since fill of container, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purposes of these grades. It is recommended that each container of canned grapefruit and orange for salad be filled with grapefruit and orange fruit as full as practicable without impairment of quality and that the product and packing medium occupy not less than 90 percent of the volume of the container.

(d) Ascertaining the grade. The grade of canned grapefruit and orange for salad may be ascertained by considering, in conjunction with the requirements of the respective grade, the respective ratings for the factors of drained weight, wholeness, color, absence of defects, and character. The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given such factors are:

[1] The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

[2] The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with applicable State laws and regulations.

Factors:	Points
(1) Drained weight	20
(2) Wholeness	20
(3) Color	20
(4) Absence of defects	20
(5) Character	20
Total score	100

(e) Ascertaining the rating for the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "18 to 20 points" means 18, 19, or 20 points).

(1) Drained weight. The drained weight of canned grapefruit and orange for salad is determined by emptying the contents of the container upon a United States Standard No. 8 circular sieve of proper diameter containing 8 meshes to the inch (0.0937-inch, ±3%, square openings) so as to distribute the product evenly, inclining the sieve slightly to facilitate drainage, and allowing to drain for two minutes. The drained weight is the weight of the sieve and the fruit less the weight of the dry sieve. The fruit thus drained is referred to in this section as "drained fruit." A sieve 8 inches in diameter is used for the equivalent of No. 3 size cans (404 x 414) and smaller, and a sieve 12 inches in diameter is used for containers larger than the equivalent of the No. 3 size can. "Capacity of the container" means the weight of distilled water at 68° Fahrenheit which the sealed container will hold.

(i) Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that possesses a drained weight of not less than 60 percent of the capacity of the container may be given a score of 18 to 20 points for the respective containers as outlined in Table No. I. Whenever more than 1 container of the product is being graded, the score for drained weight of each container is determined by averaging the drained weights of the containers. If the average drained weight indicates a score of 18 to 20 points (in accordance with Table No. I) such score will be assigned to each container: Provided, That the drained weight of no individual container indicates a score of less than 16 points. However, if any individual container scores less than 16 points, each container will be assigned the score for its own drained weight.

(ii) If the drained weight of the canned grapefruit and orange for salad is less than 60 percent but not less than 55 percent of the capacity of the container, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given for the respective containers as outlined in Table No. I. Whenever more than 1 container of the product is being graded, the score for drained weight of each container is determined by averaging the drained weights of the containers. If the average drained weight indicates a score of 16 or 17 points (in accordance with Table No. I) such score will be assigned to each container: Provided, That the drained weight of no individual container indicates a score of less than 14 points. However, if any individual container scores less than 14 points, each container will be assigned the score for its own drained weight. Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(iii) Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 15 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D. or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

	13 or less	Less than 50 percent.	Less than foregoing drained weights

(2) Wholeness. (i) "Whole" or "whole segment" means any fruit segment that retains its apparent original conformation and is not excessively trimmed.

(ii) "Almost whole" or "almost whole segment" means any portion of a fruit segment that is not less than 75 percent of the apparent original segment size.

(iii) "Broken" or "broken segment" means (a) any portion of a fruit segment that is less than 75 percent of the apparent original segment size, (b) a "whole segment" or "almost whole segment" that is excessively trimmed, and (c) portions of segments that are joined together only by a "thread" or membrane.

(iv) Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that consists of not less than 75 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit and not less than 75 percent by weight of drained orange fruit that is in whole segments or almost whole segments may be given a score of 18 to 20 points.

(v) If the canned grapefruit and orange for salad consists of not less than 50 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit and not less than 50 percent by weight of the drained orange fruit that is in whole segments or almost whole segments, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given. Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(vi) If less than 50 percent by weight of the drained grapefruit or less than 50 percent by weight of the drained orange fruit is in whole segments or almost whole segments, a score of 0 to 15 points may be given. Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Broken, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(3) Color. (i) Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that possesses a good color may be given a score of 18 to 20 points. "Good color" means that the color (a) of the grapefruit is a practically uniform bright, typical color free from any noticeable tinge of amber and (b) of the orange fruit is a bright, typical color which may range from deep yellow-orange to orange and which is practically uniform with not more than a slight variation in the units.

(ii) If the canned grapefruit and orange for salad possesses a reasonably good color, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given. Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product. (This is a limiting rule.) "Reasonably good color" means that the color of the grapefruit and of the orange fruit is fairly bright, may be variable in color, but is not off color.

(iii) Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 15 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(4) Absence of defects. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from harmless extraneous material, from seeds, from portions of albedo, from portions of tough membrane, and from damaged units.

(i) "Harmless extraneous material" means leaves, portions of leaves, small pieces of peel, and other similar material that is harmless.

(ii) "Seed" means any seed or any portion thereof, whether or not fully developed, that measures more than 3/16 inch in any dimension. A "large seed" is one that may be plump and measures more than 3/8 inch in any dimension.

(iii) "Damaged unit" means any fruit segment or portion thereof that is damaged by pathological injury, by lye peeling, by discoloration, or by similar injury or that is damaged to such an extent that the appearance or eating quality of the unit is seriously affected.

(iv) Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that is practically free from defects may be given a score of 18 to 20 points. "Practically free from defects" means that no harmless extraneous material is present; that not more than 5 percent by weight of the drained fruit may be damaged units; and that for each 20 ounces of net weight there may be present:

Not more than 4 seeds including not more than one large seed; and

Not more than an aggregate area of 2 square inches on the units covered by tough membrane or albedo.

(v) If the canned grapefruit and orange for salad is reasonably free from defects, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given. Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" means that not more than 15 precent by weight of the drained fruit may be damaged units; and that for each 20 ounces of net weight there may be present:

Not more than 1 small piece of harmless extraneous material;

Not more than 12 seeds including not more than 3 large seeds; and

Not more than an aggregate area of 3 square inches on the units covered by tough membrane or albedo.

(vi) Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (v) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 15 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(5) Character. The factor of character refers to the structure and condition of the cells of the fruit and reflects the maturity of the grapefruit and orange fruit.

(i) Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that possesses a good character may be given a score of 18 to 20 points. "Good character" means that the grapefruit and orange fruit is moderately firm and fleshy; that the segments or portions thereof possess a juicy, cellular structure free from dry cells or "ricey" cells that materially affect the appearance or eating quality of the product; and that the product is reasonably free from loose floating cells.

(ii) If the canned grapefruit and orange for salad possesses a reasonably good character, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given. Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good character" means that the fruit is reasonably free from dry cells, "ricey" cells, or fibrous cells that materially affect the appearance or eating quality of the product but none of the fruit is seriously affected by dry cells, "ricey" cells, or fibrous cells.

(iii) Canned grapefruit and orange for salad that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 15 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(f) Explanation of terms. (1) "Good flavor and odor" means that the product has a distinct and normal flavor and odor typical of canned grapefruit and of canned orange fruit and is free from objectionable odors and objectionable flavors of any kind.

(2) "Fairly good flavor and odor" means that the product may be lacking in good flavor and odor but is free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

(3) "Brix" means the degrees Brix of the liquid media surrounding the canned grapefruit and orange fruit for salad when tested with a Brix hydrometer calibrated at 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.). If the liquid media is tested at a temperature other than 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.) the applicable temperature correction shall be made to the reading of the scale as prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists." The degrees Brix of the liquid media may be determined by any other method which gives equivalent results.

(g) Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (1) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of canned grapefruit and orange fruit for salad, the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of such containers fails to meet all the requirements of the grade indicated by the average of such total scores, and, with respect to such containers which fail to meet the requirements of the indicated grade by reason of a limiting rule, the average score of all containers in the sample for the factor, subject to such limiting rule, is within the range for the grade indicated;

(ii) None of the containers comprising the sample falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores; and

(iii) All containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Regs., Amdt. 42-5]

PART 42—IRREGULAR AIR CARRIER AND OFF-ROUTE RULES

CERTIFICATE RENEWAL, AIRCRAFT, AND OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of June 1950.

The Administrator of Civil Aeronautics has advised the Board that with the limited staff available for administration and enforcement of safety standards applying to air carriers and commercial operators operating large aircraft the Administration is unable, under the current provisions of Part 42 and the practices herewith described, to take all necessary and desirable measures to assure the attainment of the required safety standards by all such operators. The Administrator has, therefore, recommended that the Board promulgate immediately certain amendments to Part 42 designed to facilitate administration and enforcement of the safety requirements of that part of the Civil Air Regulations.

These amendments herein adopted are intended to focus responsibility for maintenance and operation by requiring an operator of large aircraft to have exclusive operational control of all such aircraft used in his business for a period of at least six months. Heretofore, an operator who had such control of one aircraft could use any additional aircraft, provided, if a large aircraft, that it was listed in the air carrier operating certificate and at the time of such listing was found safe for the service to be offered. However, where such an aircraft is listed in the operating specifications of more than one person, as is often the situation, we are advised that it is practically impossible in many cases to fix responsibility fairly for poor maintenance or other airworthiness deficiencies. To support administration of the existing requirement, the regulation hereby promulgated provides that no large aircraft may be listed simultaneously in the air carrier or commercial operating certificate of more than one air carrier or commercial operator, and that when the operator ceases to have exclusive operational control of any large aircraft he shall report such fact to the Administrator so that the aircraft may be removed from his operating specifications.

This regulation also provides that no air carrier shall change his principal operations or maintenance bases without prior approval of the Administrator. This will inhibit an air carrier from avoiding an inspection of his records, and from improperly asserting that he has just moved his operations or maintenance base to some other place, and will also enable the Administrator to ascertain whether the operator has the necessary facilities at the new location before the operations are started there. Amendments to §§ 42.91, 42.92, and 42.95 permitting the Administrator to designate the place where records are to be kept are established for similar administrative purposes.

This regulation further provides that all air carrier operating certificates and commercial operator certificates issued prior to July 1, 1950, shall expire no later than June 30, 1951, and that all certificates issued after July 1, 1950, shall be limited in duration to one year. This provision is designed to provide a specific recurrent period for proving qualification for an operating certificate. Such a provision is deemed necessary, in view of the fact that experience has shown that operators who satisfactorily show their ability to perform air carrier operations safely at the time of original issuance of an operating certificate often fail to maintain the necessary facilities and personnel thereafter. In order to permit the Administrator to cope with the recurrent inspection burden created by this provision by distributing such burden over the entire year, we are providing that he may immediately initiate his reinspection program for renewal of air carrier operating certificates rather than wait until the end of this year.

We are also making specific provision for requiring the possession of appropriate economic authority to engage in air transportation as a condition precedent to the issuance of an air carrier operating certificate. (Such provision is obviously inapplicable to a commercial operator.) The requirement is desirable to permit revocation of safety operating authority when economic authority has ceased, in order that such an operator be properly denied any color of authority to operate.

Within the past six weeks there have been several accidents involving aircraft operated by large irregular air carriers or commercial operators. While we have not as yet completed our investigation of, and hearings on these accidents, it has become apparent that the maintenance and operation of large aircraft by certain irregular air carriers and commercial operators have not been up to the standard of safety required by the provisions of Parts 42 and 45 of the Civil Air Regulations, that these deficiencies in maintenance and operation have resulted in hazards to safety in air commerce, and that changes in administrative provisions of this part are necessary to correct the current situation.

For the reasons stated above it is the opinion of the Board that an emergency requiring immediate action exists in respect to safety in air commerce and that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and the Board finds that good cause exists for making this amendment effective on less than 30 days' notice.

Interested persons desiring to present written data, views, and/or arguments pertaining to the rules herein adopted are requested to submit such matter to the Board on or before July 30, 1950. All communications so received will be considered by the Board, and the rules herein adopted will be reconsidered fully in the light of the comments submitted.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 42 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, Part 42, as amended) effective July 1, 1950:

1. By adding a new § 42.1 (a) (12a) to read as follows:

(12a) Exclusive use of aircraft. Exclusive use of an aircraft means that an air carrier has the sole possession, control, and use of an aircraft for flight arising from either (i) a lease or other agreement or arrangement under which the air carrier is to have the right to such possession, control, and use for a period of at least six consecutive months from the date of such lease or other agreement or arrangement,[1] or (ii) ownership of the aircraft.

2. By amending § 42.5 to read as follows:

§ 42.5 Certificate issuance. An air carrier operating certificate, describing the operations authorized and prescribing such operating specifications and limitations as may be required in the interest of safety, shall be issued by the Administrator to a properly qualified citizen of the United States possessing appropriate economic authority granted by the Board pursuant to Title IV of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, who is capable of conducting the proposed operations in accordance with the applicable requirements hereinafter specified. Application for a certificate, or application for amendment thereof, shall be made in a manner and contain information prescribed by the Administrator. No person subject to the provisions of this part shall operate in air transportation without, or in violation of the terms of, an air carrier operating certificate.

3. By amending § 42.6 to read as follows:

§ 42.6 Duration and renewal. (a) An air carrier operating certificate issued under this part prior to July 1, 1950, shall expire on June 30, 1951, unless (1) such certificate is sooner surrendered, suspended, or revoked, or (2) the Administrator, prior to that date, shall reinspect and re-examine the holder thereof and issue to the air carrier the new-type air carrier operating certificate hereinafter provided. An air carrier operating certificate issued under this part subsequent to July 1, 1950, shall expire one year from date of issuance thereof, unless such certificate is renewed by the Administrator or such certificate has been sooner surrendered, suspended, or revoked.

(b) The Administrator shall renew an air carrier operating certificate if, upon inspection and examination, he finds that the air carrier meets the current requirements of the Civil Air Regulations for issuance of any such certificate. Evidence of renewal of air carrier operating certificates issued subsequent to July 1, 1950, shall be made a part of the air carrier operating certificate in such form and manner as the Administrator may prescribe.

(c) Application for renewal of an air carrier operating certificate shall be made no later than 60 days prior to the expiration thereof, and shall be made in the form and manner prescribed by the Administrator.

4. By amending § 42.9 to read as follows:

§ 42.9 Operations base, maintenance base, and/or office. Each irregular air carrier shall give written notice to the Administrator of his principal business office, his principal operations base, and principal maintenance base. Thereafter the air carrier shall not change his principal operations or maintenance base without having secured prior approval of the Administrator of the new base or bases, nor shall the air carrier change his principal business office without advance notice thereof to the Administrator.

5. By amending § 42.11 to read as follows:

§ 42.11 Aircraft required. An air carrier shall have the exclusive use of at least one aircraft. All aircraft used in the carriage of persons or property for compensation or hire shall be certificated in accordance with standard airworthiness requirements. No air carrier shall operate a large aircraft for the carriage of goods or persons for compensation or hire unless (a) the air carrier has the exclusive use of such aircraft, (b) the Administrator has found such aircraft safe for the service to be offered and has listed such aircraft in the air carrier operating certificate, and (c) such aircraft is not listed in the air carrier operating certificate or commercial operator certificate of any other air carrier or commercial operator.

6. By amending § 42.91 to read as follows:

§ 42.91 Maintenance records. Each air carrier shall keep at its principal operations base, or at such other location used by the air carrier as the Administrator may designate, the following current records with respect to each aircraft, aircraft engine, propeller, and, where practicable, appliance used by him in air transportation:

(a) Total time and service,
(b) Time since last overhaul,
(c) Time since last inspection, and
(d) Mechanical failures.

7. By amending § 42.92 to read as follows:

§ 42.92 Airman records. An air carrier shall maintain at its principal operations base, or at such other location used by the air carrier as the Administrator may designate, current records of every airman utilized as a member of a flight crew. These records shall contain such information concerning the qualifications of each airman as is necessary to show compliance with the appropriate requirements prescribed by the Civil Air Regulations. No air carrier shall utilize any airman as a flight crew member unless records are maintained for such airman as required herein.

8. By amending § 42.95 to read as follows:

§ 42.95 Flight manifest record. A signed copy and any revision of the flight manifest required by § 42.62 shall be retained in the personal possession of the pilot for the duration of the flight, and a duplicate copy thereof shall be retained by the air carrier at its principal operations base, or at such other location used by the air carrier as the Administrator may designate, for at least 1 year after completion of the flight.

9. By adding a new § 42.97 to read as follows:

§ 42.97 Change in exclusive use of large aircraft. When, for any reason whatsoever, an air carrier shall cease to have the exclusive use of any large aircraft, an immediate report of such fact shall be filed with the Administrator in such form and manner and containing such information as the Administrator may prescribe.

In the Matter of Jacob Colon and Evelyn Colon, Individuals, Trading as E. & J. Distributing Company

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission, the answer of respondents, testimony and other evidence in support of and in opposition to the allegations of the complaint taken before a trial examiner of the Commission theretofore duly designated by it, recommended decision of the trial examiner, briefs in support of and in opposition to the complaint, and oral argument; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondents named below have violated the provisions of the Federal Trade Commission Act:

It is ordered, That respondents, Jacob Colon and Evelyn Colon, individuals, trading as E. & J. Distributing Company, or trading under any other name or designation, and respondents' agents, representatives, and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with the offering for sale, sale, and distribution of household merchandise, novelties, toiletries, or any other articles of merchandise in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the Federal Trade Commission Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

(1) Supplying to or placing in the hands of others pull cards or any other device or devices which are to be used, or may be used, in the sale or distribution of respondents' merchandise to the public by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme.

(2) Shipping, mailing, or transporting to agents or distributors, or to members of the public, pull cards or any other device or devices which are to be used, or may be used, in the sale or distribution of respondents' merchandise to the public by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme.

(3) Selling, or otherwise disposing of, any merchandise by means of a game of chance, gift enterprise, or lottery scheme.

It is further ordered, That respondents shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon them of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which they have complied with this order.

Issued: May 15, 1950.

By the Commission, Commissioner Mason concurring in the findings as to the facts and conclusion, but not concurring in the form of order to cease and desist, for the reasons stated in his opinion concurring in part and dissenting in part in Docket 5203, Worthmore Sales Company.

AUTHORITY: §§ 801.1 to 801.9 issued under Pub. Laws 129, 422, 464, 80th Cong.; Pub. Laws 31, 574, 81st Cong.

PURPOSE

§ 801.1 What this part does. This part (Veterans' Preference Regulation) explains the preference given to veterans of World War II and their families by the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, as amended, in the sale or renting of housing accommodations completed after June 30, 1947, and prior to June 30, 1951.

DEFINITIONS

§ 801.2 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) The terms "veterans of World War II or their families," "veterans or their families," and "veterans" shall mean:

(1) A person who has served in the active military or naval forces of the United States on or after September 16, 1940, and who has been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable;

(2) The spouse of a veteran (as described in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph) who died after being discharged or released from service, if the spouse has not remarried and is living with a child or children of the deceased veteran;

(3) A person who is serving in the active military or naval forces of the United States requiring housing accommodations for his dependent family;

(4) The spouse of a person who served in the active military or naval forces of the United States on or after September 16, 1940, and who died in service, if the spouse has not remarried and is living with a child or children of the deceased;

(5) A citizen of the United States who served in the armed forces of an allied nation during World War II (and who has been discharged or released therefrom under conditions other than dishonorable) requiring housing accommodations for his dependent family;

(6) A person to whom the War Shipping Administration has issued a certificate of continuous service in the United States Merchant Marine who requires housing accommodations for his dependent family; and

(7) A citizen of the United States who, as a civilian, was interned or held a prisoner of war by an enemy nation at any time during World War II, requiring housing accommodations for his dependent family.

(b) The term "nonveterans" shall mean persons other than veterans of World War II or their families.

(c) The term "person" shall include an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or a representative of any of the foregoing.

(d) The time at which construction, conversion or erection of housing accommodations shall be deemed to be "completed" shall be the date on which the dwelling is first suitable for occupancy and all utility and service connections have been made, except for the installation of such items and the completion of such decoration work as, in accordance with the custom of the community, are left for installation by, or to the choice of, the purchaser or the tenant.

(e) The term "housing accommodations" shall include, without limitation, any building, structure, or part thereof, or land appurtenant thereto, or any real or personal property, designed, constructed, or converted for dwelling or residential purposes, together with all privileges, services, or facilities in connection therewith; industrially made or prefabricated houses, sections, panels, or their aggregate as a "package", designed or constructed for dwelling or residential purposes; and a certificate, deposit, membership, stock interest, or undivided interest in real estate, under a cooperative mutual ownership or similar plan, which carries with it the right of occupancy of individual dwelling units.

(f) The term "housing accommodations designed for occupancy by other than transients" shall not include housing accommodations which:

(1) In a particular community are customarily rented for a term of occupancy of six days or less, or

(2) Are rented and usable only on a seasonal basis.

PREFERENCE PERIODS

§ 801.3 Veterans' preference in sale of housing accommodations. In order to assure preference or priority to veterans of World War II or their families in the sale of housing accommodations designed for a single family residence, the manufacture, prefabrication, construction, conversion or erection of which is completed after June 30, 1947, and prior to June 30, 1951, the following rules must be observed:

(a) 30-day veterans' preference period after manufacture or prefabrication and prior to erection. No manufacturer, dealer or other person shall offer for sale, sell or otherwise dispose of industrially made or prefabricated houses, sections, panels, or their aggregate as a "package", designed or constructed for dwelling or residential purposes, to any person for occupancy by nonveterans unless such housing accommodations have first been offered for sale for at least thirty days exclusively for occupancy by veterans or their families.

(b) 30-day veterans' preference period after construction, conversion or erection. No person shall offer for sale, sell or otherwise dispose of such housing accommodations to any person for occupancy by nonveterans unless such housing accomodations have first been publicly offered for sale exclusively for occupancy by veterans or their families (1) during the period of construction, conversion or erection and for at least thirty days thereafter, and (2) for a period of at least seven days in any resale or other subsequent disposition.

No person shall purchase or otherwise acquire such housing accommodations during either of the exclusive veterans' preference offering periods set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, unless such purchase or other acquisition is made in good faith for occupancy, during the time that this part remains in effect, by veterans or their families.

(c) 7-day offer at a price in first and subsequent sales. No person shall offer for sale or resale, sell or resell such housing accommodations to any person for occupancy by nonveterans at a price less than the price at which the accommodations have last been publicly offered for sale for at least seven days exclusively for occupancy by veterans or their families: Provided, however, That in no event shall the exclusive public offering period for occupancy by veterans or their families total less than thirty days in any first or original sale as required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

No person shall purchase such housing accommodations for occupancy by nonveterans at a price less than the price at which the accommodations have last been publicly offered for at least seven days exclusively for occupancy by veterans or their families.

§ 801.4 Veterans' preference in renting of housing accommodations. In order to assure preference or priority to veterans of World War II or their families in the renting of housing accommodations designed for occupancy by other than transients, the manufacture, prefabrication, construction, conversion or erection of which is completed after June 30, 1947, and prior to June 30, 1951 the following rules must be observed:

(a) 30-day veterans' preference period after manufacture or prefabrication and prior to erection. No manufacturer, dealer or other person shall offer for rent, rent or otherwise dispose of industrially made or prefabriciated houses, sections, panels or their aggregate as a "package," designed or constructed for dwelling or residential purposes, to any person for occupancy by nonveterans unless such housing accommodations have first been offered for rent for at least thirty days exclusively for occupancy by veterans or their families.

(b) 30-day veterans' preference period after construction, conversion or erection. No person shall offer for rent, rent or otherwise dispose of such housing accommodations to any person for occupancy by nonveterans unless such housing accommodations have first been publicly offered for rent exclusively for occupancy by veterans or their families (1) during the period of construction, conversion or erection and for at least thirty days thereafter, and (2) for a period of at least seven days in any renting or other subsequent disposition.

No person shall acquire by renting or otherwise acquire such housing accommodations, during either of the exclusive veterans' preference offering periods set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, unless such acquisition by renting or other acquisition is made in good faith for occupancy, during the time that this part remains in effect, by veterans or their families.

(c) 7-day offer at a price in first and subsequent rentings. No person shall offer for rent or rerent, rent or rerent such housing accommodations to any person for occupancy by nonveterans at a price less than the price at which the accommodations have last been publicly offered for rent for at least seven days exclusively for occupancy by veterans or their families: Provided, however, That in no event shall the exclusive public offering period for occupancy by veterans or their families total less than thirty days in any first or original renting as required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

No person shall acquire by renting or otherwise acquire such housing accommodations for occupancy by nonveterans at a price less than the price at which the accommodations have last been publicly offered for at least seven days exclusively for occupancy by veterans or their families.

§ 801.5 Alternative veterans' preference period for projects of several dwellings. Where a number of dwellings are to be constructed or erected on a certain site as one project, the period of exclusive public offering for occupancy by veterans or their families which is applicable to the first or "model" dwelling in the project may be used for any or all of the other dwelling units in the project which are substantially the same: Provided, That the public offering and other requirements of this part applicable to the first or "model" dwelling are applied to the other units. For this purpose, the term "construction" as used in this section means construction or erection of such first or "model" dwelling. The exclusive public offering for occupancy by veterans or their families under this section must clearly refer to all of the dwellings in the project to be covered by the public offering.

PUBLIC OFFERING

§ 801.6 Public offering in good faith. In order to assure preference or priority to veterans of World War II or their families, all housing accommodations covered by §§ 801.3, 801.4 and 801.5 must, for the applicable period therein set forth, be publicly offered in good faith, as provided in this section, for sale or rent exclusively for occupancy by veterans or their families.

(a) Must give veterans reasonable opportunity. To make a public offering in good faith, the owner must take such affirmative steps as, under the circumstances, will give notice to all veterans or a reasonably large class of veterans in the community that the accommodations are available and will give them a reasonable opportunity to negotiate for them. These affirmative steps, in addition to the posting of placards or signs and the insertion of advertisements in newspapers, as required by paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, include at least those steps which are customary in the community for making a public offering of housing accommodations. The refusal of the owner to sell or rent to a particular veteran for personal reasons, which are in accordance with local law and customary real estate practices in the community, does not by itself necessarily constitute a violation of this public offering requirement. If, however, the owner refuses to sell or rent to veterans whom he does not know to be unqualified or unable to purchase or rent, and then sells or rents to a nonveteran, the owner has violated this part.

(b) Posting of placards or signs. A placard or sign must be posted in front of each housing structure, or in a conspicuous location on the site of the construction of the housing accommodations, during any exclusive public offering period for occupancy by veterans or their families. Such placard or sign must legibly contain the rent or sales price, the fact that the housing accommodations are offered for sale or rent exclusively for occupancy by veterans or their families for the prescribed period, and the name and address of the person authorized to sell or rent the housing accommodations. If the rent or sales price is reduced after the placard or sign is posted, the price on the placard or sign must be changed accordingly.

(c) Newspaper advertisement. All housing accommodations covered by §§ 801.3, 801.4 and 801.5 must be publicly advertised by newspaper exclusively for occupancy by veterans or their families on at least three days during the first twenty days of the thirty-day preference period required in any first or original sale or renting and on at least two days during the seven-day preference period required in any resale or rerenting. This advertisement shall be in a newspaper of general circulation in the community where the housing accommodations are located. The advertisement shall contain the same information as required for placards and signs in paragraph (b) of this section.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 80.7 Violations and enforcement—(a) General. The veterans' preference requirements of this part shall not be evaded either directly or indirectly. It shall be unlawful for any person to effect, either as principal, broker, or agent, a sale or renting or an agreement for the sale or renting or to solicit or attempt, offer or agree to sell or rent any housing accommodations in violation of the veterans' preference requirements of this part. It shall also be unlawful for any person to sell or rent or agree to sell or rent housing accommodations covered by §§ 801.3, 801.4 and 801.5 during the veterans' preference periods if he knows or has reason to know that the housing accommodations will not be occupied by veterans or their families, and for any purchaser or tenant to effect or agree to effect a sale or renting in violation of the veterans' preference requirements of this part.

(b) Penalties. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this part or section 4 of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, as amended, shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not more than $5,000 or to imprisonment for not more than one year or to both such fine and imprisonment. Any person who, in connection with this part, knowingly makes any statement to any department or agency of the United States, false in any material respect, shall upon conviction thereof be subject to fine or imprisonment or both. Any person who violates any provision of this part may be prohibited or restrained as authorized by law.

§ 801.8 Exceptions. The veterans' preference requirements set forth in this part are not applicable to:

(a) Housing accommodations which are built to replace a dwelling destroyed or damaged by fire, flood, tornado, or, other similar disaster;

(b) Sales of housing accommodations in the course of judicial or statutory proceedings in connection with foreclosures;

(c) The occupancy by an owner, or his building service employee, of a dwelling unit which does not exceed in floor space (1) a normal one-family unit in the structure or project, or (2) fifteen percent of the residential floor space of the structure or project.

(d) Sales of any housing accommodations to any person for investment purposes rather than for occupancy by the purchaser; but the purchaser of such housing accommodations is bound by the veterans' preference requirements in this part in renting or selling for occupancy.

(e) The occupancy of housing accommodations operated by a non-profit or public educational institution for the use of its students or teachers: Provided, however, That among eligible applicants for such accommodations at any particular time preference shall be given to veterans.

§ 801.9 Appeals. Any person who considers that compliance with any provision of this part would result in a hardship on him may appeal for relief. The appeal shall be in the form of a letter in duplicate addressed to the Housing Expediter, Washington, D. C., Ref.: VPR Appeal. The appeal must state clearly the specific provision of the part appealed from and describe fully the hardship which will result from compliance with the regulations in this part.

TITLE 31—MONEY AND FINANCE: TREASURY

Chapter I—Monetary Offices, Department of the Treasury

[1950 Dept. Circ. 1]

PART 129—VALUES OF FOREIGN MONEYS

QUARTER BEGINNING JULY 1, 1950

JULY 1, 1950.

(c) Quarter beginning July 1, 1950. Pursuant to section 522, title IV, of the Tariff Act of 1930, reenacting section 25 of the act of August 27, 1894, as amended, the following estimates by the Director of the Mint of the values of foreign monetary units are hereby proclaimed to be the values of such units in terms of the money of account of the United States that are to be followed in estimating the value of all foreign merchandise exported to the United States during the quarter beginning July 1, 1950, expressed in any such foreign monetary units: Provided, however, That if no such value has been proclaimed, or if the value so proclaimed varies by 5 per centum or more from a value measured by the buying rate in the New York market at noon on the day of exportation, conversion shall be made at a value measured by such buying rate as determined and certified by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York and published by the Secretary of the Treasury pursuant to the provisions of section 522, title IV, of the Tariff Act of 1930.

The value of foreign monetary units, as shown below in terms of United States money, is the ratio between the legal gold content of the foreign unit and the legal gold content of the United States dollar. It should be noted that this value, with respect to most countries, varies widely from the present exchange rates. Countries not having a legally defined gold monetary unit, or those for which current information is not available, are omitted.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 3—VETERANS CLAIMS

ADJUSTMENT OF AWARD OF VETERAN UPON TERMINATION OF INSTITUTIONALIZATION

In § 3.256, paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.256 Adjustment of award of veteran upon termination of institutionalization by the Veterans' Administration. • • •

(b) While a veteran is on trial visit or other temporary absence from a Veterans' Administration hospital or center, no adjustment of his award by reason thereof will be made for any period of less than 30 days, inclusive of the day on which he left the institution. If such temporary absence is for a period of 30 days or more, the award to or on behalf of the veteran will be adjusted in accordance with the last valid rating, if otherwise in order, effective as of the day the veteran departs. However, a furlough, trial visit, or other temporary absence for a period of 30 days or more is not tantamount to a discharge within the purview of paragraph (a) (1) of this section and the veteran may not be awarded the moneys withheld under § 3.255 (a) in a lump sum when he leaves the institution on such a temporary absence. Upon return from such a temporary absence the veteran's award shall be immediately reduced to the institutional rate, if otherwise in order. If the veteran is discharged without returning to the institution, the award will be adjusted in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section. The report of such absence will be made to the office having custody of the case file, in accordance with effective procedure.

(Sec. 5, 43 Stat. 608, as amended, sec. 2, 46 Stat. 1016, sec. 7, 48 Stat. 9; 38 U. S. C. and Sup. 11a, 426, 707. Interprets or applies sec. 1, 60 Stat. 908, as amended; 38 U. S. C. 739, ch. 12 note)

This regulation becomes effective July 6, 1950.

PART 21—VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION AND EDUCATION

SUBPART C—TRAINING FACILITIES

1. Section 21.421 is hereby canceled.

§ 21.421 Related training taken in another regional area when claims and R&E folders are located in regional office having jurisdiction over principal trainer. [Canceled.]

2. Section 21.433 is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.433 Payment to institutions. The manager of a Veterans' Administration regional office is authorized to pay to the approved institution for each eligible veteran enrolled therein for a full-time or part-time course of education or training the proper charge for tuition and incidental fees or other allowable expense, and for such books, supplies, and equipment issued to the trainee as are generally required for the successful pursuit and completion of the course by other students in the institution for the period covered by the properly certified voucher or invoice, subject to the provisions of §§ 21.442 through 21.448 and 21.539 for Part VII trainees and §§ 21.468 through 21.476, 21.484, 21.485, 21.493 through 21.495, 21.503 through 21.519, 21.530, 21.531, 21.532, 21.539, 21.540, 21.548, 21.549, and 21.557 through 21.559, for Part VIII trainees.

3. In § 21.449, paragraphs (c), (d), (e), and (f) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.449 Medical services for Part VII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), trainees. • • •

(c) Determination of fee rate payable. The department of medicine and surgery, Veterans' Administration, has negotiated contracts with virtually all States to furnish outpatient treatment to veterans with service-connected disabilities and has negotiated contracts with a number of State associations to furnish hospital care. Where it is contemplated that a contract will be negotiated with an institution to include medical and hospital services for Public Law 16 veterans, the chief, training facilities section will ascertain from the medical division whether there is a medical contract covering the area in which the institution is located. Where such a contract exists, the fees established in the Public Law 16 contract negotiated by the regional office for medical service and the charges for hospital services furnished outside of the regular services covered by the health fee will not exceed the charges negotiated by the department of medicine and surgery. Customary charges will be paid to the institution for the services covered by the regular health fee. In these cases where the department of medicine and surgery does not have a contract covering medical treatment and hospital care, the charges for such service will be checked with the medical division to determine that they are not in excess of the general rates being approved for such services by the department of medicine and surgery.

(d) Treatment by fee physicians. In those cases where contractual arrangements cannot be made with educational institutions but where the institution designates a physician or physicians to whom students are referred for treatment, the regional offices will arrange with the institution to have disabled veterans report to the institution's health officer for assignment to designated physicians for treatment or referred to designated hospitals for hospitalization. In such cases, the fees for medical services and charges for hospital services shall not exceed charges provided for in contracts negotiated by the department of medicine and surgery and, where the department of medicine and surgery does not have a contract, the charges for medical and hospital services will not exceed the charges approved for such services by the department of medicine and surgery.

(e) No certification from medical division required. No certification is required from the medical division for medical services provided Part VII trainees under vocational rehabilitation and education contracts or through arrangement made by vocational rehabilitation and education with the institutions for fee physicians and hospital care, as these services are separate and distinct from any medical services under the jurisdiction of the medical division to which veterans may otherwise be entitled.

(f) Voucher preparation. The institution which provides medical services other than those covered by the health fee of the institution or by special arrangements with outside individuals or organizations will be required to submit each month to the regional office an itemized voucher showing the name and C-number of each trainee, the nature and date of services, and fees charged.

4. In § 21.519, paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) (1) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.519 Determination of maximum amount of payment for tuition, fees, books, supplies, and equipment where entitlement of a Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12) veteran is extended and where a Part VIII veteran has insufficient entitlement to complete a major portion of a semester, quarter, or unit period of education or training—(a) Law. Paragraph 2, Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended by section 5 (b), Public Law 268, 79th Congress, reads as follows:

Provided further, That wherever the period of eligibility ends during a quarter or semester and after a major part of such quarter or semester has expired, such period shall be extended to the termination of such unexpired quarter or semester.

(b) Reference to method of determining extension of entitlement. Where the period of entitlement of the Part VIII veteran expires before the completion of a semester, quarter, or unit period of education or training, the method for determining the extension of entitlement, if any, will be in accordance with § 21.53, Extension of entitlement. Section 21.53 (b) (3) (vii) provides that in all excess cost courses payment in behalf of the veteran will not exceed the maximum dollar value of the veteran's remaining entitlement as determined by the registration officer: This maximum dollar value of remaining entitlement may be paid regardless of the time in the course when charges for tuition, fees, supplies, etc. fall due.

(c) Notification to institution and veteran. (1) In any case where the Part VIII veteran has insufficient entitlement to complete a major part of a term, semester, quarter, or other appropriate unit of time, the veteran and the institution will be advised by the registration officer of the exact amount of the veteran's entitlement. The maximum amount of payment for tuition and other expenses that will be made by the Veterans' Administration to the institution on behalf of such veteran will be determined as set forth in § 21.53 and arrangements for the payment of any costs not covered by the veteran's entitlement must be made between the individual veteran and the institution in which he is enrolled. In all excess charge courses, the registration officer will record on the VA Form 7-1907c or 7-1907c-1 the converted dollar value of the veteran's remaining entitlement, including the dollar value of the extension of entitlement where proper, and payments in excess of this amount will not be made by the finance division.

5. In § 21.570, paragraph (b) (1), (2), and (3) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.570 Determination when contract is required. • • •

(b) It will be necessary for a contract to be negotiated under Public Law 346 by the Veterans' Administration for payments for tuition, fees, books, supplies, equipment, and other necessary expenses to the institution for the training of Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended, trainees under the following circumstances:

(1) With institutions providing institutional on-farm courses, see §§ 21.613 through 21.618.

(2) With institutions offering courses of instruction by correspondence, see §§ 21.625 through 21.628.

(3) With nonprofit institutions which elect and are permitted to receive payments of other than customary tuition on the credit hour rate (§ 21.475). In such cases, contracts will be made effective with the beginning of the first term, semester, or quarter, subsequent to the date the institution submits a formal request for payment of adjusted tuition on the basis of § 21.475, provided such request is approved by the Veterans' Administration.

• • • • •

6. In § 21.612, paragraphs (b) (3) and (c) are amended to read as follows:

§ 21.612 Payment for flight training in nonprofit institutions. • • •

(b) Payment for voluntarily elected flight courses. • • •

(3) The veteran requests acceleration in the use of his available entitlement for the total charge for the flight training course which he has voluntarily elected by authorizing an additional charge to his entitlement at the rate of 1 day for each $2.10 of the total cost of the flight course.

(c) Payment for required flight courses. When the flight course is not voluntarily elected by the student but is required by the institution as a partial fulfillment of the institution's standard credit-hour requirement for the student's degree objective, payment to the institution will be made as follows:

(1) If the institution has elected to charge the Veterans' Administration on the basis of customary charges (§ 21.472) and the total charge for the flight course and the regular course exceeds the rate of $500 for an ordinary school year, the veteran either will be required to have his entitlement charged at an accelerated rate for the excess or the veteran will be required personally to pay the amount the charge exceeds the rate of $500 for the ordinary school year. If the combined customary charge is less than the rate of $500 for one ordinary school year, the veteran will not be required to have his entitlement charged at an accelerated rate.

(2) If the nonprofit institution has elected and is permitted to charge the Veterans' Administration on the basis of other than customary tuition charges (§§ 21.473 to 21.475 inclusive), the total payment to the institution for the other than customary tuition will be limited to an amount which together with the customary charges for fees (including flight training), books, supplies, equipment, and other necessary expenses will not exceed the rate of $500 for a full-time course for an ordinary school year. (See §§ 21.470 (b) (2) and 21.517.) If the total customary charges for fees (including flight training), books, supplies, equipment, and other necessary expenses, but exclusive of tuition charges, exceed the rate of $500 for a full-time course for an ordinary school year, the veteran may elect to have the amount of such excess customary charges, exclusive of tuition, paid by the Veterans' Administration and his entitlement charged for the excess or he may elect to pay the excess personally.

* * * * *

7. In § 21.614, paragraph (a) (4) (v) is amended as follows:

§ 21.614 Determination of fair and reasonable compensation for institutional on-farm training—(a) Certified financial statement required. * * *

(4) * * *

(v) Building operation and maintenance, depreciation, and rent. Cost of the pro rata portion of depreciation on instructional equipment, heat, light, power, water, janitor service, building maintenance, rent of non-publicly owned facilities, and insurance for classroom and laboratory space which may be allocated to these courses on the basis of the time the classrooms are used for these courses in relation to the full-time use of such classrooms and laboratories. A sum not in excess of $1.25 per student per month is acceptable as a fair and reasonable charge for this item without detailed calculation. In any case where the institution requests an amount in excess of $1.25 per man per month for this item, the manager will submit the proposal with the cost data and his recommendations relative thereto to the special assistant to the director, training facilities service, for the area concerned for a determination as to whether an amount in excess of $1.25 per student per month may be included in the fair and reasonable determination.

* * * * *

8. In § 21.625, paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.625 Contract negotiations for correspondence courses. * * *

(b) Approved schools. In accordance with paragraph 4, Part VIII, Veterans Regulation 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12 note), institutions furnishing correspondence courses must be approved. Approval of a school for use under Public Law 346 will be by the appropriate agency of the State in which the home offices of the school are located. As it is the responsibility of the State to determine which institutions are qualified and equipped to furnish education or training, it is also within the jurisdiction of the State to prescribe the standards to be met by an approved institution. The same procedure may be followed by the State in determining the standards required for correspondence courses as is followed by the State in the case of institutions offering resident instruction. The general approval given by certain State agencies to institutions covers residence courses only. Such States give separate and specific approval for correspondence courses.

* * * * *

9. In § 21.656, paragraph (d) is amended to read as follows:

§ 21.656 Time of payment to institutions for residence courses for Parts VII and VIII, Veterans Regulations 1 (a), as amended (38 U. S. C. ch. 12), trainees and basis for determining amount payable. * * *

(d) Provisions for payment to certain nonprofit institutions after expiration of refund period. (1) Nonprofit educational institutions may be paid in accordance with the provisions set forth in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph, provided such institutions operate on a regular term, quarter, or semester basis and normally accept students only at the beginning of the term, quarter, or semester and provided further such institutions are either:

(i) Institutions of higher learning that use a standard unit of credit recognized by accrediting associations (such institutions will include those which are members of recognized national or regional educational accrediting associations and those which, although not members of such accrediting associations, grant standard units of credit acceptable at full value without examination by collegiate institutions which are members of national or regional accrediting associations), or

(ii) Public tax-supported institutions, or

(iii) Institutions operated and controlled by State, county, or local boards of education.

(2) Eligible institutions listed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph which have a refund policy providing for a graduated scale of charges for purposes of determining refunds at least equivalent to that set forth in paragraph (e) of this section or those eligible institutions in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph which are willing to adopt such a policy with reference to veteran-trainees, except as provided in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, may submit a bill and be paid part or all of the entire amount of the allowable tuition and other fees for term, quarter, or semester of 19 weeks or less immediately following the date on which the refund period expires as designated for each of the following bases of payment:

(i) Customary charges or other than customary charges (§§ 21.472, 21.473, and 21.474). Payment will be made in full for the entire term, quarter, or semester immediately following the expiration of the refund period. The graduated scale of charges of the institution will also be applicable for purposes of determining the payment to be made for veterans withdrawing or discontinuing before the expiration of the refund period.

(ii) Section 21.475; estimated cost of teaching personnel and supplies for instruction. (a) Payments on this basis consist of tuition at a rate per credit hour plus the other regular nontuition fees of the institutions such as laboratory, student health, library, and student activity fees. After the expiration of the refund period or as soon thereafter as the institution is able to determine the number of credit-hours for which a student is enrolled and for which performance will be finally recorded on the records of the institution, the institution may bill and be paid for the full amount of tuition at the contract rate per credit-hour and for the full amount of the other customary nontuition fees charged by the institution. The "number of credit-hours for which performance will be recorded" means those credit-hours of work for which the student is finally enrolled after the expiration of the period during which a student is permitted to change courses without penalty insofar as credit is concerned. The credit-hour valuation used for purposes of calculating the payment will be the normal credit offered by the institution for the subject or course involved without regard to the fact that performance may finally be recorded in any one of a number of various terms, such as full credit, withdrawn, incomplete, or such other official record of performance as may be made by the institution following the expiration of the date for change of course without penalty.

(b) The basis of determining the number of credit hours for purposes of payment should be comparable to the basis used by the institution in calculating the number of credit-hours for purposes of determining the rate of payment.

(3) Nonprofit educational institutions, as set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, which do not have or will not accept a graduated scale of charges for purposes of determining refunds at least equivalent to that set forth in paragraph (e) of this section, will be required to prorate charges on the basis of actual attendance for veterans withdrawing or discontinuing prior to the close of the period and will be paid in arrears for the pro rata part of the charge for services rendered during the period covered by vouchers submitted for payment. Effective with the beginning of the first term, quarter, or semester, on or subsequent to March 1, 1950, nonprofit educational institutions which have a customary refund policy more favorable than that set forth in paragraph (e) of this section will be paid on the basis of such customary refund policy applicable to nonveterans, and, therefore, such institutions will not be eligible to use the refund policy set forth in paragraph (e) of this section.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—Management of Wildlife Conservation Areas

PART 33—CENTRAL REGION

SUBPART—UPPER SOURIS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, NORTH DAKOTA

FISHING; PUBLIC USE

Basis and purpose. On the basis of observations and reports of field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service, it has been determined that additional public fishing and the use of boats and outboard motor boats in certain of the waters of the Upper Souris National Wildlife Refuge can be permitted without interfering with the primary purpose of the refuge.

Inasmuch as the following regulations are relaxations of the existing regulations regarding fishing and boating on the refuge the notice and public rule-making procedure required by the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) are hereby found to be impracticable and the effective date requirement of the Administrative Procedure Act does not apply.

Effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, §§ 33.321, 33.323, 33.324, 33.326, 33.328 and 33.329 are revised to read as follows:

FISHING

§ 33.321 Fishing permitted. Noncommercial fishing is permitted during the daylight hours in the following specified waters of the Upper Souris National Wildlife Refuge during the period from May 16 to September 15, inclusive, of each year in accordance with the provisions of the regulations in Parts 18 and 21 of this chapter and subject to the conditions, restrictions and requirements of §§ 33.322 to 33.325, inclusive:

Area I. The Souris River channel beginning at the north boundary of the refuge and extending south to Mouse River Park.

Area II. All waters of Lake Darling lying between Grano Crossing and State Highway No. 48 in sections 2, 3, 4, 10, and 11, T. 159 N., R. 85 W., and in sections 20, 29, 30, 32, 33, and 34, T. 160 N., R. 85 W.

Area III. All waters of Lake Darling north of Dam No. 83 in Sec. 6, T. 157 N., R. 84 W., Sec. 1, T. 157 N., R. 85 W., Sections 20, 21, 28, 29, 30, 31, and 32, T. 158 N., R. 84 W., and Sec. 36, T. 158 N., R. 85 W., 5th P. M.; except within 200 feet of the outlet gate on Dam No. 83.

Area IV. The waters adjacent to the east bank of the Souris River south of Dam No. 83 within the W½ NW¼ of Sec. 6, T. 157 N., R. 84 W.

All of the waters of the refuge shall be open to fishing during the daylight hours from December 1 to March 1 following inclusive.

Fishing is expressly forbidden from the east shoreline of Areas II and III and from any dike, dam, or water control structure. The use of live minnows as bait for fishing is prohibited.

§ 33.323 State fishing laws. All persons must comply with all State fishing laws and regulations and must have on their person and exhibit at the request of any authorized Federal or State officer whatever license is required by such laws and regulations, which license shall serve as a Federal permit for non-commercial or sport fishing in the waters of the refuge that are open to fishing.

§ 33.324 Use of boats. The use of boats while fishing within the waters of the refuge is permitted only in fishing Areas I, II, and III. Persons may use outboard motors of not to exceed five (5) horsepower only on boats used for fishing purposes. The use of racing craft or inboard motor boats is prohibited. Boats may be launched and landed only at points designated by the refuge officer in charge by posting.

PUBLIC USE

§ 33.326 Public use areas. The following described areas of the Upper Souris National Wildlife Refuge are hereby designated as recreational areas for use by the public under the conditions, restrictions, and requirements of §§ 33.326 to 33.330 inclusive:

Area A. That part within the refuge of Section 30, T. 160 N., R. 85 W.

Area B. The NE¼ of Section 11, T. 159 N., R. 85 W.

Area C. The E½ of Section 36, T. 158 N., R. 85 W., and the S½SW¼ of Section 30, T. 158 N., R. 84 W.

Area D. The W½NW¼ south of Dam No. 83 in Section 6, T. 157 N., R. 84 W.

§ 33.328 Recreation. Picnicking, swimming, skating, and other recreational uses may be conducted at any time without permit on the designated public use areas.

§ 33.329 Use of boats. Persons may use boats (rowboats, sailboats, canoes) without permit during the daylight hours in Fishing Areas I, II, and III during the period May 16 to September 15, inclusive. The use of racing craft, outboard motors, and inboard motor boats is prohibited except as authorized for fishing purposes by § 33.324. Boats may be launched and landed only at points designated by the refuge officer in charge by posting.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 909]

[Docket No. AO-214]

HANDLING OF ALMONDS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 63 Stat. 282; 7 U. S. C., 601 et seq.), and the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, 900.1 et seq.), a public hearing was held at Sacramento, California, March 14 through March 18, 1950, on a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of almonds grown in California.

Upon the basis of the evidence adduced at the aforementioned hearing, and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, on June 2, 1950, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. Notice of such recommended decision, and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect thereto, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 3623) on June 9, 1950. The last day for filing such written exceptions has expired.

Rulings on exceptions. Exceptions to the recommended decision were filed on behalf of certain handlers (other than cooperative handlers), referred to hereinafter as "independent handlers." These exceptions have been considered carefully and fully in conjunction with the record evidence pertaining thereto in arriving at the findings and conclusions set forth in this decision. Rulings on the exceptions are hereinafter set forth in connection with the findings and conclusions to which they refer. To any extent that the findings and conclusions of this decision are at variance with the exceptions not otherwise specifically ruled upon, such exceptions are overruled.

Findings and conclusions. The material issues and the findings and conclusions of the aforesaid recommended decision (F. R. Doc. 50-4892; 15 F. R. 3623-3647) are hereby approved and adopted as the material issues and the findings and conclusions of this decision as if set forth in full herein, except for the corrections set forth below, and except as they are modified by the findings and conclusions, including those in connection with the exceptions, as hereinafter set forth: 15 F. R. 3632, third column, 22d line from the top, the word "inch" should be added after "one-eighth" at the end of said line; in 15 F. R. 3637, first column, 64th line from the top, the word "be" at the end of said line should be changed to "he"; in 15 F. R. 3637, second column, 53d line from the top, the word "conductive" at the beginning of said line should be changed to "conducive"; and, in 15 F. R. 3638, first column, 57th line from the top, the words "out the" at the end of said line should be changed to "out of the."

(1) Exception was taken to the proposed provision, in § 909.64, which would require that each of the board estimates and recommendation in connection with the fixing of the salable and surplus percentages for a crop year be adopted by the affirmative vote of at least six of the ten members of the board. It was contended in this regard that handler and grower representatives of cooperatives on the board would probably vote together as a unit, and their vote, under the proposed arrangement, would become the board decision. It was argued that at least seven affirmative votes should be required for each of the aforesaid actions. While, at the beginning, the cooperative group would have majority representation on the board by reason of the fact that it handles the greater portion of the almond crop, there is no certainty that this situation will continue indefinitely. There was also a strong indication at the hearing that the independent group would also tend to vote as a unit in that regard. Therefore, to require the affirmative vote of seven members would, in effect, amount to a requirement for the unanimous vote of the board, which, in the circumstances, would seem to be an impracticable requirement. It is contemplated that the board estimates and recommendation will be only a part of the factors which the Secretary will consider in reaching a final decision. In other words, in case the independent group should not agree with the estimates and recommendation adopted by the board, its views together with all data in support thereof, would still be considered carefully by the Secretary before he reaches his final decision. The proposed way of handling is consistent with the way of handling the matter which has been followed in regulatory programs of this kind involving other tree nuts, and, in those other programs, it has happened on a number of occasions, that the Secretary has not followed the recommendations of the administrative agency when other data available to him has indicated that he should not do so. This exception is denied.

(2) Exception was taken to the proposed provisions, in § 909.65 (a), which would, with certain specified exceptions, require each handler to withhold from handling a quantity of almonds having an edible kernel weight equal to the surplus percentage of the edible kernel weight of all almonds such handler receives for his own account during a crop year, except that, in the event adequate records are not available at any time to show all quantities of almonds received by a handler during a crop year, or any part thereof, the surplus obligation of such handler should be a quantity of almonds having an edible kernel weight equal to the withholding percentage of the edible kernel weight of the almonds theretofore handled by such handler during the crop year. The computation of this withholding percentage was specified to be on the basis of the ratio, measured as a percentage, of the surplus percentage to the salable percentage. The exceptor objects to these proposed provisions on the general grounds that: "The proposal made by the independents (the exceptors' proposal as submitted at the hearing) for setting forth the withholding requirements is more definite and certain, more in accord with what will be the normal industry practice of setting aside surplus and moreover, as shown at length in the brief, the desirability of every feature of that proposal has been testified to by proponents' witnesses. The proposal of the independents also overcomes any question of acquisition of almonds after a handler's last handling in a crop year (F. R. 3632). It has the advantage of simplicity and definiteness, rather than being lacking in detail, and subject to numerous questions, problems, and interpretations."

The exceptor's basic proposal, as submitted at the hearing, would require each handler to withhold from handling, as of any given time, a quantity of almonds having an edible kernel weight equal to the withholding percentage, as described above, of the edible kernel weight of all almonds shipped by him up to that time. In addition, the exceptor's proposal would attempt to provide specifically for withholding of surplus by handlers who file deferment bonds in support of authorizations from the control board to defer accounting for surplus for specified periods not later than April 1 of the particular crop year. Under that plan, any almonds received by a handler subsequent to his last handling in a crop year would be carried over into the next crop year, and the percentages for such next crop year would be applicable thereto,

In its brief on the evidence adduced at the hearing, the exceptor argued that its proposal had the following meritorious features: (a) It would preclude the control board from demanding that a handler who had filed a deferment bond deliver his surplus to such board prior to the expiration of the deferment period; (b) it would cover separately and specifically the surplus withholding obligations of handlers who filed deferment bonds and of handlers who did not file such bonds, respectively; and (c) it would enable each handler to know, with certainty, his surplus obligations at all times by means of a simple and readily calculable computation.

Answering the exceptor's contentions as lettered above, the proposed provisions would: (a) Specifically preclude the control board from demanding that a handler who had filed a deferment bond deliver his surplus to the control board prior to the expiration of the deferment period; (b) make it unnecessary to provide separately for the surplus withholding operations of handlers who have filed deferment bonds as opposed to those who have not filed such bonds, since the same obligations attach to each group and the only difference is with regard to the time when liability for accounting for, and delivery of surplus arises; and (c) provide a simpler and more readily calculable computation for a handler to determine his surplus obligation at any and all times by reason of the fact that, in order to make such determination at any particular time, the handler would need only to apply the then applicable surplus percentage against all almonds received by him for his own account up to that time.

With regard to the exceptor's claim that its plan "would overcome any question of the acquisition of almonds after a handler's last handling in a crop year," such a result would accrue only from the standpoint that the exceptor would apply the percentages no further than at the time of the last handling. However, the problem would still remain with respect to any acquirements in a crop year after such last handling. The exceptor's proposal would necessarily require that any such subsequent acquirements be carried over to the next crop year and that the percentages for such next crop year, which would probably be different from the percentages for the crop year in which the almonds were received, apply thereto. Such a way of handling could obviously create inequities among handlers in meeting the surplus burden. As a practical matter, also, there is only a remote possibility that a handler will acquire almonds after his last handling in a crop year, particularly since producers normally deliver their almonds to handlers during the fall and winter and handlers usually market, or handle, almonds throughout the entire year.

The application of the surplus, rather than the withholding, percentage for the determination of the withholding obligations of handlers was proposed and argued at the hearing by the proponent of the order. Such a method, when applied against receipts, has the merit of simplicity, and insures that the surplus will be apportioned strictly according to the percentage which is decided upon as necessary to effectuate the policy of the act.

The exceptor's claim that the proposed provisions are "lacking in detail, and subject to numerous questions, problems, and interpretations" was not supported by any specific references to any such defects therein. It is believed that such proposed provisions are adequate for the intended purpose, and that they will be workable.

This exception is, therefore, denied.

(3) Exceptions were taken to the proposed provisions, in §§ 909.100 to 909.103, both inclusive, relating generally to the disposition of surplus almonds. Such exceptions were, first, that the language of the proposed provisions is vague and indefinite, and, second, that the time for the optional termination by a handler of his agency for the disposal of his surplus should be changed from April 1 to June 1.

For clarity of understanding in connection with the second exception, it is necessary to restate here the substance of the proposed provisions in that regard. Such proposed provisions (in § 909.102) would permit any handler, upon request made by him to the control board prior to the delivery by him to it of any surplus in a crop year, to act as the agent of such board in the disposition of his surplus, and, in that connection, a handler so authorized to dispose of his surplus as agent would be permitted to do so through arrangement with, and by, another handler who had likewise been authorized to act as agent. Further, any handler who had been so authorized to act as agent would be permitted, in case he should desire to do so, to terminate the agency as of April 1 of the particular crop year by giving written notice to the board to that effect not later than the previous March 20, in which event, such handler would be required to return to the Board, for disposition by it, all surplus almonds then remaining in his possession. In case a handler should not elect to terminate his agency as of April 1, he would be required to continue to serve as agent until August 1 of thte next crop year, at which time all such agencies then in effect would automatically terminate.

As has been indicated, the exceptor contends that the optional date for termination should be at least June 1, rather than April 1. The exceptor contends that April 1, which is also the date at which deferment periods for the accounting for surpluses would usually expire, is not a sufficiently late date for handlers to make satisfactory estimations as to whether they will be in position to dispose of all of their respective surpluses, and that they should have an additional period of at least two more months to reach a decision in that regard. In other words, in order to provide greater flexibility in this regard, the exceptors contend that the indicated additional period should be granted. Under the proposed provisions, a handler not electing to terminate his agency as of April 1, would be required to continue in that capacity until the following August 1. Therefore, the exceptor's proposal would reduce such subsequent period from four months to a maximum of two months.

It was proposed at the hearing by the proponents of the order that any handler who had elected to act as agent in the disposition of his surplus should be required to continue in that capacity, in any event, until September 1 of the next crop year. On the other hand, the independent handlers, who are the exceptor in this connection, contended at the hearing that a handler should be permitted to terminate his agency at any time he should desire to do so. It has been concluded that neither of these proposals should be adopted, but that handlers should be afforded one opportunity during a crop year to elect to terminate their agencies. It has been concluded further that such optional termination date should be April 1, for the reason that the outlook for disposition of surplus at the time the bond deferment periods usually expire (April 1) might differ materially from the situation existing at the beginning of the crop year, particularly since a large volume of surplus is expected to become available at the expiration of the bond deferment periods. It was indicated at the hearing that most, if not all, handlers would elect to take the benefit of the bond deferment provisions, and it was further indicated at the hearing that handlers electing to serve as agents for the disposition of their surpluses would normally do so from the standpoint that they would be able to dispose of a part of it in the more remunerative surplus outlets, principally for export. Statistics on file in the Department indicate that in the five crop years 1944-48, inclusive, approximately 80 percent of all almonds exported were exported during the eight months preceding April 1, i. e., August through March. In these circumstances, it is concluded that not only would handlers generally be able to sell substantial portions of their surplus almonds in the more remunerative outlets by April 1, but also the situation at that time should be such that they should be able to make reasonably accurate estimations as to whether they will be able to dispose of all, or a part, of their remaining surpluses to their advantage. In addition, any quantities of such surpluses not disposed of by handlers as agents will necessarily have to be disposed of subsequently by the board, and it is imperative, if the board is to perform its duty in that regard satisfactorily and efficiently, that it have as much time for that purpose as may be practicable.

With respect to the exceptor's first exception, namely, that the proposed provisions in this connection are "vague and ambiguous," such contention was not supported by any specific reference to any such defects. A comparison of the language of the proposed provisions with the language in the comparable provisions suggested by the exceptor at the hearing discloses that, except for differences in conclusions as to details of handling (the reasons for which have been discussed), all provisions suggested by the the exceptor have been covered specifically in the proposed provisions. It is believed that such proposed provisions are adequate for the intended purpose, and that they are not "vague and ambiguous."

In connection with the making of the aforementioned exceptions, the exceptor stated that the provisions, in § 909.103, which would create three pools for use in connection with surplus almonds disposed of by the board directly was not supported by any "testimony either by the cooperative or the independents."

In the present instance, it was proposed and contended for at the hearing by both the cooperative association and the independent handlers that any handler who desired to do so should be permitted to dispose of his own surplus and, that, in such an event, he should be permitted to have for himself the net proceeds which were derived therefrom. It was likewise proposed and contended at the hearing that the control board should dispose of all surplus referable to handlers who did not elect to act as agents, as well as all surplus which remains unsold in the hands of agent handlers at the times of the terminations of their agencies. In an effort to insure that the net proceeds from the surplus sales through the board would be distributed equitably and fairly, the cooperative association proposed and argued at the hearing that such disposion should be made on the basis of two pools, one representing all sales or dispositions made on or prior to September 1 of the particular crop year, and the other pool representing all sales or dispositions made thereafter.

The proposal of the cooperative association was, of course, predicated on its further contention that handlers electing to serve as agents should be required to continue in that capacity until September 1, and that all such agencies should terminate as of that date. In other words, its proposal was made in recognition of the fact, which was admitted freely at the hearing, that the board, as well as the handlers, would normally be able to sell surplus for more remunerative prices during the first part of a crop year, and it would not be fair or equitable to permit handlers who elected to serve as agents to participate also in the more remunerative returns received by the board during a period when none of their surplus almonds were available for disposition by the board, particularly since the expressed reason given for handlers electing to serve as agents was that they would anticipate that they would be able, during their agency periods, to obtain higher net returns from the sales of surplus by them than could be obtained by the board from surplus sales by it.

Also, the independent handlers, the exceptors in this connection, proposed and argued at the hearing that the control board should be authorized to "set up one or more separate surplus pools based on the time at which surplus almonds were made available for disposition by the control board or upon other factors which the control board may deem reasonable and proper." Thus, the exceptor also recognized the appropriateness and desirability of the establishment of more than one pool based on the time at which surplus almonds are made available for disposition by the control board. In connection with the independent handlers' proposal, however, it has been concluded that the regulation should contain specific provisions respecting the establishment of these pools, rather than leave the matter to subsequent and less formal rule-making proceedings on the part of the control board.

The proposed provisions follow generally the proposal which was proposed and argued by the cooperative at the hearing, except that it recognizes the fact that handlers electing to act as agents for the disposition of their surplus are to be granted an option to terminate their agencies as of April 1, and that all such agencies not theretofore terminated are to be terminated automatically as of August 1. With these necessary modifications, the proposed provisions are logical and appropriate in the light of the reasons as discussed above in connection with the cooperative association's proposal.

Therefore, all such exceptions are denied.

Provisions are now contained in the proposed order which refer to the initial crop year as beginning on July 1, 1950 (see § 509.4), and to crop years generally as beginning on July 1 (see § 909.25). Also, in § 909.64, it would be required that the control board furnish to the Secretary, not later than August 1 of each crop year, certain estimations with respect to matters which will be pertinent for his consideration in fixing the salable and surplus percentages for that crop year, together with its recommendation in that regard. In view of the lateness of the time and the further period which will be needed for the accomplishment of other necessary actions, it now appears improbable that the order can be made effective by July 1, 1950, or that it can be made effective in time for the control board to be selected, qualified, organized, meet, and submit the indicated estimations and recommendation to the Secretary by August 1, 1950. Therefore, appropriate modifications of the proposed order should be made so as to have the initial crop year begin on the effective date of said order, and so as to have the indicated estimations and recommendation for the initial crop year submitted to the Secretary within a reasonable time after such order becomes effective. It is concluded that a reasonable time in that regard would be 15 days.

The aforementioned findings and conclusions are supplemented by the following general findings:

General findings. (1) The proposed marketing agreement and order, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The proposed marketing agreement and order will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activities specified in the proposals upon which the hearing was held;

(3) There are no differences in the production and marketing of said commodity in the production area covered by the proposed marketing agreement and order which make necessary different terms applicable to different parts of such area;

(4) The production area, as set forth in the proposed marketing agreement and order, is the smallest regional production area which is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act; and

(5) The handling, as defined herein, of almonds grown in California is either in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto, and made a part hereof, are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Almonds Grown in California" and "Order Regulating the Handling of Almonds Grown in California" which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effecting the foregoing conclusions. The aforesaid marketing agreement and order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the annexed agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of the said agreement are identical with those contained in the annexed order which will be published with this decision.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1950.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,

AUTHORITY: §§ 909.0 to 909.161 issued under the authority of 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 282, 1051; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.

§ 909.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 282, 1051; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR 900.1 et seq.) a public hearing was held at Sacramento, California, on March 14 through March 18, 1950, upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of almonds grown in California. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) This order, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) This order will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activities specified in the proposals upon which the hearing was held;

(3) There are no differences in the production and marketing of said commodity in the production area covered by this order which make necessary different terms applicable to different parts of such area;

(4) The production area, as set forth in this order, is the smallest regional production area which is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act; and

(5) The handling, as defined herein, of almonds grown in California is either in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore, ordered that, on and after the effective time hereof, the handling of almonds grown in California shall be in conformity to, and in compliance with, the terms and conditions of said order, which are as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 909.1 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any other officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is, or who may be, authorized to perform the duties hereunder of the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

§ 909.2 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 282, 1051; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.).

§ 909.3 Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any other business unit.

§ 909.4 Almonds. "Almonds" means (unless otherwise specified) all varieties of almonds (except bitter almonds), either shelled or unshelled, grown in the State of California in the initial crop year hereunder, and thereafter.

§ 909.5 Unshelled almonds. "Unshelled almonds" means almonds the kernels of which are contained in the shell.

§ 909.6 Shelled almonds. "Shelled almonds" is synonymous with the term "kernels" and means almonds after the shells are removed.

§ 909.7 Major variety. "Major variety" means any one of the following varieties of almonds: Nonpareil, IXL, Ne Plus Ultra, Peerless, Drake, Mission, and Jordanolo.

§ 909.8 Similar variety. "Similar variety" means any variety, other than a major variety, having characteristics closely resembling the particular major variety under consideration.

§ 909.9 Dissimilar varieties. "Dissimilar varieties" means any two or more varieties, one of which is a major variety or variety similar thereto and the other of which is another major variety or variety similar thereto.

§ 909.10 Mixed varieties. "Mixed varieties" means any lot of almonds which, in respect to the predominant variety in the lot, contains more than 17 percent by weight of dissimilar and similar varieties, and any such lot or any other lot which contains more than six percent by weight of a dissimilar variety or varieties.

§ 909.11 Inedible kernel. "Inedible kernel" is synonymous with "damaged

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders, have been met.

kernel" and means an almond kernel or piece thereof (which will not pass through a round opening one-eighth inch in diameter) damaged in any one of the following ways: (a) Gumminess, when 25 percent or more of the surface area is covered by a waxy or resinous appearing substance; (b) insect or bird injury, when there is any evidence of, or injury by, insects or birds; (c) shriveling, seriously affecting 50 percent or more of the surface area or any shriveling, dark discoloration, or thinness producing an equally objectionable effect; (d) stains or dirt, when kernels have a dirty appearance caused by grease, mud, dirt, or other foreign substance; (e) mold, when there are light strands of white or grey mold affecting 10 percent or more of the surface area, or presence of other molds; (f) rancidity, when the kernel oil is partially oxidized producing a rancid taste or odor or the inside of the kernel is yellowish or brownish in color; (g) damage by other means, when there is any damage from any other cause of seriousness equal to any of the above enumerated classes of damage. Pieces of kernels which will pass through a round opening one-eighth inch in diameter and are rancid, moldy, dirty, or otherwise equally objectionable shall also be classed as inedible. The foregoing specifications may be revised or amended by the Secretary, on recommendation of the control board.

§ 909.12 Edible kernel. "Edible kernel" is synonymous with "sound kernel" and means an almond kernel or piece thereof which is not an inedible kernel.

§ 909.13 Edible kernel weight. "Edible kernel weight" means the weight of edible kernels contained in any lot of almonds, unshelled or shelled.

§ 909.14 Almonds received for his own account. "Almonds received for his own account" means all almonds which are received by a handler (including all almonds of his own production), except those which are received by him for storage or processing for the account of any other person and with respect to which such handler performs no handling function.

§ 909.15 Area of production. "Area of production" means the State of California.

§ 909.16 Grower. "Grower" is synonymous with "producer" and means any person engaging, in a proprietary capacity, in the commercial production of almonds.

§ 909.17 Handler. "Handler" means any person handling almonds during any crop year, except that such term shall not include a grower who sells only almonds of his own production at retail at a roadside stand operated by him.

§ 909.18 Cooperative handler. "Cooperative handler" means any handler which is a cooperative marketing association of growers regardless of where or under what laws it may be organized.

§ 909.19 Pack. "Pack" means any commercially recognized classification of almonds according to variety, size, quality, appearance, and condition.

§ 909.20 To process. "To process" means to bleach, clean, grade, shell, halve, package, or otherwise prepare in any manner whatsoever almonds for market as unshelled or raw shelled almonds, except as a grower in preparation for delivery of his own almonds to a handler.

§ 909.21 To manufacture. "To manufacture" means to blanch, slice, dice, roast, or otherwise prepare products from raw shelled almonds.

§ 909.22 To handle. "To handle" means to sell, consign, transport, ship (except as a common carrier of almonds owned by another person), or in any other way to put into the channels of trade either within the area of production or from such area to points outside thereof, except that such sales or deliveries by growers to a handler within the area of production shall not be considered as handling.

§ 909.23 Inspection agency. "Inspection agency" means either that inspection service on almonds which is performed by the United States Department of Agriculture under a cooperative arrangement with a State pursuant to authority contained in any act of Congress, which service is generally known as the Federal-State Inspection Service, or that inspection service on almonds which service is performed independently by the United States Department of Agriculture, which is generally known as the Federal Inspection Service, except that the term shall mean the Federal-State Inspection Service in the absence of a specific, and unrevoked, designation, by the Secretary, of the Federal Inspection Service as the inspection agency hereunder.

§ 909.24 Settlement weight. "Settlement weight" means the actual gross weight of any lot of almonds received for his own account by any handler, less adjustments as follows:

(a) For weight of containers;

(b) For excess moisture content;

(c) For trash and other foreign material of any kind; and

(d) For inedible kernel content.

§ 909.25 Crop year. "Crop year" means the 12 months from July 1 to the following June 30, both inclusive: Provided, That the initial crop year hereunder shall begin on the effective date hereof.

§ 909.26 Handler carryover. "Handler carryover" as of any given date means all almonds (except almonds held as surplus) wherever located, then held by handlers or for their accounts (whether or not sold), not including any manufactured products.

§ 909.27 Trade demand. "Trade demand" means the quantity of almonds which the wholesale, chain store, confectionery, bakery, ice cream, and nut salting trades will acquire from all handlers during a crop year for distribution in continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Canal Zone.

§ 909.28 Control board. "Control board" is synonymous with "board" and means the Almond Control Board established by this subpart.

§ 909.29 Part and subpart. "Part" means the order regulating the handling of almonds grown in the State of California, and all rules, regulations, and supplementary orders issued thereunder, and the aforesaid order shall be a "subpart" of such part.

ALMOND CONTROL BOARD

§ 909.40 Establishment. A control board of ten members, with an alternate member for each such member, is hereby established.

§ 909.41 Membership representation. Two members and an alternate for each member shall be selected from nominees submitted by each of the following groups designated in paragraphs (a) through (d) of this section, or from among other qualified persons belonging to such groups; and one member and an alternate member shall be selected from nominees submitted by each of the following groups designated in paragraphs (e) and (f) of this section, or from among other qualified persons belonging to such groups:

(a) The cooperative handlers;

(b) All handlers, other than cooperative handlers;

(c) Those growers who market their almonds through cooperative handlers;

(d) Those growers who market their almonds through other than cooperative handlers;

(e) The group of cooperative handlers or the group of handlers other than cooperative handlers whichever during that part of the then current crop year through March 31 received for their own accounts more than 50 percent of the almonds delivered by growers: Provided, That the group in this category for the selection of original members shall be the group of cooperative handlers; and

(f) Those growers whose almonds were marketed during that period of the then current crop year through March 31, through the handler group specified in paragraph (e) of this section.

§ 909.42 Selection of original members. The original members and their respective alternates shall hold office for a term ending with the second Monday in June, 1951, and until their successors shall be selected and shall qualify, and shall be selected by the Secretary from each of the six groups specified in § 909.41. The nominating procedure prescribed in § 909.43 (a) shall not be followed for the selection of the initial control board.

§ 909.43 Successor members—(a) Nominations. Nominations for successor members and alternate members for each of the six groups specified in § 909.41 shall be made by that group. The nominations for each such group shall be submitted on the basis of ballots, which shall be mailed by the control board, in the case of each such group, to all members of which it has a record, and the board shall also make such ballots available upon request. Every such ballot shall contain the names of the then incumbent members and alternate members of the board representing the particular group, listed separately, and it shall also contain blank spaces for use by voters in writing in the names of any persons other than those listed for whom they might desire to vote. In addition, the ballots for use by growers who market their almonds through other than cooperative handlers shall contain the name of any other person who has been proposed as a nominee for the particular position in a petition, signed by at least 15 of such growers, which had been submitted to the board. Previous announcements of every such balloting, regardless of whether by handlers or by growers, will be made by press releases through the United States Department of Agriculture to the newspapers and other publications having general circulation in the almond producing areas in California, furnishing pertinent information with respect to such balloting. The control board shall furnish, along with each ballot, all information needed for voting purposes.

In cases of voting by handlers (regardless of whether cooperative or other than cooperative), the vote of each handler shall be weighted by the volume of the tonnage of almonds (computed to the nearest whole ton in the case of fractions), in terms of edible kernel weight, recorded by the control board as having been received by the particular handler for his own account during the period through March 31 of the crop year in which the nominations are made. Each handler shall cast his vote as to his respective choices for the number of member positions to be filled and for the number of alternate member positions to be filled. The nominees for the respective member positions shall be the persons receiving, in order, the highest number of the votes cast by all handlers in the group for those positions for that group which are to be filled. Likewise, the nominees for the respective alternate member positions shall be the persons receiving, in order, the highest number of votes cast by all handlers in the group for those positions which are to be filled. The handler group which is determined to be eligible for additional representation on the board as the group which received more than 50 percent of the almonds delivered by growers through March 31 of the crop year in which the nominations are made, which group is referred to and described in paragraph (e) of § 909.41, shall nominate the persons to represent it in that group in the same manner as it nominates its other representatives. Similar provisions shall be applicable to voting by growers who market their almonds through cooperative handlers, except that nominations on their behalf shall be submitted by the appropriate cooperative handler on the basis of a ballot cast by it for the growers who are members of, or under contract with, such cooperative handler, and such ballot shall be weighted by the number of growers who are members of, or under contract with, such cooperative handler.

In cases of voting by growers who market their almonds through other than cooperative handlers, each grower shall have only one vote, and every vote shall have equal weight. The nominees for the respective member positions for that group shall be the persons receiving, in order, the highest number of the votes cast by all such growers for those positions. Likewise, the nominees for the respective alternate member positions for such group shall be the persons receiving, in order, the highest number of the votes cast by all such growers for those positions. In the event such group should be determined to be eligible for additional representation on the board as the group of growers whose almonds were marketed through March 31 of the crop year in which the nominations are made through the handler group which received more than 50 percent of the almonds delivered by all growers to all handlers during that period, which grower group entitled to additional representation is referred to and described in paragraph (f) of § 909.41, it should nominate the persons to represent it in that group in the same manner as it nominates its other representative on the board.

Nominations received in the foregoing manner by the control board shall be reported to the Secretary on or before May 20 of each crop year, together with a certificate of all necessary tonnage data and other information deemed by the board to be pertinent or requested by the Secretary. If such nominations of any group are not submitted as hereinbefore provided to the Secretary on or before May 20 of any year the Secretary may select representatives of that group, without nomination.

(b) Selection. The successors of the original members and their respective alternates shall be selected annually by the Secretary for a term of one year beginning with the first Tuesday after the second Monday in June, and shall serve until their respective successors shall be selected and shall qualify.

§ 909.44 Qualification. Any person selected as a member or alternate of the control board, shall qualify by filing a written acceptance of his appointment with the Secretary or his designated representative. Any member or alternate who, at the time of his selection, was a member of or employed by a member of the group which nominated him shall, upon ceasing to be such member or employee, become disqualified to serve further and his position on the control board shall be deemed vacant.

§ 909.45 Alternates. An alternate for a member of the control board shall act in the place and stead of such member (a) in his absence, or (b) in the event of his death, removal, resignation or disqualification, until a successor for his unexpired term has been selected and has qualified.

§ 909.46 Vacancy. To fill any vacancy occasioned by the death, removal, resignation or disqualification of any member or alternate of the control board, a successor for his unexpired term shall be selected as soon as practicable in the manner provided in § 909.43, so far as applicable.

§ 909.47 Expenses. The members of the control board shall serve without compensation, but shall be allowed their necessary expenses.

§ 909.48 Powers. The control board shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions hereof in accordance with its terms;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions hereof;

(c) To receive, investigate and report to the Secretary complaints of violations hereof; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments hereto.

§ 909.49 Duties. The control board shall have, among other things, the following duties:

(a) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any handler or grower;

(b) To keep minute books and records which will clearly reflect all of its acts and transactions, and such minute books and records shall be subject to examination by the Secretary at any time;

(c) To investigate the growing, shipping, and marketing conditions with respect to almonds and to assemble data in connection therewith;

(d) To furnish to the Secretary such available information as may be deemed pertinent or as he may request;

(e) To appoint such employees as it may deem necessary and to determine the salaries, define the duties and fix the bonds of such employees; and

(f) To cause the books of the control board to be audited by one or more competent certified public accountants at least once for each crop year, and at such other times as the control board may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request; and the report of each such audit shall show, among other things, the receipt and expenditure of funds pursuant hereto; and to file with the Secretary three copies of all audit reports made.

§ 909.50 Procedure—(a) Organization and rules. The members of the control board shall select a chairman from their membership. The board shall select such other officers and adopt such rules for the conduct of its business as it may deem advisable. The board shall give to the Secretary or his designated agent and representatives the same notice of meetings of the control board as is given to members of the board.

(b) Quorum. All decisions of the control board, except where otherwise specifically provided, shall be by a majority vote of the members present. The presence of six members shall be required to constitute a quorum.

(c) Permissive method of voting. The control board may vote by mail or telegram upon due notice to all members including in the notice to each a statement of a reasonable time in which a vote by mail or telegram must be received for counting: Provided, That voting by mail or telegram shall not be permitted at any assembled meeting of the board. When any proposition is submitted for voting by mail or telegram, one dissenting vote shall prevent its adoption by that method.

(d) Right of the Secretary. The members of the control board (including successors or alternates), and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the control board, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every order, regulation, decision, determination, or other act of the control board shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time, and, upon such disapproval, shall be deemed null and void except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith.

SURPLUS CONTROL

§ 909.60 General. In order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, no handler shall handle almonds except in accordance with the terms and conditions of this part.

§ 909.61 Withholding surplus. When a surplus percentage has been fixed for any crop year, as hereinafter provided, no handler shall handle almonds except on condition that he comply with the requirements in respect to withholding surplus almonds and the prescribed disposition thereof.

§ 909.62 Method of establishing salable and surplus percentages. Whenever the Secretary finds from the recommendations and supporting information supplied by the control board or from any other available information, that to designate the percentages of almonds during such crop year which shall be salable almonds and surplus almonds, would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, he shall designate such percentages. The salable and surplus percentages shall each be applied to the edible kernel weight of almonds received by a handler for his own account during the crop year, as provided in § 909.65. In fixing such salable and surplus percentages the Secretary shall give consideration to the ratio of the estimated trade demand, minus the estimated handler carryover, to the estimated production of almonds, all expressed in terms of edible kernel weight, the recommendations submitted to him by the control board, and such other data as he deems appropriate. The total of the salable and surplus percentages fixed each crop year shall equal 100 percent.

§ 909.63 Increase of salable percentage. The Secretary may, on request of the control board made at any time prior to May 15 of any crop year (or if the control board shall fail to so request, upon the request within like time of two or more handlers who have handled during the immediately preceding crop year at least 15 percent of the total tonnage, in terms of edible kernel weight, handled by all handlers during such crop year), and after findings of facts based upon such revised and current information as may be pertinent that the almonds available for handling will not be sufficient to supply the trade demand, increase the salable percentage to conform with such new relation as may be found to exist between trade demand and available supply.

§ 909.64 Board estimates and recommendations. To aid the Secretary in fixing the salable and surplus percentages, the board shall furnish to the Secretary, not later than August 1 of each crop year (except, for the initial crop year hereunder, such submission shall be made not later than 15 days after the effective date hereof), the following estimates, expressed in terms of edible kernel weight, and recommendation, each of which shall be adopted by the affirmative vote of at least six members:

(a) Its estimate of the quantity of almonds to be produced during such year;

(b) Its estimate of handler carryover as of July 1, regardless of the crop year in which the almonds were produced;

(c) Its estimate of the total trade demand taking into consideration economic conditions and the anticipated market price, within the limitations of the act; and

(d) Its recommendation as to the salable and surplus percentages to be fixed.

The board shall also furnish to the Secretary a complete report of the proceedings of the board meeting at which the recommended salable and surplus percentages to be fixed by the Secretary were adopted. If, for any reason, the board fails to make these estimates or to recommend to the Secretary salable and surplus percentages as required hereby, reports representing the respective views of each member with respect to such matters shall be submitted to the Secretary and the Secretary may act on the basis of such reports or such other information as may be available to him.

(b) Grade requirement for surplus. Lots of almonds to be eligible for certification as surplus must meet the following requirements, and only edible kernel weight in such lots shall be credited as surplus: (1) They shall be dry and properly cured; (2) unshelled almonds shall not be affected by adhering hulls (where more than ten percent of the surface is affected) on more than five percent by count; shall contain no more than two percent by weight of loose shells, hulls and other foreign material; and not more than ten percent by count of the kernels shall be inedible; and (3) shelled almonds shall not contain, in the aggregate, more than five percent by weight of loose hulls, shells, other foreign material, inedible kernels, and material of any kind which will pass through a round opening one-eighth inch in diameter. The requirements of this paragraph may be revised or amended by the Secretary upon the recommendation of the control board.

§ 909.66 Postponement of surplus obligation upon filing bond—(a) Privilege. Compliance by any handler with the requirements of § 909.65 as to the time when surplus almonds shall be withheld shall be deferred to any date desired by the handler but not later than March 31 of the crop year, upon the voluntary execution and delivery by such handler to the control board, before he handles any almonds of such crop year, of a written undertaking that on or prior to such date he will have fully satisfied his surplus obligation required by said § 909.65.

(b) Bond requirement. Such undertaking shall be secured by a bond or bonds to be filed with and acceptable to the control board, and with a surety or sureties acceptable to the control board, in the amount or amounts stated below conditioned upon full compliance with such undertaking. Such bond or bonds shall, at all times during their effective period, be in such amounts that the aggregate thereof shall be no less than the total bonding value of the handler's deferred surplus obligation. The bonding value shall be the total deferred surplus obligation of the handler in pounds multiplied by the bonding rate established pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section. The cost of such bond or bonds shall be borne by the handler filing the same.

(c) Bonding rate. Said bonding rate shall be based upon the then current season's domestic price per pound for shelled almonds generally known in the trade as "Nonpareil Medium" and shall be computed at 90 percent of the weighted average domestic price f. o. b. shipping point for the then current crop year at which such pack was sold during the first 15 days following announcement of opening prices, by any handler or handlers who during the preceding crop year handled 51 percent of the almonds handled by all handlers. Such handler or handlers shall be selected in order of volume handled in the preceding crop year, using the minimum number of handlers to represent a volume of 51 percent of the total volume handled. If the price from two or more handlers is involved for the designated pack, the price so computed shall be averaged on the basis of the quantity of such designated pack handled during the preceding crop year by each such handler. Handlers whose prices are to be used as aforesaid shall furnish the board with information necessary to compute the bonding rate. Until the bonding rate is fixed for the first crop year ending June 30, 1951, the bonding rate shall be 38.5 cents per pound.

(d) Description of Nonpareil Medium. "Nonpareil Medium" is the shelled product of a major variety of almonds produced in California known as Nonpareil. It has the following specifications: fairly uniformly graded kernels of the Nonpareil variety generally counting 22 to 24, 23 to 25, or 24 to 26 kernels to an ounce, consisting of whole unchipped almond kernels (whole kernels having chips not exceeding one-eighth inch in diameter or cuts and scratches one-sixteenth inch wide by three-eighths inch long shall not be classified as chipped kernels) with not more than ten percent by count of whole kernels having larger chips or cuts and scratches than above defined, not more than five percent by weight of double (twin) kernels, not more than one-half of one percent of broken kernels or pieces (less than seven-eighths of a whole kernel), and less than one percent by weight of inedible kernels, all of which are well dried, clean, and free (less than one-tenth of one percent) from pieces of shell, hull, or other foreign material.

(e) Replacement by control board. Any sums collected through default of a handler on his bond shall be used by the control board to purchase from handlers, as provided herein, a quantity of almonds not to exceed the total quantity represented by the sums collected. Purchases shall be made from the salable percentages with respect to which the surplus obligation has been met. If a larger quantity is offered than can be purchased the purchases shall be made in such pack or packs as the board considers most desirable to acquire for purposes of surplus disposal, at the lowest prices at which such pack or packs are offered. The purchases shall be made from the various handlers as nearly as practicable in proportion to the quantity of their respective offerings (at the same price) of the pack or packs to be purchased.

(f) Disposition of excess funds. Any unexpended sums, which have been collected by the control board through default of a handler on his bond, remaining in possession of the control board at the end of a crop year shall be used to reimburse the board for its expense, including administrative and other costs, incurred in the collection of such sums and in the purchase of almonds as provided in paragraph (e) of this section. Any balance remaining after reimbursement of such expenses shall be distributed as follows: In case purchases have been made of a poundage equal to that on which the default occurred, distribution shall be made only to the defaulting handler and in case the board is unable to purchase a poundage of almonds as large as that on which the default occurred, distribution shall be made among all handlers, other than the defaulting handler, in proportion to the ratio of each such handler's surplus obligation to the total surplus obligation of all such handlers for the crop year in which the default occurred. A handler who has defaulted on his bond shall be credited on his surplus obligation with that quantity of almonds represented by the sums collected on account of such default.

§ 909.67 Payment to handlers for services rendered. The control board may pay handlers for necessary services rendered by handlers in connection with almonds eventually disposed of as surplus including but not limited to storing, shelling, sorting, bleaching, grading, packaging, fumigating, and other services, in accordance with the schedule of payments specified in Appendix 1 (§§ 909.151 to 909.154, inclusive), or such amended or additional schedules as may be established by the Secretary which may be based upon the recommendation of the control board.

§ 909.68 Inter-handler transfer of surplus. For the purpose of meeting his surplus obligation, any handler may, upon notice to, and under the supervision and direction of the control board, acquire from another handler almonds with respect to which the surplus has not been withheld and any surplus obligation of the seller with respect to any almonds so transferred shall be waived, and shall be transferred to the buying handler. If any such sales were made of almonds on which the surplus obligation has been met, the seller's surplus obligation shall be reduced accordingly when the purchaser has had such almonds or a like quantity of almonds certified to the control board as surplus.

§ 909.69 Assistance of control board in accounting for surplus. The control board, on written request, may assist handlers in accounting for their surplus obligations and may aid any handler in acquiring almonds to meet any deficiency in a handler's surplus.

§ 909.70 Application of salable and surplus percentages after end of crop year. The salable and surplus percentages established for any crop year shall continue in effect with respect to all almonds for which the surplus obligation has not been previously met, which are received for his own account or handled by any handler after the end of such crop year and before salable and surplus percentages are established for the succeeding crop year. After such percentages are established for the new crop year, the withholding requirements for all such almonds theretofore received for his own account or handled during that crop year shall be adjusted to the newly established percentages.

§ 909.71 Application of bonding rate after end of crop year. The bonding rate established for any crop year shall continue in effect with respect to any bond or bonds executed and delivered pursuant to § 909.66 before the bonding rate for the new crop year is established. After such bonding rate is established for the new crop year, the new rate shall be applicable and any bond or bonds theretofore given for that crop year shall be adjusted to the new rate.

§ 909.72 Exchange of surplus almonds. Any handler who has withheld surplus almonds pursuant to the requirements of § 909.65 and has had the same certified as surplus almonds may exchange therefor, to the extent that such almonds have not been disposed of, an equal quantity, by edible kernel weight, of other almonds. Any such exchange shall be made under the supervision and direction of the control board with appropriate inspection and certification of the almonds involved.

§ 909.73 Adjustment upon increase of salable percentage. Upon any increase in the salable percentage and corresponding decrease in the surplus percentage, the surplus obligation of each handler for the entire crop year to the effective date of such action shall be recomputed in accordance with such revised salable and surplus percentages. From the surplus almonds that may have been withheld by him and not yet disposed of, any handler authorized to act and acting as agent of the board in disposing of surplus pursuant to § 909.102 shall be permitted to select, under the supervision and direction of the control board, the particular surplus almonds to be restored to his salable percentage, and such restoration shall be deemed to fulfil the obligation of the board with respect to such increase.

In the case of handlers who have not been authorized to dispose of their own surpluses, and handlers who have terminated their agencies to dispose of their own surpluses, prior to an increase in the salable percentage, insofar as practicable each such handler shall be permitted to select almonds from his own surplus to be restored to his salable quantity. In the event there are not sufficient surplus almonds held by the board at the time the salable percentage is increased, to make full restoration as represented by the increase in the salable percentage, to all such handlers, the restoration to the salable quantities of the respective handlers shall be pro rata on the basis of edible kernel weight poundage of surplus contributed by said handlers during the crop year to the date of increase of the salable percentage. However, in case a handler who has been authorized to act as agent in disposing of his surplus, has terminated such agency as of April 1, and the salable percentage is increased after such termination, the restoration to said handler's salable quantity shall not exceed the quantity of surplus turned back to the board by him at the expiration of his agency, plus any surplus which he may have contributed after termination of his agency. Such restoration to the salable quantity shall be deemed to fulfil the obligation of the board with respect to the increase in the salable percentage.

RECORDING RECEIPTS, INSPECTION, AND CERTIFICATION

§ 909.80 Record of receipts. For the purpose of establishing the surplus obligation and furnishing statistical information to the control board necessary for the conduct of its operations, each handler, on receiving almonds for his own account, shall issue to the person from whom so received a receipt therefor. At least two duplicates thereof shall be made at the time of issuance, one of which shall be retained by the handler as a part of his records and the other submitted to the control board as hereinafter provided. Such receipts shall be serially numbered and shall accurately show for each lot received, the identity of the handler, the name and address of the person from whom received, the number of containers in the lot, the variety, whether shelled or unshelled, and the settlement weight for each such variety. The character and amount of all adjustments deducted from the gross weight shall be shown with the gross weight on the receipt issued by the handler.

§ 909.81 Report of receipts. Each handler receiving almonds for his own account shall tabulate such receipts by varieties and shall submit reports thereof to the control board in such form and at such intervals as the board may prescribe for all receipts issued by him. Such reports shall be accompanied by duplicate copies of the receipts issued pursuant to the provisions of § 909.80 for all almonds included in such report. The control board, after checking such reports in such manner as it deems desirable, shall determine in the manner specified in § 909.82 the edible kernel weight of the almonds so received.

§ 909.82 Determination of edible kernel weight—(a) Almonds for which settlement is made on kernel weight. All lots of almonds, whether shelled or unshelled, for which settlement is made on the basis of kernel weight shall be included in the total edible kernel weight for any handler at the settlement weight.

(b) Unshelled, known varieties. Any unshelled almonds of known varieties for which settlement is made on the basis of unshelled weight shall be included in the total edible kernel weight for any handler at the settlement weight of such unshelled almonds of each known variety multiplied by the varietal shelling ratio applicable to such variety. Such varietal shelling ratios shall be those shown in Appendix 2 (§ 909.161). Such Appendix 2 may be revised or amended by the Secretary on recommendation of the control board and when so revised or amended in any crop year, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary, shall be applied to all almonds of known varieties received during that crop year.

(c) Unshelled, mixed, and unknown varieties. All lots of unshelled almonds for which settlement is made on the basis of unshelled weight, consisting of mixed varieties or of varieties which are unknown or not shown on the handler's reports or on the receipts issued by the handler, shall be included in the total edible kernel weight for any handler at the actual weight of the unshelled almonds multiplied by a shelling ratio of 55 percent unless the handler, at the time of the receipt of any such lot obtains at his own expense an inspection of such lot by an inspection agency. In the event of such an inspection, the edible kernel weight of such lot of almonds as shown by such inspection shall be used. When such an inspection is made, a copy of the inspection report shall be attached to the copy of the grower receipt for such lot submitted by the handler to the control board as part of his report specified in § 909.81.

§ 909.83 Redetermination of edible kernel weight. The control board, on the basis of reports by handlers as required in §§ 909.111 through 909.115 together with its records of almonds certified as surplus, shall redetermine the edible kernel weight of all almonds received by the respective handlers for their own accounts during the respective crop year (and on which surplus has not been contributed by a previous handler) through each of the following dates: December 31, March 31, and June 30. In determining the edible kernel weight of salable unshelled almonds on which delivery has been effected as reported under provisions of § 909.112 or in the carryover as reported under provisions of § 909.111 the shelling ratios specified in § 909.82 shall be used. The weight of salable shelled almonds on which delivery has been effected, the weight of kernels used by the handler for manufactured products, and the weight of shelled almonds in the carryover shall be used in determining the edible kernel weight of shelled almonds. The edible kernel weight of certified surplus as determined at time of certification shall be used with respect to such surplus. If upon the foregoing computations of the total edible kernel weight of almonds received by a handler for his own account during a portion of the crop year or the entire crop year based on such reports made by the handler and such verification thereof as the board or the Secretary makes as provided in § 909.114 the edible kernel weight is found to differ from that determined in the manner specified in § 909.82 appropriate adjustments shall be made in the recorded total edible kernel weight of almonds received by such handler for his own account, and such revised total, after taking into consideration any almonds which have contributed to surplus in the hands of a previous holder, shall be the basis for the determination of such handler's revised surplus obligation. The determination of the board based on the handlers' reports, the examination of their records, and the board's records of certified surplus shall be final. Such examination or audit of handlers' records as the board makes shall be at the board's expense and under uniform procedure.

DISPOSITION OF SURPLUS

§ 909.100 Prohibition on the handling of surplus. Except as provided in §§ 909.101 and 909.102 surplus almonds withheld pursuant to the requirements of § 909.65 shall not be handled by any person.

§ 909.101 Conditions governing disposition of surplus—(a) General. The control board shall have power and authority to sell or dispose of any and all surplus almonds withheld upon the best terms and at the highest return obtainable consistent with the ultimate complete disposition of surplus, subject to all conditions of this section.

(b) Disposition of surplus for export. Sales of surplus almonds for export to destinations outside the continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Canal Zone shall be made only on execution of an agreement to prevent sale within or reimportation into the United States; and in case of export to Canada or Mexico, such almonds shall be sold only on the basis of a delivered price, duty paid.

(c) Exclusion from domestic normal trade channels. No surplus almonds shall be sold in the United States, Alaska, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, and the Canal Zone other than to governmental agencies or to charitable institutions for charitable purposes, except for diversion into almond oil, almond butter, poultry or animal feed, or into other channels which the control board finds are noncompetitive with existing normal markets for almonds, and with proper safeguards in each case to prevent such almonds thereafter entering the channels of trade in such normal markets.

(d) Time restriction on disposition. The control board shall not dispose of, or authorize the disposition of, more than 50 percent of the surplus almonds prior to May 15 of any crop year unless disposition in excess of 50 percent is made pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section or unless the salable percentage is increased pursuant to § 909.63.

(e) Disposition after August 1. Any surplus almonds remaining unsold as of August 1 shall be disposed of by the board as soon as practicable through the most readily available outlets within the limitations of paragraph (c) of this section.

§ 909.102 Disposition by handler. Upon request of a handler, made prior to the delivery by him of any surplus to the board in any crop year, the board shall authorize such handler to act as agent of the board, upon such reasonable terms and conditions as the board may specify and subject to the conditions of § 909.101 in disposing of the surplus contributed by such handler for that crop year. Any handler who is authorized to dispose of his surplus may, through arrangement with another handler, dispose of such surplus through such other handler. In the latter instance, the second handler shall also be subject to the conditions of § 909.101. It shall be the obligation of any handler authorized to dispose of such surplus to effect disposition thereof in accordance with all applicable requirements and conditions. The proceeds of such disposition shall be retained by the handler making the disposition, except that, in case he disposes of the surplus of another handler, the proceeds from that disposition shall be divided between the two handlers on the basis of a mutual agreement. Such authorization shall expire as of August 1 of the next crop year, and any surplus then remaining undisposed of by the handler shall be returned to the board. Any handler who has been authorized to act as agent of the board in disposing of his surplus may terminate such agency as of April 1 of the particular crop year by giving written notice to the board to that effect not later than the previous March 20, in which event such handler shall return to the board, for disposition by it, all surplus almonds remaining in his possession. In case a handler does not terminate his agency as of April 1, he shall be required to continue to serve as such agent until August 1 of the next crop year. The board shall not terminate such an agency prior to August 1 unless the agent violates the terms and conditions specified by the board or other provisions of the order. During the period of such agency the board, as principal, shall not dispose of the surplus contributed by said agent.

§ 909.103 Disposition of proceeds from sales of surplus—(a) Pools. Surplus from almonds received by handlers for their own accounts during any crop year, other than surplus disposed of by handlers as agents of the board as authorized in § 909.102, shall be disposed of by the control board in three pools as follows: Pool No. 1—surplus delivered to the board during a crop year up to April 1 and disposed of during that period; Pool No. 2—surplus delivered to the board from April 1 to July 31, inclusive, and disposed of during that period, including, in addition to deliveries by handlers not acting as agents, deliveries by handlers who terminate their agencies as of April 1, and also any surplus from Pool No. 1 which was not disposed of prior to April 1, but which is disposed of prior to August 1; and Pool No. 3—all surplus held unsold by the board on August 1, including, in addition to any surplus turned over to it by handlers whose agencies expired on August 1, any surplus from Pool No. 1 and Pool No. 2 which was not disposed of by the board prior to August 1.

(b) Expenses. Direct expenses incurred by the control board in the maintenance and disposition of surplus almonds in each respective pool shall be charged against the proceeds of sales of the almonds in that pool.

(c) Distribution to handlers. Net proceeds from the disposition of surplus almonds in each of the three pools shall be distributed by the board to each handler having an interest in that pool in proportion to his relative contribution thereto in terms of edible kernel weight. In the case of a carryover from one pool to another pool, the board shall allocate the interests of the appropriate handlers therein on the basis of their respective total deliveries of almonds, in terms of edible kernel weight, to the board during the pool period in connection with which such carryover first originated.

REPORTS, BOOKS, AND RECORDS

§ 909.111 Reports of handler carryover. On or before January 15, April 15, and July 15 of each crop year every handler shall file with the control board a written report, under oath, of his carryover of all almonds by variety, showing whether unshelled or shelled and the number and type of containers and weight as of December 31, March 31, and June 30, respectively.

§ 909.112 Reports of almonds sold and delivered. On or before January 15, April 15, and July 15 of each crop year every handler shall file with the control board a written report, under oath, of all his sales of almonds by variety, showing whether unshelled or shelled and whether salable or surplus, and the weight on which delivery has been effected during the crop year, as of December 31, March 31, and June 30, respectively, including therein any manufactured products (whether or not sold) at their equivalent in terms of raw shelled almonds.

§ 909.113 Other reports. Upon the request of the control board, made with the approval of the Secretary, every handler shall furnish to the control board in such manner and at such times as it prescribes (in addition to such other reports as are specifically provided for in this part) such other information as will enable the control board to perform its duties and exercise its powers hereunder.

§ 909.114 Verification of reports. For the purpose of checking and verifying reports made by handlers to it, the Secretary or the control board through its duly authorized agents shall have access to the handler's premises wherever almonds may be held by such handler, and at any time shall be permitted to inspect any almonds so held by such handler and any and all records of the handler with respect to the holding or disposition of all almonds which may be held or which may have been disposed of by such handler. Every handler shall furnish all labor necessary to facilitate such inspections as the control board or the Secretary may make of such handler's holdings of any almonds.

§ 909.115 Confidential information. All reports and records furnished or submitted by handlers to the board which include data or information constituting a trade secret or disclosing of the trade position, financial condition, or business operations of the particular handler from whom received shall be received by and at all times kept in the custody and under the control of one or more employees of the board, who shall disclose such information to no person except the Secretary. Notwithstanding the above provisions of this paragraph, information may be disclosed to the board when necessary to enable the board to carry out its functions hereunder.

EXPENSES AND ASSESSMENTS

§ 909.120 Expenses. The control board is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary may find are reasonable and likely to be incurred by it during each crop year, for the maintenance and functioning of the control board and for such purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions hereof, determine to be appropriate. The recommendation of the control board as to the expenses for each such year, together with all data supporting such recommendation, shall be submitted to the Secretary on or before August 1 of the crop year in connection with which such recommendation is made: Provided, That if the program is not made effective early enough to permit making such recommendation prior to August 1 of the initial crop year such recommendation shall be submitted within 15 days after the effective date of this program. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by levying assessments as hereinafter provided.

§ 909.121 Assessments—(a) Requirement for payment. Each handler shall pay to the control board on demand by the board, from time to time, the sum of two-tenths of a cent for each pound of edible almond kernels received by him for his own account (except as to receipts from other handlers on which assessments had been paid) after the effective date hereof. In the event adequate records are not available at any time to show all almonds received by a handler during a crop year, or any part thereof, and his surplus obligation is determined under the alternate provision of § 909.65 (a), the assessment herein specified shall be based upon such handler's total salable and surplus almonds measured by edible kernel weight. Upon redetermination of edible kernel weight of almonds received by handlers for their own account as provided in § 909.83, such redetermined edible kernel weight for each handler shall be the basis upon which he shall pay assessments at the aforesaid rate. At any time during or after a crop year, the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment to apply to all such almonds during such crop year to secure sufficient funds to cover the expenses authorized by § 909.120 or by any later finding by the Secretary relative to the expenses of the control board, and such additional assessments shall be paid to the control board by each handler on demand.

(b) Refunds. Any money collected as assessments during any crop year and not expended in connection with the respective crop year's operations hereunder may be used and shall be refunded by the control board in accordance with the provisions hereof. Such excess funds may be used by the control board during the period of four months subsequent to such crop year in paying the expenses of the control board incurred in connection with the new crop year. The control board shall, however, from funds on hand, including assessments collected during the new crop year, distribute or make available, within five months after the beginning of the new crop year, the aforesaid excess to each handler from whom an assessment was collected, as aforesaid, in the proportion that the amount of the assessment paid by the respective handler bears to the total amount of assessments paid by all handlers during said crop year.

(c) Disposition of funds upon termination. Any money collected from assessments hereunder and remaining unexpended in possession of the control board upon the termination hereof shall be distributed in such manner as the Secretary may direct.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 909.131 Personal liability. No member or alternate member of the control board, or any employee or agent thereof, shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or any other person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate member, agent, or employee, except for acts of dishonesty.

§ 909.132 Separability. If any provision hereof is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder hereof or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing shall not be affected thereby.

§ 909.133 Derogation. Nothing contained herein is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modification of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or, in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 909.134 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue of this subpart shall cease upon its termination except with respect to acts done under and during its existence.

§ 909.135 Agents. The Secretary may, by a designation in writing, name any person, including any officer or employee of the United States Government, or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

§ 909.136 Effective time, suspension, or termination—(a) Effective time. The provisions hereof, as well as any amendments hereto, shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare, and shall continue in force until terminated or suspended in one of the ways hereinafter specified in this section.

(b) Suspension or termination—(1) Failure to effectuate policy of act. The Secretary shall terminate or suspend the operation of any or all of the provisions hereof, whenever he finds that such provisions do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) When favored by growers. The Secretary shall terminate the provisions hereof at the end of any crop year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of the growers of almonds who during that crop year have been engaged in the production for market of almonds in the State of California: Provided, That such majority have during such period produced for market more than 50 percent of the volume of such almonds produced for market within said State; but such termination shall be effected only if announced on or before June 1 of the then current crop year.

(3) If enabling legislation is terminated. The provisions hereof shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

(c) Proceedings after termination—(1) Designation of trustees. Upon the termination of the provisions hereof, the members of the control board then functioning shall continue as joint trustees, for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the control board, of all funds and property then in the possession or under the control of the board, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination. Action by said trusteeship shall require the concurrence of a majority of the said trustees.

(2) Duties of trustees. Said trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the control board and the joint trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct; and shall, upon request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title and right to all of the funds, property, and claims vested in the control board or the joint trustees pursuant hereto.

(3) Obligations of persons other than board members and trustees. Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been transferred or delivered by the control board or its members, pursuant to this section, shall be subject to the same obligations imposed upon the members of the said board and upon the said joint trustees.

§ 909.137 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination hereof or of any regulation issued pursuant hereto, or the issuance of any amendment to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision hereof or any regulation issued hereunder, or (b) release or extinguish any violation hereof or of any regulation issued hereunder, or (c) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person, with respect to any such violation.

§ 909.138 Amendments. Amendments hereto may be proposed, from time to time, by any person or by the control board.

APPENDIX 1—SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS TO HANDLERS FOR SERVICES RENDERED IN CONNECTION WITH SURPLUS ALMONDS

[Rates are expressed in dollars per ton of 2000 lbs.]

§ 909.151 Storage. Handlers shall be paid for storing almonds beginning on the day on which any handler has surplus almonds certified and shall continue so long as the almonds are stored by the handlers for the control board. Cold storage shall be used only when specified by the control board. Payments per ton shall be as follows:

	First month	Per month thereafter
Dry storage:
Unshelled	$2.90	$1.15
Shelled	1.75	.70
Cold storage:
Unshelled	5.00	2.50
Shelled	7.00	3.00

These storage rates include piling, holding, and tearing down piles.

§ 909.152 Fumigation. Handlers shall be paid the actual cost of fumigating almonds, but not to exceed $1.00 per ton for unshelled and $.60 per ton for shelled almonds. Each such fumigation must be approved by the control board.

§ 909.153 Packaging in new burlap bags. Handlers must provide suitable containers for storing surplus almonds, but when the control board requires packaging in new burlap bags, handlers shall be paid for such packaging as follows:

Unshelled—actual cost of the burlap bags plus $2.00 per ton for labor; and Shelled—actual cost of the burlap bags and liners plus $2.00 per ton for labor.

§ 909.154 Processing costs. The processing costs hereinafter enumerated shall be paid to handlers only when such work is authorized by the board. Handlers shall be paid their actual expenses for grading and bleaching unshelled almonds, but not to exceed $5.25 per ton. Handlers shall be paid the actual cost of shelling and sorting almonds but not to exceed $10.00 per ton of kernels for shelling the Nonpareil variety, $15.00 per ton of kernels for shelling any other variety, and $20.00 per ton for the sorting of any variety to produce a sheller run grade.

APPENDIX 2—VARIETAL SHELLING RATIOS APPLICABLE TO UNSHELLED ALMONDS

[7 CFR, Part 909]

[Docket No. AO-214]

HANDLING OF ALMONDS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

ORDER DIRECTING THAT A REFERENDUM BE CONDUCTED AMONG PRODUCERS AND DESIGNATING AGENTS TO CONDUCT SUCH REFERENDUM, AND DETERMINING REPRESENTATIVE PERIOD

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 63 Stat. 282; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among producers of almonds grown in California who, during the period July 1, 1949, through June 30, 1950 (which period is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of this referendum), were engaged, in the State of California, hereinafter referred to as the "production area," in the commercial production of almonds to determine whether such producers favor the issuance of an order[1] regulating the handling of almonds grown in said State.

(a) For the purpose of such referendum:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association, legal representative, or other business unit.

(2) "Producer" means any person who: (i) Owns and farms land in the production area, resulting in his ownership of almonds produced thereon; (ii) rents and farms land in the production area, resulting in his ownership of all or a portion of the almonds produced thereon; or (iii) owns land in the production area which he does not farm and, as rental for such land, obtains the ownership of a portion of the almonds produced thereon. Persons owning land in the production area and obtaining cash rent therefor, and persons acquiring, in any manner other than as hereinbefore set forth, legal title to almonds grown on such land shall not be deemed to be producers.

(3) Each producer shall be entitled to only one vote in this referendum: Provided, That (i) a husband and wife, a father and son or sons operating a farm and producing almonds on a partnership basis, and any other business unit (whether a partnership or a corporation), are deemed to be single business units and as such entitled to only one vote; (ii) in a landlord-tenant or joint tenant relationship, in which each of the parties receives a share of the product in kind, each shall be entitled to vote and to vote his respective share of the product; (iii) a cooperative association of producers, bona fide engaged in marketing almonds or in rendering services for or advancing the interests of the producers of almonds, may, if it elects to do so, vote for the producers who are members of, or stockholders in, or under contract with, such association.

(4) Any individual casting a ballot in this referendum on behalf of a producer shall, when required by the agents, submit, with the ballot, evidence of his authority to cast such ballot, except that such evidence shall be submitted with each ballot cast on behalf of a corporation or cooperative association of producers.

(b) The following employees of the Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, are hereby designated as agents of the Secretary of Agriculture to perform, jointly or severally, under the direction and supervision of the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, the functions in connection with the referendum: Harry J. Krade, Representative, Western Marketing Field Office, 921 Tenth Street, Sacramento, California, and J. W. Park, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 2523, South Agricultural Building, Washington, D. C.

(c) Such agents shall:

(1) Conduct the referendum in the manner herein prescribed, by giving an opportunity to producers who, during the representative period determined by the Secretary, have been engaged, within the specified production area, in the production for market of almonds, to cast their ballots relative to the issuance of such order.

(2) Determine the time of commencement and termination of the period of the referendum, and the time prior to which all ballots must be cast.

(3) Determine whether ballots may be cast by mail, at polling places, at meetings of producers, or by any combination of the foregoing.

(4) Give reasonable advance notice of this referendum (i) by utilizing without advertising expense available media of public information (including, but not being limited to, press and radio facilities) serving the production area, announcing the dates, places, methods of voting, eligibility requirements, and other pertinent information, and (ii) by such other means as said agents may deem advisable.

(5) Make available to producers, or to cooperative associations of producers, copies of the text of the proposed order or amendment, instructions on voting, and appropriate ballot and other necessary forms.

(6) In the event such agents determine the ballots may be cast by mail, cause a copy of the appropriate ballot form, instructions for executing and casting the ballot, and a copy of the text of the proposed order to be mailed to each of the aforesaid producers and cooperative associations of producers whose names and addresses are known.

(7) In the event such agents determine that ballots may be cast at polling places, determine the necessary number of polling places and designate and announce such polling places; and the hours during which each such polling place will be open: Provided, That all such polling places shall remain open at least four consecutive daylight hours during each day announced.

(8) In the event such agents determine that ballots may be cast at meetings of producers, determine the necessary number of meeting places; and designate and announce such meeting places, and the time of each such meeting.

(d) Said agents may appoint any person or persons deemed necessary or desirable to assist said agents in performing their functions hereunder. Each person so appointed shall serve without compensation and may be authorized by said agents to perform, in accordance with the requirements herein set forth, any or all of the following functions

[1] See F. R. Document 50-5828, supra.

(which, in the absence of such appointment of subagents, shall be performed by said agents):

(1) Give public notice of the referendum in the manner specified herein;

(2) Preside at a meeting of producers or as poll officer at a polling place;

(3) Distribute ballots and the aforesaid texts to producers and receive any ballots which are cast; and

(4) Obtain the name and address of each person receiving or casting a ballot and inquire into the eligibility of such person to vote in the referendum.

(e) Said agents and their appointees shall accept all ballots cast; but, should they, or any of them, deem that a ballot should be challenged for any reason, or if a ballot is challenged by any other person, said agent or appointee shall endorse above his signature, on the back of said ballot, a statement to the effect that such ballot was challenged, by whom challenged, the reasons therefor, and the results of any investigations made with respect thereto.

(f) At the conclusion of the referendum, the agents shall prepare for, and submit to, the Fruit and Vegetable Branch the following:

(1) All ballots received by the agents and appointees, together with a certificate to the effect that the ballots forwarded are all of the ballots cast and received by such persons during the referendum period;

(2) A list of all challenged ballots; and

(3) A detailed statement explaining the method used in giving publicity to the referendum and showing other information pertinent to the manner in which the referendum was conducted.

(g) The Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, may designate any of the said agents to serve as an agent-in-charge to receive the material specified in paragraph (f) hereof. Each such agent-in-charge shall canvass the ballots and list them. The original tabulation shall then be forwarded, together with the ballots and other required documents, to the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch.

(h) The Fruit and Vegetable Branch thereafter shall prepare and submit to the Secretary a report covering the results of the referendum, the manner in which the referendum was conducted, the extent and kind of public notice given, and all other information pertinent to the full analysis of the referendum and its results.

(i) All ballots shall be treated as confindential and the contents of individual ballots shall not be divulged except as provided herein or as the Secretary may direct.

(j) The Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, is hereby authorized to prescribe additional instructions, not inconsistent with the provisions hereof, to govern the procedure to be followed by said referendum agents and appointees in conducting said referendum.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1950.

[Docket No. AO-223]

HANDLING OF IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN CENTRAL NEBRASKA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Part 900), a public hearing was held at Kearney, Nebraska on May 1–2, 1950, pursuant to notice thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 2109, 2228), upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the counties of Phelps, Loup, Garfield, Custer, Valley, Greeley, Sherman, Howard, Hall, Buffalo, Dawson, and Kearney in Nebraska.

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the aforesaid hearing and the record thereof, the Assistant Administrator, production and Marketing Administration, on June 8, 1950, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision in this proceeding. The notice of the filing of such recommended decision, affording opportunity to file written exceptions thereto, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 3687). No exceptions to the recommended decision have been filed.

The material issues and the findings and conclusions of the recommended decision set forth in the FEDERAL REGISTER (F. R. Doc. 50-5060; 15 F. R. 3687) are hereby approved and adopted as the material issues and the findings and conclusions of this decision as if set forth in full hercin.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled, respectively, "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Irish Potatoes Grown in Central Nebraska" and "Order Regulating the Handling of Irish Potatoes Grown in Central Nebraska" which have been decided upon as the appropriate and detailed means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. The aforesaid marketing agreement and the aforesaid order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the aforesaid rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of the said agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order, which will be published with this decision.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1950.

AUTHORITY: §§ 922.0 to 922.92, inclusive, issued under 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051.

§ 922.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress (May 12, 1933), as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051), and the rules of practice and procedure governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Part 900), a public hearing was held at Kearney, Nebraska, on May 1–2, 1950, upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the counties of Phelps, Loup, Garfield, Custer, Valley, Greeley, Sherman, Howard, Hall, Buffalo, Dawson, and Kearney in Nebraska. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) All handling of potatoes grown in the production area is either in interstate or foreign commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce;

(2) The order, as hereinafter set forth, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to Irish potatoes produced in the production area, specified in this order, by establishing and maintaining such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will tend to establish, as prices to the producers thereof, parity prices and by protecting the interest of the consumer (i) by approaching the level of prices which it is declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish by a gradual correction of the current level of prices at as rapid a rate as the Secretary deems to be in the public interest and feasible in view of the current consumptive demand in domestic and foreign markets, and (ii) by authorizing no action which has for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers of such Irish potatoes above the parity level, and (iii) by authorizing the establishment and maintenance of such minimum standards of quality and maturity, and such grading and inspection requirements as may be incidental thereto, as will tend to effectuate such orderly marketing of such Irish potatoes as will be in the public interest;

(3) Such order regulates the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area in the same manner as, and is applicable only to the persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a proposed marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(4) This order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area that is practicable, consistent with carrying out the declared policy of the act, and the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of the production area specified in this order would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act; and

(5) The said order prescribes, so far as practicable, such different terms, applicable to different parts of such production area, as are necessary to give due recognition to the difference in the production and marketing of such Irish potatoes.

Order relative to handling. It is, therefore, ordered that on and after the effective time hereof the handling of potatoes as defined in this order, shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of this order; and the terms and conditions of said order are as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 922.1 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any officer, or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture, who is, or may hereafter be authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 922.2 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051).

§ 922.3 Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any organized group or business unit.

§ 922.4 Production area. "Production area" means all territory included within the Counties of Phelps, Loup, Garfield, Custer, Valley, Greeley, Sherman, Howard, Hall, Buffalo, Dawson, and Kearney in Nebraska.

§ 922.5 Potatoes. "Potatoes" means all varieties of Irish potatoes grown within the production area.

§ 922.6 Handler. "Handler" is synonymous with shipper and means any person (except a common or contract carrier of potatoes owned by another person) who ships potatoes.

§ 922.7 Ship. "Ship" or "handle" means to transport, sell, or in any other way to place potatoes in the current of commerce within the production area, or between the production area and any point outside thereof: Provided, That the definition of "ship" or "handle" shall not include or be applicable to the sale or transportation of ungraded potatoes within the production area to a recognized dealer or packer within the production area for the purpose of having such potatoes prepared for market.

§ 922.8 Producer. "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of potatoes for market.

§ 922.9 Fiscal year. "Fiscal year" means the period beginning on March 1 of each year and ending on the last day of February following.

§ 922.10 Committee. "Committee" means the Central Nebraska Potato Committee, established pursuant to § 922.22.

§ 922.11 Varieties. "Varieties" means and includes all classifications or subdivisions of Irish potatoes according to those definitive characteristics now or hereafter recognized by the United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 922.12 Seed potatoes. "Seed potatoes" means and includes all potatoes officially certified and tagged, marked or otherwise appropriately identified, under the supervision of the official seed potato certifying agency of the State of Nebraska or such other seed certification agencies as the Secretary may designate.

§ 922.13 Table stock potatoes. "Table stock potatoes" means and includes all potatoes not included within the definition of "seed potatoes."

§ 922.14 Pack. "Pack" means a unit of potatoes contained in a bag, crate, or other type of container and falling within specific weight limits recommended by the committee and approved by the Secretary.

§ 922.15 Grade. "Grade" means any one of the officially established grades of potatoes, and "size" means any one of the officially established sizes of potatoes, as defined and set forth in:

(a) The United States Standards for Potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon;

(b) The United States Consumer Standards for Potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (12 F. R. 7281), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon.

§ 922.16 Export. "Export" means shipment of potatoes beyond the boundaries of continental United States.

§ 922.17 District. "District" means each one of the geographical divisions of the production area established pursuant to § 922.24.

§ 922.18 Part and subpart. "Part" means the order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area, and all rules, regulations, and supplementary orders issued thereunder, and the aforesaid order shall be a "subpart" of such "part."

COMMITTEE

§ 922.22 Establishment and membership. (a) The Central Nebraska Potato Committee, consisting of 8 members of whom 6 shall be producers and 2 shall be handlers, is hereby established. For each member of the committee there shall be an alternate who shall have the same qualifications as the member.

(b) Persons selected as committee members or alternates to represent producers shall be individuals who are producers, or officers or employees of a corporate producer, in the respective district for which selected and residents therein. Persons selected as committee members or alternates to represent handlers shall be individuals who are handlers, or officers or employees of a corporate handler in the production area.

§ 922.23 Term of office. (a) The term of office of committee members and alternates shall be two fiscal years: Provided, That the terms of office of one-half of the initial members and their respective alternates shall be one fiscal year.

(b) Committee members and alternates shall serve during the term of office for which they are selected and have qualified, or during that portion thereof beginning on the date on which they qualify during the term of office and continuing until the end thereof, and until their successors are selected and have qualified.

§ 922.24 Districts. (a) For the purpose of selecting producer committee members and alternates, the following districts of the production area are hereby established:

District No. 1. Dawson County.
District No. 2. Buffalo County.
District No. 3. Hall County.
District No. 4. All the remaining counties within the production area.

(b) The Secretary, upon the recommendation of the committee, may reestablish districts within the production area and may reapportion committee membership among the various districts: Provided, That in recommending any such changes in districts or representation the committee shall give consideration to: (1) The relative importance of new areas of production; (2) changes in the relative position, with respect to production, of existing districts; (3) the geographic locations of areas of production, insofar as they affect the efficiency of administering the marketing agreement and order; and (4) other relevant factors: Provided further, That there shall be no change in the total number of committee members and alternates, or in the total number of districts.

§ 922.25 Nomination. The Secretary may select the members of the committee and their respective alternates from nominations which may be made in the following manner:

(a) Nominations for initial committee members and alternates may be submitted by producers, handlers, or groups thereof, and such nominations may be by virtue of elections conducted by groups of producers and by groups of handlers.

(b) In order to provide nominations for succeeding committee members and alternates:

(1) The committee shall hold or cause to be held prior to January 1 of each year, after the effective date of this subpart, a meeting or meetings of producers in each of the districts designated in § 922.24, in which producer committee vacancies will occur at the end of the then current fiscal year. In like manner, the committee shall hold or cause to be held prior to January 1 of each year, after the effective date of this subpart, a meeting or meetings of handlers to nominate handler committee members and alternates to fill vacancies which will occur at the end of the then current fiscal year.

(2) At each such meeting at least two nominees shall be designated for each position as member and for each position as alternate member on the committee which is vacant or which is to become vacant at the end of the then current fiscal year.

(3) Nominations for committee members and alternate members shall be supplied to the Secretary in such manner and form as he may prescribe, not later than 30 days prior to the end of each fiscal year.

(4) Only producers may participate in designating nominees for producer committee members and alternates and only handlers may participate in designating nominees for handler committee members and alternates. For the purpose of designating nominees for handler committee members and alternates, a handler shall be considered to be a person who produces not more than 50 percent of the total volume of potatoes handled by himself; each person who is both a handler and a producer may vote either as a handler or as a producer and may elect, subject to such 50 percent limitation, the group in which he votes.

(5) Each producer and each handler of potatoes is entitled to cast only one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and representatives, for producer or handler committee members and alternates, respectively: Provided, That producers in more than one district shall elect the district in which they will participate in nominating producer committee members and alternates: Provided further, That an eligible voter's privilege of casting only one vote, as aforesaid, shall be construed to permit a voter to cast one vote for each position to be filled at a nomination meeting.

§ 922.26 Selection. The Secretary shall select two producer members of the committee with their respective alternates from each of Districts No. 1 and 2; and one producer member with his respective alternate from each of Districts No. 3 and 4, as such districts are defined in § 922.24. The Secretary shall select two handler members with their respective alternates from the production area. Each person selected as a handler member or alternate shall not produce more than 50 percent of the potatoes handled by himself.

§ 922.27 Failure to nominate. If nominations are not made within the time and in the manner specified by the Secretary pursuant to § 922.25, the Secretary may select the committee members and alternates without regard to nominations, which selection shall be on the basis of the representation provided for in § 922.26.

§ 922.28 Acceptance. Any person selected as a committee member or alternate shall qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary within ten days after being notified of such selection.

§ 922.29 Vacancies. To fill any vacancy occasioned by the failure of any person selected as a committee member or alternate to qualify, or in the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any qualified member or alternate, a successor for his unexpired term may be selected from nominations made in the manner specified in § 922.25, or the Secretary may select such committee member or alternate from previously unselected nominees on the current nominee list. If the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within 30 days after such vacancy occurs, such vacancy may be filled without regard to nominations, which selection shall be made on the basis of the representation provided for in § 922.26.

§ 922.30 Alternate members. An alternate member of the committee shall act in the place and stead of the member for whom he is an alternate, during such member's absence. In the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member, his alternate shall act for him until a successor for such member is selected and has qualified.

§ 922.31 Procedure. (a) Five members of the committee shall be necessary to constitute a quorum, and five concurring votes shall be required to pass any motion or approve any committee action.

(b) The committee may provide for meetings by telephone, telegraph, or other means of communication, and any vote cast at such a meeting shall be confirmed promptly in writing: Provided, That all votes shall be cast in person at assembled meetings.

§ 922.32 Expenses and compensation. Committee members and alternates shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties and in the exercise of their powers under this part.

§ 922.33 Powers. The committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions of this part in accordance with its terms;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this part;

(c) To receive, investigate and report to the Secretary complaints of violation of the provisions of this part; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this part.

§ 922.34 Duties. It shall be the duty of the committee:

(a) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any producer or handler;

(b) To select a chairman and such other officers for each fiscal period as may be necessary, to select subcommittees of committee members and to adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as it may deem advisable;

(c) To appoint such employees, agents, and representatives as it may deem necessary and to determine the salaries and define the duties of each such person;

(d) To investigate, from time to time, and to assemble data on the growing, harvesting, shipping, and marketing conditions with respect to potatoes, and to engage in such research and service activities, which relate to the handling or marketing of potatoes, as may be approved by the Secretary;

(e) To furnish to the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(f) To keep minutes, books, and records which clearly reflect all of the acts and transactions of the committee and such minutes, books, and records shall be subject to examination at any time by the Secretary or his authorized agent or representative;

(g) To recommend the rate of assessment to cover the expenses set forth in the budget;

(h) At the beginning of each fiscal year, to submit to the Secretary a budget of its expenses for such fiscal year, together with a report thereon;

(i) To cause the books of the committee to be audited by a competent accountant at least once each fiscal year, and at such other time as the committee may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request. The report of such audit shall show the receipt and expenditure of funds collected pursuant to this part; a copy of each such report shall be furnished to the Secretary and a copy of each such report shall be made available at the principal office of the committee for inspection by producers and handlers; and

(j) To consult, cooperate and exchange information with other potato marketing committees and other individuals or agencies in connection with all proper committee activities and objectives under this part.

EXPENSES, ASSESSMENTS, AND BUDGETS

§ 922.40 Budget. The committee shall prepare a budget for each fiscal year, showing its anticipated expenses and a proposed rate of assessment to cover such expenses. The committee shall transmit such budget to the Secretary, together with a report accompanying the budget showing the basis for its calculation of expenses and the proposed rate of assessment.

§ 922.41 Expenses. The committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary, upon the basis of the aforesaid budget, or other available information, finds may be necessary during each fiscal year to perform its functions under this part and for such other purposes as may be appropriate pursuant to the provisions of this part.

§ 922.42 Rate of assessment. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying on handlers of assessments which shall be at a rate fixed by the Secretary, upon the basis of the committee's recommendation, or other available information. Each handler who first ships potatoes shall pay assessments to the committee, upon demand, which assessments shall be such handler's pro rata share of the expenses which will be appropriately incurred by the committee during each fiscal year. Such handler's share of such expense shall be proportionate to the ratio between the total quantity of potatoes handled by him as the first handler thereof, during the applicable fiscal year, and the total quantity of potatoes handled by all handlers as the first handler thereof, during the same fiscal year.

§ 922.43 Increasing rate of assessment. Upon recommendation of the committee, or upon the basis of a later finding relative to the committee's expenses or revenue, the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment to cover expenses which shall be appropriately incurred. Such increase shall be applicable to all potatoes handled during the given fiscal year.

§ 922.44 Accounting. If at the end of a fiscal year, it shall appear that assessments collected are in excess of expenses incurred, each handler entitled to a proportionate refund of the excess assessments shall be credited with such refund against the operations of the following fiscal year, unless he demands payment thereof, in which event such proportionate refund shall be paid to him.

§ 922.45 Funds. All funds received by the committee, pursuant to any provision of this part, shall be used solely for the purposes specified in this part and shall be accounted for in the following manner:

(a) The Secretary may at any time require the committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements; and

(b) Whenever any person ceases to be a committee member or alternate, he shall account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property and funds in his hands, together with all books and records in his possession, to his successor in office or to such person as the Secretary may designate, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor or in such designated person the right to all the property, funds, or claims vested in such member or alternate.

§ 922.46 Collection of funds. (a) The committee may, with the approval of the Secretary, maintain in its own name or in the name of its members, a suit against any handler for the collection of such handler's pro rata share of the expenses of the committee.

(b) In order to provide funds to carry out the functions of the committee, handlers may make advance payment of assessments.

REGULATION

§ 922.50 Marketing policy preparation. At the beginning of each fiscal year the committee shall consider and prepare a proposed policy for the marketing of potatoes during such fiscal year. In developing its marketing policy the committee shall investigate relevant supply and demand conditions for potatoes, giving appropriate consideration to:

(a) Market prices of potatoes, including prices by grade, size, and quality, and in different packs;

(b) Supply of potatoes, by grade, size, and quality, in the production area and in other production areas;

(c) The trend and level of consumer income; and

(d) Other relevant factors.

§ 922.51 Marketing policy report. (a) The committee shall submit to the Secretary a report setting forth the aforesaid marketing policy; a copy of such report shall be made available to producers and handlers.

(b) In the event it becomes advisable to deviate from such marketing policy, because of changed supply or demand conditions, the committee shall formulate a new marketing policy in the manner outlined in § 922.50, which shall be submitted to the Secretary and made available to producers and handlers.

§ 922.52 Recommendation for regulations. The committee shall recommend regulation to the Secretary whenever it finds that such regulation, as provided in § 922.53, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The committee may also recommend modification, suspension, or termination of regulations in order to facilitate shipments of potatoes for the specified purposes set forth in § 922.54.

§ 922.53 Issuance of regulations. The Secretary shall limit the shipment of potatoes whenever he finds from the recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, that such regulation will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Such limitation may:

(a) Regulate, in any or all portions of the production area, the shipment of particular grades, sizes, or quality of any or all varieties of potatoes during any period; or

(b) Regulate the shipment of particular grades, sizes, or quality of potatoes differently for different varieties, for different portions of the production area, for different packs, or any combination of the foregoing, during any period; or

(c) Regulate the shipment of potatoes by establishing and maintaining, in terms of grades, sizes, or both, minimum standards of quality and maturity.

§ 922.54 Modification, suspension or termination. The Secretary, whenever he finds upon the basis of recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or other available information, that it will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, shall modify, suspend, or terminate regulations issued pursuant to §§ 922.42, 922.43, 922.53, 922.65, or any combination thereof, in order to facilitate shipments of potatoes for the following purposes:

(a) For seed;

(b) For export;

(c) For distribution by the Federal Government;

(d) For manufacture or conversion into specified products;

(e) For distribution by relief agencies, or for consumption by charitable institutions;

(f) For livestock feed;

(g) For other purposes which may be specified.

§ 922.55 Minimum quantity regulation. The Secretary may establish, upon the basis of a committee recommendation, or other available information, for any or all portions of the production area, minimum quantities below which shipments will be free from regulations issued or in effect pursuant to §§ 922.42, 922.43, 922.53, 922.65, or any combination thereof.

§ 922.56 Notification of regulation. The Secretary shall notify the committee of any regulations issued, or of any modifications, suspension, or termination thereof. The committee shall give reasonable notice thereof to handlers.

§ 922.57 Safeguards. (a) The committee may recommend and the Secretary, upon the basis of such recommendation, or other available information, may prescribe adequate safeguards to prevent shipments effected pursuant to §§ 922.54 and 922.55, from entering channels of trade for other than the specific purpose authorized therefor, and rules governing the issuance and the contents of Certificates of Privilege if such certificates are prescribed as safeguards. Such safeguards may include requirements that:

(1) Handlers shall file applications with the committee to ship potatoes pursuant to §§ 922.54 and 922.55;

(2) Handlers shall obtain inspection required by § 922.65, or pay the pro rata share of expenses provided by § 922.42, or both, in connection with potato shipments effected under the provisions of §§ 922.54 and 922.55: Provided, That such inspection, or payment of expenses, or both may be required at different times than otherwise specified by the aforesaid sections; and

(3) Handlers shall obtain Certificates of Privilege from the committee for shipments of potatoes effected or to be effected under provisions of §§ 922.54 and 922.55.

(b) The committee may rescind or deny Certificates of Privilege to any handler if proof is obtained that potatoes shipped by him for the purposes stated in §§ 922.54 and 922.55 were handled contrary to the requirements applicable thereto.

(c) The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any safeguards prescribed and any certificates issued by the committee pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(d) The committee shall make reports to the Secretary, as requested, showing the number of applications for such certificates, the quantity of potatoes covered by such applications, the number of such applications denied and certificates granted, the quantity of potatoes shipped under duly issued certificates, and such other information as may be requested.

INSPECTION

§ 922.65 Inspection and certification. During any period in which shipments of potatoes are regulated pursuant to the provisions of §§ 922.42, 922.43, or 922.53, or any combination thereof, no handler shall ship potatoes unless, prior thereto, such shipment was inspected by an authorized representative of the Federal Inspection Service, or such other inspection service as the Secretary shall designate. Each handler procuring inspections pursuant to this section, shall make arrangements with the inspecting agency to forward promptly to the committee a copy of the inspection certificate: Provided, That the regrading, resorting, repacking, or other further preparation of inspected potatoes for market shall invalidate prior inspection thereon and subsequent shipment of such potatoes after regrading, resorting, repacking, or other preparation for market shall not be effected unless, prior thereto, such shipment is inspected as provided in this section.

EXEMPTIONS

§ 922.70 Procedure. The committee may adopt, subject to approval of the Secretary, the procedures pursuant to which certificates of exemption will be issued to producers.

§ 922.71 Granting exemptions. (a) The committee may issue certificates of exemption to any producer who applies for such exemption and furnishes adequate evidence to the committee that, by reason of a regulation issued pursuant to § 922.53, he will be prevented from handling, or causing to be handled, as large a proportion of his production as the average proportion of production handled, or caused to be handled, during the entire season by all producers in said applicant's immediate area of production, and that the grade, size, or quality of the applicant's potatoes have been adversely affected by acts beyond the applicant's control and by acts beyond reasonable expectation. Each such certificate shall permit the producer to handle, or cause to be handled, the amount of potatoes specified thereon. Such certificate shall be transferred with such potatoes at time of transportation or sale.

(b) The committee shall be permitted, at any time, to make a thorough investigation of any producer's claim pertaining to exemptions.

§ 922.72 Appeal. If an applicant for exemption certificates is dissatisfied with the determination by the committee with respect to his application, said applicant may file an appeal with the committee. Such an appeal must be taken promptly after the determination by the committee from which the appeal is taken. Any applicant filing an appeal shall furnish evidence satisfactory to the committee for a determination on the appeal. The committee shall thereupon reconsider the application, examine all available evidence, and make a final determination concerning the application. The committee shall notify the appellant of the final determination and shall furnish the Secretary with a copy of the appeal and a statement of considerations involved in making the final determination.

§ 922.73 Records and reports and review of exemptions. (a) The committee shall maintain a record of all applications submitted for exemption certificates, a record of all exemption certificates issued and denied, the quantity of potatoes covered by such exemption certificates, a record of the amount of potatoes shipped under exemption certificates, a record of appeals for reconsideration of applications, and such additional information as may be requested by the Secretary. Periodic reports on such records shall be compiled and issued by the committee upon request of the Secretary.

(b) The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any procedure and any exemptions granted pursuant to §§ 922.70, 922.71, 922.72, or any combination thereof.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 922.80 Reports. Upon the request of the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, every handler shall furnish to the committee, in such manner and at such time as may be prescribed, such information as will enable the committee to exercise its powers and perform its duties under this part. The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, or rescind any requests for reports made pursuant to this section.

§ 922.81 Compliance. Except as provided in this part, no handler shall ship potatoes, the shipment of which has been prohibited by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of this part, and no handler shall ship potatoes except in conformity to the provisions of this part.

§ 922.82 Right of the Secretary. The members of the committee (including successors and alternates), and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the committee, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every order, regulation, decision, determination or other act of the committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time. Upon such disapproval, the disapproved action of the said committee shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

§ 922.83 Effective time. The provisions of this subpart shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until terminated in one of the ways specified in this subpart.

§ 922.84 Termination. (a) The Secretary may, at any time, terminate the provisions of this subpart by giving at least one day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which he may determine.

(b) The Secretary may terminate or suspend the operation of any or all of the provisions of this subpart whenever he finds that such provisions do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(c) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this subpart at the end of any fiscal year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of producers who, during the preceding fiscal year, have been engaged in the production for market of potatoes: Provided, That such majority has, during such year, produced for market more than fifty percent of the volume of such potatoes produced for market; but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before February 1 of the then current fiscal year.

(d) The provisions of this subpart shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

§ 922.85 Proceedings after termination. (a) Upon the termination of the provisions of this subpart, the then functioning members of the committee shall continue as trustees, for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the committee, of all the funds and property then in the possession of, or under control of, the committee, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination. Action by said trusteeship shall require the concurrence of a majority of the said trustees.

(b) The said trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the committee and of the trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct; and shall, upon request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title and right to all of the funds, property, and claims vested in the committee or the trustees pursuant to this subpart.

(c) Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been transferred or delivered by the committee or its members, pursuant to this section, shall be subject to the same obligations imposed upon the members of the committee and upon the said trustees.

§ 922.86 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this subpart, or of any regulation issued pursuant to this subpart, or the issuance of any amendments to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision of this subpart, or any regulation issued under this subpart, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of this subpart, or of any regulation issued under this subpart, or (c) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person with respect to any such violation.

§ 922.87 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue of this subpart shall cease upon the termination of this subpart, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this subpart.

§ 922.88 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any person, including any officer or employee of the government, or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 922.89 Derogation. Nothing contained in this subpart is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modifications of the rights of the Secretary, or of the United States, to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or, in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 922.90 Personal liability. No member or alternate member of the committee, nor any employee or agent thereof, shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or to any person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate, agent, or employee, except for acts of dishonesty.

§ 922.91 Separability. If any provision of this subpart is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this subpart, or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing, shall not be affected thereby.

§ 922.92 Amendments. Amendments to this subpart may be proposed, from time to time, by the committee or by the Secretary.

[Docket No. AO 223]

HANDLING OF IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN CENTRAL NEBRASKA

ORDER DIRECTING THAT A REFERENDUM BE CONDUCTED AMONG PRODUCERS; DESIGNATION OF AGENTS TO CONDUCT SUCH REFERENDUM; AND DETERMINATION OF REPRESENTATIVE PERIOD

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051), it is hereby directed that a referendum be conducted among producers who, during the period March 1, 1949, through February 28, 1950 (which period is hereby determined to be a representative period for the purpose of such referendum), were engaged within the counties of Phelps, Loup, Garfield, Custer, Valley, Greeley, Sherman, Howard, Hall, Buffalo, Dawson, and Kearney in Nebraska in the production of Irish potatoes for market, to ascertain whether such producers favor or approve the issuance of a marketing order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in Central Nebraska. The order on which the referendum is to be conducted is annexed to the decision [1] of the Secretary filed simultaneously herewith.

A. C. Cook, R. P. Callaway, H. C. Hess, and W. D. Mathias of the Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, are hereby designated as agents to conduct such referendum. Such agents shall, jointly or severally, perform their functions subject to, and at the direction of, the Director of the Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration.

[1] See F. R. Doc. 50-5829, supra.

(1) Such agents shall: (a) Conduct said referendum in the manner herein prescribed by giving opportunity to each of the aforesaid producers to cast his ballot in the manner herein authorized relative to the aforesaid order on forms furnished by the Department of Agriculture. A cooperative association of producers, bona fide engaged in marketing potatoes grown in the aforesaid designated counties in the State of Nebraska, or in rendering services for or advancing the interests of the producers of such potatoes may vote for the producers who are members of, stockholders in, or under contract with such cooperative association (such vote to be cast on a copy of the appropriate ballot form), and the vote of such cooperative association shall be considered as the vote of such producers. Any individual casting a ballot in such referendum on behalf of another person or a corporation or cooperative association of producers shall submit with the ballot evidence of his authority to cast such ballot.

(b) Determine the time of commencement and termination of the period of the referendum, and the time prior to which all ballots must be cast.

(c) Determine whether ballots may be cast by mail, at polling places, at meetings of producers, or by any combination of the foregoing.

(d) Give reasonable advance notice of the referendum (i) by utilizing without advertising expense available media of public information (including, but not being limited to, press and radio facilities) serving the production area, announcing the dates, places, methods of voting, eligibility requirements, and other pertinent information and (ii) by such other means as said agents may deem advisable.

(e) Make available to producers copies of the text of the order, instructions on voting, and appropriate ballot and other necessary forms.

(f) In the event such agents determine that ballots may be cast by mail, cause a copy of the appropriate ballot form, instructions for executing and casting the ballot, and a copy of the text of the order to be mailed to the aforesaid producers and cooperative associations of producers whose names and addresses are known.

(g) In the event such agents determine that ballots may be cast at polling places, determine the necessary number of polling places and designate and announce such polling places; and the hours during which each such polling place will be open: Provided, That all such polling places shall remain open at least four (4) consecutive daylight hours during each day announced.

(h) In the event such agents determine that ballots may be cast at meetings of producers, determine the necessary number of meeting places; and designate and announce such meeting places, and the time of each such meeting.

(2) Said agents may appoint any county agricultural agent and any member or members of a county Production and Marketing Administration Committee in the aforesaid designated counties in the State of Nebraska, and any other person or persons deemed necessary or desirable to assist said agents in performing their functions hereunder. Each person so appointed shall serve without compensation and may be authorized by said agents to perform, in accordance with the requirements herein set forth, any or all of the following functions (which, in the absence of such appointment of subagents, shall be performed by said agents):

(a) Give public notice of the referendum in the manner specified herein;

(b) Preside at a meeting of producers or act as poll officer at a polling place;

(c) Distribute ballots and the aforesaid texts to producers and receive any ballots which are cast; and

(d) Obtain the name and address of each person receiving or casting a ballot and inquire into the eligibility of such person to vote in the referendum.

(3) Said agents and their appointees shall accept all ballots cast; but, should they, or any of them, deem that a ballot should be challenged for any reason, or if a ballot is challenged by any other person, said agent or appointee shall endorse above his signature, on the back of said ballot, a statement to the effect that such ballot was challenged, by whom challenged, the reasons therefor, and the results of any investigations made with respect thereto.

(4) At the conclusion of the referendum, the agents shall prepare for, and submit to, the Fruit and Vegetable Branch the following:

(a) All ballots received by the agents and appointees, together with a certificate to the effect that the ballots forwarded are all of the ballots cast and received by such persons during the referendum period;

(b) A list of all challenged ballots; and

(c) A detailed statement explaining the method used in giving publicity to the referendum and showing other information pertinent to the manner in which the referendum was conducted.

(5) The Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, may designate any of the said agents to serve as an agent-in-charge to receive the material specified in paragraph (4) hereof. Each such agent-in-charge shall canvass the ballots and list them. The original tabulation shall then be forwarded, together with the ballots and other required documents, to the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch.

(6) The Fruit and Vegetable Branch thereafter shall prepare and submit to the Secretary a report covering the results of the referendum, the manner in which the referendum was conducted, the extent and kind of public notice given, and all other information pertinent to the full analysis of the referendum and its results.

(7) All ballots shall be treated as confidential.

(8) The Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, is hereby authorized to prescribe additional instructions, not inconsistent with the provisions hereof, to govern the procedure to be followed by said referendum agents and appointees in conducting said referendum.

Copies of the aforesaid marketing order may be examined in the Office of the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., and at the county Production and Marketing Administration office in each of the aforesaid designated counties in the State of Nebraska.

Ballots to be cast in the referendum may be obtained from any referendum agent, and any appointee hereunder.

(48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 30th day of June 1950.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[Public Notice PN 1]

ORGANIZATION

In order to conform the available information pertaining to the organization of the Board to the requirements of section 3 (a) (1) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238) and to the regulations of the Administrative Committee of the Federal Register approved by the President effective October 12, 1948 (13 F. R. 5929), the organization material presently in the Organizational Regulations has been completely rewritten to reflect the present description of the Board's central and field organization.

Since this Public Notice No. 1 contains a rule of agency organization and practice, notice and public procedure is not required.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends the Organizational Regulations (formerly 14 CFR §§ 301.1, 302.1, and 302.2) as follows effective July 1, 1950:

1. By revoking in its entirety the section titled "Description of Organization", (formerly § 301.1), the section titled "Statement of Functions" (formerly § 302.1), and the section entitled "Functions of Offices and Bureaus" (formerly § 302.2).

GENERAL STATEMENT

SECTION 1.1 Creation and authority. The Civil Aeronautics Board, as distinguished from the Civil Aeronautics Administration, is an independent agency composed of five members, appointed by the President with the confirmation of the Senate. The President annually designates one of the members as chairman and another as vice chairman. The Board, established effective June 30, 1940, pursuant to Reorganization Plans III and IV, exercises the functions of rule making (including the prescription of rules, regulations, and standards), adjudication, and investigation as prescribed in the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended.

SEC. 1.2 Purpose and mission. (a) In expressing the purpose of the Congress to protect the public by providing for economic stability in the air transport industry, and in order that the public might have the continuing enjoyment of adequate and sufficient air transportation services and, at the same time, be assured of the maintenance of high standards of safety, the Civil aeronautics Act of 1938 sets forth the basic principles which guide the Board and prescribes the authority pursuant to which it discharges its responsibilities.

(b) The mission of the Board is to foster and encourage the development of an air transportation system which will be adequate for the present and future needs of the foreign and domestic commerce of the United States, the postal service and the national defense; to preserve the inherent advantages of air transportation, and to regard as in the public interest competition to the extent necessary to assure the sound development of an air transportation system adjusted to the national needs; and to regulate air commerce in such manner as to best promote its development and safety.

SEC. 1.3 Functions. In general, the Board performs four chief functions: (1) Regulation of the economic aspects of United States air carrier operation both domestic and international; (2) promulgation of safety standards in the form of civil air regulations; (3) investigation and analysis of aircraft accidents; (4) cooperation and assistance in the establishment and development of international and domestic air transportation. These functions are briefly described in the following paragraphs.

(a) Economic regulation. The Board grants or denies "certificates of public convenience and necessity" to American flag carriers for both domestic and international operation and "permits" to foreign carriers; prescribes or approves rates and rate practices of air carriers and fixes mail rate compensation; fosters the safe and expeditious transportation of mail and seeks to ensure that reasonable and adequate service to the public is rendered by air carriers, without unjust discriminations, undue preferences or advantages, or unfair or destructive competitive practices; approves or disapproves business relationships between air carriers, including contracts, agreements, interlocking relationships, consolidations, mergers, and acquisitions of control and issues appropriate regulations for the purpose of carrying out these functions. The Board investigates upon complaint or upon its own initiative anything done or omitted to be done by any person or group in contravention of the provisions of the Civil Aeronautics Act; and takes appropriate action to enforce the act.

(b) Safety regulation. The Board prescribes safety rules and regulations, including standards for the issuance of airman certificates, aircraft type, production and airworthiness certificates, and air carrier operating certificates; and has the power to suspend or revoke such certificates.

(c) Accident investigation and analysis. The Board prescribes rules of notification and report of accidents involving civil aircraft; reviews reports of all accidents and determines, after investigation to the extent required, the probable cause of all accidents. Formal reports by the Board are made public when deemed to be in the public interest. The Board conducts special studies and research, establishing basic causative and statistical factors and prepares air safety bulletins for the purpose of reducing aircraft accidents and preventing their recurrence.

(d) Development of civil aviation. The Board consults with and assists the State Department in the negotiation of agreements with foreign governments for the establishment or development of air transportation, air navigation, air routes and services; keeps informed with respect to operations of foreign air lines and foreign aviation policies. The Board provides information for and coordinates with the International Civil Aviation Organization in the development of all international safety and operational standards. The Board contributes to the expense and personnel requirements of the Air Coordinating Committee, the Chairman of the Board serving at present as chairman of the Committee; provides information and advice in the Committee's examination of aviation problems and in its recommendations establishing the United States viewpoint on international and domestic aviation.

SEC. 1.4 Offices. The central office of the Board is located in the Department of Commerce Building, Fourteenth Street between Constitution Avenue and E Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. All meetings of the Board, unless otherwise directed by the Board, are held at the above address. The Board's field offices are located in Alaska and principal cities of the country. The location of these offices is set forth in sections 10.1, 10.2, and 10.3.

OFFICES OF MEMBERS

SEC. 2.1 General pattern of organization. (a) The five Members of the Board, appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate for six-year terms, are charged with carrying out the duties and responsibilities devolving upon the Board under the law. Action initiated pursuant to the Board's own initiative or by any document authorized or required to be filed with the Board originates in or is referred to the appropriate organizational unit for study and recommendation to the Board in accordance with the description of functions outlined hereinafter. In cases other than those in which action is taken pursuant to a final delegation of authority, or in which the responsibility is that of the Chairman (see (b) below), final action is taken by the Board. (See Public Notice No. 2 for statements of final delegations of authority.) The staff of the Board is organized into the following major organizational units, all of which report directly to the Board:

(1) Bureau of Hearing Examiners.
(2) Bureau of Economic Regulation.
(3) Bureau of Law.
(4) Bureau of Safety Regulation.
(5) Bureau of Safety Investigation.
(6) Bureau of Administration.
(7) Office of Enforcement.

(b) The Chairman of the Board is responsible for the executive and administrative functions of the Board, including functions with respect to the appointment and supervision of personnel employed under the Board; the distribution of business among such personnel and among administrative units of the Board; and the use and expenditure of funds.

(c) A Public Information Section, under the direction of a chief, is included in the Office of the Chairman, and is responsible for press and public relations, including preparation and initial distribution of news releases, periodic reports, and general information relating to the Board's activities.

BUREAU OF HEARING EXAMINERS

SEC. 3.1 Chief Examiner. The Chief Examiner, as director of the Bureau of Hearing Examiners, is directly responsible to the Board for the conduct and disposition of all formal proceedings before the Board arising under Title IV, VI, and X, and section 1002 of the act. The Bureau of Hearing Examiners is divided into the following organizational units:

(a) Economic Proceedings Division.
(b) Safety Enforcement Proceedings Division.
(c) Docket Section.

SEC. 3.2 Economic Proceedings Division. The Economic Proceedings Division coordinates all formal proceedings before the Board arising under Title IV of the act; schedules the time and place of such hearings; supervises prehearing conferences; prepares recommendations (except in those economic proceedings for the fixing of passenger, cargo, and mail rates) to the Chief Examiner or the Board respecting the disposition of such matters as require action by the Chief Examiner or the Board; and prepares the final decision pursuant to instructions from the Board.

SEC. 3.3 Safety Enforcement Proceedings Division. The Safety Enforcement Proceedings Division conducts and disposes of all formal proceedings under sections 602 through 609 of the act, regarding the issuance, amendment, suspension, and revocation of the various types of airman certificates, airworthiness certificates, air carrier operating certificates, production certificates, air navigation facility certificates and air agency certificates; prepares recommendations to the Chief Examiner or the Board respecting the dispositions of such matters as require action by the Chief Examiner or the Board; prepares final decisions pursuant to instructions from the Board; and supervises the activities of regional examiners.

SEC. 3.4 Docket Section. The Docket Section receives, dockets, and maintains all documents in formal proceedings before the Board; makes official service of notices, orders, rules, reports, and decisions upon all interested persons; and issues periodic statements and reports respecting the status of all formal proceedings.

BUREAU OF ECONOMIC REGULATION

SEC. 4.1 Director. The Director of the Bureau of Economic Regulation is directly responsible to the Board for interpretation of economic data and advice regarding policy and procedure to be followed in the economic regulation of domestic, overseas, and international air transportation; and supervision of the Alaska Office. In the Bureau of Economic Regulation there are the following organizational units:

(a) Accounting and Rates Division.
(b) Analyses Division.
(c) Foreign Air Transport Division.
(d) Operations Division.
(e) Tariffs and Service Division.
(f) Alaska Office.

SEC. 4.2 Accounting and Rates Division. The Accounting and Rates Division is responsible for the initiation and administration of the Board's program of financial, accounting, and rate regulation. This includes the receipt and analysis of periodic reports of financial and operating statistics and the preparation of recurrent statistical reports based upon such data; the administration of, and recommendation of changes in, the uniform system of accounts and the uniform system of periodic reports of financial and operating statistics; the issuance of letters of interpretation of such systems; the performance of audits of accounts of certificated air carriers, the constant review of the financial operations of all certificated air carriers; the recommending to the Board of initiation of mail-rate fixing proceedings; the preparation of financial and statistical analyses for introduction as evidence in rate-fixing proceedings and providing expert witnesses to appear in such proceedings; and the drafting of statements of tentative findings and conclusions and opinions in rate cases pursuant to instructions by the Board.

SEC. 4.3 Analyses Division. The Analyses Division prepares analyses of economic problems in air transportation currently requiring Board action and makes recommendations thereon; prepares exhibits for introduction into the record in formal proceedings before the Board and supplies expert witnesses to testify concerning such exhibits, analyzes exhibits prepared by parties in formal proceedings; and prepares, as directed, comprehensive economic and statistical surveys and studies relating to the development and regulation of air transportation.

SEC. 4.4 Foreign Air Transport Division. The Foreign Air Transport Division obtains, correlates, and analyzes comprehensive information on flight equipment, operating and traffic statistics, and financial and economic data in connection with all foreign airlines. Such information is used as a basis for studies required by the Board in connection with the granting of foreign air carrier permits. The Division also assists the Board in supplying information for use in consultations with the Secretary of State concerning the negotiation of agreements with foreign governments for the establishment or development of air navigation, including air routes and services.

SEC. 4.5 Operations Division. The Operations Division is concerned with the economic regulation of air transportation with respect to certain practices of air carriers. It receives, investigates, analyzes, reports, and makes recommendations to the Board with respect to: contracts affecting air transportation; requests for approval of interlocking relationships; reports of ownership of stock and other interests; reports of affiliates of air carriers; agreements between air carriers and foreign governments; agreements to be filed with the International Civil Aviation Organization as required by the Convention on International Civil Aviation; and reports required from noncertificated air carriers. It also conducts informal compliance investigations with respect to related matters set forth above.

SEC. 4.6 Tariffs and Service Division. The Tariffs and Service Division is responsible for matters relating to tariffs filed with the Board for conformity to the requirements of the Act and requirements established pursuant thereto, and makes recommendations regarding the fare and rate structure in such tariffs; receives and makes recommendations concerning applications by air carriers for special permission to make changes in tariffs upon less than statutory notice; and maintains a file of currently effective and proposed tariffs for public inspection. It analyzes the schedules and other service records of air carriers to determine the conformity of the air carriers' service pattern with the certificates or other service authorizations of the Board, and makes recommendations concerning such matters; receives and makes recommendations concerning notices and applications of air carriers respecting airport notices, nonstop notices, suspension of service, and exemption orders respecting service; prepares recommendations regarding applicants' showing with respect to the adequacy of airports and applications for certificates for feeder routes selected by the Board; maintains a file of currently effective and proposed time schedules for public inspection; and maintains the official airport-to-airport mileage record.

SEC. 4.7 Alaska Office. The Director of the Alaska Office, under the general supervision of the Director of the Bureau of Economic Regulation, is responsible for the receipt and investigation of all matters pertaining to the regulation of air transportation in Alaska; the conduct of proceedings incident thereto; the preparation of recommendations and reports to the Board respecting the regulation of Alaskan Air Carriers and enforcement thereof; the audit and inspection of records, memoranda, accounts and property of Alaskan Air Carriers; and otherwise serving as the Board's representative in Alaska.

BUREAU OF LAW

SEC. 5.1 General Counsel. The General Counsel, as director of the Bureau of Law, is directly responsible to the Board for all Board activities relating to legal phases of the economic and safety regulation of air carriers (including legislation, rulemaking, and international matters); and litigation before the Courts. The following organizational units are included in the Bureau of Law:

(a) Carrier Relationships Division.
(b) Certificates and Permits Division.
(c) International and Rules Division.
(d) Rates Division.

SEC. 5.2 Carrier Relationships Division. The Carrier Relationships Division is responsible for all legal aspects of the Board's regulation of consolidation, mergers, acquisitions of control and interlocking relationships; the approval or disapproval of section 412 contracts affecting air transportation; the conduct of all legal work in connection with problems and controversies arising in connection with labor legislation; and the furnishing of public counsel to serve at all formal proceedings relating to carrier relationships matters (see section 5.6).

SEC. 5.3 Certificates and Permits Division. The Certificates and Permits Division is responsible for all legal matters relating to the issuance to and amendment of temporary and permanent certificates of public convenience and necessity or other operating authority to domestic air carriers for domestic, overseas, and foreign routes; the issuance and amendment of foreign air carrier permits; the abandonment of service or the provisions for additional service certified as necessary by the Postmaster General; the institution of non-stop services and use of different airports, and the issuance and amendment of other service orders; the issuance or denial of exemption orders pertaining to air carrier operations, including irregular and other noncertificated air carriers; and the furnishing of public counsel to serve at hearings which are required in certain certificate and permit cases (see section 5.6).

SEC. 5.4 International and Rules Division. The International and Rules Division is responsible for all legal aspects of the preparation, review, and interpretation of all Economic and Civil Air Regulations; federal-state relations; the preparation and/or review of proposed legislation affecting the Board's activities, including preparation of testimony thereon; the furnishing of assistance to the Board on all matters of international air law particularly those relating to interchange of air transport rights; and construction and interpretation of international treaties, conventions, and agreements.

SEC. 5.5 Rates Division. The Rates Division is responsible for all legal aspects of the Board's regulation of passenger, cargo, and mail rates, discriminatory rate practices, tariffs, accounts and reports, and financial aid and related financial matters. This includes advising the Board on all legal problems relating to the above matters, including the legal problems arising out of the preparation and issuance of show-cause orders and final opinions in mail, passenger and property rate decisions. The Division prepares and presents evidence and cross examines witnesses at formal hearings with the assistance of the Accounting and Rates Division, Bureau of Economic Regulation; and furnishes public counsel in all formal proceedings relating to rate matters (see section 5.6).

SEC. 5.6 Public Counsel. An attorney from the Bureau of Law is designated as public counsel to present the staff's case in most formal proceedings before the Board arising under the act.

BUREAU OF SAFETY REGULATION

SEC. 6.1 Director. The Director of the Bureau of Safety Regulation is directly responsible to the Board for analyzing the need for and developing technical findings and recommendations governing the formulation of safety rules in the form of Civil Air Regulations designed to promote safety in Civil Aeronautics, and for coordinating the International Standards adopted by the International Civil Aviation Organization with the Civil Air Regulations. The Bureau of Safety Regulation is composed of the following organizational units:

(a) Air Carrier Division.
(b) Airworthiness Division.
(c) General Rules Division.
(d) International Standards Division.

SEC. 6.2 Air Carrier Division. The Air Carrier Division analyzes the need for and develops technical findings and recommendations governing the preparation of new regulations and amendments to existing regulations prescribing the minimum safety standards with respect to air carrier operations; conducts technical research into transport-type aircraft, equipment and operations; studies current technological developments and aviation practices as a basis for formulating air carrier safety standards; participates in the development of international standards relating to air carriers prescribed by the International Civil Aviation Organization and the modification of U. S. standards and practices to conform them to the international standards; and furnishes advice and assistance to the Board and other organizational units of the Board on matters involving safety regulation of air carrier operations.

SEC. 6.3 Airworthiness Division. The Airworthiness Division analyzes the need for and develops technical findings and recommendations governing the preparation of new regulations and amendments to existing regulations prescribing the minimum design and performance safety standards for airworthiness certification of aircraft, engines, propellers, and appliances; conducts technical research into airworthiness aspects of aircraft, equipment and appliances; studies current technological developments and aviation practices as a basis for formulating airworthiness safety standards; participates in the development of international standards relating to airworthiness as prescribed by the International Civil Aviation Organization and the modification of U. S. standards and practices to conform them to the international standards; and advises the Board and other organizational units of the Board on problems of an engineering nature.

SEC. 6.4 General Rules Division. The General Rules Division analyzes the need for and develops technical findings and recommendations governing the preparation of new regulations and amendments to existing regulations prescribing minimum safety standards which have general application to all phases of civil aviation; conducts technical research into non-transport type aircraft, equipment, and operations and aviation practices as a basis for formulating safety standards; participates in the development of related international standards as prescribed by the International Civil Aviation Organization and the modification of U. S. standards and practices as may be necessary to conform them to the international standards; and advises the Board and other organizational units of the Board on matters relating to the general safety problems of operation, utilization of equipment, certification of airmen and air agencies, and air traffic rules.

SEC. 6.5 International Standards Division. The International Standards Division works within the framework of the Air Coordinating Committee to prepare the United States position on technical matters in which the Board has a primary interest and participates with other divisions of the Air Coordinating Committee in the preparation of the United States position on matters in which the Board has a secondary or indirect interest; represents the United States at meetings of the Technical Divisions of Air Navigation Committee of the International Civil Aviation Organization at Montreal, Canada, and at regional and other meetings on subjects coming within the field of interest of the Board; and analyzes the results of these meetings and has primary responsibility for coordinating the international standards adopted by the International Civil Aviation Organization with the Civil Air Regulations.

BUREAU OF SAFETY INVESTIGATION

SEC. 7.1 Director. The Director of the Bureau of Safety Investigation is responsible to the Board for activities relating to investigation and analysis of aircraft accidents. The following organizational units are included in the Bureau of Safety Investigation:

(a) Accident Investigation Division.
(b) Hearing and Reports Division.
(c) Accident Analysis Division.

SEC. 7.2 Accident Investigation Division. The Accident Investigation Division is responsible for directing and assisting in the investigation of aircraft accidents to determine their probable cause, and for developing current techniques for such investigations. It determines the need for and the conduct of public or private inquiries; makes recommendations to prevent recurring accidents; develops educational material in various specialized phases of air safety; and conducts research and special studies relating to hazards potentially capable of resulting in serious accidents.

SEC. 7.21 Accident Investigation Field Service. The field service of the Accident Investigation Division is responsible for investigation of civil aircraft accidents and their probable causes for aircraft of United States registry, and foreign aircraft within the United States; reports facts and derives conclusions with respect to probable causes of such accidents; coordinates research with other interested governmental agencies and industry representatives regarding such accidents; and participates in the conferences thereon and as members of the Board of Inquiry at subsequent public inquiries.

SEC. 7.3 Hearing and Reports Division. The Hearing and Reports Division arranges for and conducts public and private accident inquiries in order to ascertain the facts, conditions, circumstances, and probable cause of accidents involving aircraft; prepares all evidence, takes depositions, administers oaths and issues subpoenas for witnesses and documents incident to such inquiries, prepares and presents to the Board for adoption preliminary statements of fact and formal accident reports; and arranges for the reproduction of exhibits and factual documents of accident investigation for parties of interest.

SEC. 7.4 Accident Analysis Division. The Accident Analysis Division classifies and analyzes all reports of accidents involving aircraft in order to establish their basic causal and statistical factors; makes statistical analysis of civil aircraft accidents to isolate elements requiring corrective action and to determine accident trends; compiles statistical and analytical reports for the information of the Board and the public; and edits and issues safety bulletins and accident reports.

BUREAU OF ADMINISTRATION

SEC. 8.1 Secretary. The Secretary of the Board, as director of the Bureau of Administration, is directly responsible to the Board for over-all planning, policy formulation, and staff coordination in the area of administrative management; development of long-range work objectives and relating them to operational plans; allocation and control of funds; and the supervision of the recording and certification of all formal actions of the Board. The following organizational units are included in the Bureau of Administration:

(a) Budget and Management Section.
(b) Personnel Section.
(c) Office Service Section.
(d) Minutes Section.
(e) Publications Section.
(f) Library Unit.

SEC. 8.2 Budget and Management Section. The Budget and Management Section formulates, appraises and prepares the Board's budget estimates in accordance with its policies and work programs; executes the fiscal program within the limitations of Congressional appropriations; reviews proposed plans and programs of the Board to determine their administrative practicability and effect upon fiscal and personnel requirements; makes studies and analyses of organization, policies, and procedures relating to substantive and service functions of the Board, and initiates or reviews proposals for changes in innovations therein; and administers the system of internal Manual issuances, including the preparation, revision, issuance, and control thereof.

SEC. 8.3 Personnel Section. The Personnel Section is responsible for recruitment, placement, classification, retirement, employee welfare and related personnel activities; maintains personnel and payroll records; and applies personnel laws and regulations.

SEC. 8.4 Office Service Section. The Office Service Section handles the administrative service operations of the Board, including its central mail and messenger service; property and space procurement and control; and reviews and clears requisitions and vouchers for such services.

SEC. 8.5 Minutes Section. The Minutes Section processes the formal documents evidencing Board action; prepares and maintains the official minutes of the Board; provides, upon request, certified copies of documents reflecting action of the Board; and conducts liaison with the Division of the Federal Register.

SEC. 8.6 Publications Section. The Publications Section arranges for the reproduction of internal administrative, operational, and documentary issuances and publications of the Board; arranges for the distribution of such publications through the medium of established mailing lists and in response to specified requests; maintains supplies of all publications of the Board; and conducts liaison with the Government Printing Office for printing and binding services.

SEC. 8.7 Library Unit. The Library Unit furnishes special reference library service to members of the Board staff.

OFFICE OF ENFORCEMENT

SEC. 9.1 Office of Enforcement. The Office of Enforcement, under the direction of the Chief, is directly responsible to the Board for the development and execution of a program to enforce the observance of the economic regulatory provisions of the act, and all orders, rules, regulations, and other requirements promulgated or issued by the Board thereunder. It initiates, plans, and conducts investigations of alleged violations of the act and the Board's Economic Regulations; accomplishes economic enforcement by informal action, whenever appropriate, affording offenders an opportunity to voluntarily achieve and demonstrate compliance, and take such action, and effects such arrangements and understandings as may be appropriate and necessary to effect compliance in such cases; negotiates, executes, and accepts, subject to Board approval, formal stipulations and other consent agreements in appropriate cases (a) to cease and desist from violations, or (b) for the entry of appropriate compliance orders by the Board; prepares and presents before the Board and its examiners the government's case in formal economic enforcement proceedings; institutes and prosecutes, in the proper courts as agent of the Board, all civil and criminal actions and proceedings for economic enforcement, and handles all appeals in such cases, when assigned responsibility therefor, represents the Board in connection with its participation in other court actions, proceedings and appeals; cooperates with all other organization units of the Board in connection with informal action seeking to encourage and obtain voluntary compliance in cases of economic enforcement where action by the Office of Enforcement is not reasonably required in the first instance; and conducts necessary and appropriate liaison with other governmental agencies in connection with economic enforcement.

[Public Notice PN 2]

DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

In order to conform the delegations of authority material of the Board to the requirements of section 3 (a) (1) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238) and to the regulations of the Administrative Committee of the Federal Register approved by the President effective October 12, 1948 (13 F. R. 5929), the statements of final delegations of authority presently in the Organizational Regulations have been completely rewritten to reflect the present status of all Board final delegations of authority. Existing delegations in various parts of the regulations have been centralized with minor revisions of language.

Since this Public Notice No. 2 contains a rule of agency organization and practice, public notice and procedure thereon is not required.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends the Organizational Regulations (formerly 14 CFR § 301.2) as follows, effective July 1, 1950:

1. By revoking in its entirety the section titled "Delegations of Authority" (formerly § 301.2).

2. By making and promulgating the following statements of the Board's final delegations of authority as Public Notice No. 2 reading as follows:

OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES

SECTION 1.1 Officers and employees; general authority. All officers and employees of the Board are authorized to request such information from or make such contact with, the public or agencies of Government as may be necessary to the proper discharge of assigned duties.

EXAMINING OR PRESIDING OFFICERS

SEC. 2.1 Procedural matters incident to formal proceedings. All persons designated as examiners or presiding officers in any proceeding or investigation of the Board have authority:

(a) To adjourn or postpone hearings;
(b) To administer oaths and affirmations;
(c) To sign and issue subpenas;
(d) To take or cause depositions to be taken;
(e) To hold conferences for the settlement or simplification of the issues;
(f) To regulate the course of the proceeding and dispose of procedural requests or similar matters arising in the course of the hearing;
(g) To rule upon the admissibility of and receive evidence; and
(h) To do any and all other or further acts necessary or incident to the conduct of such proceedings and ordinarily entrusted to a presiding judicial officer.

SEC. 2.2 Initial decisions in safety enforcement proceedings. Examiners or presiding officers are authorized to make the initial decision in proceedings for the suspension or revocation of airman and other safety certificates, and for the review of the Administrator's refusal to issue an airman certificate.

CHIEF EXAMINER

SEC. 3.1 Requests for extension of time for filing certain documents. The Chief Examiner is authorized to extend the time for filing a notice of objection and answers to show cause orders, petitions for rehearing, reargument, and/or reconsideration of the Board's decision, but a postponement shall not be granted within three days before the date originally set for filing except in cases involving unusual hardship on the requesting party or parties.

CHIEF, OFFICE OF ENFORCEMENT

SEC. 4.1 Institution of court proceedings. The Chief, Office of Enforcement, is authorized to institute and prosecute in the proper court, as agent of the Board, all necessary proceedings for the enforcement of subpenas and for the enforcement of the provisions of the act or any rule, regulation, requirement, or order thereunder, or any term, condition, or limitation of any certificate or permit, and for the punishment of all violations thereof.

DIRECTOR, ALASKA OFFICE

SEC. 5.1 Procedural matters incident to formal proceedings. (a) In formal proceedings on the Board's Alaskan docket, the Director, Alaska Office, is authorized:

(1) To assign such proceedings for hearings and conferences in appropriate cases, and to serve all interested persons with procedural notices (other than notice of oral argument before the Board) and examiners' reports relating thereto and,

(2) To hear oral argument upon exceptions to an examiner's report provided that upon completion of oral argument a transcript thereof shall be sent to the Board.

(b) Subject to modification or reversal by the Board either on its own motion or in response to a request filed by any interested party to the proceeding, the Director, Alaska Office, on his own motion or upon petition or application by any air carrier or other person affected by or having a substantial interest in his action, is authorized:

(1) To grant or deny petitions for intervention in proceedings on the Board's Alaskan docket;

(2) To order dismissal of any application made to the Board pursuant to the act when such dismissal is requested by the applicant or where the applicant has failed to prosecute such application; and,

(3) To consolidate applications or any part thereof on the Board's Alaskan docket for hearing or issuance for initial or recommended decision by an examiner.

(4) To sever applications or any part thereof on the Board's Alaskan docket for hearing or issuance of initial or recommended decision by an examiner.

SEC. 5.2 Rejection of Tariffs, Alaskan Air Carriers. The Director of the Alaska Office is authorized to reject, on behalf of the Board, any tariff, supplement, or revised page which is filed by any Alaskan air carrier and which is subject to rejection under section 403 (a) of the Civil Aeronautics Act, as amended, because it is not consistent with section 403 of the act or with Parts 221 and 222 of the Economic Regulations. In exercising this authority, the Director of the Alaska Office shall give notice of any such rejection in writing to the carrier or agent filing such tariff. The notice shall clearly state the reason or reasons for the rejection. When time will not permit receipt of notice by mail prior to the proposed effective date of the tariff publication so rejected, telegraphic notice shall also be given.

SEC. 5.3 Special tariff permission, Alaskan Air Carriers. The Director of the Alaska Office is authorized to approve or disapprove any application for permission to make tariff changes upon less than statutory notice, filed by an Alaskan air carrier pursuant to § 222.3 (k) of the Economic Regulations, which (a) has as its only purpose the correction of mechanical, clerical, or administrative errors, or (b) does not involve new or substantial questions of policy. In exercising this authority, the Director of the Alaska Office may refer any application to the Board for disposition, and shall so refer any application which he is not hereby authorized to approve or disapprove.

SEC. 5.4 Requests for additional information. The Director of the Alaska Office is authorized at any time:

(a) To require any person filing documents with the Alaska Office to file additional copies thereof.

(b) To make service upon persons other than those specified in the pertinent regulation, order, or rule of the Board, if he finds such requirements necessary in the public interest or in the interest of efficiency and expedition in the work of the Board.

(c) To require any person filing a formal or informal application, complaint, petition or other document that in his opinion does not sufficiently set forth the material required to be set forth by the applicable regulation, order, or rule of the Board, or is otherwise insufficient, to supply additional information.

(d) To require, if he deems an answer desirable, a reply to formal complaints and petitions.

SEC. 5.5 Extension of time for filing documents and waiver of contents. The Director of the Alaska Office is authorized, upon good cause shown, to grant or deny individual requests for extensions of time for filing any document required to be filed with the Alaska Office pursuant to Part 292 of the Economic Regulations, or for waiver of the form or content of such document to conform to the particular operations of the individual requesting such waiver.

SEC. 5.6 Rule making, proposed Economic Regulations affecting Alaskan Air Carriers. The Director, Alaska Office, may prepare and publish for comment by Alaskan air carriers a draft of proposed Economic Regulations affecting air transportation within Alaska, or of proposed amendments or modifications of such regulations, providing that such notice shall indicate clearly that the proposals are those of the Director and have not been approved by the Board.

DIRECTOR, BUREAU OF ECONOMIC REGULATION

SEC. 6.1. Rejection of tariffs for air carriers other than Alaskan Air Carriers and including foreign air carriers. The Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate) is authorized to reject any tariff, supplement, or revised page which is filed by any air carrier other than an Alaskan air carrier, or by any foreign air carrier, and which is subject to rejection under section 403 (a) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, because it is not consistent with section 403 of the Civil Aeronautics Act or with Parts 221 and 222 of the Economic Regulations, as amended from time to time. In exercising this authority, the Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation, shall give notice of any such rejection in writing to the carrier or agent filing such tariff. The notice shall clearly state the reason or reasons for the rejection. When time will not permit receipt of notice by mail prior to the proposed effective date of the tariff publication so rejected, telegraphic notice shall also be given.

SEC. 6.2 Special tariff permission for air carriers other than Alaskan Air Carriers and including foreign air carriers. The Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate) is authorized to approve or disapprove any application for permission to make tariff changes upon less than statutory notice, filed pursuant to § 222.3 (k) of the Economic Regulations which (a) has as its only purpose the correction of mechanical, clerical, or administrative errors, or (b) does not involve new or substantial questions of policy. In exercising this authority, the Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation, may refer any application to the Board for disposition, and shall so refer any application which he is not hereby authorized to approve or disapprove. Any application disapproved pursuant to this delegation of authority is thereby denied, subject to review by the Board. In the event of such disapproval, an applicant may within 5 days after it has received written notice thereof file a written request for review of the denial resulting from such disapproval. The Board will thereupon review the matter and enter an order finally disposing of the application.

SEC. 6.3 Waiver, modification, and interpretation of reports and accounts. (a) The Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate) is authorized to waive, modify or interpret any of the reporting requirements of § 241.1 and Parts 242, 243, and 244 of the Economic Regulations and to establish detailed uniform practices in connection with the submission of the reports required therein; provided, that upon application by any air carrier affected by such action, the Director shall submit any waiver, modification, interpretation or established practice to the Board for review.

(b) The Director of the Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate) is authorized to waive, modify, or interpret the reporting requirements of § 241.2 of the Economic Regulations and of the provisions of the Uniform System of Accounts for Air Carriers, and to establish detailed uniform practices in connection with the general accounting requirements, prescribed therein; provided, that upon application by any affected air carrier, any such waiver, modification, interpretation, or establishment shall be submitted to the Board for review.

SEC. 6.4 Extension of time for filing certain documents. The Director, Bureau of Econoic Regulation or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate), is authorized to grant or deny, upon good cause shown, individual requests for extension of time for filing reports or for waiver of the form or content of such reports to conform to the particular operation of the individual requesting such waiver.

SEC. 6.5 Letters of Registration issued pursuant to Part 296 of the Economic Regulations. The Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate), acting with the concurrence of the General Counsel (or such staff member of the Bureau of Law as he may designate) on legal aspects, is authorized to advise applicants for Letters of Registration—Air Freight Forwarder and applicants for the approval of a relationship under § 296.11 of the Economic Regulations, in cases where disapproval is deemed appropriate, that the information set forth in the application does not warrant a staff recommendation of approval and that the applicant may either (a) withdraw the application, (b) submit further information, (c) seek Board review or (d) request a hearing with respect to such application prior to final action.

SEC. 6.6 Temporary changes in service patterns by feeder air carriers. (a) The Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate), acting with the concurrence of the General Counsel (or such staff member of the Bureau of Law as he may designate) on legal aspects, is authorized to approve or disapprove all applications filed under Part 202 of the Economic Regulations by feeder air carriers for authority to effect temporary or seasonal changes in service patterns, where clear precedents for proposed changes have already been established by the Board: Provided, That all applications raising substantial questions of policy or a new type of authority shall be referred to the Board of disposition. For the purpose of this paragraph a "feeder" air carrier is an air carrier holding a certificate of public convenience and necessity which contains a condition requiring that each trip operated by the holder of the certificate between points named in the route or a segment thereof, shall serve (subject to exceptions set forth in such certificate) each terminal and intermediate point.

(b) In the event the disapproval of any such application is deemed appropriate, the Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate), is authorized to advise the applicants that the staff is unable to recommend approval of the proposed change, giving the applicants the opportunity of requesting Board review of the matter.

SEC. 6.7 Contracts and agreements. The Director of the Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate), acting with the concurrence of the General Counsel (or such staff member of the Bureau of Law as he may designate) on legal aspects, is authorized to advise the parties to any agreement or contract filed by air carriers under section 412 of the act as to which disapproval is deemed appropriate that, on the basis of information of record, approval is not warranted and that the parties thereto may either (a) present such further information as will warrant approval, (b) amend the agreement or contract to eliminate all objections thereto, (c) seek Board review, or (d) request a hearing prior to final action.

SEC. 6.8 Interlocking relationships. The Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate), acting with the concurrence of the General Counsel (or such staff member of the Bureau of Law as he may designate) on legal aspects, is authorized: (a) To advise the applicants, who have submitted applications for approval of interlocking relationships filed under section 409 (a) of the act, that the staff is unable to recommend approval of the relationship, giving the applicants the option of presenting additional information, terminating the relationship, seeking Board review, or requesting a formal hearing in the matter.

(b) To dismiss all applications for approval of interlocking relationships where the termination of the interlocking relationship in question has been effected.

SEC. 6.9 Tariff investigations, tariff suspensions, and complaints concerning tariffs. (a) In instances where an investigation of a tariff is pending, or the tariff is under suspension, or a complaint requesting investigation or suspension of a tariff has been filed, the Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate), acting with the concurrence of the General Counsel (or such staff member of the Bureau of Law as he may designate) on legal aspects, is authorized:

(1) To permit cancellation of such tariff;

(2) To dismiss the investigation or complaint; or to terminate the suspension, if the tariff to which such investigation, complaint or suspension relates has been cancelled, ordered cancelled, or has expired;

(3) To institute an investigation of, or to suspend, a tariff which is substantially similar to a prior tariff under investigation or suspension, and is filed by or on behalf of one or more of the carriers party to the prior tariff, and is filed within 90 days after the expiration, modification or cancellation of the prior tariff, or within 90 days after the effective date of an order requiring its cancellation or modification;

(4) To extend from time to time the period of suspension of a tariff under suspension when the proceedings concerning the lawfulness of such tariff cannot be concluded before the expiration of the existing suspension period, provided that the aggregate of such extensions may not be for a longer period than permitted under section 1002 (g) of the act.

(b) As used herein the term "tariff" means a tariff or any part or parts thereof, including, but not limited to, any fare, charge, rate, rule, regulation or any other provision contained in a tariff or part or parts thereof.

SEC. 6.10 Free or reduced rate transportation. (a) The Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate), acting with the concurrence of the General Counsel (or such staff member of the Bureau of Law as he may designate) on legal aspects, is authorized to approve or disapprove applications filed under section 403 (b) of the act and § 223.8 of the Economic Regulations for permission to furnish free or reduced rate overseas or foreign air transportation, when such applications do not involve new and substantial questions of policy, provided that any such applications may be referred to the Board for disposition, and that any applications not hereby authorized to be approved or disapproved by the staff shall be referred to the Board.

(b) In the event the disapproval of any such application is deemed appropriate, the Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate), is authorized to advise the applicants that the staff is unable to recommend approval of the free or reduced rate transportation, giving the applicants an opportunity of requesting Board review of the matter.

SEC. 6.11 Photographic reproduction of records. The Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation, (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate), is authorized to circulate a communication on behalf of the Board authorizing air carriers to substitute photographic reproductions for specified categories of records, and to approve or disapprove an "application for substitution" filed with him by an air carrier pursuant to § 249.1 (d) of the Economic Regulations.

SEC. 6.12 Certain tariff matters. The Director, Bureau of Economic Regulation, (or such staff member of the Bureau of Economic Regulation as he may designate), is authorized:

(a) To approve or disapprove methods for indicating cancellation of an existing rate or rule in the publication stating the new rate or rule, in a manner other than that specifically required by § 221.8 (c) of the Economic Regulations;

(b) To determine the form and manner in which a supplement is to be prepared whenever the operation of any provision of a tariff, supplement, or looseleaf page is suspended by the Board, in accordance with § 222.5 of the Economic Regulations;

(c) To authorize the issuance of supplements to looseleaf tariffs in accordance with § 221.10 (g) of the Economic Regulations; and

(d) To approve or disapprove applications for waiver of the provisions of Parts 221 and 222 of the Economic Regulations in accordance with § 222.3 (g).

DIRECTOR, BUREAU OF SAFETY INVESTIGATION

SEC. 7.1 Accident inquiries. When in the opinion of the Director, Bureau of Safety Investigation, an inquiry is necessary in order fully to ascertain the facts, conditions, circumstances, and the probable cause of an accident involving aircraft, the Director, Bureau of Safety Investigation, on behalf of the Board, is authorized to order an inquiry and designate a presiding officer to conduct such inquiries. Such inquiries shall not involve adjudication of essential rights of persons, but shall be in the nature of technical investigations conducted in a formal manner.

DIRECTOR, BUREAU OF SAFETY REGULATION

SEC. 8.1 Rule making, proposed changes in Civil Air Regulations. The Director, Bureau of Safety Regulation, is authorized to publish notice of proposed changes in the Civil Air Regulations. Such notice shall indicate clearly that the proposed changes are those of the Bureau and have not been approved by the Board.

SEC. 8.2 Waivers of citizenship requirements for issuance of airman certificates. The Director, Bureau of Safety Regulation (or such staff member of the Bureau of Safety Regulation as he may designate) acting with the concurrence of the General Counsel (or such staff member of the Bureau of Law as he may designate) on legal aspects, is authorized to approve requests for waiver of the citizenship requirements of the Civil Air Regulations regarding the issuance of airman certificates, in cases where the files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Central Intelligence Agency do not contain any information showing, or tending to show, that the persons submitting such requests owe or might owe allegiance to an unfriendly foreign government and thus may, in some way, take improper advantage of the privileges of the airman certificates requested.

[Public Notice PN 3]

STATEMENT OF PLACES AT WHICH PUBLIC MAY SECURE INFORMATION OR MAKE SUBMITTALS OR REQUESTS

In order to conform the available material on the established places at which, and the methods whereby, the public may secure information or make submittals or requests to the Board to the requirements of sections 3 (a) (1) and 3 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238) and to the regulations of the Administrative Committee of the Federal Register approved by the President effective October 12, 1948 (13 F. R. 5929), the material on public information presently in the Organizational Regulations has been completely rewritten.

Since this Public Notice No. 3 contains a rule of agency organization and practice, public notice and procedure thereon is not required.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends the Organizational Regulations (formerly 14 CFR §§ 301.3 and 302.8) as follows effective July 1, 1950:

1. By revoking in its entirety the section titled "Public Information," (formerly § 301.3) and the section titled "Scope and Content of Documents," (formerly § 302.8).

2. By making and promulgating the following statement of places at which the public may secure information or make submittals and requests as Public Notice No. 3 reading as follows:

Sec.
1.1 Offices.
1.2 General information and requests.
1.3 Submittals.
1.4 Inspection of records.
1.5 Certified copies; requests for; costs.
1.6 Forms.

SECTION 1.1 Offices. (a) The central office of the Board is located in the Department of Commerce Building, Fourteenth Street between Constitution Avenue and E Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. The hours of the Board are from 8:30 a. m. to 5:00 p. m., Monday through Friday unless otherwise provided by statute or Executive order.

(b) Other offices of the Board in Washington, D. C. are maintained in Temporary Building 5, Foot of Sixteenth Street and Constitution Avenue NW.

(c) The location of the Board's field offices is set forth in sections 10.1, 10.2, and 10.3 of Public Notice No. 1.

SEC. 1.2 General information and requests. (a) The Public Information Section in the Office of the Chairman is the primary channel through which general inquiries from the public or press are handled. Persons desiring to obtain information, or make requests of a general nature, should communicate with the Public Information Section. This section is also the primary channel for releasing to the public information concerning matters pending before, or action taken by the Board.

(b) The Public Information Section is located in Room 5036, Department of Commerce Building.

(c) Persons who wish to apply for employment should communicate with the Personnel Section, Bureau of Administration.

(d) The Publications Section prepares periodically a list of free and for sale publications of the Board. Mailing lists are maintained on certain classifications of free releases and publications listed thereon. Interested persons concerned may obtain copies of the list and may have their names placed on the Board's mailing list to receive one or more of the several classes of free releases and publications.

SEC. 1.3 Submittals. (a) All formal submittals to the Board should be addressed to the Secretary, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D. C. Persons residing in Alaska may at their option make such submittals to the Civil Aeronautics Board, Alaska Office, Anchorage, Alaska.

(b) Notice and reports of aircraft accidents and missing aircraft required pursuant to Part 62 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, Part 62) shall be directed to the nearest Civil Aeronautics Board office or through the nearest Civil Aeronautics Administration communication station or agent.

SEC. 1.4 Inspection of records—(a) Public records. All matters of official record, other than information held confidential or withheld from public disclosure pursuant to Sections 1001 and 1104 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, and § 302.16 of the Procedural Regulations, are available at the offices of the Board in Washington, D. C., to persons properly and directly concerned upon application to the Secretary during regular working hours. Documents and records pertaining to Alaskan air carriers may also be inspected in the Board's office in Anchorage, Alaska. Such official records shall include:

(1) All documents authorized or required to be filed with the Board by the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, or any regulation, order, or rule of the Board issued thereunder.

(2) The entire record of all formal proceedings or hearings of the Board.

(3) The official record indicating every vote and official act of the Board except that the information contained in such record is available only to persons properly and directly concerned therewith.

(4) The direct airport - to - airport mileage record.

(5) All opinions, orders, rules, and reports published by the Board.

(6) All final opinions, orders, and rules entered by the Board, unless held confidential or withheld from public disclosure for good cause and not cited as precedents.

(7) Communications containing comments on proposed rules which are received by the Board in response to notices of proposed rule making: Provided, That any such communications made available for public inspection shall be made available only after the period set for the receipt of comments has expired.

(b) Other records. The records and files of the Board, and all documents, memoranda, correspondence, exhibits and information of whatever information, other than the matters described in paragraph (a) of this section, coming into the possession or within the knowledge of the Board or any of its officers or employees in the discharge of their official duties, are confidential and none of such material or information may be disclosed, divulged, or produced for inspection or copying except that, upon good cause shown, the Board may by order direct that certain files, papers, or information be disclosed to a particular applicant.

SEC. 1.5 Certified copies; request for; costs. Copies of any documents subject to inspection under the provisions of section 1.4 will be prepared and will be certified by the Secretary, under seal, on written request, specifying the number of copies desired, and the date on which the same will be required. Such request must be made so as to permit a reasonable time for the preparation of such copies and any cost incurred in the preparation of such copies must be borne by the person making application therefor. However, publications included in section 1.4 (5) above, need not be certified, in accordance with subsection 205 (d) of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, which provides in part that publications purporting to be published by the Board shall be competent evidence of the orders, decisions, rules, regulations and reports of the Board therein contained in all courts of the United States and of the several states, territories and possessions thereof, and the District of Columbia, without further proof or authorization thereof.

SEC. 1.6 Forms. Information concerning all forms and instructions as to the scope and contents of all papers, reports, or other documents required or authorized by the Board to be filed or maintained, pursuant to the Civil Aeronautics Act or any rules, regulations or order of the Board, is contained in the Board's Civil Air Regulations, Economic Regulations and Procedural Regulations. If the form of any document required to be filed is not prescribed, such document should set forth the matter specified in letter form. If the form of any document authorized to be filed is not prescribed, such document should conform to the currently effective provisions of Parts 301 and 302 of the Procedural Regulations governing general requirements as to papers in proceedings and form and filing of documents.

Adopted: June 21, 1950.

Effective: July 1, 1950.

UNITED AIR LINES, INC.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON APPLICATION FOR AMENDMENT TO CERTIFICATE

In the matter of the application of United Air Lines, Inc., for amendment to its certificate of public convenience and necessity so as to authorize air transportation of property and mail, only, between Hartford, Conn., and Boston, Mass., on the one hand, and New York, N. Y., and Newark, N. J., and points west thereof on route No. 1, on the other, subject to certain conditions.

Notice is hereby given that the above-entitled proceeding is assigned for hearing on July 10, 1950, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in Room 116, Wing "C," Temporary Building No. 5, Sixteenth Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., before Examiner Joseph L. Fitzmaurice.

Without limiting the scope of the issues involved in this proceeding particular attention will be directed to the question of whether or not public convenience and necessity require the amendment of United Air Lines, Inc., certificate for route No. 1, so as to authorize United to engage in air transportation with respect to property and mail, only, between Hartford, Conn., Boston, Mass., on the one hand, and New York, N. Y., and Newark, N. J., and points west thereof, on route No. 1, on the other, subject to certain conditions.

Notice is further given that any person other than the parties of record desiring to be heard in this proceeding shall file with the Board on or before July 10, 1950, a statement setting forth issues of fact or law to be controverted.

For further details as to the matters concerned with this proceeding, interested parties are referred to the documents on file with the Board in this proceeding.

Dated at Washington, D. C., June 29, 1950.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

STATEMENT OF DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 21st day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the requests of several licensees for temporary authority to continue the use of certain frequencies beyond July 1, 1950, the date by which they were required to shift to another frequency in accordance with the Commission's public notice of March 20, 1947, in the matter of frequency service-allocations in the 30-40 Mc. band;

It appearing, that § 2.103 of Part 2 of the Commission's existing rules makes provision for short term grants of authority where important or exceptional circumstances require such utilization of frequencies;

It further appearing, that it would be in the public interest to provide a procedure for staff action on requests for such special temporary authority in those instances in which the public welfare is an important element;

It further appearing, that because the rule amendment herein ordered is organizational and procedural in nature, and because of the need for a procedure that will permit the prompt consideration of additional requests of the nature of those now under consideration by the Commission, compliance with the public notice and procedure provided for in section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and impracticable;

It further appearing, that authority for the amendment herein ordered is contained in section 5 (e), section 303 (c) and (r), and section 307 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That effective immediately the Statement of Delegations of Authority be amended to provide as follows:

Section 0.144 is amended by adding a new subparagraph (n) thereto to read as follows:

(n) Application for special temporary authority under § 2.103 to continue use of a frequency in the 30-40 Mc. band beyond July 1, 1950, the final date specified in the Commission's public notice of March 20, 1947 for shifting to a frequency listed in the Table of Frequency Allocations, when it appears that the application relates to an established service involving the public welfare and that the applicant has taken affirmative steps towards the acquisition of equipment to accomplish the conversion.

[Docket Nos. G–1335, G–1407, G–1411, and G–1413]

CAROLINA NATURAL GAS CORP. ET AL.

ORDER CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS AND FIXING DATE OF HEARING

JUNE 27, 1950.

In the matters of Carolina Natural Gas Corporation, Docket No. G–1335, Public Service Company of North Carolina, Incorporated, Docket No. G–1407, Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation, Docket No. G–1411, Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc., Docket No. G–1413.

On March 3, 1950, an application was filed by Carolina Natural Gas Corporation (Carolina Natural) in Docket No. G–1335, for authorization to construct and operate certain natural gas pipeline facilities in North and South Carolina, and for an order pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act directing Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation (Transcontinental) to establish physical connections and sell Carolina Natural a supply of gas out of the facilities authorized in Docket No. G–1277.

On April 13, 1950, the Commission consolidated for the purpose of hearing the application of Carolina Natural in Docket No. G–1335 with the application of Transcontinental in Docket No. G–1277. By our order of June 27, 1950, the proceeding on the application of Carolina Natural Gas Corporation in Docket No. G–1335 was severed for further hearing from the proceedings in Docket No. G–1277.

On May 1, 1950, Carolina Natural presented in part its direct case.

On June 5, 1950, Public Service Company of North Carolina, Incorporated (Public Service), filed an application in Docket No. G–1407 for authorization to construct and operate certain facilities and to purchase natural gas from Transcontinental for service in some of the communities in the Carolinas.

On June 6, 1950, Transcontinental filed a new application in Docket No. G–1411 for authorization to increase the capacity of its authorized facilities to serve Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc., and Public Service Company of North Carolina, Incorporated.

On June 7, 1950, Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc., a new corporation, filed an application in Docket No. G–1413 for authorization to construct and operate certain facilities and purchase natural gas from Transcontinental for service in certain of the communities proposed to be served by Carolina Natural.

The combined markets proposed to be served by Piedmont and Public Service constitute substantially the market proposed to be served by Carolina Natural.

On June 6, 1950, Public Service Company of North Carolina, Incorporated, filed a motion for consolidation for purpose of hearing of Docket Nos. G–1335, G–1407, and G–1411, and such other dockets as might be appropriate and necessary.

The Commission finds: Orderly procedure requires that hearings on the applications of Public Service Company of North Carolina, Incorporated, in Docket No. G–1407, Piedmont Natural Gas Company, Inc., in Docket No. G–1413, and Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation in Docket No. G–1411 should be consolidated for purpose of hearing with the hearing on the application of Carolina Natural Gas Corporation in Docket No. G–1335 which commenced on May 1, 1950.

The Commission orders:

(a) The applications in Docket Nos. G–1407, G–1411, and G–1413 are hereby consolidated for purpose of hearing with the hearing on the application in Docket No. G–1335.

(b) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a public hearing be held commencing on July 12, 1950, at 10:00 a. m., e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by the applications in Docket Nos. G–1335, G–1407, G–1411, and G–1413.

(c) Interested State commissions may participate, as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: June 28, 1950.

FEDERAL SECURITY AGENCY

Office of Education

SCHOOL ASSISTANCE IN FEDERALLY IMPACTED AREAS

Section 751 is amended in the following manner:

(j) School Assistance in Federally Impacted Areas. There is also attached to the Office of the Commissioner an officer known as Head, School Assistance in Federally Impacted Areas, who shall be responsible for the administration of this program.

Pursuant to Reorganization Plan No. 16 of 1950, effective May 24, 1950, the functions vested in the Administrator, General Services, under Public Law 306, approved September 10, 1949, entitled "An act to provide assistance for local school agencies in providing educational opportunities for children on Federal Reservations or in defense areas, and for other purposes" have been transferred to the Federal Security Administrator. The Federal Security Administrator has authorized the Office of Education to perform all functions of the Administrator of General Services under the aforesaid act, together with so much of any other function of the Administrator of General Services or of the General Services Administration as is incidental or necessary for the carrying out of the provisions of such act.

All rules and regulations promulgated by the Commissioner of the Bureau of Community Facilities with regard to (1) determination of eligibility for assistance of local school agencies, (2) bases for allotting funds, and (3) settlement of projects as set forth in Memorandum No. 117 of the Commissioner of the Bureau of Community Facilities dated November 10, 1949, continue in effect until changed.

Unexpired agreements between local school agencies and the United States Government under this program will be continued in effect by the Office of Education. Certified statements of expenditure and income (BCF Form 705) for final statement purposes should be sent directly to the Head, School Assistance in Federally Impacted Areas, Office of Education, Federal Security Agency, Washington 25, D. C. Inquiries concerning any aspect of this program may be directed to this official.

DELAWARE POWER AND LIGHT CO. AND EASTERN SHORE PUBLIC SERVICE CO. OF MARYLAND

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of June 1950.

Delaware Power & Light Company ("Delaware"), a registered holding company and an electric utility company, and its wholly owned subsidiary, The Eastern Shore Public Service Company of Maryland ("Eastern Shore"), an electric utility company, having filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to sections 6 (b), 9 (a), 12 (d) and 12 (f) of the act with respect to the following transactions:

Eastern Shore will issue and sell, from time to time, but not later than December 31, 1951, up to $3,000,000 principal amount of its 4% promissory notes due October 1, 1973, and 30,000 shares of its common stock of the par value of $100 per share. Delaware will purchase said securities at the principal amount or par value, respectively, and upon the purchase of any notes, Delaware will purchase common stock of an aggregate par value equal to the principal amount of such notes. The proceeds from the sale of said notes and common stock, which will not exceed $6,000,000 are to be used to finance Eastern Shore's construction program and to reimburse its treasury for money previously expended for such construction program. The notes and stock to be acquired by Delaware will be pledged by it with the Trustee under its mortgage dated October 1, 1943, in accordance with the provisions of the Indenture of Mortgage.

The proposed transactions have been approved by the Public Service Commission of Maryland.

Said application-declaration having been duly filed and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to said act, and the Commission not having received a request for hearing with respect to said application-declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

The Commission finding with respect to said application-declaration that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and rules thereunder are satisfied, and that no adverse findings are necessary and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said application-declaration be granted and permitted to become effective:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of said act and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the aforesaid application-declaration be and the same hereby is granted and permitted to become effective forthwith.

By the Commission.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER REGARDING SALE OF BONDS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of June 1950.

Philadelphia Company ("Philadelphia"), a registered holding company and a subsidiary of Standard Gas and Electric Company and Standard Power and Light Corporation, both registered holding companies, having filed with this Commission an application-declaration, and amendments thereto, pursuant to the provisions of sections 9 (a), 11 (b), 12 (c) and 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") and Rules U-42, U-44 and U-50, promulgated thereunder, with respect to the sale by Philadelphia, pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50, of $11,000,000 principal amount of Twenty-Year 3⅜ percent Sinking Fund Debentures due March 1, 1970, of Equitable Gas Company, a former subsidiary of Philadelphia, and the application of the proceeds therefrom, to the extent required, to the redemption and retirement of the outstanding 100,000 shares of Philadelphia's $6 Cumulative Preference Stock, at the redemption price of $110 per share plus an amount equal to all dividends accrued and unpaid thereon at the redemption date; and

The Commission, by order dated June 21, 1950, having granted and permitted to become effective the said application-declaration, as amended, subject, however, to the condition, among others, that the proposed sale of the aforesaid Debentures should not be consummated until the results of competitive bidding, pursuant to Rule U-50, should have been made a matter of record in these proceedings and a further order should have been entered by the Commission in the light of the record as so completed, jurisdiction being reserved, inter alia, to impose such further terms and conditions, if any, as might then be deemed appropriate; and

Philadelphia having filed, on June 28, 1950, a further amendment to said application-declaration, as amended, in which it is stated that Philadelphia has offered the said Debentures for sale pursuant to the competitive bidding requirements of Rule U-50 and has received the following bids:

Bidder or representative	Price to company [1] (percent of principal)
The First Boston Corp	104.039
Halsey, Stuart & Co., Inc	103.76
Kidder, Peabody & Co., Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane, and White, Weld & Co	103.591
Harriman Ripley & Co., Inc	103.0253

[1] Plus accrued interest from March 1, 1950, to date of delivery of and payment for debentures.

Philadelphia having further stated in said amendment that it has accepted the bid of The First Boston Corporation for the said Debentures and that such securities will be offered for sale to the public at a price of 104.53% of the principal amount thereof, resulting in an underwriters' spread of 0.491%, aggregating $54,010; and

The Commission having examined said amendment and having considered the record as so completed and finding that the applicable standards of the act and the rules thereunder have been satisfied and finding no basis for imposing terms and conditions with respect to the price to be paid for said Debentures or the underwriters' spread and the allocation thereof, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that the application-declaration, as further amended, be granted and permitted to become effective forthwith:

It is ordered, That the application-declaration, as further amended, be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions of Rule U-24.

It is further ordered, That all other reservations, terms and conditions prescribed in the Commission's order herein, dated June 21, 1950, be, and the same hereby are, continued in full force and effect.

By the Commission.

WEST PENN POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of June A. D. 1950.

Notice is hereby given that West Penn Power Company ("Power"), a registered holding company and a public utility subsidiary of a registered holding company ("The West Penn Electric Company"), has filed a declaration with this Commission pursuant to section 12 (d) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and certain rules and regulations promulgated thereunder with respect to the sale by Power to Pennsylvania Electric Company ("Penelec"), a non-affiliate of Power, of certain of Power's physical properties.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than the 15th of July 1950, request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said declaration which he proposes to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after July 15, 1950, said declaration as filed, or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to said declaration which is on file in the offices of this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

Power proposes to sell to Penelec, approximately 17.33 miles of 132,000 volt transmission line lying within the territory of Power and known as the Ridgway-Warren transmission line for a cash consideration of $125,000.

The filing states that the sale by Power and the acquisition by Penelec are subject to the approval of the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission and that an appropriate joint application has been filed with that Commission by the companies. It is further represented that the acquisition by Penelec is exempt from the requirements of sections 9 and 10 of the act by virtue of section 9 (b) (1). The filing at present contains no estimate of fees and expenses applicable to the proposed transactions.

By the Commission.

CONSOLIDATED NATURAL GAS CO. AND EAST OHIO GAS CO.

NOTICE REGARDING FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of June 1950.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application-declaration has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 by Consolidated Natural Gas Company ("Consolidated"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiary, The East Ohio Gas Company ("East Ohio"). Applicant-declarant has designated sections 6 (b), 9 (a), 10 and 12 (f) of the act as applicable to the proposed transaction.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 24, 1950, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said joint application-declaration proposed to be controverted, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. At any time after July 24, 1950, such application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated pursuant to said act. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C.

All interested persons are referred to said joint application-declaration which is on file in the office of this Commisson for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized below:

East Ohio proposes to issue and sell to Consolidated and Consolidated proposes to acquire 25,000 additional shares of the common stock of East Ohio of a par value of $100 per share for a cash consideration of $2,500,000. Proceeds of the sale of common stock will be utilized by East Ohio to provide larger underground gas storage capacity, increase gas inventories and enlarge its pipeline system.

The proposed issuance and sale of common stock has been approved by the Public Service Commission of Ohio.

NORTHERN STATES POWER CO. (MINN.) AND NORTHERN STATES POWER CO. (WIS.)

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of June A. D. 1950.

Notice is hereby given that a joint application has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("the Act") by Northern States Power Company ("Minnesota Company"), a Minnesota corporation and registered holding company, and its wholly owned public-utility subsidiary Northern States Power Company ("Wisconsin Company"), a Wisconsin corporation. Applicants designate sections 6 (b), 9 and 10 of the act and Rules U-23, U-24, and U-43 thereunder as applicable to the proposed transaction.

All interested parties are referred to said application on file in the office of the Commission for a statement of the transaction therein proposed, which is summarized as follows:

The Wisconsin Company proposes to issue and sell and the Minnesota Company proposes to purchase from time to time during the balance of the year 1950, at $100 per share, an aggregate of not to exceed 30,000 additional shares of Common Stock of the par value of $100 per share (aggregate par value of $3,000,000) of the Wisconsin Company.

The Wisconsin Company will add the proceeds from the sale of said stock to its general funds. With the addition of such proceeds it is expected that its general funds available during the year 1950 will provide the cash required by it (a) for its expenditures under its construction budget during the balance of the year 1950, and (b) to repay its bank loan the principal amount of $500,000 which is due on December 2, 1950 and which was made in June 1950 to supply the then current needs of its construction program. The 1950 construction budget of the Wisconsin Company is estimated at $5,189,330.

It is stated that the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin has jurisdiction over the Wisconsin Company as to the proposed transaction, and that an application is now pending before the State Commission for the requisite authorization.

The expenses of the Wisconsin Company in connection with said transaction are estimated at $7,500, including $1,000 legal fees. It is stated that the expenses of the Minnesota Company, including legal fees, will not exceed $1,000.

It is requested that the order of the Commission herein be made effective upon issuance.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 13, 1950, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reason for such request, and the issues, if any, of fact or law proposed to be controverted; or he may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after said date said application, as filed or as amended, may be granted as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rules U-20 and U-100 thereof.

JUNE 30, 1950.

The Commission is in receipt of the above-entitled and numbered application for relief from the long-and-short-haul provision of section 4 (1) of the Interstate Commerce Act.

Filed by: D. Q. Marsh, Agent, for and on behalf of carriers parties to his tariffs named below.

Commodities involved: Petroleum, its products and related articles, carloads.

From: West Baytown, Tex.

To: Points in Southwestern, Southern, Official, Illinois, and Western Trunk Line territories.

Grounds for relief: Competition with rail carriers, circuitous routes and to maintain grouping.

Schedules filed containing proposed rates: D. Q. Marsh's tariffs I. C. C. Nos. 3585, 3802, 3825, 3651, 3724 and 3494, Supplements 414, 68, 66, 231, 117 and 195, respectively.

Any interested person desiring the Commission to hold a hearing upon such application shall request the Commission in writing so to do within 15 days from the date of this notice. As provided by the general rules of practice of the Commission, Rule 73, persons other than applicants should fairly disclose their interest, and the position they intend to take at the hearing with respect to the application. Otherwise the Commission, in its discretion, may proceed to investigate and determine the matters involved in such application without further or formal hearing. If because of an emergency a grant of temporary relief is found to be necessary before the expiration of the 15-day period, a hearing, upon a request filed within that period, may be held subsequently.

By the Commission, Division 2.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter I—Production and Marketing Administration (Standards, Inspections, Marketing Practices), Department of Agriculture

PART 52—PROCESSED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES, PROCESSED PRODUCTS THEREOF, AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCESSED FOOD PRODUCTS

UNITED STATES STANDARDS[1] FOR GRADES OF FROZEN OKRA

On May 24, 1950, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 3157), regarding proposed United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Okra. After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Okra are hereby promulgated under the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1950 (Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong., approved June 29, 1949):

§ 52.473 Frozen okra. Frozen okra is the product prepared from the fresh, immature, succulent pods of the okra plant (Hibiscus esculentus) of either the green or white varieties, by proper washing, trimming and blanching, and which pods are then frozen and stored at temperatures necessary for the preservation of the product.

(a) Styles of frozen okra. (1) "Whole okra" means frozen okra consisting of whole pods, with or without the caps removed.

(2) "Cut" or "Cuts" means frozen okra consisting of pods with or without the caps removed, which have been cut transversely into pieces not less than ½ inch in length.

(3) "Unit" means an individual pod or portion of a pod in frozen okra.

(b) Grades of frozen okra. (1) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of frozen okra that possesses similar varietal characteristics; that possesses a good flavor and odor; that possesses a good character; that is practically free from defects; and is of such quality with respect to color as to score not less than 85 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(2) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Extra Standard" is the quality of frozen okra that possesses similar varietal characteristics; that possesses a fairly good flavor and odor; that possesses a reasonably good character; that is reasonably free from defects; that possesses a reasonably good color; and scores not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(3) "U. S. Grade D" or "Substandard" is the quality of frozen okra that fails to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard.

value may be ascertained for each factor and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor is inclusive (for example, "17 to 20 points" means 17, 18, 19, or 20 points).

(1) Color. (i) Frozen okra that possesses a good color may be given a score of 17 to 20 points. "Good color" means that the color of the frozen okra is bright, practically uniform and typical of young and tender okra of similar varietal characteristics.

(ii) If the frozen okra possesses a reasonably good color a score of 14 to 16 points may be given. "Reasonably good color" means that the frozen okra posseses a color that is typical of reasonably young and reasonably tender okra of similar varietal characteristics which may be dull but is not off color.

(iii) Frozen okra that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(2) Absence of defects. (i) The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from extraneous vegetable matter, sand, grit, or silt, poorly trimmed units, small pieces, units damaged by mechanical injury, misshapen units, and units blemished or seriously blemished by scars, pathological injury, insect injury, or blemished by other means.

(a) "Blemished unit" means any unit blemished to the extent that the aggregate blemished area materially affects the appearance of the product. (Slight discoloration frequently occurring on the ribs or blossom end of the units is not considered blemished unless the unit is materially affected.)

(b) "Seriously blemished" means blemished to such an extent that the appearance or eating quality of the unit is seriously affected.

(c) "Extraneous vegetable matter" means leaves, stems, and other similar vegetable matter.

(d) "Poorly trimmed" means attached stems in excess of ¼ inch in length and very ragged edges or units that are partially cut.

(e) "Small pieces" means pieces of pod less than ½ inch in length.

(f) "Damaged by mechanical injury" means broken or mashed to such an extent that the appearance or eating quality of the unit is seriously affected.

(g) "Sand, grit, or silt" means any particle of earthy material.

(h) "Misshapen" means any whole pod that is badly crooked, or is seriously affected by malformations.

(ii) Frozen okra that is practically free from defects may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Practically free from defects" has the following meanings with respect to the following styles of packs of frozen okra.

(a) Whole. "Practically free from defects" means that the product contains no sand, grit, or silt that affects the eating quality or appearance of the frozen okra, and that the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 10 percent of the weight of the units and that for each 12 ounces of units there may be present:

Not more than 1 piece of extraneous vegetable matter;

Not more than 4 poorly trimmed units; 4 units damaged by mechanical injury or any combination of not more than 4 poorly trimmed units and units damaged by mechanical injury;

Not more than 6 percent, by count, of blemished units, and of such 6 percent not more than one-third thereof or 2 percent, by count, of all the units may consist of units that are seriously blemished;

Not more than 10 percent, by count, of misshapen units; and

Not more than 2 small pieces of pods.

(b) Cut or cuts. "Practically free from defects" means that the product contains no sand, grit, or silt that affects the eating quality or appearance of the frozen okra, and that the combined weight of all other defects and defective units does not exceed 8 percent of the weight of the units and that for each 12 ounces of units there may be present:

Not more than one piece of extraneous vegetable matter;

Not more than 4 percent, by weight, of blemished units and of such 4 percent not more than one-half thereof or 2 percent, by weight, of all the units may consist of units that are seriously blemished;

Not more than 8 poorly trimmed units, 8 units damaged by mechanical injury or any combination of not more than 8 poorly trimmed units and units damaged by mechanical injury; and

Not more than 20 small pieces of pods.

(iii) If the frozen okra is reasonably free from defects a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Frozen okra that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good character" means that the units may have lost to a considerable extent their fleshy texture; that the units are reasonably tender; that the seeds may have passed the early stages of maturity, and that not more than 10 percent, by count, of the units possess tough fibers.

(iv) Frozen okra that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(3) Character. (i) The factor of character refers to the development of the pods and seeds and to the degree of freedom from fiber.

(ii) Frozen okra that possesses a good character may be given a score of 34 to 40 points. "Good character" means that the units are fleshy and tender, that the seeds are in the early stages of maturity, and that not more than 5 percent, by count, of the units possess tough fibers.

(iii) If the frozen okra possesses a reasonably good character a score of 28 to 33 points may be given. Frozen okra that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Extra Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good character" means that the units may have lost to a considerable extent their fleshy texture; that the units are reasonably tender; that the seeds may have passed the early stages of maturity, and that not more than 10 percent, by count, of the units possess tough fibers.

(iv) Frozen okra that fails to meet the requirements of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(f) Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (1) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of frozen okra the grade of such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of all containers, if:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of the containers comprising the sample fails to meet all the requirements of the grade indicated by the average of such total scores, and with respect to such containers which fail to meet the requirements of the indicated grade by reason of a limiting rule, the average score of all containers in the sample for the factor, subject to such limiting rule, must be within the range for the grade indicated;

(ii) None of the containers comprising the sample falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores; and

(c) Size of frozen okra. The size of the unit is not a factor of quality for the purpose of these grades. The size of a unit is determined by measuring the length of the unit.

(d) Ascertaining the grade. (1) The grade of frozen okra may be ascertained by considering in conjunction with the requirements of the respective grade the respective ratings for the factors of color, absence of defects, and character.

(2) The relative importance of each scoring factor is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given each factor is:

Factors:	Points
(i) Color	20
(ii) Absence of defects	40
(iii) Character	40
Total score	100

(3) The scores for the factors of color, absence of defects, and character with respect to development of pods and seeds are determined immediately after thawing to the extent that the product is substantially free from ice crystals and can be handled as individual units. The degree of tenderness and freedom from fiber and flavor and odor are determined after the product is cooked.

(4) "Good flavor and odor" means that the product after cooking has a good, characteristic, normal flavor and odor and is free from objectionable flavors and odors of any kind.

(5) "Fairly good flavor and odor" means that the product after cooking may be lacking in good flavor and odor but is free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

(e) Ascertaining the rating for each factor. The essential variations within each factor are so described that the

(iii) All containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification.

[Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments Rent Reg., Amdt. 257]

PART 825—RENT REGULATIONS UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947, AS AMENDED

HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS NOT YIELDING FAIR NET OPERATING INCOME

1. Subdivisions (i) and (ii) of § 825.5 (a) (18) are changed to read as follows:

(18) Housing accommodations not yielding fair net operating income—(i) Grounds. The net operating income from the building is less than a fair net operating income. (The net operating income shall not be considered less than fair if it is 25 percent or more of the annual income in the case of a building containing less than five dwelling units, or is 20 percent or more in the case of a building containing five or more dwelling units.)

A petition for adjustment under this paragraph (a) (18) must be filed on Form D-106, provided by the Housing Expediter, in accordance with the instructions contained therein.

No adjustment shall be granted under this paragraph (a) (18) with respect to housing accommodations regularly rented to employees of the landlord (so-called company housing) or with respect to housing accommodations in hotels as defined in § 825.1 (b) (2) (i) (a) or (b), whichever is applicable.

(ii) Amount of adjustment. The adjustment under this paragraph (a) (18) shall be in such amount as is necessary to bring the net operating income from the building (expressed as a percentage of annual income after adjustment) to the median net operating income of landlords generally (this median is 30 percent of annual income in the case of buildings containing less than five dwelling units, and 25 percent in the case of buildings containing five or more dwelling units): Provided, however, That where the Expediter determines that the building falls within a class which normally experienced considerably lower percentages of net operating income than the median, he may determine the amount of adjustment on a basis which will yield a lower percentage of net operating income which would be fair and equitable for that class of buildings.

2. Subdivisions (i) and (ii) of § 825.65 (a) (18) are changed in the same manner, except that wherever references are made to §§ 825.1 to 825.12 or any designated portion thereof the references shall be to §§ 825.61 to 825.72 or the similarly designated portions thereof.

3. Subdivisions (i) and (ii) of § 825.85 (a) (11) are also changed in the same manner, except that wherever references are made to paragraph (a) (18) the references shall be to paragraph (a) (11), and wherever references are made to §§ 825.1 to 825.12 or any designated portion thereof the references shall be to §§ 825.81 to 825.92 or the similarly designated portions thereof.

(Sec. 204, 61 Stat. 197, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Supp. 1894)

This amendment shall become effective July 3, 1950.

Issued this 3d day of July 1950.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 52]

CANNED BLUEBERRIES

UNITED STATES STANDARDS[1] FOR GRADES

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision, as herein proposed, of the current United States Standards for Grades of Canned Blueberries or Canned Huckleberries, pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1950 (Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong., approved June 29, 1949). This revision, if made effective, will be the second issue by the Department of grade standards for this product.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed revision should file the same, in duplicate, with the Chief, Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Division, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed revision is as follows:

§ 52.187 Canned blueberries. Canned blueberries are prepared from the properly ripened fresh fruit of the blueberry bush (Genus Vaccinium), including species or varieties often called "huckleberries", but not of the Genus Gaylussacia; are stemmed and washed; are packed with or without the addition of water or sweetening ingredients; and are sufficiently processed by heat to assure preservation of the product in hermetically sealed containers.

(a) Types of canned blueberries. (1) Native (or wild) type.

(2) Cultivated type.

(b) Grades of canned blueberries. (1) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of canned blueberries that possess similar varietal characteristics; that possess a very good color; that are practically free from defects; that possess a good character; that possess a normal flavor and odor; and that score not less than 90 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(2) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Choice" is the quality of canned blueberries that possess similar varietal characteristics; that possess a good color; that are reasonably free from defects; that possess a reasonably good character; that possess a normal flavor and odor; and that score not less than 80 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

[1] The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

(3) "U. S. Grade C" or "U. S. Standard" is the quality of canned blueberries that possess similar varietal characteristics; that possess a fairly good color; that are fairly free from defects; that possess a fairly good character; that possess a normal flavor and odor; and that score not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(4) "U. S. Grade D" or "Substandard" is the quality of canned blueberries that fail to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard.

(c) Recommended designations of liquid media and Brix measurements. "Cut-out" requirements for liquid media are not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since sirup or any other liquid medium, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purpose of these grades.

(1) It is recommended that canned blueberries have the following indicated "cut-out" Brix measurement for the respective designation, which designations include, but are not limited to, the following:

Designations	Brix measurement
Extra heavy sirup	25° or more, but not more than 35°.
Heavy sirup	20° or more, but less than 25°.
Light sirup	15° or more, but less than 20°.
Slightly sweetened water.	Less than 15° Brix.
Water pack (packed in water).

(2) "Brix" means the degrees Brix of the liquid from canned blueberries when tested with a Brix hydrometer calibrated at 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.). If the liquid is tested at a temperature other than 20 degrees C. (68 degrees F.) the applicable temperature correction shall be made to the reading of the scale as prescribed in "Official and Tentative Methods of Analysis of the Association of Official Agricultural Chemists." The degrees Brix of canned blueberries may be determined by any other method which gives equivalent results.

(d) Recommended fill of container. The recommended fill of container is not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since fill of container, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purpose of these grades. It is recommended that each container of canned blueberries be filled with blueberries as full as practicable without impairment of quality and that the product and packing medium occupy not less than 90 percent of the volume of the container.

(e) Recommended minimum drained weight. The minimum drained weight recommendations are not incorporated in the grades of the finished product since drained weight, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purposes of these grades. The drained weight of canned blueberries is determined by emptying the contents of the container upon a United States Standard No. 8 circular sieve of proper diameter containing 8 meshes to the inch (0.0937-inch, ±3%, square openings) so as to distribute the product evenly, inclining the sieve slightly to facilitate drainage, and allowing to drain for two minutes. The drained weight (or drained blueberries) is the weight of the sieve and the blueberries less the weight of the dry sieve. A sieve 8 inches in diameter is used for the equivalent of No. 3 size cans (404 x 414) and smaller, and a sieve 12 inches in diameter is used for containers larger than the equivalent of the No. 3 size can.

TABLE I—RECOMMENDED MINIMUM DRAINED WEIGHTS FOR CANNED BLUEBERRIES

Container designation	Container size (over-all dimensions)		Recommended minimum drained weight
	Width	Height	In any sirup	In water
	Inches	Inches	Ounces	Ounces
300 x 407	3	4 7/16	8¼	8
No. 2	3 7/16	4 9/16	11½	11¼
No. 10	6 3/16	7	61¾	60

(f) Ascertaining the grade. (1) The grade of canned blueberries may be ascertained by considering, in conjunction with the requirements of the respective grade, the respective ratings for the factors of color, absence of defects, and character. The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given such factors are:

Factors:	Points
(i) Color	20
(ii) Absence of defects	40
(iii) Character	40
Total score	100

(2) "Normal flavor and odor" means that the product is free from objectionable odors and objectionable flavors of any kind.

(g) Ascertaining the rating for the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for such factors and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "18 to 20 points" means 18, 19, or 20 points).

(1) Color. (i) Canned blueberries that possess a very good color may be given a score of 18 to 20 points. "Very good color" means a practically uniform, bright, dark blue-purple color typical of blueberries which had been properly processed from well-matured blueberries.

(ii) If the canned blueberries possess a good color, a score of 16 or 17 points may be given. Canned blueberries that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Good color" means a reasonably uniform, dark blue-purple color typical of blueberries which had been properly processed from reasonably well-matured blueberries.

(iii) If the canned blueberries possess a fairly good color, a score of 14 or 15 points may be given. Canned blueberries that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly good color" means a blue-purple color typical of blueberries which had been properly processed and which are not off color for any reason.

(iv) Canned blueberries that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(2) Absence of defects. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from harmless extraneous material (such as leaves and large stems); from clusters; from cap stems or berries with attached cap stems; from green berries, undeveloped berries, or edible berries other than blueberries; and from berries damaged by insect, pathological, or other injury.

(i) "Cap stems" are small stems which attach berries to the branch.

(ii) A "cluster" means three or more joined cap stems with or without berries attached.

(iii) "Cap stems or berries with attached cap stems" means single cap stems or joined double cap stems with or without berries attached. A berry for each cap stem, which does not have a berry attached, is weighed in considering the allowance permitted.

(iv) "Undeveloped berries" are mummified berries with wrinkled or tough skins or which may be pathologically defective.

(v) Canned blueberries that are practically free from defects may be given a score of 36 to 40 points. "Practically free from defects" means that there may be present—

(a) Not more than a total of 2 leaves or large stems, singly or in combination, for each 20 ounces of net weight;

(b) In the Native (or wild) type, not more than an average of 8 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in all containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 12 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in any single container; and, in the cultivated type, not more than an average of 2 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in all containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 3 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in any single container; and

(c) Not more than a total of 5 percent by weight of berries containing any of the following defects: Cap stems or berries with attached cap stems, green berries, undeveloped berries, edible berries other than blueberries, or berries that are damaged: Provided, That—

(1) Not more than 3 percent by weight of the berries may be green berries or undeveloped berries or edible berries other than blueberries: Provided further, That—

(i) Not more than 1 percent by weight of the berries may be undeveloped berries or edible berries other than blueberries.

(vi) If the canned blueberries are reasonably free from defects, a score of 32 to 35 points may be given. Canned blueberries that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" means that there may be present—

(a) Not more than a total of 4 leaves or large stems, singly or in combination, for each 20 ounces of net weight;

(b) In the Native (or wild) type, not more than an average of 18 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in all containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 28 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in any single container; and, in the cultivated type, not more than an average of 5 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in all containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 7 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in any single container; and

(c) Not more than a total of 10 percent by weight of berries containing any of the following defects: Cap stems or berries with attached cap stems, green berries, undeveloped berries, edible berries other than blueberries, or berries that are damaged: Provided, That—

(1) Not more than 5 percent by weight of the berries may be green berries or undeveloped berries or edible berries other than blueberries: Provided further, That—

(i) Not more than 2 percent by weight of the berries may be undeveloped berries or edible berries other than blueberries.

(vii) If the canned blueberries are fairly free from defects, a score of 28 to 31 points may be given. Canned blueberries that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly free from defects" means that there may be present—

(a) Not more than a total of 8 leaves or large stems, singly or in combination, for each 20 ounces of net weight;

(b) In the Native (or wild) type, not more than an average of 28 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in all containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 38 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in any single container; and, in the cultivated type, not more than an average of 7 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in all containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 10 clusters for each 20 ounces of net weight in any single container; and

(c) Not more than a total of 15 percent by weight of berries containing any of the following defects: Cap stems or berries with attached cap stems, green berries, undeveloped berries, edible berries other than blueberries, or berries that are damaged: Provided, That—

(1) Not more than 10 percent by weight of the berries may be green berries or undeveloped berries or edible berries other than blueberries: Provided further, That—

(i) Not more than 3 percent by weight of the berries may be undeveloped berries or edible berries other than blueberries.

(viii) Canned blueberries that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (vii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(3) Character. (i) Canned blueberries that possess a good character may be given a score of 36 to 40 points. "Good character" means that the blueberries are reasonably firm, fleshy, and practically whole and intact with not more than 10 percent by weight of the drained blueberries that may be crushed, mushy, or broken berries.

(ii) If the canned blueberries possess a reasonably good character, a score of 32 to 35 points may be given. Canned blueberries that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good character" means that the blueberries may be lacking in firmness and fleshy texture but are reasonably whole and intact with not more than 15 percent by weight of the drained blueberries that may be crushed, mushy, or broken berries.

(iii) If the canned blueberries possess a fairly good character, a score of 28 to 31 points may be given. Canned blueberries that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly good character" means that the blueberries are fairly whole and intact with not more than 30 percent by weight of the drained blueberries that may be crushed, mushy, or broken berries.

(iv) Canned blueberries that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(h) Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (1) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of canned blueberries, the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of such containers fails to meet all the requirements of the grade indicated by the average of such total scores, and, with respect to such containers which fail to meet the requirements of the indicated grade by reason of a limiting rule, the average score of all containers in the sample for the factor, subject to such limiting rule, is within the range for the grade indicated;

(ii) None of the containers comprising the sample falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores; and

(iii) All containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification.

FROZEN BLUEBERRIES

UNITED STATES STANDARDS[1] FOR GRADES

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision, as herein proposed, of the current United States Standards for Grades of Frozen Blueberries or Frozen Huckleberries, pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (60 Stat. 1087; 7 U. S. C. 1621 et seq.) and the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1950 (Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong., approved June 29, 1949). This revision, if made effective, will be the second issue by the Department of grade standards for this product.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed revision should file the same, in duplicate, with the Chief, Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Division, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed revision is as follows:

§ 52.189 Frozen blueberries. Frozen blueberries are prepared from the properly ripened fresh fruit of the blueberry bush (Genus Vaccinium), including species or varieties often called "huckleberries," but not of the Genus Gaylussacia; are stemmed; may or may not be washed; are packed with or without packing media; and are frozen and stored at temperatures necessary for the preservation of the product.

[1] The requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

(a) Types of frozen blueberries. (1) Native (or wild) type.

(2) Cultivated type.

(b) Grades of frozen blueberries. (1) "U. S. Grade A" or "U. S. Fancy" is the quality of frozen blueberries that possess similar varietal characteristics; that are practically free from defects; that possess a good character; that possess a normal flavor and odor; and are of such quality with respect to color as to score not less than 90 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(2) "U. S. Grade B" or "U. S. Choice" is the quality of frozen blueberries that possess similar varietal characteristics; that possess a good color; that are reasonably free from defects; that possess a reasonably good character; that possess a normal flavor and odor; and that score not less than 80 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(3) "U. S. Grade C" or "U. S. Standard" is the quality of frozen blueberries that possess similar varietal characteristics; that possess a fairly good color; that are fairly free from defects; that possess a fairly good character; that possess a normal flavor and odor; and that score not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this section.

(4) "U. S. Grade D" or "Substandard" is the quality of frozen blueberries that fail to meet the requirements of U. S. Grade D or U. S. Standard.

(c) Ascertaining the grade. (1) The grade of frozen blueberries may be ascertained by considering, in conjunction with the requirements of the respective grade, the respective ratings for the factors of color, absence of defects, and character. The relative importance of each factor which is scored is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given such factors are:

Factors	Points
(i) Color	20
(ii) Absence of defects	40
(iii) Character	40
Total score	100

(2) The scores for the factors of color, absence of defects, and character of frozen blueberries are determined when the product is sufficiently free from ice crystals to permit handling of the blueberries.

(3) "Normal flavor and odor" means that the product is free from objectionable flavors and objectionable odors of any kind.

(d) Ascertaining the rating of the factors which are scored. The essential variations within each factor which is scored are so described that the value may be ascertained for such factors and expressed numerically. The numerical range within each factor which is scored is inclusive (for example, "18 to 20 points" means 18, 19, or 20 points).

(1) Color. (i) Frozen blueberries that possess a very good color may be given a score of 18 to 20 points. "Very good color" means that the blueberries possess a practically uniform, bright, dark blue-purple color typical of properly matured berries for the variety and that there may be present not more than 5 percent by count of berries that possess a red-purple color. Frozen blueberries that are undercolored (not at least red-purple color) or that have a definite green cast are considered "green berries." (See subparagraph (2) (i) of this paragraph.)

(ii) If the frozen blueberries possess a good color, a score of 16 to 17 points may be given. "Good color" means that the blueberries possess a reasonably uniform, dark blue-purple color typical of reasonably well-matured berries for the variety and that there may be present not more than 10 percent by count of berries that possess a red-purple color. Frozen blueberries that are undercolored (not at least red-purple color) or that have a definite green cast are considered "green berries." (See subparagraph (2) (i) of this paragraph.)

(iii) If the frozen blueberries possess a fairly good color, a score of 14 or 15 points may be given. Frozen blueberries that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly good color" means that the blueberries may be moderately variable in color, but are not definitely dull or off color, and there may be present not more than 20 percent by count of berries that possess a red-purple color. Frozen blueberries that are undercolored (not at least red-purple color) or that have a definite green cast are considered "green berries." (See subparagraph (2) (i) of this paragraph.)

(iv) Frozen blueberries that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 13 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(2) Absence of defects. The factor of absence of defects refers to the degree of freedom from harmless extraneous material (such as leaves and large stems); from clusters; from cap stems or berries with attached cap stems; from green berries, undeveloped berries, or edible berries other than blueberries; and from berries damaged by insect, pathological, or other injury.

(i) "Green berries" are blueberries that are undercolored and do not possess at least a red-purple color or that have a definite green cast, even though the over-all color of the berries may not be a true green color.

(ii) "Cap stems" are small stems which attach berries to the branch.

(iii) A "cluster" means three or more joined cap stems with or without berries attached.

(iv) "Cap stems or berries with attached cap stems" means single cap stems or joined double cap stems with or without berries attached. A berry for each cap stem, which does not have a berry attached, is weighed in considering the allowance permitted.

(v) "Undeveloped berries" are mummified berries with wrinkled or tough skins or which may be pathologically defective.

(vi) Frozen blueberries that are practically free from defects may be given a score of 36 to 40 points. "Practically free from defects" means that there may be present—

(a) Not more than 2 leaves or large stems, singly or in combination, for each 12 ounces of net weight.

(b) In the Native (or wild) type, not more than an average of 8 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in all samples or containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 12 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in any single sample or in any single container; and, in the cultivated type, not more than an average of 2 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in all samples or containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 3 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in any single sample or in any single container; and

(c) Not more than a total of 3 percent by weight of berries containing any of the following defects: Cap stems or berries with attached cap stems; green berries, undeveloped berries, or edible berries other than blueberries, or berries that are damaged: Provided, That—

(1) Not more than 1 percent by weight of the berries may be undeveloped berries or may be edible berries other than blueberries.

(vii) If the frozen blueberries are reasonably free from defects, a score of 32 to 35 points may be given. Frozen blueberries that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably free from defects" means that there may be present—

(a) Not more than 4 leaves or large stems, singly or in combination, for each 12 ounces of net weight;

(b) In the Native (or wild) type, not more than an average of 18 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in all samples or containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 28 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in any single sample or in any single container; and, in the cultivated type, not more than an average of 5 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in all samples or containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 7 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in any single sample or in any single container; and

(c) Not more than a total of 6 percent by weight of berries containing any of the following defects: Cap stems or berries with attached cap stems, green berries, undeveloped berries, or edible berries other than blueberries, or berries that are damaged: Provided, That—

(1) Not more than 2 percent by weight of the berries may be undeveloped berries or may be edible berries other than blueberries.

(viii) If the frozen blueberries are fairly free from defects, a score of 28 to 31 points may be given. Frozen blueberries that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly free from defects" means that there may be present—

(a) Not more than 8 leaves or large stems, singly or in combination, for each 12 ounces of net weight;

(b) In the Native (or wild) type, not more than an average of 28 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in all samples or containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 38 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in any single sample or any single container; and, in the cultivated type, not more than an average of 7 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in all samples or containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 10 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in any single sample or any single container; and

(c) Not more than a total of 10 percent by weight of berries containing any of the following defects: Cap stems or berries with attached cap stems, green berries, undeveloped berries, or edible berries other than blueberries, or berries that are damaged: Provided, That—

(1) Not more than 3 percent by weight of the berries may be undeveloped or may be edible berries other than blueberries.

(ix) Frozen blueberries that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (viii) of this subpaagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly free from defects" means that there may be present—

(a) Not more than 8 leaves or large stems, singly or in combination, for each 12 ounces of net weight;

(b) In the Native (or wild) type, not more than an average of 28 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in all samples or containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 38 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in any single sample or any single container; and, in the cultivated type, not more than an average of 7 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in all samples or containers comprising the sample, provided there are no more than 10 clusters for each 12 ounces of net weight in any single sample or any single container; and

(c) Not more than a total of 10 percent by weight of berries containing any of the following defects: Cap stems or berries with attached cap stems, green berries, undeveloped berries, or edible berries other than blueberries, or berries that are damaged: Provided, That—

(1) Not more than 3 percent by weight of the berries may be undeveloped or may be edible berries other than blueberries.

(ix) Frozen blueberries that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (viii) of this subpaagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(3) Character. (i) Frozen blueberries that possess a good character may be given a score of 36 to 40 points. "Good character" means that the blueberries are reasonably firm, fleshy, and practically whole and intact with not more than 6 percent by weight of berries that may be crushed, mushy, or broken.

(ii) If the frozen blueberries possess a reasonably good character, a score of 32 to 35 points may be given. Frozen blueberries that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade B or U. S. Choice, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Reasonably good character" means that the blueberries may be lacking in firmness and fleshy texture but are reasonably whole and intact with not more than 10 percent by weight of berries that may be crushed, mushy, or broken.

(iii) If the frozen blueberries possess a fairly good character, a score of 28 to 31 points may be given. Frozen blueberries that fall into this classification shall not be graded above U. S. Grade C or U. S. Standard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly good character" means that the blueberries are fairly whole and intact with not more than 20 percent by weight of berries that may be crushed, mushy, or broken.

(iv) Frozen blueberries that fail to meet the requirements of subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph may be given a score of 0 to 27 points and shall not be graded above U. S. Grade D or Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

(e) Tolerances for certification of officially drawn samples. (1) When certifying samples that have been officially drawn and which represent a specific lot of frozen blueberries, the grade for such lot will be determined by averaging the total scores of the containers comprising the sample, if:

(i) Not more than one-sixth of such containers fails to meet all the requirements of the grade indicated by the average of such total scores, and, with respect to such containers which fail to meet the requirement of the indicated grade by reason of a limiting rule, the average score of all containers in the sample for the factor, subject to such limiting rule, is within the range for the grade indicated;

(ii) None of the containers comprising the sample falls more than 4 points below the minimum score for the grade indicated by the average of the total scores; and

(iii) All containers comprising the sample meet all applicable standards of quality promulgated under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act and in effect at the time of the aforesaid certification.

IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN NEW JERSEY

NOTICE OF PROPOSED BUDGET AND RATE OF ASSESSMENT

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture is considering the approval of the budget of expenses and rate of assessment hereinafter set forth, which were recommended by the New Jersey Potato Marketing Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 116 and Order No. 98 (15 F. R. 1925, 2036), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in New Jersey, effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051).

Consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are filed in triplicate with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 15 days following publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The proposals are as follows:

§ 998.201 Budget of expenses and rate of assessment. (1) The expenses necessary to be incurred by the New Jersey Potato Marketing Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 116 and Order No. 98, to enable such committee to carry out its functions pursuant to provisions of the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, during the fiscal year ending April 30, 1951, will amount to $26,250;

(2) The rate of assessment to be paid by each handler who first ships potatoes shall be three-quarters of one cent per hundredweight of potatoes handled by him as the first handler thereof during said fiscal year; and

(3) Terms used herein shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 116 and Order No. 98.

(48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051; 15 F. R. 1925, 2036)

MIGRATORY BIRDS AND CERTAIN GAME MAMMALS

OPEN SEASONS, BAG LIMITS, AND POSSESSION OF CERTAIN MIGRATORY GAME BIRDS

Pursuant to section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946 (60 Stat. 237), and the authority contained in section 3 of the Migratory Bird Treaty Act of July 3, 1918 (40 Stat. 755, 16 U. S. C. 704), as amended, notice was given on May 5, 1950 (15 F. R. 2804), that the Secretary of the Interior proposed to adopt amendments to the regulations under the aforesaid act establishing specifications relating to open seasons and shooting hours, bag limits, possession and transportation of migratory game birds and also in connection with the issuance of permits for scientific and propagating purposes.

It now is proposed that with respect to doves (white-winged, mourning or turtle), rails and gallinules, the open seasons (dates inclusive) on such migratory game birds only, the daily bag and possession limits, and the exceptions to the hours of hunting heretofore specified in the regulations (§ 6.4) shall be as shown in the following schedule:

FOREIGN TRADE AND FINANCIAL INVESTMENTS IN JAPAN

The following law, enacted by the Japanese Diet, contains regulations of interest to American citizens. Included is law concerning Foreign Investment, May 2, 1950.

LAW CONCERNING FOREIGN INVESTMENT

(2 May 1950)

	Chapter
General Provisions (Art. 1-9)	I
Filing of Report or Application for Validation of Foreign Investment (Art. 10-14)	II
Remittances Arising from Foreign Investment (Art. 15-16)	III
Protection of Foreign Capital (Art. 17)	IV
Adjustment of Investments and Business Activities by Foreign Investors (Art. 18-19)	V
Miscellaneous Provisions (Art. 20-25)	VI
Penalty Provisions (Art. 26-29)	VII
Supplementary Provisions

CHAPTER I—GENERAL PROVISIONS

PURPOSE

ARTICLE 1. The purpose of this Law is to create a sound basis for foreign investment in Japan, by limiting the induction of foreign investment to that which will contribute to the self-support and sound development of the Japanese economy and to the improvement of the international balance of payments, by providing for remittances arising from foreign investment, and by providing for adequate protection for such investments.

PRINCIPLE CONCERNING FOREIGN INVESTMENT

ART. 2. Foreign investment shall be permitted to be as free as possible, the system of validation, and filing of report pursuant to the provisions of this Law shall be relaxed and eliminated gradually as the necessity for such measures decreases.

DEFINITION

ART. 3. In order to make uniform the application of this Law and orders issued thereunder, the following terminology shall be defined to mean:

(1) "Foreign investors" shall mean—

a. "Exchange non-residents" (excluding juridical persons) as defined in Article 6, item (1) of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Control Law (Law No. 228 of 1949).

b. Any juridical person (corporate body, enterprise) established under foreign law, or having its seat or place of administration in foreign countries, except those designated by the Foreign Investment Commission.

c. Any juridical person (corporate body, enterprise), wholly owned, directly or indirectly, by a person or persons as specified in either item a. or b. above.

d. Any juridical person (corporate body, enterprise), which is in fact controlled by a person or persons as specified in either item a. or b. above.

e. In addition to those as specified in any one of the items a. through d. above, a person or persons as mentioned in Article 2 paragraph 1 of the Cabinet Order concerning the Acquisition of Properties and/or Rights by Foreign Nationals (Cabinet Order No. 51 of 1949).

(2) "Japan," "foreign countries," "national currency," "foreign currency," "exchange residents," "foreign means of payment" and "property" shall mean "Japan," "foreign countries," "national currency," "foreign currency," exchange residents," "foreign means of payment" and "property" as defined in Article 6 paragraph 1 of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Control Law.

(3) "Technological assistance contracts" shall mean contracts concerning the transfer of patent or utility model rights or technologies, license agreement thereof, assistance concerning technical and factory management, and others designated by the Foreign Investment Commission (hereinafter referred to as "technological assistance"), the period covering the payment in return of which is in excess of one year, or in excess of one year in the aggregate as the result of renewal or renewals.

2. In case of doubt as to whether or not a juridical person (corporate body, enterprise) comes under a juridical person stipulated in item (1) c. or d. of the preceding paragraph, it shall be determined by the Foreign Investment Commission.

BALANCE OF PAYMENTS STATEMENT OF EXTERNAL ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

ART. 4. The Minister of Finance shall, as provided for by Cabinet Order, prepare and maintain a balance of payments statement of external assets and liabilities.

2. The Minister of Finance shall submit periodically to the Cabinet the statement prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

3. The Minister of Finance may, as provided for by Cabinet Order, request the government agencies and others concerned to submit data necessary for the drafting of the statement prescribed in paragraph 1.

MEASURES TO BE TAKEN WHEN EXTERNAL LIABILITIES BECOME EXCESSIVE OR WHEN THERE IS DANGER OF DEFAULT

ART. 5. In the event that the amount of external liabilities against the amount of external assets has become excessive and as a consequence a danger exists that necessary payment to a foreign country (including payment by foreign means of payment; the same hereinafter) arising from new investment of foreign capital cannot be made, the Minister of Finance shall report to the Cabinet.

2. In the event that the report mentioned in the preceding paragraph is made, the Foreign Investment Commission or the competent Minister shall not license, validate, approve, or take other administrative action concerning the assuming of new obligations to foreign investors, or the new payment to a foreign country arising from such new obligations, until the Cabinet has decided on the policy to be followed with regard to the said report.

3. In the event that the Cabinet has decided its policy based on the report prescribed in paragraph 1, the Foreign Investment Commission or the competent Minister shall follow such policy when licensing, validating, approving or taking other administrative action concerning to assuming of new obligations to foreign investors, or the new payment to a foreign country arising from such new obligations.

4. The provisions of the preceding two paragraphs shall not be construed to impair the rights acquired by foreign investors on the basis of license, validation, approval and/or other administrative action taken by the Foreign Investment Commission, or by the competent Minister in accordance with the provisions of this and other laws and regulations.

MEASURES REGARDING FOREIGN EXCHANGE BUDGET

ART. 6. The Ministerial Council shall, upon consideration of the balance of payments statement prescribed in Article 4, appropriate in the foreign exchange budget the amount within which payment to a foreign country may be made of obligations assumed as the result of contracts prescribed in this law.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF TECHNOLOGICAL ASSISTANCE DESIRED

ART. 7. The Foreign Investment Commission shall, in accordance with its Regulation, make public a list of the kinds of technologies concerning which technological assistance from foreign investors is desired.

2. The Foreign Investment Commission may revise from time to time the list made public in accordance with the preceding paragraph.

STANDARDS OF VALIDATION, LICENSE OR RECOMMENDATION

ART. 8. The Foreign Investment Commission or the Minister of Finance shall apply the following standards on validating or licensing contracts prescribed in this Law, and preference shall be given to those which will most speedily and effectively contribute to an improvement of the international balance of payments.

(1) Directly or indirectly contributing to the improvement of the international balance of payments, or

(2) Directly or indirectly contributing to the development of essential industries or public enterprises, or

(3) Necessary for the revival or continuation of existing technological assistance contracts concerning essential industries or public enterprises.

2. The Foreign Investment Commission or the Minister of Finance shall not validate or license contracts prescribed in this Law which fall under any one of the following paragraphs:

(1) Contracts the provisions of which are not fair, or are in contravention of laws and regulations.

(2) Contracts which are deemed to be entered into or renewed in a manner not free from fraud, duress or undue influence.

(3) When deemed to have an adverse effect on the rehabilitation of Japanese economy.

(4) In the event that national currency is used in payment for the acquisition of debentures, claimable assets arising from loans, stock or proprietary interest, unless the said national currency is that which has been legally acquired from exchange of foreign means of payment for the purpose of the said acquisition, of that which has been obtained through authorized business activities in Japan, or otherwise legally obtained.

3. The provisions of the preceding two paragraphs shall be applied mutatis mutandis in the event that the Foreign Investment Commission recommends license, validation or approval pursuant to the provisions of this Law.

STATEMENT CONCERNING REMITTANCE STIPULATION

ART. 9. In the event that a foreign investor desires to receive payment in return for technological assistance, interest or amortization of principal of debentures or claimable assets arising from loans, by payment to a foreign country, the said effect shall be so stated in the contracts concerning technological assistance, subscription to debentures, or loans.

2. In the event that a foreign investor desires to receive payment of dividends, interest or amortization of principal debentures, by payment to a foreign country, the said effect shall be so stated in the applications to the Foreign Investment Commission for validation of acquisition of stock, proprietary interest, or debentures from which such dividends, interest or amortization of principal arise.

CHAPTER II—FILING OF REPORT OR APPLICATION FOR VALIDATION OF FOREIGN INVESTMENT

VALIDATION OF TECHNOLOGICAL ASSISTANCE CONTRACTS

ART. 10. In the event that a foreign investor and the other party undertake to enter into or renew technological assistance contracts (such renewals shall be limited to those which extend the period of payment in the aggregate for a period in excess of one year, the same definition shall be understood hereinafter), validation from the Foreign Investment Commission shall be obtained in accordance with its Regulations.

VALIDATION OR FILING OF REPORT OF ACQUISITION OF STOCK OR PROPRIETARY INTEREST

ART. 11. A foreign investor desirous of acquiring stock or proprietary interest in a juridical person established under Japanese Law (except in cases requiring prior report pursuant to the provisions of the following paragraph) shall obtain validation from the Foreign Investment Commission in accordance with its Regulations.

2. A foreign investor desirous of acquiring stock or proprietary interest in a juridical person established under Japanese Law whose acquisition falls under any one of the following items, and who does not desire to receive dividends arising from such stock or proprietary interest by payment to a foreign country shall file prior report with the Foreign Investment Commission in accordance with its Regulations.

(1) New stock or proprietary interest allotted on the strength of legally owned stock or proprietary interest.

(2) Stock or proprietary interest transferred from one foreign investor to another.

3. The provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not in any way affect restrictions pursuant to the provisions of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Control Law.

4. The provisions of paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not be applied in cases where a foreign investor receives restoration of stock or proprietary interest pursuant to the provisions of the Cabinet Order concerning Restoration of United Nations' Shares (Cabinet Order No. 310 of 1949), or of the Imperial Ordinance concerning the Restitution, Etc. of Allied Nationals Property (Imperial Ordinance No. 294 of 1946).

ART. 12. Unless authorized as provided for by Cabinet Order, the Foreign Investment Commission shall not validate the acquisition of stock or proprietary interest pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 of the preceding Article unless the said acquisition meets with any one of the requirements of the following subparagraphs:

(1) When creating additional assets of the juridical person concerned, or

(2) If not creating additional assets of the juridical person concerned, when the said acquisition constitutes a part of the investment plan of the foreign investor, and is made with national currency which is legally obtained from the conversion of foreign means of payment for the said purpose.

VALIDATION OF ACQUISITION OF DEBENTURES, ETC.

ART. 13. In the event that a foreign investor desires to acquire debentures of a juridical person established under Japanese Law, or to acquire claimable assets arising from loans, and such acquisition is associated with other matters requiring validation by the Foreign Investment Commission, the said acquisition is also subject to validation by the Foreign Investment Commission in accordance with its Regulations.

2. In the event that an application for validation has been submitted pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it shall be deemed that application to the Minister of Finance has been made pursuant to the provisions of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Control Law.

3. The Foreign Investment Commission shall not make validation pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 until license from the Minister of Finance has been issued with regard to the application deemed to have been submitted pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph.

STIPULATION OF CONDITIONS

ART. 14. The Foreign Investment Commission may, on making validation pursuant to the provisions of this law, stipulate conditions upon which validation is based.

2. In the event that the competent Minister as prescribed by the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Control Law indicates to the Foreign Investment Commission conditions with reference to payment to a foreign country relating to matters requiring validation by the Foreign Investment Commission pursuant to the provisions of this Law, the Foreign Investment Commission shall include the said conditions in the conditions prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

CHAPTER III—REMITTANCES ARISING FROM FOREIGN INVESTMENT

REMITTANCE OF PAYMENT IN RETURN FOR TECHNOLOGICAL ASSISTANCE, ETC.

ART. 15. In the event that receipt by payment to a foreign country is expressly stated, in accordance with the provisions of Article 9, of return of technological assistance, dividends, interest or amortization of principal, and validation by the Foreign Investment Commission is obtained pursuant to the provisions of this Law, the said payment to a foreign country shall be deemed to be authorized pursuant to the provisions of Article 27 of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Control Law, subject to the conditions stipulated by the Foreign Investment Commission, if any, pursuant to the provisions of the preceding Article.

2. Unless authorized as provided for by Cabinet Order, the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall not apply to payment to a foreign country of dividends, interest or amortization of principal resulting from foreign investments made in national currency acquired other than by conversion of foreign means of payment, or the equivalent thereof.

RECOMMENDATIONS CONCERNING REMITTANCE OF PROFITS ARISING FROM BUSINESS ACTIVITIES

ART. 16. Matters concerning licensing of payment to a foreign country of profits arising from legitimate business activities in Japan of exchange residents shall be referred beforehand by the competent Minister to the Foreign Investment Commission; the Foreign Investment Commission shall make recommendation thereon so as to assure equitable treatment compared with payments to a foreign country arising from matters requiring validation by the Foreign Investment Commission.

2. The above shall not apply in cases of minor importance, or other cases prescribed by Foreign Investment Commission Regulations.

3. The competent Minister shall respect the recommendations of the Foreign Investment Commission on licensing the said payments to a foreign country.

CHAPTER IV—PROTECTION OF FOREIGN CAPITAL

PROTECTION OF FOREIGN CAPITAL

ART. 17. In the event that the government, local public entities or other duly authorized persons expropriates or compulsorily purchases, on and after the enforcement of this Law, pursuant to procedures prescribed in a law other than the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Control Law, the whole or a part of property legally owned in Japan by a foreign investor, the necessary funds shall be appropriated in the foreign exchange budget in order to assure payment to a foreign country of the amount receivable by the said foreign investor as the result of the said expropriation or compulsory purchase for the period of one year from the day of the receipt of the said amount.

2. In the event that a foreign investor uses the funds appropriated in the foreign exchange budget pursuant to the provisions of the preceding paragraph, it shall be deemed that payment to a foreign country has been authorized pursuant to the provisions of Article 27 of the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Control Law.

3. In the event that the whole or a part of the assets of a juridical person which is in fact controlled by a foreign investor through ownership of stock or proprietary interest, is expropriated or compulsorily purchased as prescribed in paragraph 1, above, similar treatment to that prescribed in the provisions of the preceding two paragraphs shall be extended to the stock or proprietary interest involved pursuant to the provisions of a law to be enacted separately.

CHAPTER V—ADJUSTMENT OF INVESTMENTS AND BUSINESS ACTIVITIES BY FOREIGN INVESTORS

REFERENCE TO CABINET

ART. 18. In the event that government agencies (government agencies other than the Fair Trade Commission, as defined in Article 3 paragraph 2 and Article 24 of the National Government Law (Law No. 120 of 1948); the same hereinafter) request Cabinet decision concerning important matters regarding investments or business activities of foreign investors, the said matters shall be referred beforehand to the Foreign Investment Commission.

2. The Foreign Investment Commission shall transmit its opinions concerning the matters mentioned in the preceding paragraphs to the Cabinet.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF FOREIGN INVESTMENT COMMISSION

ART. 19. In the event that government agencies propose to license, validate, approve or take other administrative action with regard to investments or business activities of foreign investors, they shall refer the matters beforehand to the Foreign Investment Commission and request recommendations thereon. However, the above shall not apply in cases of minor importance of other cases prescribed by Foreign Investment Commission Regulation.

2. Government agencies, in taking administrative actions mentioned in the preceding paragraph, shall respect the recommendations of the Foreign Investment Commissions.

CHAPTER VI—MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

APPEAL

ART. 20. Any person aggrieved by the action taken by the Foreign Investment Commission pursuant to the provisions of this Law, may appeal to the Foreign Investment Commission by filing a petition in writing stating the substance of his grievance.

HEARING

ART. 21. The Foreign Investment Commission upon receiving such petition as mentioned in the preceding Article shall afford to the petitioner an opportunity for public hearing after reasonable advance notice.

2. The Notice mentioned in the preceding paragraph shall state the time, place and issues involved.

3. At the hearing, opportunity shall be afforded the petitioner and all interested persons to present evidence and argument with respect to the said issue.

DECISION

ART. 22. The Foreign Investment Commission shall make the decision on the issues in writing, and copies thereof shall be delivered to the petitioner and other interested persons.

RULES OF PROCEDURE

ART. 23. Appropriate rules of procedure for appeals, notice, hearing and decision shall be provided for by Cabinet Order.

REPORTS

ART. 24. A foreign investor or the other contracting party shall report to the Foreign Investment Commission in accordance with its Regulation, when after having filed report or obtained validation as prescribed in the provisions of this Law, contract has been entered into or renewed, or stock or proprietary interest has been acquired.

POWERS, ETC. OF FAIR TRADE COMMISSION

ART. 25. The provisions of this Law, or the powers of the Foreign Investment Commission pursuant to the provisions of this Law, shall not be construed to modify the provisions of the Law relating to Prohibition of Private Monopoly and Method of Preserving Fair Trade (Law No. 54 of 1947) or of the Trade Association Law (Law No. 191 of 1948), or the powers of the Fair Trade Commission pursuant to the said Laws.

CHAPTER VII—PENALTY PROVISIONS

ART. 26. Any person who comes under any one of the following subparagraphs shall be liable to penal servitude not exceeding three (3) years or to fine not exceeding three hundred thousand (300,000) yen, or to both.

(1) Any person who has violated the provisions of Article 10.

(2) Any person who has violated the provisions of Article 11 paragraph 1.

(3) Any person who has violated the provisions of Article 13 paragraph 1.

ART. 27. Any person who has failed to file report pursuant to the provisions of Article 11 paragraph 2, or has filed false report and acquired stock or proprietary interest pursuant to the said paragraph shall be liable to penal servitude not exceeding one (1) year, or to fine not exceeding one hundred thousand (100,000) yen, or to both.

ART. 28. Any person who has failed to make report pursuant to the provisions of Article 24 or has made false report shall be liable to penal servitude not exceeding six (6) months or to fine not exceeding fifty thousand (50,000) yen.

ART. 29. When a representative of a juridical person (including organizations as defined in Article 3 paragraph 1 item (1), the same definition being understood in this paragraph), or an agent, employee or other worker engaged by a juridical person or a natural person, has committed acts in contravention of the preceding three Articles in regard to the business or property of such juridical person or natural person, the juridical person or natural person shall be liable to a fine specified in each Article in addition to the punishment of the offender. However, the above shall not apply when it is proved that due care and supervision has been exercised over the said business or property in order to prevent the aforesaid contraventions committed by an agent, employee or other worker engaged by the juridical person or natural person.

2. In case a juridical person as specified in Article 3 is to be punished, its representative or custodian shall represent it in its court action and the provisions of the laws concerning criminal prosecution applicable to an accused or suspect person shall apply mutatis mutandis.

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

1. The effective date of this Law shall be prescribed by Cabinet Order, provided that such date shall not be later than 30 days as from the date of promulgation.

2. With regard to contracts prescribed in Article 10, in the event that validation has been obtained under the provisions of the said Article, the provisions of Article 3 paragraph 1 of the Cabinet Order concerning Acquisition of Properties and/or Rights by Foreign Nationals shall not be applied to the acquisition of property pursuant to the said contracts.

3. With regard to application from foreign nationals for acquisition of stock or proprietary interest pursuant to the provisions of the Cabinet Order concerning the Acquisition of Properties and/or Rights by Foreign Nationals filed prior to the enforcement of this Law and concerning which the Foreign Investment Commission has not yet completed action of validation or non-validation, in the event that matters relating to such applications require filing of report pursuant to the provisions of Article 11 paragraph 2, such applications shall be deemed to be filing of report pursuant to the provisions of the said paragraph, and in other cases, the said applications shall be deemed to have been filed pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 1 of the said Article.

4. The Cabinet Order concerning Acquisition of Properties and/or Rights by Foreign Nationals shall be amended partially as follows:

"stock and shared or" in Article 3 paragraph 1 item (1) shall be deleted. "or of the Cabinet Order concerning Restoration of United Nations' Shares (Cabinet Order No. 310 of 1949)" in Article 6 item (2) shall be deleted, and "restitution or restoration claim" in the said item shall be amended as "restitution claim"; item (5) of the said Article shall be amended as follows: (5) Deleted.

"the Cabinet Order concerning Restitution of property for J. & P. Coates, Limited (Cabinet Order No. 46 of 1949), or the Cabinet Order concerning Restoration of United Nations' Shares" shall be amended as "or the Cabinet Order concerning Restitution of property for J. & P. Coates, Limited (Cabinet Order No. 46 of 1949)", and "transfer or restoration" shall be amended as "or transfer" in Article 10 paragraph 1.

5. As to an act which was committed prior to the enforcement of this Law and which is in contravention of the provisions of the Cabinet Order concerning the Acquisition of Properties and/or Rights by Foreign Nationals prior to amendment by the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the application of penal provisions shall be as heretofore.

Bureau of Land Management

[Misc. 53388]

IDAHO

ORDER PROVIDING FOR OPENING OF PUBLIC LANDS RESTORED FROM BOISE PROJECT

JUNE 30, 1950.

An order of the Bureau of Reclamation dated July 28, 1949, concurred in by the Director, Bureau of Land Management, September 14, 1949, revoked the Departmental Orders of March 5 and December 22, 1903, and April 15, 1919, so far as they withdrew in the first form prescribed by section 3 of the Reclamation Act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388), the following-described lands in connection with the Boise Project, Idaho, and provided that such revocation shall not affect the withdrawal of any other lands by said order or affect any other order withdrawing or reserving the lands described:

BOISE MERIDIAN

T. 5 N., R. 4 W.,
Sec. 3, SE¼NE¼, SE¼SW¼, NW¼SE¼, S½SE¼;
Sec. 4, SW¼SE¼;
Sec. 5, Lots 3, 4, S½NW¼;
Sec. 8, NW¼NE¼;
Sec. 9, W½NE¼.
T. 4 N., R. 6 W.,
Sec. 2, Lots 1, 2, 6, 7, S½NE¼, SE¼NW¼, E½SW¼, NE¼SE¼, W½SE¼;
Sec. 11, NW¼NE¼.

The above areas aggregate 985.90 acres.

The lands are grazing in character, but because of their location are chiefly valuable for exchange purposes.

No applications for these lands may be allowed under the homestead, small tract, desert-land, or any other nonmineral public-land laws, unless the lands have already been classified as valuable or suitable for such type of application, or shall be so classified upon consideration of an application.

This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of such lands until 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order. At that time the said lands shall, subject to valid existing rights and the provisions of existing withdrawals, become subject to application, petition, location, and selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-one day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 91 days, commencing at the hour and on the day specified above, the public lands affected by this order shall be subject only to (1) application under the homestead or the desert-land laws or the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, 52 Stat. 609 (43 U. S. C. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II and other qualified persons entitled to preference under the act of September 27, 1944, 58 Stat. 747 (43 U. S. C. 279–284), as amended, subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Applications under subdivision (1) of this paragraph shall be subject to applications and claims of the classes described in subdivision (2) of this paragraph. All applications filed under this paragraph either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 35th day after the date of this order shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at that time. All applications filed under this paragraph after 10:00 a. m. on the said 35th day shall be considered in the order of filing.

(b) Date for non-preference-right filings. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, any lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, selection, or other appropriation by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws. All such applications filed either at or before 10:00 a. m. on the 126th day after the date of this order, shall be treated as though filed simultaneously at the hour specified on such 126th day. All applications filed thereafter shall be considered in the order of filing.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the Land and Survey Office, Boise, Idaho, shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and Part 296 of that title, to the extent that such regulations are applicable. Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 166 to 170, inclusive, of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and applications under the desert-land laws and the said Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 232 and 257, respectively, of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land and Survey Office, Boise, Idaho.

Office of Industry and Commerce

[Case No. 84]

ROLF G. GROTE

ORDER SUSPENDING LICENSE PRIVILEGES

In the matter of: Rolf G. Grote, 1482 York Avenue, New York, N. Y., respondent; Case No. 84.

This proceeding was begun by the mailing of a charging letter dated November 29, 1949, in which the above-named respondent was charged with having violated section 6 of the act of July 2, 1940 (54 Stat. 714), as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder. It was alleged in such charging letter that respondent had procured the issuance of an export license and the authentication of shipper's export declarations for the exportation of large quantities of tetra methyl thiuram disulfide and tetra ethyl thiuram disulfide to Switzerland on the basis of representations that Switzerland was the country of ultimate destination whereas respondent knew that such commodities were being purchased for transshipment to Russia. It was further alleged that respondent did in fact make exportation in accordance with such license and declarations and that such commodities were in fact transshipped to Russia.

Respondent having filed an answer denying the charges and requesting an oral hearing, such hearing was held in Washington on December 21, 1949, at which respondent personally appeared and testified and at which both respondent and the Enforcement Staff were represented by counsel. Oral and documentary evidence was received and, subsequent to the hearing, under date of February 16, 1950, respondent's counsel filed a brief. All of such material has been carefully considered by the Compliance Commissioner and on the basis thereof he filed his report under date of April 28, 1950. Inasmuch as the delegation of authority to administer export control was subsequently transferred by order of the Secretary of Commerce from the Office of International Trade to the Office of Industry and Commerce, this proceeding, together with the Compliance Commissioner's report, was similarly transferred.

It appears from the record and the report of the Compliance Commissioner that respondent is, and at all times relevant to this proceeding was, an individual engaged in New York City in export trade; that on or about July 1, 1948, respondent filed with the Office of International Trade an application for a license to export a total of 231,500 pounds of the above-described commodities to a consignee in Switzerland and therein represented that Switzerland was the country of ultimate destination; that on or about July 12, 1948, the Office of International Trade issued to respondent an export license in the terms of such application; that during the months of August and September 1948, respondent exported such quantity of such commodities from the United States and, in the course of such exportation, filed with U. S. Customs nine shipper's export declarations in which respondent certified that shipment was being made to Switzerland as the country of ultimate destination; and that, upon arrival of such commodities at Antwerp, Belgium, ostensibly enroute to Switzerland, they were transhipped to Russia.

It further appears from the record and the report of the Compliance Commissioner that respondent, prior to making the above-described exportations, received from the Swiss consignee a copy of a document in the German language in which such consignee guaranteed to the Russian Government that the commodities to be shipped would correspond with samples previously furnished to the Russian Legation in Bern, Switzerland; that respondent was thereby put on notice of the fact that the ultimate purchaser was Russia and that transshipment to Russia would take place; that respondent nevertheless failed to notify the Office of International Trade or the Bureau of Customs of such knowledge as had come to him but, on the contrary, proceeded to make shipment under the pretended authority of the export license and pursuant to export declarations describing Switzerland as the country of ultimate destination; and that respondent thereby made false representations to the Office of International Trade directly and through the Bureau of Customs, effected exportation contrary to the terms of the export license to a country not authorized by such license, and thus violated the laws and regulations relating to export control.

The Compliance Commissioner has accordingly recommended that all outstanding export licenses issued to or in the name of respondent be revoked and ordered to be returned for cancellation; that respondent be henceforth denied the privilege of obtaining or using or participating directly or indirectly in the obtaining or using of export licenses, including general as well as validated export licenses, for the shipment to any destination of any commodities included in the Positive List as promulgated by the Office of Industry and Commerce and as such Positive List may from time to time be constituted; that respondent be permitted, however, to apply to the Office of Industry and Commerce at any time after the expiration of four months for reinstatement of such license privileges; and that such suspension of export license privileges extend not only to respondent but also to any person, trade name, firm, corporation, or other business association with which he may be now or hereafter related by ownership or control or with which he may hold a position of responsibility involving the preparation, filing or use of any export control documents.

The findings and recommendations of the Compliance Commissioner have been carefully considered, together with the record in this proceeding, and it appears that such findings are supported by the record and that such recommendations are reasonable and should be adopted. Now, therefore, it is ordered, As follows:

(1) All outstanding export licenses issued to or in the name of respondent are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Office of Industry and Commerce for cancellation.

(2) Respondent is hereby henceforth denied the privilege of obtaining or using or participating directly or indirectly in the obtaining or using of export licenses, including general as well as validated export licenses, for shipment from the United States of any commodities contained in the Positive List as promulgated by the Office of Industry and Commerce and as such Positive List may from time to time be constituted: Provided, however, That respondent may, at any time after expiration of four months from the date of this order, apply to the Office of Industry and Commerce for reinstatement of such license privileges.

(3) Such suspension of export license privileges shall extend not only to respondent but also to any person, trade name, firm, corporation, or other business association with which he may be now or hereafter related by ownership or control or with which he may hold a position of responsibility involving the preparation, filing or use of any export control documents.

Issued this 3d day of July 1950.

Issuance Officer.

[Case No. 86]

INDIEX TRADE SERVICE, INC.

ORDER SUSPENDING LICENSE PRIVILEGES

In the matter of Indiex Trade Service, Inc., H. I. Neumann, 94-05 35th Avenue, Jackson Heights, Long Island, N. Y.; Alfred Landau, 593 Riverside Drive, New York, N. Y.; respondents; Case No. 86.

This proceeding was begun by the mailing of a charging letter to the above-named respondents under date of October 24, 1949, wherein respondents, together with others were charged with having violated section 6 of the act of July 2, 1940 (54 Stat. 714), as amended, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, by exporting large quantities of caustic soda from the United States to Venezuela under the purported authority of export licenses issued to others and which in one instance authorized exportation to a consignee and destination other than those to which shipment was in fact made and in another instance authorized shipment of a lesser quantity than was in fact exported.

Respondents having submitted written answers denying the charges and requesting an oral hearing, hearings were held before the Compliance Commissioner in New York City on December 15 and 16, 1949, January 6, 1950, and April 6, 1950, at which respondents as well as the Enforcement Staff were represented by counsel and at which extensive testimony and documentary evidence were received. The record so made has been carefully examined by the Compliance Commission and on the basis thereof he duly filed his report under date of May 24, 1950. Inasmuch as the delegation of authority to administer export control was subsequently transferred by order of the Secretary of Commerce from the Office of International Trade to the Office of Industry and Commerce, this proceeding, together with the Compliance Commissioner's report, was similarly transferred.

It appears from the record and the report of the Compliance Commissioner that respondent Indiex Trade Service, Inc., was, at the time of the transactions herein involved, a corporation engaged in export trade in New York City; that respondent Landau was president and treasurer of said corporation, owned 51 percent of its stock, and was the individual principally responsible for the transactions herein involved; that respondent Neumann was vice-president of said corporation, owned 49 percent of its stock, and, although familiar with the transactions herein involved, did not participate actively in them; that said corporation was legally dissolved on May 20, 1949; and that respondents Landau and Neumann are still engaged in the export business in New York City, Landau being in business for himself, but Neumann being employed by an independent concern.

It further appears from the record and the report of the Compliance Commissioner that during December 1947, respondents exported to a consignee in Venezuela approximately 100,000 pounds of caustic soda under the pretended authority of an export license which authorized exportation neither by respondents nor to the consignee in Venezuela; that respondents had procured such license from their suppliers, who likewise were not parties to the license, and had appropriated and used such license without amendment to effect exportation with knowledge that it did not so authorize; and that exportation was effected under shipper's export declarations which falsely declared such shipments as partial shipments and falsely described respondents as agents for the licensee named in such license.

It further appears from the record and the report of the Compliance Commissioner that, during February and March 1948, respondents made further exportation of approximately 200,000 pounds of caustic soda to such consignee in Venezuela under the prentended authority of an export license issued to their suppliers and which, while authorizing exportation to such consignee in Venezuela, permitted such exportation in the amount of only 80,000 pounds; that respondents appropriated and used such license without amendment to make such excessive shipments with knowledge that it did not so authorize; and that exportation was effected under shipper's export declarations which falsely declared all such shipments as partial shipments and falsely described respondents as the licensed exporters.

It further appears from the record and the report of the Compliance Commissioner that, although it has proved to be impossible to determine from the evidence the devices by which respondents secured clearance of such shipments through Customs and thus accomplished such illegal exportations, respondents knowingly made such exportations as unlicensed exporters and, in the one case, to an unlicensed consignee in an unlicensed country of destination, and, in the other case, in quantities far in excess of the quantity licensed; that respondents made such exportations pursuant to knowingly falsified shipper's export declarations and thus made or were responsible for the making of false representations; and that respondents thereby did knowingly violate the laws and regulations relating to export control.

The Compliance Commissioner has accordingly recommended that all outstanding export licenses issued to respondents be revoked and returned for cancellation; that respondents be denied export license privileges insofar as concerns shipment of any Positive List commodities for a period of six months in the case of respondents Indiex Trade Service, Inc., and Landau, and for a period of three months in the case of respondent Neumann; and that such denial of license privileges extend not only to respondents but also to any concern with which they may be related by ownership or control or with which they may hold a position of responsibility in the conduct of export trade.

The findings and recommendations of the Compliance Commissioner have been carefully considered, together with the record in this proceeding, and it appears that such findings are supported by the record and that such recommendations are reasonable and should be adopted. Now, therefore, it is ordered, As follows:

(1) All outstanding export licenses issued to or held by respondents or any of them are hereby revoked and shall be returned forthwith to the Office of Industry and Commerce for cancellation.

(2) Respondents and each of them are hereby denied the privilege of obtaining or using or participating directly or indirectly in the obtaining or using of export licenses, including general as well as validated export licenses, for the shipment to any destination of any commodity appearing on the Positive List of commodities as promulgated by the Office of Industry and Commerce and as such Positive List may from time to time be constituted, such denial to run from the date of this order and to continue for a period of six months in the case of respondents Indiex Trade Service, Inc., and Landau, and for a period of three months in the case of respondent Neumann.

(3) Such suspension of license privileges shall extend not only to said respondents but also to any person, trade name, firm, corporation or other business association with which they or any of them may be now or hereafter related by ownership or control or with which they or any of them may now or hereafter hold a position of responsibility involving the preparing, filing, or using of any export control documents.

Issued this 3d day of July 1950.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-1390]

HOPE NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

JUNE 29, 1950.

On May 9, 1950, Hope Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a West Virginia corporation having its principal place of business in Clarksburg, West Virginia, filed an application for an order pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, permitting and approving the abandonment of certain natural gas transmission pipeline facilities subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as described in such application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, Applicant having requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for noncontested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest or petition having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 19, 1950 (15 F. R. 3072).

The Commission orders: (A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on July 20, 1950, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application: Provided however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State Commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: June 30, 1950.

DELTA NATURAL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JUNE 30, 1950.

Take notice that on June 19, 1950, Delta Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Kentucky corporation with its principal place of business in Stanton, Kentucky, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity and an amendment thereto on June 28, 1950, requesting an order under section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, directing Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company to sell and deliver such reasonable quantities of gas to Applicant as may be required to operate its feeder transmission and distribution systems, as an alternative to a request for an order dismissing said application for a want of jurisdiction, for the construction and operation of the following described facilities:

(A) Approximately 38,500 feet of 3-inch natural-gas transmission pipeline extending from a point of connection on Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company's transmission line "E-14" in Montgomery County to Owingsville, Bath County, Kentucky, together with appurtenant facilities.

(B) Approximately 8,400 feet of 2-inch natural-gas transmission pipeline extending from a point of connection on Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company's transmission line "E-10" in Menifee County, Kentucky, to Frenchburg, Kentucky, together with appurtenant facilities.

Applicant states it proposes to construct and operate natural gas distribution systems in the cities of Owingsville and Frenchburg, Kentucky; and in order to supply the said distribution systems with natural gas it proposes to construct and operate the above described pipelines from the respective cities to the transmission lines of Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company, for the transportation of natural gas having its origin in States other than Kentucky, and flowing in interstate commerce through and from the lines of Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company to the distribution systems to be constructed and operated in said cities. Subsequent to the filing of the application, Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company withdrew the gas sales contract dated March 3, 1950, because of a stated change in conditions, and now refuses to sell and deliver gas to the Applicant.

The estimated over-all capital cost of the project inclusive of $5,753 for working capital is $130,000 (transmission and distribution mains—$82,000, regulating equipment—$3,000, meters and regulators—$12,000).

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 21st day of July 1950. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

[Docket No. G-1423]

NATURAL GAS PIPELINE CO. OF AMERICA

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JUNE 29, 1950.

Take notice that Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business at Chicago, Illinois, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of natural gas facilities described as follows: Approximately 6.7 miles of 3-inch natural-gas pipeline extending from a point of connection with Applicant's 24 inch and 20 inch transmission pipelines located in section 31, Township 74 North, Range 30 West, Adair County, Iowa, to its Crescent meter station, in Union County, Iowa, looping the existing 2 inch pipeline along the route.

Applicant states that the purpose of the proposed facilities is to maintain more adequate service to the Central States Electric Company serving Crescent, Greenfield, Knoxville, Pella and Muscatine, Iowa, and that the existing 2 inch pipeline is inadequate in size to accomplish that purpose.

The estimated total cost of the facilities is $71,485, which costs will be financed from funds on hand.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.10) on or before the 20th day of July, 1950. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

[Docket No. G-1424]

UNITED FUEL GAS CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JUNE 30, 1950.

Take notice that on June 21, 1950 United Fuel Gas Company (Applicant), a West Virginia corporation having its principal office in Charleston, West Virginia, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of the following described natural-gas facilities all in West Virginia:

(1) Approximately 3½ miles of 10¾-inch O. D. gas transmission pipeline extending from Applicant's Kanawha Compressor Station near Nitro, West Virginia to Applicant's Line X-15-M-1, serving Storage Pool X-15.

(2) Approximately 2-miles of 10¾-inch O. D. gas transmission pipeline extending from the 24-inch line of Tennessee Gas Transmission Corporation to Hunt Compressor Station (Storage Pool X-54), near Hunt, West Virginia.

(3) An 880 hp. Compressor Station, together with auxiliary units and appurtenant equipment, located in Storage Pool X-54, near Hunt, West Virginia.

(4) A 300 hp. Compressor Station, together with auxiliary units and appurtenant equipment, located in Storage Pool X-8.

(5) A 5,280 hp. Compressor Station, together with auxiliary units and appurtenant equipment, located in Storage Pool X-52, near Coco, West Virginia.

Applicant states facilities described above in Items (2) and (3) will be operated upon activation of Storage Pool X-54 for the transportation of gas from Tennessee's line to said storage pool; facilities described in Items (1) and (4) will be used for injecting additional volumes of gas into Storage Pools X-15, X-7 and X-8; and facilities described in Item 5 will be used for the purpose of delivering gas from Applicant's Storage Pool X-52 during the winter of 1950-51 and succeeding winters, as well as the injection of gas in the summer of 1951 and succeeding summers. Deliveries from Storage Pool X-52 will be made to Cobb Compressor Station from which point gas will be distributed to the Cobb-Rockville 26-inch line, Line T, TM-7, and other existing lines for delivery to present markets. The new facilities are proposed to be operated in conjunction with existing facilities in accordance with Applicant's general method of operation as may be required to meet market and storage demands.

The estimated total capital cost of the proposed facilities is $2,464,800, and will be financed by the issuance and sale to Applicant's parent company, The Columbia Gas System, Inc., of registered 3¼ percent installment promissory notes.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 21st day of July 1950. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

[Docket No. G-1425]

VALLEY GAS PIPE LINE CO., INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JULY 3, 1950.

Take notice that on June 22, 1950, Valley Gas Pipe Line Co., Inc. (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in Houston, Texas, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing Applicant to construct and operate the following-described natural-gas facilities:

A natural-gas transportation system consisting of a 24-inch line beginning in the area of Berclair, Goliad County, Texas; thence running northeast to the area of Saratoga, Hardin County, Texas, and there connecting with a 24-inch line which will originate in the Vermilion Bay area of the State of Louisiana, run southward into the Gulf of Mexico 10 miles and thence westward in the Gulf of Mexico, roughly parallel with the shore line of the State of Louisiana to the Sabin Pass area of the State of Texas, and northward to join with the line from Goliad County at Saratoga, as above indicated; from Saratoga a 30-inch line will run northeast to Arcadia, Louisiana; thence to El Dorado, Arkansas; Jonesboro, Arkansas; Cape Girardeau, Missouri; Lawrenceville, Illinois; Terre Haute, Indiana; Atlanta, Indiana; and thence north by northeast, terminating in southern Michigan; with the following initial compressor station: No. 4, near the City of Saratoga, Texas; No. 8, near the City of Poplar Bluff, Missouri; together with such telephone lines, radio facilities, houses for employees, and other equipment and appurtenances necessary or convenient for the efficient operation of such system.

Applicant states that it proposes to initiate the construction of such system on or before December 31, 1950, and to complete the same on or before April 1, 1952.

The application recites that in due course the company expects to sell and deliver 150,000 Mcf of gas per day in the States of Indiana and Ohio, and 355,000 Mcf per day in the State of Michigan, thus augmenting the supply of natural gas presently available to a population of approximately 9,000,000 people; that initial contracts for the sale of 330,000 Mcf per day are presently assured; and that applicant proposes to construct the proposed pipe-line system to include a new source of supply of gas, to-wit, the Gulf Coast and off-shore fields in Louisiana and Texas, in order to enable customers of public utilities in Indiana, Ohio, and Michigan to have access to a second area potentially productive of large volumes of natural gas.

It appears from the application that the total over-all estimated capital cost of the proposed facilities is $144,500,000.

Protest or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 21st day of July 1950. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812-600]

AMERICAN GENERAL CORP. AND HAWKEYE CASUALTY CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of June A. D. 1950.

Notice is hereby given that Hawkeye Casualty Company (Hawkeye), 1017 Walnut Street, Des Moines, Iowa, has filed an application under Rule N-17D-1, promulgated under the Investment Company Act of 1940, with respect to a proposed "Hawkeye Casualty Company Profit-Sharing and Retirement Plan" (Profit-Sharing Plan).

American General Corporation, 103 Park Avenue, New York, New York, is a closed-end, non-diversified, management investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940. American General Corporation owns approximately 61% of the common stock of Morris Plan Corporation of America, the only class of stock of the Morris Plan Corporation of America entitled to vote. The Morris Plan Corporation of America, 103 Park Avenue, New York, New York, owns all of the voting stock of National Industrial Credit Corporation. National Industrial Credit Corporation, 103 Park Avenue, New York, New York, owns all of the voting stock of Industrial Insurance Company. Industrial Insurance Company, 103 Park Avenue, New York, New York, owns approximately 26.6% of the voting common stock of Hawkeye and a majority of the preferred stock of Hawkeye which is not presently entitled to vote. Hawkeye, therefore, is a company indirectly controlled by American General Corporation.

Hawkeye was incorporated in 1919 under the laws of the State of Iowa and is engaged in the business of writing fidelity, surety, automobile, general liability and workmen's compensation insurance. Pursuant to the proposed Profit-Sharing Plan, Hawkeye will make an initial payment of $1,000 into a trust fund and thereafter will pay into the fund 10 percent of its annual net earnings, calculated in accordance with standard insurance accounting, after deducting in each year an amount equal to 10 percent of the surplus to policyholders. Employees will participate by depositing in the trust fund not less than $5.00 nor more than $25.00 per month. Employee deposits are to be invested in investments legal for trust funds under the laws of Iowa and employer deposits are to be invested as directed by the trustees. Hawkeye has been advised by a letter from an office of the Bureau of Internal Revenue that the proposed Profit-sharing Plan meets the requirements of section 165 (a) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended.

Rule N-17D-1 provides, in part that "No affiliated person of any registered investment company, or of any company controlled by any such registered company, shall participate in, or effect any transaction in connection with, any bonus, profit-sharing or pension plan or arrangement in which any such registered or controlled company is a participant unless the application regarding such plan or arrangement has been filed with the Commission and has been granted by an order entered prior to the submission of such plan or arrangement to security holders for approval, or prior to the adoption thereof if not so submitted."

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file at the Washington, D. C., office of the Commission, for a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law therein asserted.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application may be issued by the Commission at any time after July 19, 1950 unless prior thereto a hearing upon the application is ordered by the Commission, as provided by Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act. Any interested person may, not later than July 17, 1950 at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., submit to the Commission in writing his views or any additional facts bearing upon this application or the desirability of a hearing thereon, or request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held thereon. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., and should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert.

By the Commission.

ASSOCIATED ELECTRIC CO.

ORDER MODIFYING CONDITION AND GRANTING EXTENSION OF TIME

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of June A. D. 1950.

Associated Electric Company ("Aelec"), a registered holding company, having filed an application-declaration, as amended, pursuant to sections 9 (a), 10, 12 (b) and 12 (f) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act") and Rule U-45 promulgated thereunder, regarding the following proposed transactions:

As at January 1, 1950, Manila Electric Company ("Manila"), a subsidiary of Aelec, had outstanding 97,220 shares of ₱100 par value common stock, having an aggregate par value of ₱9,722,000; an open account payable to Aelec in the face amount of ₱25,292,520.44, and Manila had accrued on its books interest of ₱1,795,000 on ₱19,159,557.62 of the open account indebtedness for the period since January 1, 1948; and ₱5,800,000 of notes payable to banks. The open account payable to Aelec is subordinate to the notes payable to banks located in the Philippines.

Manila proposes to increase its capital stock so as to have outstanding 350,000 shares of ₱20 par value cumulative preferred stock, dividends to be cumulative from January 1, 1950 at the rate of 6¼% per annum or such greater rate as may be approved by the Philippines Republic Public Service Commission; and 1,000,000 shares of ₱20 par value common stock.

Manila will deliver to Aelec 486,100 shares of the new ₱20 par value common stock in exchange for the 97,220 shares of ₱100 par value common stock now held by Aelec. In satisfaction of the open account payable to Aelec, Manila will deliver to Aelec (a), ₱8,000,000 face amount of ten-year notes dated January 1, 1950 bearing interest at the rate of 5¾ percent per annum or such greater rate as may be approved by the Philippines Republic Public Service Commission, (b) 350,000 shares of ₱20 par value cumulative preferred stock, (c) 513,900 shares of the new ₱20 par value common stock, and (d) cash in the amount of ₱14,520.44. Aelec will make a cash capital contribution to Manila of ₱14,520.44.

The Commission having by order dated March 14, 1950, granted the application, as amended, and permitted the declaration, as amended, to become effective, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by Rule U-24; and

A request having been made for an extension of time until July 15, 1950, within which the transactions as set forth in the application and declaration, as amended, may be fully consummated; and

The Commission having considered such request and deeming it appropriate that it be granted:

It is ordered, That the condition contained in said order of March 14, 1950, be, and hereby is, modified to the extent necessary to extend to July 15, 1950, the time within which such transactions may be consummated.

By the Commission.

REPUBLIC SERVICE CORP. ET AL

ORDER PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of June A. D. 1950.

In the matter of Republic Service Corporation, Greencastle Light, Heat, Fuel and Power Company, Mercersburg, Lehmasters and Markes Electric Company, and Fulton Electric Light, Heat & Power Company, File No. 70-2408.

Republic Service Corporation ("Republic"), a registered holding company, and three of its wholly-owned public utility subsidiary companies, Greencastle Light, Heat, Fuel and Power Company ("Greencastle"), Mercersburg, Lehmasters and Markes Electric Company ("Mercersburg"), and Fulton Electric Light, Heat & Power Company ("Fulton"), have filed a joint application-declaration regarding, among other things, the merger of the above-named subsidiary companies of Republic, the issuance and sale of First Mortgage Bonds and Serial Notes by the surviving company, and the retirement of Republic's outstanding indebtedness; and

Republic having requested as a part of its declaration that in the event the foregoing proposed transactions are not consummated on or before July 1, 1950, the Commission enter an order permitting the extension, for a period of thirty days, of its unsecured promissory note outstanding in the principal amount of $150,000 due July 1, 1950, presently held by the Provident Trust Company of Philadelphia; and

The Commission on June 16, 1950, having issued a notice of filing pursuant to Rule U-23 promulgated under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 with respect to the said declaration of Republic, stating that at any time after June 29, 1950, the Commission may, if it deems such action necessary and appropriate, enter an order permitting Republic to extend its outstanding unsecured promissory note in the amount of $150,000 due July 1, 1950, for a period of thirty days; and

Republic having requested that the Commission's order with respect to said declaration regarding the proposed extension of its note, become effective upon issuance; and

It appearing to the Commission that such temporary extension of Republic's note is necessary under the circumstances, that no adverse findings under section 7 (d) are required and the Commission deeming it appropriate in the public interest that this order be permitted to become effective forthwith;

It is ordered, Pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 that said declaration with respect to the extension for a period of thirty days of Republic's unsecured promissory note in the principal amount of $150,000 due July 1, 1950, be, and the same hereby is, permitted to become effective forthwith, subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24.

By the Commission.

AMERICAN POWER & LIGHT CO.

ORDER APPROVING PLAN

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 28th day of June A. D. 1950.

American Power & Light Company ("American"), a registered holding company, having filed an application pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("Act"), and other applicable provisions of the act, for approval of a plan ("the Plan") providing for a reduction of its capital by $16,125,000 and a pro rata cash distribution of $16,139,211.79, in partial liquidation, to the holders of its single class of capital stock; and

Public hearings having been duly held after appropriate notice, at which hearings all interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be heard; and

American having requested the Commission to enter an order reciting that the transactions proposed in the plan are necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act and are fair and equitable to the persons affected thereby, and having requested that such order contain recitals in accordance with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, including section 1808 (f) and supplement R thereof; and

American having further requested the Commission, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act to apply to an appropriate court, in accordance with the provisions of section 18 (f) of the act, to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the plan; and

The Commission having considered the record in the matter and having this day filed its findings and opinion herein, finding that the Plan is necessary to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the act and fair and equitable to all persons affected thereby:

It is ordered, On the basis of the record herein and the said Findings and Opinion, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act and other applicable provisions of the act, that the said plan be, and it hereby is, approved, subject to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U-24 and to the following additional terms and conditions:

(1) That the order entered herein shall not be operative to authorize the consummation of the transactions proposed in the Plan until an appropriate United States District Court shall, upon application thereto, enter an order enforcing said Plan;

(2) That jurisdiction be, and hereby is, specifically reserved to determine the reasonableness and appropriate allocation of all fees and expenses incurred or to be incurred in connection with the said Plan and the transactions incident thereto; and

(3) That jurisdiction be, and hereby is, specifically reserved to entertain such further proceedings, to make such supplemental findings, and to take such further action as may be necessary in connection with the plan, the transactions incident thereto and the consummation thereof.

It is further ordered and recited, That the expenditure and distribution of $16,139,211.79, in cancellation and redemption of a part of the 2,342,411 shares of capital stock of American as provided in the plan, are necessary or appropriate to the integration or simplification of the holding company system of which American is a member and necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11 of the act, all in accordance with the meaning and requirements of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, including Supplement R thereof.

By the Commission.

HARSH OR ROUGH COTTON HAVING A STAPLE OF 1⅛ INCHES OR MORE BUT LESS THAN 1⅜ INCHES IN LENGTH

SUPPLEMENTAL INVESTIGATION AND HEARING

The United States Tariff Commission, on this 30th day of June 1950, announces an investigation supplemental to its investigation No. 1 under section 22 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act (of 1933) as amended, and under Executive Order No. 7233 of November 23, 1935, with respect to: Harsh or rough cotton having a staple of 1⅛ inches or more but less than 1⅜ inches in length.

On September 3, 1949, the President proclaimed that the quota year for cotton having a staple of 1⅛ inches or more but less than 1 11/16 inches in length should thereafter commence on February 1 instead of on September 20.

The principal object of the present supplemental investigation is to consider applications made to the Commission for a supplemental quota of 2,500,000 pounds of harsh or rough cotton 1⅛ inches or more but less than 1⅜ inches in staple length to meet the special requirements for this particular type of cotton during the current quota year.

Hearing. All parties interested will be given opportunity to be present, to produce evidence, and to be heard at a public hearing to be held in the Hearing Room of the Commission at Eighth and E Streets NW., in Washington, D. C., at 10 a. m., on July 18, 1950.

Nature of information at hearing. Information submitted at the hearing must be relevant and material to the matters under investigation.

Appearances at hearing. Interested persons may appear at the hearing either in person or by representative; if several persons have a joint interest in the subject, it is suggested that effort be made for the designation of a representative in order to avoid unnecessary repetition of testimony.

Notice issued June 30, 1950.

and it is hereby determined:

3. That to the extent that the person named in subparagraph 1 hereof is not within a designated enemy country, the national interest of the United States requires that such person be treated as a national of a designated enemy country (Germany).

All determinations and all action required by law, including appropriate consultation and certification, having been made and taken, and, it being deemed necessary in the national interest,

There is hereby vested in the Attorney General of the United States the property described above, to be held, used, administered, liquidated, sold or otherwise dealt with in the interest of and for the benefit of the United States.

The terms "national" and "designated enemy country" as used herein shall have the meanings prescribed in section 10 of Executive Order 9193, as amended.

Executed at Washington, D. C., on June 26, 1950.

For the Attorney General.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10140

CREATING AN EMERGENCY BOARD TO INVESTIGATE A DISPUTE BETWEEN THE PULLMAN COMPANY AND CERTAIN OF ITS EMPLOYEES

WHEREAS a dispute exists between the Pullman Company, a carrier, and certain of its employees represented by the Order of Railway Conductors, a labor organization; and

WHEREAS this dispute has not heretofore been adjusted under the provisions of the Railway Labor Act, as amended; and

WHEREAS this dispute, in the judgment of the National Mediation Board, threatens substantially to interrupt interstate commerce to a degree such as to deprive the country of essential transportation service:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the authority vested in me by section 10 of the Railway Labor Act, as amended (45 U. S. C. 160), I hereby create a board of three members, to be appointed by me, to investigate the said dispute. No member of the said board shall be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in any organization of railway employees or any carrier.

The board shall report its findings to the President with respect to the said dispute within thirty days from the date of this order.

As provided by section 10 of the Railway Labor Act, as amended, from this date and for thirty days after the board has made its report to the President, no change, except by agreement, shall be made by the Pullman Company or its employees in the conditions out of which the said dispute arose.

made to cooperatives will include not only the initial loan value of the tobacco, but also advances for services performed by the cooperatives in arranging for the receiving, packing, storing, and the marketing of tobacco placed under loan. Cooperatives will be authorized to enter into contracts for these services through the usual trade channels.

§ 664.202 Level of loans. As required by statute, the level of price support to eligible producers of U. S. and Puerto Rican tobacco shall be 90 percent of parity on those types of tobacco for which marketing quotas are in effect, except that fire-cured and dark air-cured (including Va. sun-cured) tobacco shall be supported at 75 percent and 66⅔ percent, respectively, of the level for Burley tobacco. No support will be available to non-cooperators. Price support levels for those types of tobacco for which marketing quotas are not in effect, Maryland and the cigar types (but for which marketing quotas have not been disapproved by producers), will be established by application of the statutory supply percentages as of the beginning of the marketing year. The actual cents per pound price support level for each type of tobacco will be determined by applying the percentage of parity to the latest available parity price as of the beginning of the 1950 marketing year; i. e., July 1, 1950, in the case of flue-cured tobacco and October 1, 1950, in the case of all other kinds.

Schedules of loan rates by grades will be announced after parity as of the beginning of the marketing year is known.

§ 664.203 Availability of price support. Advances to eligible producers for tobacco placed under loan will be made in the following manner:

(a) Auction market area. The producer will deliver the tobacco to an auction warehouse in the usual manner. The producer will receive the advances for any baskets of tobacco placed under loan from the warehouseman, at the time the warehouseman settles with the producer for the entire quantity of the producer's tobacco that has been displayed for inspection and offered for sale on any one day's auction market. The warehouseman, in turn, will then be reimbursed by the cooperative with funds borrowed from CCC.

(b) Non-auction market area. Producers will deliver tobacco to central receiving points designated by the cooperative in the non-auction market area.

The producer will receive the advance for any tobacco placed under loan directly from the cooperative after the tobacco has been received and graded by U. S. D. A. inspectors.

(c) Period of loans. Advances will be made to producers on tobacco tendered for loan between the dates set forth below:

	Earliest date	Latest date
Flue-cured	July 1, 1950	Feb. 28, 1951
Burley	Nov. 1, 1950	Apr. 30, 1951
Fire-cured	do	Do.
Dark air-cured	do	Do.
Virginia sun-cured	do	Do.
Maryland	Apr. 1, 1951	Sept. 30, 1951
Cigar filler and binder (except Puerto Rican)	Sept. 1, 1950	July 31, 1951
Puerto Rican	Feb. 1, 1951	Sept. 30, 1951

§ 664.204 Deduction from loans. The cooperatives will be required to bear a portion of the overhead costs in connection with the loan operation. In the auction marketing areas where the producer pays the warehouseman for receiving and displaying the tobacco, the minimum fee is 12 cents per hundred pounds. For this purpose the cooperatives will be authorized to charge the producer an equivalent amount. Such charges may be collected by a deduction from the advance made to the producer on his tobacco or by arrangements with the auction warehouseman under which they will collect such charges and remit to the cooperative. In areas where these services are not included as a normal part of the marketing process, the fee will be established at a rate commensurate with the relative cost of the service.

§ 664.205 Interest rates, recourse, and distribution of net gains. The loans made to the cooperatives will bear interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum and be non-recourse both as to principal and interest except in the case of misrepresentation fraud, or failure to carry out the terms of the contract. As tobacco loses its identify as to original ownership through commingling in the packing process, producers will not be able to redeem their tobacco once it has been placed under loan. After all of the tobacco of one crop pledged for loan by any cooperative is marketed, any net gains will be distributed by the cooperative to the producers who placed the tobacco under loan, or will be disposed of in such other manner as may be authorized by the cooperative's contracts with its members, if such disposition is approved by CCC.

§ 664.206 Maturity date. Loans made under the program will mature on demand but not later than June 30, 1953, unless extended by CCC.

§ 664.207 Eligible producer. An eligible producer is one who has not produced tobacco in excess of the acreage allotment established for his farm for these types on which quotas are in effect, namely, flue-cured, Burley, fire-cured, dark air-cured, and Va. sun-cured. Producers of all other types are considered eligible for the purpose of this operation.

§ 664.208 Eligible tobacco. Eligible tobacco shall be U. S. and Puerto Rican tobacco (as defined in the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended) of the 1950 crop which (a) has been properly identified in accordance with applicable tobacco Marketing Quota Regulations on a valid memorandum of sale issued from a "Within Quota" Marketing Quota Card, where quotas are in effect; (b) has been delivered to the cooperative by the original producer prior to sale to any other person; (c) is in sound and merchantable condition; and (d) is free and clear of any and all liens and encumbrances.

Issued this 3d day of July 1950.

Acting Vice President,
Commodity Credit Corporation.

Approved:

RALPH S. TRIGG,

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Fresh Pea Order 1-1950]

PART 910—FRESH PEAS AND CAULIFLOWER GROWN IN THE COUNTIES OF ALAMOSA, RIO GRANDE, CONEJOS, COSTILLA, AND SAGUACHE IN COLORADO

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 910.311 Fresh Pea Order 1-1950—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 10, as amended (7 CFR, Part 910), regulating the handling of fresh peas and cauliflower grown in the Counties of Alamosa, Rio Grande, Conejos, Costilla, and Saguache in the State of Colorado, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Administrative Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the grade and size limitations, as hereinafter provided, with respect to the handling of fresh peas, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237), in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisons hereof effective as soon as possible. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for such peas must await the development of the crop; adequate information with respect to acreage was not available to the Administrative Committee until June 9, 1950; the supply and quality of fresh peas is subject to change by weather conditions and adequate information thereon as a basis for recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such peas was therefore not available until a short time before the beginning of harvest; such recommendation was made by the Administrative Committee at a meeting on June 30, 1950, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such peas, and submitted to the Department; shipments of the current crop of such peas are expected to begin on or about July 10, 1950, and this section should be applicable to all shipments of such peas in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., July 10, 1950, and ending at 12:01 a. m., m. s. t., September 11, 1950, no handler shall handle any fresh peas unless such peas grade at least U. S. No. 1 and are of a minimum pod length of three (3) inches.

(2) As used in this section, the terms "peas," "handler," and "handle" shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order; and the term "U. S. No. 1" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the United States Standards for Fresh Peas (14 F. R. 564).

[Lemon Reg. 338]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENT

§ 953.445 Lemon Regulation 338—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR, Part 953; 14 F. R. 3612), regulating the handling of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such lemons which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of lemons, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Lemon Administrative Committee on July 5, 1950, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of lemons grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 9, 1950, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 16, 1950, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 625 carloads;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended marketing agreement and order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached to Lemon Regulation No. 337 (15 F. R. 4215), and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "carloads," "prorate base," "District 1," "District 2" and "District 3," shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of July 1950.

[Orange Reg. 335]

PART 966—ORANGES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 966.481 Orange Regulation 335—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of Order No. 66, as amended (7 CFR Part 966; 14 F. R. 3614), regulating the handling of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said amended order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of the quantity of such oranges which may be handled, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. Shipments of oranges, grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona, are currently subject to regulation pursuant to said amended order; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Orange Administrative Committee on July 6, 1950, such meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof to consider recommendations for regulation, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time thereof.

(b) Order. (1) The quantity of oranges grown in the State of California or in the State of Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 9, 1950, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 16, 1950, is hereby fixed as follows:

(i) Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate District No. 1: Unlimited movement;

(b) Prorate District No. 2: 1,300 carloads;

(c) Prorate District No. 3: Unlimited movement.

(ii) Oranges other than Valencia oranges. (a) Prorate District No. 1: No movement;

(b) Prorate District No. 2: Unlimited movement;

(c) Prorate District No. 3: No movement.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "varieties," "carloads," and "prorate base" shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended order; and the terms "Prorate District No. 1," "Prorate District No. 2," and "Prorate District No. 3" shall have the same meaning as given to the respective term in § 966.107 of the current rules and regulations (14 F. R. 6588) contained in this part.

Orange Regulation 332 (7 CFR 966.478, 15 F. R. 3863) fixes the sizes of designated oranges which may be handled during the aforesaid period.

PART 992—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN WASHINGTON

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 992.303 Limitation of shipments—(a) Findings. (1) A notice of proposed rule making with respect to the limitation of potato shipments, to be made effective under Marketing Agreement No. 113 and Order No. 92 (7 CFR Part 992.1 et seq.) regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Washington, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 4138). This regulatory program is effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051). All persons were afforded an opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments in connection with the aforesaid notice of proposed rule making. After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposed regulation set forth in the aforesaid notice, and other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of potatoes, in the manner and during the period hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that good cause exists for making this section effective on July 10, 1950, in that (i) shipments of the 1950 crop of Irish potatoes, grown in the State of Washington, began on July 1, 1950, and will increase to substantial proportions on July 10, 1950, (ii) delaying the effective date of this section beyond July 10, 1950, would permit the introduction of a sufficient portion of the total 1950 crop of the aforesaid potatoes into the current of commerce, without limitation thereon, as would impair the effectiveness of this section regulating the remainder of such crop, and regulation of shipments of the aforesaid potatoes on and after July 10, 1950, in the manner hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act with respect to such potatoes, (iii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after July 10, 1950, (iv) compliance with this section on and after July 10, 1950, will not require any preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by that date, and (v) a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation.

(b) Order (1) During the period from July 10, 1950, to May 31, 1951, both dates inclusive, no handler shall ship potatoes of the round varieties grown in the State of Washington which do not meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 2, or better grade, and which are of sizes smaller than 1⅞ inches minimum diameter, as such grades and sizes are defined in the United States Standards for Potatoes (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), including the tolerances set forth therein; and no handler shall ship potatoes of the long varieties grown in the State of Washington which do not meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 2 or better grade, and which are of sizes smaller than 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight, as such grades and sizes are defined in the aforesaid United States Standards for Potatoes, including the tolerances specified therein: Provided, That, pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 992.5, the aforesaid limitations shall not be applicable to (i) shipments of potatoes for export (ii) shipments of potatoes for distribution by the Federal government, for distribution by relief agencies, or for consumption by chariable institutions, (iii) shipments of potatoes for manufacturing or conversion into by-products, (iv) shipments of potatoes for livestock feed, and (v) shipments of seed potatoes: Provided further, That, pursuant to § 992.5 (c), each handler making shipments for the aforesaid purposes shall (i) except as to shipments for distribution by the Federal government, file an application with the committee for permission to make such shipments, (ii) pay assessments on such shipments (except shipments for livestock feed), and (iii) have such shipments (except shipments for livestock feed, and shipments of seed potatoes) inspected: Provided further, That, pursuant to § 992.4 (d), each handler may make one shipment of not in excess of five (5) hundredweight of potatoes per week without regard to the aforesaid limitations.

(2) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement No. 113 and Order No. 92 (7 CFR 992.1 et seq.; 14 F. R. 5860).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c)

PART 998—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN NEW JERSEY

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 998.301 Limitation of shipment—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 116 and Order No. 98 (15 F. R. 1925, 2036), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in New Jersey, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the New Jersey Potato Marketing Committee established under said order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of such potatoes, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby found that it is impractical and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that (i) shipments of potatoes grown in the production area will increase in volume on the effective date of this section; (ii) more orderly marketing in the public interest, then would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date hereinafter set forth; (iii) no special preparation will be required of handlers to comply with such regulation because such handlers have the necessary grading equipment.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. d. t., July 10, 1950, and ending 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., December 31, 1950, no handler shall ship potatoes grown in New Jersey which do not meet the requirements of the U. S. Commercial or better grade, not less than 85 percent U. S. No. 1 quality, and which are of sizes smaller than 2 inches minimum diameter, as such grades, qualities, and sizes are defined in the U. S. Standards for Potatoes (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), including the tolerances set forth therein, except that handlers may export, in addition to the aforesaid potatoes, any potatoes grown in New Jersey which meet the requirements of the U. S. No. 1, or better grade, and are of sizes not less than 1½ inches minimum diameter, as such grades and sizes are defined in the aforesaid U. S. Standards for Potatoes, including the tolerances set forth therein;

(2) The aforesaid grade and size limitations shall not apply to shipments of potatoes for grading or storing within the production area, shipments of seed potatoes, shipments of potatoes purchased by the Commodity Credit Corporation under the price support program for distribution by the Federal government, shipments of potatoes for canning, and shipments of potatoes for livestock feed;

(3) During the period of regulations, § 998.62 (inspection and certification) of Order No. 98 is suspended with respect to (i) each shipment of potatoes grown in District No. 3 and in the counties of Atlantic and Cape May in District No. 2 of the production area, and (ii) each shipment of not more than 2,000 pounds of potatoes grown in the remaining counties within the production area, Provided, however, That each shipment of potatoes exempted from inspection and certification pursuant to subdivisions (i) and (ii) of this subparagraph shall meet the grade and size regulations set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, and shall pay the rate of assessment established by the Secretary; and

(4) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Order No. 98 (15 F. R. 1925, 2036).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c)

TITLE 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

Subchapter B—Carriers by Motor Vehicle

[Ex Parte No. MC-43]

PART 207—LEASE AND INTERCHANGE OF VEHICLES

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 5, held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 26th day of June A. D. 1950.

It appearing, that on January 9, 1948 (13 F. R. 369), the Commission entered upon an investigation into the lawfulness of the practices of common carriers of property by motor vehicle, as defined in section 203 (a) (14) of the Interstate Commerce Act, and of contract carriers of property by motor vehicle, as defined in section 203 (a) (15) of the act, in the performance of transportation, in interstate or foreign commerce, subject to the provisions of Part II of the act, by such carriers with motor vehicles owned by others, the interchange of vehicles between such common carriers, and the lease of vehicles by any of such carriers, with or without drivers, to private motor carriers and shippers, with a view to prescribing such reasonable rules, regulations, and requirements to be observed by such carriers as may be necessary or desirable in the public interest;

And it further appearing, that a full investigation of the matters and things involved has been made, and the said division, on the date hereof, has made and filed a report herein containing its findings of fact and conclusions thereon, which report is hereby made a part hereof: [1]

It is ordered, That the following rules and regulations are prescribed to become effective on September 18, 1950:

Sec.
207.1 Applicability.
207.2 Definitions.
207.3 Augmenting of equipment.
207.4 Interchange of equipment.
207.5 Rental of equipment to private carriers and shippers.
207.6 Modification of or exemption from rules.

AUTHORITY: §§ 207.1 to 207.6 issued under 49 Stat. 543, 546, 547, 557, 558, 559, 563, 566, 52 Stat. 1237, 1240–1241, 54 Stat. 926, 927, 63 Stat. 485; 49 U. S. C. 302, 304, 315, 316, 320, 324.

§ 207.1 Applicability. The rules and regulations in this part apply to the augmenting of equipment by common and contract carriers of property by motor vehicle subject to Part II of the Interstate Commerce Act, to the interchange of equipment between such common carriers of property by motor vehicle, and to the lease of equipment by common and contract carriers of property by motor vehicle, with or without drivers, to private motor carriers and shippers.

§ 207.2 Definitions—(a) Authorized carrier. A person or persons authorized to engage in transportation of property as a common or contract carrier under the provisions of sections 206, 207 or 209 of Part II of the Interstate Commerce Act.

(b) Equipment. A motor vehicle, straight truck, tractor, semi-trailer, full trailer, combination tractor-and-semi-trailer, combination straight truck and full trailer, and any other type of equipment used by authorized carriers in the transportation of property for hire.

(c) Interchange of equipment. The physical exchange of equipment between authorized carriers at a point which both carriers are authorized to serve.

(d) Regular employee. A person not merely an agent but regularly in exclusive full-time employment.

(e) Agent. A person other than a regular employee duly authorized to act for and on behalf of an authorized carrier.

(f) Non-carrier. A person other than an authorized carrier.

§ 207.3 Augmenting equipment. Other than equipment utilized in interchange service, as defined in § 207.4 authorized carriers may perform authorized transportation in or with equipment which they do not own only under the following conditions:

(a) The contract, lease, or other arrangement for the use of such equipment—

(1) Shall be made between the authorized carrier and the owner of the equipment;

(2) Shall be in writing and signed by the parties thereto, or their regular employees or agents duly authorized to act for them;

(3) Shall provide for the exclusive possession, control, and use of the equipment by the authorized carrier when operated by or for such carrier and for the complete assumption on the part of such authorized carrier of full responsibility in respect of said equipment during the period the equipment is operated in its service, to the public, the shippers, and the Interstate Commerce Commission;

(4) Shall specify the time and date the contract, lease, or other arrangement begins, and the time or the circumstances on which it ends, and the method of determining the compensation for the use of the equipment. The duration of the contract, lease, or other arrangement shall coincide with the time for the giving and receiving of receipts for the equipment as required by paragraph (b) of this section; and

(5) Shall be executed in triplicate; the original shall be retained by the authorized carrier, one copy shall be retained by the owner of the equipment, and one copy shall be carried on the equipment specified therein during the entire period of the contract, lease, or other arrangement, unless a certificate as provided in paragraph (d) (2) of this section, is carried in lieu thereof.

(b) Receipts. When possession of the equipment is taken by the authorized carrier or its regular employee or agent duly authorized to act for it said carrier, employee, or agent shall give to the owner of the equipment or the owner's employee or agent a receipt specifically identifying the equipment and stating the date and the time of day possession thereof is taken; and when the possession by the authorized carrier ends, it or its employee or agent shall obtain from the owner of the equipment or its regular employee or agent duly authorized to act for it a receipt specifically identifying the equipment, and stating therein the date and the time of day possession thereof is taken.

(c) Inspection of equipment. It shall be the duty of the authorized carrier, before taking possession of equipment, to inspect the same or to have the same inspected by one of its responsible and competent regular employees in order to insure that the said equipment complies with Parts 3 and 6 of the Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (Rev.), pertaining to "Parts and Accessories Necessary for Safe Operation", and "Inspection and Maintenance", and if explosives or other dangerous articles are to be transported thereon, further to inspect and check such vehicles or equipment to insure that they or it complies with Part 7 of the said safety regulations pertaining to "safe transportation of explosives". The person making the inspection shall certify the results thereof on a report in the form hereinafter set forth, which report shall be retained and preserved by the authorized carrier, and if his inspection discloses that the equipment does not comply with the requirements of the said safety regulations, possession thereof shall not be taken. In all instances in which the inspection required by this section is made by an employee, the authorized carrier, if an individual, or a member of the copartnership if the authorized carrier is a copartnership, or one of the officials thereof if the authorized carrier is a corporation, shall certify on the inspection report that the employee who made the inspection is a responsible and competent employee:

(d) Identification of equipment. The authorized carrier acquiring the use of equipment under this section shall properly and correctly identify such equipment as operated by it when such equipment is operated by or for such carrier in accordance with the Commission's requirements in Ex Parte No. MC-41. If a removable device is used to identify the authorized carrier as the operating carrier, such device shall be on durable material such as wood, plastic, or metal, and bear a serial number in the authorized carrier's own series so as to keep proper record of each of the identification devices in use.

(1) The authorized carrier operating equipment under the rules in this part shall remove any legend, showing it as the operating carrier, displayed on such equipment, and shall remove any removable device showing it as the operating carrier, before relinquishing possession of the equipment.

(2) Unless a copy of the lease, contract, or other arrangement is carried on the equipment, as provided in paragraph (a) (5) of this section, the authorized carrier or his regular employee or duly authorized agent shall prepare a statement certifying that the equipment is being operated by it, which shall specify the name of the owner, the date of the lease, contract, or other arrangement, the period thereof, and any restrictions therein relative to the commodities to be transported, which certificate shall be carried with the equipment while such equipment is being operated by or for such carrier.

(e) Driver of equipment. Before any person other than a regular employee of the authorized carrier is assigned to drive equipment operated under the rules in this part, it shall be the duty of the authorized carrier to make certain that such driver is familiar with and that his employment as a driver will not result in violation of any provision of Parts 2, 3, 5 and 6 of the Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (Rev.) pertaining to "Driving of Motor Vehicles", "Parts and Accessories Necessary for Safe Operations", "Hours of Service of Drivers", and "Inspection and Maintenance"; and to require such driver to furnish a certificate of physical examination in accordance with Part 1 of the Motor Carrier Safety Regulations (Rev.) pertaining to "Qualifications of Drivers", or, in lieu thereof, a photostatic copy of the original certificate of physical examination, which shall be retained in the authorized carrier's file.

(f) Record of use of equipment. The authorized carrier utilizing equipment operated under the rules in this part shall prepare and keep a manifest covering each trip for which the equipment is used in its service, containing the name and address of the owner of such equipment, the make, model, year, serial number, and the State registration number of the equipment, and the name and address of the driver operating the equipment, point of origin, the time and date of departure, the point of final destination, and the authorized carrier's serial number of any identification device affixed to the equipment. During the time that equipment subject to the rules in this part is operated there shall be carried with the equipment, bills of lading, waybills, freight bills, manifests, or other papers identifying the lading, which shall clearly indicate that the transportation of the property carried is under the responsibility of the authorized carrier, which papers, together with the truck manifest, shall be preserved by the authorized carrier.

§ 207.4 Interchange of equipment. Common carriers of property may by agreement, contract, or lease, interchange any equipment defined in § 207.2 (b), with other common carriers of property in connection with any through movement of traffic, under the following conditions:

(a) Agreement providing for interchange. The contract, lease, or other arrangement shall be made between the carrier which owns the equipment and the carrier proposing to acquire the use thereof; shall specifically describe the equipment to be interchanged, the specific points of interchange, and the use to be made of equipment by the carrier which is not the owner thereof while in its possession; shall state the consideration for the use of the equipment; and shall be signed by the parties to the contract, lease, or agreement, or their regular employees or agents duly authorized to act for them.

(b) Authority of carriers participating in interchange. The certificates of public convenience and necessity held by the carriers participating in the interchange arrangement must authorize the transportation of the commodities proposed to be transported in the through movement, and service from and to the point where the physical interchange occurs.

(c) Driver of interchanged equipment. Each carrier must assign its own driver to operate the equipment that is proposed to be operated from and to the point of interchange and over the route or routes authorized in the participating carriers' respective certificates of public convenience and necessity.

(d) Through bills of lading. The interlined traffic transported must move on through bills of lading issued by the originating carrier, and the rates charged and revenues collected must be accounted for in the same manner as if there had been no interchange of equipment. Charges for the use of the equipment shall be kept separate and distinct from divisions of the joint rates or the proportions accruing to the carriers by the application of local or proportional rates.

(e) Inspection of equipment. It shall be the duty of the carrier acquiring the use of equipment in interchange to inspect such equipment, or to have it inspected by one of its responsible and competent employees for the purposes specified in § 207.3 (c), and equipment which does not meet the requirements of the safety regulations shall not be operated in the respective services of the interchange carriers until the defects have been corrected.

§ 207.5 Rental of equipment to private carriers and shippers—(a) Renting equipment with drivers. Unless such service is specified in their operating authorities, authorized carriers are prohibited from renting equipment with drivers to non-carriers, and shall not directly or indirectly assist such non-carriers to select or obtain drivers for equipment rented to them.

(b) Removal of identification. Before the effective date of the lease, contract, or agreement for rental of equipment to non-carriers without drivers, the authorized carrier shall cause to be removed from the equipment all marks of identification that indicate that such equipment is utilized in its operation, which marks shall not be restored until the termination of the agreement.

§ 207.6 Modification of or exemption from rules. Any of the rules in this part may be modified, or any carrier may be granted exemption from any rule or rules, in the discretion of the Commission, and upon good cause shown, under the following conditions:

(a) Application for modification or exemption. Application for modification of or exemption from a rule shall be made in writing, addressed to the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C., and signed by the carrier seeking the modification or exemption, or a regular employee or agent duly authorized to act for him, and shall specify the rule sought to be modified, or the rule from which exemption is sought, and the reasons therefor.

(b) Notice of filing application. A copy of such application shall be sent by the applicant to competitors, known to it through the United States mails, and certification of such mailing shall be made by the applicant and attached to the application filed with the Commission.

(c) Reply to application for modification or exemption. Competitors of the applicant shall have 15 days from the date of such notice in which to file replies to said application.

Notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy hereof in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D. C., and by filing it with the Director of the Division of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 5.

GRADES OF AMERICAN CHEESE

UNITED STATES STANDARDS

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the issuance, as hereinafter proposed, of standards for grades of American cheese pursuant to the authority contained in the Department of Agriculture Appropriation Act, 1950 (Pub. Law 146, 81st Cong., 1st sess., approved June 29, 1949).

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same in duplicate with the Director, Dairy Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 30th day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposed standards are as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 45.1 American cheese. American cheese is synonomous with "cheese", is the food product usually known as American cheese, and is of the types known, respectively, as Cheddar cheese and stirred curd cheese. It is made from cow's milk with or without the addition of coloring matter and with common salt, contains not more than 39 percent moisture, and in the water-free substance contains not less than 50 percent milk fat.

EXPLANATION OF TERMS

§ 45.2 Explanation of terms. (a) With respect to packaging.

(1) Paraffin. Refined paraffin, amorphous wax, or a combination of both.

(b) With respect to flavor and odor—(1) Slight; slightly. Detected only upon critical examination.

(2) Definite; definitely. Not intense but detachable.

(3) Pronounced. So intense as to be easily identified.

(4) Offensive. Foul or obnoxious.

(5) Mild. Not sharp or strong.

(6) Practically no flavor development. Slight characteristic cheese flavor.

(7) Well-developed. Characteristic and pronounced.

(8) Acid. Sharp and puckery to the taste.

(9) Feed. Feed flavors (such as alfalfa, sweet clover, silage, or similar feed) in milk carried through into the cheese.

(10) Fruity. A sweetish fruit flavor or flavor characteristic of an uncleaned whey tank.

(11) Regional or seasonal feed flavors. Flavors of feed that are commonly present in milk at certain times of the year or in certain regions.

(12) Sour. Strongly acid and strong sour taste and aroma.

(13) Utensil. Suggestive of improper or inadequate washing and sanitizing of milking machines, utensils, or factory equipment.

(14) Weed. Weed flavors that may be present in cheese derived from milk of cows that have eaten weedy hay or have grazed on weed-infested pastures.

(15) Whey taint. Mildly acid and aroma characteristic of fermented whey.

(16) Yeasty. Indicating yeast fermentation.

(c) With respect to body and texture—(1) Broken down. Changed from a firm smooth, or coarse curdy or rubbery, condition to a waxy condition similar to that of cold butter or to a mealy, or pasty, condition.

(2) Corky. Dry and coarse and crumbly; springy and does not mold together.

(3) Dry and coarse. Feels rough and sandy.

(4) Firm. Feels solid; not soft or weak.

(5) Gas holes. Holes caused by gas fermentation.

(6) Loose and open. Mechanical openings coursing the full length of the plug; the plug is not firm.

(7) Mealy or short. No elasticity to the plug; when worked between the fingers, the plug feels and looks like corn meal; is not waxy, and does not mold well.

(8) Mechanical openings. Irregular shaped openings (regardless of the number and size) caused by poor workmanship and not by gas fermentation.

(9) Pasty. When worked between the fingers, becomes sticky and smeary.

(10) Pin holes. So called because the holes are very small and give the appearance of pin pricks.

(11) Reasonably firm. Slightly weak but not to the extent of materially injuring the keeping quality of the cheese.

(12) Slightly curdy or not entirely broken down. Smooth but firm; when worked between the fingers, is curdy and not waxy.

(13) Smooth. Feels silky; not dry and coarse or rough.

(14) Solid, compact, and close. Practically free from openings of any kind.

(15) Sweet or Swiss holes. Spherical openings, glossy in appearance; usually about the size of BB shot; also referred to as shot holes.

(16) Waxy. When worked between the fingers, molds well like wax or cold butter.

(17) Weak. When worked between the fingers, requires little pressure to mash.

(18) Yeast holes. Slit-like openings, eliptical in shape; often referred to as fish-eyes.

(d) With respect to color—(1) Acid cut or faded. Bleached appearance.

(2) High color. Deep yellow or reddish.

(3) Medium color. Deep straw or amber.

(4) Seamy. White, thread-like lines.

(5) Tiny white specks. Specks resembling grains of salt scattered throughout the cheese.

(6) Uncolored. Absence of artificial coloring.

(e) With respect to finish and appearance—(1) Bandage evenly placed. Edges of bandage overlap about one inch.

(2) Bandage fairly evenly placed. Edges of bandage overlap from about one inch to one and one-half inches.

(3) Cracks in the rind. Openings of any kind in the rind.

(4) Huffed. Swollen because of gas fermentation.

(5) Rind rot. Soft spots, on the rind, that are discolored, decayed, or decomposed.

(6) Scaly paraffin. Thick, brittle coating of paraffin that breaks and peels off in the form of scales.

(7) Surface mold. Mold on the paraffin or wrapper of the cheese.

(8) Paraffin that adheres to the surface of the cheese. Coating of paraffin not broken or peeled off but may have some checks or be slightly bruised.

(9) Unnecessary overlapping. More bandage on one end than on the other.

(10) Paraffin that adheres firmly to the surface of the cheese. Coating of paraffin not cracked, broken, bruised, or loose.

(11) Slightly soiled surface and surface mold. Soiled surface or surface mold that can be removed without injuring the appearance or finish of the cheese.

(12) Slightly soiled surface and moderate surface mold. Soiled surface or surface mold that can be removed without jeopardizing the preservation of the cheese or injuring the commercial appearance of the cheese.

TYPES OF PACKAGING

§ 45.3 Types of packaging. The following are the types of packaging for American cheese:

(a) Bandaged and paraffin-dipped. The cheese is bandaged and dipped in refined paraffin. The starch circles may be left on or removed prior to paraffining. The paraffin coating is a continuous, unbroken, and uniform film covering the entire surface of the bandaged cheese.

(b) Rindless (cured-in-package). The cheese is tightly wrapped in a transparent wrapper that is free of plasticizers, stabilizers, and any other agents which may impart any color or objectionable odor or flavor to the cheese or interfere with the natural aging of the cheese. The wrapper is sealed with a minimum overlap of one-half inch. When pressure-sensitive tape is used for such sealing, the taped seams overlap at least one inch. The wrapper is of sufficiently low permeability to water vapor and oxygen so as to prevent the formation of rind during the curing and holding periods.

U. S. GRADES

§ 45.4 Nomenclature of U. S. Grades—(a) General. No U. S. Grade designation is applicable to cheese that possesses any of the following:

(v) Specifications applicable to cheese of different ages.

Fresh or current make	Medium cured	Cured or aged
(a) Flavor	Flavor	Flavor
Practically no flavor development	Mild characteristic cheese flavor; may have a slight acid flavor.	Well-developed characteristic cheese flavor; may be slightly bitter or slightly acid.
(b) Body and texture	Body and texture	Body and texture
Firm, smooth and curdy, or may be partially broken down if the cheese is over 3 weeks old.	Reasonably firm, smooth, and waxy; may be slightly curdy or not entirely broken down, or slightly short, mealy, or weak.	Reasonably firm, smooth, and wavy; may be slightly short or mealy, or slightly weak and pasty.
(c) Color	Color	Color
No additional requirements	No additional requirements	May have tiny white specks.
(d) Finish and appearance	Finish and appearance	Finish and appearance
Smooth, bright surface free from mold underneath the bandage and paraffin or wrapper; may have very slight soiled surface and surface mold.	Smooth surface, free from mold underneath the bandage and paraffin or wrapper; may have slight soiled surface and moderate surface mold.	Smooth surface, may have very slight mold underneath the bandage and paraffin; may have slight soiled surface and moderate surface mold.

(1) Putrid, kerosene, gasoline, fishy, fly spray, oil, paint, rancid, or other offensive flavors or odors.

(2) Weak to the extent that a plug cannot be drawn from the cheese.

(3) Discoloration caused by foreign material or by bacterial action; excessive cracks or openings in rind; any mold growth in the interior of the cheese; soft wet rind or rind rot; cheese mites; broken wrapper.

(b) Nomenclature. The nomenclature of U. S. Grades is as follows:

(1) U. S. Grade AA; U. S. Grade A; U. S. Grade B; and U. S. Grade C.

(c) Basis for determination of U. S. Grades—(1) U. S. Grade AA. U. S. Grade AA American cheese conforms to the following requirements and specifications:

(i) Flavor and odor. Is free from objectionable flavors and odors.

(ii) Body and texture. A plug drawn from the cheese: appears solid, compact, and close, although it may have a few small mechanical openings but no large mechanical openings; is free from sweet or Swiss holes, yeast holes, and gas holes of any kind; and is translucent.

(iii) Color. May be uncolored or of uniform medium color.

(iv) Finish and appearance—(a) When bandaged and paraffin-dipped. Is free from surface defects (including, but not being limited to, cracks in the rind, soft spots, rind rot, and scaly paraffin) which may cause deterioration of the cheese; is not huffed; is not lopsided; is free from high edges; and has a coating of paraffin that adheres firmly to the surface of the cheese. The bandage is evenly placed on the ends of the cheese and is free from unnecessary overlapping and wrinkles.

(b) When rindless (cured-in-package). The cheese is not huffed or lopsided and the wrapper is unbroken and free from wrinkles.

(v) Specifications applicable to cheese of different ages.

Fresh or current make	Medium cured	Cured or aged
(a) Flavor	Flavor	Flavor
No flavor development	Mild characteristic cheese flavor	Well-developed characteristic cheese flavor
(b) Body and texture	Body and texture	Body and texture
Firm, smooth, and curdy, or it may be partially broken down if the cheese is over 3 weeks old.	Firm, smooth, and waxy, or it may be slightly curdy or not entirely broken down.	Firm, smooth, and waxy.
(c) Color	Color	Color
No additional requirements	No additional requirements	May have tiny white specks.
(d) Finish and appearance	Finish and appearance	Finish and appearance
Smooth, bright surface, free from mold underneath the bandage and paraffin or wrapper; may have very slightly soiled surface and surface mold.	Smooth surface, free from mold underneath the bandage and paraffin or wrapper; may have slightly soiled surface and surface mold.	Smooth surface, may have very slight mold underneath the bandage and paraffin or wrapper; may have slight soiled surface and moderate surface mold.

(3) U. S. Grade B. U. S. Grade B American cheese conforms to the following requirements and specifications:

(i) Flavor and odor. May possess definite off-flavors and odors.

(ii) Body and texture. A plug drawn from the cheese: May be loose and open and may have numerous sweet or Swiss holes, yeast holes and other cautered gas holes.

(iii) Color. Is uncolored or of medium color or high color; may be seamy, slightly acid cut or faded, slightly wavy and slightly mottled.

(iv) Finish and appearance—(a) When bandaged and paraffin-dipped. May have a rough or unattractive appearance; have scaly paraffin; be slightly huffed; and be lopsided, but not to the extent the lid will not fit squarely on the box; is solid, free from soft spots, rind rot, cracks and openings of any kind. The bandage can be uneven, overlapped, or wrinkled, but is not burst or torn. There is no indication that mold has entered the cheese.

(b) When rindless (cured-in-package). The cheese may be slightly huffed and slightly lopsided; but the wrapper is unbroken and free from wrinkles.

(v) Specifications applicable to cheese of different ages.

Fresh or current make	Medium cured	Cured or aged
(a) Flavor	Flavor	Flavor
May be slightly acid, bitter, feed, fruity, metallic, utensil, whey taint and yeasty.	May be definitely acid, bitter, feed, fruity, metallic, utensil, whey taint and yeasty.	May be definitely acid, bitter, feed, fruity, metallic, utensil, whey taint and yeasty.
(b) Body and texture	Body and texture	Body and texture
May have a weak body but not pasty; may be entirely or partially broken down; may have a firm, dry and coarse, short, mealy body or a corky body.	May have a weak, pasty body, but not soft and smeary; may have a firm, short, mealy body or a slightly corky body.	May have a weak, pasty body, but not extremely soft and smeary; may have a firm, short, mealy body.
(c) Color	Color	Color
No additional requirements.	No additional requirements.	May have tiny white specks.
(d) Finish and appearance	Finish and appearance	Finish and appearance
May have slight soiled surface and surface mold.	Surface may be soiled and may have slight surface mold underneath the bandage and paraffin or wrapper.	Surface may be soiled and may have moderate surface mold underneath the bandage and paraffin or wrapper.

(2) U. S. Grade A. U. S. Grade A American cheese conforms to the following requirements and specifications:

(i) Flavor and odor. Is free from objectionable flavors and odors; but may have slight regional or seasonal feed flavors.

(ii) Body and texture. A plug drawn from the cheese: Appears practically solid, compact, and close although it may have a few mechanical openings but these are not large and connecting; may not have more than two sweet or Swiss holes; is free from yeast holes and other gas holes; and is translucent.

(iii) Color. May be uncolored or medium colored and slightly seamy.

(iv) Finish and appearance—(a) When bandaged and paraffin-dipped. Is free from surface defects (including, but not being limited to, cracks in the rind, soft spots, rind rot, and scaly paraffin) which may cause deterioration of the cheese; is not huffed; has a coating of paraffin that adheres to the surface of the cheese; may be slightly lopsided; may have slightly high edges.

(b) When rindless (cured-in-package). The cheese is not huffed, and the wrapper is unbroken and free from wrinkles; may be slightly lopsided.

(4) U. S. Grade C. U. S. Grade C American cheese conforms to the following requirements and specifications:

(i) Flavor and odor. It may possess pronounced off-flavors and odors.

(ii) Body and texture. May be loose and open. May have sweet or Swiss holes, yeast holes, and other gas holes.

(iii) Color. May be uncolored, of medium color, or of high color. May be acid cut or faded, wavy, seamy and mottled. It is not wavy or mottled to the extent that it is unappetizing.

(iv) Finish and appearance—(a) When bandaged and paraffin-dipped. May have a rough, unattractive appearance. May have scaly paraffin, may be huffed and lopsided, and may have a soiled surface and surface mold. The rind may have very slight rind rot, cracks, and openings. There is no indication of mold having entered the cheese.

(b) When rindless (cured-in-package). The cheese may be lopsided and slightly huffed; the wrapper is unbroken, but may be slightly wrinkled and have a soiled surface.

(v) Specifications applicable to cheese of different ages.

HANDLING OF IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN PENNSYLVANIA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Pennsylvania, to be effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051), hereinafter called the "act". Interested parties may file exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353 South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the tenth day after publication of this recommended decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The public hearing, on the record of which the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed marketing order (hereinafter called the "order") were formulated, was held at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, on May 22-24, 1950, pursuant to notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 2418). Such notice set forth a proposed marketing agreement and order which was submitted to the Secretary of Agriculture by the State Production and Marketing Administration Committee (representing producers and shippers of Irish potatoes in the proposed production area) with a petition for a hearing thereon.

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing are as follows:

(1) The existence of the right to exercise Federal jurisdiction;

(2) The need for the proposed regulatory program to accomplish the declared objectives of the act;

(3) The identity of the persons and transactions to be regulated;

(4) The definition of the commodity and determination of the smallest regional production area to be affected by the proposed regulatory program;

(5) The specific terms and provisions of the proposed marketing agreement and order necessary and incidental to attain the declared objectives of the act, including, among others, those applicable to:

(a) The establishment of, maintenance, composition, powers, duties, and operation of the administrative agency;

(b) The method for limiting shipments of Irish potatoes grown in the production area;

(c) The establishment of minimum standards of quality and maturity;

(d) The handling under special regulations, under certain circumstances, and the procedure applicable thereto, of specified shipments of Irish potatoes grown in the production area;

(e) The relaxation of regulations in hardship cases and the procedure applicable thereto; and

(f) The requirement that all handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area must be in accordance with the provisions of the marketing agreement and order, and that inspection and certification of shipments of such potatoes and the payment of assessments must be accomplished in connection therewith.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the aforementioned material issues, all of which are based on the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, are as follows:

(1) A substantial percentage of the Irish potatoes grown in the State of Pennsylvania, hereinafter called the "production area," normally enters the current of interstate of foreign commerce, and virtually all of the remainder of such potatoes are consumed as table stock potatoes within the production area, or are used for so-called diversionary purposes. The market for potatoes grown in the production area is regional in scope and prices for such potatoes at markets both within and outside of the production area are closely related to each other and to f. o. b. shipping point prices in the production area. Every movement and sale of such potatoes, whether to a market within or outside of the production area, affects the price structure for all potatoes grown in the production area. The mere availability of a surplus of such potatoes in the production area, which could move or be sold to satisfy market demands, tends to decrease the prices in all markets for all potatoes grown in the production area.

Shipments and sales of potatoes grown in the production area may be scheduled originally for delivery to markets within the production area, and then be diverted en route to markets outside of the State. Conversely, such potatoes, destined originally for markets outside of the production area may be diverted en route to markets within the production area. The movement and sale of such potatoes to markets within the production area and to markets outside of the production area are, therefore, inextricably intermingled.

It is concluded, therefore, that (i) all transportation and sale (except retail sales) of Irish potatoes grown in the production area are either in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burden, obstruct, or affect such interstate or foreign commerce, and (ii) it is impractical to regulate effectively the transportation and sale of such potatoes without regulating all transportation and sale thereof, except as hereinafter indicated.

(2) Effective January 1, 1950, parity prices for Irish potatoes are to be computed in accordance with the provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1948 and the Agricultural Act of 1949.

Seasonal average farm prices for potatoes grown in the production area have been below parity for 13 seasons and above parity for 8 seasons since 1928. Four (1942–45, inclusive) of the 8 seasons when such prices were above parity were war years. Such prices were below parity during the most recent 3-year period, 1946–48. The estimated 1949 seasonal average farm price for such potatoes is $1.50 per bushel which is only 77 percent of parity.

During the three seasons, 1946–48, an average of 6 percent of the total potato crop grown in the production area has been purchased by the government in supporting prices at 90 percent of parity. Potato prices in 1949 were supported at 60 percent of parity, and, although final purchase data for the 1949 crop were not available at the time of the hearing, a total of 1,865 cwt., or 9.7 percent of the 1949 crop, had been purchased under the support program as of April 1950.

Since the estimated seasonal average farm price for the 1949 crop of potatoes in the production area is 23 percent below parity, and the indicated potato acreage for 1950 in the production area is only slightly below that of 1949, it is anticipated that seasonal average farm prices received by growers in the production area for potatoes produced in 1950 will not exceed the prescribed parity level.

The availability of supplies of Irish potatoes in excess of all market demand therefor tends to decrease the grower's average returns from all of such potatoes. Withholding the poorer grades, and undesirable qualities and sizes of such potatoes from such markets tends to equalize market supply and the demand therefor, and tends to increase the grower's average returns for all Irish potatoes. Poor grades, undesirable qualities, and undesirable sizes of Irish potatoes available for sale in wholesale and retail markets sell at appreciable discounts from the sale price of the better grades and desirable qualities and sizes of such potatoes, and the former not only displace the latter to a considerable extent, but the former give poor consumer satisfaction, resulting in an over-all decreased consumption of Irish potatoes. Grade, quality, and size discounts in wholesale prices of Irish potatoes are reflected in similar discounts in grower returns therefor. Similarly, decreased consumption of Irish potatoes of all grades, qualities, and sizes, decreases grower returns from such potatoes.

Poorer grades, undesirable qualities, and undesirable sizes of Irish potatoes are frequently marketed in a manner designed to indicate that such potatoes are of desirable grades, qualities, and sizes, which results in consumer dissatisfaction, confusion relevant to Irish potato values, and generally chaotic marketing conditions.

Therefore, it is concluded that a marketing agreement and order is necessary to regulate the transportation and sale of Irish potatoes grown in the production area, to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will tend to establish parity prices for such potatoes. The marketing agreement and order should contain provisions for the establishment and maintenance of such minimum standards of quality and maturity and such grading and inspection requirements for Irish potatoes grown in the production area as will effectuate orderly marketing thereof in the public interest, because, even though prices received by farmers for such potatoes exceed parity, some immature potatoes of poor quality do not, under any circumstances, represent value to the consumers thereof, because of immaturity, poor quality, or both, and the returns to the farmers therefrom are negligible.

(3) (a) The act authorizes the regulation of such handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce. (Such handling is hereinafter called "in commerce".) The marketing agreement and order should regulate such handling solely to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is essential, as a basis for such regulation, that the marketing agreement and order define a "handler," so that persons to be regulated thereunder will have notice thereof.

Common or contract carriers transporting Irish potatoes (grown in the production area and owned by another person) to market are performing a normal handling function in commerce but such handling should not be regulated under the marketing agreement and order for the reason that such carriers are not responsible for the grade, quality, and size of the commodity so transported, are not responsible for the introduction of such commodity in commerce, and their sole interest in such commodity is to transport it to destinations selected by others for a service charge. The responsibility for the grade, quality, and size of the commodity delivered to such common and contract carriers should be borne solely by the person or persons responsible for delivering such commodity to such carriers.

Other normal handling functions with respect to such potatoes, which should be regulated under the marketing agreement and order, are hereinafter considered in connection with a definition of "ship", and the definition of "handler" should be synonymous with "shipper" because regulation of the handler performing each of such functions is necessary under the marketing agreement and order to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Therefore, the term "handler" should be defined to be synonymous with shipper (except a common or contract carrier of potatoes owned by another person) and to mean any person who ships potatoes.

(b) Storing, packing, washing, grading, and other processing of Irish potatoes are normal handling functions in commerce. However, it would be impracticable, if not impossible, to require persons engaged in storing, washing, packing, and grading Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, to meet minimum grade, quality, and size requirements in connection with such potatoes, under regulations issued pursuant to the marketing agreement and order, prior to such grading. Therefore, such handling activities should be exempt from regulation under the marketing agreement and order. Such exemption should be limited to storing, washing, packing, grading, and other preparatory handling functions accomplished in the production area because such activities are customarily accomplished in such area and because enlarging the exemption would serve no useful purpose. After the grading has been accomplished in connection with such potatoes, the handling activity of transporting them to market should be subject to regulation, under the marketing agreement and order, because the grade, quality, and size of such potatoes are determined by the grading process accomplished prior to such transportation and such transportation in commerce can then be limited, on a practical basis, to such grades, qualities, and sizes of such potatoes as will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Sales of Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, in commerce are normal handling transactions which should be subject to regulation under the marketing agreement and order because such sales can be restricted to the grades, qualities, and sizes of such potatoes as will meet the requirements of regulations issued under such marketing agreement and order and because such sales introduce or continue such potatoes in commerce. Therefore, if such sellers fail to meet such requirements, they should be responsible, except as hereinafter indicated, for the introduction or continuation of Irish potatoes in commerce which fail to meet such requirements. However, if a producer of Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, sells such potatoes to a recognized packer in the production area on a grade-out basis, such sale by the producer does not constitute a normal handling transaction in commerce because such sale does not place such potatoes in commerce and because such producer relies on the recognized packer handling such potatoes in accordance with such grade, quality, and size regulations as may be in effect at the time such potatoes are actually placed in commerce. Under such state of facts, the sale from the producer to the recognized packer does not place the potatoes in commerce and the customary contemplation of the parties is that such potatoes may be stored and that they will be prepared for market prior to their introduction in commerce, i. e., washed, graded, etc. It is necessary to restrict the scope of this producer-packer sale exemption to packers operating processing facilities in the production area because such restriction conforms to customary practice in the production area and because enlarging the exception would serve no useful purpose.

However, if a producer of Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, sells potatoes grown by him to an itinerant trucker, or any other person, for transportation to market without prior processing, such potatoes are thereby placed in commerce at the time of such sale and the producer, under such circumstances, is the first handler of such potatoes. Such producer intended, under such circumstances, that the potatoes would be placed in commerce at the time of such sale and, therefore, he should be held responsible for any failure of the commodity so sold to meet such grade, quality, and size requirements as might be in effect under the marketing agreement and order at the time of such sale.

Irish potatoes grown in the production area and consigned or otherwise placed in commerce are in the same category as similar potatoes sold in commerce because all of such potatoes must at least meet the minimum grade, quality, and size requirements in effect under the marketing agreement and order at the time they are placed in commerce to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The consignor or individual otherwise placing such potatoes in commerce should be required, therefore, to meet such grade, quality, and size requirements.

Irish potatoes grown in the production area are frequently transported, sold, or otherwise placed or continued in commerce by more than one person. Each of such persons is responsible for introducing or continuing such potatoes in commerce and, therefore, each of such persons should be required to conduct such normal handling activities in accordance with applicable grade, quality, and size regulations, under the marketing agreement and order, to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is concluded therefore, the "ship" should be defined in the marketing agreement and order to include and be applicable to all of the normal handling functions which must be subject to regulation to effectuate the declared policy of the act, that such definition should be synonymous with "handle," and that "ship" should mean to transport, sell, or in any other way to place potatoes in the current of commerce within the production area, or between the production area and any point outside thereof: Provided, That the definition of "ship" or "handle" shall not include or be applicable to the sale or transportation of ungraded potatoes within the production area for storing, or to the sale or transportation of potatoes to a recognized dealer or packer within the production area for the purpose of having such potatoes prepared for market.

(4) (a) It is necessary to define the commodity to be regulated by the marketing agreement and order, so that persons handling such commodity will know that their handling activities relevant thereto are subject to regulation thereunder. The act authorizes marketing agreements and orders applicable to potatoes, or to any regional or market classification thereof. Irish potatoes of all varieties grown in the production area is a regional classification of potatoes and regulation of the handling thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is concluded, therefore, that "potatoes" should be defined to mean all varieties of Irish potatoes grown in the production area.

(b) A definition of "production area" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to specify and delineate the area in which potatoes must be grown before the handling thereof is subject to regulation. Potatoes are produced for market in each county included within the production area. Commercial production is extensive and concentrated in a large number of the counties, and it would be impractical to exclude any of such counties from the production area. The exclusion of any of such counties from the production area would create enforcement problems of such magnitude as to jeopardize the successful operation of the marketing agreement and order.

Production, harvesting, and marketing conditions and methods are essentially the same throughout the production area. Such differences in these factors as do exist are relatively minor and would not justify, on the basis of reasons stated herein, the exclusion of any portion of the production area from regulation under the marketing agreement and order. The same or similar varieties of potatoes are grown throughout the production area and potatoes from each part thereof compete in markets both within and outside the area during each season. Potatoes from all counties are sold in and compete in the same markets during each season. Exclusion of any portion of the production area from regulation under the marketing agreement and order would make the operation of such program unreasonably difficult and impractical. Therefore, the production area, hereinafter defined, constitutes the smallest practicable regional production area.

(5) It is necessary to define the terms hereinafter set forth so that their applicability and meaning may be established and to preclude the necessity for redefining them when they are later used in the marketing agreement and order. The definitions of Secretary, act, person, producer, and varieties, as set forth in the notice of hearing, were not in controversy at the hearing. These terms are generally understood by members of the potato industry in the production area and the use of such terms in the marketing agreement and order is essential as the basic framework thereof.

A definition of "fiscal year" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to establish the beginning and end of an operating period. The establishment of such period, which should comprise a full twelve months, is necessary for businesslike administration of the marketing agreement and order and is desirable as a basis for establishing the terms of office of committee members and alternates. The date marking the end of one fiscal year and the beginning of the new should fall at a time of relative inactivity in the marketing of the potato crop and should allow sufficient time for the committee to organize and be prepared to function prior to the start of the new marketing season. Marketing of the potato crop grown in the production area begins the latter part of July of each year and is completed prior to May 1 of the following year. June 1 of each year is, therefore, an appropriate date for establishing the end of one fiscal year and the beginning of the new. Fiscal year should be defined, therefore, as hereinafter set forth.

A definition of "committee" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to identify the administrative body which acts as agent of the Secretary. Such committee is authorized by the act and the definition thereof, as hereinafter set forth, minimizes the use of words in the marketing agreement and order.

Definitions of "seed potatoes," "table stock potatoes," "wholesale pack" and "consumer pack" are incorporated in the marketing agreement and order because regulation is provided, under certain circumstances, differently for each. Special regulation for seed potatoes is justified because such potatoes are produced for a specialized use and the requirements of the seed market differ, in some respects, from that of the table stock market. For example, potatoes of small size are ordinarily discounted in the table stock market but may bring a premium in the seed market. The term "seed potatoes" should be defined to include such potatoes as are certified, tagged, or otherwise appropriately identified by the official seed certifying agency of the State of Pennsylvania, or such other seed certifying agency as the Secretary may recognize. Table stock potatoes should be defined as all potatoes other than seed potatoes. The sum total of the table stock and seed potatoes so defined will equal "potatoes" otherwise defined in the marketing agreement and order.

The definition of "consumer pack" should include all potato packs which are prepared for ultimate sale by the retailer to the consumer in the original container. The definition of "wholesale pack" should include all potatoes which are normally dumped into bins at the retail store. In practice, the distinction between the two types of packs rests on the capacity of the container. Consumer packs commonly in use in the production area consist of 5, 10, and 15 pound bags, while wholesale packs consist of 50 and 100 pound bags. The demarcation between consumer and wholesale packs should be drawn at a specified weight rather than by naming the individual container which should fall in each category. The possible introduction of containers differing in size from those now in use makes the latter approach impractical. A net weight of 50 pounds of potatoes appears to be an appropriate dividing line between the two types of packs. Consumer pack and wholesale pack should be defined, therefore, as hereinafter set forth.

Definitions of "grade" and "size" are incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to enable all persons affected thereby to determine the requirements thereof and to interpret specifically and intelligently regulations issued in such terms. Grade and size, the essential terms in which regulations are issued, should be defined as comprehending the equivalents of the meanings assigned to these terms in (i) the official standards for potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, (ii) the State of Pennsylvania Standards issued by the Secretary of Agriculture of such State, or (iii) to modification or amendment of such standards. Regulations under the marketing agreement and order can then use such terms (grade and size) with the constant meaning assigned thereto in such standards, or such modification or amendment of such terms as may be effected through amendment of such standards, or such variation of such terms as may be required at the time of regulation and spelled out in the regulation. Official inspectors are qualified to certify to the grade and size of potatoes, grown in the proposed production area, in terms of any one of the aforesaid standards, or modification, amendment, or variation thereof.

A definition of "export" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order because different regulations thereunder are authorized for export shipments than for domestic shipments. Export markets have certain requirements which differ from the domestic market and special regulations are, therefore, justified. Export should be defined to include all shipments of potatoes outside of the continental United States.

A definition of "district" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to delineate the geographical divisions of the production area for the purpose of electing nominees for membership on the committee. The production and marketing problems within each of the established districts are similar and election of committee nominees on such basis will afford equitable representation to all producers in the production area. District should be defined, therefore, as hereinafter set forth.

(a) The marketing agreement and order should provide for the selection by the Secretary of an administrative committee, called the Pennsylvania Potato Committee composed of 16 producer and 7 handler members. Establishment of this committee is desirable and necessary to aid the Secretary in carrying out the declared policy of the act and such committee is authorized by the act. Provision should be made for an alternate for each member of the committee because circumstances may arise when it is impossible for a member, or members, to attend particular meetings of the committee and where positions are vacant because of death, resignation, or for other reasons. In such situations it is necessary and desirable for the respective alternate to act in lieu of the member, so that there will be no interruption of committee operations and to assure that committee activities will be representative of producer and handler thinking in all districts of the production area. Such alternates should have the same qualifications as the members if the alternates are to represent the same industry factions as such members. A committee of 23 members will be sufficiently small to permit it to operate in an efficient manner and at the same time, on the basis of the division of the production area into districts and representation therefrom, will be of sufficient size to give adequate representation to all producers and handlers in the production area.

Producer members and handler members and their respective alternates, selected to represent a district should be producers and handlers, or officers or employees thereof, respectively, in such district and residents therein. Persons with such qualifications will be intimately acquainted with the particular problems of producing and marketing potatoes grown in such district and for that reason can be expected to present accurately the views, problems, and economic conditions of producers and handlers in such districts with respect to committee actions.

A nomination procedure is provided for in the marketing agreement and order to assure the Secretary that the names of appropriate prospective members and alternates will be brought to his attention. The nomination of prospective members and alternates by producers and handlers at meetings in the respective districts is a practical method of providing the Secretary with names of such members and alternates. Such procedure will insure that the Secretary has available a list of nominees whose qualifications have been reviewed by and acted upon by members of the industry.

The Secretary may appropriately select initial committee members and alternates from nominations which may be made by producers, handlers, or groups thereof. However, the Pennsylvania Potato Committee, hereinafter called the "committee," does not come into existence until selection by the Secretary of the initial committee; therefore, the marketing agreement and order should provide for the selection of said initial committee in the absence of nominations.

Nomination meetings for the purpose of nominating succeeding members of the committee and their alternates should be held or caused to be held by the committee prior to April 1 of each year. Such date is approximately sixty days prior to the end of the fiscal year. By holding, or causing to be held, nomination meetings prior to such date, the committee would have adequate time to prepare and submit nominee lists to the Secretary in time for the Secretary to select the members and alternates to take office at the beginning of the new fiscal year, and, in the event a selectee declines to serve, for the Secretary to make another appointment.

At least two nominees should be designated for each position as member, and each position as alternate member so that the Secretary will have a choice in making his selection and, in the event a selectee declines to serve, so that he will have the names of other prospective members or alternates from which to make another appointment.

Nominee lists should be supplied to the Secretary in the manner and form prescribed by him to establish administrative uniformity in the handling of such matters. Such nominations should be presented to the Secretary at least thirty days prior to the end of the fiscal year so that the selection and qualification of the members and alternates for the new term of office which begins with the new fiscal year may be made prior to such date.

Each producer shall be limited to one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, or representatives, in designating nominees for producer committee members and alternates regardless of the number of districts in which he produces potatoes. Voting on any other basis would not provide for equitable representation. If a producer could cast more than one vote by reason of operating in more than one district, such producer would have an advantage in selecting nominees over producers operating in only one district. Likewise, if more than one vote was permitted, a few large producers could dominate the elections and nominate producers not favored by a majority of producers. The producer who operates in more than one district should be permitted to elect from among the districts in which he produces potatoes, the district in which he shall vote in order that he may cast his ballot for nominees for producer committee members and alternates where he believes his main interest lies. The one-vote limitation applies to any one producer position to be filled at a nomination meeting. Each producer is allowed one vote for each such producer position as a committee member and each such producer position as a committee alternate to be filled at a nomination meeting.

Identical limitations and requirements should be applied to handler participation in nominating handler committee members and alternates, for reasons similar to the application of such limitations and requirements to producer nominations of producer committee members and alternates. However, to maintain the distinctive handler and producer representative viewpoint of committee members and alternates, each person who handles and produces potatoes should be required to elect the capacity in which he will participate in program activities, subject to the requirement that, for the purpose of nominating handler committee members and alternates, a handler shall be considered to be a person who produces not more than 50 percent of the total volume of potatoes handled by himself. Such percentage limitation will restrict participation in nominating handlers to persons primarily interested in potato handling activities.

In order that there will be an administrative agency in existence at all times to administer the marketing agreement and order, the Secretary should be allowed to select committee members and alternates without regard to nominations if the committee, for any reason, fails to carry out the nomination procedure prescribed herein. Such selection however, should be on the basis of the representation provided in the marketing agreement and order to insure that the entire production area is fairly and adequately represented.

Any person selected by the Secretary as a committee member or alternate should qualify by filing with the Secretary a written acceptance of willingness and intention to serve in such capacity. Each person selected as a committee member or alternate should qualify, so that the Secretary will have a means of determining if he intends to serve. This is sound operating procedure and is necessary and desirable to avoid delays in the composition of the committee. For this same reason, each member and alternate should file his acceptance within a definite time period after receiving notice of his selection. The ten-day period prescribed is reasonable for qualification and will not unduly retard composition of the committee.

Provision is made for the Secretary to fill any committee vacancies in order to maintain continuity of committee operation. The marketing agreement and order provides several alternative procedures which may be followed by the Secretary in making such selections. The administrative flexibility thus prescribed is desirable so that the Secretary will not be forestalled in making such selections and so that he may choose the most practical of the alternative means of obtaining the names of qualified persons to fill such vacancies. The Secretary should have authority to select persons to fill committee vacancies from nominations made at producer or handler meetings. Practical considerations, however, may preclude the holding of special nomination meetings for this purpose. For example, a vacancy might occur during the height of the potato planting or harvesting season when it would be difficult for the committee to secure an adequate and representative attendance at meetings. It is, therefore, appropriate that the Secretary should be authorized to make selections to fill vacancies from the nominee list last submitted by the committee prior to the occurrence of the vacancy.

It is also desirable and necessary that the Secretary should be authorized to fill committee vacancies without regard to nominations if the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within thirty days after such vacancy occurs. The Secretary should have recourse to such means of filling vacancies in order to maintain continuity of committee operation and to insure that all portions of the production area are adequately represented in the conduct of committee business.

The term of office of committee members and alternates, except for initial members and alternates, should be for two years. A two-year term is desirable so that members and alternates will have adequate time to familiarize themselves with the operation of the program and thus be in a position to render the most effective service in assisting the Secretary in carrying out the declared policy of the act. A term of two years is also the minimum term that can be established if provision is to be made for staggered terms of office. A term of more than two years should not be established since producers and handlers should have an opportunity to vote for a change in their representation at frequent intervals.

Provision is made in the marketing agreement and order for staggered terms of office of committee members and alternates. Under this provision, a majority of the committee in office at the end of a fiscal year will continue in office through the next fiscal year. The establishment of such staggered terms will promote administration of the program in the most effective and efficient manner. By having staggered terms of office, the new members and alternates, constituting about one-half of the committee membership, selected to serve at the beginning of each fiscal year, will benefit from the guidance of the experienced members who carry over. This provision for the carry-over of experienced members will help insure continuity in the policies and procedures relating to the administration of the marketing agreement and order. Such continuity is an essential ingredient in the successful administration of the marketing agreement and order.

To facilitate the establishment of staggered terms of office, the marketing agreement and order provide that the terms of office of 12 members and alternates of the initial committee shall be for one year, and the terms of office of 11 members and alternates shall be for two years. Such provision is fair and equitable and will permit the establishment, on a practical basis, of a committee with the members and alternates thereon holding office for staggered terms.

A quorum of the committee should consist of 12 members, including one handler member, and 12 concurring votes, including the vote of at least one handler, should be necessary for passing any motion or approving any action of the committee. These requirements are reasonable and are necessary to insure that any action of the committee will be representative of a majority of the committee and that the interests of both producers and handlers will be reflected in committee actions.

Only members present at an assembled meeting of the committee, or alternate members acting for members, should be entitled to vote. This requirement will encourage greater attendance at meetings and will promote fuller discussion of committee actions. Provision is made, however, for meetings of the committee by telephone, telegraph, or other means of communication, to meet practical situations where rapid decision with respect to committee actions is necessary. Such emergency situations occur quite frequently in the marketing of potatoes grown in the production area. Any votes cast at such meetings should be promptly confirmed in writing to provide a record of the action taken.

The apportionment and selection of producer and handler members and alternate members of the committee by districts in the manner set forth in the marketing agreement and order will provide fair and equitable representation of all producers and handlers in the production area. The representation provided gives weight, on as fair and reasonable a basis as possible, to the various factors, such as acreage, number of producers, number of handlers, size of district, and variation in producing and marketing conditions, necessary to establish assurance of a fair and equitable representation of all portions of the production area on the committee.

Selection of three producer committee members and alternates from both District Nos. 1 and 3, four producer committee members from District No. 2, and two producer committee members from each of Districts 4, 5, and 6, hereinafter defined, will afford fair and equitable representation on the committee for all producers in the production area, giving appropriate weight to the acreage, production, and the different methods of producing potatoes in the entire production area. Selection of two handler committee members and alternates from District No. 2; and one handler committee member and alternate from each of Districts 1, 3, 4, 5, and 6, hereinafter defined, will afford fair and equitable representation on the committee for all handlers in the production area. This representation gives appropriate weight, on a fair and reasonable basis, to the acreage, production, and the different methods of handling potatoes in the production area, necessary to establish assurance of a fair and equitable representation on the committee for all handlers in the production area.

Committee members and alternates should be compensated at a rate not to exceed $10.00 per day, or portion thereof, and should be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred when acting on committee business. Since such members and alternates will be serving in the interest of the potato industry in the production area, they should not be required to bear such expenses as they incur in attending to committee business. Compensation at not to exceed the rate prescribed herein will offset, to some extent, the losses which such members and alternates will sustain through committee service.

The powers of the committee, as set forth in the notice of hearing, should be granted to the committee because such powers are authorized by the act and are essential to the committee in order for it to discharge its responsibilities under the marketing agreement and order.

Each and all of the duties set forth in the notice of hearing should be given to the committee because such duties are necessary and essential to the accomplishment of the declared policy of the act and for the committee to discharge its obligations to the Secretary. These duties are similar to duties given to other administrative committees under other marketing agreement and order programs.

(b) The declared policy of the act is to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for potatoes, among other commodities, as will tend to establish parity prices for such potatoes. The regulation of shipments of potatoes by grade, size, or quality, authorized in the marketing agreement and order, provides a means of carrying out such policy.

The procedures which are outlined in the marketing agreement and order for the development and institution of marketing policies relating to grade, size, or quality regulations provide a practical basis for the committee to obtain appropriate and adequate information regarding marketing problems. In turn, members of the industry are also provided an appropriate and adequate means of being informed regarding the policies and regulations the committee recommends and, if issued, the regulations that are effective. The factors which the committee should take into consideration in developing its marketing policy are the ones commonly or usually taken into account by growers and handlers in marketing potatoes.

In order that the Secretary may most effectively carry out his responsibilities in connection with the marketing agreement and order, it is provided that the committee should prepare and submit to the Secretary a report on its proposed policy, or amendments thereto, for the marketing of potatoes during each fiscal year. The initial marketing policy in each fiscal year should be prepared and submitted to the Secretary prior to the beginning of the marketing season, to give all interested parties the maximum notice of regulatory possibilities, consistent with affording the committee sufficient time to prepare sound policies. Further provision should be made for the committee to make available the contents of such reports to producers and handlers in the production area.

In making recommendations for regulation, it is provided that the committee shall investigate enumerated relevant factors of supply and demand for potatoes. This requirement is necessary so that the committee will be in the best position to develop sound and practical recommendations for regulation and to advise the Secretary with respect to such supply and demand conditions. The committee will be well qualified to determine marketing conditions for potatoes produced in the production area and to recommend specific regulations which will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The limitation of shipments of the poorer grades, qualities, and less desirable sizes of potatoes grown in the production area will tend to increase the prices of the more desirable grades, qualities, and sizes, and to increase the returns to producers therefrom. Less desirable sizes include not only small potatoes but also excessively large potatoes. Such limitation of shipments will also help to improve the long-run demand for and competitive position of potatoes grown in the production area.

It is necessary and desirable exercise of the authority granted by the act for the committee to recommend and the Secretary to establish grade, size, or quality regulations for any or all portions of the production area; and different grade, size, or quality regulations for different packs, for different time periods within the shipping season, for different varieties, or any combination of the foregoing. Such administrative flexibility is needed in the marketing agreement and order to effectuate the declared policy of the act through the issuance of appropriate regulations adapted to different and changing circumstances encountered in the marketing of potatoes.

Authority to issue different regulations applicable to different portions of the production area is necessary because a particular portion or portions of such area may have adverse growing conditions which cause an abnormally high percentage of the potatoes grown therein to fall within restricted grades, sizes, or qualities. To meet the administrative problems that would arise from a situation of this kind and to provide fair and equitable regulation of all shipments of potatoes grown in the production area, it would be appropriate to establish a less restrictive regulation applicable to such affected portion or portions of the area.

Supply and demand conditions for potatoes are subject to frequent and substantial changes during the course of a particular marketing season. For this reason, it is absolutely essential that the committee have authority to recommend different regulations at any time during the season in order to carry out the declared policy of the act.

Different regulations should be authorized for different varieties of potatoes because varieties differ in particular characteristics such as shape and in susceptibility to certain defects. For these reasons, an appropriate grade and size regulation for one variety might not be appropriate for another. Moreover, a new variety may be introduced in the area which should be regulated differently than the varieties now being grown.

It is necessary to provide for different regulations, under appropriate circumstances, for consumer packs than for wholesale packs to improve and maintain consumer acceptance for potatoes grown in the production area. Consumer packs of potatoes require different size composition than wholesale packs; authority should be provided, therefore, to establish regulations with respect to minimum or maximum sizes of potatoes, or both, differently for consumer packs than for wholesale packs. Consumer acceptance of potatoes is more adversely affected by inferior grades and undesirable sizes in consumer packs than in wholesale packs. In the case of consumer packs, the consumer accepts the package relatively "sight unseen" and does not have an adequate opportunity to make a selection of individual potatoes. The consumer, however, can make the desired selection from bulk displays made up by dumping the contents of wholesale packs into a bin, as is standard procedure in the retail grocery business. Consumers demand a better and more uniform grade, size, and quality of potatoes in consumer packs, than in wholesale packs and failure to maintain such grade, size, and quality in consumer packs will disproportionately decrease the total returns of growers of potatoes in the production area.

The Secretary, upon the recommendation of the committee, or other available information, should be authorized to modify, suspend, or terminate grade, size, or quality regulations with respect to shipments outside of the normal commercial markets for table stock potatoes. The committee should be well qualified, because of the experience and knowledge of individual members, to recommend such modifications, suspensions, or terminations as will be in the best interests of the potato industry in the production area and which will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Shipments of potatoes to the noncompetitive outlets, hereinafter set forth, which otherwise could not be marketed under the regulations, would tend to increase the total returns of potato growers in the production area.

The nature of the demand for seed potatoes differs from the demand for table stock in that small sizes are preferred for seed, whereas the same sizes are discounted in the table stock market. However, certain characteristics which constitute grade defects in table stock potatoes do not necessarily detract from the value of seed potatoes. It is desirable, in order to promote more orderly marketing conditions for potatoes, to authorize the committee to recommend and the Secretary to modify grade, size, or quality regulations with respect to seed potatoes or to suspend or terminate regulations relating to such seed shipments.

Export outlets, while relatively small, are an important factor in the demand for potatoes grown in the production area. Since certain export markets offer premium prices for certain grades, sizes, or qualities of potatoes which usually sell at a discount in the domestic market, it is desirable that the committee be authorized to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, modification, suspensions, or terminations of regulations applicable to export shipments. Such shipments to export would tend to increase returns to producers in the production area and result in added increment to the value of the crop, thereby tending to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Substantial shipments of potatoes to the Federal Government have been made in recent years in carrying out price support obligations administered by the Secretary. It is necessary, therefore, to authorize the committee to recommend and the Secretary to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations to facilitate such shipments, which will increase grower returns from potatoes grown in the production area and thereby tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The committee should be authorized to recommend and the Secretary to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations with respect to potatoes shipped for manufacture or conversion into specified products because such shipments, such as glucose, alcohol, etc., reduce the supply of such potatoes available for shipment to the table stock market and, therefore, such shipments tend to increase the total value of the entire crop of potatoes. The committee should be given authority to recommend which shipments should be classed as being for manufacture or for conversion into specified products because committee members are in an advantageous position to know whether and when such end products constitute outlets that are not competitive with table stock potatoes. It is concluded that the committee should have authority to recommend and the Secretary to specify such products because some products compete on a basis virtually equal to table stock potatoes and, further, because new end products may be developed from time to time, some of which may, and some of which may not be competitive with table stock potatoes.

The committee should be authorized to recommend that shipments of potatoes for livestock feed, or for other specified purposes, should not be regulated, or to recommend modification or suspension of regulations governing such shipments. Livestock feed provides an outlet for potatoes that is not competitive with the table stock market. When such outlets are available it will tend to promote objectives sought under regulation to exempt shipments for this purpose from grade, size, and quality regulations. The committee should be authorized to recommend that shipments of potatoes for a particular purpose or type of utilization should not be regulated, or to recommend modification or suspension of regulations with respect to such shipments, when it is found that such shipments are not competitive with tablestock shipments in commerce. The Secretary, on the basis of such recommendations, or other available information, should be authorized to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations with respect thereto, when such action will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The aforesaid authorizations for the modification, suspension, or termination of regulations, with respect to shipments of potatoes for each enumerated special purpose, should permit the modification, suspension, or termination of one or more regulatory provision and the simultaneous retention of other regulatory provisions because such shipments may require expenditures of administrative funds to police and they may compete, to some extent, with shipments of potatoes for table stock purposes.

The administrative difficulties of regulating small shipments, under some circumstances, may make it uneconomical, undesirable, and impractical to attempt to do so under the marketing agreement and order. Under such circumstances, which can be readily determined by the committee, regulation of such small shipments would not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is concluded that the committee should be authorized to recommend and the Secretary to establish the minimum quantities which should not be subject to any or all regulations issued under the marketing agreement and order. It is necessary to permit the maintenance of one or more regulatory requirements, while relieving such minimum quantities from other regulatory requirements. It may be desirable, for example, for the inspection requirement to be waived on small shipments but that handlers be required to pay assessments or comply with grade, size, and quality regulations with respect to such shipments. The committee should be authorized to limit the minimum quantities that a handler can ship on a time period basis such as one shipment during a 24 hour period. This proviso will tend to minimize the possibility of abusing this privilege and prevent a handler from shipping several small lots during a day in an effect to circumvent the applicable regulations. This provision provides authority to arrange flexible operation of the marketing agreement and order to meet unusual situations in a practical way. Such authority will promote more orderly marketing and prevent the imposition of undue burdens upon handlers making such small shipments.

The requirement that the Secretary shall notify the committee of any regulations, or of any modifications, suspensions, or terminations of regulations, is appropriate and necessary to enable the committee to be informed of such actions. The committee's obligation to give reasonable notice (which shall be given through newspapers, radio, mail, or such combinations thereof as may be deemed desirable by the committee) of orders issued by the Secretary is appropriate and necessary for proper and efficient administration of the marketing agreement and order.

Authority should be provided for the committee to recommend and the Secretary to prescribe adequate safeguards to prevent any potatoes, including seed potatoes, which may be subject to special modified, suspended, or terminated regulation, from entering the current of commerce contrary to the provisions hereof. Such safeguards, among others, may include inspection to provide the committee with an accurate record of the grade, size, and quality of such shipments of potatoes. In order to maintain appropriate identification of such shipments of potatoes, the committee should be authorized to issue Certificates of Privilege to handlers thereof and to require that such handlers obtain such certificates on all such shipments. Certificates of Privilege should be issued in accordance with rules and regulations established by the Secretary, on the basis of committee recommendations, or other available information, so that the issuance of such certificates may be handled in an orderly and efficient manner.

The committee also should be authorized to deny or rescind Certificates of Privilege when such action is necessary to prevent abuse of the privileges conferred thereby. The committee should be authorized to take such rescinding or denial action upon evidence satisfactory to the committee that a handler to whom a Certificate of Privilege has been issued has handled potatoes contrary to the provisions thereof. Action by the committee denying a handler such certificates should be in terms of a specified time period. Handlers affected by the aforesaid rescinding or denial action should have the right of appeal to the committee for reconsideration.

The Secretary should have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any safeguards prescribed or any Certificates of Privilege issued by the committee in order that the Secretary may retain all rights necessary to carry out the declared policy of the act. The Secretary should give prompt notice to the committee of any action taken by him in connection therewith and the committee should currently notify all persons affected by the indicated action.

The committee should maintain detailed records relevant to Certificates of Privilege and should submit, when requested to do so, reports thereon to the Secretary to supply pertinent information requisite for him to discharge his duties under the act and the marketing agreement and order.

(c) The committee should be authorized to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, such minimum standards of quality and maturity and such grading and inspection requirements during any and all periods of marketing, when potato prices are above parity, as will be in the public interest. Some potatoes are of such defective quality that they do not give consumer satisfaction at any time because of the great waste and time involved in their preparation. The cost of such potatoes to the consumer per edible unit is frequently greater than the cost per edible unit of potatoes of better quality.

The shipment of immature potatoes causes an adverse consumer reaction to potatoes from the production area and tends to demoralize the market for later shipments of mature potatoes. There is a tendency for immature potatoes to deteriorate in transit and to develop undesirable cooking properties. Limitation of shipment of such potatoes would be in the interests of both consumers and of the potato industry in the production area. Continued shipments of low quality and immature potatoes may result in a permanent reduction in demand for potatoes grown in the production area.

(d) Provision is made in the marketing agreement and order for inspection by the Federal-State Inspection Service of all shipments of potatoes grown in the production area, except as hereinafter indicated. Inspection certificates issued by this service are a common and usual means of specifying the grade, size, and quality of potatoes and are generally used and recognized in the production area. Such certificates constitute prima facie evidence of the grade, size, and quality of the commodity to which they apply and they are accepted in court as such evidence. It is necessary to provide the handler, the committee, or any other interested party with a means of determining whether a shipment, or shipments of potatoes complies with the requirements of any particular grade, size, and quality regulation which may be in effect under the marketing agreement and order. Inspection certificates provide such a means. The Federal-State Inspection Service can provide reasonably prompt inspection at all points within the production area at a reasonable fee, if inspection is requested at a reasonable time prior to the anticipated sale or transportation of the commodity to be inspected. Effective regulation of the handling of potatoes grown in the production area requires that the grade, size, and quality of each shipment thereof be authoritatively established. Accordingly, the marketing agreement and order should provide, except as hereinafter indicated, that no handler shall ship potatoes unless, prior thereto, such shipment was inspected by the aforesaid Service.

When the quantity of potatoes contained in a small-lot shipment exceeds the aforesaid minimum quantity, the handler of such shipment may, under some circumstances, experience some inconvenience in procuring inspection of such shipment prior to the handling thereof. Such inconvenience can arise by virtue of a sudden market change, receipt of an unanticipated potato order immediately prior to the departure of a produce truck for the market area, and other similar situations. However, if a producer-handler is engaged in supplying produce, including potatoes, to marketing areas relatively near to his farm, he knows, at the beginning of each marketing season, that he can reasonably anticipate occasional occurrences of the aforesaid types of inconvenient situations during the course of such marketing season. Insofar as one of such situations only requires the addition of a small lot of potatoes to a mixed-load produce shipment, such situation will cause no inspection inconvenience because of the minimum quantity or small-lot provisions hereinbefore referred to.

The aforesaid situations need not always cause inspection inconveniences when the volume of potatoes involved exceeds the minimum quantity or small-lot maximum, because the producer-handler can anticipate the time of digging potatoes grown by him and, at the time of anticipating such digging, he can make a request for inspection which can be supplied to him at the time of digging. When an inspector is available at the time of digging, a sufficient quantity of potatoes can be dug, graded, and inspected to afford a producer-handler inspection and certification of a sufficient quantity of potatoes to satisfy his potential handling requirements for the day of digging and a number of days subsequent thereto. Of course, if a producer-handler does not anticipate digging potatoes, for example, until two minutes prior to the initiation of such operation, it would be unreasonable to expect any inspection service to supply an inspector on the basis of a two-minute notice.

Although the foregoing indicates that virtually all of the so-called inconvenient situations can be eliminated by reasonable cooperation of producer-handlers and the inspection service in connection with small lot shipments, in each of which the potatoes exceed the aforesaid minimum quantity, there may be some situations of the general type hereinbefore indicated, which cannot be solved on any of the bases hereinbefore set forth. Insofar as such situations cannot be so solved, it is necessary and desirable that the present marketing practices applicable thereto should be modified to assure that only those grades, sizes, and qualities of potatoes, as evidenced by inspection certificates applicable thereto, move to market as will tend to effectuate the declared policies of the act. The only way such objective can be reasonably attained, on a uniform and equitable basis, is to require that all shipments of potatoes, except as hereinbefore otherwise indicated, must be inspected and certified prior to shipment. There is no persuasive showing in the hearing record that such requirement would constitute a confiscatory burden on any producer-handler to be affected thereby, because the record indicates that many of the so-called emergencies involved in handling mixed-load produce shipments from the production area can be eliminated by cooperation with the inspection agencies, and the remainder of such so-called emergencies, even though they may result in some delay in such shipments reaching the market, will not preclude the handling of such shipments in a manner tending to effectuate the declared policies of the act.

Copies of inspection certificates issued pursuant to the requirements of the marketing agreement and order should be supplied to the committee promptly, so that it may promptly discharge its administrative responsibilities thereunder. In instances where potatoes previously inspected are regraded, resorted, or in any other way subjected to further preparation for market in the production area, such potatoes should be and are required to be inspected and a copy of the inspection certificate should be furnished to the committee because such further preparation for market destroys the validity of the original inspection certificate as evidence of the grade, size, and quality of the potatoes involved. All of the aforesaid requirements are necessary for proper administration and enforcement of the provisions of the marketing agreement and order.

(e) Certain hazards are incidental to the production of potatoes grown in the production area which are beyond the control or reasonable expectation of the producer of such potatoes. Because of these circumstances and to prevent undue hardship among producers with respect to any regulations which may be issued under the marketing agreement and order, the committee should be authorized to issue exemption certificates to producers to permit each producer to handle or cause to be handled his equitable proportion of all potatoes shipped from the production area if the grade, size, or quality of his potatoes have been adversely affected by conditions beyond his control and by conditions beyond reasonable expectation. In determining such equitable proportion, the committee should be authorized to estimate the average percentage of production which has been and will be shipped by all producers in the producer's immediate area of production under a given regulation (which will be such equitable proportion). For such purpose, the committee will need a representative sample of the grade, size, and quality composition of the total crop in such area, a part of which, at any given time during the shipping season, may have been harvested and marketed and another part unharvested.

Similar hazards are prevalent in the handling of potatoes grown in the production area and equitable treatment of each handler, under the marketing agreement and order, requires that he be permitted to handle as large a proportion of his storage holdings of ungraded potatoes (acquired during or immediately following the digging season) as the average proportion of ungraded storage holdings handled by all handlers in an applicant-handler's immediate shipping area, if the grade, size, or quality of such applicant's potatoes have been adversely affected by conditions beyond the applicant's control and by conditions beyond reasonable expectation. Restricting the aforesaid exemptions to cases involving conditions beyond the producer's and handler's control, respectively, and to conditions beyond reasonable expectation, is necessary to preclude the granting of such hardship exemptions where the producers and handlers could have avoided the condition responsible for their hardships.

The committee, by reason of its knowledge of the conditions and problems applicable to the production and handling of potatoes grown in the production area and the information which it will have available in each case, will be well qualified to judge each producer's and handler's application in a fair and equitable manner and to fix the quantity of exempted potatoes which each such applicant may handle or cause to be handled.

The provisions contained in the notice of hearing relevant to the procedure to be followed in issuing exemption certificates, in transferring such certificates, in investigating exemption claims, in appealing exemption claim determinations, and in recording and reporting exemption claim determinations to the Secretary, are necessary to the orderly and equitable operation of the marketing agreement and order, and they should, therefore, be incorporated in the marketing agreement and order.

Provision should be made for the Secretary to modify, change, alter, or rescind the procedure established by the committee for granting of exemptions, and any exemptions granted pursuant to such procedure. This is necessary to guard against inequities in the granting of exemptions and to preclude the issuance of exemption certificates in unjustifiable cases.

(f) The operation of the committee and the marketing agreement and order require funds for payment of necessary administrative expenses. The committee is the logical agency to recommend what expenses are necessary and appropriate for operation of the program. It is also necessary that assessments be levied on the handlers to meet such expenses since no other source of funds is authorized under the act for defraying such expenses. The committee should be required, each year, to prepare and submit to the Secretary a budget showing its estimated expenses and a proposed rate of assessment. This is desirable in order that the Secretary will have the best possible information on probable expenses of the committee and the proper rate of assessment to be levied to meet such expenses.

Assessments should be levied against each handler who first ships potatoes, herein called the first handler, to establish an appropriate basis for each handler paying his pro rata share of necessary administrative expenses. Each first handler is required to pay assessments to the committee, at its request, to conform with normal business procedures and to preclude multiple assessments in connection with individual shipments of potatoes. Each first handler's pro rata share of such expenses shall be a percentage of such expenses equal to the percentage his total season's first handling of potatoes subject to regulation is of the total season's handling of potatoes subject to regulation by all first handlers. The Secretary, upon the basis of the committee's recommendation, or other available information, should fix a rate of assessment per given unit of shipment which first handlers must pay as an equitable share of the expenses of administering the program.

The Secretary should be authorized to increase the rate of assessment which first handlers should pay if he finds, during the course of a given season, that the then current rate of assessment is insufficient to cover expenses. Such increased rate should apply on a retroactive basis to all assessable potatoes previously handled during that season to preclude inequities among handlers.

Revenues collected through assessments in excess of expenses for any fiscal year should, at the end of such fiscal year, be credited pro rata to each contributing handler's account, or, upon demand, refunded to any handler.

The committee should be authorized to maintain, with the approval of the Secretary, suits in its own name, or in the name of its members, against any handler for collection of such handler's pro rata share of the committee's expenses. Such authority is contained in the act.

The committee should be permitted to make such expenditures during a fiscal year as are authorized and are necessary for effective administration and proper functioning of the marketing agreement and order program, within the limitations of the budget submitted by the committee and approved by the Secretary for such year.

Any committee member or alternate responsible for or having in his custody any of the property, funds, records, or any other possessions of the committee, should be required to transfer it to his successor or to such person as may be designated by the Secretary, and to execute such instruments as may be necessary to effect such transfers. The committee, and such members and alternates, should be required to give an accounting for all committee receipts and disbursements and for all committee property whenever requested by the Secretary and whenever, in the case of members and alternates, they cease to be such members or alternates. These transfer and accounting requirements represent sound business procedure and are necessary in order that there will be an unbroken succession in committee possessions.

(g) For proper and efficient administration of the marketing agreement and order, the committee needs information on potatoes with respect to supplies, movement, prices, and sundry other relevant factors which are best obtainable from handlers. The committee should be authorized to request, with the approval of the Secretary, and every handler should be required to maintain records of such facts and furnish to the committee upon request, with the approval of the Secretary, such information therefrom as may be required for the committee to exercise its powers and perform its duties under the marketing agreement and order. The committee should be authorized to audit such records to verify reports submitted as aforesaid. The Secretary should retain the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any requests by the committee for information in order to protect handlers from unreasonable requests for reports.

(h) The provisions of sections 81 through 95, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 28, 1950 (15 F. R. 2418) are common to marketing agreements and orders now operating. Each of such sections sets forth certain rights, obligations, privileges, or procedures which are necessary and appropriate for the effective operation of the marketing agreement and order. These provisions are incidental to, and not inconsistent with section 8c (6) and (7) of the act, and are necessary to effectuate the other provisions of the marketing agreement and order and to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The substance of such provisions, therefore, should be included in the marketing agreement and order.

General findings. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The order, as hereinafter set forth, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) Such order regulates the handling of potatoes grown in the production area in the same manner as, and is applicable only to, persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a proposed marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(3) The said order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area which is practicable, consistently with carrying out the declared policy of the act; and the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of the production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) The said order prescribes, so far as practicable, such different terms, applicable to different parts of the production area, as are necessary to give due recognition to the differences in the production and marketing of potatoes grown in the said area;

(5) All handling of potatoes, as defined in said order, is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Interested parties were allowed until June 15, 1950, to file briefs with respect to findings of facts and conclusions based on evidence introduced at the hearing. No such brief was filed; hence, no ruling is necessary.

Recommended marketing agreement and order. The following marketing agreement and order are recommended as the detailed means by which the aforesaid conclusions may be carried out.

DEFINITIONS

§ 923.1 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any officer, or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture, who is, or may hereafter be authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 923.2 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051).

§ 923.3 Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any organized group or business unit.

§ 923.4 Production area. "Production area" means all territory included within the boundaries of the State of Pennsylvania.

§ 923.5 Potatoes. "Potatoes" means all varieties of Irish potatoes grown within the production area.

§ 923.6 Handler. "Handler" is synonymous with shipper and means any person (except a common or contract carrier of potatoes owned by another person) who ships potatoes.

§ 923.7 Ship. "Ship" or "handle" means to transport, sell, or in any other way to place potatoes in the current of commerce within the production area, or between the production area and any point outside thereof: Provided, That the definition of "ship" or "handle" shall not include or be applicable to the sale or transportation of ungraded potatoes within the production area for storing, or to the sale or transportation of potatoes to a recognized dealer or packer within the production area for the purpose of having such potatoes prepared for market.

§ 923.8 Producer. "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of potatoes for market.

§ 923.9 Fiscal year. "Fiscal year" means the period beginning on June 1 of each year and ending May 31 following.

§ 923.10 Committee. "Committee" means the administrative committee, called the Pennsylvania Potato Committee, established pursuant to § 923.22.

§ 923.11 Varieties. "Varieties" means and includes all classifications or subdivisions of Irish potatoes according to those definitive characteristics now or hereafter recognized by the United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 923.12 Seed potatoes. "Seed potatoes" means and includes all potatoes officially certified and tagged, marked or otherwise appropriately identified, under the supervision of the official seed potato certifying agency of the State of Pennsylvania or such other seed certification agencies as the Secretary may designate.

§ 923.13 Table stock potatoes. "Table stock potatoes" means and includes all potatoes not included within the definition of "seed potatoes."

§ 923.14 Wholesale pack. "Wholesale pack" means a unit of fifty pounds net weight or more of potatoes contained in a bag, crate, or any other type of container.

§ 923.15 Consumer pack. "Consumer pack" means a unit of less than fifty pounds net weight of potatoes contained in a bag, crate, or any other type of container.

§ 923.16 Grade. "Grade" means any one of the officially established grades of potatoes, and "size" means any one of the officially established sizes of potatoes, as defined and set forth in:

(a) The United States Standards for Potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon;

(b) The United States Consumer Standards for Potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (12 F. R. 7281), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon;

(c) State of Pennsylvania Standards for Potatoes issued by the Secretary of Agriculture, State of Pennsylvania, or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon.

§ 923.17 Export. "Export" means shipment of potatoes beyond the boundaries of continental United States.

§ 923.18 District. "District" means each one of the geographical divisions of the production area established pursuant to § 923.24.

§ 923.19 Part and subpart. "Part" means the order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in Pennsylvania, and all rules, regulations, and supplementary orders issued thereunder, and the aforesaid order shall be a "subpart" of such "part."

COMMITTEE

§ 923.22 Establishment and membership. (a) The Pennsylvania Potato Committee, consisting of 23 members of whom 16 shall be producers and 7 shall be handlers, is hereby established. For each member of the committee there shall be an alternate who shall have the same qualifications as the member.

(b) Each person selected as a committee member or alternate to represent producers shall be an individual who is a producer and resident in the respective district for which selected. Each person selected as a committee member or alternate to represent handlers shall be an individual who is a handler and resident in the district for which selected. An officer or an employee of a producer or handler respectively can be selected as committee members and alternates in the district for which selected if such selectees reside in the respective district.

§ 923.23 Term of office. (a) The term of office of committee members and alternates shall be two fiscal years: Provided, That the terms of office of a majority of the initial members and their respective alternates shall be one fiscal year.

(b) Committee members and alternates shall serve during the term of office for which they are selected and have qualified, or during that portion thereof beginning on the date on which they qualify during the term of office and continuing until the end thereof, and until their successors are selected and have qualified.

§ 923.24 Districts. (a) For the purpose of selecting committee members and alternates, the following districts of the production area are hereby established:

District No. 1. Shall include Bucks, Montgomery, Philadelphia, Delaware, Chester, Lancaster, Lebanon, Dauphin, York, Cumberland, Perry, Adams and Franklin Counties.

District No. 2. Shall include Berks, Lehigh, and Northampton Counties.

District No. 3. Shall include Schuylkill, Carbon, Luzerne, Columbia, Northumberland, Montour, Monroe, Lackawanna, Wyoming, Susquehanna, Bradford, Sullivan, Lycoming, Union, Snyder, Wayne and Pike Counties.

District No. 4. Shall include Cambria, Somerset, Bedford, Blair, Indiana, Armstrong, Butler, Mercer, Lawrence, Beaver, Allegheny, Washington, Greene, Fayette, Westmoreland, Fulton, Huntingdon, Juniata, Mifflin, Centre, Clinton, and Clearfield Counties.

District No. 5. Shall include Potter, Tioga, McKean, Cameron, and Elk Counties.

District No. 6. Shall include Erie, Warren, Crawford, Venango, Forest, Clarion, and Jefferson Counties.

(b) The Secretary, upon the recommendation of the committee, may reestablish districts within the production area and may reapportion committee membership among the various districts; Provided, That in recommending any such changes in districts or representation the committee shall give consideration to: (1) The relative importance of new areas of production; (2) changes in the relative position, with respect to production, of existing districts; (3) the geographic locations of areas of production, insofar as they affect the efficiency of administering the marketing agreement and order; and (4) other relevant factors: Provided further, That there shall be no change in the total number of committee members and alternates, or in the total number of districts.

§ 923.25 Nomination. The Secretary may select the members of the committee and their respective alternates from nominations which may be made in the following manner:

(a) Nominations for initial committee members and alternates may be submitted by producers, handlers, or groups thereof, and such nominations may be by virtue of elections conducted by groups of producers and by groups of handlers.

(b) In order to provide nominations for succeeding committee members and alternates:

(1) The committee shall hold or cause to be held prior to April 1 of each year, after the effective date of this subpart, a meeting or meetings of producers in each of the districts designated in § 923.24, in which producer committee vacancies will occur at the end of the then current fiscal year. In like manner, the committee shall hold or cause to be held prior to April 1 of each year, after the effective date of this subpart, a meeting or meetings of handlers to nominate handler committee members and alternates to fill vacancies which will occur at the end of the then current fiscal year.

(2) At each such meeting at least two nominees shall be designated for each position as member and for each position as alternate member on the committee which is vacant or which is to become vacant at the end of the then current fiscal year.

(3) Nominations for committee members and alternate members shall be supplied to the Secretary in such manner and form as he may prescribe, not later than 30 days prior to the end of each fiscal year.

(4) Only producers may participate in designating nominees for producer committee members and alternates and only handlers may participate in designating nominees for handler committee members and alternates. For the purpose of designating nominees for handler committee members and alternates, a handler shall be considered to be a person who produces not more than 50 percent of the total volume of potatoes handled by himself; each person who is both a handler and a producer may vote either as a handler or as a producer and may elect, subject to such 50 percent limitation, the group in which he votes.

(5) Each producer and each handler of potatoes is entitled to cast only one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and representatives, for producer or handler committee members and alternates, respectively: Provided, That producers and handlers operating in more than one district shall elect the district in which they will participate in nominating committee members and alternates: Provided further, That an eligible voter's privilege of casting only one vote, as aforesaid, shall be construed to permit a voter to cast one vote for each position to be filled in the district in which he elects to vote.

§ 923.26 Selection. The Secretary shall select three producer members of the committee, with their respective alternates, from District Nos. 1 and 3; four producer members of the committee, with their respective alternates, from District No. 2; and two producer members, with their respective alternates, from each of the remaining districts, as such districts are defined in § 923.24. The Secretary shall select two handler members of the committee, with their respective alternates, from District No. 2; and one handler member of the committee, with his respective alternate, from each of the remaining districts, as such districts are defined in § 923.24.

§ 923.27 Failure to nominate. If nominations are not made within the time and in the manner specified by the Secretary pursuant to § 923.25, the Secretary may select the committee members and alternates without regard to nominations, which selection shall be on the basis of the representation provided for in § 923.26.

§ 923.28 Acceptance. Any person selected as a committee member or alternate shall qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary within ten days after being notified of such selection.

§ 923.29 Vacancies. To fill any vacancy occasioned by the failure of any person selected as a committee member or alternate to qualify, or in the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any qualified member or alternate, a successor for his unexpired term may be selected from nominations made in the manner specified in § 923.25, or the Secretary may select such committee member or alternate from previously unselected nominees on the current nominee list. If the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within 30 days after such vacancy occurs, such vacancy may be filled without regard to nominations, which selection shall be made on the basis of the representation provided for in § 923.26.

§ 923.30 Alternate members. An alternate member of the committee shall act in the place and stead of the member for whom he is an alternate, during such member's absence. In the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member, his alternate shall act for him until a successor for such member is selected and has qualified.

§ 923.31 Procedure. (a) Twelve members, including at least one handler member of the committee, shall be necessary to constitute a quorum, and 12 concuring votes, including the vote of at least one handler, shall be required to pass any motion or approve any committee action.

(b) The committee may provide for meetings by telephone, telegraph, or other means of communication, and any vote cast at such a meeting shall be confirmed promptly in writing: Provided, That all votes shall be cast in person at assembled meetings.

§ 923.32 Expenses and compensation. Committee members and alternates shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties and in the exercise of their powers under this part, and shall receive compensation at a rate to be determined by the committee, which rate shall not exceed $10.00 for each day, or portion thereof, spent in attending to committee business.

§ 923.33 Powers. The committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions of this part in accordance with its terms;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this part;

(c) To receive, investigate and report to the Secretary complaints of violation of the provisions of this part; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this part.

§ 923.34 Duties. It shall be the duty of the committee:

(a) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any producer or handler;

(b) To select a chairman and such other officers for each fiscal period as may be necessary, to select subcommittees of committee members and to adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as it may deem advisable;

(c) To appoint such employees, agents, and representatives as it may deem necessary and to determine the salaries and define the duties of each such person;

(d) To investigate, from time to time, and to assemble data on the growing, harvesting, shipping, and marketing conditions with respect to potatoes, and to engage in such research and service activities, which relate to the handling or marketing of potatoes, as may be approved by the Secretary;

(e) To furnish to the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(f) To keep minutes, books, and records which clearly reflect all of the acts and transactions of the committee and such minutes, books, and records shall be subject to examination at any time by the Secretary or his authorized agent or representative;

(g) To make available to producers and handlers the committee voting record on recommended regulations and on other matters of policy;

(h) At the beginning of each fiscal year, to submit to the Secretary a budget of its expenses for such fiscal year, together with a report thereon;

(i) To cause the books of the committee to be audited by a competent accountant at least once each fiscal year, and at such other time as the committee may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request. The report of such audit shall show the receipt and expenditure of funds collected pursuant to this part; a copy of each such report shall be furnished to the Secretary and a copy of each such report shall be made available at the principal office of the committee for inspection by producers and handlers; and

(j) To consult, cooperate and exchange information with other potato marketing committees and other individuals or agencies in connection with all proper committee activities and objectives under this part.

BUDGET, EXPENSES, AND ASSESSMENTS

§ 923.40 Budget. The committee shall prepare a budget for each fiscal year, showing its anticipated expenses and a proposed rate of assessment to cover such expenses. The committee shall transmit such budget to the Secretary, together with a report accompanying the budget showing the basis for its calculation of expenses and the proposed rate of assessment.

§ 923.41 Expenses. The Committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary, upon the basis of the aforesaid budget and other available information, finds may be necessary during each fiscal year to perform its functions under this part and for such other purposes as may be appropriate pursuant to the provisions of this part.

§ 923.42 Rate of assessment. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying on handlers of assessments which shall be at a rate fixed by the Secretary, upon the basis of the committee's recommendation, or other available information. Each handler who first ships potatoes shall pay assessments to the committee, upon demand, which assessments shall be such handler's pro rata share of the expenses which will be appropriately incurred by the committee during each fiscal year. Such handler's share of such expense shall be proportionate to the ratio between the total quantity of potatoes handled by him as the first handler thereof, during the applicable fiscal year, and the total quantity of potatoes handled by all handlers as the first handlers thereof, during the same fiscal year.

§ 923.43 Increasing rate of assessment. Upon recommendation of the committee, or upon the basis of a later finding relative to the committee's expenses or revenue, the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment to cover expenses which shall be appropriately incurred. Such increase shall be applicable to all potatoes handled during the given fiscal year.

§ 923.44 Refunds. If at the end of a fiscal year, it shall appear that assessments collected are in excess of expenses incurred, each handler entitled to a proportionate refund of the excess assessments shall be credited with such refund against the operations of the following fiscal year, unless he demands payment thereof, in which event such proportionate refund shall be paid to him.

§ 923.45 Accounting. All funds received by the committee, pursuant to any provision of this part, shall be used solely for the purposes specified in this part and shall be accounted for in the following manner:

(a) The Secretary may at any time require the committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements; and

(b) Whenever any person ceases to be a committee member or alternate, he shall account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property and funds in his hands, together with all books and records in his possession, to his successor in office or to such person as the Secretary may designate, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor or in such designated person the right to all the property, funds, or claims vested in such member or alternate.

§ 923.46 Collection of funds. (a) The committee may, with the approval of the Secretary, maintain in its own name or in the name of its members, a suit against any handler for the collection of such handler's pro rata share of the expenses of the committee.

(b) In order to provide funds to carry out the functions of the committee, handlers may make advance payment of assessments.

REGULATION

§ 923.50 Marketing policy preparation. Prior to the beginning of shipments each season, the committee shall consider and prepare a proposed policy for the marketing of potatoes during such season or portion thereof. In developing its marketing policy the committee shall investigate relevant supply and demand conditions for potatoes, giving appropriate consideration to:

(a) Market prices of potatoes, including prices by grade, size, and quality, in wholesale or consumer packs, or any other shipping unit;

(b) Supply of potatoes, by grade, size, and quality, in the production area and in other production areas;

(c) The trend and level of consumer income; and

(d) Other relevant factors.

§ 923.51 Marketing policy report. (a) The committee shall submit to the Secretary a report setting forth the aforesaid marketing policy; a copy of such report shall be made available to producers and handlers.

(b) In the event it becomes advisable to deviate from such marketing policy, because of changed supply or demand conditions, the committee shall formulate a new marketing policy in the manner outlined in § 923.50, which shall be submitted to the Secretary and made available to producers and handlers.

§ 923.52 Recommendation for regulations. The committee shall recommend regulation to the Secretary whenever it finds that such regulation, as provided in § 923.53, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The committee may also recommend modification, suspension, or termination of regulations in order to facilitate shipments of potatoes for the specified purposes set forth in § 923.54.

§ 923.53 Issuance of regulations. The Secretary shall limit the shipment of potatoes whenever he finds from the recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, that such regulation will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Such limitation may:

(a) Regulate, in any or all portions of the production area, the shipment of particular grades, sizes, or quality of any or all varieties of potatoes during any period;

(b) Regulate the shipment of particular grades, sizes, or quality of potatoes differently for different varieties, for different portions of the production area, for consumer and wholesale packs, or any combination of the foregoing, during any period;

(c) Regulate the shipment of potatoes by establishing and maintaining, in terms of grades, sizes, or both, minimum standards of quality and maturity.

§ 923.54 Modification, suspension or termination. The Secretary, whenever he finds upon the basis of recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or other available information, that it will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, shall modify, suspend, or terminate regulations issued pursuant to §§ 923.42, 923.43, 923.53, 923.65, or any combination thereof, in order to facilitate shipments of potatoes for the following purposes:

(a) For seed;

(b) For export;

(c) For distribution by the Federal Government, for distribution by relief agencies, or for consumption by charitable institutions;

(d) For manufacture or conversion into specified products;

(e) For livestock feed;

(f) For other purposes which may be specified.

§ 923.55 Minimum quantity regulation. The Secretary may establish, upon the basis of a committee recommendation, or other available information, for any or all portions of the production area, minimum quantities below which shipments will be free from regulations issued or in effect pursuant to §§ 923.42, 923.43, 923.53, 923.65, or any combination thereof.

§ 923.56 Notification of regulation. The Secretary shall notify the committee of any regulations issued, or of any modification, suspension, or termination thereof. The committee shall give reasonable notice thereof to handlers.

§ 923.57 Safeguards. (a) The committee may recommend and the Secretary, upon the basis of such recommendation, or other available information, may prescribe adequate safeguards to prevent shipments effected pursuant to § 923.54 and § 923.55, from entering channels of trade for other than the specific purposes authorized therefor, and rules governing the issuance and the contents of Certificates of Privilege if such certificates are prescribed as safeguards. Such safeguards may include requirements that:

(1) Handlers shall file applications with the committee to ship potatoes pursuant to § 923.54 and § 923.55;

(2) Handlers shall obtain inspection required by § 923.65, or pay the pro rata share of expenses provided by §§ 923.42, and 923.43, or both, in connection with potato shipments effected under the provisions of § 923.54 and § 923.55: Provided, That such inspection, or payment of expenses, or both may be required at different times than otherwise specified by the aforesaid sections; and

(3) Handlers shall obtain Certificates of Privilege from the committee for shipments of potatoes effected or to be effected under provisions of § 923.54 and § 923.55.

(b) The committee may rescind or deny Certificates of Privilege to any handler if proof is obtained that potatoes shipped by him for the purposes stated in § 923.54 and § 923.55 were handled contrary to the requirements applicable thereto.

(c) The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any safeguards prescribed and any certificates issued by the committee pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(d) The committee shall make reports to the Secretary, as requested, showing the number of applications for such certificates, the quantity of potatoes covered by such applications, the number of such applications denied and certificates granted, the quantity of potatoes shipped under duly issued certificates, and such other information as may be requested.

INSPECTION

§ 923.65 Inspection and certification. During any period in which shipments of potatoes are regulated pursuant to the provisions of §§ 923.42, 923.43, or 923.53, or any combination thereof, no handler shall ship potatoes unless, prior thereto, such shipment was inspected by an authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, or such other inspection service as the Secretary shall designate. Each handler procuring inspections pursuant to this section, shall make arrangements with the inspecting agency to forward promptly to the committee a copy of the inspection certificate: Provided, That the regrading, resorting, repacking, or other further preparation of inspected potatoes for market shall invalidate prior inspection thereon and subsequent shipment of such potatoes after regrading, resorting, repacking, or other preparation for market shall not be effected unless, prior thereto, such shipment is inspected as provided in this section.

EXEMPTIONS

§ 923.70 Procedure. The committee may adopt, subject to approval of the Secretary, the procedures pursuant to which certificates of exemption will be issued to producers or handlers.

§ 923.71 Granting exemptions. (a) The committee may issue certificates of exemptions to any producer who applies for such exemption and furnishes adequate evidence to the committee that, by reason of a regulation issued pursuant to § 923.53, he will be prevented from handling, or causing to be handled, as large a proportion of his production as the average proportion of production handled, or caused to be handled, during the entire season (or such portion thereof as may be determined by the committee) by all producers in said applicant's immediate area of production, and that the grade, size, or quality of the applicant's potatoes have been adversely affected by acts beyond the applicant's control and by acts beyond reasonable expectation. Each such certificate shall permit the producer to handle, or cause to be handled, the amount of potatoes specified thereon. Such certificate shall be transferred with such potatoes at time of transportation or sale.

(b) The committee may issue certificates of exemption to any handler who applies for such exemption and furnishes adequate evidence to the committee that, by reason of a regulation issued pursuant to § 923.53, he will be prevented from handling as large a proportion of his storage holdings of ungraded potatoes, acquired during or immediately following the digging season, as the average proportion of ungraded storage holdings handled by all handlers in said applicant's immediate shipping area, and that the grade, size, or quality of the applicant's potatoes have been adversely affected by acts beyond the applicant's control and by acts beyond reasonable expectation. Each certificate shall permit the handler to handle the amount of potatoes specified thereon. Such certificate shall be transferred with such potatoes at time of transportation or sale.

(c) The committee shall be permitted, at any time, to make a thorough investigation of any producer's or handler's claim pertaining to exemptions.

§ 923.72 Appeal. If any applicant for exemption certificates is dissatisfied with the determination by the committee with respect to his application, said applicant may file an appeal with the committee. Such an appeal must be taken promptly after the determination by the committee from which the appeal is taken. Any applicant filing an appeal shall furnish evidence satisfactory to the committee for a determination on the appeal. The committee shall thereupon reconsider the application, examine all available evidence, and make a final determination concerning the application. The committee shall notify the appellant of the final determination and shall furnish the Secretary with a copy of the appeal and a statement of considerations involved in making the final determination.

§ 923.73 Records and reports and review of exemptions. (a) The committee shall maintain a record of all applications submitted for exemption certificates, a record of all certificates issued and denied, the quantity of potatoes covered by such exemption certificates, a record of the amount of potatoes shipped under exemption certificates, a record of appeals for reconsideration of applications, and such additional information as may be requested by the Secretary. Periodic reports on such records shall be compiled and issued by the committee upon request of the Secretary.

(b) The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any procedure and any exemptions granted pursuant to §§ 923.70, 923.71, 923.72, or any combination thereof.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 923.80 Reports. Upon the request of the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, every handler shall furnish to the committee, in such manner and at such time as may be prescribed, such information as will enable the committee to exercise its powers and perform its duties under this part. Handlers shall maintain records from which such reported information can be verified by the committee. The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, or rescind any requests for reports made pursuant to this section.

§ 923.81 Compliance. Except as provided in this part, no handler shall ship potatoes, the shipment of which has been prohibited by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of this part, and no handler shall ship potatoes except in conformity to the provisions of this part.

§ 923.82 Right of the Secretary. The members of the committee (including successors and alternates), and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the committee, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every order, regulation, decision, determination or other act of the committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time. Upon such disapproval, the disapproved action of the said committee shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

§ 923.83 Effective time. The provisions of this subpart shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until terminated in one of the ways specified in this subpart.

§ 923.84 Termination. (a) The Secretary may, at any time, terminate the provisions of this subpart by giving at least one day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which he may determine.

(b) The Secretary may terminate or suspend the operation of any or all of the provisions of this subpart whenever he finds that such provisions do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(c) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this subpart at the end of any fiscal year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of producers who, during the preceding fiscal year, have been engaged in the production for market of potatoes: Provided, That such majority has, during such year, produced for market more than fifty percent of the volume of such potatoes produced for market; but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before April 30 of the then current fiscal year.

(d) The provisions of this subpart shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

(e) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this agreement at the end of any fiscal year, upon the written request of handlers signatory to this agreement who submit evidence satisfactory to the Secretary that they handled not less than sixty-seven percent of the total volume of potatoes handled by the signatory handlers during the preceding fiscal year; but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before April 30 of the then current fiscal year.[1]

§ 923.85 Proceedings after termination. (a) Upon the termination of the provisions of this subpart, the then functioning members of the committee shall continue as trustees, for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the committee, of all the funds and property then in the possession of, or under control of, the committee, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination. Action by said trusteeship shall require the concurrence of a majority of the said trustees.

(b) The said trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the committee and of the trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct; and shall, upon request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title and right to all of the funds, property, and claims vested in the committee or the trustees pursuant hereto.

(c) Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been transferred or delivered by the committee or its members, pursuant to this section, shall be subject to the same obligations imposed upon the members of the committee and upon the said trustees.

§ 923.86 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this subpart, or of any regulation issued pursuant to this subpart, or the issuance of any amendments to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision of this subpart, or any regulation issued under this subpart, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of this subpart, or of any regulation issued under this subpart, or (c) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person with respect to any such violation.

§ 923.87 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue of this subpart shall cease upon the termination of this subpart, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this subpart.

§ 923.88 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any person, including any officer or employee of the government, or name any bureau or division in the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

[1] Applicable only to the proposed marketing agreement.

§ 923.89 Derogation. Nothing contained in this subpart is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modifications of the rights of the Secretary, or of the United States, to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or, in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 923.90 Personal liability. No member or alternate member of the committee, nor any employee or agent thereof, shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or to any person for errors in judgment, mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate, agent, or employee, except for acts of dishonesty.

§ 923.91 Separability. If any provision of this subpart is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this subpart, or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing, shall not be affected thereby.

§ 923.92 Amendments. Amendments to this subpart may be proposed, from time to time, by the committee or by the Secretary.

§ 923.93 Counterparts. This agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts and when one counterpart is signed by the Secretary, all such counterparts shall constitute when taken together, one and the same instrument as if all signatures were contained in one original.[1]

§ 923.94 Additional parties. After the effective date of this agreement, any handler who has not previously executed this agreement may become a party to this agreement if a counterpart of this agreement is executed by him and delivered to the Secretary. This agreement shall take effect as to such new contracting party at the time such counterpart is delivered to the Secretary, and benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by this agreement shall then be effective as to such new contracting party.[1]

§ 923.95 Order with marketing agreement. Each signatory handler favors and approves the issuance of an order, by the Secretary, regulating the handling of potatoes in the same manner as is provided for in this agreement; and each signatory handler hereby requests the Secretary to issue, pursuant to the act, such an order.[1]

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 70-2415]

NATIONAL FUEL GAS CO. ET AL.

ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION AND PERMITTING DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on 30th day of June 1950.

In the matter of National Fuel Gas Company, United Natural Gas Company, Ridgeway Natural Gas Company, St. Marys Natural Gas Company, Smethport Natural Gas Company, Mercer County Gas Company, File No. 70-2415.

The National Fuel Gas Company ("National"), a registered holding company, and its subsidiaries, United Natural Gas Company ("United"), Ridgeway Natural Gas Company ("Ridgeway"), St. Marys Natural Gas Company ("St. Marys"), Smethport Natural Gas Company ("Smethport") and Mercer County Gas Company ("Mercer"), having filed a joint application-declaration, pursuant to sections 6, 7, 9, 10 and 12 of the act and Rules U-42, U-43 and U-44 promulgated thereunder with respect to the following transactions:

United, Ridgeway, St. Marys, Smethport and Mercer propose to enter into an agreement for consolidation and merger and merge their respective properties and operations into one public utility company to be known as United Natural Gas Company. To effectuate the merger National will exchange the common stocks of the merging companies for new common stock to be issued by United having a stated value equal to $25 per share which is the stated value of the present United common stock. These companies operate in adjoining areas of Pennsylvania and it is stated that their merger will simplify the holding company system of which these companies are a part and effect economies by reducing operating expenses.

Prior to the proposed merger, it is proposed that Mercer pay a dividend to National of all its "paid in" surplus in the amount of $3,707.48 to obviate the necessity for the merged company to carry a "paid in" surplus account.

It is further proposed prior to the proposed merger that Ridgeway, St. Marys and Smethport each repurchase from National a portion of the shares of their own common capital stock at the par value thereof of $100 per share and cancel the same, it being stated that these companies have larger amounts of working capital than have been needed or will be required by the merged company. Ridgeway proposes to repurchase and cancel 8,330 shares for a consideration of $833,000 and leave outstanding 16,040 shares; St. Marys proposes to repurchase and cancel 3,550 shares for a consideration of $355,000 and leave outstanding 10,000 shares; Smethport proposes to repurchase and cancel 1,200 shares for a consideration of $120,000 and to leave outstanding 2,800 shares.

National proposes to use the $1,311,707.48 cash received from the foregoing transactions for general corporate purposes, including the reduction of current bank loans and loans to its subsidiaries when the latter shall have been authorized by this Commission.

National states that the proposed merger is subject to the jurisdiction of the Public Utility Commission of Pennsylvania and that the transactions proposed to be effected prior to the merger are not subject to such jurisdiction. National has requested that an interim order of this Commission be entered with respect to the transactions proposed to be effected prior to the merger.

The Commission finding that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said joint application-declaration, be granted and permitted to become effective, with respect to the transactions proposed to be effected prior to the merger:

It is hereby ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the joint application-declaration, insofar as it proposes (i) the payment by Mercer and the receipt by National of a dividend of $3,707.48 constituting Mercer's "paid in" surplus; and (ii) the sale by National and the repurchase by Ridgeway, St. Marys and Smethport of 8,330, 3,550 and 1,200 shares, respectively, of their common stock, be, and the same hereby is, granted and permitted to become effective, jurisdiction being specifically reserved over all other aspects of the proposed transactions.

By the Commission.

UNITED LIGHT AND RAILWAYS CO. ET AL.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDER RELEASING JURISDICTION WITH RESPECT TO FEES AND EXPENSES

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of July A. D. 1950.

The Commission having by order dated March 22, 1950, approved, subject to a reservation of jurisdiction with respect to fees and expenses, the terms and conditions of the sale by The United Light and Railways Company ("Railways") to its common stockholders of 1,904,003 shares of common stock of Kansas City Power and Light Company ("Kansas City") contemplated by the plan of liquidation of Railways and Continental Gas & Electric Corporation approved by order of January 10, 1950; and

The record having been completed with respect to the fees and expenses incurred and to be paid in connection with the sale of the Kansas City stock; and

It appearing that the fees and expenses incurred and to be paid aggregate $88,865.66 as follows:

Registration fee	$5,140.81
Printing registration statement and documents	35,000.00
Printing warrants	1,400.00
Legal fees of Sidley, Austin, Burgess & Smith	10,000.00
Legal fees of Johnson, Lucas, Graves and Fane	5,000.00
Accounting fees of Arthur Andersen & Co	7,500.00
Depositary fee of Central Hanover Bank & Trust Co	16,556.81
Depositary expenses	4,308.85
Miscellaneous, telephone, telegraph, travel, Blue Sky, etc	3,959.19
Total	88,865.66

and it appearing that such fees and expenses are not unreasonable, and the Commission deeming it appropriate to release jurisdiction with respect to said fees and expenses:

It is ordered, That the jurisdiction reserved in the order of March 22, 1950, with respect to the fees and expenses to be incurred and paid in connection with the sale of the common stock of Kansas City Power and Light Company, be, and it hereby is, released.

By the Commission.

UTAH POWER AND LIGHT CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 3d day of July A. D. 1950.

Notice is hereby given that Utah Power and Light Company ("Utah"), a registered holding company, has filed a declaration and amendment thereto pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and has designated sections 6 (a), 7 and 12 (b) thereof and Rule U-62 of the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions which are summarized as follows:

Utah proposes to amend its certificate of organization and by-laws so as to (1) increase its authorized capital stock from 1,500,000 shares of no par value common stock to 2,000,000 shares of no par value common stock; (2) delete the present provision giving the stockholders full pre-emptive rights with respect to any offering of new or additional common stock and to provide that such new or additional common stock shall first be offered to Utah's stockholders on a pro rata basis unless such stock is to be sold for money by a public offering or an offering to or through underwriters or investment bankers who shall have agreed to make a public offering of such shares; and (3) change the date of the annual meeting of stockholders from the first Monday in October to the third Monday in May of each year.

The provisions with respect to the increase of capital stock and the change of the date of annual meetings will require a majority vote of the outstanding common stock, and the proposed change in the pre-emptive rights provisions will require the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of common stock.

Utah requests that the order herein be entered as promptly as may be practicable and that such order become effective forthwith upon the issuance thereof.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 14, 1950, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest, and the issues of law and fact raised by said declaration which he desires to controvert, or request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after July 14, 1950, said declaration, as filed or as amended, may be permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transaction as provided in Rule U-20 (a) or Rule U-100. All interested persons are referred to said declaration on file with the Commission for a full statement of the transaction therein proposed.

By the Commission.

AMERICAN POWER & LIGHT CO. AND WASHINGTON WATER POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 30th day of June A. D. 1950.

Notice is hereby given that American Power & Light Company ("American"), a registered holding company, and its electric utility subsidiary, The Washington Water Power Company ("Washington"), have filed a joint application-declaration and amendments thereto pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), and have designated sections 6 (a), 6 (b), 7, 9 (a) (1), 10, 12 (b), 12 (c), and 12 (f) thereof, and Rules U-42 and U-45 promulgated thereunder, as applicable to the proposed transactions which may be summarized as follows:

Washington estimates that during the years 1950 and 1951 it will need a total of $8,200,000 of outside cash. Of this total, $2,600,000 would be used to finance, in part, its 1950 construction program calling for total expenditures of $4,509,000, $1,750,000 would be expended in 1951 to finance, in part, its 1951 construction program calling for total expenditures of $3,750,000, and $3,850,000 would be used to retire 35,000 shares (100%) of its $6 preferred stock which is redeemable at any time on 30-days' notice at $110 per share plus accumulated and unpaid dividends. The company states that it proposes to redeem such $6 preferred stock on or about August 1, 1950.

In order to finance temporarily its proposed construction program and to provide funds for the retirement of its preferred stock, Washington proposes to borrow and American proposes to lend to it, from time to time prior to April 30, 1951, sums which in the aggregate will not exceed $6,500,000. Each borrowing would be evidenced by a promissory note bearing interest at the rate of 2% per annum and would be payable on or before nine months from the date of such borrowing with the option in Washington to extend the maturity of each such borrowing for not to exceed six months. It is provided that no borrowing shall remain outstanding for more than 15 months from the date of the first borrowing from American and that no extension would be made except after Washington shall have given this Commission at least 10-days' advance notice of any proposed extension and the Commission shall have taken no action in respect thereof. It is contemplated that Washington will begin borrowing from American about August 1, 1950. Washington will repay American the amount of all such borrowings when it completes the long-term financing of its capital requirements, but in any event before the Washington common stock shall be disposed of by American to the public either through distribution or sale.

Pursuant to this Commission's order dated August 2, 1949 (File No. 70-2181), Washington was authorized to borrow from Spokane and Eastern Branch of Seattle-First National Bank or other banks not to exceed $4,500,000, such loans to mature not later than November 1, 1950. As of the date of the filing of the application-declaration herein, Washington had, pursuant to such authorization, borrowed $2,500,000 of the $4,500,000 commitment at an interest rate of 2%. Washington proposes to extend its authority to borrow up to $4,500,000 from Spokane and Eastern Branch of Seattle-First National Bank or other banks from November 1, 1950 to April 30, 1951, with the right to further extend for an additional time not to exceed six months from April 30, 1951, and has entered into a loan extension agreement to that effect with said bank. As from time to time borrowings are to be made from that bank or other banks by Washington, amendments to the application-declaration will be filed with the Commission stating the name or names of the bank or banks from which such borrowings are to be made, the terms of such borrowings, the interest rate or rates, and the maturity date or dates. It is proposed that amendments so filed shall become effective 10 days after filing in the event no action is taken with respect thereto by this Commission within such 10-day period.

The application-declaration states that the issuance and sale of its notes as evidence of the proposed borrowings is subject to the jurisdiction of the Washington Public Service Commission, the State Commission of the State in which Washington is organized and doing business. It is further stated that an application for approval of the proposed issuance and sale of securities has been made to that Commission.

Applicants-declarants request that the Commission's order herein issue as promptly as practicable and that such order become effective forthwith upon its issuance.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than July 17, 1950, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matters, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed to the Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after July 17, 1950, said application-declaration may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided in Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act, or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rules U-20 (a) and U-100 thereof.

All interested persons are referred to the application-declaration which is on file in the offices of the Commission for a full statement of the transactions proposed.

By the Commission.

VOLUME 15 NUMBER 132

Washington, Tuesday, July 11, 1950

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

EXECUTIVE ORDER 10141

POSSESSION, CONTROL, AND OPERATION OF THE TRANSPORTATION SYSTEM OF THE CHICAGO, ROCK ISLAND & PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY

WHEREAS I find that as a result of a labor disturbance there are interruptions, and threatened interruptions, of the operations of the transportation system owned or operated by the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad Company; that it has become necessary to take possession and assume control of the said transportation system for purposes that are needful or desirable in connection with the present emergency; and that the exercise, as hereinafter specified, of the powers vested in me is necessary to insure in the national interest the operation of the said transportation system:

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the power and authority vested in me by the Constitution and the laws of the United States, including the act of August 29, 1916, 39 Stat. 619, 645, as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the armed forces of the United States, it is hereby ordered as follows:

1. Possession, control, and operation of the transportation system owned or operated by the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad Company (hereinafter referred to as the company) are hereby taken and assumed, through the Secretary of the Army (hereinafter referred to as the Secretary) as of four o'clock, Eastern Standard Time, July 8, 1950; but such possession and control shall be limited to real and personal property and other assets used or useful in connection with the operation of the said transportation system.

2. The Secretary is directed to operate, or to arrange for the operation of, the transportation system taken pursuant to this order in such manner as he deems necessary to assure to the fullest possible extent continuous and uninterrupted transportation service.

3. In carrying out the provisions of this order the Secretary may act through or with the aid of such public or private instrumentalities or persons as he may designate, and may delegate such of his authority as he may deem necessary or desirable. The Secretary may issue such general and special orders, rules, and regulations as may be necessary or appropriate for carrying out the provisions, and to accomplish the purposes, of this order. All Federal agencies shall comply with the orders of the Secretary issued pursuant to this order and shall cooperate to the fullest extent of their authority with the Secretary in carrying out the provisions of this order.

4. The Secretary shall permit the management of the company to continue its managerial functions to the maximum degree possible consistent with the purposes of this order. Except so far as the Secretary shall from time to time otherwise provide by appropriate order or regulation, the board of directors, officers, and employees of the company shall continue the operation of the said transportation system, including the collection and disbursement of funds thereof, in the usual and ordinary course of the business of the company, in the name of the company, and by means of any agencies, associations, or other instrumentalities now utilized by the company.

5. Except so far as the Secretary shall from time to time otherwise determine and provide by appropriate order or regulation, existing contracts and agreements to which the company is a party shall remain in full force and effect. Nothing in this order shall have the effect of suspending or releasing any obligation owed to the company, and all payments of such obligations shall be made to the company by the persons obligated to the company. Except as the Secretary may otherwise direct, there may be made, in due course, payments of dividends on stock and of principal, interest, sinking funds, and all other distributions upon bonds, debentures, and other obligations; and expenditures may be made for other ordinary corporate purposes.

6. Until further order of the President or the Secretary, the said transportation system shall be managed and operated under the terms and conditions of employment in effect on June 24, 1950, without prejudice to existing equities or to the effectiveness of such retroactive provisions as may be included in the final settlement of the dispute between the company and the workers. The Secretary shall recognize the right of the workers to continue their membership in labor organizations, to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing with the representatives of the company, subject to the provisions of applicable law, as to disputes between the company and the workers; and to engage in concerted activities for the purpose of such collective bargaining or for other mutual aid or protection, provided that in his opinion such concerted activities do not interfere with the operation of the transportation system taken hereunder.

7. Except as this order otherwise provides and except as the Secretary may otherwise direct, the operation of the transportation system taken hereunder shall be in conformity with the Interstate Commerce Act, as amended, the Railway Labor Act, as amended, the Safety Appliance Acts, the Employers' Liability Acts, and other applicable Federal and State laws, Executive orders, local ordinances, and rules and regulations issued pursuant to such laws, Executive orders, and ordinances.

8. Except with the prior written consent of the Secretary, no receivership, reorganization, or similar proceeding affecting the company shall be instituted; and no attachment by mesne process, garnishment, execution, or otherwise shall be levied on or against any of the real or personal property or other assets of the company.

9. The Secretary is authorized to furnish protection for persons employed or seeking employment in or with the transportation system of which possession is taken hereunder; to furnish protection for such transportation system; and to furnish equipment, manpower, and other facilities or services deemed necessary to carry out the provisions, and to accomplish the purposes, of this order.

10. From and after four o'clock, Eastern Standard Time, on the eighth day of July, 1950, all properties taken under this order shall be conclusively deemed to be within the possession and control of the United States without further act or notice.

11. Possession, control, and operation of the transportation system, or any part thereof, or of any real or personal property taken under this order shall be terminated by the Secretary when he determines that such possession, control, and operation are no longer necessary to carry out the provisions, and to accomplish the purposes, of this order.

REORGANIZATION PLAN NO. 22 OF 1950

Prepared by the President and Transmitted to the Senate and the House of Representatives in Congress Assembled, May 9, 1950, Pursuant to the Provisions of the Reorganization Act of 1949, Approved June 20, 1949

FEDERAL NATIONAL MORTGAGE ASSOCIATION

SECTION 1. Transfer of Association and its functions. The Federal National Mortgage Association, together with its functions, is hereby transferred from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to the Housing and Home Finance Agency and shall be administered subject to the direction and control of the Housing and Home Finance Administrator.

SEC. 2. Transfers to the Housing Administrator. There are hereby transferred from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to the Housing and Home Finance Administrator,

(1) The notes of the Federal National Mortgage Association payable to the Reconstruction Finance Corporation,

(2) The capital stock of the Federal National Mortgage Association,

(3) The function of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation of making payments on its notes issued to the Secretary of the Treasury in an amount equal to (a) the unpaid principal of, and accrued interest on, the notes of the Federal National Mortgage Association transferred under (1) above, (b) any funds of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation transferred under the provisions of section 5 hereof, (c) the book value of any office furniture and equipment of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation transferred under the provisions of section 5 hereof, and (d) the par value of the capital stock of the Federal National Mortgage Association plus the amount of its surplus paid in by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation,

(4) The function of issuing notes or other obligations to the Secretary of the Treasury, which may be purchased by the Secretary, under section 7 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, in an amount not in excess of that necessary to finance at any one time the outstanding balances of the investments, loans, and purchases held by the Federal National Mortgage Association, taking into consideration other balance sheet items,

(5) Except as otherwise provided in this reorganization plan, all other functions of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation (including functions of the board of directors of such Corporation and functions of the chairman of the board of directors of such Corporation) with respect to the Federal National Mortgage Association, and

(6) All functions of the Federal Housing Commissioner with respect to the Federal National Mortgage Association.

SEC. 3. Board of directors and officers. Functions with respect to serving, including eligibility to serve, as members of the board of directors of the Federal National Mortgage Association and as officers of such Association are hereby transferred from the members of the board of directors of, and from the officers and employees of, the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to the officers and employees of the Housing and Home Finance Agency (including those of the constituent agencies of the Housing and Home Finance Agency).

SEC. 4. Performance of functions of Administrator. The Housing and Home Finance Administrator may from time to time make such provisions as he shall deem appropriate authorizing the performance by any other officer, or by any agency or employee, of the Housing and Home Finance Agency of any function transferred to such Administrator by the provisions of this reorganization plan.

SEC. 5. Transfer of records, property, personnel, and funds. There are hereby transferred with the functions transferred by this reorganization plan, respectively, all of the assets, liabilities, contracts, property, records, and unexpended balances of authorizations, allocations and other funds, available or to be made available, of the Federal National Mortgage Association, and so much of the assets, liabilities, contracts, property, records, personnel, and unexpended balances of authorizations, allocations, and other funds, available or to be made available, of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and relating to functions transferred by the provisions of this reorganization plan, as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget shall determine to be necessary for the administration of such functions, excluding, however, (1) the members of the board of directors of the Federal National Mortgage Association in office immediately prior to the taking effect of the provisions of this reorganization plan, and (2) the officers of the Association then in office. Such further measures and dispositions as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget shall determine to be necessary in order to effectuate the transfers provided for in this section shall be carried out in such manner as the Director shall direct and by such agencies as he shall designate.

SEC. 6. Effective date. The provisions of this reorganization plan shall take effect 60 days after they would take effect under section 6 (a) of the Reorganization Act of 1949 in the absence of this section.

LOANS FOR FACTORY-BUILT HOMES

SECTION 1. Transfer of functions. There are hereby transferred to the Housing and Home Finance Administrator, hereinafter referred to as the Administrator,

(1) All functions of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, hereinafter referred to as the Corporation, under section 102 of the Housing Act of 1948, as amended,

(2) All other functions of the Corporation, under the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended, or any other law, with respect to financing predominantly for the production, manufacture, distribution, sale, purchase, or erection of prefabricated houses, sections, or panels or site improvements therefor,

(3) The function of the Corporation of making payments on its notes issued to the Secretary of the Treasury in an amount equal to the funds and the unpaid principal of, and accrued interest on, the loans and obligations payable to the Corporation which are transferred under the provisions of this reorganization plan, and

(4) So much of any other function of the Corporation as is incidental to or necessary for the performance of the functions referred to in items (1) and (2), above, including the issuance of obligations to the Secretary of the Treasury, which may be purchased by the Secretary, under section 7 of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act, as amended: Provided, That the amount of such obligations issued by the Administrator and outstanding at any one time shall not exceed the sum of (a) the funds and the unpaid principal of, and accrued interest on, the loans and obligations transferred under this reorganization plan and (b) the unexpended balances of authorizations and allocations transferred hereunder, less the amount of any funds transferred hereunder for such unexpended balances from which sum shall be deducted the outstanding amount of any notes with respect to which the function of making payments is transferred under (3) above.

SEC. 2. Transfer of records, property, personnel, and funds. There are hereby transferred to the Housing and Home Finance Agency (1) the assets, contracts, loans, liabilities, commitments, property, and records, of the Corporation relating to the functions transferred by this reorganization plan, (2) such of the personnel of the Corporation relating to said functions as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget shall determine, and (3) so much of the unexpended balances of authorizations, allocations, and funds, available or to be made available, of the Corporation relating to such functions (including authorizations and allocations for administrative expenses) as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget shall determine. Such further measures and dispositions as the Director of the Bureau of the Budget shall determine to be necessary in order to effectuate the transfers provided for in this section shall be carried out in such manner as the Director shall direct and by such agencies as he shall designate.

SEC. 3. Performance of functions of Administrator. The Administrator may from time to time make such provisions as he shall deem appropriate authorizing the performance by any other officer, or by any agency or employee, of the Housing and Home Finance Agency of any function transferred to the Administrator by the provisions of this reorganization plan.

SEC. 4. Effective date. The provisions of this reorganization plan shall take effect 60 days after they would take effect under section 6 (a) of the Reorganization Act of 1949 in the absence of this section.

[1950 Honey Bulletin 1]

PART 624—HONEY

SUBPART—1950 HONEY PRICE SUPPORT PROGRAM

This bulletin states the terms and conditions with respect to operations under the 1950 Honey Price Support Program formulated by the Commodity Credit Corporation (hereinafter referred to as "CCC") and the Production and Marketing Administration (hereinafter referred to as "PMA"). Under this program prices will be supported only by means of purchases of eligible honey from eligible packers, in accordance with this bulletin.

AUTHORITY: §§ 624.101 to 624.111 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U. S. C. Sup., 714b. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended, Titles II, IV, 63 Stat. 1051; 15 U. S. C. Sup., 714b, 7 U. S. C. Sup., 1446.

§ 624.101 Administration. The program will be administered by the appropriate branches and commodity offices of PMA under the general direction and supervision of the President, CCC. The program will be carried out through purchases by CCC of eligible honey from packers, including cooperative marketing associations of producers, operating under contracts with CCC, which packers in turn purchase honey for their accounts from beekeepers. A list of eligible packers to whom beekeepers may sell honey at not less than the applicable support price, will be made available to PMA County Committees.

Contracts whereby packers may dispose of eligible honey to CCC will be made through the Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. Copies of contract forms will be available at the PMA Commodity Offices listed in § 624.111.

§ 624.102 Availability—(a) Area. Purchases under this program will be made from eligible packers located in the continental United States.

(b) Time. Contracts relative to this program must be executed by packers not later than August 15, 1950. Purchases under such contracts will be made by CCC on the basis of Intentions to Deliver, which may be filed by packers within 10 days prior to the following dates: September 1, 1950, December 1, 1950, and March 1, 1951. Notices of Acceptance will be issued as soon as practicable after each of the above dates.

§ 624.103 Eligible packers. An eligible packer shall be any individual or legal entity having ownership of, or provision for, facilities to purchase, receive, handle, process, pack and store honey who enters into a contract with CCC relative to such functions and to the payment within a reasonable time of not less than the applicable support price for all eligible honey acquired. In the case of cooperative associations, advance payments to beekeepers delivering honey plus credits to appropriate beekeepers' pool accounts shall be not less than the approved support price for the season.

§ 624.104 Eligible honey. Eligible honey shall be:

(a) Honey produced in the continental United States.

(b) Honey, which when acquired by packers, is in clean, sound containers of a standard capacity of 60 pounds or greater, and is equivalent to or better than U. S. Grade B of the "United States Standards for Grades of Extracted Honey" effective March 15, 1943: Except that, honey with a moisture content in excess of the 18.6 percent stipulated in said Grade B but not in excess of 20.0 percent shall be eligible on the basis of the price differential, set forth in § 624.109, reflecting the cost of reducing the moisture content to the prescribed level.

§ 624.105 Purchases from packers. CCC will purchase from eligible packers all eligible honey tendered to CCC by packers pursuant to the terms and conditions of the packer contract, except that honey having a moisture content in excess of 18.6 percent but not in excess of 20.0 percent when purchased by packers must be reduced to not more than 18.6 percent before tender to CCC, unless otherwise agreed to between packer and CCC. Eligible honey will be purchased by CCC for delivery f. o. b. cars or trucks at packers' usual shipping points.

§ 624.106 Determination of grade. When purchased by a contracting packer, the grade of honey need not be determined so long as the packer pays not less than the applicable support price as specified in § 624.109. All honey for which a contracting packer pays less than the support price, as specified in § 624.109 (a) and (b), and honey which has a moisture content of 18.6 to 20.0 percent, must be covered by an inspection certificate. If honey is inspected when purchased by the packer, and determined to be eligible, the cost of such inspection shall be borne by the beekeeper, and if paid by the packer on behalf of the beekeeper may be deducted from the price which the packer pays the beekeeper.

(b) The grade shall be determined for each lot of honey tendered by packer to CCC. Packer shall pay the cost of inspection of honey so tendered and, for honey accepted by CCC, shall be reimbursed for such cost.

(c) All determinations of grade hereunder shall be by an inspection performed by a representative of the Processed Products Standardization and Inspection Division, Fruit and Vegetable Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 624.107 Minimum quantity. Purchases by CCC of eligible honey from packers shall be limited to quantities of not less than 36,000 pounds net or such other quantity as may be moved at the minimum carlot rate in effect for rail shipment.

§ 624.108 Settlement. (a) Packers delivering eligible honey to CCC, will submit applications for payment to, and be paid through, the PMA Commodity Office of the area in which the packer's billing office is located. Applications for payment will be prepared and submitted in accordance with billing information furnished by the PMA Commodity Office.

(b) Honey offered by packers to CCC shall be free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, or if any lien or encumbrance exists a proper waiver shall be submitted with the applications for payment. No claims or payments arising under the contract with CCC may be assigned except in accordance with the Assignment of Claims Act of 1940.

§ 624.109 Support price. The price for eligible honey purchased by packers under contract with CCC shall be not less than the following:

(a) For honey of U. S. Grade B or better delivered to packer's plant in clean, sound containers of a standard capacity of not less than 60 pounds nor greater than 150 pounds, nine (9) cents per pound.

(b) For honey of U. S. Grade B or better delivered to packer's plant in clean, sound containers, including barrels, with a standard capacity greater than 150 pounds, eight and three-fourths (8.75) cents per pound.

(c) For honey meeting specifications for U. S. Grade B or better with the exception of excess moisture content, in clean, sound containers with a standard capacity of not less than 60 pounds, the amounts specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section less one-hundredth (0.01) cent per pound for each one-tenth (0.10) of one percent by which the moisture content is greater than 18.6 percent but not greater than 20.0 percent. (Honey in excess of 20 percent moisture content is not eligible for price support.)

§ 624.110 Prices to packers. Eligible honey will be purchased from packers under contract with CCC at a price which will not exceed the support price plus such packer costs as CCC may determine to be applicable to such honey, and which will be set forth in the packer contract.

§ 624.111 PMA Commodity Offices. The PMA Commodity Offices and the areas served by them are shown below:

Atlanta 3, Ga., 449 West Peachtree Street NE.: Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter III—Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine, Department of Agriculture

[B. E. P. Q. 546, 1st Rev.]

PART 301—DOMESTIC QUARANTINE NOTICES

WHITE-PINE BLISTER RUST; ADMINISTRATIVE INSTRUCTIONS DESIGNATING CONTROL AREAS

On April 5, 1950, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 1913), a notice of proposed rule making concerning a revision of administrative instructions relating to control areas (7 CFR 301.63-3a). After due consideration of all relevant matters presented and pursuant to the authority conferred upon the Chief of the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine by § 301.63-3 of the regulations supplemental to the white-pine blister rust quarantine (7 CFR 301.63-3), under section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 161), administrative instructions are hereby adopted as follows:

§ 301.63-3a Administrative instructions designating control areas. The States of California, Connecticut, Delaware, Georgia, Idaho, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Vermont, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, and Wisconsin are hereby designated in part or in their entirety as control areas, and the interstate movement to such control areas of gooseberry and currant plants, cuttings, and seeds is prohibited or regulated as provided hereinafter for each such State or part thereof.

California. European black currant plants may not be moved interstate to any destination in California.

REGULATED ARTICLES NOT AFFECTED BY THESE INSTRUCTIONS

(a) Movement of five-leaved pines. As provided in § 301.63–5 (a), five-leaved pines may be moved interstate without restriction between the noninfected States of Arizona, Colorado, Georgia, Kentucky, Nevada, New Mexico, South Carolina, Tennessee, Utah, and the noninfected part of California comprised of the counties of Calaveras, Contra Costa, Mono, San Francisco, San Joaquin, Tuolumne, and all those south thereof. Five-leaved pines may not be moved interstate into these areas from any other part of the United States except when intended for reforestation purposes, when they have been grown in a nursery protected from blister rust infection, and when accompanied by a white-pine certificate issued for such movement by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

There are no restrictions on the interstate movement of five-leaved pines and parts thereof into or within that part of the continental United States outside of the areas described in the above paragraph, except that five-leaved pines and parts thereof when visibly infected with blister rust may not be moved interstate anywhere within the continental United States except in accordance with § 301.-63–9.

(b) Movement of European black currants. As provided in § 301.63–5 (b), European black currant plants may be moved interstate without restriction into or between the States of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Kansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, and Texas. Interstate movement of such plants into or between any other States or the District of Columbia is prohibited except in accordance with § 301.63–9.

(Secs. 1, 3, 33 Stat. 1269, 1270, sec. 9, 37 Stat. 318; 7 U. S. C. 141, 143, 162. Interprets or applies sec. 8, 37 Stat. 318, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 161)

The purposes of this revision are (1) to remove from control areas, and thus lift the requirement for control-area permits for interstate shipments of gooseberry and currant plants to shipping points in, two townships in Sullivan County, New York, and to designate as control areas the shipping points in the townships of Deerpark, Orange County, and Shandaken, Ulster County, New York; (2) to add several shipping points to the designated control areas in Ohio; and (3) to make minor nonsubstantive changes in the text and lists of shipping points for clarity and accuracy.

The foregoing revised administrative instructions shall become effective on the 14th day of August 1950, and on that date shall supersede B. E. P. Q. 546, which was effective July 10, 1946 (7 CFR 301.63–3a).

Done at Washington, D. C., this 13th day of June 1950.

Chief, Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine.

Chapter VII—Production and Marketing Administration (Agricultural Adjustment), Department of Agriculture

[MQ–71–Cotton (1950) Amdt. 1]

PART 722—COTTON

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND MARKETING QUOTAS FOR 1950 CROP

Basis and purpose. Section 346 (a) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, provides that whenever farm marketing quotas are in effect with respect to any crop of cotton, the producer shall be subject to a penalty on the farm marketing excess at a rate per pound equal to 50 percent of the parity price per pound for cotton as of June 15 of the calendar year in which such crop is produced. When the regulations pertaining to Cotton Acreage Allotments and Marketing Quotas for the 1950 Crop of Cotton were issued by the Secretary of Agriculture on June 26, 1950, the parity price per pound for cotton as of June 15, 1950, was not available and the exact rate of penalty could not be included in such regulations. Such parity price is now available and the purpose of the amendment contained herein is to establish and include in the regulations the exact rate of the penalty per pound of cotton for the 1950 crop of cotton.

Cotton is presently being harvested in the southernmost areas of the United States and it is necessary that the amendment set forth herein be made effective at the earliest possible date in order that the exact rate of penalty may be made known to producers, who desire to market cotton, and to buyers, who are charged in the regulations with the duty of collecting the penalty on cotton marketed subject to the penalty and the lien for the penalty. Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the notice, procedure and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237) is impractical and contrary to the public interest, and the amendment contained herein shall be effective upon filing of this document with the Director, Division of the Federal Register.

Section 722.155 of the regulations pertaining to Acreage Allotments and Marketing Quotas for the 1950 Crop of Cotton (15 F. R. 4162), is hereby changed to read as follows:

§ 722.155 Rate of penalty. The rate of penalty is 50 percent of the parity price for cotton as of June 15, 1950, as provided in section 346 (a) of the act. The parity price for cotton as of such date is 31 cents per pound. The rate of penalty for the 1950 crop of cotton shall be 15.5 cents per pound.

(Sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 1375. Interpret or apply sec. 346, 52 Stat. 57, as amended, sec. 3, 63 Stat. 670; 7 U. S. C. and Sup. 1346)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 6th day of July 1950. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Regs., Amdt. 42–5]

PART 42—IRREGULAR AIR CARRIER AND OFF-ROUTE RULES

CERTIFICATE RENEWAL, AIRCRAFT, AND OTHER ADMINISTRATIVE REQUIREMENTS; CORRECTION

Section 42.5 Certificate issuance should contain the paragraph entitled exceptions, which was part of the section prior to amendment on June 28, 1950 (15 F. R. 4263). In order to avoid confusion, the amendment should be corrected to read as follows:

§ 42.5 Certificate issuance—(a) General. An air carrier operating certificate, describing the operations authorized and prescribing such operating specifications and limitations as may be reasonably required in the interest of safety, shall be issued by the Administrator to a properly qualified citizen of the United States possessing appropriate economic authority granted by the Board pursuant to Title IV of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, who is capable of conducting the proposed operations in accordance with the applicable requirements hereinafter specified. Application for a certificate, or application for amendment thereof, shall be made in a manner and contain information prescribed by the Administrator. No person subject to the provisions of this part shall operate in air transportation without, or in violation of the terms of, an air carrier operating certificate.

(b) Exceptions. Whenever upon investigation the Administrator finds that the general standards of safety required for air carrier operations require or permit a deviation from any specific requirement of this part, he may issue an air carrier operating certificate or amendment providing for such deviation. The Administrator shall promptly notify the Board of any deviation included in the air carrier operating certificate and the reasons therefor.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interprets or applies secs. 601, 604, 52 Stat. 1007, as amended, 1010; 49 U. S. C. and Sup., 551, 554)

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 14—LEGAL SERVICES, SOLICITOR'S OFFICE

GUARDIANSHIP AND LEGAL SERVICES

1. Section 14.291 is amended to read as follows:

§ 14.291 Award information to chief attorney. The adjudication agency in the office having jurisdiction of the claims folder will supply the chief attorney having principal jurisdiction over the guardian, custodian, chief officer of an institution, or wife of an incompetent veteran with detailed information when an original award is prepared or each time any change is made in an existing award to an incompetent or minor beneficiary in whose behalf payments are going forward to a legal guardian, custodian, chief officer of an institution, or wife of an incompetent veteran. Unless this information is furnished simultaneously with the award or change in the prior award, the principal chief attorney is unable to supervise properly the guardian, custodian, or chief officer of an institution; to assure that the accountings are made when required; or to determine any action deemed appropriate in cases of payments to a wife of an incompetent veteran.

2. In § 14.333, paragraphs (b) and (c) are amended to read as follows:

§ 14.333 Appeals, cost of, may be paid. * * *

(b) The chief attorney may appeal to a district, circuit, or other similar court where the trial is de novo and authorize costs in connection therewith without prior approval of the solicitor. No appeal to an appellate or supreme court will be filed and no costs in connection therewith authorized without prior approval of the solicitor—these to be referred by the chief attorney to the solicitor. In any case wherein the court overrules the petition or motion filed by the chief attorney, under the provision of section 21, World War Veterans' Act, 1924, as amended, and an appeal is believed necessary to protect the estate of the Veterans' Administration beneficiary, the chief attorney will report all the facts to the solicitor and will make a definite recommendation regarding whether an appeal should be taken. The statement will show the termination of the appeal period, i. e., the date by which the appeal must be filed and the probable cost of the appeal, reporting separately the estimated costs for printing the brief and record so that authority for printing may be granted in accordance with prescribed Veterans' Administration procedure.

(c) If, after consideration of such report and recommendation, an appeal is authorized, the chief attorney will immediately take the necessary action to perfect the appeal. In such cases, if appeal bond is required, the chief attorney, as the attorney for the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs, is authorized to sign such bond for the Administrator. If time permits, the chief attorney will supply the solicitor with the record (if same must be printed) and with the proposed brief before filing; otherwise, copies will be forwarded immediately after filing. The chief attorney will maintain a docket on such cases.

3. In § 14.515, paragraph (d) is amended, paragraph (e) is deleted, and former paragraphs (f), (g), and (h) are redesignated (e), (f), and (g), respectively.

§ 14.515 Suits involving loan guaranty matters and disposition of personal property. * * *

(d) Except in an emergency, no chief attorney will initiate action for appellate review without prior approval by the solicitor. These limitations do not preclude the filing of a motion for a new trial, appeal to intermediate court with hearing de novo, the giving of notice of appeal, reserving of bills of exception, or any other preliminary action in the trial court which may be necessary or appropriate to protect or facilitate the exercise of the right of appellate review, nor do they preclude the taking of appropriate steps on behalf of the Administrator as appellee (respondent) without prior reference to the solicitor. Upon the conclusion of the trial of a case, the chief attorney will report the result thereof to the solicitor, with recommendation as to seeking appellate review if the result reported is adverse to the position of the Veterans' Administration in the litigation. The reporting chief attorney who recommends appellate review will include as a part of his communication, or in exhibits attached, (1) a summary of the evidence; (2) a summary of the law points to be reviewed; (3) citations of statutes and cases; (4) statements of special reasons for recommending appellate review; (5) time limitations for the action recommended; (6) requirements, if any, respecting printing of the record and briefs; (7) the estimated total expenses to be incurred by reason of the appeal, reporting separately the estimated costs for printing the brief and record so that authority for printing may be granted in accordance with prescribed Veterans' Administration procedure; and (8) the recommendation by the loan guaranty officer, or that he does not desire to make a recommendation.

TITLE 46—SHIPPING

Chapter I—Coast Guard, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter O—Regulations Applicable to Certain Vessels During Emergency

[CGFR 50–19]

PART 154—WAIVERS OF NAVIGATION AND VESSEL INSPECTION LAWS AND REGULATIONS[1]

MISCELLANEOUS AMENDMENTS

The purpose of the following changes in waiver orders is to reinstate and continue in effect certain waiver orders, including regulations and instructions relating thereto, pertaining to laws and regulations relating to navigation and vessel inspection administered by the Coast Guard and considered necessary in the orderly reconversion of the merchant marine from a wartime to a normal peacetime basis and to cancel those waiver orders no longer considered necessary. These waiver orders are also published as 33 CFR Part 19 and the changes made in 46 CFR Part 154 by this document shall likewise be made in 33 CFR Part 19. Because of the technical character of this continuation of waiver orders, and because of the urgency of providing waiver authority in order to effectuate the orderly reconversion of the merchant marine to peacetime operations, it is found that compliance with the notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedure thereon, and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act is impracticable and contrary to the public interest.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by act of March 31, 1947, as last amended by Public Law 591, 81st Congress, 2d Session (61 Stat. 33; 46 U. S. C. Sup. note preceding section 1), the general waiver orders are reinstated with the following amendments prescribed and shall become effective on and after July 1, 1950:

1. Section 154.01 Description of seaman's wages in shipping articles is canceled.

2. Section 154.05 Permitting compliance with routing instructions and orders is canceled.

3. Section 154.11 Permitting masters of Great Lakes vessels to approve allotments of seamen is canceled.

4. Section 154.15 Cargo vessels equipped with certificates issued by British Ministry of War Transport is canceled.

5. Section 154.21 Crew list required is canceled.

6. Section 154.25 Certificates and continuous discharge books in shipping of seamen on vessels on the Great Lakes is canceled.

7. Section 154.29 is amended to read as follows:

§ 154.29 Continuation in effect of certain waivers, regulations, and instructions effective July 1, 1950. Pursuant to the authority vested in the Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard, by the act of March 31, 1947, as amended (61 Stat. 33; 46 U. S. C., Sup. note preceding section 1), I hereby find that the reinstatement and continuation of all currently effective waiver orders, including regulations and instructions relating thereto, and affecting laws and regulations relating to navigation and vessel inspection administered by the Coast Guard, are presently necessary in the orderly reconversion of the merchant marine from a wartime to a normal peacetime basis. Accordingly, all such orders, regulations, and instructions are hereby ratified, affirmed and continued in force until modified, superseded, rescinded, or January 15, 1951, whichever first occurs. The waiver order dated June 30, 1949, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 7, 1949 (14 F. R. 3748), bearing the same section number and title as this order is hereby rescinded.

8. Section 154.31 Conditional waiver of manning requirements is canceled.

9. Section 154.33 Able seamen employed on Great Lakes merchant cargo and tank vessels is canceled.

10. Section 154.35 Qualified members of engine department on Great Lakes merchant cargo and tank vessels is canceled.

11. Section 154.37 Employment of aliens as unlicensed crew members on subsidized vessels is canceled.

12. The waiver order dated April 12, 1948, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER dated April 17, 1948 (13 F. R. 2070), identified as CGFR 48–18, and entitled "Able Seamen Employed on Merchant Cargo and Tank Vessels Other Than Great Lakes Vessels" is canceled. (This waiver order was inadvertently omitted from the 1949 edition of the Code of Federal Regulations.)

(61 Stat. 33, 665, Pub. Law 591, 81st Cong.; 46 U. S. C. Sup., note preceding 1)

Conditions regarding cancellation of waiver orders. The cancellation of certain general waiver orders by this document shall not impair the continuing effectiveness of any individual waivers issued under 46 CFR 154.27. No penalty shall be imposed upon a master of a vessel or against the vessel that departed or cleared on or before June 30, 1950, under any of the terms of the waiver orders canceled by this document upon the vessel's first arrival in a United States port after June 30, 1950. In connection with general waiver orders relating to manning requirements, no penalty of law shall be imposed because of failure to comply with any provision of law or regulation, the waiver of which was made with respect to vessels that engage their crews on or before June 30, 1950, pursuant to such waivers and such relaxations may remain in effect until the termination of the voyage or the period for which the crew was engaged.

Dated: July 5, 1950.

Rear Admiral, U. S. Coast Guard,
Acting Commandant.

TITLE 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 9424]

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

PART 13—COMMERCIAL RADIO OPERATORS

RADIOTELEPHONE THIRD CLASS OPERATOR PERMIT

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned matter which proposed to amend various portions of Part 13 of the Commission's rules primarily to provide for the establishment of a new class of commercial radio operator license to be entitled Radiotelephone Third Class Operator Permit; and

It appearing, that the Commission on August 24, 1949, adopted a notice of proposed rule making in this matter which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedures Act; and

It further appearing, that the period in which persons were afforded an opportunity to submit comments with respect thereto has now expired; and

It further appearing, that the Commission has considered all written comments received, including one comment which requested, on the stated basis of safety in the air, that "aircraft stations while engaged in overseas operations" be expressly excluded from the scope of authority under the proposed Radiotelephone Third Class Operator Permit, and another comment which, although by its terms directed to the matter of the scope of operating authority under the Restricted Radiotelegraph Operator Permit (Docket 9387), which is being considered by the Commission as a companion docket to the instant docket, appears to be equally applicable to the instant matter and which suggested that ship radiotelephone stations required by treaty or statute to be installed for safety purposes be expressly excluded from the scope of authority under the Radiotelephone Third Class Operator Permit, and that ship stations licensed to use telephony for communication with coastal telephone stations be excluded from the scope of authority under the Radiotelephone Third Class Operator Permit; and

It further appearing, that the establishment of the new class of commercial operator license herein ordered is appropriate, to a system of graded commercial operator licenses such as is presently provided by the Commission's rules and that the operating authority under this new class of license is commensurate in this regard with the qualifications required of an applicant therefor; and

It further appearing, that the matter of qualifications which, in the interest of safety, should be required of radio operators at aircraft radiotelephone stations aboard aircraft engaged in overseas flights raises issues not directly related to the basis and purposes of the present rule making and which should be considered separately therefrom; and

It further appearing, that, at the present time there is in force no provision of treaty or statute requiring the installation of a radiotelephone station of board a vessel for safety purposes; and

It further appearing, that the matter of the qualifications which, in the interest of safety, should be required of radio operators at ship stations on board vessels required by treaty or statute to be equipped with a radiotelephone station, raises issues not directly related to the basis and purpose of the present rule making and which should be considered separately therefrom; and

It further appearing, that, although the rule amendments herein ordered permit the operation of a ship radiotelephone station licensed to communicate with a coastal telephone station by the holder of a Radiotelephone Third Class Operator Permit issued hereunder, such authorization is limited by express power and technical limitations on the equipment of all ship radiotelephone stations which such permit holder is authorized to operate; and

It further appearing, that in addition to the rule amendments heretofore set forth in the notice of proposed rule making the rule amendments herein ordered provide for (1) a minor substantive change designed to include in the scope of authority of the radiotelegraph first and second class operator licenses low power (10 watts or less) noncommercial educational FM broadcast stations in line with the inclusion of these stations in the scope of authority of the radiotelephone third class and restricted radiotelegraph operator permits and (2) certain editorial changes, the primary one of which is to accomplish a change of name of the restricted radiotelegraph operator permit to radiotelegraph third class operator permit in conjunction with parallel rule changes set forth in the Commission's order of this date in Docket 9387; and

It further appearing, that because of the nature of the changes described in the foregoing paragraph compliance with the rule making procedures provided by section 4 of the Administrative Procedures Act in regard thereto is unnecessary and not required; and

It further appearing, that the public interest, convenience and necessity will be served by the amendments herein ordered and that authority therefor is contained in sections 4 (i), 303 (l) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That effective September 1, 1950, Parts 13 and 3 of the Commission's rules is amended without further proceedings in the particulars set forth below.

Released: June 28, 1950.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] T. J. SLOWIE,
Secretary.

1. Section 13.2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 13.2 Classes of operator licenses.[6] [6a] The classes of commercial radio operator licenses issued by the Commission are classified basically as radiotelegraph and radiotelephone licenses, and are further classified in accordance with international usage as follows:

(a) General radio operator group:

(1) General radiotelegraph certificates:

(i) Radiotelegraph first-class operator license.

(ii) Radiotelegraph second-class operator license.

(2) General radiotelephone certificates:[7]

(i) Radiotelephone first-class operator license.

(ii) Radiotelephone second-class operator license.

(b) Restricted radio operator group:

(1) Special radiotelegraph certificate:[7]

(i) Radiotelegraph third-class operator permit:[6a]

(2) Restricted radiotelephone certificate:[7]

(i) Radiotelephone third-class operator permit.

(c) Limited radio operator group:

(1) Limited radiotelephone operator certificate:

(i) Restricted radiotelephone operator permit.

(ii) Aircraft radiotelephone operator authorization.

2. Section 13.22 is amended by redesignating the present paragraph (e) as paragraph (g) and inserting the following new paragraph (e):

(e) Radiotelephone third-class operator permit:

(1) Ability to transmit and receive spoken messages in English.

(2) Written examination elements 1 and 2.

3. Section 13.61 is amended by redesignating the present paragraph (f) as paragraph (g) and inserting the following new paragraph (f):

(f) Radiotelephone third-class operator permit. Any station except—

(1) Stations transmitting television, or

(2) Stations transmitting telegraphy by any type of the Morse code, or

(3) Any of the various classes of broadcast stations other than noncommercial educational FM broadcast stations using transmitters with power ratings of 10 watts or less, remote pickup broadcast stations and ST broadcast stations, or

(4) Coastal telephone stations at which the power in the antenna of the unmodulated carrier wave is authorized to exceed 250 watts, or

(5) Coastal harbor telephone stations, other than in the Territory of Alaska, at which the power in the antenna of the unmodulated carrier wave is authorized to exceed 250 watts, or

(6) Ship stations or aircraft stations other than those at which the installation is used solely for telephony and at which the power in the antenna of the unmodulated carrier wave is not authorized to exceed 250 watts:

Provided, That, (1) Such operator is prohibited from making any adjustments that may result in improper transmitter operation, and (2) the equipment is so designed that the stability of the frequencies of the transmitter is maintained by the transmitter itself within the limits of tolerance specified by the station license, and none of the operations necessary to be performed during the course of normal rendition of the service of the station may cause off-frequency operation or result in any unauthorized radiation, and (3) any needed adjustments of the transmitter that may affect the proper operation of the station are regularly made by or under the immediate supervision and responsibility of a person holding a first- or second-class commercial radio operator license, either radiotelephone or radiotelegraph as may be appropriate for the class of station involved,[7a] who shall be responsible for the proper functioning of the station equipment, and (4) in the case of ship radiotelephone or aircraft radiotelephone stations when the power in the antenna of the unmodulated carrier wave is authorized to exceed 100 watts, any needed adjustments of the transmitter that may affect the proper operation of the station are made only by or under the immediate supervision and responsibility of an operator holding a first- or second-class radiotelegraph license, who shall be responsible for the proper functioning of the station equipment.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interpret or apply sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

4. Section 3.565 (Subpart C—Rules Governing Noncommercial Educational FM Broadcast Stations) is amended to read as follows:

§ 3.565 Operator requirements.[7] (a) If the transmitter power rating is in excess of 1 kilowatt, one or more operators holding first-class radiotelephone licenses shall be on duty at the place where the transmitting apparatus of the station is located and in actual charge thereof.

(b) If the transmitter power rating is in excess of 10 watts but not greater than 1 kilowatt, one or more operators holding first- or second-class radiotelephone licenses shall be on duty at the place where the transmitting apparatus of the station is located and in actual charge thereof.

(c) If the transmitter power rating is 10 watts or less, one or more operators holding first-, second- or third-class radiotelephone or telegraph licenses or permits shall be on duty at the place where the transmitting apparatus of the station is located and in actual charge thereof: Provided, That, in the case of an operator holding a third-class radiotelephone or radiotelegraph permit, (1)

[6] By Commission Order No. 97, dated May 19, 1942, the Commission established a class of operator license designated "Temporary Limited Radiotelegraph Second Class Operator License", to be valid for a period of five years from the date of issuance, for the operation of certain ship radiotelegraph stations. By Commission Order No. 136, effective June 30, 1946, the issuance of this class of license was discontinued. Outstanding licenses of this class remain valid until expiration according to the respective terms thereof, but may not be renewed.

[6a] By Commission order dated June 27, 1950, and effective September 1, 1950 the issuance of the previous license entitled "Restricted Radiotelegraph Operator Permit" was discontinued. Outstanding licenses of this class remain valid until expiration according to the respective terms thereof, but may be renewed only as Radiotelegraph Third-Class Operator Permits.

[7] Classification by International usage.

[7] For additional information regarding operator licenses see Part 13 of this chapter.

[7a] As determined by the scope of authority of the respective licenses as set forth in paragraphs (a), (b), (d) and (e) of this section, and § 13.62.

such operator is prohibited from making any adjustments that may result in improper transmitter operation, and (2) the equipment is so designed that the stability of the frequency of the transmitter is maintained by the transmitter itself within the limits of tolerance specified by the station license, and none of the operations necessary to be performed during the course of normal rendition of service may cause off-frequency operation or result in any unauthorized radiation, and (3) any needed adjustments of the transmitter that may affect the proper operation of the station are regularly made by or under the immediate supervision and responsibility of a person holding a first- or second-class radiotelephone or radiotelegraph operator license who shall be responsible for the proper functioning of the station equipment.

(d) The original license (or FCC Form 759) of each station operator and of each operator responsible for the proper functioning of the transmitting equipment shall be posted at the place where the transmitting apparatus is located.

(e) The licensed operator on duty and in charge of a non-commercial educational FM broadcast transmitter may, at the discretion of the station licensee, be employed for other duties or for the operation of another station or stations in accordance with the class of operator's license which he holds and the rules and regulations governing such stations; however, such duties shall in nowise interfere with the operation of the broadcast transmitter.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154)

PART 8—SHIP SERVICE

SHIP RADIOTELEPHONE STATION LICENSE

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the revision of F. C. C. Form 501-A, Application For Ship Radiotelephone Station License; and

It appearing, that all of the changes made by this order except one are for the purpose of clarification; and

It further appearing, that the one additional question imposes a negligible burden upon the applicant; and

It further appearing, that the nature of the revision of the form is such as to render unnecessary the notice and procedure provided for in section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act; and

It further appearing, that authority to make the changes in the form is contained in sections 303 (r) and 308 (b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended:

It is ordered, That, effective immediately, F. C. C. Form 501-A, Application For Ship Radiotelephone Station License, is revised as set forth below:

1. Add the following sentence at the bottom of the face of the form: "A new application for license must be filed whenever the vessel is sold or ownership is otherwise changed."

2. Revise Part III of the form as follows:

a. Eliminate the numeral "13" in the second box.

b. Combine "Type" and "Model No." blocks into one block to read "Type or Model No.".

c. Delete block for "Manufacturer's rated power output".

d. Delete the present language of block reading "State type of oscillator circuit and whether or not oscillator is directly crystal controlled" and substitute therefor "Type of oscillator circuit(s)

"Crystal control ☐
"Other ☐"

e. Delete the present language of block reading "Class and maximum percentage of modulation" and substitute therefor "Indicate maximum percentage of modulation and system employed".

f. Add block entitled "Indicate means employed to suppress harmonic radiation".

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Adopted: June 27, 1950.

[Docket No. 9387]

PART 13—COMMERCIAL RADIO OPERATORS

RESTRICTED RADIOTELEGRAPH OPERATOR PERMIT

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned matter which proposed to amend Part 13 of the Commission's rules primarily to revise the examination for, and the scope of operating authority under, the Restricted Radiotelegraph Operator Permit; and

It appearing, that the Commission on July 20, 1949, and on October 21, 1949, respectively, adopted a notice of proposed rule making and a supplemental notice of proposed rule making in this matter which were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER in accordance with section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act; and

It further appearing, that the period in which persons were afforded an opportunity to submit comments has now expired; and

It further appearing, that the Commission has considered all written comments received, including one comment which requested, on the stated basis of safety in the air, that "aircraft stations while engaged in overseas operation" be expressly excluded from the scope of authority under the Restricted Radiotelegraph Operator Permit, and another comment which suggested that ship radiotelephone stations required by treaty or statute to be installed for safety purposes be expressly excluded from the scope of authority under the Restricted Radiotelegraph Operator Permit, and that ship stations licensed to use telephony for communication with coastal telephone stations be continued to be excluded from the scope of authority under the Restricted Radiotelegraph Operator Permit; and

It further appearing, that although the rule amendments herein ordered reduce the qualifications necessary to be possessed by an applicant for a restricted radiotelegraph operator permit, the scope of authority of the permit has also been limited in a manner commensurate therewith and appropriate to a system of graded commercial operator licenses such as is presently provided by the Commission's rules; and

It further appearing, that the matter of the qualifications which, in the interests of safety, should be required of radio operators at aircraft radiotelephone stations aboard aircraft engaged in overseas flights, raises issues not directly related to the basis and purpose of the present rule making and which should be considered separately therefrom; and

It further appearing, that, at the present time, there is in force no provision of treaty or statute requiring the installation of a radiotelephone station on board a vessel for safety purposes; and

It further appearing, that the matter of the qualifications which, in the interest of safety, should be required of radio operators at ship stations on board vessels required by treaty or statute to be equipped with a radiotelephone station, raises issues not directly related to the basis and purpose of the present rule making and which should be considered separately therefrom; and

It further appearing, that, although the rule amendments herein ordered permit the operation of a ship radiotelephone station licensed to communicate with a coastal telephone station by the holder of a Restricted Radiotelegraph Operator Permit issued hereunder, such broadening of the scope of operating authority has been limited by express power and technical limitations on the equipment of all ship radiotelephone stations at which such permit holder is authorized to operate; and

It further appearing, that in addition to the rule amendments heretofore set forth in the notice and supplemental notice of proposed rule making the rule amendments herein ordered provide for (1) a minor substantive change designed to permit the radiotelegraph permittee to transmit manual telegraphy for identification or testing purposes at coastal telephone and coastal harbor telephone stations, and (2) certain editorial changes, the primary one of which is a change of name of the Restricted Radiotelegraph Operator Permit to Radiotelegraph Third Class Operator Permit in order that the radiotelegraph permit will have a title corresponding to its radiotelephone counterpart, the proposed Radiotelephone Third Class Operator Permit (Docket 9424); and

It further appearing, that because of the nature of the changes described in the foregoing paragraph compliance with the rule making procedures provided by section 4 of the Administrative Procedures Act in regard thereto is unnecessary and not required; and

It further appearing, that the public interest, convenience, and necessity will be served by the amendments herein ordered and that authority therefor is contained in sections 4 (i), 303 (l) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended;

It is ordered, That effective September 1, 1950, Part 13 of the Commission's rules is amended, without further proceedings, in the particulars set forth below.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 154. Interpret or apply sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U. S. C. 303)

Adopted: June 27, 1950.

Released: June 28, 1950.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] T. J. SLOWIE,
Secretary.

1. Section 13.21 is amended to read as follows:

§ 13.21 Examination elements. Written examinations will comprise questions from one or more of the following examination elements:

1. Basic law. Provisions of laws, treaties and regulations with which every operator should be familiar.

2. Basic operating practice. Radio operating procedures and practices generally followed or required in communicating by means of radiotelephone stations.

3. Basic radiotelephone. Technical, legal and other matters applicable to the operation of radiotelephone stations other than broadcast.

4. Advanced radiotelephone. Advanced technical, legal and other matters particularly applicable to the operation of the various classes of broadcast stations.

5. Radiotelegraph operating practice. Radio operating procedures and practices generally followed or required in communicating by means of radiotelegraph stations primarily other than in the maritime mobile services of public correspondence.

6. Advanced radiotelegraph. Technical, legal and other matters applicable to the operation of all classes of radiotelegraph stations, including operating procedures and practices in the maritime mobile services of public correspondence, and associated matters such as radio navigational aids, message traffic routing and accounting, etc.

7. Aircraft radiotelegraph. Basic theory and practice in the operation of radio communication and radio navigational systems in general use on aircraft.

8. Ship radar techniques.[1] Specialized theory and practice applicable to the proper installation, servicing and maintenance of ship radar equipment in general use for marine navigational purposes.

2. Paragraph (f) of § 13.22 is amended to read as follows:

(f) Radiotelegraph third class operator permit:

(1) Ability to transmit and receive spoken messages in English.

(2) Transmitting and receiving code test of sixteen (16) code groups per minute.

(3) Written examination elements: 1, 2, and 5.

3. Paragraph (c) of § 13.61 is amended to read as follows:

(c) Radiotelegraph third class operator permit.[12a] Any station except:

(1) Stations transmitting television, or

(2) Any of the various classes of broadcast stations other than noncommercial educational FM broadcast stations using transmitters with power ratings of 10 watts or less, remote pickup broadcast stations and ST broadcast stations, or

(3) Coastal telephone stations (other than when transmitting manual radiotelegraphy for identification or for testing) at which the power in the antenna of the unmodulated carrier wave is authorized to exceed 250 watts, or

(4) Coastal harbor telephone stations (other than in the Territory of Alaska and other than when transmitting manual radiotelegraphy for identification or for testing) at which the power in the antenna of the unmodulated carrier wave is authorized to exceed 250 watts, or

(5) Ship stations or aircraft stations other than those at which the installation is used solely for telephony and at which the power in the antenna of the unmodulated carrier wave is not authorized to exceed 250 watts, or

(6) Ship telegraph, coastal telegraph or marine-relay stations open to public correspondence, or

(7) Radiotelegraph stations on board a vessel required by treaty or statute to be equipped with a radio installation, or

(8) Aircraft stations while employing radiotelegraphy;

Provided, That (1) such operator is prohibited from making any adjustments that may result in improper transmitter operation, and (2) the equipment is so designed that the stability of the frequencies of the transmitter is maintained by the transmitter itself within the limits of tolerance specified by the station license, and none of the operations necessary to be performed during the course of normal rendition of the service of the station may cause off-frequency operation or result in any unauthorized radiation, and (3) any needed adjustments of the transmitter that may affect the proper operation of the station are regularly made by or under the immediate supervision and responsibility of a person holding a first- or second-class commercial radio operator license, either radiotelephone or radiotelegraph as may be appropriate for the class of station involved,[12b] who shall be responsible for the proper functioning of the station equipment, and (4) in the case of ship radiotelephone or aircraft radiotelephone stations when the power in the antenna of the unmodulated carrier wave is authorized to exceed 100 watts, any needed adjustments of the transmitter that may affect the proper operation of the station are made only by or under the immediate supervision and responsibility of an operator holding a first- or second-class radiotelegraph license, who shall be responsible for the proper functioning of the station equipment.

[F. R. Doc. 50-5961; Filed, July 10, 1950; 8:49 a. m.]

[1] Effective at a date to be announced after June 1, 1950, but prior to January 2, 1951.

[12a] The scope of authority of restricted radiotelegraph operator permits valid as of September 1, 1950, shall until the expiration of their current terms, remain unaffected by the amendment of paragraph (c) of this section set forth in the Commission's order dated June 27, 1950, and effective September 1, 1950; and at the expiration of their current terms, such permits may, in accordance with the provisions of § 13.28, be renewed only as radiotelegraph third class operator permits.

[12b] As determined by the scope of authority of the respective licenses as set forth in paragraphs (a), (b), (d) and (e) of this section and § 13.62.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR, Part 240]

EXEMPTION OF SALES OF SECURITIES

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a proposal to adopt a rule pursuant to authority vested in it by the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, particularly sections 3 (a) (12), 16 (c) and 23 (a) thereof, exempting from the provisions of section 16 (c) certain sales of securities made when the seller possesses a contingent right to acquire the security and the sale is so conditioned. The following considerations appear to the Commission as tentatively supporting the adoption of the proposed rule:

Section 16 (c) provides that it shall be unlawful for any beneficial owner of more than ten percent of any class of equity security registered on a national securities exchange, or a director or officer of the issuer of such a security, to sell any equity security of the issuer (other than an exempted security), (1) if he does not own the security sold, or (2) if, owning the security, he does not either deliver it within twenty days or deposit it in the mails or other usual channels of transportation within five days, unless he was unable to do so notwithstanding the exercise of good faith or it would cause undue inconvenience or expense.

The legislative history of this section indicates that it was specifically designed to prohibit short sales and "sales against the box."

Generally, the proposed rule exempts from section 16 (c) certain "when-issued" or "when-distributed" sales of securities where the insider owns the securities out of which the "when-issued" or "when-distributed" securities will arise.

The rule is designed to accomplish what appears, from the legislative history, to have been the Congressional intent. There appears to be little opportunity for abuse if the security sold is to be acquired "when issued" or "when distributed."

In such a case, the seller in a sense conditionally owns the security sold immediately upon such an event as a declaration of a dividend by a board of directors or the issuance of a judicial or administrative decision in a merger, consolidation or reorganization. In the same sense, his "when-issued" or "when-distributed" sale reduces his interest in the issued security pro tanto. Consequently, a subsequent sale of the issued security plus the prior contingent sale would violate section 16 (c) for the reason that the seller would not, at the time of his sales, own sufficient securities to satisfy his commitments under both sales. The proposed rule excludes exemption in such a case.

A related problem involves the applicability of the reporting requirements of section 16 (a) to purchases and sales by directors, officers and ten percent owners of when-issued and when-distributed securities, as well as rights, warrants, puts and calls. Transactions in all such interests appear to fall within the purposes of the reporting requirements of section 16 (a). Accordingly, revision appears to be required in so far as prior interpretations have not required certain types of contingent transactions to be reported. It is contemplated that this will be accomplished by issuance of an interpretive release or rule, or by revising instructions to forms, but no specific language has been drafted. Any modification in the reporting requirements beyond that required under previous interpretations is intended to operate prospectively only.

The proposed rule with respect to section 16 (c) would provide substantially as follows:

§ 240.16c–3 Exemption of sales of securities to be acquired. Whenever any person will be entitled, as an incident to his ownership of an issued security and without the payment of consideration, to receive another security "when issued" or "when distributed," the security to be acquired shall be exempt from the operation of section 16 (c): Provided, That:

(a) The sale is made subject to the same conditions as those attaching to the right of acquisition, and

(b) Such person exercises reasonable diligence to deliver such security to the purchaser promptly after his right of acquisition matures, and

(c) Such person reports the sale on the appropriate form for reporting transactions by persons subject to section 16 (a).

This section shall not be construed as exempting transactions involving both a sale of a security "when-issued" or "when-distributed" and a sale of the security by virtue of which the seller expects to receive the "when-issued" or "when-distributed" security, if the two transactions combined result in a sale of a security which the seller did not own.

All interested persons may submit views and comments in writing to the Securities and Exchange Commission at its main office, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., on or before July 31, 1950.

By the Commission.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR, Part 2]

[Docket No. 9715]

FREQUENCY ALLOCATIONS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

1. The Commission proposes to amend footnote US19 of § 2.104 (a) as follows:

US19 The use of the frequencies 170.475, 171.425, 171.575 and 172.275 Mc east of the Mississippi River and 170.425, 170.575, 171.475, 172.225 and 172.375 Mc west of the Mississippi River may be authorized to fixed, land and mobile stations operated by non-Federal forest fire fighting agencies. In addition, land stations operated by non-Federal conservation agencies for mobile relay operation only, may be authorized to use the frequency 172.275 Mc east of the Mississippi River and the frequency 171.475 Mc west of the Mississippi River. The use of any of the foregoing nine frequencies shall be on the condition that no harmful interference will be caused to government stations.

2. Authority for the proposed amendment is contained in section 303 (c) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

3. Any interested person who is of the opinion that the proposed amendment should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form set forth, may file with the Commission on or before July 31, 1950, a written statement or brief setting forth his comments. At the same time, persons favoring the amendment as proposed may file statements in support thereof. The Commission will consider any such comments that are received before taking final action in the matter.

4. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.764 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and fourteen copies of all statements, briefs or comments shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: June 27, 1950.

Released: June 28, 1950.

NOTICES

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

Bureau of Land Management

CALIFORNIA

CLASSIFICATION ORDER

JUNE 23, 1950.

1. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Director, Bureau of Land Management, by Order No. 319 dated July 19, 1948 (43 CFR 50.451 (b) (3) 13 F. R. 4278), I hereby classify under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609), as amended July 14, 1945 (59 Stat. 467, 43 U. S. C., section 682a), as hereinafter indicated, the following described land in the Los Angeles, California, land district, embracing approximately 145 acres,

CALIFORNIA SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION No. 228

For lease and sale for homesites only:

T. 4 N., R. 13 W., S. B. M.,
Sec. 8, E½SE¼SE¼NE¼, NE¼SW¼, S½NW¼SW¼.
Sec. 14, E½E½SW¼, W½SW¼SE¼, N½NE¼SW¼SE¼, N½NW¼SE¼SE¼, E½SE¼SE¼.

The land is situated in northern Los Angeles County and can be reached over U. S. Highway 6 to Acton Junction and thence by secondary roads. The nearest town where most trade facilities are available is Acton, California, about 4 miles east of the land. The town of Palmdale is about 15 miles northeast of the land. Grade schools are available in the nearby towns and a high school is at Lancaster, California, 25 miles from the land and is serviced by a school bus.

Public utilities are available within about one mile of the land except water. Domestic water supplies may be obtainable from wells.

Nearness and accessibility to Los Angeles make the tracts desirable for homesite purposes, but there is no possibility of deriving an income from the land.

2. As to applications regularly filed prior to 8:30 a. m., February 24, 1949, and are for the type of site for which the land is classified, this order shall become effective upon the date it is signed.

3. As to the land not covered by applications referred to in paragraph 2, this order shall not become effective to permit leasing under the Small Tract Act until 10:00 a. m., August 25, 1950. At that time such land shall, subject to valid existing rights, become subject to application as follows:

(a) Ninety-day preference period for qualified veterans of World War II from 10:00 a. m., August 25, 1950, to close of business on November 23, 1950.

(b) Advance period for veterans' simultaneous filings from 8:30 a. m., February 24, 1949, to 10:00 a. m., August 25, 1950.

4. Any of the land remaining unappropriated shall become subject to application under the Small Tract Act by the public generally, commencing at 10:00 a. m., November 24, 1950.

(a) Advance period for simultaneous nonpreference filing from 8:30 a. m., February 24, 1950, to 10:00 a. m., November 24, 1950.

5. Applications filed within the periods mentioned in paragraphs 3 (b) and 4 (a) will be treated as simultaneously filed.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their application by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

6. All of the land will be leased in tracts of approximately 5 acres, each being approximately 330 by 660 feet, the longer dimension to extend east and west, except the E½SE¼SE¼NE¼ Section 8, which is to extend north and south.

7. Preference right leases referred to in paragraph 2 will be issued for the land described in the application irrespective of the direction of the tract, provided the tract conforms to or is made to conform to the area and the dimension specified in paragraph 6.

8. Where only one 5-acre tract in a 10-acre subdivision is embraced in a preference right application, an application for the remaining 5-acre tract extending in the same direction will be accepted in order to fill out the subdivision notwithstanding the direction specified in paragraph 6.

9. Leases will be for a period of five years at an annual rental of $5.00 payable for the entire lease period in advance of the issuance of the lease. Leases will contain an option to purchase clause at the appraised value of $15.00 per acre, application for which may be filed at or after the expiration of one year from date the lease is issued.

10. Tracts will be subject to rights-of-way not exceeding 33 feet in width along or near the edges thereof for road purposes and public utilities. Such rights-of-way may be utilized by the Federal Government, or the state, county or municipality in which the tract is situated, or by any agency thereof. The rights-of-way may, in the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, be definitely located prior to the issuance of the patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued.

11. All inquiries relating to these lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Los Angeles, California.

NEVADA

CLASSIFICATION ORDER

JUNE 23, 1950.

1. Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Director, Bureau of Land Management, by Order No. 319 dated July 19, 1948 (43 CFR 50.451 (b) (3), 13 F. R. 4278), I hereby classify under the Small Tract Act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609), as amended July 14, 1945 (59 Stat. 467, 43 U. S. C. section 682a), as hereinafter indicated, the following described land in the Nevada land district, embracing approximately 240 acres,

NEVADA SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION No. 59

For lease and sale for homesites only:

T. 17 S., R. 50 E., M. D. M.,
Sec. 35, NW¼NE¼, N½NW¼, SW¼NW¼, W½SW¼.

The land is situated in Nye County, Nevada, about 10 miles northeast of Death Valley Junction, California. It can be reached over a dirt road from the highway that passes through Death Valley Junction.

Water for domestic purposes can probably be secured by the sinking of shallow wells.

The area is typically desert, with slight rainfall and temperatures ranging from 35 degrees to over 100 degrees.

The town of Death Valley Junction provides most of the necessary trade facilities, but the closest town of any size is Las Vegas, Nevada, approximately 75 miles distant.

2. As to applications regularly filed prior to 10:00 a. m., June 15, 1950, and are for the type of site for which the land is classified, this order shall become effective upon the date it is signed.

3. As to the land not covered by applications referred to in paragraph 2, this order shall not become effective to permit leasing under the Small Tract Act until 10:00 a. m., August 25, 1950. At that time such land shall, subject to valid existing rights, become subject to application as follows:

(a) Ninety-day preference period for qualified veterans of World War II from 10:00 a. m., August 25, 1950, to close of business on November 23, 1950.

(b) Advance period for veterans' simultaneous filings from 10:00 a. m., June 15, 1950, to 10:00 a. m., August 25, 1950.

4. Any of the land remaining unappropriated shall become subject to application under the Small Tract Act by the public generally, commencing at 10:00 a. m., November 24, 1950.

(a) Advance period for simultaneous non-preference filings from 10:00 a. m., June 15, 1950, to 10:00 a. m., November 24, 1950.

5. Applications filed within the periods mentioned in paragraphs 3 (b) and 4 (a) will be treated as simultaneously filed.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their application by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

6. All of the land will be leased in tracts of approximately 5 acres, each being approximately 330 by 660 feet, the longer dimension to extend east and west.

7. Preference right leases referred to in paragraph 2 will be issued for the land described in the application irrespective of the direction of the tract, provided the tract conforms to or is made to conform to the area and the dimension specified in paragraph 6.

8. Where only one five-acre tract in a ten-acre subdivision is embraced in a preference right application, an application for the remaining five-acre tract extending in the same direction will be accepted in order to fill out the subdivision notwithstanding the direction specified in paragraph 6.

9. Leases will be for a period of five years at an annual rental of $5.00 payable for the entire lease period in advance of the issuance of the lease. Leases will contain an option to purchase clause at the appraised value of $10.00 per acre, application for which may be filed at or after the expiration of one year from date the lease is issued.

10. Tracts will be subject to rights-of-way not exceeding 33 feet in width along or near the edges thereof for road purposes and public utilities. Such rights-of-way may be utilized by the Federal Government, or the state, county or municipality in which the tract is situated, or by any agency thereof. The rights-of-way may, in the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, be definitely located prior to the issuance of the patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued.

11. All inquiries relating to these lands should be addressed to the Manager, Nevada Land and Survey Office, Reno, Nevada.

J. H. FAVORITE,
Acting Regional Administrator.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[Docket No. 9157]

FORT INDUSTRY CO. (WSPD) AND NORTHEASTERN INDIANA BROADCASTING CO., INC. (WKJG)

ORDER CONVENING HEARING

In the matter of the petition of the Fort Industry Company (WSPD), for designation for hearing of application of Northeastern Indiana Broadcasting Company, Inc. (WKJG), Fort Wayne, Indiana, for modification of construction permit; Docket No. 9157.

The Commission having under consideration a petition to set hearing date, filed June 22, 1950, by the Fort Industry Company (WSPD), requesting that the date of the hearing herein be set within the next forty-five days so that the issues involved may be determined at the earliest possible moment; and

It appearing that this application was originally designated for hearing on October 27, 1948, and was thereafter continued from time to time at the request of the parties until October 7, 1949, when the hearing was continued indefinitely, in order to permit the engineers who represented both parties to agree upon a pattern which would provide a solution for the interference problem between the two stations; and

It further appearing that it has now been determined by the parties that no possibility of an agreement can be reached and therefore petitioner requests that the hearing date be scheduled within the next forty-five days so that the issues involved may be determined at the earliest possible moment; and

It further appearing that no opposition to this petition has been filed by the Northeastern Indiana Broadcasting Company, Inc. (WKJG), or by the General Counsel, and there are no other parties involved in this proceeding;

It is therefore ordered, This 30th day of June 1950, that the petition to set hearing date be and it is hereby granted and the hearing herein shall convene on July 17, 1950, at 10:00 a. m., in Washington, D. C.

[Docket No. 9470]

RADIO COMMISSION OF SOUTHERN BAPTIST CONVENTION AND EXECUTIVE BOARD OF BAPTIST AND GENERAL CONVENTION OF TEXAS

ORDER DESIGNATING PETITION FOR ORAL ARGUMENT ON STATED ISSUES

In re the joint petition of the Radio Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Executive Board of the Baptist and General Convention of Texas; Docket No. 9470.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June 1950;

The Commission having before it for consideration a supplemental petition filed jointly on December 30, 1949 by the Radio Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention and the Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, requesting this Commission to amend its present rules and regulations to make all recognized tax-exempt nonprofit organizations expressly eligible as licensees of a separate category of low-power noncommercial stations to be established on the 92-108 megacycle FM band, analogous to the class of low-power noncommercial FM educational stations; and

It appearing, that, in view of the showing made in said supplemental petition concerning the demand among tax-exempt nonprofit organizations for the sub-allocation preference proposed therein, and the qualifications of the class of proposed licensees for the sub-allocation sought and the special privileges implied in its grant, the request in said supplemental petition for the establishment of a new category of low power "nonprofit organization" stations raises certain issues which must be resolved before any action thereon can be taken:

It is ordered, That the said supplemental petition be designated for oral argument at a date subsequently to be fixed, before the Commission, en banc, in Washington, D. C., on the following issues:

1. To determine whether a substantial demand has been shown among tax-exempt nonprofit organizations, including but not limited to petitioners, for the sub-allocation preference sought in the supplemental petition.

2. To determine whether the necessary qualifications have been shown to justify the grant of the sub-allocation preference sought in said supplemental petition.

3. To determine whether, in the light of the showing made in the supplemental petition, the public interest, convenience and necessity would be served by the issuance of proposed rules as requested in the supplemental petition.

It is further ordered, That the petitioners herein, and all other interested parties which, on or before July 31, 1950, file timely appearance and briefs be permitted to participate in oral argument with respect to said issues.

[Docket No. 9658]

SOUTH ST. PAUL BROADCASTING CO.

CORRECTED ORDER DELETING ISSUE

In re application of Victor J. Tedesco, Albert S. Tedesco, Antonio S. Tedesco and Nicholas Tedesco d/b as South St. Paul Broadcasting Company, South St. Paul, Minnesota, for construction permit; Docket No. 9658, File No. BP-7576.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 22d day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application for a permit to construct a new standard broadcast station to operate on 1590 kilocycles with 1 kilowatt power, daytime only at South St. Paul, Minnesota;

It appearing, that the said application was designated for hearing May 12, 1950, to determine, among other things, whether any overlap in contravention of § 3.25 of the Commission's rules exists between the service areas of the proposed station and of Station WSHB, Stillwater, Minnesota, and the nature and extent thereof;

It further apearing, that all parties to the above-entitled application have relinquished their ownership interests in Station WSHB as the result of a voluntary assignment of license from the St. Croix Broadcasting Company to William F. Johns, Jr., and Penrose H. Johns, a partnership d/b as St. Croix Broadcasting Company, granted by Commission action on March 30, 1950;

It is ordered, That the Commission's order of May 12, 1950, designating the above-entitled application for hearing, is amended to delete Issue Number 1 therefrom.

SAFETY AND SPECIAL RADIO SERVICES BUREAU

ESTABLISHMENT

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of June 1950:

It is ordered, Under the authority of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that:

A. The following Divisions of the Office of the Chief Engineer are hereby abolished:

Aviation, Marine Radio and Safety, Public Safety and Special Services, and the Radio Operator and Amateur Division.

The Safety and Special Services Division of the Office of the General Counsel is hereby abolished.

The Commercial License Branch and the Amateur, Citizens Radio and Operator Branch of the License Division of the Bureau of the Secretary are hereby abolished.

B. There is hereby established the Safety and Special Radio Services Bureau. This Bureau shall consist of an Office of the Chief, an Aviation Division, a Marine Division, State-Local Government and Amateur Division, Industry and Commeree Division, and an Authorization Analysis Division.

The Bureau shall assist, advise and make recommendation to the Commission with respect to the development of a safety and special services regulatory program and shall be responsible for the performance of any work, function or activities to carry out that program, in accordance with applicable statutes, international agreements, rules and regulations and policies of the Commission, except insofar as functions are specifically delegated to other bureaus or staff offices of the Commission.

The Bureau shall perform the following functions:

1. Issue authorizations for radio stations (in the safety and special radio services).

2. Initiate rule-making proceedings (in the safety and special radio services).

3. Participate in international conferences with respect to safety and special radio services).

4. Study frequency requirements in the safety and special radio services and make recommendations with respect to the allocation of frequencies and the drafting of frequency assignment plans for safety and special radio services.

5. Collaborate with Federal and State Governmental agencies and industry groups interested in the problems of safety and special radio services.

6. Study technical requirements for equipment in accordance with standards established by the Office of the Chief Engineer.

7. Plan and execute a safety and special services enforcement program, including educational campaigns conducted in collaboration with Field Engineering and Monitoring Division.

8. Perform all other functions or activities essential to regulation of safety and special radio services.

Provided, however, That all matters coming within the scope of Title II of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, shall be referred to the Common Carrier Bureau for action.

C. The Bureau shall be under the direction of the Chief of the Bureau, who, subject to the policy determinations of the Commission, shall plan, direct, and coordinate the safety and special radio services functions of the Commission and in so doing have within the immediate office of the Chief of the Bureau the following authority, duties and responsibilities.

1. To advise and make recommendations and reports to the Commission on safety and special radio services matters.

2. To initiate policy recommendations on safety and special radio services matters for Commission consideration.

3. To anticipate and analyze program and policy problems in the safety and special radio services field.

4. To provide guidance, coordination, and general supervision to the several subordinate divisions.

5. To coordinate the efforts of the Safety and Special Radio Services Bureau with that of other bureaus of the Commission and of the staff offices.

6. To maintain liaison with other agencies of government on safety and special radio services matters.

7. To provide representation for the Commission on inter-departmental committees.

8. To deal with members of the public and of the industries concerned.

9. To integrate and give leadership in the Bureau to the solution of problems in the safety and special radio services field.

10. To provide representation for the Commission in international conference work involving safety and special radio services matters.

11. To exercise such authority as may be assigned or referred by the Commission pursuant to section 5 (e) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

D. The immediate office of the Chief of the Bureau shall include an Enforcement Unit which shall be staffed to carry on the following enforcement functions:

1. To plan in cooperation with the divisions comprising the Bureau the enforcement program for the safety and special radio services.

2. To evaluate citations to determine whether a recommendation should be made to suspend or revoke licenses or to impose other sanctions.

3. To represent the Bureau and to coordinate with the Office of the General Counsel in those cases where prosecution is deemed necessary.

E. There is hereby established the Aviation Division. This Division shall be under the direction of a Chief, who, under the supervision and direction of the Chief of the Bureau, shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

Exercises responsibility for the Division for all functions indicated in the statement contained in B above, insofar as such functions pertain to aviation radio and safety matters, except for enforcement matters (provided in D, above) and authorizations for the use of radio (provided in I below).

F. There is hereby established the Marine Division. This Division shall be under the direction of a Chief, who, under the supervision and direction of the Chief of the Bureau, shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

Exercises responsibility for the Division for all functions indicated in the statement contained in B, above, insofar as such functions pertain to marine radio and safety services, to scheduled weather transmissions, and to the Alaskan services, except for enforcement matters (provided in D, above) and authorizations for the use of radio (provided in I, below).

G. There is hereby established the Industry and Commerce Division. This Division shall be under the direction of a Chief, who, under the supervision and direction of the Chief of the Bureau, shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

Exercises responsibility for the Division for all functions indicated in the statement contained in B, above, insofar as they relate to industry and commerce radio, including the present industrial, land transportation and citizens' radio services, except for enforcement matters (provided in D, above) and authorizations for the use of radio (provided in I, below).

H. There is hereby established the State-Local Government and Amateur Division. This Division shall be under the direction of a Chief, who, under the supervision and direction of the Chief of the Bureau, shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

Exercises responsibility for the Division for all functions indicated in the statement contained in B, above, insofar as such functions pertain to State-local government and amateur radio, including the present public safety and amateur services, except for enforcement matters (provided in D, above) and authorizations for the use of radio (provided in I, below).

I. There is hereby established the Authorization Analysis Division. This Division shall be under the direction of a Chief, who, under the supervision and direction of the Chief of the Bureau, shall have the following duties and responsibilities:

Exercises responsibility for the Division for such functions indicated in the statement contained in B, above, insofar as they relate to the review of applications and the grant of authorizations in those cases which fall within the Commission rules and regulations, and standards and interpretations established by the divisions enumerated in E through H, above; and in addition shall:

1. Return to the applicant such applications as may be rejected under the above standards, and make disposition of other applications in accordance with instructions of the Chief of the Bureau.

2. Establish and maintain a statistical reporting system to keep the Commission and other Divisions of the Bureau advised of actions on, and the status of, applications for and grants of authorizations.

3. Review recommended changes in rules made by service divisions (enumerated in E through H, above) and to advise the service divisions on administrative problems involved in proposed rules changes.

4. Establish and maintain the safety and special radio services reference room.

The effective date of this order shall be July 31, 1950.

SAFETY AND SPECIAL RADIO SERVICES BUREAU

ASSIGNMENT OF FUNCTIONS TO VARIOUS STAFF OFFICERS

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 29th day of June 1950;

It appearing, that the Commission has this date by order established the Safety and Special Radio Services Bureau; it is, therefore, necessary that certain functions heretofore assigned to Divisions abolished by order be placed in the staff offices.

It is ordered, Under the authority of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, that:

A. There is hereby assigned to the Office of the Chief Engineer the following functions to be assigned by the Chief Engineer to appropriate units within his Office until such time as further studies can be made of the Office of the Chief Engineer.

1. All functions relating to the formulation of rules, establishment of technical standards, encouragement, authorization and regulation of experimentation in the electronic arts or the incidental use of them for general research and scientific purposes: Provided, That experimentation which has the primary purpose of improving the established classes of services shall continue to be handled by the Bureau responsible under the rules for the administration of such services: And provided, That nothing said herein shall divest the Field Engineering and Monitoring Division of its inspection functions.

2. Functions related to restricted and incidental radiation devices, including the conduct of studies of uses of such devices by industry and the general public with a view toward eliminating interference to established services, including the development and promulgation of rules, the testing and type approval of equipment, the review of complaints of interference to established radio services, and such other activities as are necessary in carrying out responsibilities in connection with this function.

3. Functions related to the regulation of commercial radio operators, including the development and promulgation of rules and regulations governing the licensing of radio operators, maintaining examination requirements on a current basis, reviewing citations with respect to commercial operators, and such other matters necessary to the carrying out of this function.

B. There is hereby transferred to the Office of the General Counsel the following functions to be assigned by the General Counsel to appropriate Divisions within his Office until such time as further study can be made of the Office of the General Counsel:

1. Legal matters involved in A1, above.
2. Legal matters involved in A2, above, and
3. Legal matters involved in A3, above.

C. The field engineer responsible for administering examinations for the area in which the applicant resides is authorized to act in accordance with Commission policy upon application for waiver of the following:

1. Provisions of § 12.49 relating to the time within which an applicant for Amateur Radio Operator License may take an examination after having failed a previous examination;

2. Provisions of § 13.12 relating to the time within which an applicant for Commercial Radio Operator License may take an examination after having failed a previous examination.

D. All functions relating to the assignment of call letters will be retained in the Bureau of the Secretary, to be assigned by the Secretary to an appropriate organizational unit within his Bureau until such time as further study can be made of the Bureau of the Secretary.

The effective date of this order shall be July 31, 1950.

FEDERAL MARITIME BOARD

FLOTA MERCANTE GRANCOLOMBIANA, S. A., ET AL.

NOTICE OF AGREEMENTS FILED FOR APPROVAL

Notice is hereby given that the following described agreements have been filed with the Board for approval pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916, as amended.

Agreement No. 7777, between Flota Mercante Grancolombiana, S. A. and Compania Anonima Venezolana de Navegacion and the member lines of the United States Atlantic & Gulf-Netherlands West Indies and Venezuela Conference, sets forth the declarations of said entities represented at the Maritime Assembly at Caracas, Venezuela, June 19, 1950, for the promotion and development of commerce and trade between the United States Atlantic and Gulf ports and Venezuela and for providing regular, frequent and dependable steamship service at just and reasonable rates on an equal basis for all carriers and in affording equal shipping opportunities for all shippers, exporters and importers alike without discrimination or advantage to any of the lines over the others.

Agreement No. 7771, between Silver Line, Ltd., and the carriers comprising the Hoegh Lines joint service, covers the establishment and maintenance of a joint cargo service (with limited passenger accommodations) under the trade name Silver-Hoegh Line in the trade from Siam, Federation of Malaya, Colony of Singapore, Indonesia, including Sumatra, to Eastern Canada and U. S. Atlantic and Gulf ports. There is to be no pooling or other sharing of profits or losses under the agreement. The joint service is to be represented by Kerr Steamship Company, Inc. or by such other person, firm or corporation as the parties may designate.

Agreement No. 7628–1, between States Marine Corporation and States Marine Corporation of Delaware, modifies the approved joint service agreement of the parties (No. 7628), which covers various world-wide trades, by adding a new clause providing that the parties may use the trade name "States Marine Lines" in their shipping documents, advertising or otherwise, to designate their joint service under the terms and provisions of the agreement.

Agreement No. 6080–7, between the member lines of the United States Atlantic & Gulf-Santo Domingo Conference, modifies the basic agreement of said Conference (No. 6080) to include a rule that on-board bills of lading will not be issued unless and until the cargo is actually on board the carrying vessel and the on-board endorsement shall definitely name the date on which the cargo was actually aboard.

Agreement No. 6080–6, between the member lines of the United States Atlantic & Gulf-Santo Domingo Conference, modifies the basic agreement of said Conference (No. 6080) to provide that freight brokerage, not exceeding 1¼ percent of the freight, may be paid to bona fide freight forwarders on outward freight only.

Interested parties may inspect these agreements and obtain copies thereof at the Regulation Office, Federal Maritime Board, Washington, D. C., and may submit, within 20 days after publication of this notice, written statements with reference to any of the agreements and their position as to approval, disapproval, or modification together with request for hearing should such hearing be desired.

Dated: July 6, 1950, at Washington, D. C.

By the Board.

[Docket No. G-1365]

TENNESSEE GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

JULY 5, 1950.

On April 10, 1950, Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal place of business at Houston, Texas, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, for the transportation and sale of natural gas, as is more fully described in the application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant has requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. No request to be heard or protest has been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 21, 1950 (15 F. R. 2256-2257).

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on July 14, 1950, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: July 5, 1950.

OHIO FUEL GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

JULY 5, 1950.

On May 29, 1950, The Ohio Fuel Gas Company (Applicant), an Ohio corporation with its principal place of business in Columbus, Ohio, filed an application (1) for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing Applicant to construct and operate approximately 22 miles of 16-inch natural gas transmission pipeline in Montgomery County, Ohio, extending from the junction of Lines "A" and A-75, near Centerville to the junction of Lines Z-50 and Z-167, near Englewood, passing west of the City of Dayton, Ohio, and (2) for permission and approval pursuant to section 7 (b) of the Natural Gas Act to abandon and remove the facilities comprising Applicant's Vandalia compressor station, consisting of a 330 HP compressor unit and appurtenant facilities, located in Montgomery County, Ohio.

Applicant has requested that this application be heard under the shortened procedure provided for by § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure; no request to be heard or protest has been filed subsequent to giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on June 15, 1950 (15 F. R. 3814).

The Commission finds: This proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on July 25, 1950, at 9:30 o'clock a. m., e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) Interested State Commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: July 5, 1950.

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

BUILDINGS AND SPACE MANAGEMENT FUNCTIONS UNDER REORGANIZATION PLAN NO. 18 OF 1950

DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY

Pursuant to the authority vested in me as Administrator of General Services, by Reorganization Plan No. 18 of 1950, authority is hereby delegated, except as provided in section 3 of this delegation, to the Federal agencies performing the following functions as of June 30, 1950, to perform such functions effective July 1, 1950:

1. All functions with respect to acquiring space in buildings by lease, and all functions with respect to assigning and reassigning space in buildings for use by agencies (including both space acquired by lease and space in Government-owned buildings), exclusive, however, of all such functions (which functions are not covered by Reorganization Plan No. 18) with respect to:

(a) Space in buildings located in any foreign country;

(b) Space in buildings which are located on the grounds of any fort, camp, post, arsenal, Navy yard, naval training station, airfield, proving ground, military supply depot, or school, or of any similar facility, of the Department of Defense, unless and to such extent as a permit for its use shall have been issued by the Secretary of Defense or his duly authorized representative;

(c) Space occupied by the Post Office Department in post-office buildings and space acquired by lease for post-office purposes; and

(d) Space in other Government-owned buildings which are wholly or predominantly utilized for the special purposes of the agency having the custody thereof and are not generally suitable for the use of other agencies (including but not limited to hospitals, housing, laboratories, mints, manufacturing plants, and penal institutions), and space acquired by lease for any such purpose.

2. All functions with respect to the operation, maintenance, and custody of office buildings owned by the Government, and of office buildings or parts thereof acquired by lease, exclusive, however, of all such functions (which functions are not covered by Reorganization Plan No. 18 of 1950) with respect to:

(a) Any building located in any foreign country;

(b) Any building located on the grounds of any fort, camp, post, arsenal, Navy yard, naval training station, airfield, proving ground, military supply depot, or school, or of any similar facility, of the Department of Defense, unless and to such extent as a permit for its use by another agency or agencies shall have been issued by the Secretary of Defense or his duly authorized representative;

(c) Any building which is a part of a group of buildings which are (1) located in the same vicinity, (2) are utilized wholly or predominantly for the special purposes of the agency having custody thereof, and (3) are not generally suitable for the use of other agencies; and

(d) The Treasury Building, the Bureau of Engraving and Printing Building, the buildings occupied by the National Bureau of Standards, and the buildings under the jurisdiction of the regents of the Smithsonian Institution.

3. This delegation shall not apply to any post-office building, or to the following buildings:

(a) Forest Service Office Building, Elkins, West Virginia;

(b) Old Post Office Building, Athens, Georgia;

(c) Forest Service Regional Office Building, Ogden, Utah.

Dated: June 30, 1950.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VIII—Production and Marketing Administration (Sugar Branch), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter F—Determination of Normal Yields and Eligibility for Abandonment and Crop Deficiency Payments

[Sugar Determination 846.2]

PART 846—HAWAII

1950 AND SUBSEQUENT CROPS

Pursuant to the provisions of section 303 of the Sugar Act of 1948, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 846.2 Normal yields and eligibility for abandonment and crop deficiency payments—(a) Farm normal yields. The normal yield of commercially recoverable sugar per acre for any sugarcane farm in Hawaii shall be established for the 1950 and each subsequent crop year as follows:

(1) For a farm on which sugarcane was grown and marketed (or processed by the producer) for the extraction of sugar in three or more of the next preceding five crop years, the normal yield shall be the simple average of the annual average yields of sugar per acre of sugarcane harvested from the farm for the extraction of sugar for all of such years in which sugarcane was harvested.

(2) For a farm on which sugarcane was grown and marketed (or processed by the producer) for the extraction of sugar in less than three of the next preceding five crop years, the normal yield shall be that established by the Director of the Hawaiian Area Office of the Production and Marketing Administration (hereinafter referred to as "Area Office of PMA") on the basis of the average yield which could have been reasonably expected on the farm in the next preceding five crop years considering the average yield of other farms in the same local producing area (as defined in paragraph (c) of this section), variations in soil productivity, climatic conditions, cultural practices and other pertinent factors.

(b) Eligibility for abandonment and deficiency payments. The Director of the Area Office of PMA shall approve for abandonment and/or deficiency payments any farm located in whole or in part in a local producing area in which the actual yields of sugar from 10 percent or more of the sugarcane acreage harvested from all farms or parts of farms in such local producing area, were not in excess of 80 percent of the applicable normal yields: Provided, That (1) such acreage abandonment and/or crop deficiency was directly due to drought, flood, storm, freeze, disease, or insects, (2) the acreage abandoned or the acreage with respect to which there was a crop deficiency was suitable for the production of sugarcane and was cared for up to the time of harvest or abandonment, as the case may be, in a manner which could have been expected under average conditions to produce a normal crop of sugarcane, and (3) the other conditions for payment specified in Title III of the act with respect to the farm have been met. Such approval on the application for payment by the Director of the Area Office of PMA shall constitute determination that such farm is eligible for abandonment and/or deficiency payments.

(c) Definitions. (1) Acreage of sugarcane "harvested" shall mean the acreage from which sugarcane was harvested for the extraction of sugar plus the acreage of sugarcane with respect to which there was bona fide abandonment as a result of drought, flood, storm, freeze, disease, or insects.

(2) "Sugar" shall mean hundredweight of sugar commercially recoverable from the sugarcane grown on the farm and marketed (or processed) for the extraction of sugar.

(3) "Local producing area" shall mean all contiguous or nearby farms or parts of farms which are similar with respect to types of soil or with respect to topography, as determined by the Director of the Area Office of PMA: Provided, however, That farms separated from other farms by any natural barrier or large area of land shall not be included within the same local producing area.

This determination supersedes, with respect to the 1950 and subsequent crop years, the "Determination of Normal Yield of Commercially Recoverable Sugar per Acre and Eligibility for Payment with Respect to Abandonment and Crop Deficiency for Sugarcane Farms in Hawaii," issued May 25, 1945 (10 F. R. 6154).

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

Requirements of the Sugar Act of 1948. Section 303 of the act authorizes the Secretary to make payment to producers of sugar beets or sugarcane with respect to bona fide abandonment of planted acreage and crop deficiencies of harvested acreage under certain conditions. The payments are based on normal yields of commercially recoverable sugar as established for individual farms under determinations issued by the Secretary.

Historical background. Normal yields for farms in Hawaii have been based heretofore on the average yields of commercially recoverable sugar per acre obtained during base periods consisting of three consecutive crop years deemed to be representative of the yields to be expected under normal conditions. For the crop years 1937–1942 the base period consisted of the crop years 1934, 1935, and 1936. Beginning with the 1943 crop the base years were the crop years 1939, 1940, and 1941. The average yield in Hawaii for the 1934–1936 base period was 7.64 tons of sugar per acre as compared to 7.19 tons for the period 1939–1941. The average yield for the 1942–1949 period increased to approximately 8.00 tons. This increase in yields has been due largely to higher yielding varieties of cane and improved production methods.

Base periods. The use of fixed base periods covering selected crop years does not adequately reflect changes in yields. It also tends to benefit those producers who obtained abnormally high yields in the selected base years, while the effect is the reverse with respect to those producers who obtained subnormal yields in the base years. It is believed that the use of moving base periods will reflect current changes more adequately, will assure equitable treatment among all producers, and will provide a sounder basis for the computation of any acreage abandonment and crop deficiency payments which may be applied for in the future. Accordingly, the foregoing determination provides that normal yields for any crop year will be established from the average yields obtained during the next preceding five crop years. The average yield per acre in Hawaii for the base period (1945–1949) which will be effective for the 1950 crop is 8.15 tons.

Computation of farm normal yields. Under this determination normal yields for farms will be computed directly in terms of hundredweight of sugar commercially recoverable per acre from applicable data on harvested acreage and yields of sugar. This is a more direct method than that formerly used whereby normal yields were computed by multiplying the average number of tons of cane produced per acre by the average yield of sugar per ton of cane. The normal yield for each farm having a sugarcane production record for three or more years of the applicable base period will be computed by averaging the annual yields obtained on the farm within such period.

The former determination provided that if sugarcane was not harvested on the farm during each year of the three-year base period, the normal yield was based upon the average yield of all farms in the same local producing area. Since this could have resulted in unrealistic normal yields in some cases, the proposed determination provides that for farms with production history in less than three years of the applicable five-year base period the normal yields shall be established by the Director of the Area Office of PMA on the basis of the yields which could have been reasonably expected on the farms during such base period. This will permit the Area Office to take into account variations in soil productivity, climatic conditions, cultural practices and other pertinent factors when establishing such normal yields.

Eligibility for abandonment and deficiency payments. The provisions regarding eligibility for these payments have been in effect for several years and have proven to be generally satisfactory. Except for the inclusion of the phrase "or nearby farms or parts of farms" in the definition of a local producing area, other provisions remain the same.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing determination will effectuate the provisions of section 303 of the Sugar Act of 1948.

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Grapefruit Reg. 125]

PART 933—ORANGES, GRAPEFRUIT, AND TANGERINES GROWN IN FLORIDA

LIMITATION OF SHIPMENTS

§ 933.479 Grapefruit Regulation 125—(a) Findings. (1) On June 20, 1950, notice of rule-making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 3965) regarding a proposed limitation of shipments of grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, during the period July 31, 1950, to September 15, 1950, pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 84, as amended, and Order No. 33, as amended (7 CFR, Part 933), regulating the handling of oranges, grapefruit, and tangerines grown in the State of Florida. This regulatory program is effective pursuant to the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended. After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposals, set forth in the aforesaid notice, which were submitted by the Growers Administrative Committee (established pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order) it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of grapefruit, in the manner and during the period hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) and for making the provisions hereof effective at the time hereinafter specified in that: Shipments of grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, are currently regulated, by grades and sizes, but such regulation is effective only until July 31, 1950; because of the hurricane during the early portion of the current season, a late grapefruit bloom resulted; the grapefruit of such bloom may be available for shipment during the period hereinafter specified thereby causing a somewhat longer-than-normal marketing season; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of such grapefruit; compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof; and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., July 31, 1950, and ending at 12:01 a. m., e. s. t., September 15, 1950, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any grapefruit of any variety, grown in the State of Florida, which do not grade at least U. S. No. 2 Russet;

(ii) Any seeded grapefruit, other than pink grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 80 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box;

(iii) Any seedless grapefruit, other than pink grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 126 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box; or

(iv) Any pink grapefruit, grown in the State of Florida, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack 126 grapefruit, packed in accordance with the requirements of a standard pack, in a standard nailed box.

(2) As used in this section, "handler", "variety," and "ship," shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and "U. S. No. 2 Russet," "standard pack," and "standard nailed box" shall have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Grapefruit (7 CFR 51.191; 14 F. R. 6828).

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c)

TITLE 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter I—Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice

Subchapter B—Immigration Regulations

PART 119—VISITORS

PART 125—STUDENTS

EXTENSION OF STAY OF ALIEN VISITORS AND STUDENTS

APRIL 27, 1950.

The following amendments to Chapter I, Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations, are hereby prescribed:

1. Paragraph (b) of § 119.12, Extension of stay; procedure, is amended to read as follows:

(b) After making such inquiry as may be necessary, the district director shall make a decision on the application and such decision shall be final, (1) except that the Commissioner may from time to time require certain classes of cases or individual cases to be submitted to him for review or for decision; and (2) except that, if the applicant has gone to another district and further information from him is needed, the district director may send the application to the other district for final action. In all cases, the district director shall send to the visitor written notice of the decision, accompanied by any passport and Form 257a or I–94 submitted with the application. That shall be done even though the visitor has, after submitting the application, moved to another district. If the decision is favorable and if a Form 257a or I–94 was submitted with the application, such notice may be given by placing a signed endorsement on the Form 257a or I–94. Such endorsement shall include the date through which the stay is extended. If the application is denied, the district director making that decision shall take appropriate action with a view to enforcing the alien's departure or removal from the United States, and the notice to the alien of the denial shall include advice as to such intended action.

2. Paragraph (b) of § 125.13, Extension of stay; procedure, is amended to read as follows:

(b) After making such inquiry as may be necessary, the district director shall make a decision on the application and such decision shall be final: Provided, That the Commissioner may from time to time require in individual cases or in certain classes of cases that district directors submit to him for review or decision cases of applications on Form I–535 on which they have acted or which they receive. In all cases the district director shall send notice of the decision to the student. If the decision is favorable, such notice shall be made by placing a signed endorsement on the duplicate Form I–94, showing the date to which the stay is extended and by returning the duplicate Form I–94 and the passport to the student. The district director of the district in which is located the institution which a student is attending shall to the extent practicable notify by form letter each student of the imminent expiration of authorized stay unless the district director is in receipt of an application for an extension of such stay or of information that the student will depart from the United States at the expiration of the period of authorized stay.

This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) as to notice of proposed rule making and delayed effective date are inapplicable for the reason that the regulations hereby prescribed pertain solely to agency procedure.

(Sec. 23, 39 Stat. 892, sec. 24, 43 Stat. 166, sec. 37, 54 Stat. 675; 8 U. S. C. 102, 222, 458)

WATSON B. MILLER,
Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization.

Approved: July 8, 1950.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Reg., Amdt. 20–7]

PART 20—PILOT CERTIFICATES

CERTIFICATION OF GLIDER PILOTS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of July 1950.

Currently effective Part 20 establishes the certification requirements for glider pilots, but it does not require that an applicant for a pilot certificate with a glider rating have any amount of supervised training. Moreover, the provisions of Part 20 do not provide for the issuance of a flight instructor rating to a pilot holding a pilot certificate with only a glider rating.

This amendment is designed to clarify and simplify the certification requirements for the issuance of pilot certificates with glider ratings, to provide that all applicants for pilot certificates with glider ratings have at least one hour of flight instruction in the recovery from stalls, and to provide that flight instructor ratings may be issued to glider pilots. This amendment also establishes a clearer and more appropriate method of computing glider flight time by providing that 10 short-patterned and released glider flights may be counted as one hour of flight time. Glider flight time is normally logged in terms of the number of flights flown rather than the number of hours flown. Thus, this amendment will eliminate the difficulty currently experienced by providing a standard for the conversion of glider flights into glider flight time.

Part 43 is being amended concurrently, infra, with this amendment to provide that a commercial glider pilot may give flight instruction in gliders and that a flight instructor shall not give flight instruction in a category of aircraft in which he has not demonstrated to an authorized representative of the Administrator his proficiency as a flight instructor.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 20 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, Part 20, as amended) as follows, effective August 10, 1950:

1. By adding a new § 20.13 to read as follows:

§ 20.13 Computation of flight time. Flight time shall be computed as follows:

(a) Powered aircraft. Flight time had in powered aircraft shall be computed in hours and minutes.

(b) Glider. Flight time had in a glider may be computed either in hours and minutes or by number of glider flights. Ten short-patterned and released glider flights may be counted as one hour of flight time.

2. By amending § 20.25 (b) to read as follows:

§ 20.25 Aeronautical experience. • • •

(b) Glider. An applicant for a glider rating shall have had at least 100 glider flights, or 10 hours of glider flight time including at least 50 glider flights. At least 25 of the required total number of flights shall have included 360° turns. As part of his aeronautical experience an applicant shall have had at least one hour of flight instruction in the recovery from stalls entered from all normally anticipated flight attitudes.

3. By amending § 20.26 (b) to read as follows:

§ 20.26 Aeronautical skill. • • •

(b) Glider. (1) At least 2 flights, one of which shall include a 360° approach to the right and one to the left, landing each time within 200 feet beyond a designated line or point;

(2) Recovery from stalls entered from all normally anticipated flight attitudes. (Stall maneuvers may be demonstrated in airplanes.)

4. By amending § 20.35 (b) to read as follows:

§ 20.35 Aeronautical experience. • • •

(b) Glider. An applicant for a glider rating shall have had at least 250 glider flights, or 25 hours of glider flight time including at least 125 glider flights. At least 25 of the required total number of flights shall have included 360° turns. As part of his aeronautical experience an applicant shall have had at least one hour of flight instruction in the recovery from stalls entered from all normally anticipated flight attitudes.

5. By amending § 20.36 (b) to read as follows:

§ 20.36 Aeronautical skill. • • •

(b) Glider. (1) At least 2 flights, one of which shall include a 360° approach to the right and one to the left, landing each time within 100 feet beyond a designated line or point;

(2) A spiral in each direction of not less than 3 full turns in a banked attitude of not less than 45°;

(3) A demonstration of satisfactory technique in the performance of glider flight when towed by an automobile or a winch;

(4) A demonstration of satisfactory technique in the performance of glider flight when towed by an airplane during climb, and when above, below, and to one side of the towing airplane slipstream while in level flight; and

(5) Recovery from stalls entered from all normally anticipated flight attitudes. (Stall maneuvers may be demonstrated in airplanes.)

6. By amending § 20.41 to read as follows:

§ 20.41 Flight instructor rating. A flight instructor rating may be issued to an applicant who meets the following requirements:

(a) Age. 18 years.

(b) Knowledge. An applicant shall pass a theoretical and practical examination on his competency to instruct students in flight.

(c) Experience. An applicant shall be a commercial pilot or a private pilot who has met the experience requirements for the issuance of a pilot certificate with a commercial pilot rating.

(d) Skill. An applicant shall demonstrate in each category of aircraft in which he desires to give flight instruction his ability to perform with precision and to teach such flight maneuvers as are necessary and appropriate for instruction in the safe piloting of that category of aircraft.

[Civil Air Regs., Amdt. 43–2]

PART 43—GENERAL OPERATION RULES

FLIGHT INSTRUCTOR PRIVILEGES AND LIMITATIONS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of July 1950.

Currently effective Part 43 provides that a commercial pilot may pilot aircraft for hire and also establishes flight instruction limitations. However, the current regulations do not specify the categories in which an individual holding a flight instructor rating may give flight instruction, but they do provide that a flight instructor rating be given only for powered aircraft.

Part 20 is concurrently, supra, being amended to provide that an applicant for a pilot certificate with a glider rating have at least one hour of flight instruction in the recovery from stalls. We have been advised that the Soaring Society of America has, in the absence of regulation by the Board, recognized flight instruction given by glider pilots holding at least commercial ratings and that their experience with this procedure has been satisfactory. While flight instructors instructing in aircraft other than gliders are required to hold instructor ratings, nevertheless, we believe that the method of instructing persons to pilot gliders (i. e. on the ground rather than in flight) and the inherent differences between glider and powered aircraft are sufficient to authorize commercial glider pilots to instruct in gliders even though they do not hold instructor ratings. We do not believe that the level of safety will be lowered if commercial glider pilots not holding instructor ratings are permitted to give flight instruction in gliders. However, a glider pilot will now be able to secure a flight instructor rating, and it is anticipated that most instructors will secure such rating.

Part 20 is also being amended to require a flight instructor to demonstrate his proficiency as such in each category of aircraft in which he desires to give certified flight instruction. Heretofore the regulations have permitted a pilot holding a flight instructor rating, secured by passing the appropriate tests in one category of aircraft, to give flight instruction in any category of aircraft for which he might be rated as pilot. We believe that the category rating test is sufficient to determine a pilot's ability to pilot an aircraft safely but may not be adequate, considering the marked differences between categories of aircraft, to make a determination that the pilot's ability is sufficiently comprehensive to give flight instruction in that category. On the other hand, it is our opinion that a category rating test sufficiently comprehensive to determine pilot ability and instructor ability would impose an undue burden on many persons who apply for a category rating but do not desire to give flight instruction in that category. Accordingly, we are amending Part 43 to provide that a flight instructor shall not give flight instruction in a category of aircraft in which he has not demonstrated his proficiency as a flight instructor.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this amendment, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 43 of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, Part 43, as amended) as follows, effective August 10, 1950:

1. By amending § 43.61 to read as follows:

§ 43.61 Commercial pilot. A commercial pilot may pilot aircraft for hire. A commercial glider pilot may give flight instruction in gliders.

2. By adding paragraph (d) to § 43.64 to read as follows:

§ 43.64 Flight instruction limitations. • • •

(d) Aircraft category limitations. A flight instructor shall not give flight instruction in a category of aircraft in which he has not demonstrated to an authorized representative of the Administrator his proficiency as a flight instructor.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply sec. 601, 52 Stat. 1007; 49 U. S. C. 551)

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

PART 2—RULES OF PRACTICE

HEARINGS IN ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS

The Commission on June 29, 1950, amended paragraph (a) of § 2.15 of its Rules of Practice (§§ 2.1 to 2.31), so as to make said section read as follows, effective on date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

NOTE: In said section, the number to the right of the decimal point corresponds with the Roman numbers in the Commission's Rules of Practice, as included in its publication, rules, policy, organization, and acts.

§ 2.15 Hearings in adversary proceedings. All hearings pursuant to formal complaint shall be public unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, and such hearings shall be subject to the following conditions and requirements:

(a) Every party respondent shall have the right of due notice, cross-examination, presentation of evidence, objection, exception, motion, argument, appeal and all other fundamental rights. Whenever a witness, on examination by the party calling him, is an adverse party, or is an officer, agent or employee of an adverse party, or appears to be hostile, unwilling, or evasive, such witness may be interrogated by leading questions, and may be contradicted in all respects as if he had been called by the adverse party. The witness thus called may be contradicted and impeached by or on behalf of the adverse party and may be cross-examined by the adverse party only upon the subject matter of his examination by the party who called him.

(b) The taking of evidence and subsequent proceedings shall proceed with all reasonable diligence and with the least practicable delay.

(c) Not less than five (5) days' notice of the time and place of any indefinitely postponed hearing shall be given to counsel of record or to parties, but in appointing such hearings due regard shall be had for the convenience and necessity of all parties or their representatives.

(d) The trial examiner may withdraw from a case when he deems himself disqualified, or he may be withdrawn by the Commission after timely affidavits alleging personal bias or other disqualifications have been filed and the matter has been heard by the Commission or by a trial examiner whom it has delegated to investigate and report.

(e) Hearings shall be stenographically reported by the official reporter of the Commission under supervision of the presiding trial examiner. A transcript of said report shall be a part of the record and the sole official transcript of the proceeding. Transcripts will be supplied to respondents and to the public by the official reporter at rates not to exceed the maximum rates fixed by contract between the Commission and the reporter.

(f) Changes in the official transcript may be made only when they involve errors affecting substance and then only in the manner herein provided. No physical changes shall be made in or upon the official record or copies thereof in the custody of the Commission. Lists of changes agreed to in writing by opposing counsel may be incorporated into the record, if and when approved by the trial examiner, at the close of evidence in support of the complaint, or at the final hearing before the trial examiner, or at any time thereafter before he files his decision, and at no other times. If any changes are ordered by the trial examiner without such written agreement between opposing counsel they shall be subject to objection and exception.

Promulgated as of this date in pursuance of the action of the Federal Trade Commission under date of June 29, 1950, effective on date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722; 15 U. S. C. 46)

By direction of the Commission.

[Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments Rent Reg., Amdt. 258]

PART 825—RENT REGULATIONS UNDER THE HOUSING AND RENT ACT OF 1947, AS AMENDED

OKLAHOMA

The Controlled Housing Rent Regulation (§§825.1 to 825.12) and the Rent Regulation for Controlled Rooms in Rooming Houses and Other Establishments (§§825.81 to 825.92) are amended in the following respect:

Schedule A, Item 242b, is amended to read as follows:

(242b) [Revoked and decontrolled.]

This decontrols (1) the City of Bartlesville in Washington County, Oklahoma, the Bartlesville, Oklahoma, Defense-Rental Area, and all unincorporated localities in said defense-rental area, based on a resolution submitted with respect to said City of Bartlesville in accordance with section 204 (j) (3) of the Housing and Rent Act of 1947, as amended, said City of Bartlesville, being the major portion of said defense-rental area, and (2) the remainder of said defense-rental area on the Housing Expediter's own initiative in accordance with section 204 (c) of said act.

(Sec. 204, 61 Stat. 197, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Sup. 1894)

This amendment shall become effective July 10, 1950.

TITLE 38—PENSIONS, BONUSES, AND VETERANS' RELIEF

Chapter I—Veterans' Administration

PART 36—SERVICEMEN'S READJUSTMENT ACT OF 1944

SUBPART A—TITLE III; LOAN GUARANTY

1. In § 36.4301, paragraphs (a), (i), and (cc) are amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4301 Definitions. • • •

(a) "Act" means Public Law 346, 78th Congress (58 Stat. 284), cited as the "Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944," as amended by Public Law 268, 79th Congress (59 Stat. 626), Public Law 864, 80th Congress, Chapter 784, 2d Session (62 Stat. 1206), and Public Law 475, 81st Congress, Chapter 94, 2d Session (38 U. S. C. and sup., 694 et seq.).

• • • • •

(i) "Designated appraiser" means a person requested by the Administrator to render an estimate of the reasonable value of a property, or of a specified type of property, within a stated area for the purpose of justifying the extension of credit to an eligible veteran for any of the purposes stated in Title III of the act. An appraiser on a fee basis is not an agent of the Administrator.

• • • • •

(cc) "Reasonable value" means that figure which represents the amount a reputable and qualified appraiser, unaffected by personal interest, bias, or prejudice, would recommend to a prospective purchaser as a proper price or cost in the light of prevailing conditions.

• • • • •

2. In § 36.4302, paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) are amended and new paragraphs (h), (i), and (j) are added as follows:

§ 36.4302 Computation of guaranties or insurance credits. (a) For the purpose of computing guaranty in respect to a loan to a veteran, the following maxima cannot be exceeded:

(1) Real estate loans. (i) 505 (a) Loans: 100 percent of the original principal amount of the secondary loan, but not to exceed 20 percent of the purchase price or cost of the property, or $4,000, whichever is less (Public Law 268, 79th Congress).

(ii) 501 (b) Loans: Subject to the provisions of paragraph (j) of this section, 60 percent of the original principal amount, or $7,500, whichever is less.

(iii) All other real estate loans: 50 percent of the original principal amount, or $4,000, whichever is less.

(2) Non-real estate loans. 50 percent of the original principal amount, or $2,000, whichever is less.

(3) Combination real estate and non-real estate loans. 50 percent of the original principal amount, or $4,000, whichever is less. On the real estate portion of the loan allow not to exceed 50 percent of such portion but not to exceed $4,000. Subtract the amount of guaranty so allowed from $4,000. If any guaranty entitlement remains available not to exceed one-half thereof may be allowed on the non-real estate portion of the loan but the amount so allowed shall not exceed 50 percent of such portion. The aggregate amount of guaranty shall relate to the entire loan.

(b) The maximum credit to the insurance account of a lender relative to any insured loan shall be 15 percent of the original principal amount of such loan: Provided, That the sum of all credits to insurance accounts covering loans made to an individual shall not exceed $2,000 for non-real estate loans, nor $4,000 for real estate loans.

(c) The following formula shall govern the ascertainment of the amount of the guaranty or insurance entitlement which remains available to an eligible veteran after prior use of entitlement: Add to the amount of such entitlement previously used for realty, twice the amount previously used for non-realty purposes. Subtract this sum from $4,000. The sum remaining is the amount available for the guaranty or insurance of a real estate loan, and one-half of such sum is so available for a non-real estate loan.

• • • • •

(h) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (g) of this section, if real or personal property acquired or improved with the proceeds of a guaranteed or insured loan be thereafter:

(1) Taken (by condemnation or otherwise) by the United States or any State or local government agency for public use; or

(2) Destroyed or damaged by fire or other natural hazard to the extent that occupancy, use or restoration is impractical, and which destruction or damage is not resultant from an act or omission wilfully designed by the veteran to bring about such destruction or damage; or

(3) Disposes of because of other compelling reasons devoid of fault on the part of the veteran;

the Administrator in the exercise of discretion in any such case may exclude the entitlement used in respect to such loan and the entitlement so excluded shall be disregarded in determining the subsequent use of entitlement by the veteran except for the calculation of the gratuity payable on a new loan. Exclusion of entitlement used in connection with a guaranteed or insured loan shall not be authorized so long as the Administrator remains liable thereon as guarantor or insurer.

(i) The amount of guaranty entitlement, available and unused, of an eligible unremarried widow (whose eligibility does not result from her own service) is determinable in the same manner as in the case of any veteran, and any entitlement which the decedent (who was her husband) used shall be disregarded. A certificate as to the eligibility of such widow, issued by the Administrator, shall be a condition precedent to the guaranty or insurance of any loan made to her in such capacity.

(j) A loan for the purchase or construction of residential property to be occupied by the veteran as his home may be guaranteed under section 501 (b) of the act, if otherwise eligible: Provided, That at the time the loan is reported to the Administrator pursuant to § 36.4303 the veteran shall not have used any portion of his entitlement, except such as shall have been excluded under paragraph (h) of this section.

3. In § 36.4303, paragraphs (a) (1), (b), and (f) are amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4303 Reporting requirements. (a) • • •

(1) No default exists thereunder which has continued for more than 30 days;

• • • • • •

(b) Loans made pursuant to section 501 (b), 505 (a) or 508 of the act although not entitled to automatic guaranty or insurance thereunder, may, when made by a lender of a class described in section 500 (d) thereof, be reported for issuance of a guaranty or of an insurance credit, or a certificate of commitment as provided in paragraph (a) of this section.

• • • • •

(f) Evidence of a guaranty will be issued by the Administrator by appropriate endorsement on the note or other instrument evidencing the obligation, or by a separate certificate at the option of the lender. Notice of credit to an insurance account will be given to the lender. Unused certificates of eligibility issued prior to March 1, 1946, are void. In the event loans are reported to the Administrator for guaranty or insurance in respect to which entitlement of the veteran shall not have been reserved, any unused and unreserved entitlement of a veteran shall be applied to the loans in the order they are reported to, or made by, the Administrator. Entitlement reserved by the Administrator may not be so applied or otherwise used until released by the lender for whose benefit the reservation is outstanding. No certificate of commitment shall be issued and no loan shall be guaranteed or insured unless the lender, the veteran, and the loan are shown to be eligible.

4. In § 36.4305, paragraphs (d) and (e) are amended and paragraphs (f) and (g) are deleted.

§ 36.4305 Partial disbursement. • • •

(d) There has been full compliance with the provisions of the act and of the applicable regulations up to the time of the last disbursement.

(e) In the case of a construction loan when the construction is not fully completed, the amount and percentage of the guaranty and the amount of the loan for the purposes of insurance or accounting to the Administrator shall be based upon such portion of the amount disbursed out of the proceeds of the loan which, when added to any other payments made by or on behalf of the veteran to the builder or the contractor, does not exceed 80 percent of the value of that portion of the construction performed (basing value on the contract price) plus the sum, if any, disbursed by the lender out of the proceeds of the loan for the land on which the construction is situated: And provided further, That the lender shall certify as follows:

(1) Any amount advanced for land is protected by title or lien as provided in the regulations concerning guaranty or insurance of loans to veterans; and

(2) No enforceable liens, for any work done or material furnished for that part of the construction completed and for which payment has been made out of the proceeds of the loan, exist or can come into existence.

(f) [Canceled.]

(g) [Canceled.]

5. In § 36.4306, the preamble in paragraph (a) and paragraph (a) (1) are amended and a new paragraph (e) is added as follows:

§ 36.4306 Refunding of outstanding indebtedness. (a) If otherwise eligible, a loan is eligible for guaranty or insurance if the proceeds thereof are used to refinance existing indebtedness of the veteran-applicant or to reimburse him for expenditures he made, Provided:

(1) The proceeds of such indebtedness were actually paid out in full, or the last expenditure by the veteran occurred, within 60 days prior to the date of his application to any lender for such loan, or

• • • • •

(c) If a loan is approved for guaranty or insurance pursuant to § 36.4346 the guaranty or insurance shall not be impaired by reason of the disbursement from such loan of an amount which is reasonably necessary to obtain the release from existing liens of the homesite on which the farmhouse is to be constructed or improved. Such amount shall not exceed the reasonable value of the homesite.

6. In § 36.4308, a new paragraph (f) is added as follows:

§ 36.4308 Transfer of title by borrower or maturity by demand or acceleration. • • •

(f) The holder of any guaranteed or insured obligation shall have the right, notwithstanding the absence of express provision therefor in the instruments evidencing the indebtedness, to accelerate the maturity of such obligation at any time after the continuance of any default for the period specified in § 36.4316.

7. In § 36.4312, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4312 Closing costs. (a) Any costs or expenses incurred in closing a loan or financing a purchase and normally required to be paid by a purchaser or lienor incident to the making of a loan under local lending customs may be included in the amount paid out of the proceeds of a guaranteed or insured loan, except that no brokerage or service charge or their equivalent not expressly approved under schedules set up in advance by the Administrator may be charged against the debtor or the proceeds of the loan either initially, periodically, or otherwise: Provided, That no loan for the purchase or construction of a dwelling unit on which the Administrator receives a request for a determination of reasonable value on or after July 17, 1950, shall be guaranteed or insured unless,

(1) The lender certifies to the Administrator that it has not imposed and will not impose any charges or fees against the veteran in excess of those allowed in such schedules; or

(2) If such request relates to a new dwelling unit which has not been occupied previously and which is to be purchased by a veteran, the lender certifies to the Administrator that in connection with financing the construction or sale of such dwelling unit it has not imposed and will not impose upon the builder or veteran any fees or charges in excess of those allowed in the applicable schedule so approved by the Administrator, and, if the loan to be guaranteed or insured is made by a lender other than that which financed the construction of such unit, the Administrator is furnished a further certification either

(i) By the builder that he has not paid and will not pay any charges or fees in excess of those allowed in applicable schedules or

(ii) By the lender which made the construction loan that it has not imposed and will not impose charges in relation to such unit which are in excess of those allowed in the said schedules.

Loans guaranteed or insured pursuant to section 505 (a) of the act shall not exceed 20 percent of the purchase price as defined in § 36.4301 (aa).

• • • • •

8. In § 36.4324, paragraph (f) is amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4324 Release of security. • • •

(f) The release of the personal liability of any obligor on a guaranteed or insured obligation resultant from the act or omission of any holder without the prior approval of the Administrator shall release the obligation of the Administrator as guarantor or insurer, except when such act or omission consists of: (1) Failure to establish the debt as a valid claim against the assets of the estate of any deceased obligor provided no lien for the guaranteed or insured debt is thereby impaired or destroyed; or, (2) an election and appropriate prosecution of legally available effective remedies with respect to the repossession or the liquidation of the security in any case, irrespective of the identity or the survival of the original or of any subsequent debtor, if holder shall have given such notice as required by § 36.4317 and if after receiving such notice, the Administrator shall have failed to notify the holder within 15 days to proceed in such manner as to effectively preserve the personal liability of the parties liable, or such of them as the Administrator indicates in such notice to the holder; or, (3) the release of an obligor, or obligors, from liability on an obligation secured by a lien on property, which release is an incident of and contemporaneous with the sale of such property to an eligible veteran who assumed such obligation, which assumed obligation is guaranteed on his account pursuant to the act.

• • • • •

9. In § 36.4330, paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4330 Accounting records. (a) The holder shall maintain a record of the amounts of payments received on the obligation and disbursements chargeable thereto, and the dates thereof. For the purpose of any accounting with the Administrator or computation of claim against him, any holder who fails to maintain such record shall be presumed to have received on the dates due all sums which by the terms of the contract are payable prior to date of claim for default and the burden of going forward with evidence and of ultimate proof of the contrary shall be on such holder.

• • • • •

10. Section 36.4336 is amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4336 Eligibility of loans; reasonable value requirements. No loan made for the purchase of property, or for construction, alterations, repairs or improvements thereof, shall be eligible for guaranty or insurance if the purchase price or cost to the veteran exceeds the reasonable value thereof as determined by a proper appraisal made by an appraiser designated by the Administrator. Notwithstanding that the aggregate of the purchase price or cost to the veteran, and the amount remaining unpaid on taxes, special assessments, prior mortgage indebtedness, or other obligations of any character secured by enforceable superior liens or a right to such lien existing as of the date the loan is closed exceeds the reasonable value of such property as of said date and that evidence of guaranty or insurance credit is issued in respect thereof, as between the holder and the Administrator (for the purpose of computing the claim on the guaranty or insurance and for the purposes of § 36.4320, and all accountings), the indebtedness which is the subject of the guaranty or insurance shall be deemed to have been reduced as of the date of the loan by a sum equal to such excess, less any amounts secured by liens released or paid on the obligations secured by such superior liens or rights by a holder or others without expense to or obligation on the debtor resulting from such payment, or release of lien or right; and all payments made on the loan shall be applied to the indebtedness as so reduced. Nothing in this section affects any right or liability resulting from fraud or wilful misrepresentation.

11. Sections 36.4339 and 36.4340 are amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4339 Qualification for designated fee appraisers. To qualify for approval as a designated fee appraiser, an applicant must show to the satisfaction of the Administrator that his character, experience, and the type of work in which he has had experience for at least 5 years, qualifies him competently to appraise and value within a prescribed area the type of property to which approval relates.

§ 36.4340 Restriction on designated fee appraisers. (a) A designated fee appraiser shall not make an appraisal, excepting of alterations, improvements, or repairs to real property entailing a cost of not more than $1,000, if such appraiser is an officer, director, trustee, employer, or employee of the lender, contractor, or vendor: Provided, That appraisals of non-real estate loans may be made by an officer, director, trustee, employer, or employee of a lender of a class specified under sections 500 (d) or 508 of the act.

(b) An appraisal made by a designated fee appraiser shall be subject to review and adjustment by the Administrator. The amount determined to be proper upon any such review or adjustment shall constitute the "reasonable value" for the purpose of determining the eligibility of the related loan.

12. In § 36.4342, paragraph (c) is amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4342 Delegation of authority. • • •

(c) Nothing in this section shall be construed (1) to authorize any such employee to exercise the authority vested in the Administrator under section 504 or section 508 (b) of the act or to sue, or enter appearance for and on behalf of the Administrator or confess judgment against him in any court without his prior authorization; or, (2) to include the authority to exercise those powers reserved to the Administrator under §§ 36.4335, 36.4343, and 36.4344, or those delegated to the assistant administrator for finance, or director, loan guaranty service, under § 36.4343 or § 36.4344: Provided, That in any case where a loan which is sought to be guaranteed or insured under the provisions of § 36.4343 or § 36.4355 is made by a lender of the class described in section 500 (d) of the act without obtaining prior approval, the assistant administrator for finance, if he finds that such loan otherwise meets the requirements of the act and the regulations concerning guaranty or insurance of loans to veterans, may authorize the issuance of evidence of guaranty or insurance thereon: And provided further, That anything in the regulations concerning guaranty or insurance of loans to veterans to the contrary notwithstanding, any evidence of guaranty or insurance issued on or after July 1, 1948, by any of the employees designated in paragraph (b) of this section shall be deemed to have been issued by the Administrator, subject to the defenses reserved in section 511 of the act.

13. Following existing centerhead "Real Estate Loans," new §§ 36.4346, 36.4347, and 36.4348 are added to read as follows:

§ 36.4346 Construction or improvement of farm housing. No loan for constructing or improving a farmhouse shall be eligible for guaranty or insurance pursuant to section 502 (b) of the act unless such loan is approved by the Administrator prior to disbursement.

§ 36.4347 Minimum construction requirements. No loan made for the purchase or construction of residential property on which construction is begun after June 19, 1950, shall be guaranteed or insured unless the Administrator determines that the property conforms to the applicable minimum construction requirements prescribed by the Administrator for the area in which the property is situated.

§ 36.4348 Purchase or construction loans made under section 501 (b). Loans for the purchase or construction of residential property shall be ineligible for guaranty or insurance under section 501 (b) of the act if made in combination with a section 502 or section 503 loan or which include the purchase or construction of any business unit nor is a loan to refinance delinquent indebtedness pursuant to section 507 of the act eligible under section 501 (b) thereof.

14. Section 36.4350 is amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4350 Estate of veteran in real property. (a) The estate in the realty acquired by the veteran, wholly or partly with the proceeds of a guaranteed or insured loan, or owned by him and on which construction, or repairs, or alterations or improvements are to be made, shall be not less than:

(1) A fee simple estate therein, legal or equitable; or

(2) A leasehold estate running or renewable at the option of the lessee for a period of not less than 14 years from the maturity of the loan, or to any earlier date at which the fee simple title will vest in the lessee, which is assignable or transferable, if the same be subjected to the lien, or

(3) A life estate, provided that the remainder and reversionary interests are subjected to the lien. The title to such estate shall be such as is acceptable to informed buyers, title companies, and attorneys, generally, in the community in which the property is situated, except as modified by paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Any such property or estate will not fail to comply with the requirements in paragraph (a) of this section by reason of the following:

(1) Encroachments;
(2) Easements;
(3) Servitudes;
(4) Reservations for water, timber, or subsurface rights;
(5) Right in any grantor or co-tenant in the chain of title, or a successor of either, to purchase for cash, which right by the terms thereof is exercisable only if:
(i) An owner elects to sell,
(ii) The option price is not less than the price at which the then owner is willing to sell to another, and
(iii) Exercised within 30 days after notice is mailed by registered mail to the address of optionee last known to the then owner, of the then owner's election to sell, stating his price and the identity of the proposed vendee;
(6) Building and use restrictions whether or not enforceable by a reverter clause if there has been no breach of the conditions affording a right to an exercise of the reverter;
(7) Any other covenant, condition, restriction, or limitation approved by the Administrator in the particular case. Such approval shall be a condition precedent to the guaranty or insurance of the loan;

Provided, That the limitations on the quantum or quality of the estate or property that are indicated in this paragraph, insofar as they may materially affect the value of the property for the purpose for which it is used, are taken into account in the appraisal of reasonable value required by the act: And provided further, That, as to home loans guaranteed or insured subsequent to February 15, 1950, the title to any such property or estate shall not be acceptable under § 36.4320 (h) if it is subject to restrictions against sale or occupancy on the ground of race, color, or creed, which have been created and filed of record subsequent to that date.

15. In § 36.4351, a new paragraph (c) is added as follows:

§ 36.4351 Loans, first, second, or unsecured. • • •

(c) Neither paragraph (a) nor (b) of this section shall be applicable to any loan to be guaranteed or insured pursuant to section 502 (b) of the act for the construction or improvement of a "farmhouse" unless otherwise stated incident to the prior approval required by § 36.4346.

16. Section 36.4353 is amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4353 Dual purpose loans, residential and business property. If otherwise eligible a loan for the purchase or construction of a combination of residential property and business property which the veteran proposes to occupy in part as a home will not be ineligible under section 501 (a) if not more than two business units are included. A loan for the purchase or construction of residential property containing more than four separate family units plus an added unit for each veteran participating in the ownership thereof, or more than two business units, must be classed as a business loan and satisfy the requirements of eligibility prescribed under section 503.

17. The centerhead "Section 505 (a) Loans," immediately preceding § 36.4354 is hereby deleted and reinserted immediately preceding § 36.4360.

18. In § 36.4355, paragraph (b) is amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4355 Supplemental loans. • • •

(b) Such loans shall be secured as required in §§ 36.4337 and 36.4351: Provided, That a lien of lesser dignity than therein specified will suffice if the lien obtained is immediately junior to the lien of the original guaranteed or insured obligation.

• • • • • •

19. Section 36.4360 is amended to read as follows:

§ 36.4360 Concurrent with primary loan. A second loan is eligible for guaranty or insurance under section 505 (a) only if the proceeds thereof are used concurrently with and as part of the same transaction which is partially financed through the proceeds of the primary loan, or by continuing the primary loan in effect by assumption or otherwise, except that no loan shall be guaranteeable or insurable under section 505 (a) subsequent to October 20, 1950, unless the Administrator has received on or prior to October 20, 1950, a loan report thereon showing actual payment of the full proceeds of the loan or has received on or prior to September 20, 1950, an application or loan report showing earmarked or escrowed funds, on which the Administrator has issued a certificate of commitment.

(Sec. 504, 58 Stat. 293, as amended; 38 U. S. C. 694d)

This regulation becomes effective July 12, 1950.

[SEAL] O. W. CLARK,
Deputy Administrator.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 919]

[Docket No. AO-220]

HANDLING OF IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN UPSTATE NEW YORK

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR, Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed marketing order regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of New York (except the counties of Suffolk, Nassau, Queens, Kings, New York, Bronx and Richmond), to be effective pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051), hereinafter called the "act." Interested parties may file exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1353 South Building, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business on the tenth day after publication of this recommended decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The public hearing, on the record of which the proposed marketing agreement and the proposed marketing order (hereinafter called the "order") were formulated, was held at Rochester, New York, on May 15-17, 1950, pursuant to notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 2364). Such notice set forth a proposed marketing agreement and order which was submitted to the Secretary of Agriculture by the Upstate New York Potato Committee (composed of producers and shippers of Irish potatoes in the proposed production area) with a petition for a hearing thereon.

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing are as follows:

(1) The existence of the right to exercise Federal jurisdiction;

(2) The need for the proposed regulatory program to accomplish the declared objectives of the act;

(3) The identity of the persons and transactions to be regulated;

(4) The definition of the commodity and determination of the smallest regional production area to be affected by the proposed regulatory program;

(5) The specific terms and provisions of the proposed marketing agreement and order necessary and incidental to attain the declared objectives of the act, including, among others, those applicable to:

(a) The establishment of, maintenance, composition, powers, duties, and operation of the administrative agency;

(b) The method for limiting shipments of Irish potatoes grown in the production area;

(c) The establishment of minimum standards of quality and maturity;

(d) The handling under special regulations, under certain circumstances, and the procedure applicable thereto, of specified shipments of Irish potatoes grown in the production area;

(e) The requirement that all potato containers must be branded;

(f) The relaxation of regulations in hardship cases and the procedure applicable thereto; and

(g) The requirement that all handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area must be in accordance with the provisions of the marketing agreement and order, and that inspection and certification of shipments of such potatoes and the payment of assessments must be accomplished in connection therewith.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the aforementioned material issues, all of which are based on the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof, are as follows:

(1) A substantial percentage of the Irish potatoes grown in the counties of the State of New York (except the counties of Suffolk, Nassau, Queens, Kings, New York, Bronx and Richmond), hereinafter called the "production area", normally enters the current of interstate or foreign commerce, and virtually all of the remainder of such potatoes are consumed as table stock or seed potatoes within the production area, or the State of New York, or are used for so-called diversionary purposes. The market for potatoes grown in the production area is regional in scope and prices for such potatoes at markets both within and outside the State of New York are closely related to each other and to f. o. b. shipping point prices in the production area. Every movement and sale of such potatoes, whether to a market within or outside of the State, or the production area, affects the price structure for all potatoes grown in the production area.

Such movements and sales of potatoes grown in the production area may be scheduled originally for delivery to markets within the production area or the State of New York and then be diverted en route to markets outside of the State. Conversely, such potatoes, destined originally for markets outside of the State, may be diverted en route to markets within the State or to markets within the production area. The movement and sale of such potatoes to markets within the production area, to markets within the State of New York and to markets outside of the State of New York are, therefore, inextricably intermingled.

It is concluded, therefore, that (i) all transportation and sale (except retail sales) of Irish potatoes grown in the production area are either in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burden, obstruct, or affect such interstate or foreign commerce (hereinafter called "in commerce"), and (ii) it is impractical to regulate effectively the transportation and sale of such potatoes without regulating all transportation and sale thereof, except to the extent hereinafter indicated.

(2) Effective January 1, 1950, parity prices for Irish potatoes are to be computed in accordance with the provisions of the Agricultural Act of 1948 and the Agricultural Act of 1949.

Seasonal average farm prices for potatoes grown in Upstate New York have been below the applicable parity levels for 11 seasons and above such levels for 6 seasons since 1932, of which four (1942–45, inclusive) seasons were during war years. Such prices were below parity during the 1946–48 season, inclusive. The estimated 1949 seasonal average farm price for potatoes grown in Upstate New York is $1.20 per bushel, which is only 70 percent of the applicable parity price for such potatoes as of May 1950.

During the 1946–48 seasons an average of 16 percent of the potatoes produced in Upstate New York was purchased by the Government in supporting prices at 90 percent of parity. Potato prices in 1949 were supported at 60 percent of parity and 24 percent of the Upstate New York 1949 potato crop has been purchased under the support program as of May 10, 1950.

Since the estimated seasonal average farm prices for the 1949 crop of potatoes in Upstate New York is 30 percent below parity, and since the indicated potato acreage for 1950 in Upstate New York is only slightly below that of 1949, it is anticipated that seasonal average farm prices received by growers in the production area for potatoes produced in 1950 will not exceed the prescribed parity level.

The availability of supplies of Irish potatoes in excess of all market demand therefor tends to decrease the grower's average returns from all of such potatoes. Withholding the poorer grades and undesirable qualities and sizes of such potatoes from market tends to equalize market supply and the demand therefor, and tends to increase the growers' average returns for all Irish potatoes. Poor grades, undesirable qualities, and undesirable sizes of Irish potatoes available for sale in wholesale markets sell at appreciable discounts from the sale price of the better grades and desirable qualities and sizes of such potatoes, and the former not only displace the latter to a considerable extent, but the former give poor consumer satisfaction, resulting in an over-all decreased consumption of Irish potatoes. Grade, quality, and size discounts in wholesale prices of Irish potatoes are reflected in similar discounts in grower returns therefor. Similarly, decreased consumption of Irish potatoes of all grades, qualities, and sizes, decreases grower returns from such potatoes.

Poorer grades, undesirable qualities, and undesirable sizes of Irish potatoes are frequently marketed in a manner designed to indicate that such potatoes are of desirable grades, qualities, and sizes, which results in consumer dissatisfaction, confusion relevant to Irish potato values, and generally chaotic marketing conditions. Therefore, it is concluded that a marketing agreement and order is necessary to regulate the transportation and sale of Irish potatoes grown in the production area, to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions therefor as will tend to establish parity prices for such potatoes.

The marketing agreement and order should contain provisions for the establishment and maintenance of such minimum standards of quality and maturity and such grading and inspection requirements for Irish potatoes grown in the production area as will effectuate orderly marketing thereof in the public interest, because even though prices received by farmers for such potatoes exceed parity, some potatoes of poor quality do not, under any circumstances, represent value to the consumers thereof, and the returns to the farmers therefrom are negligible.

(3) (a) The act authorizes the regulation of such handling of Irish potatoes grown in the production area as is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or which directly burdens, obstructs or affects such commerce (hereinafter called "in commerce"). The marketing agreement and order should regulate such handling solely to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is essential, as a basis for such regulation, that the marketing agreement and order define the term "handler" so that persons to be regulated will have notice thereof.

Common or contract carriers transporting Irish potatoes (grown in the production area and owned by another person) to market are performing a handling function in commerce but such handling should not be regulated under the marketing agreement and order for the reason that such carriers are not responsible for the grade, quality, and size of the commodity so transported, are not responsible for the introduction of such commodity in commerce, and their sole interest in such community is to transport it to destinations selected by others for a service charge. The responsibility for the grade, quality, and size of the commodity delivered to such common or contract carriers should be borne solely by the person or persons responsible for delivering such commodity to such carriers.

Other handling functions with respect to such potatoes, which should be regulated under the marketing agreement and order, are hereinafter considered in connection with a definition of "ship", and the definition of "handler" should be synonymous with "shipper" because regulation of the handler performing any of such functions is necessary under the marketing agreement and order to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Therefore, the term "handler" or "shipper" should be defined to mean any person (except a common or contract carrier of potatoes owned by another person) who ships potatoes.

(b) Processing activities (such as storing, packing, washing and grading) with respect to Irish potatoes are handling functions in commerce. However, it would be impracticable, if not impossible, to require persons engaged in such activities to meet grade, quality, and size requirements, under regulations issued pursuant to the marketing agreement and order, prior thereto except as hereinafter indicated. Therefore, such handling activities should be exempt from regulation under the marketing agreement and order. Such exemption should be limited to storing, washing, packing, grading, and other preparatory handling functions accomplished in the production area because such activities are customarily accomplished therein. After the grading has been accomplished in connection with such potatoes, the handling activity of transporting them to market should be subject to regulation, under the marketing agreement and order, because the grade, quality, and size of such potatoes are determined by the grading process accomplished prior to such transportation and such transportation in commerce can then be limited, on a practical basis, to such grades, qualities, and sizes of such potatoes as will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Sales of Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, in commerce are handling transactions which should be subject to regulation under the marketing agreement and order because such sales are generally made on the basis of grades, qualities, and sizes or any combination thereof; and because such sales introduce or continue such potatoes in commerce. Therefore, if such sellers fail to meet the requirements of regulations issued under the marketing agreement and order they should be responsible, except as hereinafter indicated, for such introduction or continuation of the potatoes in commerce. However, if a producer of Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, sells such potatoes to a recognized packer in the production area on a field run or grade-out basis, such sale by the producer does not constitute a handling transaction in commerce. Under such state of facts, the sale from the producer to the recognized packer does not place the potatoes in commerce and the customary contemplation of the parties is that prior to their introduction in commerce, the potatoes will be prepared as aforesaid for market. It is necessary to restrict the scope of this producer-packer sale to packers operating processing facilities in the production area because such restriction conforms to customary practice therein.

However, if a producer of Irish potatoes, grown in the production area, sells such potatoes grown by him to an itinerant trucker, or any other person, for transportation to market without prior processing, such potatoes are thereby placed in commerce at the time of such sale and the producer, under such circumstances, is the first handler of such potatoes. It may be assumed under such circumstances, that the producer intended that the potatoes would be placed in commerce at the time of such sale and, therefore, he should be held responsible for any failure of the commodity so sold to meet such grade, quality, and size requirements as may be in effect under the marketing agreement and order at the time of such sale.

Irish potatoes grown in the production area and consigned or otherwise placed in commerce should be considered in the same category as potatoes sold in commerce because the former activities are merely different methods of selling potatoes. Such potatoes should also meet the minimum grade, quality, and size requirements in effect under the marketing agreement and order at the time they are so introduced into commerce to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The consignor or individual otherwise placing such potatoes in commerce should, therefore, be subject to regulation.

Irish potatoes grown in the production area are frequently transported, sold, or otherwise placed or continued in commerce by more than one person. Each of such persons is responsible for introducing or continuing such potatoes in commerce and, therefore, each of such persons should be required to conduct such handling activities in accordance with applicable grade, quality, and size regulations under the marketing agreement and order, to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is concluded, therefore, that "ship" should be defined in the marketing agreement and order to include and be applicable to all of the handling functions which must be subject to regulation to effectuate the declared policy of the act, that such definition should be synonymous with "handle", and that "ship" should mean to transport, sell, or in any other way to place potatoes in the current of commerce within the production area, or between the production area and any point outside thereof: Provided, That the definition of "ship" or "handle" shall not include or be applicable to the sale or transportation of ungraded potatoes within the production area for storing, or the sale or transportation of potatoes to a recognized dealer or packer within the production area for the purpose of having such potatoes prepared for market.

(4) (a) It is necessary to define the commodity to be regulated by the marketing agreement and order so that persons handling such commodity will know that their handling activities relevant thereto are subject to regulation thereunder. The act authorizes marketing agreements and orders applicable to potatoes, or to any regional or market classification thereof. Irish potatoes of all varieties grown in the production area is a regional classification of potatoes and regulation of the handling thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is concluded, therefore, that "potatoes" should be defined to mean all varieties of Irish potatoes grown in the production area.

(b) A definition of "production area" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to specify and delineate the area in which potatoes must be grown before the handling thereof is subject to regulation. Potatoes are grown commercially in every county in the production area. Present production, however, tends to concentrate in particular parts of the production area where soil, climate, alternative land uses, and other factors are favorable to producing a potato crop. Upstate New York potato production is more concentrated in the western portion of the State, but is generally spread throughout the production area in varying degrees of concentration.

The development of new potato acreage depends, as previously indicated, upon the proper combination of soil, water resources, climate, and alternative land uses, which are difficult to forecast specifically. It is known, however, that basic soil structures, and climate in all counties within the production area are such that, under favorable circumstances, considerable increases in potato production could be developed in many parts of the production area which do not now produce potatoes in appreciable volume. Although commercial production tends to be concentrated in some counties of the production area, it would be impractical to exclude the counties of lesser commercial importance from the production area. The exclusion of any county, or portion thereof, from the area would create enforcement problems of such magnitude as to jeopardize the successful operation of the marketing agreement and order.

Production, harvesting, and marketing conditions and methods are essentially the same throughout the production area. Such differences in these factors as do exist are not of such magnitude to justify, on the basis of reasons stated herein, the exclusion of any portion of the production area from regulation under the marketing agreement and order. The same or similar varieties of potatoes are grown throughout the production area and potatoes from each part thereof compete in markets both within and outside the area during each season. Exclusion of any portion of the production area from regulation under the marketing agreement and order would make the operation of such program unreasonably difficult and impractical. Therefore, the production area, hereinafter defined, constitutes the smallest practicable regional production area.

(5) It is necessary to define the terms hereinafter set forth, so that their applicability and meaning may be established and to preclude the necessity for redefining them when they are later used in the marketing agreement and order. The definitions of Secretary, act, person, producer, and varieties, as set forth in the notice of hearing, were not in controversy at the hearing. These terms are generally understood by members of the potato industry in the production area and the use of such terms in the marketing agreement and order is essential as the basic framework thereof.

A definition of "fiscal year" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to establish the beginning and end of an operating period. The establishment of such period, which should comprise a full twelve months, is necessary for business-like administration of the marketing agreement and order and is desirable as a basis for establishing the terms of office of committee members and alternates. The date marking the end of one fiscal year and the beginning of the new should fall at a time of relative inactivity in the marketing of the potato crop and should allow sufficient time for the committee to organize and be prepared to function prior to the start of the new marketing season. Marketing of the potato crop grown in the production area begins about August 1 of each year and is completed prior to July 1 of the following year. July 1 of each year is, therefore, an appropriate date for establishing the end of one fiscal year and the beginning of the new. Fiscal year should be defined, therefore, as hereinafter set forth.

A definition of "committee" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to identify the administrative body which acts as agent of the Secretary. Such committee is authorized by the act and the definition thereof, as hereinafter set forth, minimizes the use of words in the marketing agreement and order.

Definitions of "seed potatoes," "table stock potatoes," and "pack" are incorporated in the marketing agreement and order because regulation is provided, under certain circumstances, differently for each. Special regulation for seed potatoes is justified because such potatoes are produced for a specialized use and the requirements of the seed market differ, in some respects, from that of the table stock market. For example, potatoes of small size are ordinarily discounted in the table stock market but may bring a premium in the seed market. The term "seed potatoes" should be defined to include such potatoes as are certified, tagged, or otherwise appropriately identified by the official seed certifying agency of the State of New York. Table stock potatoes should be defined as all potatoes other than seed potatoes. The sum total of the table stock and seed potatoes so defined will equal "potatoes," otherwise defined in the marketing agreement and order. "Pack" is defined because the order authorizes regulations, under certain circumstances, differently for different types of packs. The notice of hearing defined consumer packs as those containers weighing less than 50 pounds and wholesale packs as those weighing 50 or more pounds. The most commonly used packages in the production area are 10, 15, 50 and 100 pound bags. Ordinarily 10 and 15 pound packages are considered consumer packs, but during the fall months many 50 pound sacks are consumer packages, however, during most of the remainder of the season these packages are normally handled as wholesale packages. A differentiation between wholesale and consumer packs will provide a basis for establishing different regulations for each. Therefore, the committee is authorized to recommend and the Secretary to establish differentiation among packs which will provide a means of meeting various marketing situations in a practical way, to vary the weight limitation of consumer and wholesale packages, and to recommend different regulations for different packs.

Definitions of "grade" and "size" are incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to enable all persons affected thereby to determine the requirements thereof and to interpret specifically and intelligently regulations issued in such terms. Grade and size, the essential terms in which regulations may be issued, should be defined as comprehending the equivalents of the meanings assigned to these terms in (i) the official standards for potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture, (ii) the State of New York Standards issued by the Commissioner of Agriculture of such State, or (iii) modification or amendment of such standards. Regulations under the marketing agreement and order can then use such terms (grade and size) with the constant meaning assigned thereto in such standards, or such modification or amendment of such terms as may be effected through amendment of such standards, or such variation of such terms as may be required at the time of regulation and spelled out in the regulation. Official inspectors are qualified to certify to the grade and size of potatoes, grown in the proposed production area, in terms of any one of the aforesaid standards, or modification, amendment, or variation thereof.

A definition of "export" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order because different regulations thereunder are authorized for export shipments than for domestic shipments. Export markets have certain requirements which differ from the domestic market and special regulations are, therefore, justified. Export should be defined to include all shipments of potatoes outside of the continental United States.

A definition of "district" is incorporated in the marketing agreement and order to delineate the geographical divisions of the production area for the purpose of electing nominees for membership on the committee. The production and marketing problems within each of the established districts are similar and election of committee nominees on such basis will afford equitable representation to all producers in the production area. District should be defined, therefore, as hereinafter set forth.

"Branding" is defined in the marketing agreement and order because regulations could require branding of all containers of potatoes during any period when grade, size, and quality regulations are in effect. Many containers of potatoes currently marketed in commerce fail to meet the requirements of the grade and size specified on the container thereby tending to lower prices and consumer acceptance of all potatoes grown in the production area. Such misbranding is an unfair method of competition and an unfair trade practice in the handling of potatoes grown in the production area. Therefore, each handler who first handles potatoes should be required to brand such potatoes prior to such handling by indicating the grade, size, quality and net contents thereof and his name and address. No handler should be permitted to handle potatoes unless the containers thereof are branded. The net contents of a container may at times be determinative of the type of pack and particular regulation applicable thereto. The branding requirement is also necessary as a means of maximizing compliance under the program. Since small grower handlers cannot afford to purchase branded sacks, it is necessary and desirable to permit attaching tags to the container to comply with the branding provisions.

(a) The marketing agreement and order should provide for the selection by the Secretary of an administrative committee, called the Upstate New York Potato Committee, composed of six producer and three handler members. Establishment of this committee is desirable and necessary to aid the Secretary in carrying out the declared policy of the act and such committee is authorized by the act. Provision should be made for an alternate for each member of the committee because circumstances may arise when it is impossible for a member, or members, to attend particular meetings of the committee and where positions are vacant because of death, resignation, or for other reasons. In such situations it is necessary and desirable for the respective alternate to act in lieu of the member, so that there will be no interruption of committee operations and to assure that committee activities will be representative of producer and handler thinking in all districts of the production area. Such alternates should have the same qualifications as the members if the alternates are to represent the same industry interests as such members. A committee of nine members will be sufficiently small to permit it to operate in an efficient manner and at the same time, on the basis of the division of the production area into districts and representation therefrom, will be of such sufficient size to give adequate representation to all producers and handlers in the production area.

Producer members and handler members, and their respective alternates, selected to represent a district should be producers and handlers (or officers or employees thereof), respectively, in such district and residents therein. Persons with such qualifications will be intimately acquainted with the particular problems of producing and marketing potatoes grown in such district and for that reason can be expected to present accurately the views, problems, and economic conditions of producers and handlers in such districts with respect to committee actions.

A nomination procedure is provided in the marketing agreement and order to assure the Secretary that the names of appropriate prospective members and alternates will be brought to his attention. The nomination of prospective members and alternates by producers and handlers at meetings in the respective districts is a practical method of providing the Secretary with names of such members and alternates. Such procedure will insure that the Secretary has available a list of nominees whose qualifications have been reviewed by and acted upon by members of the industry.

The Secretary may appropriately select initial committee members and alternates from nominations which may be made by producers, handlers, or groups thereof. However, the Upstate New York Potato Committee, hereinafter called the "committee," does not come into existence until selection by the Secretary of the initial committee; therefore, the marketing agreement and order should provide for the selection of said initial committee in the absence of nominations.

Nomination meetings for the purpose of nominating succeeding members of the committee and their alternates should be held or caused to be held by the committee sixty days prior to the end of each fiscal year. By holding, or causing to be held, nomination meetings sixty days prior to the end of each fiscal year, the committee would have adequate time to prepare and submit nominee lists to the Secretary in time for the Secretary to select the members and alternates to take office at the beginning of the new fiscal year, and, in the event a selectee declines to serve, for the Secretary to make another appointment.

At least two nominees should be designated for each position as member, and each position as alternate member, so that the Secretary will have a choice in making his selection and, in the event a selectee declines to serve, so that he will have the names of other prospective members or alternates from which to make another appointment.

Nominee lists should be supplied to the Secretary in the manner and form prescribed by him to establish administrative uniformity in the handling of such matters. Such nominations should be presented to the Secretary at least thirty days prior to the end of the fiscal year so that the selection and qualification of the members and alternates for the new term of office which begins with the new fiscal year may be made prior to such date.

Each producer should be limited to one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, or representatives, in designating nominees for producer committee members and alternates regardless of the number of districts in which he produces potatoes. Voting on any other basis would not provide for equitable representation. If a producer could cast more than one vote by reason of operating in more than one district, such producer would have an advantage in selecting nominees over producers operating in only one district. Likewise, if more than one vote was permitted, a few large producers could dominate the elections and nominate producers not favored by a majority of producers. The producer who operates in more than one district should be permitted to elect, from among the districts in which he produces potatoes, the district in which he shall vote in order that he may cast his ballot for nominees for producer committee members and alternates where he believes his main interest lies. The one-vote limitation applies to any one producer position to be filled at a nomination meeting. Each producer is allowed one vote for each such producer position as a committee member and each such producer position as a committee alternate to be filled at a nomination meeting.

Identical limitations and requirements should be applied to handler participation in nominating handler committee members and alternates, for reasons similar to the application of such limitations and requirements to producer nominations of producer committee members and alternates. However, to maintain the distinctive handler and producer representative viewpoint of committee members and alternates, each person who handles and produces potatoes should be required to elect the capacity in which he will participate in program activities, subject to the requirement that, for the purpose of nominating handler committee members and alternates, a handler shall be considered to be a person who produces not more than 50 percent of the total volume of potatoes handled by himself. Such percentage limitation will restrict participation in nominating handlers to persons primarily interested in potato handling activities.

In order that there will be an administrative agency in existence at all times to administer the marketing agreement and order, the Secretary should be allowed to select committee members and alternates without regard to nominations if the committee, for any reason, fails to carry out the nomination procedure prescribed. Such selection, however, should be on the basis of the representation provided in the marketing agreement and order to insure that the entire production area is fairly and adequately represented.

Any person selected by the Secretary as a committee member or alternate should qualify by filing with the Secretary a written acceptance of willingness and intention to serve in such capacity. Each person selected as a committee member or alternate should qualify, so that the Secretary will have a means of determining if he intends to serve. This is sound operating procedure and is necessary and desirable to avoid delays in the composition of the committee. For this same reason, each member and alternate should file his acceptance within a definite time period after receiving notice of his selection. The ten-day period prescribed is reasonable for qualification and will not unduly retard composition of the committee.

Provision is made for the Secretary to fill any committee vacancies in order to maintain continuity of committee operation. The marketing agreement and order provide several alternative procedures which may be followed by the Secretary in making such selections. The administrative flexibility thus prescribed is desirable so that the Secretary will not be forestalled in making such selections and so that he may choose the most practical of the alternative means of obtaining the names of qualified persons to fill such vacancies. The Secretary should have authority to select persons to fill committee vacancies from nominations made at producer or handler meetings. Practical considerations, however, may preclude the holding of special nomination meetings for this purpose. For example, a vacancy might occur during the height of the potato planting or harvesting season when it would be difficult for the committee to secure an adequate and representative attendance at meetings. It is therefore, appropriate that the Secretary should be authorized to make selections to fill vacancies from the nominee list last submitted by the committee prior to the occurrence of the vacancy.

It is also desirable and necessary that the Secretary should be authorized to fill committee vacancies without regard to nominations if the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within thirty days after such vacancy occurs. The Secretary should have recourse to such means of filling vacancies in order to maintain continuity of committee operation and to insure that all portions of the production area are adequately represented in the conduct of committee business.

The term of office of committee members and alternates, except for initial members and alternates, should be for three years. A three-year term is desirable so that members and alternates will have adequate time to familiarize themselves with the operation of the program and thus be in a position to render the most effective service in assisting the Secretary in carrying out the declared policy of the act. A term of three years gives producers and handlers adequate opportunity to vote for a change in their representation, while providing for efficient operation of the committee.

Provision is made in the marketing agreement and order for staggered terms of office of committee members and alternates. Under this provision, two-thirds of the committee in office at the end of a fiscal year will continue in office through the next fiscal year. The establishment of such staggered terms will promote administration of the program in the most effective and efficient manner. By having staggered terms of office, the new members and alternates constituting one-third of the committee membership selected to serve at the beginning of each fiscal year will benefit from the guidance of the experienced members who carry over. This provision for the carry over of experienced members will help insure continuity in the policies and procedures relating to the administration of the marketing agreement and order. Such continuity is an essential ingredient in the successful administration of the marketing agreement and order.

To facilitate the establishment of staggered terms of office, the marketing agreement and order provide that the term of office of three members and alternates of the initial committee shall be one year, the term of office of three members and alternates shall be two years and the term of office for the three remaining members and alternates shall be three years. Such provision is fair and equitable and will permit the establishment, on a practical basis, of a committee with the members and alternates thereon holding office for staggered terms.

A quorum of the committee should consist of six members (including one handler member), and six concurring votes (including the vote of at least one handler member) should be necessary for passing any motion or approving any action of the committee. These requirements are reasonable and are necessary to insure that any action of the committee will be representative of a majority of the committee and that the interests of both producers and handlers will be reflected in committee actions.

Only members present at an assembled meeting of the committee, or alternate members acting for members, should be entitled to vote. This requirement will encourage greater attendance at meetings and will promote fuller discussion of committee actions. Provision is made, however, for meetings of the committee by telephone, telegraph or other means of communication, to meet practical situations where rapid decision with respect to committee actions is necessary. Such emergency situations occur quite frequently in the marketing of potatoes grown in the production area. Any votes cast at such meetings should be promptly confirmed in writing to provide a record of the action taken.

The apportionment and selection of producer members and alternate members of the committee by districts in the manner set forth in the marketing agreement and order will provide fair and equitable representation of all producers in the production area. The representation provided gives weight, on as fair and reasonable a basis as possible, to the various factors, such as acreage, number of producers, size of district, and variation in producing and marketing conditions, necessary to establish assurance of a fair and equitable representation of all portions of the production area on the committee. Therefore, selection of the members and alternates should be as follows: Three committee producer members and alternates from District No. 1; one producer member and alternate from District No. 2; and two producer members and alternates from District No. 3.

The handler representatives are to be selected from the production area at large except that not more than two of the members may be from District No. 1. This is necessary to preclude the selection af all handler members from this district and to establish assurance of a fair and equitable representation on the committee for all handlers in the production area.

Committee members and alternates should be compensated at a rate not to exceed $10.00 per day, or portion thereof, and should be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred when acting on committee business. Since such members and alternates will be serving in the interest of the potato industry in the production area, they should not be required to bear such expenses as they incur in attending to committee business. Compensation at not to exceed the rate prescribed herein will offset, to some extent, the losses which such members and alternates will sustain through committee service.

The powers of the committee, as set forth in the notice of hearing, should be granted to the committee because such powers are authorized by the act and are essential to the committee in order for it to discharge its responsibilities under the marketing agreement and order.

Each and all of the duties set forth in the notice of hearing should be given to the committee because such duties are necessary and essential to the accomplishment of the declared policy of the act and for the committee to discharge its obligations to the Secretary. These duties are similar to duties given to other administrative committees under other marketing agreement and order programs.

(b) The declared policy of the act is to establish and maintain such orderly marketing conditions for potatoes, among other commodities, as will tend to establish parity prices for such potatoes. The regulation of shipments of potatoes by grade, size, or quality, authorized in the marketing agreement and order, provides a means of carrying out such policy.

The procedures which are outlined in the marketing agreement and order for the development and institution of marketing policies relating to grade, size, or quality regulations provide a practical basis for the committee to obtain appropriate and adequate information regarding marketing problems. In turn, members of the industry are also provided an appropriate and adequate means of being informed regarding the policies and regulations the committee recommends and, if issued, the regulations that are effective. The factors which the committee should take into consideration in developing its marketing policy are the ones commonly or usually taken into account by growers and handlers in marketing potatoes.

In order that the Secretary may most effectively carry out his responsibilities in connection with the marketing agreement and order, it is provided that the committee should prepare and submit to the Secretary a report on its proposed policy, or amendments thereto, for the marketing of potatoes during each fiscal year. The initial marketing policy in each fiscal year should be prepared and submitted to the Secretary at the beginning of the fiscal year, to give all interested parties the maximum notice of regulatory possibilities, consistent with affording the committee sufficient time to prepare sound policies. Further provision should be made for the committee to make available the contents of such reports to producers and handlers in the production area.

In making recommendations for regulation, it is provided that the committee shall investigate enumerated relevant factors of supply and demand for potatoes. This requirement is necessary so that the committee will be in the best position to develop sound and practical recommendations for regulation and to advise the Secretary with respect to such supply and demand conditions. The committee will be well qualified to evaluate marketing conditions for potatoes produced in the production area and to recommend specific regulations which will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The limitation of shipments of the poorer grades, qualities, and less desirable sizes of potatoes grown in the production area will tend to increase the prices of the more desirable grades, qualities, and sizes, and to increase the returns to producers therefrom. Less desirable sizes include not only small potatoes other than seed potatoes but also excessively large potatoes. Such limitation of shipments will also help to improve the long-run demand for and competitive position of potatoes grown in the production area.

It is a necessary and desirable exercise of the authority granted by the act for the committee to recommend and the Secretary to establish grade, size, or quality regulations for any or all portions of the production area, and different grade, size, or quality regulations for different packs, for different time periods within the shipping season, for different varieties, or any combination of the foregoing. Such administrative flexibility is needed in the marketing agreement and order to effectuate the declared policy of the act through the issuance of appropriate regulations adapted to different and changing circumstances encountered in the marketing of potatoes.

Authority to issue different regulations applicable to different portions of the production area is necessary because a particular portion or portions of such area may have adverse growing conditions which cause an abnormally high percentage of the potatoes grown therein to fall within restricted grades, sizes, or qualities. To meet the administrative problems that would arise from a situation of this kind and to provide fair and equitable regulation of all shipments of potatoes grown in the production area, it would be appropriate to establish a less restrictive regulation applicable to such affected portion or portions of the area.

Supply and demand conditions for potatoes are subject to frequent and substantial changes during the course of a particular marketing season. For this reason, it is absolutely essential that the committee have authority to recommend such different regulations at any time during the season in order to carry out the declared policy of the act.

Different regulations should be authorized for different varieties of potatoes because varieties differ in particular characteristics such as shape and in susceptibility to certain defects. For these reasons, an appropriate grade and size regulation for one variety might not be appropriate for another. Moreover, a new variety may be introduced in the area which should be regulated differently than the varieties now being grown.

It is necessary to provide for different regulations, under appropriate circumstances, for different packs to improve and maintain consumer acceptance for potatoes grown in the production area. Since the weight limitation on a consumer pack varies during the season and may vary from one year to the next, the committee should be authorized to recommend the specifications of weight limits for consumer packs and wholesale packs and different regulations for such packs. Consumer packs of potatoes require different size composition than wholesale packs; authority should be provided, therefore, to establish regulations with respect to minimum or maximum sizes of potatoes, or both, differently for consumer packs than for wholesale packs. Consumer acceptance of potatoes is more adversely affected by inferior grades and undesirable sizes in consumer packs than in wholesale packs. In the case of consumer packs, the consumer accepts the package relatively "sight unseen" and does not have an adequate opportunity to make a selection of individual potatoes. The consumer, however, can make the desired selection from bulk displays made up by dumping the contents of wholesale packs into a bin, as is standard procedure in the retail grocery business. Consumers demand a better and more uniform grade, size, and quality of potatoes in consumer packs than in wholesale packs and failure to maintain such grade, size, and quality in consumer packs will disproportionately decrease the total returns of growers of potatoes in the production area.

The Secretary, upon the recommendation of the committee, or other available information, should be authorized to modify, suspend, or terminate grade, size, or quality regulations with respect to shipments outside of the normal commercial markets for table stock potatoes. The committee should be well qualified, because of the experience and knowledge of individual members, to recommend such modifications, suspensions, or terminations as will be in the best interests of the potato industry in the production area and which will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Shipments of potatoes to the noncompetitive outlets, hereinafter set forth, which otherwise could not be marketed under the regulations, would tend to increase the total returns of potato growers in the production area.

The nature of the demand for seed potatoes differs from the demand for table stock in that small sizes are preferred for seed, whereas the same sizes are discounted in the table stock market. However, certain characteristics which constitute grade defects in table stock potatoes do not necessarily detract from the value of seed potatoes. It is desirable therefore, in order to promote more orderly marketing conditions for potatoes, to authorize the committee to recommend, and the Secretary to modify, grade, size, or quality regulations with respect to seed potatoes, or to suspend or terminate regulations relating to such seed shipments.

Export outlets, while relatively small, are an important factor in the demand for potatoes grown in the production area. Since certain export markets offer premium prices for certain grades, sizes, or qualities of potatoes which usually sell at a discount in the domestic market, it is desirable that the committee be authorized to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, modifications, suspensions, or terminations of regulations applicable to export shipments. Such shipments to export would tend to increase returns to producers in the production area and result in added increment to the value of the crop, thereby tending to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Substantial shipments of potatoes to the Federal government have been made in recent years in carrying out price support obligations administered by the Secretary. It is necessary, therefore, to authorize the committee to recommend and the Secretary to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations to facilitate such shipments, which will increase grower returns from potatoes grown in the production area and thereby tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The committee should be authorized to recommend and the Secretary to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations with respect to potatoes shipped for manufacture or conversion into specified products because such shipments, such as glucose, alcohol, etc., reduce the supply of such potatoes available for shipment to the table stock market and, therefore, such shipments tend to increase the total value of the entire crop of potatoes. The committee should be given authority to recommend which shipments should be classed as being for manufacture or for conversion into specified products because committee members are in an advantageous position to know whether and when such end products constitute outlets that are not competitive with table stock potatoes. It is concluded that the committee should have authority to recommend and the Secretary to specify such products because some products compete on a basis virtually equal to table stock potatoes, and, further, because new end products may be developed from time to time, some of which may, and some of which may not be competitive with table stock potatoes.

The committee should be authorized to recommend that shipments of potatoes for livestock feed, or for other specified purposes, should not be regulated, or to recommend modification or suspension of regulations governing such shipments. Livestock feed provides an outlet for potatoes that is not competitive wih the table stock market. When such outlets are available it will tend to promote objectives sought under regulation to exempt shipments for this purpose from grade, size, and quality regulations. The committee should be authorized to recommend that shipments of potatoes for a particular purpose or type of utilization should not be regulated, or to recommend modification or suspension of regulations with respect to such shipments, when it is found that such shipments are not competitive with table stock shipments in commerce. The Secretary, on the basis of such recommendations, or other available information, should be authorized to modify, suspend, or terminate regulations with respect thereto, when such action will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

The aforesaid authorizations, for the modification, suspension, or termination of regulations with respect to shipments of potatoes for each enumerated special purpose, should permit the modification, suspension, or termination of one or more regulatory provision and the simultaneous retention of other regulatory provisions, because such shipments may require expenditures of administrative funds to police and they may compete, to some extent, with shipments of potatoes for table stock purposes.

The administrative difficulties of regulating small shipments, under some circumstances, may make it uneconomical, undesirable, and impractical to attempt to do so under the marketing agreement and order. Under such circumstances, which can be readily determined by the committee, regulation of such small shipments would not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. It is concluded that the committee should be authorized to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, the minimum quantities which should not be subject to any or all regulations issued under the marketing agreement and order. It is necessary to permit the maintenance of one or more regulatory requirements, while relieving such minimum quantities from other regulatory requirements. It may be desirable, for example, for the inspection requirement to be waived on small shipments but that handlers be required to pay assessments or comply with grade, size, and quality regulations with respect to such shipments. This provision provides authority to arrange flexible operation of the marketing agreement and order to meet such situations in a practical way. Such authority will promote more orderly marketing and prevent the imposition of undue burdens upon handlers making such small shipments.

The requirement that the Secretary shall notify the committee of any regulations, or of any modifications, suspensions, or terminations of regulations, is appropriate and necessary to enable the committee to be informed of such actions. The committee's obligation to give reasonable notice (which shall be given through newspapers, radio, mail or such combinations thereof as may be deemed desirable by the committee) of orders issued by the Secretary is appropriate and necessary for proper and efficient administration of the marketing agreement and order.

Authority should be provided for the commmittee to recommend, and the Secretary to prescribe, adequate safeguards to prevent potatoes, including seed potatoes, which may be exempted as aforesaid, from regulation, from being placed, or continuing, in commerce contrary to the provisions of this program. Such safeguards, among others, may require inspection to provide the committee with an accurate record of the grade, size, and quality of such shipments of potatoes. In order to maintain appropriate identification of such shipments of potatoes, the committee should be authorized to issue Certificates of Privilege to handlers thereof and to require that such handlers obtain such certificates on all such shipments. Certificates of Privilege should be issued in accordance with rules and regulations established by the Secretary, on the basis of committee recommendations, or other available information, so that the issuance of such certificates may be handled in an orderly and efficient manner.

The committee also should be authorized to deny or rescind Certificates of Privilege when such action is necessary to prevent abuse of the privileges conferred thereby. The committee should be authorized to take such rescinding or denial action upon evidence satisfactory to the committee that a handler to whom a Certificate of Privilege has been issued has handled potatoes contrary to the provisions thereof. Action by the committee denying a handler such certificates should be in terms of a specified time period. Handlers affected by the aforesaid rescinding or denial action should have the right of appeal to the committee for reconsideration.

The Secretary should have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any safeguards prescribed or any Certificates of Privilege issued by the committee in order that the Secretary may retain all rights necessary to carry out the declared policy of the act. The Secretary should give prompt notice to the committee of any action taken by him in connection therewith and the committee should currently notify all persons affected by the indicated action.

The committee should maintain detailed records relevant to Certificates of Privilege and should submit, when requested to do so, reports thereon to the Secretary to supply pertinent information requisite for him to discharge his duties under the act and the marketing agreement and order.

(c) The committee should be authorized to recommend, and the Secretary to establish, such minimum standards of quality and maturity and such grading and inspection requirements during any and all periods of marketing, when potato prices are above parity, as will be in the public interest. Some potatoes are of such defective quality that they do not give consumer satisfaction at any time because of the great waste and undue amount of time involved in their preparation. The cost of such potatoes to the consumer per edible unit is frequently greater than the cost per edible unit of potatoes of better quality.

The shipment of immature potatoes causes an adverse consumer reaction to potatoes from the production area and tends to demoralize the market for later shipments of mature potatoes. There is a tendency for immature potatoes to deteriorate in transit and to develop undesirable cooking properties. Limitation of shipment of such potatoes would be in the interests of both consumers and of the potato industry in the production area. Continued shipments of low quality and immature potatoes may result in a permanent reduction in demand for potatoes grown in the production area.

(d) Provision is made in the marketing agreement and order for inspection by the Federal-State Inspection Service of all shipments of potatoes grown in the production area, except as hereinafter indicated. Inspection certificates issued by this service are a common and usual means of specifying the grade, size, and quality of potatoes and are generally used and recognized in the production area. Such certificates constitute prima facie evidence of the grade, size, and quality of the commodity to which they apply and they are accepted in court as such evidence. It is necessary to provide the handler, the committee, or any other interested party with a means of determining whether a shipment, or shipments of potatoes complies with the requirements of any particular grade, size, and quality regulation which may be in effect under the marketing agreement and order. Inspection certificates provide such a means. The Federal-State Inspection Service can provide reasonably prompt inspection at all points for most potato shipments at a reasonable fee, if inspection is requested at a reasonable time prior to the anticipated shipment. Effective regulation of the handling of potatoes grown in the production area requires that the grade, size, and quality of each shipment thereof be authoritatively established. Accordingly, the marketing agreement and order should provide, except as hereinafter indicated, that no handler shall ship potatoes unless, prior thereto, such shipment was inspected by the aforesaid Service.

A sizable portion of the potato crop grown in the production area is graded and marketed by the producer in relatively small lot shipments made at infrequent intervals. Some of these small lot shipments may contain other vegetables in so-called mixed load shipments. Most of these small growers own their own grading equipment either power or hand operated. Nearly all of these growers run their potatoes over the grader before shipment. Some of these small lot shipments are made at regular intervals to supply regular customers while others depend upon the shipper's evaluation of market requirements on the day of shipment. The handler of such small lot shipments is almost always the producer of the potatoes involved. Where the quantity of potatoes involved in such small lot shipments is relatively small, modification, suspension, or termination of the Federal-State inspection requirements with respect thereto should be effected, in appropriate circumstances, on the basis of and for the reasons hereinbefore indicated for so-called minimum quantity or "small shipments."

When the quantity of potatoes contained in a shipment exceeds the aforesaid minimum quantity, the handler of such shipment in nearly all instances can obtain reasonably prompt inspection at a reasonable fee. However, in some instances and under some circumstances, it would require a large inspection force to promptly inspect all loads, thereby greatly increasing the costs to cover a relatively small portion of the shipments. In some instances these conditions could be caused by unusual weather such as snowstorms or blizzards. Immediately after these storms, shipments are above normal at a time when it is difficult for the inspector to travel to outlying points and make all inspections promptly upon request. Also in some instances while one inspector can inspect nearly all of the shipments in a given locality, but two inspectors would be required to cover all of the shipments and thereby materially increase the cost of the service. Therefore, it is imperative to provide procedures whereby a waiver of inspection under the aforesaid conditions can be provided.

If a handler-applicant for inspection requests such service at a reasonable time prior to shipment, the inspection service should either perform the inspection within a reasonable time or notify the applicant and the committee that inspection could not be performed within this time limit. The time limits both on application and performance should not be specified in the agreement and order, as it is not possible in all instances and under all conditions to determine the most appropriate time limits. It may be necessary and desirable to specify different time limits for different portions of the marketing season such as early and late potatoes and from season to season. Therefore, the authority in the agreement and order should be sufficiently flexible to permit the committee to recommend reasonable and practical procedures for handling the inspection waivers. Also, provisions are made to specify adequate safeguards to prevent abuse of this privilege. The committee should be authorized to refuse the issuance of additional waivers when such action is necessary to prevent abuse of the waivers conferred thereby. Action by the committee in denying an inspection waiver should be in terms of a specified time period. Handlers affected by such aforesaid action should have the right of appeal to the committee for reconsideration.

There is substantial evidence in the hearing record that such waiver procedures are necessary and incidental to operation of the agreement for the granting of such waivers will provide methods for eliminating overburdening nuisances in connection with inspection on small lots. The elimination of such nuisances will benefit growers, the committee, and the Secretary in the operation of the agreement and order and promote orderly marketing to a greater extent than would the compulsory inspection of the small lots that may be relieved of this burden. In addition, recommendations with respect to the extent to which such lots will be relieved will be subject to the continuing test of practical operation, so that discretion regarding the extent to which such methods should be used will remain in the hands of the committee and of the Secretary.

Copies of inspection certificates issued pursuant to the requirements of the marketing agreement and order should be supplied to the committee promptly, so that it may promptly discharge its administrative responsibilities thereunder. In instances where potatoes previously inspected are regraded, resorted, or in any other way subjected to further preparation for market in the production area, such potatoes should be and are required to be inspected and a copy of the inspection certificate should be furnished to the committee because such further preparation for market destroys the validity of the original inspection certificate as evidence of the grade, size, and quality of the potatoes involved. All of the aforesaid requirements are necessary for proper administration and enforcement of the provisions of the marketing agreement and order.

(e) Many of the shipments originating within the production area are not inspected but most of the containers are branded or tagged showing the grade, size, or quality designation along with the name and address of the handler. A large percentage of these potatoes fail to meet the grade and size designation on the container. These potatoes, below the specified grade and size are either sold at a discount or the handler in many instances is required to make an adjustment in the selling price. This practice of misbranding has become so widespread that it has tended to lower the price of all potatoes produced in the production area. Also, the consumer acceptance of potatoes produced in this area has been adversely affected by such unfair methods of competition.

There has been a sharp upward trend in the use of consumer size packages, mostly 10 and 15 pound closed paper sacks. Nearly all of these packages are branded U. S. No. 1 or better. Since the consumer cannot see or have a choice of selection, these off grade potatoes result in both a decline in price and sales volume. Evidence in the record shows that generally the potatoes produced in the area sell at an appreciable discount from those potatoes shipped in from other areas particularly from the State of Maine. The elimination of these unfair trade practices will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Therefore, the agreement and order should contain a provision whereby the committee could recommend and the Secretary require that all containers should be branded or tagged showing the correct grade, size, quality, net contents and name and address of the first handler during periods when grade and size regulations are in effect.

(f) Certain hazards are incidental to the production of potatoes grown in the production area which are beyond the control or reasonable expectation of the producer of such potatoes. Because of these circumstances and to prevent undue hardship among producers with respect to any regulations which may be issued under the marketing agreement and order, the committee should be authorized to issue exemption certificates to producers to permit each producer to handle or cause to be handled his equitable proportion of all potatoes shipped from the production area if the grade, size, or quality of his potatoes have been adversely affected by conditions beyond his control and by conditions beyond reasonable expectation. In determining such equitable proportion, the committee should be authorized to estimate the average percentage of production which has been and will be shipped by all producers in the producer's immediate area of production under a given regulation (which will be such equitable proportion). For such purpose, the committee will need a representative sample of the grade, size, and quality composition of the total crop in such area, a part of which, at any given time during the shipping season, may have been harvested and marketed and another part unharvested.

Similar hazards are prevalent in the handling of potatoes grown in the production area and equitable treatment of each handler, under the marketing agreement and order, requires that he be permitted to handle as large a proportion of his storage holdings of ungraded potatoes (acquired during or immediately following the digging season) as the average proportion of ungraded storage holdings handled by all handlers in an applicant-handler's immediate shipping area, if the grade, size, or quality of such applicant's potatoes have been adversely affected by conditions beyond the applicant's control and by conditions beyond reasonable expectation. Restricting the aforesaid exemptions to cases involving conditions beyond the producer's and handler's control, respectively, and to conditions beyond reasonable expectation, is necessary to preclude the granting of such hardship exemptions where the producers and handlers could have avoided the condition responsible for their hardships.

The committee, by reason of its knowledge of the conditions and problems applicable to the production and handling of potatoes grown in the production area and the information which it will have available in each case, will be well qualified to judge each producer's and handler's application in a fair and equitable manner and to fix the quantity of exempted potatoes which each such applicant may handle or cause to be handled.

The provisions contained in the notice of hearing relevant to the procedure to be followed in issuing exemption certificates, in transferring such certificates, in investigating exemption claims, in appealing exemption claim determinations, and in recording and reporting exemption claim determinations to the Secretary, are necessary to the orderly and equitable operation of the marketing agreement and order and they should, therefore, be incorporated in the marketing agreement and order.

Provision should be made for the Secretary to modify, change, alter, or rescind the procedure established for granting of exemptions, and any exemptions granted pursuant to such procedure. This is necessary to guard against inequities in the granting of exemptions and to preclude the issuance of exemption certificates in unjustifiable cases.

(g) The operation of the committee and the marketing agreement and order require funds for the payment of necessary administrative expenses. The committee is the logical agency to recommend what expenses are necessary and appropriate for operation of the program. It is also necessary that assessments be levied on the handlers to meet such expenses since no other source of funds is authorized under the act for defraying such expenses. The committee should be required, each year, to prepare and submit to the Secretary a budget showing its estimated expenses and a proposed rate of assessment. This is desirable in order that the Secretary will have the best possible information on probable expenses of the committee and the proper rate of assessment to be levied to meet such expenses.

Assessments should be levied against each handler who first ships potatoes, herein called the first handler, to establish an appropriate basis for each handler paying his pro rata share of necessary administrative expenses. Each first handler should pay assesments to the committee, at its request, to preclude multiple assessments in connection with individual shipments of potatoes. Each first handler's pro rata share of such expenses shall be a percentage of such expenses equal to the percentage his total season's first handling of potatoes subject to regulation is of the total season's first handling of potatoes subject to regulation by all first handlers. The Secretary, upon the basis of the committee's recomendation, or other available information, should fix a rate of assessment per given unit of shipment which first handlers must pay as an equitable share of the expenses of administering the program.

The Secretary shall be authorized to increase the rate of assessment which first handlers should pay if he finds, during or after the fiscal year, that the then applicable rate of assessment is insufficient to cover expenses. Such increased rate should apply to all assessable potatoes handled during that fiscal year to preclude inequities among handlers.

Revenues collected through assessments in excess of expenses for any fiscal year should, at the end of such fiscal year, be credited pro rata to each contributing handler's account, or, upon demand, refunded to any handler.

The committee should be authorized to maintain, with the approval of the Secretary, suits in its own name, or in the name of its members, against any handler for collection of such handler's pro rata share of the committee's expenses. Such authority is contained in the act.

The committee should be permitted to make such expenditures during a fiscal year as are authorized and are necessary for effective administration and proper functioning of the marketing agreement and order program, within the limitations of the budget submitted by the committee and approved by the Secretary for such year.

Any committee member or alternate responsible for or having in his custody any of the property, funds, records, or any other possessions of the committee, should be required to transfer it to his successor or to such person as may be designated by the Secretary, and to execute such instruments as may be necessary to effect such transfers. The committee, and such members and alternates, should be required to give an accounting for all committee receipts and disbursements and for all committee property whenever requested by the Secretary and whenever, in the case of members and alternates, they cease to be such members or alternates. These transfer and accounting requirements represent sound business procedure and are necessary in order that there will be an unbroken succession in committee possessions.

For proper and efficient administration of the marketing agreement and order, the committee needs information on potatoes with respect to supplies, movement, prices, and sundry other relevant factors which are best obtainable from handlers. The committee should be authorized to request, with the approval of the Secretary, and every handler should be required to maintain records of such facts and furnish to the committee upon request, with the approval of the Secretary, such information therefrom as may be required for the committee to exercise its powers and perform its duties under the marketing agreement and order. The committee should be authorized to audit such records to verify reports submitted as aforesaid. The Secretary should retain the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any requests by the committee for information in order to protect handlers from unreasonable requests for reports.

(h) The provisions of §§ 919.8 through 919.20, as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of April 26, 1950 (15 F. R. 2364), are common to marketing agreements and orders now operating. Each of such sections sets forth certain rights, obligations, privileges, or procedures which are necessary and appropriate for the effective operation of the marketing agreement and order. These provisions are incidental to, and not inconsistent with section 8c (6) and (7) of the act, and are necessary to effectuate the other provisions of the marketing agreement and order and to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The substance of such provisions, therefore, should be included in the marketing agreement and order. With respect to the announcement prior to May 31 that the program will be terminated at the end of the fiscal year, growers and handlers will be afforded sufficient time to plan accordingly for the next marketing season.

General findings. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing, and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The order, as hereinafter set forth, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) Such order regulates the handling of potatoes grown in the production area in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in, a proposed marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(3) The said order is limited in its application to the smallest regional production area which is practicable, consistent with carrying out the declared policy of the act; and the issuance of several orders applicable to any subdivision of the production area would not effectively carry out the declared policy of the act;

(4) The said order prescribes, so far as practicable, such different terms, applicable to different parts of the production area, as are necessary to give due recognition to the differences in the production and marketing of potatoes grown in the said area;

(5) All handling of potatoes, as defined in said order, is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce, or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Interested parties were allowed until June 15, 1950, to file briefs with respect to findings of facts and conclusions based on evidence introduced at the hearing. No such brief was filed; hence, no ruling is necessary.

Recommended marketing agreement and order. The following marketing agreement and order are recommended as the detailed means by which the aforesaid conclusions may be carried out.

DEFINITIONS

§ 919.1 Secretary. "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States, or any other officer, or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture, who is, or may hereafter be authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 919.2 Act. "Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.; 61 Stat. 202, 707; 62 Stat. 1247; 63 Stat. 1051).

§ 919.3 Person. "Person" means an individual, partnership, corporation, association, or any organized group or business unit.

§ 919.4 Production area. "Production area" means all territory included within the boundaries of the State of New York (except the counties of Suffolk, Nassau, Queens, Kings, New York, Bronx, and Richmond).

§ 919.5 Potatoes. "Potatoes" means all varieties of Irish potatoes grown within the production area.

§ 919.6 Handler; shipper. "Handler" is synonymous with "shipper" and means any person (except a common or contract carrier of potatoes owned by another person) who ships potatoes.

§ 919.7 Ship; handle. "Ship" or "handle" means to transport, sell, or in any other way to place potatoes in the current of commerce within the production area or between the production area and any point outside thereof: Provided, That such definition shall not include or be applicable to the sale or transportation of ungraded potatoes within the production area for storing, or the sale or transportation of potatoes to a recognized dealer or packer within the production area for the purpose of having such potatoes prepared for market.

§ 919.8 Producer. "Producer" means any person engaged in the production of potatoes for market.

§ 919.9 Fiscal year. "Fiscal year" means the period beginning July 1 of each year and ending June 30 following.

§ 919.10 Committee. "Committee" means the administrative committee called the Upstate New York Potato Committee established pursuant to § 919.23.

§ 919.11 Varieties. "Varieties" means and includes all classifications or subdivisions of Irish potatoes according to those definitive characteristics now or hereafter recognized by the United States Department of Agriculture.

§ 919.12 Seed potatoes. "Seed potatoes" means and includes all potatoes officially certified and tagged, marked, or otherwise appropriately identified, under the supervision of the official seed potato certifying agency of the State of New York.

§ 919.13 Table stock potatoes. "Table stock potatoes" means and includes all potatoes not included within the definition of "seed potatoes."

§ 919.14 Pack. "Pack" means a unit of potatoes contained in a bag, crate, or other type of container and falling within specific weight limits recommended by the committee and approved by the Secretary.

§ 919.15 Grade. "Grade" means any one of the officially established grades of potatoes, and "size" means any one of the officially established sizes of potatoes, as defined and set forth in:

(a) The United States Standards for Potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (14 F. R. 1955, 2161), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon;

(b) The United States Consumer Standards for Potatoes issued by the United States Department of Agriculture (12 F. R. 7281), or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon; or

(c) State of New York Standards for Potatoes issued by the Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of New York, or amendments thereto, or modifications thereof, or variations based thereon.

§ 919.16 Export. "Export" means shipment of potatoes beyond the boundaries of continental United States.

§ 919.17 District. "District" means each one of the geographical divisions of the production area established pursuant to § 919.25.

§ 919.18 Brand. "Brand" means to mark, tag, or label the grade, size, quality, net contents, in terms of weight, measure, or numerical count, and the name and address of the first handler on each container of potatoes.

§ 919.19 Part and subpart. "Part" means the order regulating the handling of Irish Potatoes grown in the State of New York (except the counties of Suffolk, Nassau, Queens, Kings, New York, Bronx, and Richmond), and all rules, regulations, and supplementary orders issued thereunder, and the aforesaid order shall be a "subpart of such part."

ADMINISTRATIVE COMMITTEE

§ 919.23 Establishment and membership. (a) The Upstate New York Potato Committee consisting of 9 members of whom 6 shall be producers and 3 shall be handlers is hereby established. For each member of the committee there shall be an alternate who shall have the same qualifications as the member.

(b) (1) Each person selected as a committee member or alternate to represent producers shall be an individual who is a producer or an officer or employee of a producer in the district for which selected.

(2) Each person selected as a committee member or alternate to represent handlers shall be an individual who is a handler or an officer or employee of a handler in the production area.

§ 919.24 Term of office. (a) The term of office of committee members and their alternates shall be three fiscal years: Provided, That the terms of office of 3 of the initial members and their respective alternates shall be one year, and of 3 other members and alternates shall be two years. Each member and alternate shall continue to serve until the respective successor is selected and has qualified.

(b) Committee members and alternates shall serve during the term of office for which they are selected and have qualified, or during that portion thereof beginning on the date on which they qualify during the term of office.

§ 919.25 Districts. (a) For the purpose of selecting producer committee members, the following districts of the production area are hereby established:

District No. 1. Shall include the counties of Wayne, Seneca, Schuyler, Chemung, and all the counties west thereof;

District No. 2. Shall include the counties of St. Lawrence, Franklin, Clinton, Essex, Warren, and Washington;

District No. 3. Shall include all the remaining counties in the production area not included in Districts Nos. 1 and 2.

(b) The Secretary, upon the recommendation of the committee, may reestablish districts within the production area and may reapportion committee membership among the various districts: Provided, That in recommending any such changes in districts or representation the committee shall give consideration to: (1) the relative importance of new areas of production; (2) changes in the relative position with respect to production of existing districts; (3) the geographic location of production areas as it would affect the efficiency of administering this subpart; and (4) other relevant factors: Provided further, That there shall be no change in the total number of committee members or in the total number of districts.

§ 919.26 Nomination. The Secretary may select the members of the Upstate New York Potato Committee and their respective alternates from nominations which may be made in the following manner:

(a) Nominations for initial members of the committee and their respective alternates may be submitted by producers, handlers, or groups thereof, and such nominations may be by virtue of elections conducted by groups of producers and by groups of handlers.

(b) In order to provide nominations for succeeding committee members and alternates:

(1) The Upstate New York Potato Committee shall hold or cause to be held 60 days prior to the end of each fiscal year, after the effective date of this subpart, a meeting or meetings of producers and of handlers respectively in each of the districts designated in § 919.25 in which the terms of office of committee members, and their respective alternates, will terminate at the end of the then current fiscal year;

(2) At each such meeting at least two nominees shall be designated for each position as member and for each position as alternate member on the committee which is vacant or which is to become vacant at the end of the then current fiscal year;

(3) Nominations for committee members and alternate members shall be supplied to the Secretary in such manner and form as he may prescribe, not later than 30 days prior to the end of each fiscal year;

(4) Only producers may participate in designating nominees for producer committee members and their alternates and only handlers may participate in designating nominees for handler committee members and their alternates. For the purpose of designating nominees for handler committee members and alternates, a handler shall be considered to be a person who produces not more than 50 percent of the total volume of potatoes handled by himself; each person who is both a handler and a producer may vote either as a handler or as a producer and may elect, subject to such 50 percent limitation, the group in which he votes.

(5) Each producer and each handler of potatoes is entitled to cast only one vote on behalf of himself, his agents, subsidiaries, affiliates, and representatives, for producer or handler committee members and alternates, respectively: Provided, That producers in more than one district shall elect the district in which they will participate in nominating producer committee members and alternates: Provided further, That an eligible voter's privilege of casting only one vote, as aforesaid, shall be construed to permit a voter to cast one vote for each position to be filled in the respective district in which he elects to vote.

§ 919.27 Selection. The Secretary shall select three producer members of the committee with their respective alternates from District No. 1; one producer member of the committee with his respective alternate from District No. 2; and two producer members with their respective alternates from District No. 3, as such districts are defined in § 919.25. The Secretary shall select three handler members of the committee with their respective alternates from the production area at large: Provided, That not more than two of such handler members will be from District No. 1. Each person selected as a handler member or alternate shall not produce more than 50 percent of the potatoes handled by himself.

§ 919.28 Failure to nominate. If nominations are not made within the time and in the manner specified by the Secretary pursuant to § 919.26, the Secretary may, without regard to nominations, select the committee members and alternates which selection shall be on the basis of the representation provided for in § 919.27.

§ 919.29 Acceptance. Any person selected as a committee member or as an alternate shall qualify by filing a written acceptance with the Secretary within 10 days after being notified of such selection.

§ 919.30 Vacancies. To fill any vacancy occasioned by the failure of any person selected as a committee member or as an alternate to qualify, or in the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of any qualified member or alternate, a successor for his unexpired term may be selected from nominations made in the manner specified in § 919.26, or the Secretary may select such committee member or alternate from previously unselected nominees on the current nominee list from the district involved. If the names of nominees to fill any such vacancy are not made available to the Secretary within 30 days after such vacancy occurs, such vacancy may be filled without regard to nominations, which selection shall be made on the basis of the representation provided for in § 919.27.

§ 919.31 Alternate members. An alternate member of the committee shall act in the place and stead of the member for whom he is an alternate, during such member's absence. In the event of the death, removal, resignation, or disqualification of a member, his alternate shall act for him until a successor of such member is selected and has qualified.

§ 919.32 Procedure. (a) Six members of the committee shall be necessary to constitute a quorum and six concurring votes, including the vote of at least one handler member, will be required to pass any motion or approve any committee action.

(b) The committee may provide for meetings by telephone, telegraph, or other means of communication and any vote cast at such a meeting shall be confirmed promptly in writing: Provided, That if any assembled meeting is held, all votes shall be cast in person.

§ 919.33 Expenses and compensation. Committee members and alternates shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred by them in the performance of their duties and in the exercise of their powers hereunder, and shall receive compensation at a rate to be determined by the committee, which rate shall not exceed $10.00 for each day, or portion thereof, spent in attending to committee business.

§ 919.34 Powers. The committee shall have the following powers:

(a) To administer the provisions of this part in accordance with its terms;

(b) To make rules and regulations to effectuate the terms and provisions of this part;

(c) To receive, investigate and report to the Secretary complaints of violations of the provisions of this part; and

(d) To recommend to the Secretary amendments to this part.

§ 919.35 Duties. It shall be the duty of the committee:

(a) To act as intermediary between the Secretary and any producer or handler;

(b) To select a chairman and such other officers for each fiscal period as may be necessary, to select subcommittees of committee members and to adopt such rules and regulations for the conduct of its business as it may deem advisable;

(c) To appoint such employees, agents, and representatives as it may deem necessary and to determine the salaries and define the duties of each such person;

(d) To investigate, from time to time, and to assemble data on the growing, harvesting, shipping, and marketing conditions with respect to potatoes, and to engage in such research and service activities which relate to the handling or marketing of potatoes as may be approved by the Secretary;

(e) To furnish to the Secretary such available information as he may request;

(f) To keep minutes, books, and records which clearly reflect all of the acts and transactions of the committee and such minutes, books, and records shall be subject to examination at any time by the Secretary or his authorized agent or representative;

(g) To make available to producers and handlers the committee voting record on recommended regulations and on other matters of policy;

(h) At the beginning of each fiscal year, to submit to the Secretary a budget of its expenses for such fiscal year, together with a report thereon;

(i) To cause the books of the committee to be audited by a competent accountant at least once each fiscal year, and at such other time as the committee may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request. The report of such audit shall show the receipt and expenditure of funds collected pursuant to this part; a copy of each such report shall be furnished to the Secretary and a copy of each such report shall be made available at the principal office of the committee for inspection by producers and handlers; and

(j) To consult, cooperate, and exchange information with other potato marketing committees and other individuals or agencies in connection with all proper committee activties and objectives under this part.

EXPENSES, ASSESSMENTS, AND BUDGETS

§ 919.41 Budget. The committee shall prepare a budget for each fiscal year showing its anticipated expenses and a proposed rate of assessment to cover such expenses. The committee shall also transmit to the Secretary a report accompanying the budget showing the basis for its calculation of expenses and the proposed rate of assessment.

§ 919.42 Expenses. The committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary, upon the basis of the aforesaid budget or other available information, finds may be necessary during each fiscal year to perform its functions under this part and for such other purposes as may be appropriate pursuant to the provisions of this part.

§ 919.43 Rate of assessment. The funds to cover such expenses shall be acquired by the levying on handlers of assessments which shall be at a rate fixed by the Secretary, upon the basis of the committee's recommendation or other available information. Each handler who first ships potatoes shall pay assessments to the committee, upon demand, which assessments shall be such handler's pro rata share of the expenses which will be appropriately incurred by the committee during each fiscal year. Such handler's share of such expense shall be proportionate to the ratio between the total quantity of potatoes handled by him as the first handler thereof, during the applicable fiscal year, and the total quantity of potatoes handled by all handlers as the first handlers thereof, during the same fiscal year.

§ 919.44 Increasing rate of assessment. Upon recommendation of the committee or upon the basis of a later finding relative to the committee's expenses or revenue, the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment to cover expenses which shall be appropriately incurred. Such increase shall be applicable to all potatoes handled during the given fiscal year.

§ 919.45 Refunds. If at the end of a fiscal year, it shall appear that assessments collected are in excess of expenses incurred, each handler entitled to a proportionate refund of the excess assessments shall be credited with such refund against the operations of the following fiscal year, unless he demands payment thereof, in which event such proportionate refund shall be paid to him.

§ 919.46 Accounting. All funds received by the committee pursuant to any provision of this part shall be used solely for the purposes specified in this part and shall be accounted for in the following manner:

(a) The Secretary may at any time require the committee and its members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

(b) Whenever any person ceases to be a committee member or alternate, he shall account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property and funds in his hands, together with all books and records in his possession, to his successor in office or to such person as the Secretary may designate, and shall execute such assignments and other instruments as may be necessary or appropriate to vest in such successor or in such designated person the right to all the property, funds, or claims vested in such member or alternate.

§ 919.47 Collection of funds. (a) The committee may, with the approval of the Secretary, maintain in its own name or in the name of its members, a suit against any handler for the collection of such handler's pro rata share of the expenses of the committee.

(b) In order to provide funds to carry out the functions of the committee, handlers may make advance payment of assessments.

REGULATION

§ 919.51 Marketing policy preparation. At the beginning of each fiscal year the committee shall consider and prepare a proposed policy for the marketing of potatoes during such fiscal year. In developing its marketing policy the committee shall investigate relevant supply and demand conditions for potatoes. In such investigations the committee shall give appropriate consideration to the following:

(a) Market prices of potatoes, including prices by grade, size, and quality in wholesale or in consumer packs, or any other shipping unit;

(b) Supply of potatoes, by grade, size, and quality, in the production area and in other production areas;

(c) The trend and level of consumer income; and

(d) Other relevant factors.

§ 919.52 Marketing policy report. (a) The committee shall submit to the Secretary a report setting forth the aforesaid marketing policy. The committee shall also notify producers and handlers of the contents of such reports.

(b) In the event it becomes advisable to deviate from such marketing policy, because of changed supply or demand conditions, the committee shall formulate a new marketing policy, in accordance with the manner previously outlined in § 919.51. The committee shall also submit a report thereon to the Secretary and notify producers and handlers of such revised or amended marketing policy.

§ 919.53 Recommendation for regulation; committee recommendations. The committee shall recommend regulation to the Secretary whenever it finds that such regulation, as provided in § 919.54, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. The committee may also recommend modification, suspension, or termination of any regulation in order to facilitate shipments of potatoes for the specified purposes set forth in § 919.55.

§ 919.54 Issuance of regulations. (a) The Secretary shall limit the shipment of potatoes whenever he finds from the recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, that such regulation will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. Such limitation may:

(1) Regulate, in any or all portions of the production area, the shipment of particular grades, sizes or quality of any or all varieties of potatoes during any period;

(2) Regulate the shipment of particular grades, sizes or quality of potatoes differently for different varieties, for different portions of the production area, for different packs, or any combination of the foregoing, during any period; or

(3) Regulate the shipment of potatoes by establishing and maintaining, in terms of grades, sizes, or both, minimum standards of quality and maturity.

(b) During any period when grade, size, or quality regulations are in effect the Secretary may require that potato containers shall be branded whenever such requirements will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(c) During any period when branding is required pursuant to this subpart, each handler who first handles potatoes shall, prior to such handling, brand, or cause to be branded, each container of such potatoes; and no person shall handle any potatoes during such period unless the respective container thereof is branded.

§ 919.55 Modification, suspension, or termination. The Secretary, whenever he finds, upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the committee, or from other available information, that it will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act, shall modify, suspend, or terminate regulations issued pursuant to §§ 919.43, 919.44, 919.54, 919.66, or any combination thereof, in order to facilitate shipments of potatoes for the following purposes:

(a) For seed;

(b) For export;

(c) For distribution by the Federal Government;

(d) For manufacture or conversion into specified products;

(e) For livestock feed;

(f) For other purposes which may be specified.

§ 919.56 Minimum quantity regulation. The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish, for any or all portions of the production area, minimum quantities below which shipments will be free from regulations, issued or in effect pursuant to §§ 919.43, 919.44, 919.54, 919.66, or any combination thereof.

§ 919.57 Notification of regulation. The Secretary shall notify the committee of any regulations issued or of any modification, suspension, or termination thereof. The committee shall give reasonable notice thereof to handlers.

§ 919.58 Safeguards. (a) The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may prescribe, (1) adequate safeguards to prevent shipments pursuant to §§ 919.55 and 919.56 from entering channels of trade for other than the specific purpose authorized therefor, (2) adequate safeguards to assure that shipments made without inspection pursuant to §919.66 meet effective grade, size or quality regulations, and (3) rules governing the issuance and the contents of Certificates of Privilege if such certificates are prescribed as safeguards by the committee.

(b) Safeguards, as prescribed herein, may include requirements that:

(1) Handlers shall file applications with the committee to ship potatoes pursuant to §§ 919.55 and 919.56;

(2) Handlers shall obtain inspection provided by § 919.66 or pay the pro rata share of expenses provided by § 919.43, or both, in connection with potato shipments effected under the provisions of §§ 919.55 and 919.56; Provided, That such inspection or payment of expenses may be required at different times than otherwise specified by the aforesaid sections; and

(3) Handlers shall obtain Certificates of Privilege from the committee for shipments of potatoes effected or to be effected under provisions of §§ 919.55 and 919.56 and shipments made without inspection pursuant to § 919.66.

(c) The committee may rescind or deny Certificates of Privilege to any shipper if proof is obtained that potatoes shipped by him for the purposes stated in §§ 919.55, 919.56, and 919.66 were handled contrary to the requirements applicable thereto.

(d) The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any safeguards prescribed and any certificates issued by the committee pursuant to the provisions of this section.

(e) The committee shall make reports to the Secretary, as requested, showing the number of applications for such certificates, the quantity of potatoes covered by such applications, the number of such applications denied and certificates granted, the quantity of potatoes shipped under duly issued certificates and such other information as may be requested.

INSPECTION

§ 919.66 Inspection and certification. During any period in which shipments of potatoes are regulated, pursuant to the provisions of §§ 919.43, 919.44, or 919.54, or any combination thereof, no handler shall ship potatoes unless, prior thereto, such shipment was inspected by an authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, or such other inspection service as the Secretary shall designate. Each handler procuring inspections pursuant to this section, shall make arrangements with the inspecting agency to forward promptly to the committee a copy of the inspection certificate: Provided, That the regrading, resorting, repacking, or other further preparation of inspected potatoes for market shall invalidate prior inspection thereon and subsequent shipment of such potatoes after regrading, resorting, repacking, or other preparation for market shall not be effected unless, prior thereto, such shipment is inspected as provided in this section: Provided further, That the committee may adopt, subject to the approval of the Secretary, procedures permitting the shipment of potatoes without the required prior inspection thereon; such procedures shall include a requirement that each handler-applicant for a waiver show that he requested shipping point inspection and that the appropriate inspection agency stated that it could not supply reasonably prompt service in connection with such request; and such procedures may require that each applicant agrees, as a condition for the issuance of a waiver, to one or more of the following:

(a) That the potatoes to be shipped under such waiver will be inspected and certified at destination if an inspector is available for such purpose;

(b) That, where inspection indicates that potatoes shipped under a waiver fail to meet minimum grade, size, and quality requirements in effect at the time of such inspection, the potatoes will be removed from all normal domestic commercial channels, except for disposition pursuant to § 919.55; and

(c) That additional waivers will not be granted to an applicant, for the remainder of the fiscal year, if the potatoes shipped under a waiver and failing to meet minimum grade, size, and quality requirements, are not removed from all normal domestic market channels, except for disposition pursuant to § 919.55.

EXEMPTIONS

§ 919.71 Procedure. The committee may adopt, subject to approval of the Secretary, the procedures pursuant to which certificates of exemption will be issued to producers or handlers.

§ 919.72 Granting exemptions. (a) The committee may issue certificates of exemption to any producer who applies for such exemption and furnishes adequate evidence to the committee that, by reason of a regulation issued pursuant to § 919.54, he will be prevented from handling, or causing to be handled, as large a proportion of his production as the average proportion of production handled, or caused to be handled, during the entire season (or such portion thereof as may be determined by the committee) by all producers in said applicant's immediate area of production and that the grade, size, or quality of the applicant's potatoes have been adversely affected by acts beyond the applicant's control and by acts beyond reasonable expectation. Each such certificate shall permit the producer to handle, or cause to be handled, the amount of potatoes specified thereon. Such certificate shall be transferred with such potatoes at time of transportation or sale.

(b) The committee may issue certificates of exemption to any handler who applies for such exemption and furnishes adequate evidence to the committee that, by reason of a regulation issued pursuant to § 919.54, he will be prevented from handling as large a proportion of his storage holdings of ungraded potatoes, acquired during or immediately following the digging season, as the average proportion of ungraded storage holdings handled by all handlers in said applicant's immediate shipping area, and that the grade, size, or quality of the applicant's potatoes have been adversely affected by acts beyond the applicant's control and by acts beyond reasonable expectation. Each certificate shall permit the handler to handle the amount of potatoes specified thereon. Such certificate shall be transferred with such potatoes at time of transportation or sale.

(c) The committee shall be permitted, at any time, to make a thorough investigation of any producer's or handler's claim pertaining to exemptions.

§ 919.73 Appeal. If any applicant for exemption certificates is dissatisfied with the determination by the committee with respect to his application, said applicant may file an appeal with the committee. Such an appeal must be taken promptly after the determination by the committee from which the appeal is taken. Any applicant filing an appeal shall furnish evidence satisfactory to the committee for a determination on the appeal. The committee shall thereupon reconsider the application, examine all available evidence, and make a final determination concerning the application. The committee shall notify the appellant of the final determination and shall furnish the Secretary with a copy of the appeal and a statement of considerations involved in making the final determination.

§ 919.74 Records, reports and review of exemptions. (a) The committee shall maintain a record of all applications submitted for exemption certificates, a record of all exemption certificates issued and denied, the quantity of potatoes covered by such exemption certificates, a record of the amount of potatoes shipped under exemption certificates, a record of appeals for reconsideration of applications, and such additional information as may be requested by the Secretary. Periodic reports on such records shall be compiled and issued by the committee upon request of the Secretary.

(b) The Secretary shall have the right to modify, change, alter, or rescind any procedure and any exemptions granted pursuant to §§ 919.71, 919.72, 919.73, or any combination thereof.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 919.81 Reports. Upon the request of the committee, with approval of the Secretary, every handler shall furnish to the committee, in such manner and at such time as may be prescribed, such information as will enable the committee to exercise its powers and perform its duties under this part. Handlers shall maintain records from which such reported information can be verified by the committee. The secretary shall have the right to modify, change, or rescind any requests for reports pursuant to this section.

§ 919.82 Compliance. Except as provided in this part, no handler shall ship potatoes, the shipment of which has been prohibited by the Secretary in accordance with the provisions of this part, and no handler shall ship potatoes except in conformity to the provisions of this part.

§ 919.83 Right of the Secretary. The members of the committee (including successors and alternates), and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the committee, shall be subject to removal or suspension by the Secretary at any time. Each and every order, regulation, decision, determination or other act of the committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time. Upon such disapproval the disapproved action of the said committee shall be deemed null and void, except as to acts done in reliance thereon or in compliance therewith prior to such disapproval by the Secretary.

§ 919.84 Effective time. The provisions of this subpart shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare above his signature attached to this subpart, and shall continue in force until terminated in one of the ways specified in this subpart.

§ 919.85 Termination. (a) The Secretary may, at any time, terminate the provisions of this subpart by giving at least one day's notice by means of a press release or in any other manner which he may determine.

(b) The Secretary may terminate or suspend the operation of any or all of the provisions of this subpart whenever he finds that such provisions do not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(c) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this subpart at the end of any fiscal year whenever he finds that such termination is favored by a majority of producers who, during the preceding fiscal year, have been engaged in the production for market of potatoes: Provided, That such majority has, during such year, produced for market more than fifty percent of the volume of such potatoes produced for market; but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before May 31 of the then current fiscal year.

(d) The provisions of this subpart shall, in any event, terminate whenever the provisions of the act authorizing them cease to be in effect.

(e) The Secretary shall terminate the provisions of this agreement at the end of any fiscal year, upon the written request of handlers signatory to this agreement who submit evidence satisfactory to the Secretary that they handled not less than sixty-seven percent of the total volume of potatoes handled by the signatory handlers during the preceding fiscal year; but such termination shall be effective only if announced on or before May 31 of the then current fiscal year.[1]

§ 919.86 Proceedings after termination. (a) Upon the termination of the provisions of this subpart, the then functioning members of the committee shall continue as trustees for the purpose of liquidating the affairs of the committee, of all the funds and property then in the possession of or under control of the committee, including claims for any funds unpaid or property not delivered at the time of such termination. Action by said trusteeship shall require the concurrence of a majority of the said trustees.

(b) The said trustees shall continue in such capacity until discharged by the Secretary; shall, from time to time, account for all receipts and disbursements and deliver all property on hand, together with all books and records of the committee and of the trustees, to such person as the Secretary may direct; and shall upon request of the Secretary, execute such assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to vest in such person full title and right to all of the funds, property, and claims vested in the committee or the trustees pursuant to this subpart.

(c) Any person to whom funds, property, or claims have been transferred or delivered by the committee or its members, pursuant to this section, shall be subject to the same obligations imposed upon the members of the committee and upon the said trustees.

§ 919.87 Effect of termination or amendment. Unless otherwise expressly provided by the Secretary, the termination of this subpart or of any regulation issued pursuant to this subpart, or the issuance of any amendments to either thereof, shall not (a) affect or waive any right, duty, obligation, or liability which shall have arisen or which may thereafter arise in connection with any provision of this subpart or any regulation issued under this subpart, or (b) release or extinguish any violation of this subpart or of any regulation issued under this subpart, or (c) affect or impair any rights or remedies of the Secretary or of any other person with respect to any such violation.

§ 919.88 Duration of immunities. The benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred upon any person by virtue of this subpart shall cease upon the termination of this subpart, except with respect to acts done under and during the existence of this subpart.

§ 919.89 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any person, including any officer or employee of the Government, or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 919.90 Derogation. Nothing contained in this subpart is, or shall be construed to be, in derogation or in modifications of the rights of the Secretary or of the United States to exercise any powers granted by the act or otherwise, or, in accordance with such powers, to act in the premises whenever such action is deemed advisable.

§ 919.91 Personal liability. No member or alternate member of the committee nor any employee or agent thereof, shall be held personally responsible, either individually or jointly with others, in any way whatsoever, to any handler or to any person for errors in judgment mistakes, or other acts, either of commission or omission, as such member, alternate, agent, or employee except for acts of dishonesty.

§ 919.92 Separability. If any provision of this subpart is declared invalid, or the applicability thereof to any person, circumstance, or thing is held invalid, the validity of the remainder of this subpart, or the applicability thereof to any other person, circumstance, or thing, shall not be affected thereby.

§ 919.93 Amendments. Amendments to this subpart may be proposed, from time to time, by the committee or by the Secretary.

§ 919.94 Counterparts. This agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts and when one counterpart is signed by the Secretary, all such counterparts shall constitute when taken together, one and the same instrument as if all signatures were contained in one original.[1]

§ 919.95 Additional parties. After the effective date of this agreement any handler who has not previously executed this agreement may become a party to this agreement if a counterpart of this agreement is executed by him and delivered to the Secretary. This agreement shall take effect as to such new contracting party at the time such counterpart is delivered to the Secretary, and benefits, privileges, and immunities conferred by this agreement shall then be effective as to such new contracting party.[1]

§ 919.96 Order with marketing agreement. Each signatory handler favors and approves the issuance of an order, by the Secretary, regulating the handling of potatoes in the same manner as is provided for in this agreement; and each signatory handler hereby requests the Secretary to issue, pursuant to the act, such an order.[1]

Done at Washington, D. C., this 7th day of July 1950.

APPLICATIONS FOR QUALIFICATION OF INDENTURES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a proposal for the amendment of Form T-3 (§ 269.3) under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939. The proposed amendment would add a requirement that there be filed as an exhibit to applications for qualification of indentures on this form a copy of each prospectus, notice, circular, letter, or other written communication which is to be distributed to security holders generally in connection with the issuance or distribution of the identure securities.

The proposed amendment would be in the form of an additional paragraph in the Instructions as to Exhibits in Form T-3 reading as follows:

Exhibit T3E. A copy of every prospectus, notice, circular, letter, or other written communication which is to be sent or given to security holders in connection with the issuance or distribution of the indenture securities. Copies of replies to inquiries from security holders, however, need not be filed.

All interested persons are invited to submit data, views and comments on the above-mentioned proposal in writing to the Securities and Exchange Commission at its principal office, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., on or before July 20, 1950.

By the Commission.

APPLICATIONS REGARDING BONUS, PROFIT-SHARING AND PENSION PLANS AND ARRANGEMENTS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a proposal for the amendment of § 270.17d-1 (Rule N-17D-1) under the Investment Company Act of 1940. The proposed amendment would make it unnecessary for any registered investment company to file applications with respect to certain Christmas or other annual bonus plans where the payment of the bonus is wholly discretionary with the company and the amount of the bonuses paid thereunder is within specified limits. Similarly, no application would need to be filed with respect to the plan of any controlled company which is not an investment company provided no director, officer or other affiliated person of any investment company is eligible to participate therein. Under the existing rule applications are required with respect to all such plans.

In addition the proposed amendment would include a definition of the term "plan" as used in the rule so as to make it clear that the term is not limited to formal, written plans but includes the payment of any bonus, share in profits or pension benefit.

The section as amended would read as follows:

§ 270.17d-1 Applications regarding bonus, profit-sharing and pension plans. (a) No affiliated person of any registered investment company, or of any company controlled by any such registered company, shall participate in, or effect any transaction in connection with, any bonus, profit-sharing or pension plan in which any such registered or controlled company is a participant unless an application regarding such plan has been filed with the Commission and has been granted by an order entered prior to the submission of such plan to security holders for approval, or prior to the adoption thereof if not so submitted.

(b) In passing upon such applications, the Commission will consider:

(1) Whether participation in the plan by any such registered or controlled company is on a basis substantially different from or less advantageous than that of other participants therein;

(2) Whether the provisions of the plan are consistent with the policy and purposes set forth in section 1 (b) of the act; and

(3) Whether the provisions of the plan are in contravention of section 18 or 23 (a) of the act or any other provisions of the act.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, no application need be filed pursuant to this section with respect to any of the following Christmas or other annual, year-end bonus plans;

(1) Any such plan provided by any investment company for its officers or employees if (i) the payment of such bonuses and the determination of the amount thereof to be paid to each person is wholly discretionary with the company, (ii) the amount paid to any individual will not in any one year exceed 5 percent of the remuneration of such individual exclusive of such bonus, and (iii) if the total amount paid pursuant to the plan does not in any one year exceed 5 percent of the net income of such company for its latest fiscal year;

(2) Any such plan provided by any controlled company, which is not an investment company, for its officers or employees, provided no affiliated person of any investment company is eligible to participate therein.

(d) The term "plan" as used in this section means any written or oral plan, contract, authorization, or arrangement, or any practice or understanding, pursuant to which any payment is made, whether such payment is obligatory upon or discretionary with the company making it.

All interested persons may submit data, views and comments, in writing, to the Securities and Exchange Commission at its principal office, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., on or before July 20, 1950.

By the Commission.

BONDING OF OFFICERS AND EMPLOYEES OF REGISTERED MANAGEMENT INVESTMENT COMPANIES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a proposal for the amendment of § 270.17g-1 (Rule N-17G-1) under the Investment Company Act of 1940. The proposed amendment would define the terms "officer" and "employee", for the purposes of this rule, to include the depositor or investment adviser and its officers and employees in cases where the investment company is an unincorporated company managed by a depositor or investment adviser. Rule N-17G-1 requires the bonding of officers and employees of registered management investment companies who have access to the securities or funds of such companies.

The proposed amendment would consist of a new paragraph reading as follows:

§ 270.17g-1 Bonding of officers and employees of registered management investment companies. * * *

(d) Where the investment company is an unincorporated company managed by a depositor or investment adviser, the terms "officer" and "employee" shall include, for the purposes of this section, the depositor or investment adviser and its officers and employees.

All interested persons are invited to submit data, views and comments on the above-mentioned proposal, in writing, to the Securities and Exchange Commission, at its principal office, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., on or before July 20, 1950.

CORNING LEADER, INC. (WCLI)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Corning Leader, Inc. (WCLI), Corning, New York, for modification of construction permit. Docket No. 9716, File No. BMP-5168.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application for modification of construction permit to change facilities from 1540 kc. to 1450 kc., and change hours of operation from daytime only to unlimited time at Station WCLI, Corning, New York;

It appearing, that the applicant is legally, technically, financially and otherwise qualified to operate Station WCLI as proposed, but that the application may involve interference with one or more existing stations and otherwise not comply with the Standards of Good Engineering Practice;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application is designated for hearing commencing at 10:00 a. m. on November 29, 1950, at Washington, D. C., upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of the proposed station, and the character of other broadcast service available to such areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the operation of the proposed station would involve objectionable interference with Station WHDL, Allegany, New York, or with any other existing broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed station would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

It is further ordered, That WHDL, Inc., licensee of Station WHDL, Allegany, New York, is made a party to this proceeding.

BELOIT BROADCASTING CO. (WGEZ)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Sidney H. Bliss d/b as Beloit Broadcasting Company (WGEZ), Beloit, Wisconsin, for modification of license; Docket No. 9717, File No. BML-1423.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application requesting a modification of license of Station WGEZ, Beloit, Wisconsin (1490 kc., 100 w., U) to increase power from 100 watts to 250 watts;

It appearing, that, except as specified in issue number 4, the applicant is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified to operate Station WGEZ, as proposed, but that the application may involve interference with one or more existing stations and otherwise not comply with the Standards of Good Engineering Practice;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said application is designated for hearing at Washington, D. C., at 10:00 a. m. on the 30th day of November 1950 upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Station WGEZ as proposed and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the operation of Station WGEZ, as proposed, would involve objectionable interference with stations WEBS, Oak Park, Illinois; WKBB, Dubuque, Iowa, or with any other existing broadcast stations and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine whether the installation and operation of Station WGEZ, as proposed, would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

4. To determine the overlap, if any, that will exist between the service areas of Station WGEZ, as proposed, and of Station WCLO, Janesville, Wisconsin, the nature and extent thereof, and whether such overlap, if any, is in contravention of § 3.35 of the Commission's rules.

It is further ordered, That, Joseph Triner, Charles M. Hickman, George Herrmann, Jr., Edward J. Flatysek and William L. Klein d/b as Village Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station WEBS, Oak Park, Illinois; and Dubuque Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station WKBB, Dubuque, Iowa, are made parties to this proceeding.

SIOUX FALLS BROADCAST ASSN., INC., (KSOO)

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATION FOR HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re application of Sioux Falls Broadcast Association, Inc. (KSOO), Sioux Falls, South Dakota, for construction permit; Docket No. 9718, File No. BP-7501.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission, held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled application requesting a construction permit to change the power and hours of operation of Station KSOO, Sioux Falls, South Dakota from 5 kilowatts, limited time to 10 kilowatts, unlimited time, to install a directional antenna for night use only, to install a new transmitter and to change transmitter location and also having under consideration (1) petition to designate the said application for hearing and name petitioner a party to the proceeding filed on April 6, 1950, by Larus & Brother Company, Incorporated, licensee of Station WRVA, Richmond, Virginia, (2) opposition to the petition filed on April 14, 1950, by Sioux Falls Broadcast Association, Incorporated, (3) reply to opposition filed on May 1, 1950, by Larus & Brother Company, Incorporated;

It appearing that the applicant is legally technically, financially and otherwise qualified to construct and operate Station KSOO as proposed, but that the application may involve interference with one or more existing stations and otherwise not comply with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice;

It is ordered, That the petition of Larus & Brother Company, Incorporated is granted and that pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the said aplication is designated for hearing at 10:00 a. m. on December 4, 1950, at Washington, D. C., upon the following issues;

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of Station KSOO as proposed and the character of other broadcast service available to those areas and populations.

2. To determine whether the operation of Station KSOO as proposed would involve objectionable interference with Station WRVA, Richmond, Virginia, or with any other existing United States broadcast stations and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations, and in particular to determine whether the proposed array at Station KSOO would have sufficient stability to afford constant protection to co-channel station WRVA, Richmond, Virginia.

3. To determine whether the operation of Station KSOO as proposed would involve objectionable interference with Station CJCJ, Calgary, Alberta, Canada, or with any other existing foreign broadcast stations and, if so, whether such interference would be in contravention of any international agreement or the Commission's rules and standards.

4. To determine whether the operation of Station KSOO as proposed would involve objectionable interference with the services proposed in any pending applications for broadcast facilities and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the installation and operation of Station KSOO as proposed would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

It is further ordered, That, Larus & Brother Company, Incorporated, licensee of Station WRVA, Richmond, Virginia, is made a party to the proceeding.

EAST PENN BROADCASTING CO. AND POTTSTOWN BROADCASTING CO.

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of David W. Jefferies and Joseph V. Lentini d/b as East Penn Broadcasting Company, Pottstown, Pennsylvania, Docket No. 9719, File No. BP-7626; Herbert Wolin, Ralph E. P. Mellon, Margaret Levine, Charles Kinzer Bentz, d/b as Pottstown Broadcasting Company, Pottstown, Pennsylvania, Docket No. 9720, File No. BP-7691; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications of David Jefferies and Joseph V. Lentini, d/b as East Penn Broadcasting Company, and Herbert Wolin et al., d/b as Pottstown Broadcasting Company, each requesting a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on frequency 1370 kc., with 1 kw. power, daytime only at Pottstown, Pennsylvania;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding commencing at 10:00 a. m. on December 7, 1950 at Washington, D. C., upon the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial and other qualifications of the applicant partnerships and partners to construct and operate the proposed stations.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of the proposed stations, and the character of other broadcast service available to such areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the operation of the proposed stations would involve objectionable interference with Station WAMS, Wilmington, Delaware or with any other existing broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the operation of the proposed stations would involve objectionable interference, each with the other, or with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed stations would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine on a comparative basis which, if either, of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted.

It is further ordered, That Wilmington Tri-State Broadcasting Company, Inc., licensee of Station WAMS, Wilmington, Delaware, is made a party to this proceeding.

ROCK CITY BROADCASTERS AND ROBERT HARVARD DYE

ORDER DESIGNATING APPLICATIONS FOR CONSOLIDATED HEARING ON STATED ISSUES

In re applications of M. Robert Feldman & Arthur S. Feldman d/b as Rock City Broadcasters, Little Falls, New York, Docket No. 9721, File No. BP-7578; Robert Harvard Dye, Herkimer, New York, Docket No. 9722, File No. BP-7692; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D. C., on the 27th day of June 1950;

The Commission having under consideration the above-entitled applications of M. Robert Feldman and Arthur S. Feldman d/b as Rock City Broadcasters requesting a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on frequency 1230 kc., with 100 watts power, unlimited time at Little Falls, New York, and Robert Harvard Dye requesting a construction permit for a new standard broadcast station to operate on frequency 1230 kc., with 100 watts power, unlimited time at Herkimer, New York;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309 (a) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the above applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding commencing at 10:00 a. m. on December 6, 1950, at Washington, D. C., upon the following issues:

1. To determine the legal, technical, financial and other qualifications of the applicant partnership and its partners and of the individual to construct and operate the proposed standard broadcast stations.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the operation of the proposed stations, and the character of other broadcast service available to such areas and populations.

3. To determine the type and character of program service proposed to be rendered and whether it would meet the requirements of the populations and areas proposed to be served.

4. To determine whether the operation of the proposed stations would involve objectionable interference with station WHUC, Hudson, New York, or with any other existing broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the operation of the proposed stations would involve objectionable interference, each with the other, or with the services proposed in any other pending applications for broadcast facilities, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other broadcast service to such areas and populations.

6. To determine whether the installation and operation of the proposed stations would be in compliance with the Commission's rules and Standards of Good Engineering Practice Concerning Standard Broadcast Stations.

7. To determine on a comparative basis which, if either, of the applications in this consolidated proceeding should be granted.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Strakoz and John T. Kearney, a partnership d/b as Colgren Broadcasting Company, licensee of Station WHUC, Hudson, New York, is made a party to this proceeding.

HOPE NATURAL GAS CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

JULY 5, 1950.

On May 9, 1950, Hope Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a West Virginia corporation having its principal place of business at Clarksburg, West Virginia, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural-gas transmission facilities, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as fully described in said application on file with the Commission and open to public inspection.

The Commission finds this proceeding is a proper one for disposition under the provisions of § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, applicant having requested that its application be heard under the shortened procedure provided by the aforesaid rule for non-contested proceedings, and no request to be heard, protest or petition having been filed subsequent to the giving of due notice of the filing of the application, including publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 19, 1950 (15 F. R. 3071).

The Commission orders:

(a) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing be held on July 21, 1950, at 9:30 a. m., e. d. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C., concerning the matters involved and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, forthwith dispose of the proceeding pursuant to § 1.32 (b) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(b) Interested State commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) of the said rules of practice and procedure.

EL PASO NATURAL GAS CO. AND EL PASO GAS TRANSPORTATION CORP.

ORDER INSTITUTING INVESTIGATION

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) El Paso Natural Gas Company, a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in El Paso, Texas, is engaged in the transportation of natural gas in interstate commerce and the sale of natural gas in interstate commerce for resale for ultimate public consumption for domestic, commercial, industrial and other uses by means of facilities which include a gas transmission pipeline system extending from and within the States of Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona to the Arizona-California border and is a natural-gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act.

(b) El Paso Gas Tranportation Corporation, a Delaware corporation with its principal place of business in El Paso, Texas, is a wholly owned subsidiary of El Paso Natural Gas Company and is engaged in the transportation of natural gas in interstate commerce for resale for ultimate public consumption for domestic, commercial, industrial and other uses by means of facilities which include a gas transmission pipeline extending from a point of interconnection on a main transmission pipeline of El Paso near the city limits of El Paso, Texas, into and through that city, and is a natural-gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act.

(c) On April 24, 1950, the Commission issued an order in Docket No. G-1380 suspending, pending hearing, proposed changes in rates filed by El Paso applicable to service for Southern California Gas Company and Southern Counties Gas Company of California.

(d) On the basis of data available to the Commission, it appears that the rates, charges, services and classifications for and in connection with the transportation and sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission and rules, regulations, practices and contracts relating thereto by El Paso Natural Gas Company and El Paso Gas Transportation Corporation may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper, in the public interest, and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act, that an investigation be instituted by the Federal Power Commission on its own motion into and concerning all rates, charges or classifications demanded, observed, charged or collected by El Paso Natural Gas Company and El Paso Gas Transportation Corporation for or in connection with any transportation or sale of natural gas, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, and any rules, regulations, practices or contracts affecting such rates, charges or classifications.

The Commission orders: An investigation of El Paso Natural Gas Company and El Paso Gas Transportation Corporation be and it hereby is instituted for the purpose of enabling the Commission (1) to determine with respect to the said El Paso Natural Gas Company and El Paso Gas Transportation Corporation whether in connection with any transportation or sale of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, any rates, charges or classifications demanded, observed, charged or collected, or any rules, regulations, practices or contracts affecting such rates, charges or classifications, are unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential; and (2) if the Commission, after hearing has been had, shall find that any such rates, charges, classifications, rules, regulations, practices or contracts are unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory or preferential, to determine and fix by appropriate order or orders just and reasonable rates, charges, classifications, rules, regulations, practices or contracts to be thereafter observed and in force.

Date of issuance: July 6, 1950.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 812-676]

AMERICAN ELECTRIC SECURITIES CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of July A. D. 1950.

Notice is hereby given that American Electric Securities Corporation (hereinafter referred to as "Applicant"), a registered investment company, has filed an application pursuant to subdivision (c) of Rule N-23C-1 for an order of the Commission under section 23 (c) (3) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 permitting the purchase by Applicant from the Office of Alien Property, Department of Justice, of 7,000 shares of Participating Preferred Stock of Applicant held by the Office of Alien Property, at a price of $2 per share.[1]

Applicant is a closed-end non-diversified investment company. It was organized in 1928 under the laws of the State of Delaware and is qualified as a foreign corporation in the State of New York. It has its principal place of business at 20 Pine Street, in the borough of Manhattan in the City of New York.

On June 26, 1950, Applicant received notice from the Office of Alien Property, Department of Justice, that such Department had available for sale 7,000 shares of Participating Preferred Stock of Applicant (seized from enemy aliens), and on the same day an offer of $2 per share for all of such shares was made by Applicant for such stock, the offer being subject to authorization of the purchase by this Commission, and subject also to withdrawal prior to receipt of such authorization in the event that prior thereto the securities markets do not remain relatively stable. The latter proviso was inserted because of the wide fluctuations in the market resulting from the Korean situation and which might conceivably reduce the value of such 7,000 shares of stock.

Applicant has issued and outstanding 138,000 shares of Participating Preferred Stock and 30,000 shares of Common stock. All shares have a par value of $1 per share. As at May 31, 1950, after giving effect to unrealized appreciation in the market value of the securities then owned by Applicant, the Participating Preferred Stock had an asset value of $3.75 per share, so that the purchase of such shares at the proposed price of $2 per share would represent a discount of $1.75 per share, or $12,250, from the asset value of such stock, and would result in a net increase of 9.8¢ per share in the asset value of each of the remaining 131,000 shares of Participating Preferred Stock. The Participating Preferred Stock has a priority on liquidation or dissolution of $5 per share plus accrued unpaid dividends. After giving effect to a dividend of 10¢ per share paid thus far in 1950, the dividend accruals on the Participating Preferred Stock will aggregate $1.50 per share at the end of June, 1950, so that the 7,000 shares would have an aggregate priority on dissolution of $45,500. Applicant urges that this priority would be entirely eliminated by the purchase of the 7,000 shares and should thereby shorten the time within which a plan of recapitalization leaving but one class of stock outstanding can be made acceptable to the holders of both classes of stock. Applicant had a surplus as of May 31, 1950, of $250,535.11 so that the purchase can be made from surplus without impairment of capital.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of the Commission for a detailed statement of the proposed transactions and the matters of fact and law asserted.

Notice is further given that an order granting the application may be issued by the Commission on or at any time after July 17, 1950, unless prior thereto a hearing upon the application is ordered by this Commission, as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act. Any interested person may submit to the Commission in writing, not later than July 15, 1950, at 5:30 p. m., his views or any additional facts bearing upon the application or the desirability of a hearing thereon, or a request to the Commission that a hearing be held thereon. Any such communication or request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington, D. C.

By the Commission.

[1] Rule N-23C-1, which was promulgated pursuant to section 23 (c) (3) of the act, permits a registered closed-end investment company to purchase its outstanding securities provided certain conditions with respect to the securities are met. Among other things, the rule, in effect, prohibits the purchase of a security which is entitled to cumulative dividends, if such dividends are in arrears. Since the Participating Preferred Stock which is the subject of the instant application is entitled to cumulative dividends and since such dividends are in arrears, Applicant cannot purchase its outstanding Participating Preferred Stock pursuant to the rule. Subdivision (c) of the Rule provides that a company may file an application with the Commission for an order under section 23 (c) (3) of the act permitting the purchase of any security of which it is the issuer which does not meet the conditions of the rule and which is not to be made pursuant to section 23 (c) (1) or (2) of the act.

AMERICAN GAS AND ELECTRIC CO. AND CITIZENS HEAT, LIGHT AND POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 6th day of July A. D. 1950.

Notice is hereby given that American Gas and Electric Company ("American Gas") and one of its utility subsidiaries, Citizens Heat, Light and Power Company ("Citizens"), have filed a joint application-declaration pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and have designated Rule U-45 of the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder as applicable to the proposed transactions which are summarized as follows:

American Gas proposes to make advances to Citizens on open account without interest from time to time prior to June 30, 1951, in an aggregate amount of not to exceed $300,000. Proceeds from the advances are proposed to be used to finance Citizens' construction program estimated at approximately $360,000 for the year 1950.

The application-declaration states that negotiations are now in progress for the disposition of the water properties of Citizens. When such disposition is effected, it is contemplated that the electric utility properties and facilities of Citizens will become a part of the properties and facilities of Indiana & Michigan Electric Company (which is also a subsidiary of American Gas) by merger or consolidation of the two companies or otherwise. At such time it is contemplated that the advances on open account proposed herein will be paid in full or otherwise terminated.

Applicant-declarant requests that the order herein issue as promptly as may be practicable and that such order become effective forthwith upon the issuance thereof.

Notice is further given that any interested person may not later than July 20, 1950, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matter, stating the nature of his interest, the reasons for such request and the issues, if any, of fact or law raised by said application-declaration which he desires to controvert, or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after July 20, 1950, at 5:30 p. m., e. d. s. t., said application-declaration, as filed or as amended, may be granted and permitted to become effective as provided by Rule U-23 of the rules and regulations promulgated under said act or the Commission may exempt such transactions as provided in Rule U-20 (a) and Rule U-100 thereof. All interested persons are referred to said application-declaration which is on file with this Commission for a statement of the transactions therein proposed.

By the Commission.

TITLE 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter I—Farm Credit Administration, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter A—Administrative Provisions

[Farm Credit Administration Order 514]

PART 4—PUBLIC INFORMATION

OFFICES AND EMPLOYEES OF FARM CREDIT ADMINISTRATION AND OF CORPORATIONS FUNCTIONING THEREUNDER

Paragraph (a) of § 4.1 of Title 6 of the Code of Federal Regulations is hereby amended by adding thereto three new subparagraphs, designated (6), (7) and (8), as follows:

§ 4.1 Officers and employees of Farm Credit Administration and of corporations functioning thereunder. (a) Except as specifically authorized by law or rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, no officer, employee, or agent of the Farm Credit Administration or of any corporation under its supervision and control:

• • • • •

(6) (i) Shall acquire, directly or indirectly (including acquisition by membership in syndicates), any part of the surface rights to any land which is owned by or mortgaged to any corporation which is under the supervision and control of the Farm Credit Administration, or which was thus owned or mortgaged at any time within the preceding 12 months, without obtaining the specific prior approval of the board of directors of such corporation (meaning the Federal land bank as agent in the case of the Federal Farm Mortgage Corporation) in addition to conforming with any other applicable regulations.

(ii) Shall acquire any outstanding mineral, oil, or gas interest in a tract of land where such interest is owned by a corporation which is under the supervision and control of the Farm Credit Administration or was owned by such a corporation at any time within the preceding 12 months: Provided, however, That this prohibition shall not apply to such acquisitions, in conformance with other applicable regulations, by an owner of all or an undivided part of the surface rights to such tract of land; nor to such acquisitions as are incident to surface right acquisitions under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

Exception: This subparagraph shall not apply to acquisitions by will or inheritance; nor to presidents and vice presidents of national farm loan associations and production credit associations.

(7) Shall participate directly or indirectly in any transaction concerning the purchase or sale of corporate stocks or bonds, commodities, or other property for speculative purposes if such action might tend to interfere with the proper and impartial performance of his duties or bring discredit upon the Farm Credit Administration or any corporation under its supervision and control. Employees are not prohibited by this subparagraph from making bone fide investments. When an employee is uncertain as to whether a contemplated transaction is prohibited by this subparagraph, he should consult his immediate superior.

(8) Shall at any time conduct himself in a manner which might cause embarrassment to or criticism of the Farm Credit Administration or any corporation under its supervision and control, or interfere with the efficient performance of his duties. [482]

Chapter IV—Production and Marketing Administration and Commodity Credit Corporation, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter C—Loans, Purchases, and Other Operations

[1950 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, Sup. 1, Wheat]

PART 601—GRAINS AND RELATED COMMODITIES

SUBPART—1950-CROP WHEAT LOAN AND PURCHASE AGREEMENT PROGRAM

A price support program has been announced for the 1950 crop of wheat. The 1950 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, 15 F. R. 3147, issued by the Commodity Credit Corporation and containing the general requirements with respect to price support operations for grains and related commodities produced in 1950, is supplemented as follows:

Sec.
601.571 Purpose.
601.572 Availability of price support.
601.573 Eligible wheat.
601.574 Warehouse receipts.
601.575 Determination of quantity.
601.576 Determination of quality.
601.577 Maturity of loans.
601.578 Support rates.
601.579 Storage allowance.

AUTHORITY: §§ 601.571 to 601.578 issued under sec. 4, 62 Stat. 1070, as amended; 15 U. S. C. Sup., 714b. Interpret or apply secs. 5, 62 Stat. 1072, Titles I, IV, Pub Law 439, 81st Cong.; 15 U. S. C. Sup., 714c.

§ 601.571 Purpose. This supplement states additional specific requirements which, together with the general requirements contained in the 1950 C. C. C. Grain Price Support Bulletin 1, and 1950 C. C. C. Wheat Bulletin A, as amended (14 F. R. 6328, 7701), apply to loans and purchase agreements under the 1950-Crop Wheat Price Support Program.

§ 601.572 Availability of price support.—(a) Method of support. Price support will be made available through nonrecourse farm-storage and warehouse-storage loans and through purchase agreements.

(b) Area. Farm-storage and warehouse-storage loans and purchase agreements will be available wherever wheat is grown in the continental United States except that farm-storage loans will not be available in areas where the PMA State committee determines that wheat cannot be safely stored on the farm.

(c) Where to apply. Application for price support should be made at the office of the PMA county committee which keeps the farm-program records for the farm.

(d) When to apply. Loans and purchase agreements will be available from the time of harvest through January 31, 1951, and the applicable documents must be signed by the producer and delivered to the county committee not later than such date.

(e) Eligible producer. An eligible producer shall be an individual, partnership, association, corporation, or other legal entity producing wheat in 1950 as landowner, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper: Provided, That such producer is in compliance with the 1950 wheat acreage allotment regulations (14 F. R. 4940) as determined in accordance with 1950 CCC Wheat Bulletin A, as amended.

§ 601.573 Eligible wheat. At the time the wheat is placed under loan or delivered under a purchase agreement, it must meet the following requirements:

(a) The wheat must have been produced in the continental United States in 1950 by an eligible producer on a farm on which the wheat acreage is within the wheat acreage allotment.

(b) The beneficial interest in the wheat must be in the person tendering the wheat for loan or for delivery under a purchase agreement, and must always have been in him, or must have been in him and a former producer whom he succeeded before the wheat was harvested.

(c) Such wheat must be:

(1) Wheat of any class grading No. 3 or better; or

(2) Wheat of any class grading No. 4 or No. 5 on the factor of "test weight" and/or because of containing "Durum" and/or "Red Durum" but otherwise grading No. 3 or better. (If the wheat is warehouse stored, the quality of the wheat must be evidenced by a statement on the warehouse receipt, the inspection certificate, or the supplemental certificate substantially as follows: "This wheat grades No. ------ because of ----------"); or

(3) Wheat of the class Mixed Wheat, consisting of mixtures of grades of eligible wheat as stated in subparagraphs (1) or (2) of this paragraph provided such mixtures are the natural products of the field.

(d) Wheat grading Tough, Weevily, or Ergoty, shall not be eligible.

(e) If offered as security for a farm-storage loan, the wheat must have been stored in the granary at least 30 days prior to its inspection for measurement, sampling, and sealing, unless otherwise approved by the PMA State committee.

§ 601.574 Warehouse receipts. Warehouse receipts, representing wheat in approved warehouse storage to be placed under loan or delivered under a purchase agreement, must meet the requirements below:

(a) Warehouse receipts must be issued in the name of the producer, must be properly endorsed in blank so as to vest title in the holder, and must be issued by an approved warehouse.

(b) Each warehouse receipt must set forth in its written terms that the wheat is insured for not less than market value against the hazards of fire, lightning, inherent explosion, windstorm, cyclone and tornado, or, in lieu of this statement, it must have stamped or printed thereon the word "Insured."

(c) Each warehouse receipt, or the warehouseman's supplemental certificate (in duplicate) properly identified with the warehouse receipt, must show the gross weight or bushels, grade, class, subclass, all grading factors set forth in the Official Grain Standards of the United States for Wheat, protein content (where determined by protein analysis or station average), degree or percentage of smut, garlic, and dockage, and must show whether the wheat arrived by rail, truck, or barge. The moisture content must also be shown except in the States of California, Idaho, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming. Where moisture content is required, but it is not customary for country warehousemen to determine the exact moisture percentage, a warehouse receipt representing wheat stored in a country warehouse will be accepted if the moisture content is not shown, provided the grade of wheat does not show the word "tough." In such cases the warehouseman will be responsible for delivering wheat which does not grade "tough" or "sample" due to moisture content. In the case of warehouse receipts issued for wheat delivered by rail or barge, the grading factors, classes and subclasses, protein content (where determined by protein analysis) on the warehouse receipt must agree with the in-bound weight and inspection certificates and the protein certificate for the car or barge as shown on the freight certificate.

(d) In the case of warehouse receipts issued for wheat delivered by rail or barge, the protein content, as determined by a recognized protein testing laboratory, must be shown on each warehouse receipt (or supplemental certificate accompanying the warehouse receipt) representing wheat of the subclasses of hard red spring and hard red winter and of the subclass hard white wheat, except that protein content need not be shown for the subclasses hard winter and yellow hard winter produced in States or areas tributary to markets where a showing of protein content is not customarily required.

(e) If the warehouse receipt states that the wheat is stored "identity preserved," the producer must execute a supplemental certificate and assume responsibility for the quantity and quality indicated thereon.

(f) A separate warehouse receipt must be submitted for each grade and subclass of wheat.

(g) The warehouse receipt may be subject to liens for warehouse charges only to the extent indicated in § 601.578 (d).

§ 601.575 Determination of quantity. The quantity of wheat placed under farm-storage loan may be determined either by weight or by measurement. The quantity of wheat placed under a warehouse-storage loan or delivered under a farm-storage loan or under a purchase agreement shall be determined by weight.

When the quantity is determined by weight, a bushel shall be 60 pounds of wheat free of dockage. In determining the quantity of sacked wheat by weight, a deduction of ¾ of a pound for each sack will be made.

When the quantity of wheat is determined by measurement, a bushel will be 1.25 cubic feet of wheat testing 60 pounds per bushel, and fractional pounds of tests weight per bushel will be disregarded. The quantity determined will be the following percentages of the quantity determined for 60 pound wheat:

For wheat testing	Percent
65 pounds or over	108
64 pounds or over, but less than 65 pounds	107
63 pounds or over, but less than 64 pounds	105
62 pounds or over, but less than 63 pounds	103
61 pounds or over, but less than 62 pounds	102
60 pounds or over, but less than 61 pounds	100
59 pounds or over, but less than 60 pounds	98
58 pounds or over, but less than 59 pounds	97
57 pounds or over, but less than 58 pounds	95
56 pounds or over, but less than 57 pounds	93
55 pounds or over, but less than 56 pounds	92
54 pounds or over, but less than 55 pounds	90
53 pounds or over, but less than 54 pounds	88
52 pounds or over, but less than 53 pounds	87
51 pounds or over, but less than 52 pounds	85
50 pounds or over, but less than 51 pounds	83

The percentage of dockage shall be determined and the weight of such dockage shall be deducted from the gross weight of the wheat in determining the net quantity available for loan or purchase.

§ 601.576 Determination of quality. The class, subclass, grade, grading factors, and all other quality factors shall be determined in accordance with the methods set forth in the Official Grain Standards of the United States for Wheat, whether or not such determinations are made on the basis of an official inspection.

In the States of California, Idaho, New Mexico, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, and Washington, the quantity of smut shall be stated in terms of half percent, whole percent, or whole and half percent, and the quantity of smut so determined in pounds shall be deducted from the weight of the wheat after deduction of dockage. Elsewhere the smut condition of the wheat shall be determined on a degree basis. Where applicable, the words "light smutty" or "smutty" shall be added to, and made a part of, the grade designation.

The garlic condition of the wheat shall be made a part of the grade designation by addition of the words "light garlicky" or the word "garlicky."

§ 601.577 Maturity of loans. Loans mature on demand but not later than April 30, 1951.

§ 601.578 Support rates. Loans will be made, and wheat delivered under purchase agreements will be purchased at the support rates set forth in this section.

For loan or purchase at the support rate shown in the above schedule, the wheat must have been shipped on a domestic interstate freight rate basis. On any wheat shipped at other than the domestic interstate freight rate, the support rate at the designated terminal market will be reduced by the difference between the freight paid (plus tax) and the domestic interstate freight rate (plus tax).

The foregoing schedule of support rates applies to wheat which has been shipped by rail or water from a country shipping point to one of the designated terminal markets, as evidenced by paid freight bills duly registered for transit privileges: Provided, That in the event the amount of paid-in freight is insufficient to guarantee the minimum proportional domestic interstate freight rate from the terminal market, there shall be deducted from the applicable terminal support rate the difference between the amount of freight actually paid in and the amount required to be paid in to guarantee outbound movement at the minimum proportional domestic interstate freight rate. The warehouse receipts must be accompanied by registered freight bills, or by (1) a statement as indicated below signed by the warehouseman, (2) a certificate of the warehouseman containing such information, or, (3) such form of certification as may be approved by CCC.

When shipped by rail or water and stored at any designated terminal market, wheat for which neither registered freight bills nor such freight certificates are presented to guarantee outbound movement at the minimum proportional domestic interstate freight rate, shall have a support rate equal to the terminal rate minus 8 cents per bushel.

For wheat received by truck and stored at any designated terminal market, the support rate shall be determined by making a deduction from the terminal rate as follows:

Terminal located in—	Amount of deduction (cents per bushel)
Area I: Arizona, California, Idaho, Minnesota, Montana, Nevada, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Washington, Utah	12½
Area II: Colorado, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, Wyoming, Wisconsin	13
Area III: Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana, Kentucky, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Vermont, Virginia, West Virginia	14
Area IV: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, New Mexico, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas	14

(b) Support rates for wheat in approved warehouse storage at other than designated terminal markets. (1) Except for the States designated in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the support rate for wheat stored in approved warehouses (other than those situated in the designated terminal markets) which is shipped by rail or water will be determined by deducting from the appropriate designated terminal market rate an amount equal to the transit balance, if any, (plus tax) of the through-freight rate from point of origin for such wheat to such terminal market: Provided, That in the case of wheat stored at any railroad transit point, taking a penalty by reason of out-of-line movement, or for any other reason, to the appropriate designated market, there shall be added to such transit balance an amount equal to any out-of-line costs or other costs incurred in storing wheat in such position.

The warehouse receipts, in addition to other required documents, must be accompanied by the original paid freight bills duly registered for transit privileges or, by a statement in the following form signed by the warehouseman, or by a warehouseman's supplemental certificate containing such information:

FREIGHT CERTIFICATE FOR OTHER THAN TERMINAL POINTS

(2) In the States of Delaware, Kentucky, Maryland, New York, New Jersey, North Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia and West Virginia, the PMA commodity office will, upon request of the county committee, determine the support rate for wheat stored in approved warehouses (except those situated at designated terminal markets) which was shipped by rail in the movement of natural market direction as approved by CCC, by adding to the county rate for the county from which the wheat was shipped an amount per bushel equal to the receiving and loading-out charges computed in accordance with the applicable rates of the Uniform Grain Storage Agreement for the 1950 crop and an amount equal to the transit value of the freight paid (plus tax) from points of origin to markets designated by CCC. The warehouse receipts must be accompanied by the original paid freight bills or certificates of the warehouseman and other required documents as set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. If the wheat is stored in approved warehouses located at transit points, taking a penalty by reason of backhaul, or out-of-line of natural market movements such penalty or other costs by reason of such movement, as determined by CCC, shall be deducted from the support rates as determined above.

(c) County support rates. Both farm-storage and country warehouse-storage loans will be made at the support rate established for the county in which the wheat is stored. Support rates per bushel on No. 1 dark hard winter, No. 1 hard winter, No. 1 red winter, No. 1 western red, No. 1 soft white, No. 1 white club, No. 1 western white, No. 1 hard white, No. 1 heavy dark northern spring, No. 1 heavy red spring, No. 1 hard amber durum, No. 1 amber durum and No. 1 durum, shall be as follows:

The applicable rate on a lot of wheat in Broadwater, Glacier, Jefferson, Lewis and Clark, Madison, and Silver Bow Counties shall be determined as follows:

1. Subtract all applicable discounts from the rate based on Minneapolis and from the rate based on Portland shown above.

2. If the lot of wheat contains 10 percent or more protein, add the applicable Minneapolis protein premium, if any, shown in the schedule of protein premiums to the rate based on Minneapolis; then add the applicable Portland protein premium from the same schedule to the rate based on Portland.

3. The applicable rate on the lot of wheat will be the highest as determined above.

(f) Track-loading. A track-loading payment of 2 cents per bushel will be made to the producer on wheat delivered to CCC on track at a country point.

(g) Settlement — (1) Farm-storage loans. In the case of wheat delivered to CCC from farm-storage under the loan program, settlement will be made at the applicable support rate for the approved point of delivery. The support rate will be for the grade and quality of the total quantity of wheat delivered.

If the wheat under farm-storage loan is, upon delivery, of a grade and/or quality for which no support rate has been established, the settlement value shall be the support rate established for the grade and/or quality of the wheat placed under loan, less the difference, if any, at the time of delivery, between the market price for the grade and/or quality placed under loan and the market price of the wheat delivered, as determined by CCC.

(2) Purchase agreement. Wheat delivered to CCC under a purchase agreement must meet the requirements of wheat eligible for loan. The purchase rate per bushel of eligible wheat will be the support rate established for the approved point of delivery.

§ 601.579 Storage allowance—(a) Warehouse-storage loans. CCC will assume accrued warehouse charges on wheat which is not redeemed by the producer.

(b) Farm-storage loans. A farm-storage payment of 7 cents per bushel will be made to the producer (1) on wheat delivered to CCC on or after April 30, 1951, or (2) on wheat delivered to CCC prior to April 30, 1951, pursuant to the demand by the President, CCC, for repayment of the loan, provided such demand for repayment is not due to any fraudulent representation on the part of the producer or the fact that the wheat was damaged, abandoned or otherwise impaired due to negligence on the part of the producer. If the wheat is delivered to CCC prior to April 30, 1951, upon request of the producer and with the approval of CCC, or in the case of loss assumed by CCC under the loan program, the storage payment will be as follows:

6 cents per bushel if delivered or loss occurs during month of April 1951.
5 cents per bushel if delivered or loss occurs during month of March 1951.
4 cents per bushel if delivered or loss occurs during month of February 1951.
3 cents per bushel if delivered or loss occurs during month of January 1951.
2 cents per bushel if delivered or loss occurs during month of December 1950.

Earned storage shall be computed as of the final date for delivery as specified in the delivery instructions issued to the producer by the county committee, or as of the date of loss assumed by CCC. No storage payment will be made if delivery of wheat is made or the loss occurs prior to December 1950.

No storage payment will be made on wheat delivered to CCC prior to April 30, 1951, pursuant to demand by CCC for the repayment of a loan if such demand for repayment is due to any fraudulent representation on the part of the producer or the fact that the wheat was damaged, threatened with damage, abandoned, or otherwise impaired.

(c) Purchase agreement. CCC will assume accrued warehouse charges on wheat in eligible warehouse-storage delivered to CCC, or make a payment of 7 cents per bushel to the producer on wheat in approved warehouse-storage if it is shown that all warehouse charges, except receiving charges, had been paid by the producer through April 30, 1951. A payment of 7 cents per bushel will be made to the producer on wheat delivered from other than approved warehouse-storage, pursuant to delivery instructions issued by the county committee.

Issued this 7th day of July 1950.

PROGRAM OPERATION

§ 672.101 Administration. The program will be carried out under the general supervision and direction of the President of CCC and in accordance with the bylaws of CCC through PMA. Prices of wool will be supported by means of purchases made through wool dealers and cooperative associations (such wool dealers and cooperative associations are hereinafter referred to as "handlers") who enter into agreements with CCC to purchase, store, handle, and sell wool for the account of CCC. Names of approved handlers may be obtained from the County PMA Committees and the Wool Division, Livestock Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C.

ELIGIBILITY

§ 672.102 Eligible persons. (a) Shorn wool will be purchased by CCC through shorn wool handlers from any grower, pool, country merchant or assembler (such country merchant or assembler is hereinafter referred to as "secondary handler"). A secondary handler shall be required to furnish a bond for $10,000 in such form and issued by such sureties as CCC may prescribe or approve, in order to be eligible to sell to CCC wool which he has purchased from growers.

(b) Pulled wool will be purchased through pulled wool handlers from pulleries or directly from pulleries having agreements with CCC.

§ 672.103 Eligible shorn wool. Eligible shorn wool shall be wool which meets the following requirements:

(a) The wool must be shorn from sheep or lambs raised in the continental United States and Territories.

(b) The wool must be free of all liens and encumbrances.

(c) The wool shall not have previously been purchased by CCC.

(d) The wool must be placed in a warehouse approved by CCC and must be offered for appraisal before March 1, 1951, and CCC must be notified within the time limits specified in § 672.108 of the owner's election to sell such wool to CCC.

(e) Wool received on consignment by a handler must have been received direct from the grower or from a secondary handler or pool which received it from the grower.

(f) Wool purchased by a handler or secondary handler must have been purchased direct from the grower.

(g) Wool purchased from growers by a secondary handler must be accompanied by a certificate of the secondary handler showing for each grower from whom such wool was purchased (1) the name of the grower, (2) the date of the purchase, (3) the net weight of wool purchased, and (4) the respective amounts paid or payable for such wool. The certificate must also contain a notation by the County PMA Committee for the county in which the secondary handler maintains his principal place of business that a copy of such certificate, showing also the addresses of the growers, has been filed with such county committee.

(h) In the case of wool which the handler has purchased from growers, the handler must have and maintain accurate records showing with respect to such wool, (1) the name and address of each grower from whom wool is purchased, (2) the date of purchase, (3) the net weight of wool purchased from each grower, and (4) the respective amounts paid for such wool.

(i) The entire lot or quantity of wool purchased from a grower by a handler or secondary handler must be sold to CCC if any part of such lot is sold to CCC.

(j) Wool purchased from growers by a handler or secondary handler must have been purchased in lots of not to exceed 3,000 pounds, except that this limitation shall not apply to California processing type wools, i. e., defective fall and eight months' wool, and defective lamb's wool, produced in California.

(k) Wool purchased from growers by a handler or secondary handler must not be commingled with wool received by the handler or secondary handler on consignment.

§ 672.104 Eligible pulled wool. Eligible pulled wool shall be wool which meets the following requirements:

(a) The wool must be removed from the skins of sheep or lambs raised in the continental United States and Territories.

(b) The wool must be free of all liens and encumbrances.

(c) The wool shall not have previously been purchased by CCC.

(d) The wool must be placed in a warehouse approved by CCC and must be offered for appraisal before March 1, 1951, and CCC must be notified within the time limits specified in § 672.108 of the owner's election to sell such wool to CCC.

(e) All wool must be received by the handler on consignment from the pullery which produced the wool and shall have been graded by or on behalf of the pullery in accordance with its usual custom. Unless otherwise approved by CCC, such wool shall be in lots of not less than 10,000 pounds of grease wool of the main grades (clear white and stained wools of 50's quality and above), in lots of not less than 5,000 pounds for grease wool of the other grades, and in lots of not less than 2,500 pounds of scoured and/or carbonized wool, irrespective of grade.

(f) The wool must be a part of the pullery's production.

(g) The pullery shall not have previously parted with title to such wool.

(h) The wool must be packed in new bags or bale covers or No. 1 used bags or bale covers that have been disinfested of moth eggs or larvae.

(i) The wool shall not consist of or contain samples left from wool sold in the open market, vat wool, machine wool, mohair, horse hair, sisal, improperly scoured wool, or any type of wool or foreign matter rejected by the Appraiser for purchase by CCC.

INELIGIBLE WOOL

§ 672.105 Liability. If a handler, secondary handler, or pullery sells to CCC, or purchases for the account of CCC, wool which is ineligible, the handler, secondary handler, or pullery, as the case may be, shall be liable to CCC for the amount of damages sustained by CCC as a result thereof. If the amount of the damages cannot be determined, such damages shall be computed at the following rates: (a) Shorn wool, seven (7) cents per pound of grease wool; (b) pulled wool, ten (10) cents per pound of grease wool, or fifteen (15) cents per pound of scoured or carbonized wool.

APPRAISALS

§ 672.106 Determination of appraisal value. Appraisals of shorn wool will only be made of grading lines aggregating at least 24,000 pounds or original bag lots consisting of at least 10 bags. Growers who have smaller quantities of shorn wool may have such wool appraised by delivering it to a handler with authorization to grade or group it with similar wool received from other growers, to form a lot of the required size. Appraisals of pulled wool will only be made of quantities not less than those specified in paragraph (e) of § 672.104. The appraisal value of wool offered to CCC under the program shall be based on the grade, length, type, and classification of the wool as determined by one or more Appraisers employed by the United States Department of Agriculture. The shrinkage shall be determined by the United States Department of Agriculture by the core-test method unless CCC authorizes the shrinkage to be determined on the basis of an inspection by the Appraiser. If CCC determines that any wool offered for appraisal should be graded, scoured or carbonized, it may require the wool to be graded, scoured or carbonized before the appraisal is made. All California processing type wools shall be scoured and/or carbonized before appraisal.

§ 672.107 Reappraisals. The determination of the appraisal value of the wool shall be subject to the right of a reappraisal upon written application to CCC by the person offering the wool to CCC for appraisal within 15 days after the date of the form reporting the appraisal results to the handler if, (a) such wool is available for reappraisal in the same warehouse and in the same quantity or state (i. e., grease, scoured or carbonized) as at the time of the original appraisal; and (b) the handler, in the case of shorn wool, is specifically authorized to act for all persons contributing to any graded line of wool on which a reappraisal is requested.

SALES TO CCC

§ 672.108 Notice of election to sell wool to CCC—(a) Time limits. CCC will purchase any eligible wool on the basis of the appraisal results, subject to the terms and conditions herein, if the wool remains in the same warehouse (unless removed with the specific written authorization of CCC) and in the same condition in which it was appraised and if CCC is notified of the owner's election to sell such wool to CCC by the dates specified below:

(1) Shorn wool (offered by a grower or a pool of growers) on which the form reporting the results of the appraisal or reappraisal is dated before December 1, 1950, at any time between the date of the form reporting the results of the appraisal or reappraisal and December 31, 1950.

(2) Shorn wool (offered by a grower or a pool of growers) on which the form reporting the results of the appraisal or reappraisal is dated on or after December 1, 1950, at any time within 30 days after the date of the form reporting the results of the appraisal or reappraisal except that CCC must, in any event, be notified of such election not later than March 31, 1951.

(3) Shorn wool (offered by a handler, secondary handler, or pool which purchased it from growers for resale to CCC) or pulled wool—at any time within 20 days after the date of the form reporting the results of the appraisal or reappraisal except that CCC must, in any event, be notified of such election not later than March 31, 1951.

(b) Date of notification. The date of the postmark recorded by the Post Office Department on the notification shall be deemed to be the date of notification to CCC. In cases where the notification is not mailed or the postmark is not recorded by the Post Office Department, the date on which the notification is received by CCC shall be deemed to be the date of notification to CCC.

§ 672.109 Risk of loss and responsibility for storage charges. CCC shall not be responsible for loss or damage to shorn wool, or for storage charges on shorn wool, prior to the time CCC is notified of the election of the grower, pool, secondary handler or handler, to sell such wool to CCC. CCC shall not be responsible for loss or damage to pulled wool, or for storage charges on pulled wool, prior to the time the purchase price is paid to the pullery.

WEIGHTS

§ 672.110 Determination of weights. All weights shall be taken by a responsible weighmaster, and the weight sheets shall be signed by the weighmaster and show the date on which the weights were taken.

§ 672.111 Grease wool—(a) Shorn. Shorn grease wool will be purchased by CCC on the basis of weights taken not earlier than 5 days before core samples are drawn, or the date scheduled by CCC for taking core samples, in the case of wool on which the shrinkage is determined by core test. In the case of wool on which the appraisal is completed without drawing core samples, the wool will be purchased by CCC on the basis of weights taken not earlier than 5 days before the date on which the wool is examined by the Appraiser. Wool received in a wet or damp condition shall not be commingled with other wool until it is properly dried and the commingling is authorized by the Appraiser.

(b) Pulled. Pulled grease wool will be purchased by CCC on the basis of weights taken not earlier than 5 days before and not later than 5 days after the date the core samples are drawn, or the date scheduled by CCC for taking core samples.

(c) Reappraised. In the event a reappraisal is made of grease wool (either shorn or pulled), CCC shall have the right to require that the purchase by CCC be made on the basis of the weight of such wool taken on or after the date on which core samples are drawn for the reappraisal.

§ 672.112 Scoured or carbonized wool. Scoured or carbonized wool (both shorn and pulled) will be purchased by CCC on the basis of the weights of bags or bales taken by the scouring mill promptly upon completion of the processing. (These are the weights customarily taken by the scouring mill for preparing the scouring or carbonizing report.)

PRICE

§ 672.113 Purchase price. The purchase price for wool that is sold to CCC shall be in accordance with the following schedule, grease, scoured, or carbonized basis, as the case may be (depending upon the state of the wool when appraised), less the applicable charges enumerated in §§ 672.116 to 672.120, except that, in the case of shorn wool purchased from growers by a handler or secondary handler, the purchase price shall not exceed the amount paid the growers for such wool. At the end of the program year, in the case of shorn wool purchased from growers by a handler or secondary handler, an adjustment shall be made with the handler, or secondary handler if the latter makes application therefor, as the case may be. Under such adjustment, the purchase price payable to the handler or the secondary handler, as the lesser of (a) the schedule price less applicable charges or (b) the amount paid growers for the wool, shall be determined on a program year basis. Except as otherwise indicated in the schedule, the prices are quoted on a clean content basis. In the case of wool purchased by CCC in the grease, the shrinkage as determined in accordance with § 672.106 shall be applied to the clean content price appearing in the schedule to arrive at the price applicable to the grease wool. If more than one grower, pool, or secondary handler has contributed to a line of shorn wool which is scoured or carbonized, the purchase price to be paid to them shall be prorated among them on the basis of the quantity of wool each has in the line and on the basis of the length, quality (grade), shrinkage, and extent of the defect in such wool as determined by the handler before scouring or carbonizing.

SCHEDULE OF PURCHASE VALUES FOR DOMESTIC SHORN WOOL FREE OF DEFECT

[Greasy, scoured, carbonized (all prices are sold Boston, Mass.), effective date, Apr. 1, 1950]

Scoured and Carbonized Wools

NOTE: Prices for scoured and/or carbonized wools shall be discounted 1 percent.

1. Scoured woolen type wools. Including Fed Lambs, except California processing type wools:

Class	Grade	Price per pound (scoured and/or carbonized)
		If unsorted	If sorted
1	60/64s and finer	$1.15	$1.19
2	60s	1.09	1.13
3	58/60s	1.05	1.09
4	58s	1.01	1.05
4A	56/58s	.97	1.01
5	50s	.94	.98
6	50/56s	.87	.91
7	48/46s and lower	.77	.81

2. Processing California type wools. A. 8 to 12 months only:

1	60/64s and finer	$1.13	$1.17
2	60s	1.09	1.13
3	58-60/64s	1.04	1.08
4	58s	.99	1.03
5	56/58s	.94	.98
5A	50/56s	.89	.93
5AA	48/46s and lower	.78	.82

B. For all other California processing wools: [1]

6	60/64s and finer	$1.03	$1.07
7	60s	1.01	1.05
8	58/60s	.97	1.01

10	56s	.87	.91
11	50/56s	.84	.88
12	48/46s and lower	.75	.79

[1] This group is primarily for mixed spring and fall wools. For strictly short fall and lambs wool, appraisers may deduct 5 cents to 25 cents from these prices.

3. The value of all other scoured and/or carbonized domestic shorn wool shall be determined by arriving at the proper classification (clean basis) plus the following amounts per pound:

	Grade	If unsorted	If sorted
(a)	60s and finer	9¢	13¢
(b)	56s to 58s	8¢	12¢
(c)	48s to 50s	7¢	11¢
(d)	36s to 46s	6¢	10¢

NOTE: Poorly scoured wools. A minimum discount of 2 cents and a maximum of 7 cents per scoured pound shall be made from the applicable appraisal price.

PART V

[Discounts (grease, scoured, or carbonized)]

Black Wool and Gray Wool (Grease). 1. Original bag: The discount shall be one-third of the grease appraisal price of the white wool. (Figure to the nearest half cent.) 2. Graded: The discount shall be one-third of the grease appraisal price of the comparable grade of white wool. (Figure to the nearest half cent.)

NOTE: If the fine and half blood, or the three eighths and quarter blood are thrown together, the discount shall be one-third of the average grease appraisal price of the comparable grades of white wool. (Figure to the nearest half cent.)

Scoured Black and Gray Wool. The discount shall be 30 cents per pound for 60s or finer, and 25 cents per pound for 58s or below, from the corresponding classification for good style, clear white wool. Where scoured wool contains occasional Black and Gray Locks, the discount shall be 1 cent to 10 cents per scoured pound, from the proper classification for good style, clear white wool.

Sisal or Binder Twine. The discount shall be 10 cents per pound, clean basis, for a lot or any part of a lot of greasy wool tied with sisal or binder twine. Grease or scoured wool containing sisal, binder twine, horse hair, mohair, karakul, or other foreign matter shall be discounted not less than 10 cents per clean or scoured pound, or rejected at the discretion of the appraisers.

Tender Wool. On tender or damaged grease wool the discount shall be 3 cents per pound to 25 cents per pound, clean basis, from the proper classification.

Cotted Wool. The discount for cotted wool shall be 5 cents per pound to 25 cents per pound, clean basis from the proper classification.

Stained Wool (Scoured or Grease). The discount on stained wools shall be from a minimum of 2 cents per pound, clean basis, for slightly stained, up to a maximum of 25 cents per pound, clean basis, for heavily stained.

Feed Lot Wools (Suitable for Combing). The discount shall be a minimum of 3 cents per pound, clean basis, from the proper classification, and a maximum of 7 cents per pound. Feed lot wools, woolen or worsted types, offered in the scoured state shall be appraised under part IV, par. 1.

Tags. On clips appraised in the original bags where all tags are not packed separately by the producer, the clip shall be discounted not to exceed 5 percent from the grease appraisal price as determined by the appraisal committee.

Untied Fleeces. Except in the case of Texas 8 months and Texas fall wool, all untied clips shall be discounted 2 cents per pound from the grease appraisal price.

Kempy Wool. Discounts up to 10 cents per clean pound shall be made from any wool in merchantable condition.

Navajo Type Wools. Scoured New Mexican, Arizona, or Colorado wools showing Kempy fiber and other Navajo characteristics shall be discounted a minimum of 5 cents and a maximum of 10 cents, clean basis or scoured, from the proper Territory classification.

Buck Wools. 1. Crossbred bucks, no discount. 2. The discount on fine bucks shall be a minimum of 3 cents and a maximum of 7 cents per pound, clean basis, off the comparable ewe wool classification.

Defective Wools. (a) Regardless of the State of origin all defective wools containing clover burrs, foxtail, or other vegetable defects, to a degree serious enough to require carbonizing shall be carbonized before appraisal and appraised under part IV.

(b) All defective wools not requiring carbonizing shall be discounted a minimum of 1 cent and a maximum of 10 cents per pound, clean basis or scoured.

NOTE: Wools containing an occasional hard burr are not subject to discount. This shall also apply to all shorn grease wools which are scoured prior to appraisal.

Scoured Paint and Tar Wool and Clips. Appraised at value determined by appraisers.

Karakul Fleece. Karakul shall be appraised at 20 cents sold Boston, regardless of the State of origin. Scoured Karakul shall be appraised at 45 cents sold Boston, regardless of origin.

Pan Handle, Oklahoma, and Kansas Wheat Field Wools. Shall be scoured before appraisal, and appraised under Part IV, paragraph 1. If in the opinion of the area appraiser the wool can be merchandised in the grease condition, it may be appraised under the proper classification.

PULLED WOOLS

Discounts

1. Short Wool. Pulled wools must be appraised as of the single length group which best represents the lot.

Tolerance: Greasy Pulled Wool. A tolerance of 10 percent of shorter length of staple of the same grade of greasy pulled wool will be allowed. The presence of over 10 percent of the shorter length will require that the lot be appraised at the shorter length price. Greasy pulled wool cannot be discounted for short staple in lieu of appraisal at a price applicable to a shorter length classification.

2. Low Wool. Pulled wools must be appraised as of the single grade classification (single count or split counts) as shown in the schedule, which best represents the lot. Appraisers will at their discretion, discount individual lots up to 5 cents per pound, clean basis or scoured, or make an appropriate reduction in grade classification to compensate for low wool.

3. Slight Tinge. Greasy or scoured pulled wool showing a slight tinge must be discounted 2 cents per pound, clean basis or scoured, from the prices for the comparable grade and class of choice or average to good wools.

4. Stained Wools. Greasy or scoured pulled wool showing stain must be discounted at least 3 cents and not more than 7 cents per pound, clean basis or scoured, from the price for the comparable grade and class of average to good wool.

5. Defective (Burry and/or Seedy Wools—A. Burry and/or Seedy Pulled Wool Not Requiring Carbonizing—(1) Burry and Seedy Greasy Pulled Wool. Shall be discounted a minimum of 10 cents, clean basis, from the price for the comparable grade and class of average to good clear wool. Appraisers will at their discretion make discounts greater than 10 cents, clean basis, or order burry and seedy greasy pulled wool scoured and carbonized before appraisal.

(2) Burry and Seedy Scoured Pulled Wool. Shall be discounted a minimum of 15 cents per scoured pound from the price for the comparable grade and class of average to good clear wool. Appraisers will at their discretion make discounts heavier than 15 cents, scoured, or order the wool carbonized before appraisal.

Greasy or Scoured Pulled Wool containing scattered burrs and/or seeds, but in quantities not sufficient to classify the wools as burry and seedy shall be discounted a minimum of 1 or a maximum of 2 cents per clean or scoured pound from the price for the comparable grade and class of average to good clear wool.

B. Burry and/or Seedy Wools Requiring Carbonizing. All pulled wools requiring carbonizing must be carbonized before appraisal.

NOTE: In addition to the discounts for Burry and Seedy wools, appropriate discounts shall be made for Short, Low, Stain, etc.

6. Poorly Scoured Wools. Poorly scoured pulled wool must be discounted not less than 2 cents per scoured pound and not more than 7 cents per scoured pound, from the price for the comparable grade and class of average to good wool, or rejected for purchase by CCC.

7. Tender Wool. For wool containing tender staple, the discount must be not less than 2 cents per pound, and not more than 7 cents per pound, clean basis or scoured, from the price for the comparable grade and class of average to good wool.

8. Depilatory. Will make no discount on normal amount of depilatory. Wool containing a heavy percentage of depilatory may be discounted not more than 3 percent from the price, clean basis or scoured, for the comparable grade and class of average to good wool. Figure to the nearest cent.

9. Damaged Scoured Wools. (Means dead wool, wool damaged by fire, salt or fresh water, and heat.) Will be discounted up to a maximum of 40 cents per pound, scoured, from the price for the comparable grade and class of average to good wool.

NOTE: If wool is appraised as Damaged Scoured Wool, no additional discount shall be taken for tender and color.

10. Scoured Pulled Wool Containing a Small Percentage of Gray Locks or Gray Fibers. Scoured pulled wools containing a small percentage of gray locks or gray fibers, but not sufficient in quantity to classify the wools as gray wools, shall be discounted not to exceed 20 cents per pound, scoured, from prices for the comparable grade and class of average to good wool.

11. Shank Wools or Eyebrows. Scoured black and gray wools containing shank wools or eyebrows shall be discounted not more than 10 cents per scoured pound from the price for the comparable grade and class of average to good wool, or, at the discretion of appraisers, shall be appraised under the Shank Wool classification, or rejected for purchase by CCC.

12. Epidermis. Greasy or scoured pulled wools containing epidermis shall be discounted up to 3 cents per clean or scoured pound from the price for the comparable grade and class of average to good wool.

13. Skin Pieces. Greasy or scoured pulled wool containing skin pieces shall be rejected for purchase by CCC.

14. Paint Clips and Tar Wool. Greasy or scoured pulled wools containing Paint Clips or Tar shall be appraised at a value determined by appraisers, or rejected for purchase by CCC.

Carbonized Pulled Wools

The value of carbonized pulled wool shall be the value such clear wool would have if scoured only.

ACCOUNT SALES

§ 672.114 Information on appraisal value. When the handler makes payment for wool that is sold to CCC, he shall transmit to the person entitled thereto an account sale. In cases where a single shipper's wool is appraised separately, such account sale shall be accompanied by a copy of the Appraisal Certificate. The handler shall show on the account sale the grade, shrinkage, weight, and appraisal value of each grade of such wool as shown by the Appraisal Certificate in the case of wool that has been grouped into lines.

§ 672.115 Limitation on charges by handler. In rendering account sales, the handler shall make no charges on wool that is sold to CCC other than the applicable charges enumerated in §§ 672.116 to 672.120, without the written approval of CCC, unless the charge is authorized in writing by the person entitled to the purchase price. This limitation, however, shall not be construed to prevent the handler, in making settlement with the grower, pool, or secondary handler for shorn wool sold to CCC, from withholding from the amount due such person for the wool, as determined in accordance with § 672.113, storage charges for any period before such wool is sold to CCC and a charge at one storage location, whenever the service is actually provided, for moving such wool by truck from railroad cars to the warehouse or for the use of trackside unloading facilities, provided that the charge for trucking or unloading shall not exceed the minimum published tariff or established charge for such service at the place where it is provided.

CHARGES

§ 672.116 Grading. Any wool for which the handler has provided grading shall be subject to a grading charge of not to exceed one cent (1¢) per pound of grease wool.

§ 672.117 Scouring and carbonizing. Any wool scoured or carbonized shall be subject to a charge in an amount not to exceed the actual scouring or carbonizing costs, including the cost of sorting the wool and transporting it from the warehouse to the scouring mills, and, if necessary, from the scouring mills to the place of storage.

§ 672.118 Freight. Applicable freight charges, which shall be based on the gross shipping weight, are set forth below. The Federal transportation tax should be included in computing freight charges.

(a) Shorn wool. In the case of shorn wool there shall be a freight charge, as follows:

(1) In the case of wool appraised in Boston, the minimum rail freight rate or rail and water freight rate, whichever was used, from the point from which freight charges are paid or payable by the handler, including the cost of applicable transit or concentration privileges.

(2) In the case of wool appraised outside Boston, except where transit privileges are available, the minimum rail freight rate or rail and water freight rate from point from which freight charges are paid or payable by the handler to the point of appraisal, whichever was used, plus minimum rail or rail and water freight from point of appraisal to Boston. Where transit privileges are available, the rate shall be the minimum through rail freight rate or rail and water freight rate from point from which freight charges are paid or payable by the handler to Boston plus the cost of the applicable transit or concentration privileges.

(3) In the case of wool shipped by water or where water rates are used in computing freight charge, there shall also be a charge to cover wharfage, and complete marine and war risk insurance.

(b) Pulled wool. In the case of pulled wool, if the wool is stored at a point from which the minimum applicable carload rail freight rate to Boston, Massachusetts, exceeds the minimum applicable carload rail freight rate from Chicago, Illinois, to Boston, Massachusetts, there shall be a charge for freight in an amount sufficient to defray the excess.

§ 672.119 Handling—(a) Shorn wool. Shorn wool shall be subject to a combined charge for handling, for country service, and for all services performed by the secondary handler or pool on wool received through a secondary handler or pool, at not to exceed the following rates:

(1) For wool received on consignment from growers by a handler or secondary handler, one and one-half (1½) cents per pound of grease wool, or three (3) cents per pound of scoured or carbonized wool, purchased by CCC in quantities of 5,000 pounds or more; or three and three-fourths (3¾) cents per pound of grease wool, or seven (7) cents per pound of scoured or carbonized wool, purchased by CCC in quantities of less than 5,000 pounds. The aggregate quantity of wool sold to CCC for the account of the individual grower or pool as one lot or shipment shall be used in determining the applicable handling rate.

(2) For wool purchased from growers by a handler, a secondary handler, or a pool, five (5) cents per pound of grease wool, or nine and one-half (9½) cents per pound of scoured or carbonized wool purchased by CCC.

Where the wool is received through a secondary handler or pool the division of the combined charge as between the handler and the secondary handler or pool shall be agreed upon by them.

(b) Pulled wool. Pulled wool will not be subject to a handling charge in determining the CCC purchase price for such wool. This shall not be construed, however, to prevent a handler, in making settlement with the pullery for wool that is sold to CCC, from deducting from the CCC purchase price a handling charge in the amount (not to exceed one and three-fourths (1¾) cents per pound) agreed upon between the handler and the pullery.

§ 672.120 Appraisal charges—(a) Amount. All wool appraised by CCC shall be subject to an appraisal charge of 4/10 cent per pound, in the case of grease wool, or 5/10 cent per pound, in the case of scoured or carbonized wool. In the event of a reappraisal which confirms the results of the original appraisal, the wool shall be subject to a reappraisal charge of 4/10 cent per pound, in the case of grease wool, or 5/10 cent per pound, in the case of scoured or carbonized wool, in addition to the charge made for the original appraisal. In the event of a reappraisal which does not confirm the results of the original appraisal, the appraisal value of the wool will be changed accordingly and no charge will be made by CCC for the reappraisal.

(b) Collection. If CCC is notified (as provided in § 672.108) that the wool will be sold to CCC, applicable appraisal and reappraisal charges will be collected by deducting such charges in computing the CCC purchase price for the wool. Otherwise, applicable appraisal and reappraisal charges shall be collected by the handler who requested the appraisal. On wool that is appraised but not sold to CCC, appraisal and applicable reappraisal charges become due and payable immediately if any part of the wool is sold to any person other than CCC or is removed from the approved warehouse (except with the specific written authorization of CCC), or if the wool becomes damaged or the appraisal value is otherwise altered, or upon expiration of the time specified in § 672.108 for notifying CCC of the owner's election to sell the wool to CCC.

GENERAL

§ 672.121 Contractual rights. Nothing herein shall change or affect the contractual rights and obligations under the wool handling agreements entered into by and between CCC and the handlers or pulleries.

§ 672.122 Inconsistent provisions. Terms and conditions in this bulletin with respect to the 1950 Wool Price Support Purchase Program supersede any inconsistent provisions in any prior bulletin, or amendment thereof.

Issued this 7th day of July 1950.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter IX—Production and Marketing Administration (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Plum Order 6, Amdt. 1]

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936; 14 F. R. 2684), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta Peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this regulation until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this regulation is based became available and the time when this regulation must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; and this amendment relieves restrictions on the handling of Wickson plums grown in the State of California.

Order, as amended. During the period beginning at 1:00 p. m., P. s. t., July 10, 1950, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., October 11, 1950, the provisions in paragraphs (b) (1) (i) and (b) (2) of § 936.375 (Plum Order 6, 15 F. R. 4073) shall read respectively as follows:

(b) Order. (1) • • •

(i) such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1 with a total tolerance of ten (10) percent for defects not considered serious damage in addition to the tolerances permitted for such grade; and

• • • • •

(2) During each day of the aforesaid period, however, any shipper may ship from any shipping point a quantity of such plums, by number of packages or containers, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 4 standard pack, as aforesaid, but are not of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack in a standard basket if said quantity does not exceed thirty-three and one-third (33⅓) percent of the number of the same type of packages or containers of plums which are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 4 standard pack, as aforesaid: Provided, That, in computing such quantity, three (3) California peach boxes (including other packages and containers of comparable capacity) shall be deemed to be the equivalent of two (2) standard 4-basket crates. The aforesaid 4 x 4 standard pack and 4 x 5 standard pack are defined more specifically in subparagraphs (4) and (5), respectively, of this paragraph.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed (1) as affecting or waiving any right or liability which has arisen or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may arise in connection with any provisions of said Plum Order 6, or (2) as releasing or extinguishing any violation of said Plum Order 6 which has occurred or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may occur.

(Sec. 5, 49 Stat. 753, as amended; 7 U. S. C. and Sup., 608c)

Order, as amended. During the period beginning at 1:00 p. m., P. s. t., July 10, 1950, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., October 1, 1950, the provisions in paragraph (b) (2) of § 936.378 (Plum Order 9, 15 F. R. 4075) shall read as follows:

(2) During each day of the aforesaid period, however, any shipper may ship from any shipping point a quantity of such plums, by number of packages or containers, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack, as aforesaid, but are not of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack in a standard basket if said quantity does not exceed fifty (50) percent of the number of the same type of packages or containers of plums which are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 4 x 5 standard pack, as aforesaid: Provided, That, in computing such quantity, three (3) California peach boxes (including other packages and containers of comparable capacity) shall be deemed to be the equivalent of two (2) standard 4-basket crates. The aforesaid 4 x 5 standard pack and 5 x 5 standard pack are defined more specifically in subparagraphs (4) and (5), respectively, of this paragraph.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed (1) as affecting or waiving any right or liability which has arisen or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may arise in connection with any provisions of said Plum Order 9, or (2) as releasing or extinguishing any violation of said Plum Order 9 which has occurred or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may occur.

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

REGULATION BY GRADES AND SIZES

§ 936.383 Plum Order 13—(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936; 14 F. R. 2684), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta Peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended, and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than July 14, 1950.

A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until July 6, 1950, recommendation as to the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums was made at the meeting of said committee on July 6, 1950, after consideration of all available information relative to the supply and demand conditions for such plums, at which time the recommendation and supporting information was submitted to the Department; shipments of the current crop of such plums are already being made, and this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 14, 1950, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1950, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Sugar plums unless:

(i) Such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1; and

(ii) The plums are, except to the extent otherwise specified in this paragraph, of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack in a standard basket.

(2) During each day of the aforesaid period, however, any shipper may ship from any shipping point a quantity of such plums, by number of packages or containers, which are of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack, as aforesaid, but are not of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 6 standard pack in a standard basket if said quantity does not exceed fifty (50) percent of the number of the same type of packages or containers of plums which are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack, as aforesaid: Provided, That, in computing such quantity, three (3) California peach boxes (including other packages and containers of comparable capacity) shall be deemed to be the equivalent of two (2) standard 4-basket crates. The aforesaid 5 x 5 standard pack and 5 x 6 standard pack are defined more specifically in subparagraphs (4) and (5), respectively, of this paragraph.

(3) If any shipper, during any two (2) consecutive days of the aforesaid period, ships from any shipping point less than the maximum allowable quantity of such plums that may be of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack, as aforesaid, the aggregate amount of the undershipment of such plums may be shipped by such shipper only from such shipping point during the next succeeding calendar day in addition to the quantity of such plums of a size smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 5 standard pack, as aforesaid, that such shipper could have shipped from such shipping point on such succeeding calendar day if there had been no undershipment during the two (2) preceding days.

(4) As used in this section, the aforesaid 5 x 5 standard pack is defined more specifically as follows: (i) At least thirty-five (35) percent, by count, of the plums contained in such pack measure not less than $1^{9}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; (ii) at least ninety-five (95) percent, by count, of the plums contained in such pack measure not less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and (iii) no plums contained in such pack measure less than $1^{5}/_{16}$ inches in diameter.

(5) As used in this section, the aforesaid 5 x 6 standard pack is defined more specifically as follows: (i) At least thirty-five (35) percent, by count, of the plums contained in such pack measure not less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; (ii) at least ninety-five (95) percent, by count, of the plums contained in such pack measure not less than $1^{5}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and (iii) no plums contained in such pack measure less than $1^{3}/_{16}$ inches in diameter.

(6) During the period set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, each shipper shall, prior to making each such shipment of plums, have the plums inspected by a duly authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, heretofore designated by the Plum Commodity Committee and hereby approved: Provided, That, in case the following conditions exist in connection with any such shipment:

(i) A written request for inspection is made to the Federal-State Inspection Service not later than 5:00 p. m. of the day before the fruit will be available for inspection;

(ii) The shipper designates in such request the date and hours when the fruit will be available for inspection; and

(iii) The Federal-State Inspection Service furnishes the shipper with a signed statement that it is not practicable, under such conditions, for the Federal-State Inspection Service to make the inspection within the necessary time;

the shipper, by submitting or causing to be submitted promptly such signed statement to the Plum Commodity Committee, may make the particular shipment without inspection, but such shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to such shipment.

(7) Terms used in the amended marketing agreement and order shall, when used in this section, have the same meanings as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; the terms "U. S. No. 1," "standard pack," "serious damage," and "diameter" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (fresh) 7 CFR 51.360; and the term "standard basket" shall have the same meaning as set forth in paragraph numbered 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., July 14, 1950, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., November 1, 1950, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Late Tragedy plums unless:

(i) Such plums grade at least U. S. No. 1 with a total tolerance of ten (10) percent for defects not considered serious damage in addition to the tolerances permitted for such grade: Provided, That, gum spots which do not cause serious damage shall not be considered a grade defect with respect to such grade; and

(ii) Such plums are of a size not smaller than a size that will pack a 5 x 6 standard pack in a standard basket. The aforesaid 5 x 6 standard pack is defined more specifically in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(2) As used in this section, the aforesaid 5 x 6 standard pack is defined more specifically as follows: (i) At least thirty-five (35) percent, by count, of the plums contained in such pack measure not less than $1^{7}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; (ii) at least ninety-five (95) percent, by count, of the plums contained in such pack measure not less than $1^{5}/_{16}$ inches in diameter; and (iii) no plums contained in such pack measure less than $1^{3}/_{16}$ inches in diameter.

(3) During the period set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, each shipper shall, prior to making each such shipment of plums, have the plums inspected by a duly authorized representative of the Federal-State Inspection Service, heretofore designated by the Plum Commodity Committee and hereby approved: Provided, That, in case the following conditions exist in connection with any such shipment:

TITLE 8—ALIENS AND NATIONALITY

Chapter I—Immigration and Naturalization Service, Department of Justice

Subchapter B—Immigration Regulations

PART 105—HEAD TAX

PART 129—ADMISSION AND DEPORTATION OF ALIENS ENTERING THE UNITED STATES UNDER THE DISPLACED PERSONS ACT OF 1948, AS AMENDED

PART 171—DISPLACED PERSONS RESIDING IN THE UNITED STATES

ADMISSION, DEPORTATION, AND ADJUSTMENT OF STATUS OF DISPLACED PERSONS

JUNE 21, 1950.

The following amendments to Chapter I, Title 8 of the Code of Federal Regulations, are hereby prescribed:

PART 105—HEAD TAX

Section 105.3, Aliens not subject to head tax, is amended by adding paragraph (r) as follows:

(r) Eligible displaced persons, eligible displaced orphans, and persons of German ethnic origin. Eligible displaced persons, eligible displaced orphans, and persons of German ethnic origin as defined by sections 2 (c), 2 (d), 2 (e), 2 (g), and 12 (a) of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended.

(Sec. 23, 39 Stat. 892, sec. 24, 43 Stat. 166, sec 37, 54 Stat. 675; 8 U. S. C. 102, 222, 458. Interpret or apply sec. 5, 62 Stat. 1011, as amended; 50 U. S. C. App. Supp., 1954)

PART 129—ADMISSION AND DEPORTATION OF ALIENS ENTERING THE UNITED STATES UNDER THE DISPLACED PERSONS ACT OF 1948, AS AMENDED

The following part is added:

Sec.
129.1 Examination by immigration officers.
129.2 Evidence of support; likelihood of becoming public charge.
129.3 Affidavit upon arrival.
129.4 Effect of misrepresentations.
129.5 Deportation.

AUTHORITY: §§ 129.1 to 129.5 issued under sec. 23, 39 Stat. 892, sec. 24, 43 Stat. 166, sec. 37, 54 Stat. 675; 8 U. S. C. 102, 222, 458. Interpret or apply sec. 3, 39 Stat. 875, 41 Stat. 891, 45 Stat. 1551, 58 Stat. 746, sec. 21, 39 Stat. 891, secs. 3, 6, 10, 13, as amended, 64 Stat. 1009, as amended; 8 U. S. C. 136, 158; 50 U. S. C. App. Supp., 1951.

§ 129.1 Examination by immigration officers. An applicant for admission to the United States for permanent residence under the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended (62 Stat. 1009, 50 U. S. C. App. 1951-1963, Pub. Law 555, 81st Cong.), who does not appear to the examining immigrant inspector to be clearly and beyond a doubt entitled to land in the United States under the provisions of the immigration laws and eligible for admission under the terms of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, shall be detained for examination in relation thereto by a board of special inquiry. In determining whether an applicant has the eligibility qualifications specified in the applicable provisions of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, the certification and report of the Displaced Persons Commission prepared pursuant to section 10 of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, shall be accepted as establishing, in the absence of specific knowledge or substantial belief showing ineligibility, that the applicant is qualified to enter the United States under the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, except insofar as such report relates to requirements for admission under the general immigration laws. Such certification and report shall not preclude full inquiry by immigration officers concerning the applicant's admissibility under the general immigration laws. In addition, such certification and report shall not preclude, when the immigration officer has specific knowledge or substantial belief showing ineligibility under the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, any interrogation of the applicant or of other persons, or any investigation or the consideration of any other evidence deemed necessary in order that the applicant's admissibility under the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, may be determined, and any such additional evidence may also be considered in the determination of his admissibility.

§ 129.2 Evidence of support; likelihood of becoming public charge. An applicant for admission to the United States for whom assurances of employment, housing and against his becoming a public charge have been furnished pursuant to the provisions of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, shall not be required to submit any affidavit or other evidence of support. However, such an applicant shall also be required to establish, in conformity with the requirements of the general immigration laws of the United States, that he is not likely to become a public charge, and, in appropriate cases, he may be required to furnish a public-charge bond as specified in §§ 110.20 and 110.21 of this chapter.

§ 129.3 Affidavit upon arrival. Any alien 18 years of age or older applying at a port of entry for admission into the United States under the provisions of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, shall be required to subscribe to Form I-144, in which he shall declare under oath or affirmation that he is not and has never been a member of the Communist Party of any country; that he does not adhere to, advocate, or follow, and that he never has adhered to, advocated, or followed the principles of any political or economic system or philosophy directed toward the destruction of free competitive enterprise and the revolutionary overthrow of representative governments; that he is not and has never been a member of any organization which is named in a list on Form I-144a, attached to the said Form I-144, and which has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States as a Communist organization; that he is not and has never been a member of or participated in any movement which is or has been hostile to the United States or the form of government of the United States; that he has never advocated or assisted in the persecution of any person because of race, religion, or national origin; and that he has not voluntarily borne arms against the United States during World War II. Any alien who refuses to subscribe to the said Form I-144 under oath or affirmation, or who subscribes to such form under oath or affirmation knowing any part thereof to be false, shall be excluded and deported from the United States in the manner provided by law. In addition he shall be liable to prosecution for perjury if such oath or affirmation is wilfully false.

§ 129.4 Effect of misrepresentations. (a) An applicant seeking admission as an eligible displaced person as that term is defined in section 2 (c), (d), and (g) of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, shall be excluded and deported from the United States if he has ever wilfully made a misrepresentation for the purpose of gaining admission into the United States as an eligible displaced person. As used in this part, the term "misrepresentation for the purpose of gaining admission into the United States" shall mean a wilful misrepresentation, oral or written, made by any such applicant to any person while he is charged with the enforcement or administration of any part of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as originally enacted or as amended, of any matter material to the applicant's eligibility for any of the benefits of the said act, as originally enacted or as amended.

(b) An alien whose admission under the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, is based on the submission of an assurance of suitable employment, shall be deemed to have made a misrepresentation for the purpose of gaining admission into the United States if it is found that the applicant's statement required by section 6 of that act, relating to the acceptance in good faith of employment, was falsely made.

§ 129.5 Deportation. In addition to the other grounds for deportation specified in the general immigration laws, an alien admitted to the United States under the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, shall be subject to arrest and deportation in the manner provided in Parts 150, 151, and 152 of this chapter, irrespective of the date of his entry, if it is found, on the basis of evidence presented at a hearing:

(a) That he falsely represented, in his signed statement under oath or affirmation executed under section 6 of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, that he accepted and agreed in good faith to abide by the terms of employment provided for him in the assurance upon which his application for a visa under the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, was based: Provided, That in determining whether such a false representation was made consideration shall be given to the manner, conditions, extent, and duration of such alien's employment following his admission to the United States and to other relevant evidence;

(b) That he made any misrepresentation for the purpose of gaining admission into the United States as an eligible displaced person;

(c) That he was not entitled to a visa because of membership in any of the organizations or movements referred to in § 129.3; or

(d) That at the time of his entry into the United States he was otherwise inadmissible under the provisions of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended.

PART 171—DISPLACED PERSONS RESIDING IN THE UNITED STATES

1. Section 171.1 is amended to read as follows:

§ 171.1 Eligibility for adjustment of status—(a) Qualifications. Subject to the limitation described in paragraph (b) of this section, an alien is eligible to be considered for adjustment of his immigration status as a displaced person residing in the United States to that of a permanent resident under the provisions of section 4 of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended (62 Stat. 1011, 50 U. S. C. App. 1953, Pub. Law 555, 81st Cong.), if:

(1) The entry upon which his residence in the United States is based occurred prior to April 30, 1949, and was a lawful one as a nonimmigrant under section 3 or as a nonquota immigrant student under subdivision (e) of section 4 of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended; and

(2) He was in the United States on April 30, 1949, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section; and

(3) He is presently admissible to the United States under the immigration laws; and

(4) He is a person displaced from the country of his birth or nationality, or of his last residence as a result of hostile military action, or persecution or fear of persecution on account of race, religion, or political opinions, occurring subsequent to the outbreak on September 1, 1939, of World War II: and

(5) He cannot return to any of such countries because of persecution or fear of persecution on account of race, religion, or political opinions; and

(6) He has been of good moral character for the preceding five years; and

(7) He has filed his application described in § 171.2 on or before June 16, 1952, and while he is in the United States.

(b) Limitation. The number of displaced persons who shall be granted the status of permanent residence pursuant to this section shall not exceed 15,000.

(c) Temporary absence. An applicant shall not be considered ineligible for adjustment of his status under this part solely by reason of—

(1) A temporary absence from the United States on April 30, 1949, provided that his entry upon returning is a lawful one as a nonimmigrant under section 3 or as a nonquota immigrant student under subdivision (e) of section 4 of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended; that he has not abandoned his residence in the United States during such absence, and that such temporary absence was occasioned by one or more of the following special circumstances:

(i) The duties of applicant's employment, which required him to travel outside the United States;

(ii) The serious illness of the applicant;

(iii) The death or serious illness of a relative;

(iv) The protection, recovery or liquidation of property interests or the prosecution or defense of any claim or lawsuit;

(v) Any other exceptional circumstances which are found by the Attorney General to have justified such temporary absence;

(vi) The temporary absence to accompany a member of the applicant's family group whose absence was attributable to any of the special circumstances specified in subdivision (i) to (v) of this subparagraph; or

(2) A temporary absence from the United States commencing after April 30, 1949, provided that his entry upon returning is a lawful one as a nonimmigrant under section 3 or as a nonquota immigrant student under subdivision (e) of section 4 of the Immigration Act of 1924, as amended, and that he has not abandoned his residence in the United States during his temporary absence.

2. The second sentence of § 171.2, Application for adjustment of status, is amended to read as follows: "After Form I-500 is filled out, it shall be mailed by the applicant in duplicate direct to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization, Temporary Federal Office Building X, Nineteenth and East Capitol Streets NE., Washington 25, D. C."

3. Paragraph (b) of § 171.3, Receipt of application by Commissioner, is amended to read as follows:

(b) Transmission of application to field office. Verification of the applicant's last entry into the United States prior to April 30, 1949, and any entries subsequent thereto shall be made from Central Office records where possible and endorsed upon the original and duplicate applications. The Commissioner shall send the duplicate copy of the application to the Immigration and Naturalization Service office having jurisdiction over the applicant's place of residence.

4. Section 171.4 is amended to read as follows:

§ 171.4 Documents and investigation. Upon receipt of the duplicate copy of the application, the officer in charge of the Immigration and Naturalization Service office having jurisdiction over the applicant's place of residence shall advise the applicant to obtain promptly the following documents: Two photographs as described in § 364.1 of this chapter; birth certificate; passport; marriage certificate, if any; affidavits of three witnesses, preferably citizens of the United States—and if the applicant is employed, one from his employer—attesting to the applicant's good moral character; police records covering the period of the applicant's residence in the United States and, where such residence in the United States has been for a period of less than five years, foreign police records, if obtainable, covering the applicant's foreign residence within the five years immediately preceding the filing of the Form I-500; and any documentary evidence the applicant may have to establish his eligibility under § 171.1. The applicant shall be instructed to forward to the officer in charge photostatic copies of all documents, whenever possible, and to submit the originals at the time he appears for the hearing. The officer in charge shall obtain verification of the applicant's last entry into the United States prior to April 30, 1949, and any entries subsequent thereto where such verification has not been furnished by the Central Office when transmitting the duplicate application. The officer in charge shall also cause an independent character investigation to be conducted covering the period of the applicant's residence in the United States. Where the applicant has resided in the United States for a period in excess of five years, the independent character investigation shall cover the last five years of such residence. The investigating officer shall make a written report of his investigation, to be included in the record as provided in § 171.5 (d) (2).

5. The first sentence of § 171.5 (a) is amended by deleting the words "entry has" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "entries have", so that the sentence will read: "When the necessary entries have been verified and the documents required of the applicant and the report of the investigating officer have been submitted, the applicant shall be notified to appear for a hearing at a time and place to be designated by the officer in charge."

6. The third sentence of subparagraph (2) of § 171.5 (d) is amended by deleting the word "entry" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "entries", so that the sentence will read: "The examining officer shall enter of record, as exhibits identified by number, the copy of the application; the documents presented by the applicant; depositions, if any; certifications and affidavits submitted by the applicant; the written report of the investigation, and the reports as to record of applicant's entries and of the entries of such other persons as may be material to the case."

7. Subparagraph (3) of § 171.5 (d) is amended to read as follows:

(3) The applicant shall then be interrogated under oath or affirmation as to his eligibility to be considered for adjustment of immigration status as a displaced person residing in the United States under the provisions of section 4 of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948, as amended, and § 171.1. Eligibility of the applicant as to subparagraphs (4) and (5) of paragraph (a) of § 171.1 shall be comprehensively covered by oral interrogation of the applicant and of the witnesses presented by him, if any.

8. The first sentence of § 171.6, Evidence and burden of proof, is amended by inserting after "Displaced Persons Act of 1948" the following: ", as amended,".

This order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The amendatory regulations prescribed by the order are necessary for carrying out the various amendments to the Displaced Persons Act of 1948 made by Public Law 555, 81st Congress, which was approved on June 16, 1950, and which became effective on that date. Compliance with the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 238; 5 U. S. C. 1003) relative to notice and delayed effective date is impracticable and contrary to the public interest in this instance, since such compliance would unduly delay and impede the administration and enforcement of the Displaced Persons Act of 1948 as amended by the said Public Law 555.

(Sec. 23, 39 Stat. 892, sec. 24, 43 Stat. 166, sec. 37, 54 Stat. 675; 8 U. S. C. 102, 222, 458)

Acting Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization.

TITLE 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Bureau of Animal Industry, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter A—Meat Inspection Regulations

PART 14—TANKING AND DENATURING CONDEMNED CARCASSES AND PARTS

INEDIBLE RENDERED FATS

On June 1, 1950, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (15 F. R. 3416), a notice of proposed amendments of Part 14 of the regulations governing the meat inspection of the United States Department of Agriculture (9 CFR, Chapter I, Subchapter A, Part 14). After due consideration of all relevant matters presented and pursuant to the authority conferred upon me by the Meat Inspection Act, as amended (21 U. S. C. 71-91), the aforesaid Part 14 is hereby amended as follows:

1. Section 14.2 is amended to read as follows:

§ 14.2 Inedible rendered fats. Rendered animal fat derived from inedible or condemned materials and possessing the physical characteristics of color, odor, and taste of an edible product shall be denatured to effectually distinguish it from an edible product either with low grade offal during the rendering or by adding to, and mixing thoroughly with, such fat denaturing oil, number 2 fuel oil, or brucine dissolved in a mixture of alcohol and pine oil or oil of rosemary.

2. Section 14.3 is revoked.

The foregoing amendments shall be effective upon their publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER since they relieve restrictions and may properly be made effective under section 4 (c) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003 (c)) less than thirty days after their publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Ch. 2907, 34 Stat. 1264, sec. 306, 46 Stat. 689; 19 U. S. C. 1306, 21 U. S. C. 89)

Done at Washington, D. C., this 10th day of July 1950. Witness my hand and seal of the United States Department of Agriculture.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,
Secretary of Agriculture.

TITLE 16—COMMERCIAL PRACTICES

Chapter I—Federal Trade Commission

[Docket No. 5648]

PART 3—DIGEST OF CEASE AND DESIST ORDERS

NATIONAL TEA CO.

Subpart—Discriminating in price under sec. 2, Clayton Act, as amended—Knowingly Inducing or Receiving Discriminating Price under 2 (f): § 3.830 Inducing and receiving discriminations. In or in connection with the purchase of food products or other items of merchandise in commerce, knowingly inducing or receiving from any manufacturer or seller, by or through the use of any profit-sharing plan, or otherwise, any discount, rebate or other allowance higher than, or any price lower than, that allowed by such manufacturer or seller to competitors of said respondent; prohibited, subject to the provision, however that the foregoing shall not be construed to preclude the respondent from defending any alleged violation of the order by showing that any higher discount, rebate or other allowance, or any lower price, knowingly induced or received by it, was one available to said respondent's competitors who were customers of the manufacturer or seller upon openly announced prices of such manufacturer or seller; prohibited.

[Cease and Desist Order, National Tea Company Docket 5648, May 15, 1950] (Sec. 6, 38 Stat. 722; 15 U. S. C. 46. Interprets or applies sec. 5, 38 Stat. 719, as amended; 15 U. S. C. 45)

In the Matter of National Tea Company, a Corporation, and National Tea Company-Standard Grocery Division, a Corporation

This proceeding having been heard by the Federal Trade Commission upon the complaint of the Commission and the substitute answer of the respondent, National Tea Company, in which answer said respondent admitted all of the material allegations of fact set forth in the complaint and waived all intervening procedure and further hearing as to said facts; and the Commission having made its findings as to the facts and its conclusion that the respondent has violated sub-section (f) of section 2 of an act of Congress entitled "An Act to supplement existing laws against unlawful restraints and monopolies, and for other purposes", approved October 15, 1914 (the Clayton Act), as amended by the Robinson-Patman Act, approved June 19, 1936 (15 U. S. C., sec. 13):

It is ordered, That the respondent, National Tea Company, a corporation, and its officers, agents, representatives and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in or in connection with the purchase of food products or other items of merchandise in commerce, as "commerce" is defined in the aforesaid Clayton Act, do forthwith cease and desist from:

Knowingly inducing or receiving from any manufacturer or seller, by or through the use of any profit-sharing plan, or otherwise, any discount, rebate or other allowance higher than, or any price lower than, that allowed by such manufacturer or seller to competitors of said respondent: Provided, however, That the foregoing shall not be construed to preclude the respondent from defending any alleged violation of this order by showing that any higher discount, rebate or other allowance, or any lower price, knowingly induced or received by it, was one available to said respondent's competitors who were customers of the manufacturer or seller upon openly announced prices of such manufacturer or seller.

It is further ordered, That for reasons appearing in the Commission's findings as to the facts in this proceeding, that the complaint herein be, and it hereby is, dismissed as to National Tea Company, Standard Grocery Division.

It is further ordered, That the respondent, National Tea Company, shall, within sixty (60) days after service upon it of a copy of this order, file with the Commission a report in writing setting forth in detail the manner and form in which it has complied with this order.

Issued: May 15, 1950.

By the Commission.

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter I—Commodity Exchange Authority (Including Commodity Exchange Commission), Department of Agriculture

PART 1—GENERAL REGULATIONS UNDER THE COMMODITY EXCHANGE ACT

RECORD KEEPING REQUIREMENT

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture under the Commodity Exchange Act, as amended (7 U. S. C. 1-17a), § 1.31, Part 1, Chapter I, Title 17, Code of Federal Regulations (17 CFR 1.31), is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 1.31 Books and records; keeping and inspection. All books and records required to be kept by the act or by the rules and regulations in this chapter, shall be kept for a period of five years from the date thereof and shall be readily accessible during the first two years of such period. During the last two years of such period, the person required to keep such books and records may at his option substitute photographic reproductions thereof on film, together with facilities for the projection of such film in a manner which will permit it to be readily inspected or examined. All such books, records, and photographic reproductions shall be open to inspection by any representative of the United States Department of Agriculture or the United States Department of Justice.

This amendment will permit the substitution of microfilm records during the last two years of the five-year period prescribed for the keeping of books and records. Since the amendment will operate to relieve or liberalize a restriction and will not adversely affect the public, it is hereby found that notice and public procedure under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) are unnecessary, and that the amendment should be made effective within less than thirty days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

This amendment shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Sec. 8a, as added by sec. 10, 49 Stat. 1500; 7 U. S. C. 12a. Interprets or applies secs. 4, 5, 42 Stat. 999, 1000, secs. 4g, 4i, 5a, as added by secs. 5, 7, 49 Stat. 1496, 1497; 7 U. S. C. 6, 7, 6g, 6i, 7a)

Issued this 10th day of July 1950.

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine

[7 CFR, Part 319]

NURSERY STOCK, PLANTS, AND SEEDS

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given under section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) that the Secretary of Agriculture, pursuant to sections 1, 5, and 7 of the Plant Quarantine Act of 1912, as amended (7 U. S. C. 154, 159, 160), is considering the issuance of amendments, as hereinafter proposed, of notice of quarantine No. 37 and supplementary regulations, as amended (7 CFR 319.37 to 319.37-25, inclusive, as amended; 14 F. R. 1169, 5707; 15 F. R. 1585, 2100),

The proposed amendments are as follows:

(a) In the following items, now included in the list of prohibited plant material appearing in § 319.37 (b), additions, deletions, and substitutions are proposed as indicated:

(1) Insert as a footnote relating to the column heading "Plant Material" the following: "The term 'spp.', as used after a generic name in this subpart, includes all species, varieties, and hybrids of the genus. Unless otherwise specifically indicated, all items of plant material appearing in this subpart refer to the plants as well as all vegetative parts thereof, including buds, cuttings, scions, and layers, but seeds are not included unless specifically mentioned."

(2) Delete the present language in the item now appearing as "Berberis spp. (plants of all species not known to be immune or resistant to stem rust)" from "All foreign countries" because of "Puccinia graminis Pers. (Black-stem rust)", and substitute therefor, in the respective columns, the following two items:

Berberis spp. (plants of all species and horticultural varieties not designated as resistant to black-stem rust in accordance with 7 CFR 301.38-5 (14 F. R. 999) or amendments thereof.	All foreign countries	Puccinia graminis Pers. (Black-stem rust)
